Rec Group Goes For $250,000 Loan

The new Castro County Recreation Association has asked approval of a loan of more than $250,000 to turn its plan for a county recreation center into a reality.

The association applied last Thursday to the Farmers Home Administration for a temporary approval of a loan to (1) purchase 170 acres of the O. K. Howa property adjoining Dimmitt on the west, and (2) to construct a club AAU swimming pool, surface lake and skeet range.

As its own qualifying share, the steering committee put up $30,200 already pledged or paid by 302 charter members.

Temporary approval of the loan would release the association's steering committee to go ahead with engineering on the center and organize the association as a non-profit corporation.

Dr. James Wohlgenuth, chairman of the steering committee, said the present schedule calls for having the center ready to open by June 1967.

"We've been told it will be four to five weeks before we will hear anything on our application for the loan," Dr. Wohlgenuth said. "After the temporary approval, it would take three or four more weeks to work up the specifications on the center, form our corporation and elect officers.

"Then we would need to send all this information back through the Farmers Home Administration for final approval, and that would require another three or four weeks," he added. "We think that by the first part of November we can call for bids on the construction."

"We hope to start building the center about the first of the year, and we're estimating 180 days' construction time on everything but the golf course — it will take a summer of growing time for that to be ready," he explained.

Preliminary plans call for a block-and-brick clubhouse with 3750 sq. ft. of floor space, including ladies' and men's lounges and locker rooms, a pro shop, small kitchen, and two large meeting rooms that can be converted into a single, 1500-sq. ft. meeting area.

The surface lake, he said, would probably be restricted to children's fishing. The skeet range would be leased to the local gun club to operate, and the rest of the center would be operated by a full-time golf pro and manager.

"We hope to hire the manager soon after the first of the year so he can be on hand during the planning and construction of the center," Dr. Wohlgenuth said.

Also in the plans are three ball parks of different sizes to accommodate Little League, Pony League and regulation games. Three Dimmitt service clubs have been asked to build the ball parks. Each club is now studying the request.

The recreation center project was born from a Chamber of Commerce study that led to a bond election last year. In a heavy voter turnout, the proposal was defeated by 50 votes. The study committee then chose another route, organizing the project as a privately financed association.

Use of the center's facilities will be restricted to dues-paying members of the association. More than 300 paid $100 charter membership fees in a one-month campaign this summer, and have also pledged $10 per month membership dues.

The charter fees enabled the group to apply for a low-interest Farmers Home Association loan, available to rural areas.

Barley Growers Can Plant Wheat

There will be no diversion requirements for substituting wheat for barley under the 1967 Wheat Program, Charley E. Hill, secretary of the Castro County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has announced.

Barley growers who wish to substitute wheat under the program can do so on an acre-for-acre basis, but they should request a special barley base for this purpose from the ASC county committee.

Hill said Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has announced that barley will not be included in the Feed Grain Program for 1967. He said this means that the farm feed grain base will be made up of corn and grain sorghum bases only.

Two young Castro County boys have developed symptoms of encephalitis, but neither case has been confirmed.

Dr. J. D. Blackburn, county health officer, said the suspected cases reported to him involve a Nazareth boy and a Latin American farm boy from east of Dimmitt. Both cases were reported to him Tuesday.

However, he explained that "it is a time-consuming and complicated laboratory process to confirm an encephalitis case," and said neither suspected case can study of symptoms and response to treatment.

"No proven cases have been reported to me yet," the county health officer said. He added that suspected encephalitis cases often turn out to be some other disease or ailment.

He noted that the City of Dimmitt is officially free of the dread, mosquito-borne disease so far, and cited the city's intensive war on mosquitos as the reason.

"I notice the city has picked up on its spraying, which is good, because this is the time of year — August and September — when the situation becomes serious," he said.

"The people in Dimmitt have a better chance of avoiding encephalitis than most other people in this area because of the intensive spraying being done by the city," Dr. Blackburn added. "Personally, I handled 12 cases of encephalitis myself four years ago, and the incidence rate has steadily declined every year since then. I think it's commendable that the city is taking such complete mosquito control measures."

