

NEW MEXICO NEWS SUMMARY

Chasing the Assassins. A Santa Fe dispatch of November 28th says: The remains of Col. J. Francisco Sanches Chavez arrived in Santa Fe this morning from Pinos Wells, where he was assassinated Saturday evening. They will lie in state at the capitol Wednesday forenoon. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon.

Come to New Mexico. This is to the people of snow-bound Washington of windswept New York of blizzard-scourged Iowa and Nebraska, to all the people of the States where winter is the real thing; where the stern realities of life for the next six months will consist mainly of coal bills and frozen water pipes.

The Late J. Francisco Chavez, Assassinated at Pinos Wells, November 28th.

Sheriff H. C. Kinsey of Santa Fe, Sheriff Carlos Baca of Los Lunas, the sheriff of Lincoln county, and Game Warden Page B. Otero have started a systematic search.

There is no doubt that Colonel Chavez fell a victim to a gang of sheep cattle thieves, the members of which have been vigorous in bringing down the law.

New County Fruit. The city of Durango, manager Juan County Fruit and Produce Association, who has been active for the past few days in the interests of this association.

The Board of Regents of the New Mexico Agricultural and Mechanic Arts College at Las Cruces met at Las Cruces December 1st and elected Professor Charles E. Paul of the Kansas State Agricultural College, head of the mechanical department of the territorial institution, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Professor Charles Mills, made necessary by the continued illness of Mrs. Mills.

The Board also elected Miss Maud E. McFie, to the position of teacher of vocal music, which was made vacant by the death of Miss Nora Murphy. Miss McFie is at present studying music in Paris but will return to America in time to take up the duties of her new position by January.

Fire at Indian School. An Albuquerque dispatch of December 2nd says: A fire of unknown origin destroyed the industrial department building of the government Indian school here early this morning, resulting in a loss to the government of between $1,800 and $2,000.

Mr. Allen, superintendent of the capitol, said this afternoon that the fire started about 6 o'clock, while the children were at breakfast. Although it had a good start when first discovered, nearly all the goods in the department were saved by hard work on the part of the faculty and students.

Public Indians Dissatisfied. An Albuquerque dispatch of November 26th says: Pablo Abetta, the secretary to the governor of the Pueblo Indian village of Isleta, was in the city today to consult with Ellsworth Ingalls of Kansas, a special government attorney.

Abetta says the Pueblo Indians are dissatisfied with the land courts and other courts of the United States government, with the manner in which they have been treated, and the encroachments of the white man, without any interference from the government.

Abetta says this government has cut up their grants, giving them worthless patented lands, and the documents which they will secure from the Mexican government will prove that the United States has not treated them fairly.

Deputy Sheriff Fined. Vicente Armijo, deputy sheriff of Bernalillo county, had a load of suspense lifted off his shoulders yesterday when Judge Baker in the District Court fined the deputy $50 for contempt of court. Armijo paid the fine. It had been hanging over his head for just a year and a month, in fact since he served a warrant upon Ignacio Gutierrez, a prominent citizen of Corrales, while that gentleman was serving as judge of election of ditch commissioners in October of 1903.

The American Gold, Copper and Smelting Company has filed incorporation papers at Santa Fe. The capitalization is $2,500,000 and the headquarters are at Albuquerque. The incorporators and directors are E. V. Chavez, Andres Romero and Juan Chavez y Romero.

The 10-year-old son of Eligio Herrera, a prominent native citizen of Las Vegas, while trying to rescue his cap from under the heels of a horse, was kicked in the head and his skull fractured. An operation was performed, but little hope of the boy's recovery was entertained.

Petrolino Jaramillo was convicted at Las Vegas of the theft of a cow by evidence showing he had possession of the hide and had fresh meat in the house. As he always had borne a good reputation and the evidence was circumstantial the judge sentenced him to eighteen months and remitted the sentence during good behavior.

An Albuquerque dispatch of November 30th says: The Bernalillo county commissioner case took a sensational turn this afternoon when Severo Sanchez, the governor's first appointee, telegraphed his resignation to the capitol, thus leaving the office open to Carlos P. Sanchez, the governor's second appointee. The latter's bond, which was refused at the recorder's office yesterday, was accepted today and the situation is again serene, except that there is a possibility that T. C. Gutierrez will resign on the morrow.

FAIR IS CLOSED

Great Enterprise in Commemoration of the Louisiana Purchase Has Been a Complete Success. St. Louis, Dec. 2.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition has ended. It passes into history as probably having comprised the most representative collection of the resources, industries, art, peoples and customs of the world ever assembled.

From the inception of a project to hold an exposition to fittingly commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of the Louisiana territory until the portals were thrown open and the world was invited to enter, occupied seven years. The duration of the Exposition has been seven months and during that time nothing has occurred to throw a dampening effect on the interest or to detract from the Exposition in any way. The best of order has been maintained throughout and no loss of life has occurred during the Exposition from accidents.

The man probably most prominently known connected with the Fair is President Francis, and it was fitting that the final day should be designated as "Francis Day" in his honor. "This Exposition has been the work of my life," said President Francis. "It has consumed my entire time for the past four years but every hour has been an hour of pleasure to me."

The principal speeches were made by Governor Dockery of Missouri and President Francis. The introduction of President Francis was greeted with an ovation of cheering. When quiet had been restored, he said: "The results of this work cannot be adequately measured by the beauty of its landscapes, the grace and symmetry of its buildings, the comprehensiveness of its exhibits, the intelligence of its congresses, the elegance of its social features, nor by the ineffable pleasures conferred upon its patrons by the art and the science which we have here to demonstrate that the thought and the labor and the sacrifices that have entered into it were not ill-advisedly bestowed."

Those who have been engaged in the work will never cease to look back to the time when they shared in the spirit of the undertaking which will have had their views enlightened, their tastes cultivated and their sympathies broadened. The millions of visitors who have entered these gates have been struck by the grandeur and the beauty of the undertaking which we have here to demonstrate that the thought and the labor and the sacrifices that have entered into it were not ill-advisedly bestowed.

RURAL DELIVERY CONGRESS OPENS

Department Shows Nearly Double the Deficiency of Previous Year—Decrease in Number of Postoffices. Washington, Dec. 3.—An increased deficiency of 22 cents per cent over the previous year is shown by the financial statement for the postal service, incorporated in the annual report of E. C. Madden, third assistant postmaster general, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904.

The only business outside of the usual first day routine was the adoption of a resolution in the House extending the time within which the merchant marine commission may make its report.

When Senator Fairbanks, vice president of the chamber, was greeted warmly by many of his colleagues. The visitors applauded his entrance with cheers and hand-clapping.

In his private room for some time before the House met, Speaker Cannon held an informal reception to "the boys" as he is wont to call his assistants in the House. Without distinction as to party, the members dropped in to pay their respects, and for each he had a pleasant word.

The floral tribute was beautiful in the extreme. There was hardly a desk that was not banked with floral pieces of some kind.

Colorado Supreme Court Punishes Election Thieves. Denver, Dec. 6.—With formalities so brief that the entire proceedings consumed less than ten minutes, the Supreme Court yesterday morning imposed jail sentences and heavy fines upon four officials from Ward 5, Precinct 8, and discharged a fifth, against whom evidence of fraud was not found.

Chief Justice Gabbert delivered the decision of the court, the members concurring. The court's findings follow in full: "The court finds that you, Frank Kratke, Joseph Ray, Charles Kofsky and Edward O'Malia, willfully violated the mandates of the injunction issued in the case of the People ex rel. vs. Tool, being docket No. 4,930 on the records of this court, in two particulars: "First—With respect to the appointment of an election clerk in Precinct 8 of Ward 5.

"Second—In permitting divers and sundry persons to repeatedly vote at such election. You are, therefore, adjudged guilty of contempt in manner and form as charged in the information.

"In pronouncing sentence we shall take into consideration the moral turpitude involved in the commission of the acts which constitute the attempt of which you have been found guilty. There can be no doubt, from the testimony, but that the two judges of election and Clerk O'Malia knowingly and willfully permitted a great many persons to repeatedly vote at the election to which I have referred. There is not the slightest excuse offered for having committed these unlawful acts. In my opinion of these acts you were not only aided and abetted by the respondent, Frank Kratke, but by his presence and his actions he encouraged and protected persons in the commission of these unlawful acts in the way of repeating.

NEEDS OF NAVY

Secretary Morton's Report. Naval Estimates Cut Down, Although Full Amount Was Needed—Records Broken in Number of War Ships Launched. Washington, Dec. 5.—The annual report of Secretary of the Navy Morton, made public today, is in part as follows: "The naval estimates for the fiscal year are large, the largest ever submitted, notwithstanding the fact that they have been cut down from those sent in by the bureau more than $17,000,000. We have asked for less than the money actually required to continue the naval program as laid down by the general board, of which Admiral Dewey is the head, notwithstanding all who have studied the question carefully agree that this program should be carried out."

The past year was an important one in the history of our naval construction. Never before were so many war ships launched by this or any other nation in one year. Vessel for vessel and type for type I believe, our new ships will compare favorably with those of any navy afloat, and every American should be proud of the progress and character of work now being accomplished, not only in construction, but in all branches of the service.

New ships necessarily require more officers, more marines, more enlisted men, and the appropriations are quite likely to increase steadily for some years to come. The more ships we have the greater our facilities will be and the greater our facilities necessarily must be in the way of yards and docks and the ability to make repairs and take proper care of the fleet.

Attention is earnestly invited to the recommendations made to the chief of the Bureau of Navigation respecting the need for more officers and men in order to carry on the work of the navy. It is useless to build ships unless provision is made to man, care for and use them.

Secretary Morton favors medals of honor of two classes in the navy—the one for meritorious service in the line of duty, the other for heroism in war. The savings system for enlisted men has shown that the latter appreciate the plan and more than half a million has been deposited. Good results have been accomplished also by the Y. M. C. A., and several gifts to it are acknowledged.

