Steele-King

A crowd of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. H.F. King near Rogers Sunday the 28, to witness the marriage of Mr. King's oldest daughter, Miss Jennie, and Mr. Ed Steele of Oklahoma.

The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Parker Fortner.

A bountiful dinner was prepared which was greatly enjoyed by all. The best wishes of the community go with this worthy young couple, and may long life and happiness be theirs.

Let's Get Rid of the Flies

Any city or home is in disgrace with flies. Shall Portales be a Rip Van Winkle in this matter? Take the great city of Chicago. Not a fly is to be seen even on back porches. The money necessary to be expended in screens to keep out flies will rid you of the flies and save you from the annoyances and worry of having them around.

A new fly trap will be exhibited by the Civic department of the Woman's club which anyone can make with little expense and by cleaning up your premises, putting coal oil on pools which will spread over the top and kill the germs, we can make much headway this summer. Money will be given for dead flies. Come and see the trap, at the different stores. Snap shot pictures will be taken of the premises making the best showing within a month. These pictures will include the back lots in the business district and also in the home district. All children willing to work can find Mrs. Lindsey, the chairman, at Judge Lindsey's office on Monday from 3 to 4 p.m. Something like a cent per hundred will be given for dead flies, and the way to make the traps shown.

Rev. F. G. Calloway and wife left Wednesday for Denton Texas to make their future home. Portales loses one of most highly respected citizens and one who had the best interests of his community at heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wood who have been visiting their son Egbert and family left Tuesday for Tatum New Mexico where they will visit their daughter Mrs. B. B. Alford.

Attorney Jas. A. Hall left Wednesday for Roswell and will go by auto from there to Santa Fe where he has a case to argue before the Supreme court.

A. J. Southers and Mrs. Belle Tipton were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride by Rev. F. G. Calloway.

E. G. McKee of Elida spent several days in the city last week.

Some Change in Conditions

We recently visited the Causey country and we were much impressed with the number of cattle in that section. We believe every family has at least a few cows and practically all of them are selling cream and feeding the separated milk to hogs, calves and chickens.

This change has taken place very recently. A party said to us. "Just a few years ago, one could hardly find a cow in the whole country. Everyone seemed determined to make this a strictly farming country." The people of that section have learned that this is one of the very greatest stock farming countries on earth. What is true of the Causey community, is true, more or less, of every section of Roosevelt county.

Helping the Farmer

The White House grocery company are now buying pea green hay and shipping in car load lots.

This is only the beginning as they are to ship other farm product and have already contracted for a car load of onions which they expect to ship soon. Besides hay and cantaloupes this Valley will export several cars of sweet potatoes, onions and other products this year.

Road Taxes

J. W. Williams road supervisor for this district is now collecting road taxes and giving those who prefer an opportunity to work out their taxes. The road tax law is going to be rigidly enforced this year as it was done in the other districts last year. As has been stated before in these columns there is no way to avoid payment. It is not the intention at this time to do a great deal of road work as it is the busy season of the year, however there are some bad places which need immediate attention and on these Mr. Williams is now working. Now that the citizens are active and see what good roads mean for us it is hoped they will assist the authorities in every way possible in their work and in the collection of taxes.

Company M will leave for the annual encampment at Deming July 11. Roswell Battery militia companies from Carlsbad, Artesia and Clovis with Co. M of Portales will go in a special train of 11 pullman coaches. The encampment will be held from July eleventh to twenty-one inclusive and will be the greatest in the history of the National guard in New Mexico. Co. M. made a record to be proud of last year and this year under the same officers we expect them to continue the high efficiency which they have attained.

A. J. Whiting of Clovis District deputy for the Masonic lodges in this district visited Portales lodge number twenty-six at a special meeting Saturday night. He was accompanied by O. S. Jones.

Langton post office is again on the map. This office is about 10 miles northwest of Floyd in a prosperous farming and stock raising community and is on the route carried by J. W. George.

Cash Austin paid a week end visit with his parents at Clovis.