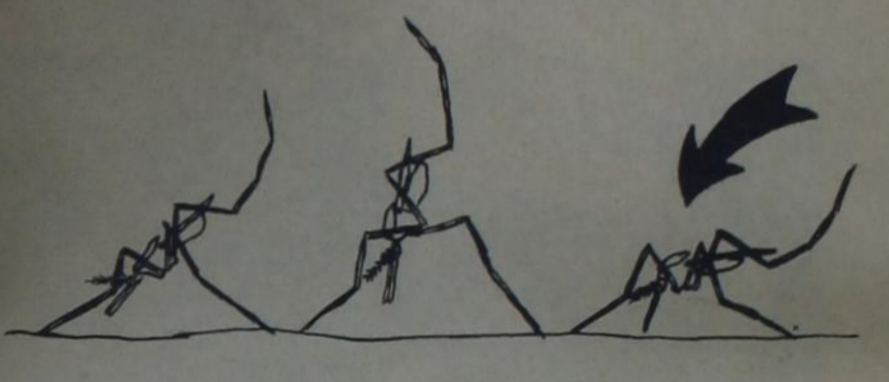

In addition to sending its "fog truck" on daily spraying rounds throughout the business and residential areas, the city last week ordered all lakes in and around Dimmitt sprayed aurally to kill larvae of the Culex tarsalis mosquito, which transmits encephalitis.

Dr. Blackburn warned that the encephalitis danger will remain high through September.

"This area has proven itself to have a strong likelihood for this problem, and we're only halfway through the two-month critical period," he said.

The best way an individual can ward off encephalitis is through personal mosquito control, the county health officer said.

"Since the Culex tarsalis mosquito feeds mainly at dusk, keep your children inside in the evenings," he advised. "If you have to go outside, use mosquito repellent and avoid mosquito bites."

THE CULPRIT that transmits encephalitis is the female Culex tarsalis mosquito at right. Her posture is her giveaway — instead of resting at an angle or perpendicular as most other mosquitoes, the Culex tarsalis usually rests with her body and wing parallel to the surface, with the proboscis bent down. So if you see a mosquito that looks as though it's resting "flat" on your skin, swat it and ask questions later. The Culex tarsalis feeds mainly at dusk.

It is often said that a certain locality, or area, "has on its Sunday clothes", in reference to a fine crop or crops. I can report to you that Texas now "has on her Sunday clothes." Viola and I drove across Texas, from here to the south, going and coming by different routes and as best we could tell, with the exception of a very small spot or two, crops were fine. And from all reports practically all of the state has produced, or is in the process of producing, one of the finest crops in its history. This is one year that good crops are not found only in scattered areas or communities.

We left Wednesday afternoon to go to Beeville to visit Susie and Penney and Bascom. We spent the night at Junction and drove on to Beeville on Thursday. That trip takes you across the greater part of the state, and from close observation I am positive that there had been good recent rains nearly every foot of the way and water was still standing in the fields in most places. In addition to the moisture that had already fallen the cloud cover was solid for the entire trip, a weather condition that I had never seen before in the thirty-four years that we have been making the trip to central and south Texas one or more times each year.

Foliage across Texas is lush, mute evidence of ample rainfall. All of the ranchland we saw looked as if it would afford ample grazing for a maximum number of animals, and naturally in the hill country conditions should be perfect for a bumper deer and wild turkey crop as well as other game. Quail and doves we saw in abundance.

At Three Rivers, a filling station attendant told me that the farmers in his community had just finished harvesting a bumper milo crop, much of it making 4,000 pounds per acre. That's good dry land feed. At Taylor, just north of Austin, another filling station operator said that a cotton buyer had predicted that this would be the largest cotton crop harvested in that section in many years. When I mentioned that the cotton bolls looked rather small, to my surprise he informed me that only storm proof cotton was being produced in Central Texas. When I picked cotton in Bell county, as a boy, two or three bolls of May-bean or Big Boll Rowden made a handful. I could pick, not pull, 400 pounds of cotton in a day, and that would be from break of day to dark. One old boy, I can't recall his name, could pick as much as 700 pounds per day. He was the champion. In the farming areas between Sweetwater and Post crops are the best I have

High School Enrollment Jumps

Early enrollment figures in Dimmitt Public Schools have already assured another record-breaking year.

Second-day registration totals were already running 89 ahead of last year's fifth-day enrollment, and Supt. Paul Hilburn said the total will climb as more students sign up after Labor Day.