Denver, Dec. 4.—The Republicans this morning say: Startling evidence has already been secured by the Republican organization to make request from the proper court for a complete and independent re-census and count of the Denver vote, which would reveal a state of affairs that would surprise the cautious. The persons in charge taken in a most systematic manner and thanks to Judge Lindsey of the County Court and the Supreme Court bench, the evidence will be complete and there will be no opportunity of getting rid of the tell-tale evidence in the balance. Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Portland, Maine, was on Friday re-elected president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Helen Morton Barker of Evanston, Illinois, who has been treasurer for eleven years, was re-elected another nomination and Mrs. Harriet Wright Brand of Indianapolis was elected to succeed her. Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson of North Dakota was elected assistant recording secretary. The other officers were re-elected.

A telegram was received from President Roosevelt in response to one sent to him by the convention concerning the prohibitive clause with regard to the sale of liquor in the pending legislation admitting Indian Territory to statehood rights. It was as follows: "Telegram received. The President has already taken the matter up on the lines of your recommendation and is consulting Senator Stewart as to the best means of making it effective."

Denver Shooting Affray. Denver, Dec. 4.—Whirls throngs of men, women and children were passing in the vicinity of Fifteenth and Arapahoe streets at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Joseph Nash fired five shots from a 38-caliber revolver at George Allen, his wife's uncle. The first bullet struck Allen in the left forearm, inflicting a painful but not serious wound. The second entered over the heart, but did not prove fatal.

Of the other three shots, one struck Jesse Chikerton, a bystander, in the left thigh; another passed through the fur collar over worn by Mrs. William F. Russell, and one went wild.

CONGRESS OPENS

But Adjourns Until Next Day. Tribute to the Memory of the Late Senators Hoar and Quay—Great Floral Display. Washington, Dec. 6.—With the Senate in session thirteen minutes and the House fifty-three minutes, the last session of the Fifty-eighth Congress was assembled yesterday. The time of both bodies was devoted entirely to the usual formalities of opening day. There were the greetings between members, the great floral display and the hundreds of visitors, with beautifully gown women predominating. Corridors, committee rooms and cloak rooms were thronged. The bustle extended even to the floors of the chambers.

The gravels of Senator Frye, president of the chamber, and Speaker Cannon of the House, fell exactly at 12 o'clock.

In each house a committee was appointed to wait upon the President and inform him that Congress was ready to receive any communication. Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Senators Hoar of Massachusetts and Quay of Pennsylvania were adopted and the adjournments taken were in further tribute to their memory.

The only business outside of the usual first day routine was the adoption of a resolution in the House extending the time within which the merchant marine commission may make its report.

Natural Cave in Montana.

An immense natural cave that promises to rival the wonders of the Mammoth cave or the Wind cave of the Black Hills, has recently been explored at Lime Spur, Montana. The cave is a recent discovery and few persons have entered the underground region. The mouth of the cave is at the top of Lime Spur mountain in Jefferson canon, about forty-two miles from Butte on the Northern Pacific railroad. It is about half a mile from a lime quarry owned by D. A. Morrison, who also owns the land where the cave is found. It was discovered by accident and it was only recently that a serious effort was made to find whether the cavern led.

BREAKS THE RECORD

A TWENTIETH CENTURY FLYER IN THE MEDICAL FIELD.

Rheumatism Rapidly and Radically Cured. Quick Work of a Famous Remedy.

Convenience, comfort, safety, speed are demanded by the traveling public in our rapid century and the keenest intellects constantly at work on these problems are making wonderful progress in the construction of the steamship and the locomotive. Like results are sought in medicines and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are astonishing the world by the triumphs they are winning in the rapid cure of obstinate maladies, such as rheumatism. With speed they combine convenience, perfect safety and cheapness.

Here is fresh proof of their concentrated virtues. Mrs. Margaret Gantz, of No. 1527 Bodeman street, Burlington, Iowa, is an industrious German woman, who about two and a half years ago found herself in danger of losing her power to work altogether. She says: "I got rheumatism which made my knees and elbows very stiff and painful. I had difficulty in raising my arms and I could hardly lift my feet over my doorstep. I ought to have gone to bed, but I couldn't afford to do that, so I forced myself to work in spite of the pain and stiffness. After suffering for about six months, I was told about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People by a friend, who said she had been cured by them. On her advice, I bought one box and in two weeks after I began to use them I was well and I have had no need to use them now for nearly two years. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a good medicine and if I ever have rheumatism again I will get a box right away. I have told many friends what they did for me and I am glad to have everybody know."

This is valuable news to all who suffer from rheumatism. These pills have also cured stubborn cases of locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart and all forms of weakness in male or female.

They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent directly from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of the price, fifty cents per box; six boxes for two dollars and a half. Look for the full name on every box.

Sympathy Up to Date

He desired to express his sympathy. That was all. He had always liked the man, and now that he was reported to be near death he felt sorry for both him and the afflicted family.

"Poor fellow!" he said. "They tell me that he already has one foot in the fire."

Trouble followed. The wife of the sick man happened to overhear the remark, and she promptly declared that he was a mean, hateful old thing and then burst into tears.

"But, my dear madam—" he protested. "Don't speak to me!" she exclaimed. "Poor old Pete always looked upon you as a friend, and I always thought you were one, too."

"Don't you dare say one word to me!"

Then a mutual friend took him by the arm and led him to one side. "Really, old man," he said, "it was outrageous. I'm almost tempted to think you've been drinking."

"But, hang it all—"

"It was neither the time nor the place for cheap wit," broke in another friend.

"But I didn't intend—"

"Of course, you all know that Pete has been a pretty lively boy in his day," interrupted still another friend, "but you ought to have some regard for the feelings of his wife."

"I tell you I—"

"That's what comes of cultivating one's sense of humor at the expense of one's better feelings," put in the friend who had first taken him aside.

"Of course, we know that you did not intend to say anything that would seem harsh and cruel, but—"

"Now, look here!" exclaimed the man who had made the original remark, breaking away from them angrily. "What I said was all right and proper. What would you have me say? That I am sorry to hear that he has one foot in the grave? That would be a nice, sensible thing to do when I happen to know that he is a cremationist and has already bought a silver urn to hold his ashes, wouldn't it? The trouble with you people is that you are not up to date."

Costume Light and Airy

If you have foregathered to any extent with promoters, the name and fame of Dillon Willoughby are known to you. Mr. Willoughby has engineered gigantic enterprises in all the capitals of the world. He is in London just now, I believe, but lately he was in Paris, and there he invited a Washington man to breakfast with him at his hotel. The guest arrived to find his host already seated. The table was set in a corner of the room, and Mr. Willoughby sat at the head of it. Several other guests had preceded the Washingtonian, and the promoter did not rise to greet the newcomer. He was, however, all affability, and the breakfast was a thing long to be remembered. Financiers whose favor was to be won were there and Mr. Willoughby charmed them all. When breakfast was over the guests departed one by one, the host remaining seated the while, till only the Washingtonian was left. The room was a private apartment, and the two men sat talking for half an hour. Then the host asked his sole remaining guest to close the door. When this was done he turned to him with a look of great relief and spoke with the impressive dignity which has never failed him.

"I've been sitting in that chair three mortal hours," he said, "and I'm tired. Yesterday I was seized with a sudden affliction which affected the cuticle of my left leg. The physician I called applied a lotion, which, he said, must not be covered. Air must reach it freely. I had this breakfast on hand and I couldn't get it up. Here I am."

Reason for White Race

Gustave Michaud, the ethnologist, writes: "We have now every reason to believe that both the Mediterranean and the Baltic branches of the white race are the result of the natural selection practiced by a cold climate upon northward migrating African negroes. Whatever be the cause of the amount of pigment existing in the skin of the latter, it seems to me that the decrease of it was unavoidable as soon as the race took to traveling northward. In northern countries, natural selection tends constantly to harmonize with the color of the snow that of every animal which hunts or which is hunted; why should the blondness of the northern man have a different origin?"

"Primitive tribes were doubtless frequently decimated by hunger, as the Canadian Indians are today. Those hunters who show on the snow a pale face, black hair and beard, dark eyes, worked at a disadvantage when compared with somewhat lighter complexioned comrades. They were more conspicuous on the white field, and could not so easily approach their prey within striking distance. In time of famine, mortality was the greatest in their families."

"This eliminating process was repeated generation after generation, always leaving the larger posterity. However small may have been the difference in the mortality, we know to-day that a characteristic against which such a process is at work, always in the same direction, is doomed to disappear."

Japanese a Loving Race

Public demonstration of affection is most repugnant to the good taste of the Japanese, and it is the absence of this which is so generally mistaken for a lack of genuine feeling. I recall one man who was so devoted to his mother (though I doubt whether he could ever have been said to have "talked about" her), that when she died, while he was abroad, his depression was so profound that his husband watched him with anxiety lest he should commit suicide. The stoical training may render more unsympathetic a coarse nature, but repression to the refined soul brings an exquisite capacity for pain scarcely conceivable by those who are free to give utterance to every emotion.

Another man said to me, "I rarely speak of my mother, for a foreigner does not understand that a Japanese mother may be just as dear to her son as his to him and by the Japanese it is not expected that one should utter one's deepest feelings. That same son faints with grief when his mother dies and when consciousness returned tries to make light of a 'little dizziness' without reference to its cause. To this day, whenever he goes home he carries with him his mother's letters, mounted on a beautiful roll of ivory and brocade, and on the anniversary of her passing beyond his mortal ken quietly devotes a portion of the day to meditation and special thought of her. Even to his wife, despite the closest bond of love, he says not, 'This is the day of my mother's death.'—The Outlook.

Meaning of Word Doctor

The signification of the word "doctor" is quite interesting," said a writer in the New Orleans Times Democrat. "In its original import it means a person so skilled in his particular art or science as to be qualified to teach it, or one who has taken the highest degree in the faculties of divinity, law, physics or music. There is much difference of opinion as to the time when the title of doctor was first created. It seems to have been established for the professors of the Roman law in the middle of the twelfth century. After it was adopted it was conferred with expense and magnificence and solemnity, the time requisite for the degree is from three to eleven years."

"Medical science, however, dates back to the time of Plato's age, B. C. 429, when Aesculapius' knowledge and methods of practice prevailed, and whose remedies were incantations."

