COUNTY TEACHERS MEET

The County Institute Met at Elida Friday and Saturday last week

BEST INSTITUTE OF THIS YEAR

Elida People Great Hosts to the big Crowd of Real Workers

The third annual Roosevelt County Teachers' Association was held in Elida on April 10 to 11, it was the largest as well as the most interesting association meeting of the year.

The first session was opened at 1:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon by the singing of "America". This was followed by an invocation by Rev. Jackson. Hon. A. J. Evans gave the address of welcome in which he made all the visiting teachers feel very welcome indeed. Our County Superintendent, Mrs. S. F. Culbertson, responded to the address in her usual hearty manner. The girls quartette then entertained the teachers with some excellent vocal music.

Miss Montana Grinstead gave a talk on "The value and nature of opening exercises" which was very thorough and instructive. Discussions on the subject by Mrs. Grinstead, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Palm, followed.

"Why teach domestic science and manual training in public schools" was presented by J. W. Taylor and discussed by Messrs. Inloe, Russel and Long.

A little girl then entertained the audience with music on the violin.

Mr. Inloe gave a talk representing the Silver City Normal school. He especially emphasized the advantages which the summer session of that school offered to teachers who would better equip themselves in their profession and had no other time for it.

A song followed and then the paper "How to interest little ones in school" by Mrs. W. F. Kenady. State Supt. White gave an account of his visit to the Montessori school in Washington, D. C. and made very clear the methods and value of that system of kindergarten training.

A motion made to adjourn and to meet at 8:30 the next morning closed the first session of the association.

State Supt. White and Hon. F. Roberts, of Las Vegas, each gave an address that night at the Methodist church, in spite of the stormy night a large crowd came out to hear them. Mr. White spoke of the New county high school law, school tax laws and other matters of especial interest to the tax payers and voters of the county.

Dr. Roberts address on environment was delivered in his usual entertaining and forceful manner. His ideas concerning influence on child life would tend to make parents and teachers think.

The meeting was opened at 8:30 on Saturday morning by singing "New Mexico." This was followed by a prayer by Dr. Roberts.

In the absence of A. R. Young, "The value of school athletics" was discussed by L. L. Brown.

POULTRY PAYS IN PORTALES

Longs and Others at Delphos dairying and raising Poultry

BIG EGG SHIPMENTS MADE DAILY

Several Hundred dozen eggs are shipped from Delphos each week

N. B. Long, who holds forth near Delphos, enjoys the soothing music of the cackling hen, and the jingle of the filthy lucre from her fruit. He has about 300 hundred laying Buff hens, each one trying her best to outdo the other, consequently he sells about 100 dozen eggs per week in addition to the large amount consumed at home. Mr. Long says he finds this a good paying proposition here, as he has virtually no trouble with disease or insects.

Mr. Long sounds a note of warning to the young fancier when he says that the poultry business must be studied carefully to make a financial success of it. He and son studied the business seven years before going in on a large scale.

Mr. Long and son are doing the dairy stunt a bit also. They are milking eleven cows and chickens and cows, that listens like a living and money in the bank; and it is.

The hen is a small thing, but a mighty factor in the land of good eating and finance; a great helper in solving the problem of the high cost of living. The cow is a bit larger, as perhaps you know, than the hen and is also a potent factor in the world of finance. The two yoked up together, so to speak, on the farm in Portales country, is a cracker-jack combination.

That's the sort of combination that T. A. Robinson and W. B. Huie, of the Delphos community have. They have some 200 brown Leghorn hens, principally, and are working for 500. They are milking, at this writing, 16 cows and shipping sweet cream every day, and receiving in return therefor, a nice hunk of the stuff that "makes the mare go."

These men have a very well arranged chicken house, barn, sheds and dairy house. They expect to put in an underground silo this season, which will add to their wealth. They have a

PROSPECTS OF WAR

According to the El Paso Times, the breaking point has been reached in the relations between the United States and Mexico, and decisive action will be taken today. Admiral Mayo has notified Huerta that Tampico will be bombarded in reparation for indignity of ordered American flag in that city. Huerta orders Tampico commander not to fire the salute, and the bombardment will be begun unless Huerta weakens.

According to today's Roswell Morning News, President Wilson has ordered 41 battleships and 21,000 men to back up the demand of the United States; and that Huerta appears determined not to salute Old Glory.