So far, 1,896 students are enrolled in Dimmitt schools, including special education, Head Start and pre-vocational pupils. This is 89 more than the initial enrollment of 1807 last year, recorded Sept. 9.

The biggest increase is in Dimmitt High School, which so far has 105 more students than last year. Registration now stands at 451, compared with 346 on Sept. 9 last year.

Dimmitt Junior High School has 10 more students enrolled and North Grade School (grades 4, 5 and 6) has surpassed last year's initial figure by four pupils. The only school that hasn't reached last year's total yet is South Grade School, where 539 students — 87 less than last year — have registered.

At Hart, Principal Weldon Bates reported that 210 junior and senior high school students had enrolled by Tuesday. Elementary school enrollment stood at 400, and Bates said this figure "will probably climb to 500 by the end of the week." Enrollment at Hart still hasn't approached last year's 750 figure.

At Nazareth, students were still enrolling Wednesday and figures are incomplete. However, Supt. John Slavik said, "We look for no marked change — I think the enrollment figure will be substantially the same as last year."

Carnival to Spend Week Here; Will Benefit Activity Funds

Rhoades Carnival will make its sixth appearance in Dimmitt next week, sponsored by the Castro County Activities Committee.

The midway will be set up on the courthouse parking lot, and will operate Monday through Saturday nights. Part of the proceeds from the one-week stand will go to the Old Settlers' Reunion and Roundup Week funds.

Bob Huckabay, new president of the Activities Committee, said county 4-H clubs will operate a concession stand at the carnival site and members of the county booths.

The Rhoades Carnival has appeared here twice a year since 1963, each time under Activities sponsorship.

Nazareth To Hold Labor Day Picnic

Nazareth's annual Labor Day Picnic will start at noon Monday and will feature two outdoor banquets, a parade, concessions, public baseball game and dance.

Sponsored by Holy Family Church, the traditional picnic is open to the public.

A roast beef lunch at noon will start the picnic. Plates will be $1.25 for adults, 75 cents for children, and no charge for pre-school youngsters.

Kicking off the afternoon's events will be a parade paced by the Nazareth High School Band. Later, those attending may take their choice among game booths, a country store featuring home-baked goods, a fancywork booth, a roulette wheel for children which yields toys and favors at every turn, and a baseball game for all brave enough to play.

A ham and salads dinner will be served at 5 p.m. Prices will be the same as for the lunch.

At 8:30 p.m. the picnic will move inside, with a dance scheduled in the community hall.

Stores Will Close Monday

Most Dimmitt stores will be closed Monday for "summer's final fling," Labor Day.

C. W. Anthony, Chamber of Commerce president, said, "Nearly all the stores I've contacted have indicated they will close on Labor Day, except the grocery stores."

END OF THE LINE for this White Deer receiver as Bobcats Tommy Stafford (20), Ronnie Kenmore (83) and Joe Bob Sanders (19) close in on him during last Thursday night's inter-class scrimmage between the two squads.

Statistically, the practice scrimmage was a standoff. Two long touchdown runs by White Deer backs made the difference as the defending Class A finalists displayed their long-distance scoring punch.

WHITE DEER'S BUCKS turned Bobcat Stadium into a guided missile range last Thursday night as they shook out their passing game during a pre-season scrimmage. This pass went incomplete — although the powerful Bucks completed a respectable share of them during the night. Closing in on the receiver is senior back Beelee Goodwin. Referee in foreground is Jimmy Howell. Tonight the Bobcats go to Bovina for another scrimmage.

Bufs' Coach Optimistic With Return of Top Men

West Texas State's Buffalos could fashion an awesome one-two punch this season with the return of four running backs — including Dimmitt's James Cowell — to combine with their space-age aerial attack.

Cowell, a senior speedster who started six games at halfback for the Buffs last season, has added some authority to his speed by getting his weight up to 175, heaviest of his college career. In the past two years he's averaged 4.03 yards per try in 35 carries. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cowell of Dimmitt.

Other top carriers in the Buffalo backfield are returnees Ronnie Mankin, Tom Moody and Brian Deady. Added to these regulars will be sophomore running back Gene "Mercury" Morris and fullback Albie "Double-O" Owens.