The Beliefs of Youth

One: I went a fishin' with a man who had a reel. An' fancy hooks 'n' catgut 'n' fish pole made of steel. He never got a single fish from early until late.

Just 'uz he didn't take no stock in spittin' on the bait. Yes, he kin lift an' jerk, but where's his fish. I'd like to know."

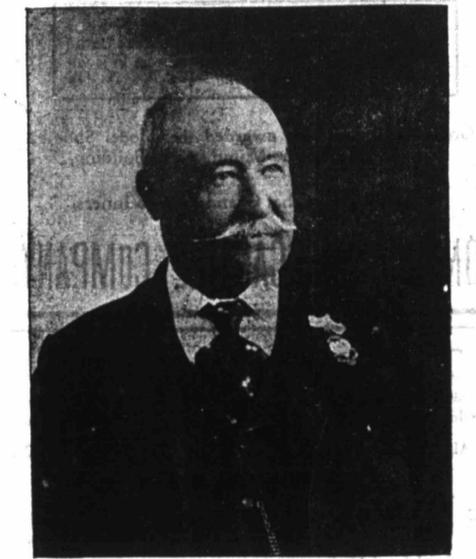

Oh, I guess he thinks it's true 'at some folks say ain't so? D'ever drop a horse hair into th' water-trough. An' leave it there for weeks an' weeks 'thout drinkin' it off? An' if you use a human hair they say it only takes one day to grow out."

Two: I'm a doctor, an' I can cure anybody of anything. I can cure you of rheumatism, an' I can cure you of a cold, an' I can cure you of a headache, an' I can cure you of a toothache, an' I can cure you of a sore throat, an' I can cure you of a cough, an' NEW MEXICO NEWS SUMMARY

Chasing the Assassin. A Santa Fe dispatch of November 28th says: The remains of Col. J. Francisco Sanchez Chaves arrived in Santa Fe this morning from Pinos Wells, where he was assassinated Saturday evening. They will be interred at the capital Wednesday forenoon. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon.

The Late J. Francisco Chaves, Assassinated at Pinos Wells, November 26th.

Sheriff H. C. Kinsell of Santa Fe, Sheriff Carlos Baca of Los Lunas, the sheriff of Lincoln county, and Game Warden Page B. Otero have started a systematic search. There is no doubt that Colonel Chaves fell a victim to a gang of sheep-cattlemen who have been vigorous in bringing their business to the attention of the New Mexico Fruit and Produce Association, who has a city for the past few days in the interests of this association.

The Board of Regents of the New Mexico Agricultural and Mechanic Arts College at Las Cruces met at Las Cruces December 1st and elected Professor Charles E. Paul of the Kansas State Agricultural College, head of the mechanical department of the territorial institution, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Professor Charles Mills, made necessary by the continued illness of Mrs. Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Mills will take up their residence at San Diego, California.

Fire at Indian School. An Albuquerque dispatch of December 8th says: A fire of unknown origin destroyed the industrial department building of the government Indian school here early this morning, resulting in a loss to the government of between $1,800 and $2,000.

Five men said to belong to a band of cattle rustlers operating near the Bell ranch, were brought to Las Vegas in the 28th inst., charged with having been caught in the act of slaughtering four head of stock. The Bell ranch people have been on the verge of war with the rustlers for months. Many miles of fences have been cut, cattle have been killed or driven off and one man, who disappeared, is said to have been murdered by the rustlers.

Pueblo Indians Dissatisfied.

An Albuquerque dispatch of November 26th says: Pablo Abetta, the secretary to the governor of the Pueblo Indian village of Isleta, was in the city today to consult with Ellsworth Ingalls of Kansas, a special government attorney.

Abetta says the Pueblo Indians are dissatisfied with the land courts and other courts of the United States government, with the manner in which they have been treated, and the encroachments of the white man, without any interference from the government, upon their lands. He says a conference of the delegates from all the villages was held at Sandia village the other day, and four delegates, one of whom is his brother, Marcelino Abetta, were selected to visit the City of Mexico, confer with President Diaz, and hunt up in the archives of the Mexican government old documents of grants of land and concessions to the Pueblo Indians which were made by the Mexican government under the Guadalupe Hidalgo and other treaties with the United States.

Abetta says this government has cut up their grants, giving them worthless patented lands, and the documents which they will secure from the Mexican government will prove that the United States has not treated them fairly.

"If the Pueblo Indians," said Abetta, "always peaceful and law abiding, cannot get justice from this great government, the Indians sooner or later will have to open negotiations with the Mexican government of the establishment of a colony of Pueblo Indians in that republic."

Deputy Sheriff Fined.

Vicente Armiño, deputy sheriff of Bernalillo county, had a load of suspense lifted off his shoulders yesterday when Judge Baker in the District Court fined the deputy $50 for contempt of court. Armiño paid the fine. It had been hanging over his head for just a year and a month, in fact since he served a warrant upon Ignacio Gutierrez, a prominent citizen of Corralles, while that gentleman was serving as judge of election of ditch commissioners in October of 1903.

The serving of the warrant was not the offense of Armiño against the court but it was the condition of the warrant when it was presented to Gutierrez. The clause allowing the furnishing of bond, which is printed on all warrants save those for capital crimes, had been scratched from this warrant. Armiño told Gutierrez, when the latter desired to furnish bond, that the clause had been scratched off the warrant by the court. This, of course, proved to be untrue, the clause in question having been removed in the sheriff's office. Sheriff Thomas Hubbell testified on the stand, when the case came up for hearing, that he knew nothing about the issuance of the warrant or the scratching of the bond clause, and this let the blame fall on Armiño, the court announcing that he would take the penalty under consideration.

The arrest of Gutierrez in October, 1903, it is alleged, was part of a scheme to "throw" the acquiescence election, in which he was judge.

Gutierrez not only carried influence in Corralles, but in the headquarters are at Albuquerque. The incorporators and directors are E. V. Chaves, Andres Romero and Juan Chaves y Romero.

The 10-year-old son of Eligio Herrera, a prominent native citizen of Las Vegas, while trying to rescue his cap from under the heels of a horse, was kicked in the head and his skull fractured. He is now in the hospital, but little hope of the boy's recovery was entertained.

Petrolino Jaramillo was convicted at Las Vegas of the theft of a cow by evidence showing he had possession of the hide and had fresh meat in the house. As he always had borne a good reputation and the evidence was circumstantial the judge sentenced him to eighteen months and remitted the sentence during good behavior.

An Albuquerque dispatch of November 30th says: The Bernalillo county county administrator took a sensational turn this afternoon when Severo Sanchez, the governor's first appointee, telegraphed his resignation to the capital, thus leaving the office open to Carlos P. Sanchez, the governor's second appointee. The latter's bond which was raised to the recorder's office yesterday, was accepted to-day and the situation is again serene, except that there is a possibility that T. C. Gutierrez will resign on the morrow. If this occurs the board of county commissioners will be antagonistic to the county administration which has ruled the past six years, and startling developments in county affairs may be expected.

Because he shot a friend with a load of peas and thought that he had committed murder and would have to go to jail, Ramon Garcia, of the Rancho de Albuquerque, near Albuquerque, blew his brains out with a pistol. Garcia had been fooling with a gun loaded with dried peas. The gun exploded, the charge of peas striking a young man standing a few feet distant. The latter jokingly fell to the floor, clasping his hands over his breast, and pretended to be lifeless. Garcia thought his friend was dead and ran home and committed suicide.

FAIR IS CLOSED

Great Enterprises in Commemoration of the Louisiana Purchase Has Been a Complete Success.

St. Louis, Dec. 2.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition has ended. It passes into history as probably having comprised the most representative collection of the resources, industries, art, peoples and customs of the world ever assembled.

From the inception of a project to hold an exposition to fittingly commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of the Louisiana territory until the portals were thrown open and the world was invited to enter, occupied seven years. The duration of the Exposition has been seven months and during that time nothing has occurred to throw a dampening effect on the interest or to detract from the final day which has designated as "Francis' Day" in his honor.

The man probably most prominently known connected with the Fair is President Francis, and it was fitting that the final day should be designated as "Francis' Day" in his honor.

"This Exposition has been the work of my life," said President Francis. "It has consumed my entire time for the past four years but every hour has been an hour of pleasure to me."

The closing exercises were held at the base of the Louisiana Purchase monument in the plaza of St. Louis, where were held seven months ago the exercises that formally opened the gates to the world. The opening day the vast assemblage was buoyant in spirit and filled with an unanimous desire to give expression to good feeling; yesterday depression prevailed generally because the conclusion was at hand; and it was rather a mournful assemblage that formed a solid phalanx around the tall monument and listened to the farewell addresses. There was cheering, but it was not the cheering of final leave taking, and not the spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm.

The principal speeches were made by the Governor Dockery of Missouri and President Francis.

The introduction of President Francis was greeted with an ovation of cheering. When quiet had been restored, he said: "The result of this work cannot be adequately measured by the beauty of its landscapes, the grace and symmetry of its buildings, the comprehensiveness of its exhibits, the intelligence of its congresses, the elegance of its social features, nor by the ineffable pleasure conferred upon its guests by the workers and the help who have taken away pleasant recollections of their experiences."

"Those who have been engaged in the work will never cease to look back to the days of their participation in the spirit of the undertaking which have had their views enlightened, their tastes cultivated and their sympathies broadened. The millions of visitors who have entered these gates have by their presence encouraged this work of workers and the help who have taken away pleasant recollections of their experiences."

"The distinguished guests we have entertained have by their words and encouragement and manifestations of interest lightened our labors and made a great work of ours here, which we have brought to a close, a happy and successful one. We are proud to have participated in it. May it deepen our patriotism. May it strengthen our love for a benign Providence that smiles upon us."

Drowned in "Fool Killer." Stevensville, Mich., Dec. 2.—Peter Nissen, who started across Lake Michigan in his boat "Fool Killer No. 3," was found dead on the beach two and a half miles west of here yesterday. He is supposed to have been washed ashore during the night. His "Fool Killer" was about twenty rods down the beach from the body and was much damaged. A life preserver and his overcoat were fastened to the boat, which was blown to the beach. The body was frozen and the features reflect his suffering. The clothing on the body was somewhat torn. It is thought that Nissen could not have seen a great white wave, the body was found, as rigor mortis had not set in.