Advertising the Community

When the question of raising money for advertising a community for the purpose of encouraging immigration is put before the business men of any town, almost the first suggestion made is, "See the real estate dealers, they get the benefit." Let us see. When the homeseeker or investor first arrives in a community it is true that the real estate dealer is very apt to make a good sale if he can satisfy his client that he has found the country for which he is looking. In that event the dealer will make one fair and reasonable commission, small or large, in proportion to the size of the investment. Then he is through and most often business relations are ended.

But how about the grocer, the dry goods dealer, the dealer in furnishings, furniture, building materials, machinery, the hotel and restaurant, the hardware man, the barber and baker and candlestick maker, every line of industry connected with human necessity, perpetual and all the time, to say nothing of those who cater to man's taste for luxuries and amusements? These business men are certain to have the patience of every visitor while he stays and the continued custom of those who settle and build their homes in the community. Is immigration not of even greater concern to these men who already have to the real estate man who comes to worst cannot lose more than his office fixtures, unless he has himself made some bad investments on the side?

The real estate men are generally the best advertisers because they have to advertise to do any business at all and they go into the real estate business because they have the boosting instinct. But because of this necessity it does not follow that they should carry the advertising burden of the community alone. The general merchant can do some business while sitting back and profiting in the general prosperity created by others but he can make more money by putting his shoulder to the advertising wheel. His profits come back even though he never sells a dollar's worth of goods directly through that advertising.

T. B. Gallaher passenger agent of the Santa Fe railroad, and J. Brinker general freight and passenger agent of the same road and James Turnbull, traffic manager of the Pecos Valley Distributors Association, were callers at this office Wednesday. These men are enthusiastic over the outlook of this valley.

Captain Molinari, continues to make his store a "store beautiful." See those attractive palms bunch of pigs and hogs, and are agents for the cream of their section, and are splendid, hustling gentlemen, and are making good.

They "shore do" believe in poultry as a solver of financial problems in the Delphos community. While the Herald-Times editor talked with only a few folks, yet most everyone is in the poultry business on a greater or smaller scale.

J. A. Phillipps has about 100 hens, has a large incubator doing overtime work and is selling several dozen eggs each week. He finds that it pays.

A Busy Bunch

In this busy, work-a-day age, the busy man is the fellow to tie to. Hence that bunch in the county clerk's office is a dandy bunch to tie to.

Busy! Well, we guess. The work is heavy, very heavy, but they are right there with the goods. The work is handled with dispatch and correctness.

County Clerk, C. P. Mitchell, believes that if a thing is worth doing at all, it is worth doing right. He adheres to that principle, hence you will find things up in fine condition in his office.

His son, Guy, is one of the most affable and capable young business men of the city, who is always on the job.

J. W. Ballow, well, you can stake your last dollar on it, that he is in perfect accord with the idea of Clerk Mitchell, and is determined that things shall be done right.

The Herald-Times is pleased to have the opportunity of scattering these few well deserved flowers along the pathway of worthy officials like the busy bunch in the county clerks office.

Business Growing

As a result of correct business methods and as a result of the growth of the country C. J. Whitcomb is forced to

He will soon have connected with him one or two expert ice cream and candy men from the north when he will engage on a much larger scale to furnish the wholesale trade with that fine home made candy for which he has established such an enviable reputation.

Mr. Whitcomb, we understand, does not expect to engage in the wholesaling of ice cream, but he expects to make ice cream every day for his own use.

And, They Came Back

Not long since Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knapp, of Archburg, Ohio, visited their son, C. W. Knapp, who holds a responsible position with Warren-Fooshee company, and family for a few weeks. They were very much taken with the Portales country and intimated when they left they might return to make this their home. We are glad to say that Mr. Knapp came in, Monday and, we understand to stay. These are excellent people and we gladly welcome them to this land of golden sunshine and glorious opportunities.

Teacher Training Class

The teachers training class, or graded Bible school union, met in regular session Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the school building.

Mrs. Dunnaway taught the class, and the work was deeply interesting and helpful. Mrs. Freeman will teach next time. This class meets the first and second Tuesday afternoon in each month. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the Bible school work and desire to know more about the Book of books, to join the class. Sec.