The first blow of West Texas' one-two offensive punch will be the missile team of quarterback Hank Washington and end Dave Szymakowski.

Head Coach Joe Kerbel states flatly that Szymakowski "has

All-American potential." "His speed and ability to get open make him extremely hard to cover," Kerbel said.

Szymakowski made his debut for WTSU in the last game of the season, against Texas Western, when he set two new school records for passes caught (eight) and yards gained on passes (183) by threading his way through the opposition for extra yardage.

His performance in that game sewed up the split end assignment for him in 1966, and Kerbel feels the junior end (who's an art major) can better both of his records this season, plus set many more.

"Szymakowski is the best receiver I've ever seen," says Buffalo Assistant Coach Ken McCullough. "There's no limit to his potential."

Complementing Szymakowski's deep scoring threat will be talented two-year letterman Ted Wheeler and junior flanker Mike Baley.

"Wheeler will line up at tight end in our pro split-T offense," Kerbel says. "This is his last season with the Buffalos and he keeps telling me he's going to make it his finest."

Should Wheeler's forecast hold true he'll become the most prolific pass receiver in West Texas State's history. He needs just 14 receptions to break Jerry Richardson's four-year mark of 54.

Kerbel calls his receiving corps "the strongest overall that we've seen at West Texas State."

Targeting these receivers again this year will be Hank Washington, a field general Kerbel ranks second to none. The Buffalo mis-sileman broke four seasons and three single game records in directing the Buffs to a 6-4 season in 1965. This year Kerbel feels the big (6-3½, 205) quarterback could become an All-American.

Last season Washington was the nation's 12th leading passer, hitting on 119 of 243 passes for 1,403 yards. He needs just 83 more completions and 1,023 yards to set new WT career marks in these departments.

"We worked quite a bit on improving Washington's passing in spring drills," Kerbel says. "Hank has no trouble hitting targets, it's just that he fires such hard passes that our receivers have trouble catching them. He really smokes that thing."

Defensively, the Buffs have nine starters returning from the stingy "Unfriendly Society" that set school records last year for fewest yards allowed rushing, both for one game and for an entire season.

The Buffs will kick off their season against Arlington State Sept. 17 at Canyon. Then they'll travel to University of the Pacific and Arizona State before returning Oct. 8 for a four-week stand of home games.

Reservations for single game or season tickets may be made through athletic director's office, OLS-741, extension 2204, or by writing PO Box 4, WT Station, Canyon, 79015.

Duck Season to Open Oct. 25; First Day for Geese Nov. 19

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission set Oct. 25 as the duck season opener and Nov. 19 as the duck season opener, at a meeting in Austin last week.

Shooting may begin at one half hour before sunrise.

The goose and duck season will both close January 7.

The goose season will be 75 days, same as last year, and the duck season 50 days, an increase of 10 days over 1965.

The goose limit will be five per day, and five in possession. Hunters may take two Canadas, or one Canada and one speckled belly.

The duck bag of four a day or eight in possession after the first day was relaxed to allow two mallards per day, or four in possession.

The 1965 restrictions on pintails was eliminated to permit a limit of this species alone.

Sandhill or little brown cranes may be legally taken in a specified portion of West Texas from Oct. 29 through Nov. 27. The open portion of the state is west of US Highway 277 beginning at the International Toll bridge in Del Rio, north to San Angelo, then along Highway 87 to US 287 at Dumas, then along 287 to the Oklahoma border.

Bag and possession limits are unchanged from last year. The daily total is four ducks with not more than two wood ducks, two canvasbacks or two mallards. The possession limit is just twice the daily bag. Up to five merganser ducks may be taken per day, but no more than one hooded merganser. Ten coots per day rounds out a full bag.

The goose and brant limit is five per day or in possession and may not include more than one Ross's goose, or two Canada geese or subspecies; or one Canada and one White-front; or one White-fronted goose.

Sandhill cranes may be taken at the rate of two per day but the possession limit is four.

Dove Season Opens Today

Mourning dove season opens at noon today for a two-month run in Texas' North Zone, which includes the Panhandle-Plains area.

New 1966-67 hunting permits are required, effective today.

For the sportsmen all ready but with no place to go dove hunting, a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologist dropped a few guide lines.

His first suggestion, of course, is to obtain permission of the property owner for hunting.