When the wrecked aquatic balloon was examined one of Nissen's business cards was found, on the back of which was a note from the dead adventurer, saying an air hose upon which he depended to renew his supply of air had broken and that he was doomed to die of suffocation.

Internal Revenue Receipts. Washington, Dec. 2.—The annual report of Commissioner Yerkes of the Internal Revenue Bureau shows that for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, the receipts of the bureau were $232,904,004, an increase of $2,163,079 over the collections for the next year preceding. The cost of collection was 1.93 per cent, as against 2.07 for the year 1903 and 2.82 per cent the formation of the bureau.

The estimated receipts from all sources of internal revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, are $230,000,000.

Tunnel Scheme Approved. San Francisco, Dec. 2.—Jacob Schiff, the New York banker, who is heavily interested in the Hawaiian roads, while here recently approved E. J. Harriman's plan for a 33,000-foot tunnel through the Sierra Nevada mountains. By this means over 1,500 feet of the present mountain grade of the Central Pacific will be got rid of, many curves abolished and most of the thirty-six miles of costly snowsheds done away with.

RURAL DELIVERY CONGRESS OPENS

Washington, Dec. 3.—An increased deficiency of 92.53 per cent over the previous year is shown by the financial statement for the postal service, incorporated in the annual report of E. C. Madden, third assistant postmaster general, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904. The report shows, however, that the increase in expenditures is an account of the rural free delivery service. Were it not for this extraordinary expenditure the postal service now would be about self-sustaining. The total receipts from all sources for the fiscal year were $143,682,624, and the total expenditures $152,362,116, leaving a deficit of $8,779,492. The deficiency the previous year was $4,500,000, Mr. Madden says. "It is believed that as soon as the rural free delivery service is fully established the increase in the expenditures on account of that service each year will not be more than the normal increase for other items of the service and years to come a short time after such normal conditions obtain the postal service will again be self-sustaining, a condition which has not existed since 1883."

Extension of the free delivery service has resulted in an increase of 1.12 in the number of postoffices discontinued during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, according to the annual report of J. L. Bristow, fourth assistant postmaster general. During the year there were 2,849 postoffices established and 3,978 discontinued. There was a decrease of 118 in the number of offices established. The total number of discontinuances was 3,750 postoffices, with a saving in postal masters aggregating $171,121. At the close of the fiscal year there were 71,131 postoffices in the United States—265 first class, 1,204 second class, 3,896 third class and 65,766 fourth class.

Operation of rural mail delivery and the extension of private interests of rural telephone service has created a demand from patrons of rural routes for the delivery of small packages of merchandise on an order to local merchants by postal card, telephone or otherwise. The value of such packages is small, and the present rate of 3 cents per ounce, the report says, is practically prohibitive. Mr. Bristow recommends that Congress fix a rate of 3 cents a pound or any fractional part thereof on packages not exceeding five pounds, mailed at the distributing postoffice of any rural free delivery route.

Mr. Bristow recommends to Congress that the interstate commerce law be amended so as to prohibit common carriers, to-wit, telegraph, and express companies, or any of their employees, from aiding and abetting in games of chance or lottery schemes, or other schemes carried on partly by mail and partly by common carrier and which is in violation of the postal laws.

Sentences Commuted. Denver, Dec. 3.—At a meeting of the Board of Pardons yesterday Charles N. Bryce, sentenced from El Paso county for embezzlement, was pardoned and the sentence of four others commuted. Several other cases were refused clemency and one case, that of Samuel Copner, was postponed until next meeting.

The sentence of Arthur Flannigan was commuted to a term of two to four years to a term of one to three years. Strickland was sentenced from Teller county June 1, 1904, for burglary and larceny.

Charles Davis, also sentenced from Teller county June 2, 1901, to a term of nine to ten years, had his term commuted to five to ten years. He was convicted of larceny of ore.

George E. Mow, sentenced from Fremont county May 14, 1903, to a term of fifteen to twenty-five years for murder, had his term commuted to from three to ten years. Mow was a member of the old McCoy gang, whose operations were frequent in that county.

Grand Jury Indictments. Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 3.—In the United States Court Thursday the grand jury found true bills in the following cases:

F. S. Smith, postmaster at Lander, charged with embezzling $747.37. William Merrill, charged with forging a postoffice money order at the Thermopole postoffice. Lowell Shaw, charged with embezzling funds from the Basin postoffice. J. B. Jackson, charged with burglarizing the Alma postoffice.

"Ute," an Arapaho Indian, charged with assaulting F. L. Crab, a government surveyor on the Wind River reservation. Claude Mudge, charged with perjury in connection with the case of Harry Brennan and Ed Thorpe, cowboys, charged with holding up Postmaster Jacob Lash, at Clearmont, and Ed Thorpe will be tried at this end.

Port Arthur Must Fall. St. Petersburg, Dec. 3.—With the confirmation of the news that the Japanese have occupied 203-Meter hill and the report that the Russians unavailingly attempted its recapture, officials at the war office are beginning to prepare themselves for the inevitable.

The ships in the harbor, it can be stated on high authority, are in no condition to attempt to break through the investing squadron. The guns of the warships were long ago dismantled and the marines and sailors have been participating in the land defense. Some of the ships have been injured by shells. If the fortress falls it is understood the ships will be taken outside and sunk in deep water in order to prevent the possibility of their ever being of service to the enemy.

CONGRESS OPENS

But Adjourns Until Next Day

Tribute to the Memory of the Late Senators Hoar and Quay—Great Floral Display.

Washington, Dec. 6.—With the Senate in session thirteen minutes and the House fifty-three minutes, the last session of the Fifty-eighth Congress was assembled yesterday. The time of both bodies was devoted entirely to the usual formalities of opening day. There were the greetings between members, the great floral display and the half-dressed women predominating. Corridors, committee rooms and cloak rooms were thronged. The bustle extended even to the floors of the chambers.

The eulogies of Senator Frye, president pro tem. of the Senate, and Speaker Cannon of the House, fell exactly at 12 o'clock.

In each house a committee was appointed to wait upon the President and inform him that Congress was ready to receive any communication. Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Senators Hoar of Massachusetts and Quay of Pennsylvania were adopted and the adjournments taken were in further tribute to their memory.

The only business outside of the usual first day routine was the adoption of a resolution in the House extending the time within which the merchant marine commission may make its report.

When Senator Fairbanks, vice president elect, entered the chamber, he was greeted warmly by many of his colleagues. The visitors applauded his entrance with cheers and hand-clapping.

In his private room for some time before the House met, Speaker Cannon held an informal reception to "the boys" as he is wont to call his assistants in the House. Without distinction as to party, the members dropped in to pay their respects, and for each he had a pleasant word.

The floral tribute was beautiful in the extreme. There was hardly a desk that was not banked with floral pieces of some kind.

SENTENCED FOR FRAUD.

Colorado Supreme Court Punishes Election Thieves.

Denver, Dec. 6.—With formalities so brief that the entire proceedings consumed less than ten minutes, the Supreme Court yesterday morning imposed jail sentences and heavy fines upon four officials from Ward 5, Precinct 1, who had been convicted of having violated the court's injunctive order regarding the Denver election.

Chief Justice Gabbert delivered the decision in the case of the election officers. The court's findings follow in full: "The court finds that you, Frank Kratke, Joseph Ray, Charles Kofsky and Edward O'Malia, willfully violated the mandates of the injunction issued by this court in the case of People vs. Tool, being docket No. 4,930 on the records of this court, in two particulars: "First—With respect to the appointment of an election clerk in Precinct 8 of Ward 5.

"Second—in permitting divers and sundry persons to repeatedly vote at such election. You are, therefore, adjudged guilty of contempt in manner and form as charged in the information.

"In pronouncing sentence we shall take into consideration the moral turpitude involved in the commission of the acts which constitute the attempt of which you have been found guilty. There can be no doubt, from the testimony, but that the two judges of election and Clerk O'Malia knowingly and willfully permitted a great many persons to repeatedly vote at the election to which I have referred. There is not the slightest excuse offered for having committed these unlawful acts. In the commission of these acts you were not only aided and abetted by the respondent, Frank Kratke, but by his presence and his actions he encouraged and protected persons in the commission of these unlawful acts in the way of repeating.

"The court adjudges as a punishment that the respondent, Frank Kratke, shall be confined in the common jail of the city and county of Denver for the period of one year, and fined in the sum of $1,000 and costs, to stand committed until such fine and costs are paid.

"The respondents, Joseph Ray and Edward O'Malia, are committed to the common jail of the city and county of Denver for the period of six months, and each fined in the sum of $500 and costs, to stand committed until such fine and costs are paid.

"The respondent, Kofsky, is committed to the common jail of the city and county of Denver for the period of three months and is fined in the sum of $250 and costs, and will stand committed until such fine and costs are paid.

"We are not satisfied from the testimony that the respondent, Carl Wilson, is guilty, and for that reason he will be discharged."

NEEDS OF NAVY

Secretary Morton's Report

Naval Estimates Cut Down, Although Full Amount Was Needed—Record Broken in Number of War Ships Launched.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The annual report of Secretary of the Navy Morton, made public today, is in part as follows: "The naval estimates for the next fiscal year are large, the largest ever submitted, notwithstanding the fact that they have been cut down from those sent in by the bureau more than $17,000,000. We have asked for less than the money actually required to continue the naval program as laid down by the general board, at which Admiral Dewey is the head, notwithstanding all who have studied the question carefully agree that this program should be carried out.

"The past year was an important one in the history of our naval construction. Never before were so many war ships launched by this or any other nation in one year. Vessel for vessel and type for type I believe our new ships will compare favorably with those of any navy afloat, and every American should be proud of the progress and character of work now being accomplished, not only in construction, but in all branches of the service."

"New ships necessarily require more officers, more marines and more enlisted men, and the appropriations are quite likely to increase steadily for some years to come. The more ships we have the greater our fixed charges will be and the greater our facilities necessarily must be in the way of yards and docks and the ability to make repairs and take proper care of the fleet.