Santa Fe Improvements

The Santa Fe Railroad company has just finished building culverts under their tracks at the main street crossing. The grade at this point being somewhat higher than the surface of the street, obstructed the flow of storm water and caused it to flood the property on the west side of the track. This will necessitate the Town of Portales digging a shallow trench down Main street to take care of the water coming through these culverts. The grade for this has already been given by J. W. Walter a Santa Fe engineer. So ere long we expect the town will do her part and prevent further damage to property at this point.

Enabled to Keep His Hogs

Just as another evidence that the creamery business is one of the business paying propositions in Roosevelt county, A. G. Blakey of the Causey neighborhood, said to the Herald-Times man the other day: "We are milking eight or ten cows. We just recently began selling cream. It pays. In addition to the money derived from the cream, with myself for instance, I am also keeping four hogs, enough to make our meat for home use, from the skimmed milk."

We have contended that the by products are worth about as much as the money from the cream itself. Here is an illustration of that fact. Doubtless there are many farmers in Roosevelt county in the same condition that Mr. Blakey is in: could not keep and fatten their hogs if it were not for the separated milk.

Old Settlers Picnic

As usual the people of the Rogers country are preparing to pull off the biggest thing in the way of a picnic in Roosevelt county. The old settlers and others of that excellent community have an annual get-together along in August, and this year they are determined to make it "the best yet."

We have already received two or three invitations to attend this Rogers gathering, and we going or snap a hame string. We will have more to say about this picnic soon.

New Location

The Kandy Kitchen is now located in the Lindsey building. This building after being remodeled presents a very attractive appearance and the proprietors should be proud of their new stand.

Some Difference

While out in the county recently, enjoying a drive over some of our magnificent roads, we were struck with the marked difference in the crops along our way. We called to mind especially an instance where on one side of the road was an extra good forage crop. It was well cultivated. The land was clear of weeds. While on the opposite side of the road was another forage crop, just about as poor as we have ever seen. The ground had not been cultivated and the weeds had not been molested. Why this difference? There is no difference in the soils of these two farms. We talked with the man who had the good crop. As we expected, we found him a believer in the country, and an enthusiastic booster for the same. We did not get to talk with the other fellow, but we will wager our three legged office cat against a broken Jews harp that he is cursing the country and declaring that it is no account. What's the difference? Just the difference in the two men. That's all.

Bringing in the Wool

Really do you know where one would go to find a country that offers a greater diversity of crops and therefore a greater number of different things from which one can make money.

Among the many other paying crops, it is demonstrated that sheep pay in Roosevelt county. Practically every farmer could have at least a few sheep and they would yield him satisfactory dividends for his money and labor. The Joyce-Pruit company expect to have a buyer here in a few days and they expect to ship a carload or more of wool. J. F. Jones, Bob Dunlap and Charles Burnett will each have about 8000 pounds. These are the largest shippers at present. J. P. Deen is expecting a good price for this wool and says it will pay the raisers well.

Democrats Meet

Wednesday afternoon the Democrats of Taiban met in open meeting to instruct their precinct committeeman as to our wishes in the coming meeting of the Democratic central committee which will be held in Portales Monday, June 29th.

The meeting voted unanimously in favor of Hon. Harvey B. Ferguson for candidate to succeed himself and unanimously against creating any new counties at the next term of the State Legislature.—Taiban Herald.

GROWING CANTALOUPE

Prospects Good for Large Yield This Year Good Price Certain

LARGEST CROP EVER GROWN HERE

One Grower has Forty Acres That Are In The Best Possible Condition

For the past two seasons the Portales Valley has boasted of its cantaloupe crop. The crop this year will excel all others and the prospects at this writing could not be better. The natural conditions here are ideal for raising cantaloupes. We have not this year nor never have had any insects or the plant pests to destroy or hinder growth. The abundance of lady bugs found here in the valley are valuable in destroying plant lice and other insect pests. In some of the other cantaloupe producing areas they are obliged to import these little beetles as a protection.

Our cantaloupes are unsurpassed in flavor and have made the Portales Valley famous in the great cities of the east. We do not mean to gloat over the misfortunes of our neighbors but nevertheless it is reported that our strongest competitors, Rocky Ford were haled out a couple of weeks ago.

The Imperial Valley and other producers west of here as usual will have their crops marketed and for various other reasons perhaps the only other field we will have to compete with will be the Indiana field. Last year our crop was somewhat curtailed on account of there being no second setting, going from first to third. However this condition existed nearly all over the country.