The biologist's counsel for the procedure from there went something like this:

Watering area — A tank, pond or stream with clean banks is a likely watering area for the doves. They generally seek water late in the afternoon after feeding.

Jump shooting — Fields containing grain, weedy growths such as sunflowers, dove weeds and other native seedbearing vegetation are the best dove feeding areas. Also fields of maize, hegar, Johnson grass or cane that have been cut over are favorable spots.

Pass shooting — Areas between the feeding grounds and watering area over which the doves will be passing.

Jump shooting and pass shooting are recommended over watering sites following heavy rainfall, when abundant surface water is standing in fields and rangelands.

The biologist also noted that during this season of the year doves are given to moving from area to area, or here today and gone tomorrow. If the feeding sites continue as a source for grain, weed and grass seeds, other flocks likely will use them, also.

Carr Will Open Drive in Lubbock

State Attorney General Waggoner Carr will formally open his campaign for the US Senate in his home town of Lubbock Wednesday night with a kickoff rally. It was announced this week.

The rally is expected to attract delegations from throughout the Plains, Panhandle and West Texas areas. Carr is the Democratic Party nominee in the race.

Game License Effective Today

Attention hunters: your old hunting and fishing licenses expired Wednesday, but new ones are already on hand at license dealers.

The new fiscal year license date couples with the opening of dove season in the North Zone today.

Replacements for the old hunting and fishing license that are invalid after Aug. 31, have been distributed to approximately 2,500 dealers in all 254 Texas counties by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

A spokesman for the department pointed out that persons hunting or fishing Sept. 1 should have the new licenses.

Individual fishing licenses cost $2.15 for both residents and non-residents. Resident hunting licenses are $3.15.

Non-resident hunting licenses cost $5.

There is a five-day non-resident license for hunting migratory game birds, costing $5.

Basically, persons 17 years of age and under 65 need the regular Texas resident licenses.

Bobcat Coaches Pleased With Scrimmage Results

Technically, Dimmitt's Bobcats lost the battle last Thursday night — but their pleased coaches feel they learned a lot that will help them win the war.

In a scrimmage against the potent White Deer Bucks — last year's state Class A finalists who feature seven returning starters — the Bobcats were outscored 2-0 on touchdowns, but showed their mettle by outpacing the powerful Bucks in first downs from scrimmage.

Both of White Deer's touchdowns came on long runs, which helped the Bucks outgain the Bobcats by 53 yards, 238-185. Each team ran 45 plays from scrimmage.

"We've looked over the scrimmage film several times and we're really happy," Head Coach Brown L. Smith said. "Nearly all the boys did a good job against White Deer. Of course, there's plenty of room for improvement, but for this early in the year we feel they gave us all they had."

Line Coach Roy Hunter added, "The more I watch the film, the better I think our boys did, considering White Deer was a state finalist last year and has seven starters back."

"Of course, we weren't worrying about winning this scrimmage — that wasn't the purpose of it," Smith said. "We were interested mainly in giving our boys game experience and teaching them something."

Forty-two boys are now working out on the A and B squads, and Coach Smith expects to select an A squad of 23 boys by whistle time.

"We're still looking for A-team prospects," he said. "We'd like to have more than that, but these boys will have to prove themselves before they get on the squad."

Scarcity of players is no problem in the younger ranks, though. Coaches Hunter and Jones Hedrick have 35 on their freshman squad; and Assistant Coach Paul Kitchens has 35 eighth grade graders and 62 seventh graders to occupy his time.

"I hope we can get some relief for Paul — he has about a hundred boys to take care of," Smith lamented.

DHS's coaches hope to build their Bobcat varsity around a good share of returning starters from last year. Five boys are back who started both on offense and defense last year, plus another offensive starter and three other defensive regulars.

Both-way men returning include quarterback Kent Lindsey, guard Stanley Byrnes, center John Howell, and ends Don Moore and Ronnie Kenmore. Also back are Rodney Hutto, who started at offensive tackle last year; Mike Bruegel, who started at defensive tackle last season; Joe Bob Sanders and Beelee Goodwin, defensive backs, all are seniors.

Smith cited several other young graders who are performing well in pre-season practice. "Billie Glidewell hasn't played before, and he's doing a real good job for us," Smith said. Glidewell is a 184-pound senior end.