"Attention is earnestly invited to the recommendations made to the chief of the Bureau of Navigation respecting the need for more officers and men in order to carry on the work of the navy. It is useless to build ships unless provision is made to man, care for and use them."

Secretary Morton favors medals of honor of two classes in the navy—the one for gallantry in action and the other for heroism in war.

The savings system for enlisted men has shown that the latter appreciate the plan and more than half a million has been deposited in the system. The plan has been completed also by the Y. M. C. A., and several gifts to it are acknowledged.

Denver's "Padded" Vote. Denver, Dec. 4.—The Republic this morning says: "A startling evidence has already been secured by the Republican organization to make request from the proper court for a complete and independent re-canvass and count of the Denver vote, which would reveal a state of affairs that would surprise the callous. The bureau has been under taken in a most systematic manner and thanks to Judge Lindsey of the County Court and the Supreme Court bench, the evidence will be complete and there will be no opportunity of getting rid of the tell-tale evidence in the ballot boxes and the boxes in the hands of the buildings these people were registered from, stated, and when desired made affidavit, that the persons named did not live there now and were not there on election day. It is a case of a gigantic 'pad' that will be better revealed when the grand jury under the new district attorney gets hold of the basic evidence for all the frauds that have been committed in Denver, house.

W. C. T. U. Election. Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Lillian M. Stevens of Portland, Maine, was on Friday re-elected president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Helen Morton Barker of Evanston, Illinois, who has been treasurer for eleven years, declined another nomination. Mrs. Harriet Wright Brand of Indianapolis was elected to succeed her. Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson of North Dakota was elected assistant recording secretary. The other officers were re-elected.

Telegram was received from President Roosevelt in response to one sent to him by the convention concerning the prohibitive clause with regard to the sale of liquor in the pending legislation admitting Indian Territory to statehood rights. It was as follows: "Telegram received. The President has already taken the matter up on the lines of your recommendation and is consulting Senator Stewart as to the best means of making it effective."

Denver Shooting Affray. Denver, Dec. 4.—While throngs of men, women and children were passing in the vicinity of Fifteenth and Arapahoe streets at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Joseph May fired a shot from a .28-calibre revolver at George Allen, his wife's uncle. The first bullet struck Allen in the left forearm, inflicting a painful but not serious wound. The second entered the heart, but did not prove fatal.

Of the other three shots, one struck Joseph Chatterbox, a bystander, in the left thigh; another passed through the fur collar worn by Mrs. William F. Russell, and one went wild.

Federations Compromise. Chicago, Dec. 5.—Plans which offer a solution of the difficulties between the Chicago Federation of Labor and its parent body, the American Federation of Labor, have been agreed upon. As a result of the conference the Chicago Federation of Labor will retain its charter and will agree to place the order of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor in the hands of delegates from Franklin Union No. 4 of press feeders and the local union of steam fitters.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of constable for precinct No. 1, Roosevelt county.

The work of the Republicans in Utah during the late campaign was said to have been "Reed Smoot."

Edward A. Mann has been nominated by the president for associate Justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

Congress is now in session and what "Bull" Andrews does not get for his New Mexico constituency will be something enormous.

New Mexico is strongly Republican, hence if she is uncivilized, the Republican party furnishes a majority of her barbarians.

It is now stated that Oklahoma and Indian territory will be admitted as one state, but the prospects for New Mexico and Arizona are all.

Roosevelt's message instead of being an outline of needed legislation was more after the style of a magazine article devoted to a variety of subjects.

The recommendation of the president to curtail the expense in the government printing office would have more weight had he not furnished such a lengthy document for printing.

The burden of the presidential message was to raise more "kitties" and to spend more time in his proper training. Had he to subsist on the ordinary wage for toll he would better know why those who have are neglected.

New Mexico, Arizona and the Philippines are now considered unfit for self government, from a Republican standpoint. We did not before this believe that our Republican brethren were so densely ignorant as they claim to be.

The Republican senate says that on account of our large Mexican population we are not fit for statehood. Well, eliminate the Mexican vote and we are Democratic. In other words, our large number of ignorant Republicans debar us from statehood.

In this issue of the Herald appears the announcement of Inda Humphrey as a candidate for the office of Justice of the peace. Mr. Humphrey is too well known to need an introduction. He is one of our solid business men and has the interests of the town and county at heart, and if elected will make a good officer.

KILLED BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Wife Beater Starts in to do Some Killing and is Killed.

On Tuesday night, December 6, Jack Hinton was shot and killed by Willis Large, his brother-in-law. The weapon used was a colts' 44 caliber revolver, the ball entered the face just under the left eye and came out at the back of the head just at the base of the brain. Death was instantaneous. Hinton had only been in this county about three weeks. The story of the trouble is as follows:

Hinton had been in town in the afternoon and was drinking some but was not drunk. He came to his place about three and one half miles east of town and ordered his wife to get some shells for his revolver, saying that he was going to a literary society. Mrs. Hinton refused, whereupon he set to beating her after which he drove her and her sister, who was staying with her, out of the house threatening to kill them if they ever returned. Mrs. Hinton went to her father's house one half mile west, and told them what had happened. Willis Large her brother, then came to town, arriving about dark, and requested Deputy Sheriff Johnson to go with him and arrest Hinton. Johnson refused to go without a warrant. Large then called by phone Justice of the peace Morris and asked him to come to his office and issue a warrant for the arrest. Morris agreed but after communicating by phone with Johnson it was decided not to do anything until morning. Large begged and entreated the officer to go with him but to no purpose, finally he remarked, "well I guess I will have to go and do the best I can" and departed.

Arriving at his father's house at about 8 o'clock he found there his father, mother, two sisters and grandmother doing what they could for his other sister, Mrs. Hinton, who was having spasms resulting from fright and beating. There was also present two neighbors, S. R. Yater and T. E. Landers.

About 9 o'clock Hinton came to the door and leaned a steel jacket Winchester rifle against the side of the house and came in remarking, "Hello, what does this mean." The elder Large replied May is having a spell, Hinton then came in pulled off his overcoat and threw it on the bed, and speaking to Willis Large said "You are the cause of all this." Large then noticed a big knife in Hinton's hand, the latter having just laid down his revolver. After making this remark, Hinton advanced upon Large with the knife in a threatening manner. When Hinton got to within about five feet of Large the latter raised his revolver and fired and Hinton immediately fell. Large then saddled his horse and came to town and surrendered.

Justice Morris, Wednesday morning summoned a jury and repaired to the scene of the tragedy. After hearing the evidence the jury found that the deceased came to his death from the effect of a pistol shot fired by the hands of Willis Large.

Large in the afternoon of the day following the tragedy waived his preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Jack Hinton has always been of a wild and desperate character and is known to have killed five or six men, two of which are Henry Sapp, of Fisher county Texas and Clarence Marion, of Stonewall county, Texas. He has repeatedly threatened the life of every member of the Large family and on the night which he was killed had evidently come prepared and determined to put his threats into execution. His armament consisted of a Winchester, a revolver and a large murderous knife, the rifle and revolver loaded to their capacity, and the knife was still clutched in the right hand of the corpse when the officers and jury arrived. He leaves a wife and four or five children whom he never supported and habitually abused and mistreated and who will undoubtedly experience a great relief in his taking off.

Willis Large is a young man of good habits, honest, industrious and sober and possesses many warm friends in this community who while they deeply deplore the necessity for tragedy, highly commend him for his part in the trouble. Mr. Large is a young man only about 19 years of age. He has engaged the services of Fitzhugh & Ellis to conduct his defense.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation. -St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." THE MAN WHO DRINKS.

Leading City Stray.

Not only is the man stunting his self-control, weakening his vitality, and endorsing his constitution in business to make money by preying on society, but he is also yielding an influence for evil on the rising generation by his vicious example. A man cannot live for himself but is a responsible part of the great living organism, Society of the State, and and by no plausible logic can any wash his hands of the responsibility he incurs as a member of Society present and future. He disclaimed responsibility for his brother, Pilate washed his hands when he sealed the death warrant of the Son of Man, and for centuries Cain and Pilate have been branded as murderers and moral cowards.

Now if drink made men drunkards immediately, few young men would take the risk. But when in any community a few men of fine constitution and strong physique manage to drink along steadily for several years without appearing to be much the worse for it, these men become the best advertisement the saloon can ask for. The average young man is conceited enough to think that he can as safely take moral risks as anyone else, and since it is human nature to take risks that you see another man taking with apparent impunity, and since in reality not one man in ten has the stannin to be the successful steady drinker. I maintain that the respectable steady drinker has violated the responsibility of the strong for the weak and on his hands gleams the crimson blood of the nine tenths who imitated his example but perished. It were better to perish quickly as a drunkard than to live for years as a stumbling block and in eternity bear the curses of men who were wrecked by your unwarranted exercise of liberty.

JOHN MEKKER.

CUTTING AFFRAY.

Jack Baker Seriously Outs Walter Thompson.

On Wednesday afternoon Jack Baker and Walter Thompson engaged in a fight. The Thompson had succeeded in getting the Baker boy down when young Baker drew his knife and stabbed the other twice. One cut is in the fleshy part of the right arm just below the elbow, the other between the fifth and sixth ribs under the right shoulder. The latter cut is extremely dangerous and grave doubts are entertained as to the results. Dr. Bryan dressed the wounds.

Baker was promptly arrested by sheriff Odum, the preliminary was waived and he was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500. This was the third fight these boys had engaged in during the past few days, and it appears that Baker had been the aggressor in all of them, however, much of the blame attaches to older heads who have egged the boys to fight and in various other ways sought to keep the trouble going. While this does not constitute a valid defense for Baker it should tend to cause older boys and men to refrain from getting younger boys into trouble.

A Fable, Moral and all.

Not long ago, the engine, running a great factory employing hundreds of hands, got out of fix. Every effort of the engineer to make his engine go proved fruitless. Meantime every hand was idle. Finally an expert machinist was called in. He looked over the situation for a minute, picked up a hammer, and struck a certain part of the machinery three hard raps, laid the hammer down and said, "Now she'll go" and she did.