We have in the valley this year about 185 acres most of which will be marketed through the Pecos Valley distributors association in this way we expect to get the highest market price. Last year the first car was shipped August tenth, this year will probably be ten days later on account of the wet condition of the ground at planting time.

Carl Mueller one of our best farmers is the largest producer. He has about 40 acres and they could not look better. This is the third year Mr. Mueller has raised cantaloupes and he has a larger acreage than ever, so that shows what he thinks of raising them as a money making proposition.

Dinner on Ground at Causey

The editor of this paper preached at Causey last Sunday and arrangements were made to have him back next Sunday for all day service.

There will be an abundance of good singing, three preaching services, and a regular old fashion basket dinner. It is expected that many of these in the nearby communities will join the Causey people and there will be a day long remembered in that section.

Marriage license were issued Saturday to Talmage Carter and Miss Stella Burney of Carter, and Ed Steele and Miss Jennie King of Rogers.

Harvey B. Fergusson
Harvey B. Fergusson the lone representative of the great state of New Mexico in the lower house of Congress represents an area larger than any other district except one, and one where the interests are more diversified than any other congressional district in the Union. He is only one among 435 congressmen and he is obstructed by two Republican senators.

When he wants to get a bill through for the good of the state he has no 17 colleagues to help him like a congressman in the state of Texas.
Mr. Fergusson is and has been a faithful Democrat working for the best interests of his constituents. He might have been more diplomatic in the distribution of the patronage but every congressman has troubles along these lines. At this time the prospects are that the Roosevelt county delegation to the state convention will be instructed for him.

Good Roads vs. Bad Roads

Good roads have a money value far beyond our ordinary conception.

Bad roads constitute our greatest drawback to internal development and material progress.

Good roads mean prosperous farmers, happy contentment, easier communication, greater production.

Good roads mean more cultivation, more and heavier food production, the better of the town.
Good roads will help those who cultivate the soil and feed the multitude, and will help the producers and farmers of our country to increase our wealth and productivity and benefit all the people. Our State Highway Department.

Which would you rather pay highway taxes or mail taxes.

High society is casting around desperately for a new fad. Why not try paving the road?

Life may pass you along, but waiting for opportunities will get you there.

Some men are so skeptical they never can believe them selves.

Indiana has come in out of the storm and granted woman's suffrage. Good Indians.

In California women are running for office, and in London men are running from women.

The community without good road is trying to do twentieth-century work with sixteenth century roads.

Unable to protect their amount of personage in any other other way, the lords of England are considering a last expedient of setting the dogs on the suffragets.

A new farm tractor is hitched to a wagon and driven with reins in the same manner as a horse. This is an unpardonable affront to the horse.

Open Letter From S. F. Lane

Messrs. Coe Howard and R. G. Bryant:

I have read your platforms as published in the Herald-Times and can say they do very well as far as they go, but they do not go far enough.

How do you stand on the present methods and rates of taxation?

If elected to the high office which you seek, will you favor a more just and equitable tax law, or will you favor continuing in the same rut? Will you confer with our own great Governor and agree to support and work for a just salary bill that he is willing to sign?

Had it not been for our governor's veto power we would have a salary law that would bankrupt our state.

If you want to bring capital and investors to our state and at the same time help those who are already here, to stay, legislate to lighten our tax burdens, one of the greatest hindrances to the development of our great state, is our excessive high and unjust rate of taxation, and the distribution thereof.

In conversation with one of the leading business men of Portales that gentleman remarked that his taxes were more than twice as high here as they were in Texas on the same kind and amount of goods, and this in a county with a considerable bonded indebtedness.

Now are our officers so much better than the Texas boys that they need a better salary, and is our citizenship so much lower than theirs that we must tax them to death just simply because they can't help themselves? I don't believe they are.

I recently read a letter in the Kansas City Star from a gentleman in one of our western counties wherein he stated their taxes were from five to seven dollars on the hundred. I do not doubt it, but which advertisement do you think is the most likely to appeal to an investor; the statement of the business gentleman of Portales or the fact that New Mexico offers the low tax rate of from five to seven hundred dollars on the hundred?