"Our twins, Donald and Ronald Johnson, (junior guards) are both doing good jobs, too. Ronnie Hutton (junior halfback) is up from the B squad and is doing well; Tommy Stafford (senior halfback) has been a good worker both on offense and defense, and Joe Bob Sanders (senior fullback) is doing a good job of running for us."

The Bobcats will get another chance to put their lessons to practice tonight (Thursday) when they travel to Bovina of District 1-A for a scrimmage session.

SMITH SAID. GLIDEWELL IS A 184-POUND SENIOR END. "OUR TWINS, DONALD AND RONALD JOHNSON, (JUNIOR GUARDS) ARE BOTH DOING GOOD JOBS, TOO. RONNIE HUTTON (JUNIOR HALFBACK) IS UP FROM THE B SQUAD AND IS DOING WELL; TOMMY STAFFORD (SENIOR HALFBACK) HAS BEEN A GOOD WORKER BOTH ON OFFENSE AND DEFENSE, AND JOE BOB SANDERS (SENIOR FULLBACK) IS DOING A GOOD JOB OF RUNNING FOR US."

THE BOBCATS WILL GET ANOTHER CHANCE TO PUT THEIR LESSONS TO PRACTICE TONIGHT (THURSDAY) WHEN THEY TRAVEL TO BOVINA OF DISTRICT 1-A FOR A SCRIMMAGE SESSION.

The Art Guild met Monday with about 15 members present. Mrs. Braafladt, vice-president, presided and will continue as president due to the resignation of the president. R. B. Strother was elected to fill the office of second vice-president. Incidentally, Mr. Strother displayed a painting, a mountain scene, strong in blues and in a bright, strongly delineated style which characterizes his work.

Your columnist visited the National Art Gallery in Washington, D.C. the past week and was completely overwhelmed by the magnificence of the building as well as the paintings. It is impossible to make a comprehensive tour of this institution in a short time. To do it justice one should study the separate exhibits and see a few at a time. It is quite awe-inspiring to realize one is looking at the originals of the old masters. Guards stand in the doorways between the rooms — that is impressive, too.

"Christ Is Coming Again"

By Ronnie Parker

In Acts the first chapter we have an account of the ascension of Christ. After Jesus had charged the apostles to be witnesses of him throughout all the world, he was taken up and a cloud received him out of their sight. Verse 10 says: "And while they were looking steadfastly into heaven as He went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; who also said, 'Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven; this Jesus, who was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld Him going into heaven.'"

Jesus had told His disciples, yea, and all who will be His disciples, that "In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I COME AGAIN, and receive you unto myself; that here I am, there ye may be also." John 14:2-3.

Though the time is unknown by all save God (Mk. 13-32), those who have lived a righteous life look with great expectation to the second coming of Christ. They shall live with Him for all eternity. To live a life of sin is to be caught unprepared to stand before the judgment bar of God. An eternal hell awaits the unrighteous. Are you ready for His glorious coming?

An investment in Your Future ATTEND CHURCH

★ Honor God Sunday ★ Honor Labor Monday

SPECIAL DAYS . . . Monday has been set aside by man as a day to honor labor. Throughout the year, man works hard and deserves this recognition and rest. However, even before man saw this need for rest, God set aside one day a week for rest and worship. Attend church each Sunday. Worship the Lord in His house, on the day that He set aside.

"And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it He had rested from all His work which God created and made."

Coleman Adv. Serv.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Peace Corps Test Set for Sept. 10

Castro County residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 9 a.m. Sept. 10, in Room 302 of the Post Office building in Amarillo.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive — an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form, not the placement test is the most important factor in the selection of volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from the post office or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

The placement test takes about an hour and a half.

First Christian Church News Notes.

On Sunday, Aug. 28, attendance at the regular Sunday Morning Worship service exceeded the membership of the Church. The Church's Daily Vacation Bible School closing program was at the regular 6 o'clock evening Worship time on Sunday, Aug. 21. The school was late this year and was of but one week's duration; yet set a record in that perfect attendance of all the teaching staff and the students was registered from the date of their enrollment. A few did not attend the first day but none missed after they came the first time. This was the first time such has been the record at any Church or time in the experience of Minister and Mrs. Bedford W. Smith of First Christian Church here. Mrs. Smith was this year's director.