When his bill was presented it read, "For repairing engine, due 25c. For knowing how, $24.75. The above may sound like an "and" of the Tyler, Texas College, but it actually occurred. The moral is, it takes very little while to do things when you know how; and he who knows how holds the magic key to the storehouse of the world.

If this moral should cause you to attend Tyler Commercial College and learn how to do work paying $2000 to $2000 a year, it might be life's turning point to you, and the best thing to do after all.

Exa Gregg Entertains.

Miss Exa Gregg entertained last Monday evening. Such a good time has not been enjoyed among the young people since the Singin' School Socials of last winter. A "Musical Romance," a spelling match, a rollicking game of forfeits, a serene dance of the lively, etc., made the evening full of outside fun. Refreshments, toothsome, sweet, and insinuating were served adding lustre to the famous culinary dexterity of the "Villa" Sisters.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Misses Green, Wooding, Tyson, Rockefeller, Robertson, Camp Nell and Edna Carter, Clara, Malbe and Louise Gregg, Mr. Geo. Ragland, Lee Carter, Homer Spraggins, Charley Humble, Ed Tyson, Dr. Camp, Prof. Hall and John Meeker.

Have you any steers or cows or sheep to sell or do you want to buy any steers or stock cattle or sheep? If you want to buy or sell anything in this line we are paying the highest prices on the market. W. T. Gibbons & Co., Roswell, N. M.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Theodore's Black-Draught comes nearer regulating the entire system and keeping the body in health than any other medicine made. It is always ready in any emergency to treat ailments that are frequent in any family, such as indigestion, biliousness, colds, diarrhoea, and stomach aches.

Theodore's Black-Draught is the standard, never-failing remedy for stomach, bowel, liver and kidney troubles. It is a cure for the domestic ills which so frequently summon the doctor. It is as good for children as it is for grown persons. A dose of this medicine every day will soon cure the most obstinate case of dyspepsia or constipation, and when taken as directed brings quick relief.

DARVILLE, ILL., Dec. 25, 1898. Theodore's Black-Draught has been our family doctor for five years and we want no other. When any of our family were sick and sore all right in twelve hours. We have spent lots of money for doctor bills, but got about just as well with Black-Draught. IRA H. BADEL.

Ask your dealer for a package of Theodore's Black-Draught, and if he does not keep it send 50c to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed to you.

Portales and Vicinity

The Inland Valley.

The Inland Valley lies within Roosevelt county, New Mexico. It is more than fifty miles in length and varies in width from five to twenty miles. At occasional distances along this valley natural springs break forth, flowing constant streams of clear, pure water, and throughout the valley water in inexhaustible supply is obtained from wells at depths ranging from four to fifty feet.

Soil.

For a large part, the soil is a deep sandy loam, and as an evidence of its fertility, is covered, in its natural state, with a luxuriant growth of gramma and mesquite grasses.

Population.

The census of 1900 gives the area within the lines of Roosevelt county a population of 333. Now the population is 4,000. These are, principally, all from the states and occupy a high moral and educational plane.

Products.

From the natural rainfall, and often without adequate tillage, paying crops of Indian corn, Kaffir corn, milo maize, sorghum, millet, sweet potatoes, pumpkins, cotton, beans, peas and all varieties of melons have been produced. Exhibits of all these products that would be a credit to any country are now being made, both at the Territorial Fair at Albuquerque and at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at Saint Louis.

Artesian Water.

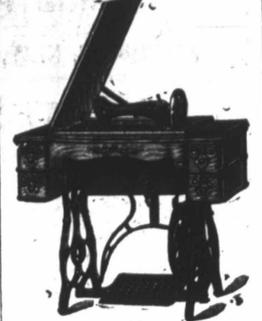

In an experimental well upon the public square in the town of Portales, a considerable flow of artesian water was obtained at a depth of 300 feet. Arrangements are now on foot for drilling to a depth of 1,000 feet, if a sufficient amount of water is obtained at a shallower depth. Should a sufficient flow be obtained, its utilization, with the natural soil and sunshine, would make the "Inland Valley" a veritable garden; and even should it not be obtained, the shallow water of the valley may yet be utilized through pumping for gardening and orcharding.

"Free Homes."

There are within the boundaries of Roosevelt county some hundred thousand acres of government lands subject to entry under the provisions of the Homestead Law. This may be your last chance to obtain a "Free Home."

The big Warren-Fooshee & Company store presents this week another big ad for the perusal of Herald readers. Their motto appears to be "the most of the best for the least." This firm has, by judicious advertising and good values at reasonable prices, built up an enormous trade. Mr. J. B. Priddy, their manager is a thorough business man and from a very small beginning has, in the past two years, builded an enormous trade which this house enjoys today. Remember that he who thinks enough of your business to spend money to get it, also thinks sufficient of it to treat you in a manner calculated to retain it. Read the ad in this issue and then call on this house for a verification of its promises.

WIFE SHOULD HAVE ALLOWANCE

A lawyer, with his cold-blooded reasoning powers, fully developed by his profession, gives his opinion as to whether a wife should have a fixed allowance: "A man should not marry until he has an assured income. When he starts out in life, let the goal for which he is working be a certain sum which he considers sufficient upon which to support a wife, and when he has attained it let him give his wife an allowance in proportion to his income. If this were done, if men were more level headed before marriage, there would be less work for the divorce courts. Of course, this is not compatible with the romantic ideas generally associated with courtship, but the final step, the taking of the marriage vow, entails so many responsibilities and duties that a man owes it to the girl he marries to do everything in his power to keep her married life free from cares and worries of a financial nature."

Territory of New Mexico, No. 18.

County of Roosevelt.

The Bank of Portales, a corporation.

T. C. Eiland, et al.

Whereas, the bank of Portales, a corporation of Portales, New Mexico, on September 20th, 1904, obtained a judgment before Wm. E. Pope, judge of the fifth judicial district in and for Roosevelt county, New Mexico, against T. C. Eiland for the sum of one thousand fifty-three and eighty-seven and hundredths ($1038 $7 100) dollars and cost of suit, amounting to $6.20 and all accruing cost, and a foreclosure of its mortgage lien on the following described property, to-wit: West one-half of the southwest quarter, the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter and the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter, all of section eight, township three, south range thirty-six east of New Mexico principal meridian.

Now therefore, by virtue of an order appointing me special master to sell said property, I did under and by virtue of said order on the 29th day of November, 1904, levy on and take into my possession as special master the west one-half of the southwest quarter, the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter and the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter all of section 8, township three south of New Mexico principal meridian, and in pursuance of the order made by said court on the 20 day of September, 1904, I will proceed to sell at public vendue before the court house door of Roosevelt county, New Mexico, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the morning, on the 2nd day of January, 1905, and the setting of the sun of the same day, to the highest bidder for cash, the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the satisfaction of said debt, together with all costs.

The work of the Republicans in Utah during the late campaign was said to have been "Red Smoot."

Congress is now in session and what "Bull" Andrews does not get for his New Mexico constituency will be something enormous.

New Mexico is strongly Republican, hence if she is uncivilized, the Republican party furnishes a majority of her barbarians.

It is now stated that Oklahoma and Indian territory will be admitted as one state, but the prospects for New Mexico and Arizona are nil.

Roosevelt's message instead of being an outline of needed legislation was more after the style of a magazine article devoted to a variety of subjects.

The recommendation of the president to curtail the expense in the government printing office would have more weight had he not furnished such a lengthy document for printing.

The burden of the presidential message was to raise more "kids" and to spend more time in their proper training. Had he to substitute on the ordinary wage for toll he would better know why those we have are neglected.

New Mexico, Arizona and the Philippines are now considered unfit for self government, from a Republican standpoint. We did not before this believe that our Republican brethren were so densely ignorant as they claim to be.

The Republican senate says that on account of our large Mexican population we are not fit for statehood. Well, eliminate the Mexican vote and we are Democratic. In other words, our large number of ignorant Republicans debar us from statehood.

In this issue of the Herald appears the announcement of Ioda Humphrey as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace. Mr. Humphrey is too well known to need an introduction. He is one of our solid business men and has the interests of the town and county at heart, and if elected will make a good officer.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgewick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50 bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Penrice & Dobbs.

KILLED BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Wife Beater Starts in to do Some Killing and is Killed.

On Tuesday night, December 6, Jack Hinton was shot and killed by Willis Large, his brother-in-law. The weapon used was a colt's 44 caliber revolver, the ball entered the face just under the left eye and came out at the back of the head just at the base of the brain. Death was instantaneous. Hinton had only been in this county about three weeks. The story of the trouble is as follows:

Hinton had been to town in the afternoon and was drinking some but was not drunk. He came to his place about three and one half miles east of town and ordered his wife to get some shells for his revolver, saying that he was going to a literary society. Mrs. Hinton refused, whereupon he set to beating her after which he drove her and her sister, who was staying with her, out of the house threatening to kill them if they ever returned. Mrs. Hinton went to her father's house one half mile west, and told them what had happened. Willis Large, her brother, then came to town, arriving about dark, and requested Deputy Sheriff Johnson to go with him and arrest Hinton. Johnson refused to go without a warrant. Large then called by phone Justice of the Peace Morris and asked him to come to his office and issue a warrant for the arrest. Morris agreed but after communicating by phone with Johnson it was decided not to do anything until morning. Large begged and entreated the officer to go with him but to no purpose. Finally he remarked, "well I guess I will have to go and do the best I can" and departed.

Arriving at his father's house at about 8 o'clock he found there his father, mother, two sisters and grandmother doing what they could for his other sister, Mrs. Hinton, who was having spasms resulting from fright and beating. There was also present two neighbors, S. R. Yater and T. E. Landers.

About 9 o'clock Hinton came to the door and leaned a steel jacket Winchester rifle against the side of the house and came in remarking, "Hello, what does this mean?" The elder Large replied May is having a spell, Hinton then came in pulled pulled off his overcoat and threw it on the bed, and speaking to Willis Large said "You are the cause of all this." Large then noticed a big knife in Hinton's hand, the latter having just laid down his revolver. After making this remark, Hinton advanced upon Large with the knife in a threatening manner. When Hinton got to within about five feet of Large the latter raised his revolver and fired and Hinton immediately fell. Large then saddled his horse and came to town and surrendered.