I simply call your attention to this Texas matter to show you that if good old Texas and her splendid citizens can prosper under a low tax we ought to be able to do so.

I can hear you both snicker in your sleeve, and ask why I don't go to Texas if I think it such a grand state.

Now I am not 'catering' to any free advertising through the medium of our home paper and this article, but if we are to have no relief from our present tax burdens, then I am ready to sell to anyone who is simple enough to buy and pay an excessive tax. Until then I am for the man who can prove to us tax payers that he stands four square for the masses and not the classes.

Very truly, S. F. Lane.

Alex McCall came in from Texas Monday to take charge of the McCall ranch. His father and mother are going to move to Portales.

Acknowledgement

We acknowledge an invitation to attend a joint Sunday school picnic between the Union and Fairfield communities the Glorious Fourth and deliver a Bible-school address.

These are splendid communities. Both have good Sunday schools. Both do things in a great way. Either one could have a par excellence picnic, but when the two get together, well, that will be a gathering long to be remembered. All this being true, the Herald-Times editor regrets very much that a previous engagement makes it impossible for him to attend the Union Fair field picnic.

All who have rooms that they will rent to normal students, and all who will take normal students to board will please register their names at my office at once.

Please attend to this as it will be a great convenience and help to me and all concerned.

White-Owen Wedding

A quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at 6:00 o'clock at the First Christian church, the Rev. Perry J. Rice officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Mary Owen and Willis White, both of this city. The bride was gowned in white embroidered marquisette and was attended by Miss Maud Loucks, who was gowned in white embroidered batiste. Willie Stewart attended Mr. White. A wedding reception was held later in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. May, brother and sister of the bride at 604 Mecca avenue. The rooms were handsomely decorated with sweetpeas and the dining table had carnations, roses and ferns.

A MISTAKEN IDEA

There are some people who still resort to drugged pills or alcoholic syrups to overcome colds, nervousness or general debility, and who know that the pure, unadulterated nourishment in Scott's Emulsion is eminently better, but refrain from taking it because they fear it may lead to excessive fat or obesity. This is a mistaken idea, because Scott's Emulsion first strengthens the body before making flesh. Its blood-forming properties aid nature to throw off sickness by building health from its very source, and flesh is formed only by its continued use. Avoid alcoholic substitutes for SCOTT'S.

R. G. BRYANT COE HOWARD

Announces as Candidate For Legislature

Subject to the Action of the Democratic Party. Below You Will Find His Platform

To the Democrats of Roosevelt county.—I am a candidate for the legislature and seek the nomination for said office at your hands, and as I may be unable to meet all of you as I would like to do, I state some of the principles and matters for which I stand, so that you will know something of me along that line.

First, I shall expect to fight graft in all its forms, whether county, district or state and work for all measures that promote economy and reduce the burdens of taxation on the people, and in line with this general policy, I would favor.

A law requiring the county treasurer to loan the public monies, he now puts in the banks for safe keeping, to the banks that would pay the highest rate of interest therefor on competitive bids, secured by a good and sufficient bond.

Next, I favor electing all county officials once every two years, and allowing an officer to succeed himself, and I would further provide, that any officer be subject to the recall at any time the people felt that he was not doing his duty.

I favor fair salaries for the officers, but do not believe in extravagance, and do not see any reason for paying any officer more than he is reasonably entitled to, taking into consideration the amount of work and the duties of his office. I think the salaries of the district judges should be reduced from $4500 to $3000 per year, as they get their expenses paid. This would save the state alone $13,500 per year. Every thing saved in the way of expense is keeping down taxes.

I would favor abolishing the office of district attorney and providing for a county attorney in each county in instead, which in my judgment, would be less expensive and more satisfactory to the people.

Another thing. The people of this county have to pay too much fees. For instance every time you or I give a mortgage on a little bunch of personal property, it costs a dollar and a half to record that mortgage, even if we don't borrow over fifteen dollars, and we have to pay of course. Fifteen cents is enough to provide for filing it and etc., and the rate might be raised some for large mortgages. There are many fees, including court fees, and costs of litigation, that now make it burdensome for one to assert his rights in court, that should be reduced, and it made easier for one to get justice.