Next Sunday is Labor Day Sunday. The Church expects that a number of those who regularly attend will be out of town for the last vacation fling before Thanksgiving holidays, but the Minister is preparing special sermons for both the 10:50 a.m. and the 6 p.m. worship services. His Sept. 4 sermons topics are: "Entering the Labors of Others" and "Our Working God." Bible School time at First Christian at 600 Western Circle is at 9:45 a.m.

Minister Tom Posey of the First Christian Church in Memphis, Texas will be the evangelist for the Fall Revival, woc. 2 to 9 inclusive.

Under New Wheat Program

Less Acreage in '67; Same Bushel Amount

Wheat growers who take part in the 1967 Wheat Program will be eligible for domestic marketing certificates for about the same amount of wheat as in 1966, but the percentage of allotted acres will be less.

Charley E. Hill, secretary of the Castro County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said the acreage percentage will be 35, compared with 45 in 1966.

The expected domestic food use for 1967 is 520 million bushels. Hill explained that the law requires domestic certificates to be issued for no more than the expected domestic food use. The 520 million bushels is 35 percent of the projected production of the 68.2-million acre national allotment.

In the 1966 program, the 45 percent of the projected yield for which wheat farmers earned certificates was estimated at 500 million bushels. So cooperators in the 1967 program will be eligible on 20 million more bushels.

Domestic certificates, which are issued to help keep farm income stable, will be valued in the 1967 program at the difference between the national average loan rate of $1.25 and parity next July 1. The certificates are valued at $1.32 in the 1966 program.

Can you imagine driving across Texas in August without turning your car air conditioner on? We did in solid comfort. Not so coming home, we needed its services most of the way.

We received a letter this wk from a Norman Petty, written on a NorVa Jak Music, Inc., letterhead, of Clovis taking us to task for giving Odie (Pop) Echols credit as co-author of some sort of a musical number called "Sugar-time." We got our information from material furnished by Echols, prior to his serving as Master of Ceremonies at the Miss Grain Sorghum Pageant. The letter wants us to make it clear that Charlie Don Phillips was the sole writer of the selection. That's what the letter said. I don't have any opinion about the matter and couldn't care less. I am sure, however that somewhere in the realms of advance publicity furnished to this paper by Echols that there was a statement that he was co-author of the song. We are not original enough to make up things like that. So there, we hope the matter is settled.

We still need more traffic lights in Dimmitt, and the only place for more parking is the courthouse square. These two projects need to be taken care of immediately, they are way past due. Boosters Hold First Meeting; See Film of White Deer Bout Dimmitt's Athletic Booster Club saw a scrimmage film and met the new junior high school coach at its first regular meeting of the school year Monday night.

During the business meeting, President P. O. Goodwin noted that dues of $2.50 per person are now due, and urged all who enjoy high school sports to join the booster club and back the Bobcats and Bobbies this year.

The club also is selling Dimmitt Bobcat decals for cars again this year. The decals are $1 each.

Head Football Coach Brown L. Smith introduced Ike Moore, new principal, and Paul Kitchens, new seventh and eighth grade grade coach. He also showed the film of last week's Dimmitt-White Deer scrimmage and discussed the progress of his team. He reported that 175 or more boys are out for football this year from seventh grade through high school.

The club's next meeting will be Sept. 12, when a film of the season's first game against Muleshoe will be shown and discussed.

The Athletic Booster Club, open to both men and women, meets on Monday nights in the Dimmitt High School Cafeteria.

Cotton Council Members Urge $1 Per Bale 'Promotion Fee'

A strong case for uniform collection of $1 per bale to finance expanded research and promotion was made by cotton growers from the Plains areas testifying at a public hearing in Dallas last week.

Growers from the 31 counties of the Rolling Plains and 23 counties of the High Plains joined those from other Texas cotton-producing sections in calling for a referendum to establish the uniform assessment as provided in the Cotton Research and Promotion Act.

Witnesses warned that cotton is doomed to further disastrous losses to man-made fibers unless research and promotion are greatly expanded.

The hearing was one of four held by the Dept. of Agriculture to determine grower sentiment on the proposal.

Need for the plan was outlined in initial statements by G. C. Cortright of Rolling Ford, Miss., National Cotton Council board chairman, and by council staff members.

