We realize that our interests are mutual.

As parents we gladly give the praise to our teachers, Mr Stinnett and Mrs. Altha Lewis. These teachers have drawn the two schools closer together.

Mr. Stinnett has intelligent material to work on in the Doss school and he has made good with it too.

We can hardly say which of his pupils are the best in their studies, but according to age, Otto Capteend is the quickest in figures the writer ever saw.

The Shelby schools deems it an honor to enter into a contest our side.

Why Sign The Pledge

Because it marks the crossing of the line into the total abstinence brotherbood.

Because it strengthens one in the hours of temptation.

Because it encourages others toabstain from intoxicatingliquor A pledge is merely the written vidence of an obligation already

A man can hardly call himself total abstainer who has never inwardly resolved not to drink.

There is nothing humilating about a pledge. Every man who becomes a member of a fraternity or society of any kind binds himself by a solemn obligation; every official is sworn into office by subscribing to a pledge to support the constitution, obey the Mrs. Myrtle Powell returned laws, and perform the duties

> The church member takes upon himself certain obligations. Marriage is solmnized by an exchange of pledges.

Why should the man who in tends to abstain from intoxicating liquors refuse to let it be known? In hours of temptation it is a source of strength to feel that

If one is resolved not to drink the signing of the pledge is an She comes highly recomended as open acknowledgment of the fact informs a largenumber of people and extends the influence of the example. - Christian Endeavor

> The New York Times quotes Prof. Charles Scanlon of Pittaburg as saying "The various denominations which will be reprephia numbers 16,000,000 members. On November 8 four states > California, Oregon, Colorado, and Washington-will vote on the subect of state-wide prohibition and we expect to line up all the churches represented for an active campaign in those states. The temperance movement is on rising tide everywhere."

> first time in Illinois elections aided in closing more than a thousand saloons, adding 16counties to the 30 already dry and barring the sale of intoxicants in approximately 200 of the 300 townships in which local option was an issue.

Gets Big Returns

There are two things about the Herald-Times we would call your attention to Mr. Advertiser. It has a bonafide circulation easily four times that of any other paper published in this county. Second. Fully 90 per cent of the people who take this paper have paid for it and read it, These things being true the advertiser can feel pretty sure of results when he places an ad in the Herald-Times. As evidence of this, read the following letter.

Russellville, Ark. May 22nd, 1914.

Portales Herald-Times,

Portales, New Mexico.

Dear Sir.

Please send to me the cost of the advertismint run in your paper and I will remit for same. It certainly did bring in some correspondence. Discontinue the advertisement and let know what the cost is, I have already propositions to trade for all the land that I have.

I may send you another advertisement in the near Yours Respectfully, future.