J. E. Johnson shipped in fifteen registered Hereford bulls from Lubbock, Texas, Sunday.

PROSPECTORS VIEW VALLEY EDUCATIONAL RALLY HERE

ARE PLEASED WITH THIS SECTION

Find Opportunities Greater than They Were Represented to Be Coming to the Portales Valley by automobile from Knox county Texas, J. K. Wood and G. B. Branton were prospecting here this week, having been induced to investigate the rare farm opportunities by Trout & Smith.

Both these Knox county farmers are thorough in their intelligence and experience pertaining to crops and their production and what is very complimentary to Messrs. Trout and Smith, and the Portales Valley is that those practical successful farmers made the statement that the resources and inducements to come here were greater than had been expected as represented to them.

Messrs. Wood and Branton have returned to their home at Knox City, Texas, to make arrangements for moving to Portales Valley where they have good farms and other resources.

Dairy Cattle Shipped Here

Ninety head of dairy cattle was started from Taft Texas for Portales the other day. Most of them reached here Thursday, considerably the worse for the trip. They were dipped two or three times before reaching here and, we understand, were unloaded in an infected pen. Consequently seven have died already and others will likely die. However these cattle are very choice dairy cows, being, for the most part, full blood Jerseys, and will doubtless be alright after a few weeks.

Dr. Bailey and Rev. Carleton have 40 head, R. Hardy, 30, and Johnson Brothers 30. These are all wide-awake honorable business men, and will have, in time a very select bunch of dairy cows.

Mrs. J. B. Heck, of Mangum, Oklahoma, left for Roswell Monday after spending sometime here visiting her brother-in-law, Rev. W. L. Heck, and aunt, Mrs. C. V. Harris and other relatives.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

The Mexican situation grows more acute. President Wilson states that the days of watchful waiting are over, and vigorous action will be taken. The insult to the American flag is not a matter for arbitration, say Wilson, and he is backed up by Congress. It will be several days yet before American warships can reach the Mexican waters. In the meantime Huerta may be convinced that the United States is not "bluffing" and may salute the flag. If he does not, war seems certain with Mexico, at this writing.

Rally at Methodist Church Productive of much Practical Good

PROMINENT EDUCATORS PRESENT

Superintendent White and Doctor Roberts made good Addresses

An educational rally was held at the Methodist church Saturday evening. Judge W. E. Lindsey presided with his usual dignity, and introduced each number with a few appropriate remarks.

After a splendid selection by the Glee club, state superintendent White was introduced and spoke interestingly of the importance and value of a high school for Portales and Roosevelt county. We will not attempt to give this address here as we expect a story from Mr. White soon on this subject.

Superintendent White is a forceful speaker and is doing a good work in the position to which the people have elected him, not withstanding the attempt to slur him in a certain quarter.

After another selection by the Glee club, Dr. Roberts was introduced and gave one of his practical addresses on "Books Moving Picture Shows and Crime." He said, "Crime is not a subject left for the police of New York to study, but for everyone, for crime is found on every hand. Crime is a matter of education and environment. When not properly fed and educated we are apt to fall into crime. One of the largest causes of crime is the question of food. Disease is another cause of crime. It is infinitely better to cut the blood out of your boys legs than to let him go to the devil for lack of it. Girls and boys are taught to be criminals by allowing them to run out on the street after dark. These children are taking chance with fate. Obscene, vile literature makes criminals of boys and girls. Moving picture shows are educational and should be in the schools and church. They teach some lessons as books can not. I am a friend to the moving picture show, but this, and every town should rise up in indignation against every indecent picture shown. I would not allow infidel pictures to be shown. I would not allow crime to be shown, when th's is done crime follows. Eliminate these things and the moving picture show would be on a high plain. Dr. Roberts complimented Mr. Fickensher, saying, I understand that your showman here is anxious to have clean shows and it is your business to encourage and help him.

Called Home

Last night about 8:30 o'clock the angel of death took from the home of Walter Crow their little two months old baby boy. Funeral services Thursday afternoon at the cemetery by Rev. Dawn. The Herald-Times extends condolence to the grieved family.

J. H. SHEPARD EDITOR

Oh, you good old springtime!

Now for the hoe and garden.

Come to the Portales Valley.

What better advice can we give?

As a man thinketh in his heart so is he. It's easy to be a man if you think as a man.

Eminent duties should never prevent us from fulfilling preeminent duties.

There is no real victory without conquest, and conquest ofttimes means pain and sorrow.

Every man is individually responsible for his own acts, and he has discharged his duty only when he has done his best.