J. B. Cooper, Jr., a cotton producer from Roscoe and president of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers testified:

"The cotton industry has great resources that I'm convinced can be combined to match those the synthetics have used to take our markets away from us. The proposed order would enable us to harness these resources by uniting the hundreds of thousands of growers against the dozen or so corporations producing synthetics."

R. H. Whorton, also of Roscoe, maintained that opposition to the proposal had been "manufactured and blown up out of proportion to what it really is out in the cotton-growing counties at the dirt-farmer level."

Howard Alford of Lubbock, Earl Weaver of Idalou and Jack McGarr of Plainview stressed that the program would be grower controlled rather than dominated by the Secretary of Agriculture, as some critics have claimed. It would be financed by growers and operated by them, he testified.

Weaver said the fee would not be established without grower approval in a referendum, that it could be voted out, and that any grower could get a refund. McGarr, also a sheep producer, said there had been no problem with the government on the lamb and wool program.

Joe Pate, Jr., Lubbock, a CPI trustee, said cotton farmers necessarily must pay for promoting cotton — that they are in no position to ask textile mills to pay a part since man-made fibers are offering mills many incentives to buy their products. Other segments of the cotton industry, if assessed a fee, could pass this along to the farmer in charges for their services and he would still be paying it, he added.

"Cotton farmer want it to be their program so we can decide what, when, and how it should be done," Pate declared.

John McQuien of Plainview said he was convinced that farmers would accept the plan overwhelmingly if given a chance to vote on it, and that it obviously should be financed by the farmer and "only the farmer."

Roy Forkner, Lubbock, a grower, ginmer, and chairman of the CPI steering committee for the Plains, claimed the need for a uniform collection plan such as the Act provides. He was joined by Bill Weaver of Lamesa, Roy Hickman of Morton, L. C. Unfred of New Home and W. L. Edelman, Friona.

Forkner explained that the $1 per bale for CPI was collected when the bale was ginned, but some ginners urged refunds on their customers as a means of price cutting. This caused collections to fall off substantially.

"Up to now," said Kenneth Purcell, a grower from Brownfield, "the collection plan has not worked since all farmers were not even given a chance to put up their $1 per bale."

Food Is Still A Big Bargain

Even with recent increased prices food is still one of the best buys around.

According to Frank Orts, extension meats specialist at Texas A&M University, meat prices have increased 20 percent since 1950. During the same time, average weekly earnings have jumped a resounding 80 percent.

Since 1947-49, all food prices have increased 28 percent, compared with a 50 percent hike in rent and a 77 percent boost in medical care prices, he says.

Higher meat prices are particularly noticeable to consumers. But the livestock market is just now recovering from a period of low livestock prices and a long profitless period for the livestock producer, says Orts.

In the US today, about 18 percent of a person's after-tax income is spent on food. Fifteen years ago, American families spent 25 percent of their after-tax dollars on food. Italians spend 33 percent of their income for food — and Peruvians and Russians spend 56 percent.

On the average, about 5 percent of the food dollar goes for meat. Today, this 5 percent buys 20 pounds more meat than in 1950, Orts reports.

MRS. JAKE SPEAKS UP

The last few weeks have been the busiest that I can remember. Our Castro County Diamond Jubilee celebration was a fine affair.

From June until the end of the celebration the Jaycee-Ettes served as sales girls in the Country Store every Thursday. The girls also worked backstage again this year at the Miss Grañ Sorghum of the Nation Pageant held Aug. 5th and 6th.

The Jaycees and Jaycee-Ettes put in some hammer and nail time constructing a two trailer float which was presented in the Diamond Jubilee parade on Sat. Aug. 13, and in the Rodeo Parade, Thurs. Aug. 18.

Some of the Jaycee-Ettes appeared in the Roaring Twenties scene of the Diamond Jubilee Pageant that was staged for five nights.

This last week-end the Jaycee-Ettes worked on their last big project of the summer. This was working at the concession stand of the Dimmitt Rodeo, Thurs. Fri. and Sat. nights. A big thanks to Mary Lu Smithson for a lot of hard work, and a job well-done as project chairman.

That's about all for now — but I'll keep you posted on Jaycee-Ette activities as we swing into a new school year.