Justice Morris, Wednesday morning summoned a jury and repaired to the scene of the tragedy. After hearing the evidence the jury found that the deceased came to his death from the effect of a pistol shot fired by the hands of Willis Large. Large in the afternoon of the day following the tragedy waived his preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Jack Hinton has always been of a wild and desperate character and is known to have killed five or six men, two of which are Henry Sapp, of Fisher county Texas and Clarence Marion, of Stone wall county, Texas. He has repeatedly threatened the life of every member of the Large family and on the night which he was killed had evidently come prepared and determined to put his threats into execution. His armament consisted of a Winchester, a revolver and a large murderous knife, the rifle and revolver loaded to their capacity, and the knife was still clutched in the right hand of the corpse when the officers and jury arrived. He leaves a wife and four or five children whom he never supported and habitually abused and mistreated and who will undoubtedly experience a great relief in his taking off.

Willis Large is a young man of good habits, honest, industrious and sober and possesses many warm friends in this community who while they deeply deplore the necessity for tragedy, highly commend him for his part in the trouble. Mr. Large is a young man only about 19 years of age. He has engaged the services of Fitzhugh & Ellis to conduct his defense.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent a physician but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Sprig would have saved him. 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Sold by Pearce & Dobbs.

See me for fruit, shade, forest, ornamental, and all sorts of nursery stock. You can afford to do without our plain grown trees. Write for catalogue. Herford Nursery, L. P. Landrum, Proprietor.

THE MAN WHO DRINKS.

Leading City Astray.

Not only is the man stupping his self-control, weakening his vitality, and endorsing an institution in business to make money by preying on society, but he is also yielding an influence for evil on the rising generation by his example. A man cannot live on himself but is a responsible part of the great living organism, Society of the State, and and by no plausible logic can any wash his hands of his responsibility he incurs as a member in Society present and future. He disclaimed responsibility for another, Plate washed his hands when he sealed the death warrant of the Son of Man, and for centuries Cain and Plate have been branded as murderers and moral cowards.

Now if drink made men drunkards immediately, few young men would take the risk. But when in any community a few men of fine constitution and strong physique manage to drink along steadily for several years without appearing to be much the worse for it, those men become the best advertisement the saloon can ask for. The average young man is conceited enough to think that he can as safely take moral risks as anyone else, and since it is human nature to take risks that you see another man taking with apparent impunity, and since in reality not one man in ten has the staminal to be the successful steady drinker. I maintain that the respectable steady drinker has violated the responsibility of the strong for the weak and on his hands gleams the crimson blood of the nine tenths who imitated his example but perished. It were better to perish quickly as a drunkard than to live for years as a stumbling block and in eternity bear the curses of men who were wrecked by your unwarranted exercise of liberty.

JOHN MEKKER.

OUTTING AFFRAY.

Jack Baker Seriously Outs Walter Thompson.

On Wednesday afternoon Jack Baker and Walter Thompson engaged in a fight. The Thompson had succeeded in getting the Baker boy down when young Baker drew his knife and stabbed the other twice. One cut is in the fleshy part of the right arm just below the elbow, the other between the fifth and sixth ribs under the right shoulder. The latter cut is extremely dangerous and grave doubts are entertained as to the results. Dr. Bryan dressed the wounds.

Baker was promptly arrested by sheriff Odum, the preliminary was waived and he was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500. This was the third fight these boys had engaged in during the past few days, and it appears that Baker had been the aggressor in all of them, however, much of the blame attaches to older heads who have egged the boys to fight and in various other ways sought to keep the trouble going. While this does not constitute a valid defense for Baker it should tend to cause older boys and men to refrain from getting younger boys into trouble.

A Fable, Moral and all.

Not long ago, the engine, running a great factory employing hundreds of hands, got out of fix. Every effort of the engineer to make his engine go proved fruitless. Meantime every hand was idle.

Finally an expert machinist was called in. He looked over the situation for a minute, picked up a bumper, and struck a certain part of the machinery three hard raps, laid the hammer down and said, "Now she'll go" and she did.

When his bill was presented it read, "For repairing engine, due 25c; for knowing how, $24.75." The above may sound like an "and" of the Tyler, Texas College, but it actually occurred. The moral is, it takes very little while to do things when you know how; and he who knows how holds the magic key to the storehouse of the world.

If this moral should cause you to attend Tyler Commercial College and learn how to do work paying $600 to $2000 a year, it might be life's turning point to you, and the best thing to do after all.

Exa Gregg Entertains.

Miss Exa Gregg entertained last Monday evening. Such a good time has not been enjoyed among the young people since the Singin' School Socials of last winter. A "Musical Romance," a spelling match, a rollicking game of forfeits, a serenade from the outside, etc., made the evening full of lively fun. Refreshments, toothsome, sweet, and insinuating were served adding lustre to the famous culinary dexterity of the "Villa" Sisters.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Misses Green, Wooding, Tyson, Rockefeller, Robertson, Camp, Nell and Edna Carter, Clara, Mable and Leslie Gregg, Mr. Geo. Hagland, Lee Carter, Homer Spraggins, Charley Humble, Ed Tyson, Dr. Camp, Prof. Hall and John Meeker.

Theodore's Black-Draught comes nearer regulating the entire system and keeping the body in health than any other medicine made. It is always ready in any emergency to treat ailments that are frequent in any family, such as indigestion, biliousness, colds, diarrhoea, and stomach aches.

Theodore's Black-Draught is the standard, never-failing remedy for stomach, bowel, liver and kidney troubles. It is a cure for the domestic ills which so frequently summon the doctor. It is good for children as it is for grown persons. A dose of this medicine every day will soon cure the most obstinate case of dyspepsia or constipation, and when taken as directed brings quick relief.

DARVILLE, ILL., Dec. 2, 1902. Theodore's Black-Draught has been our family doctor for five years and we want no other. When any of our feet badly we take a dose and are all right in twelve hours. We have spent lots of money for doctor bills, but only along just as well with Black-Draught. IRA H. BADEL.

Ask your dealer for a package of Theodore's Black-Draught, and if he does not keep it send $2.00 to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed to you.

Portales and Vicinity

The Inland Valley

The Inland Valley lies wholly within Roosevelt county, New Mexico. It is more than fifty miles in length and varies in width from five to twenty miles. At occasional distances along this valley natural springs break forth, flowing constant streams of clear, pure water, and throughout the valley water in inexhaustible supply is obtained from wells at depths ranging from four to fifty feet.

Soil.

For a large part, the soil is a deep sandy loam, and as an evidence of its fertility, is covered in its natural state, with a luxuriant growth of gramina and mesquite grasses.

Population

The census of 1900 gives the area within the lines of Roosevelt county a population of 353. Now the population is 1,500. These are, principally, all from the states and occupy a high moral and educational plane.

Products.

From the natural rainfall, and often without adequate tillage, paying crops of Indian corn, kafir corn, milo, sorghum, millet, sweet potatoes, pumpkins, cotton, beans, peas and all varieties of grains have been produced. Exhibits of all these products that would be a credit to any country are now being made, both at the Territorial Fair at Albuquerque and at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at Saint Louis.

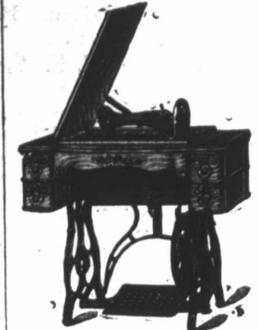

Artesian Water.

In an experimental well upon the public square in the town of Portales, a considerable flow of artesian water was obtained at a depth of 20 feet. Arrangements are now on foot for drilling to a depth of 1000 feet, if a sufficiently strong flow is not obtained at a shallower depth, should a sufficient flow be obtained, its utilization, with the natural soil and sunshine, would make the "Inland Valley" a veritable garden, and even should it not be obtained, the shallow water of the valley may yet be utilized through pumping for gardening and orcharding.

"Free Homes"

There are within the boundaries of Roosevelt county some hundred thousand acres of government lands subject to entry under the provisions of the Homestead Laws. This may be your last chance to obtain a "Free Home." Railroads.

Standard Sewing Machines.

Ball bearing, elegant finish, runs like a watch, the kind that gives satisfaction, sold on easy payments.

WIFE SHOULD HAVE ALLOWANCE

Lawyer's Idea of the Ideal State of Marriage.

A lawyer, with his cold-blooded reasoning powers, fully developed by his profession, gives his opinion as to whether a wife should have a fixed allowance: "A man should not marry until he has an assured income. When he starts out in life, let the goal for which he is working be a certain sum which he considers sufficient upon which to support a wife, and when he has attained it let him give his wife an allowance in proportion to his income. If this were done, if men were more level headed before marriage, there would be less work for the divorce courts. Of course, this is not compatible with the romantic ideas generally associated with courtship, but the final step, the taking of the marriage vow, entails so many responsibilities and duties that a man owes it to the girl he marries to do everything in his power to keep her married life free from cares and worries of a financial nature."

EVERY WALK IN LIFE.
A. A. Boyer, a farmer, living three and a half miles from Trenton, Mo., says: "A severe cold settled in my kidneys and developed so quickly that I was obliged to lay off work on account of the aching in my back and sides. For a time I was unable to walk at all, and every make-shift I tried and all the medicine I took had not the slightest effect. My back continued to grow weaker until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and I must say I was more than surprised and gratified to notice the back ache disappearing gradually until it finally stopped."

TEA

It is a most mild delight; but it is a delight—good tea, fine tea.

"There are two things," reflected Uncle Allen Sparks, that "money won't buy—happiness and health." Look at John D. Rockefeller's face, and then look at his head.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 4-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 oz." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

But, still, I think there are worse things than being kissed by a young man. What, for instance? "Why—er—not being kissed by a young man."

A BAD EGG SHAMPOO.

Story of a Bad Tragedy in Country Barber Shop.