Say, now is a mighty good time to resolve to make that backyard help make your living. In other words get busy with the garden hoe and rake.

Some Difference

Tuesday a man said to us, "Why don't you let up on religion for awhile?" About one minute later another man said, "Here, I want to give you some money for your little daily. You are doing lots of good in this town."

This leads us to say that the man who is on the side of righteousness, and stands foursquare for those things that make for the moral as well as the material development of a community is in excellent company.

Why should we let up on religion? Christianity exists as a faith. The measure of a nation's Christianity to day is the measure of its civilization. The Bible has more to do with shaping the destiny of the nations than any other book.

Why should we let up on religion? Carlisle said, "The Bible is a noble book." Theodore Parker said, "Never a boy or girl in all Christendom but that was benefited by the Bible." The lion hearted Andrew Jackson said, "The Bible is the foundation upon which our republic rests." Daniel Webster, the father of American Independence, and the great expounder of the constitution and the great lawyer of his age said, "My heart assures me that the Gospel of Jesus Christ must be a Divine reality." William H. Seward, the diplomatist of the century said, "The whole hope of human progress is suspended upon the ever growing influence of the Bible."

Why should we let up on religion? President Woodrow Wilson says, "No great nation can ever survive its own temptations and its own follies that does not inductuate its children in the word of God, for the righteousness of nations like righteousness of men, must take its sources from these foundations of inspiration."

Why should we let up on religion? On his death bed, John Wesley, "The best of all is, God is with us. Farewell." Jacob Boemer said, "Now I go into Paradise." John Bailey "Christ is altogether lovely. His glorious angels are come to me." Benjamin Abbott said, "Glory to God. I see heaven opened before me." Thos. Scott said, "I have done with darkness forever." John Bunyon said, "We shall meet ere long to sing the new song and remain happy forever in a world without end." J. Harvey said, "The greatest conflict is over, all is done. To live is Christ, but to die is gain."

Good Service Monday Night

A splendid Monday night audience greeted Evangelists Haddock and Baird last night. The song service was excellent under the leadership of Prof. Baird.
Evangelist Haddock ably discussed the subject of "Wisdom." He said in part: "In Prov. 30: 24-28 Solomon speaks of four things that are exceeding wise; the ant, the conie, the locusts, the spider. Why did Solomon refer to these little animals and insects to teach us a lesson of wisdom?
Why did he not refer to man?
Because of all God's creation, man can play the biggest fool of all.
He acts a fool in business, in politics, in religion." The evangelists dwelt at some length here on the foolishness of division and the necessity of cooperation.

He said there are four ways especially in which man acts the part of the fool. These insects and animals each were especially wise in one particular. The ant provides his food in summer.
It begins in time. There are many people who wait until it is too late, then they bemoan their mistake. Their is a time for everything.

The conie has a safe place of retreat from danger and goes there when threatened danger arises. The only safe refuge for the soul of man is in Christ Jesus. You talk about being saved out of the church. It would have been as sensible for the conie to have gotten up to his home of safety and said "it is not necessary to go in."

The locusts go in bands, they work together. If all Christians would work together in dead earnestness and in harmony we could capture this world for Christ at once.

The spider taketh hold with her hands. She does her own work. She persists in it until it is done. Indeed great lessons of wisdom can be learned from these little creatures.

Prayer Service

Prayer service and a conference on personal work will be held each afternoon beginning at two o'clock at the church.

Everyone who is interested in the salvation of souls is urged to be at these services.

The Winners

"And so, Hezekiah, you say there is no chance today for a good, single hand fighter in the commercial 'mix up'! Soloists in the industrial symphony and not wanted, eh? Cut out that apologetic glib while I elucidate.
Now, listen to me, Hez.—But say let's begin with a bromide. In order to win you have to serve.
In order to help yourself you must help others.

Life is a vast system of transfers; each man does the thing he can do best, and if he can do it without supervision he need not throw fits at the thought of the high C of L.

Lubricate the wheels of existence and the world will pay you.
Also, throw sand in the bearings and society will put the skids under your prospects.

There are men who can serve well in one capacity who are strictly mox nix in another.

There are men who can become cogs in the wheel, links in the chain, and do good service in teamwork, but now and again there is a fellow who seems to be a rank outsider, and he assists society by flocking by himself.