All measures which may with justice be urged to advance our state morally and educate the children of the land, who will soon be the citizens, who control affairs, and all measures which would give us better and cheaper railroad rates and all laws which would help advance the financial interests of every citizen of the state, including any provisions for helping the small farmer and the small stock men, make better homes, I shall expect to work for and stand for with all of my ability and if elected, I will let you hear from me and will render to you an account of my stewardship as your servant, that I trust will cause you no regret that you placed your faith and confidence in me. I am,

Very Respectfully,
R. G. BRYANT.

Announces as Candidate For Legislature

Subject to the Action of the Democratic Primary. Below you Will Find His Platform

Realizing that the future prosperity of our state and its people depend largely on the enactment of such laws as will give every individual equal opportunity and any party seeking this responsible position as I see it should be able to look beyond class or special interest and keep well in mind the many classes of people that he will represent, and should be qualified to justly protect the wage earner along with those who deal in millions with this end in view I submit the following for your consideration.

If elected I will be fair with every interest I will be a friend to the laboring man and also deal fair and just with any interest that will help to build our great state; one of the great necessities for the prosperity and development of our new state is cheap money, the present national democratic administration has set out to inaugurate a national rural credit system the state should cooperate with the national government in bringing to the farmers and rural citizens cheap money.

I believe that agriculture should be encouraged, scientific farming should be promoted to the end that our state would produce more in quantity as well as quality, and under the state department of agriculture there should be a marketing system installed so the producer will receive the greater results in the sale of his products.

I believe a juror fee should be taxed in all civil cases, same to be paid by losing party and collected as other costs, I think we can lessen our tax burden in many other ways, one for example, would be that after issues are joined in civil matters parties wishing a jury should file notice with the clerk, otherwise the case would be placed on non juror docket. I think the service of the court reporter should also be taxed against the losing party in all civil actions, why should the man who adjusts his affairs out of court be required to pay a tax to furnish a jury to others carrying on litigation. I am in favor of giving additional jurisdiction to the Probate courts in civil matters not involving more than $1000 and over criminal matters involving misdemeanors as will expedite justice and greatly lessen our burdens of taxation.

I believe convict labor should be used on public roads, for good roads is good business by means of good roads cities, towns, villages, rural communities, are brought closer together distant farmers are saved great expense and time in getting to market, good roads increases property values.

I believe we should regulate our fees paid to county say for example you have a mortgage for $50 and the bank or other larger interests holds one for $10,000 it would cost you just as much to file your $50 mortgage for record as the $10,000, I believe the fees should be regulated according to amount of instrument ranging from 25c up.

I believe in a gross revenue tax on all public service corporations such as railroads, telegraph Co., telephone Co., Pullman Co., coal mines, I am also in favor of a reduction in passenger fare and a regulation of freight rates so that our products may be placed on the market on the same basis with our competitors of other states similar located.

I am in favor of state wide prohibition.

I feel that by means of the above outlined legislation along with other laws that may be enacted and that I favor our tax burden will be greatly reduced.

As to the county officials salary bill I feel that perhaps this bill will be among the first to be presented at our next legislature and I will favor a just and reasonable salary for all officials but do not feel that the tax payers of our state should be forced to pay an unjust or unreasonable salary to any person.

I have never hampered the progress of our democratic party by supporting the nominee of the socialist or other party nominees, I have always been a democrat and stood out in the open and fought for the rights as I saw it.

I will respect the opinion of others who differ with me in politics so long as their opinions are for the benefit of the masses and shall look with contempt on those who seek to widen the political differences of the people.

New Mexico is no longer looked upon as a barren waste but is fast being populated with a class of law abiding self respecting brave and progressive people who with proper laws and good government will soon rank with any state of her size and population, our mountains are stored with exhaustless treasures of coal and other minerals and covered with valuable forests, our valleys are fast becoming the garden spots of the world where irrigation is susceptible our plains are proving to be second to none for the industry of stock farming and with this in view I pledge my every effort to enact such laws as are herein discussed and will from time to time give the voters my views as I see them on different subjects and assuring you that there is no one on earth who will appreciate your support more than myself I respectfully ask for your support.