Lafe Whitteater went into the shop of Harve Hines, our tonsorial barber, to get a shave, and while there Harve ast Lafe if he didn't want an egg shampoo. Lafe wanted to know what the darnation was an egg shampoo. Harve told him it was a new kind of a shampoo which he had administered in a barber shop at the country seat and that the regular price of an egg shampoo was a quarter, but being as it was Lafe, Harve said he'd give him one for 10 cts. Lafe thought this would be a good bargain, so he told Harve to go ahead. Harve he took a large hen egg which he had been keeping for the occasion and broke it on top of Lafe's head and then rubbed the contents into his hair. They was several in the shop at the time and they all went out into the air. Lafe kept a rubbin in the egg, until Lafe, who had been a holdin his breath but out and said to the lord sakes let him outen that chair or he would die. Harve tried to hold Lafe in the chair, but Lafe he kicked and struggled until he got loose and he run out into the street with the egg running down his face and back and he never stop until he got home and he had a terrible time agitinn the egg outen his hair. Lafe is not on speakin terms with Harve since. Harve said it wouldn't be so bad if the egg had of been a good egg—Bingville Bugle, Boston Post.

KING EDWARD IS VERSATILE.

British is a Jack-of-All-Trades—Some of His Achievements.

Who is the most versatile Englishman? Probably the unanimous answer will be his majesty the king, says the New York News.

King Edward is a sailor by training, and can splice a rope or climb the rigging as easily as any of his gallant lads in blue. But since those happy Britannia days he has played a practical part in nearly every calling and trade in the empire. The king has brewed 100 gallons of beer and been a tram driver. He has sold goods from a flower stall and run a printing machine.

In one day he made twelve pairs of butter, sailed his own yacht, experimented with a new rifle and delivered an address while showing his remarkable intimate knowledge of machinery.

Here are a few of his majesty's trades and attainments, in which at some time or other he has taken active and practical interest: etching, engraving, shipbuilding, bookbinding, motorizing, boring, mining, hunting, acting, weaving, spinning, pottery and engine driving. Altogether, the king has over 200 accomplishments, besides being England's most popular soldier and sailor and greatest diplomat.

Boy's Shrewd Guess.

A Monroe county boy was discovered by the owner of an orchard in the act of stealing apples. The boy happened to see the owner in time to make a getaway. "Here, boy," called the owner to the boy, who was hitting the gravel down the pike. "Come back and you can have all the apples you can eat and all you can carry away. Instead of going back however, the boy kept right on going. Meeting another man in the road, who had heard the owner of the orchard call, the man asked him why he did not go back. "Well," said the boy, "I did think for a minute I would go back, but then I looked again and saw that the fellow had one hand behind his back, and it sort of flashed through my mind that something was a durned liar."—Kansas City Journal.

A Scrapbook of Real Value.

To devote a scrapbook to one subject makes it much more interesting and valuable and when you begin to gather material on any one theme you will be surprised at the amount which will come to hand. Suppose that you do not know all about some famous person, either in the public eye at present, or some one of past times. From magazines and other sources can be collected articles, portraits, perhaps poems, in relation to the subject, etc. When matter is clipped, the scrapbook maker may copy it neatly with a pen into her book. The educational value of such a book is something worth while, as well as the satisfaction of having gathered oneself so much information on a single subject.

New Floral Decorations.

A floral arrangement much used in formal decorations for important houses is the huge bowls filled with masses of flowers, no set and regular design being permissible. Superb porcelain jardinières, therefore, are placed on tables once devoted to a myriad of billets, but now soverely bare, save for the bowl of flowers. Indeed, flowers play the most decorative part in the new house beautiful, and "the new art" so much talked about uses them as one of its most emphatic illustrations. Could anything in the world be more captivating.—Boston Herald.

Zangwill's Good Reason.

The old saying that "only lonely Americans and fools travel first class in England" was being discussed in the smoking room of a trans-Atlantic liner recently. Israel Zangwill, the well known author, was one of the party. "I always travel third class," said Mr. Zangwill.

"Why?" some one asked.

"Because there is no fourth class."

Saved by a Dog.

A Phoenix, Arizona, dispatch, tells how a brave dog saved the lives of three children at the sacrifice of his own. Ravenous wolves attacked the three children of C. V. Webb, between Cottonwood Wash and Pima, and only the sacrifice of a noble and courageous hunting dog saved the lives of the youngsters. When within two miles of Pima the young people caught sight of the pursuing pack. Maddened by hunger, the fierce creatures of the wild closed upon the children. The leader of the pack and the great gray wolf behind him were attacked by the dog which followed the buggy in which the Webb children were driving.

Touched with gratitude, the fourteen year old Webb boy, the eldest of the three, sprang from his buggy and tried to beat off the wolves with his whip stock. One of the wolves sprang for him but the dog caught the throat of the wolf. Webb regained the buggy but the dog was killed. While the wolves snarled over its carcass the children escaped to the settlement.

Philippines Need Railroads.

In his annual report, just published, Secretary of War Taft says: "The Philippine islands have now in operation but 120 miles of railway. Their superficial area is upward of 130,000 square miles. Their population is nearly 8,000,000. The railroad mileage, when compared with that of the dependencies of any other country in the world, is ridiculously small and is a full explanation for the lack of development of the resources of this archipelago. It fully explains the fact that there are to-day in the islands twelve different languages spoken by the 7,000,000 civilized Christian Filipinos, and largely explains the ignorance and state of pupillage in which a great majority of the people of the islands continue to live."

Lawyers' Club.

A Lawyers' Club of California has been formed, with a branch club in every county and headquarters in San Francisco. Its declared objects are: "The restriction of expenses, the elimination of delay in reaching a final settlement of cases and the securing of uniform rules of practice in the various counties in the state."

TEA

Is it tea that makes the Jap? What makes a Russian? Americans Temperate.

France drinks the most wine and Belgium the most beer. The United States as a consumer of spirits, beer and wine runs far behind most countries. The monthly summary of commerce and finance issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor says:

"France shows the heaviest consumption of the most concentrated beverage spirits, viz. 2.51 gallons per inhabitant. The other countries, following in order of their per capita consumption of spirits are: Sweden, 2.13 gallons; Germany, 2.11 gallons; Belgium, 1.42 gallons; United Kingdom, 1.33 gallons; United States, 1.33 gallons; Russia, 1.29 gallons; and Italy, .34 gallons.

The figures per capita of beer consumption reveal the fact that Belgium stands at the head of the nations, its per capita consumption being 56.59 gallons; second in order is the United Kingdom, with 35.42 gallons, while Germany, which shows the largest absolute figures of consumption in the matter of per capita consumption, takes third place, with 30.77 gallons; the United States follows with 18.04 gallons.

"The consumption of wine may be said to be concentrated in two countries, chiefly France and Italy. The figures of per capita consumption in these countries, 34.73 gallons in France and 31.86 gallons in Italy, are almost identical with those shown for beer by the United Kingdom and Germany.

HAPPY CHILDHOOD.

Right Food Makes Happy Children Because They are Healthy.

Sometimes milk does not agree with children or adults. The same thing is true of other articles of food. What agrees with one sometimes does not agree with others.

But food can be so prepared that it will agree with the weakest stomach. As an illustration—anyone, no matter how weak the stomach, can eat, relish and digest a nice hot cup of Postum coffee with a spoonful or two of Grape-Nuts poured in, and such a combination contains nourishment to carry one a number of hours, for almost every particle of it will be digested and taken up by the system and be made use of.

A lady writes from the land of the Magnolia and the mocking bird way down in Alabama and says: "I was led to drink Postum because coffee gave me sour stomach and made me nervous. Again Postum was recommended by two well known physicians for my children, and I feel especially grateful for the benefit derived.

"Milk does not agree with either child, so to the eldest, aged four and one-half years, I give Postum with plenty of sweet cream. It agrees with her splendidly, regulating her bowels perfectly although she is of a constipated habit.

"For the youngest, aged two and one-half years, I use one-half Postum and one-half skimmed milk. I have not given any medicine since the children began using Postum, and they enjoy every drop of it.

"A neighbor if mine is giving Postum to her baby lately weaned, with splendid results. The little fellow is thriving famously." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum agrees perfectly with children and supplies adults with the hot invigorating beverage in place of coffee. Literally thousands of Americans have been helped out of stomach and nervous diseases by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. Look in pkg. for the little 'ook, "The Road to Wellville."

Squirrels for Denver Parks.

Denver sportsmen are anxious to see a colony of squirrels established in the City Park, both for the reason that they are fine scavengers, and because they add to the enjoyment of those children who make playgrounds of the park. In many of the large parks of the East the squirrels constitute one of the greatest amusements afforded the children. The cost of keeping them is very small, almost nothing, as they are wonderful foragers, and, besides, can subsist off the bits of lunch, popcorn and other refuse left scattered about, without considering the food that will be refused to them by the children.

The red fox squirrel, a native of Colorado and found in any of the mountain parks, has been recommended as the best for the purpose. A few small houses perched away in the trees would furnish them with homes for winter and summer. They remain out all winter save in the very worst of the weather, and would not, therefore, require any special winter quarters. The little red chipmunk would make a most pleasant little fellow during the summer, but his habit is to retire deep into the rocks for the winter, there to remain warm and cozy during the bad weather. For this reason he is not thought to be a good squirrel to have in the park. The sportsmen are considering sending a petition to the Park Commission asking that a colony of the red fox squirrels be established in the park.

Greatest in the World.

Arlington, Ind., Dec. 5th.—(Special)—Mr. W. A. Hysong, the photographer, who moved here recently from Sapp, Ky., is firmly of the opinion that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest Kidney Remedy the world has ever known.

"In the years 1901 and 1902," says Mr. Hysong, "at for some time before I was afflicted with Kidney Trouble. My joints were sore and stiff and I finally got so bad I could not turn in bed without assistance. In the Spring of 1903 I was induced, by a friend, to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and after using one and one-half boxes I was and am still completely cured. Several of my neighbors, too, used Dodd's Kidney Pills and in every case they did as recommended."

Cure the early symptoms of Kidney Disease, such as backache, with Dodd's Kidney Pills and you will never have Bright's Disease.