Doctor James of Roswell, state veterinary, was in Portales Monday to inspect some cattle. The doctor said you may tell your people that a big frost fell last night, but that it did no damage to fruit.

John Reynolds and S. A. Crabb were in town Monday with a load of chickens each, which they disposed of to Ad Saylor.

Sing These

Below we give two little choruses that Prof. Baird has been teaching the audiences to sing in the revival meeting. Save these words and bring them to the church and sing them:

"Can the Lord depend on you?
Can the Lord depend on you?
Does He Find you ever true?
And this one
"Sweeter as the years go by,
Sweeter as the years go by,
Richer, fuller, deeper: Jesus love is sweeter, Sweeter as the years go by."

A Parable

By Rev. C. Jones, Haskell, Texas.
Then the kingdom of Satan shall be likened unto a grain of tobacco seed, when, though exceedingly small, being cast into the earth, grew and became a great plant and spread forth rank and broad so that huge worms, with horns on them, came and found habitation thereon and did crawl all over the leaves.

And it came to pass in those days that the sons of men did look upon this filthy plant and did think it was beautiful to be desired, and men claiming to be nice gentlemen, did put forth their hands and cut these filthy plants and cured and stripped and prised and wrought the leaves thereof into curious shapes and forms and the sons of men gave gold and silver for it and did chew thereof and some it made sick unto death and others it made their heads ache and caused them to vomit exceedingly. And those who continued to chew became unmanly and exclaimed, "We are enslaved and cannot cease from chewing" and were seized with violent spitting and they did spit even in ladies' parlors and on their carpets.

They invaded the sacred precincts of the Lord's house and there with prayers on their lips ed, and spinned, ~~their mouths, they~~ under the pews, in the pulpit, on the floor, against the walls, and then returned to their homes and said, "We have worshiped God, today."

Now, some of the Saints of the most High were well pleased with such conduct.

And it came to pass that this plant was ground to dust and called snuff, and ladies, even did make for themselves brushes and mops and dipped the same into the filth called snuff and placed them into their mouths and would rub and scrub mightily and would call this dipping.

The cultivation of this plant became a mighty business in the earth, and its leaves were also wrought into little rolls called cigars and the sons of men did set fire to one end thereof and did put the other end in their mouths and suck, even as calves; and the smoke of their torment ascended up and doth defile the pure air of Heaven.

And it came to pass that many of the so-called saints of the Lord did spend money for this filthy plant while the Lords little ones suffered with hunger. And the Lord was greatly displeased and said, "Wherefore do you spend money for that which satisfieth not, and why do the little ones lack bread and shoes and warm clothes and school books? Turn your tobacco filth into corn, wheat and cotton; put away this evil thing from among you and defile not your selves and I will bless you." But they almost unanimously exclaimed, "We cannot cease from chewing and snuffing and sneezing and spitting for we are enslaved to the tobacco evil."

An Easter-egg Hunt

About twenty of our Portales merry girls and boys were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Yates, last Saturday afternoon, by their little son Uriel, all enjoyed a delightful time singing songs, reciting interesting selections and had a jolly good time hunting Easter eggs After which all departed for home, expressing themselves as having spent a pleasant afternoon.

The Revival Meeting

The revival meeting started Sunday morning at the Central Christian church under favorable circumstances. Evangelist J. L.
Haddock preached a helpful sermon along practical Christian lines, using as his subject Peters question to Cornelius, "For what purpose have we sent for me?" He showed the importance of praying and laboring together for the salvation of souls.

At the evening hour at the Baptist church, where the future meetings will be held, after a great and inspiring song service, Evangelist Haddock preached a truly great sermon on God's Harmonious laws.

He showed that religion was a practical something that appealed to mans intelligence; that it was easy to believe in Christ. He also showed that God expects man to do everything he can in his own salvation and in the salvation of others, the same as in making bread; that we must do all we can to answer our own prayers. He said, "Prayer is not intended to take the place of a biscuit when a man is hungry, or an overcoat when a man is cold."

Christian Courtesy

Courtesy is always a real mark of the true gentlemen, and in most if not in all cases an evidence of the Christ spirit.

Christian courtesy was displayed in a most happy way Sunday, when Rev. Dawn, pastor of the Baptist church proffered the use of his church building to the Central Christian church for their meeting.

This was gratefully accepted and the services were held there Sunday night and all the future services of the revival will be held there except the Sunday morning services. Bro. Dawn will fill his pulpit each Sunday morning and the Central Christian church will hold their Sunday morning services in their building.

also by Mr. White and Russell. The paper on "Difficulties of the Rural School and how I manage them" by R. A. Palm was unusually interesting and would help to solve some of the difficulties of the country school teacher. This paper was discussed by Mr. Cook.

R. F. Richardson talked of the subject "How to Create a School Spirit" Discussions by J. W. Schock, Mr. Russell and Mrs. Culberson followed.

A very excellent and scholarly paper on the "Laboratory in the School," was then read by Mr. Long. The paper on the subject of "The Value of Cooperation in the Graded School" by E. G. Taylor was interesting and showed a careful and deep study of the subject.

The poem "A Vision of Hope" by P. B. Timmons was rich in thought and beautiful in musical rhythm. "The best there is in a boy" was then discussed by Mr. Russell. The lecture on "The Philippines" by J. V. Beller was enjoyed by everybody.

Probably the most important event of the meeting was the passing of the following resolution.

Resolved, that we, the teachers of Roosevelt county hereby express ourselves as being heartily in favor of increasing our minimum school term of five to seven months and request all parties to secure such a pledge from the legislative candidates this year. This motion to be printed in the paper.

The best methods for improving the moral standards" was discussed by Mr. Sam J. Sten-net and "The Inflation of the successful teacher by L.C. Mersfelder.

The meeting was brought to an abrupt and informal termina by the announcement the local freight was at the station and that those wishing to go north would have to leave immediately.

The citizens of Elida certainly believe in doing things right and this spirit was shown by the cordial manner in which they welcomed their guests and the hospitality which they extended them.—Sec.

Womans Suffrage Organized

A Womans suffrage club was organized at the home of Mrs. Lindsey April 9, 1914. This is perhaps one of the first local organization in the State.

New Mexico and South Carolina being the only two states not yet organized for suffrage. We hope to have this organization perfected in the state of New Mexico by May 2, 1914. Which is our national rally day.

The charter members list will be kept open until May 2. We also have a girl's auxiliary. The suffrage movement has far exceeded the expectation of the most enthusiastic suffrage. Judge Ben Lindsey gives us the following results of Womans suffrage in Colorado.

We have in Colorado the most advanced laws of any State in the Union for the care and protection of the home and the children, the very foundation of the Republic. These laws, in my opinion, would not exist at this time if it were not for the powerful influence of the women, which, at all times, has been back of them and those who have conscientiously and faithfully administered them.

We believe we have the best juvenile court law, the best child-labor law, the best compulsory education law, the best laws for the prevention of cruelty to children and the enforcement of the obligations of fathers to support wife and child, and the best administration of these laws when once upon the statute books, of any city in the Union. I believe I only voice the general impression of the best informed as to such matters when I say that we owe this condition more to woman suffrage in Colorado than to any other cause.—Sec'y.

The Tale of Two Cities

Roanwell, New Mexico, is a thriving, prosperous City Over six thousand people live and work and play there They have their friends, their homes, their families, their stores and their churches That's their city
There's another city—just as big, just as important, and just as thriving That's the Telephone city Over six thousand men and women are working in the mountain region today to handle your telephone calls If all the employes of your telephone company could live in one place they would make a bigger city than Roanwell They can't be spared, though, even to build a city For they are busy every day of the year in 400 cities and towns in seven states making your telephone service

An Error Corrected

Portales, New Mexico, April 12th, 1914.

Editor, Herald Times, Portales, New Mexico.

Dear Sir,

I wish you would kindly correct the statement made editorially in the other paper. Each pupil who takes the eighth grade examination is required to pay a fee of fifty cents to the State superintendent of public institution. This fee is paid to the county superintendent, and not paid to me, and the county superintendent uses these funds to pay the readers, or graders, of the examination papers, and for other legitimate expenses.

The law provides no funds, nor does it require me to give the eighth grade examinations. However, the state department prints the questions and distributes them at a considerable expense. I am not required to do even this, but I do manage to give a part of the expense, from my own appropriations for maintenance of the state department of education, which department is now being maintained on appropriations approximately three thousand dollars less than during the last days of territorial government. The rules for eighth grade examinations are fixed by the state board of education, and not by me individually.

Kindly publish this brief explanation that the people may know the facts. Very truly yours,

ALVAN N. WHITE,
State Supt. Public Instruction.
