PORTALES, NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1916

T. I. Park Good Manager

T. I. Park of Dora, who is one of the leading citizens of that community, must concede his present prosperous condition to good management. Mr. Park came to this county about eight years ago and arrived with very little of this world's goods. Like most of the farmers who come here from the south-eastern states he tried farming by the methods they used "back home." However, having a mind to succeed in spite of the seeming failures of the first two or three years, he soon found his mistake and combined stock-farming with his other industries. He now has something over a hundred head of young cattle, more than fifty hogs, and more than enough horses with which to cultivate a hundred acres of his three hundred twenty that he now owns.

Mrs. Park also comes in for a share of the good management. While on a visit at her old home in Tennessee three years ago, she was given $5.00; to this she added one dollar more and bought a pig. From this one sow Mrs. Park has sold enough hogs to make another visit to Tennessee and has ten hogs left. It only takes determination and good management to succeed in this country.

Surprise Luncheon.

On Tuesday evening June 6th, the members of last year's Senior class met and made their way to the Lindsey home where Mrs. Lindsey had prepared a delicious luncheon. The affair was planned as a surprise for Miss Helen Lindsey, who has just returned from Las Vegas, where she has been attending school. After luncheon, the guests spent the time in playing games and recounting the experiences of the past year. Those who enjoyed this delightful evening were, Misses Nora Fairly, Helen Lindsey, Willye Warnica, Willie Ferguson, Bessie Dickbreder, and Mr. Hubert Yates.

Mrs. S. F. Culberson,
County Superintendent of Roosevelt County.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the short illness and death of our little son, M. A. Hightower, who departed this life on the 2nd of June 1916.

May God's richest blessings and tenderest love ever be with them for their kindness to us. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hightower Blake Neal and Ernest Bristow left Tuesday morning for the border where they go to accept positions as mechanics on Uncle Sam's truck trains. Blake Neal has just returned from there and likes it so well that he couldn't stay away.

James A. Hall and G. L. Reese returned Tuesday from Lubbock where they have been attending court. Mr. Reese and Mr. Hall represented the defense in a cow stealing case, and as these men are known to do what they set in to do, it is needless to say they won their case.

Misses Lucy Culberson, Nora Fairly and Helen Lindsey returned Sunday from Las Vegas where they have been attending the State Normal of that place, for the past year.

Ducky Gowan and James Warnica made a trip to Roswell Sunday. Ducky played ball with the Clovis team which was scheduled to play at Roswell on that date. The score was 8 and 0 in favor of Roswell.

Roy Smith returned home Thursday from an extended visit in California and Arizona. Roy makes the statement that "it is some hot in that part of the United States."

We have with us this week the Van Sickle carnival. They are showing under the auspices of the Fire Department.

W. L. Carleton will preach at the Methodist church Sunday owing to the absence of the pastor. Rev. Carleton is an able speaker and all are invited to come out and hear him.

D. Harkey of Carlisbad was a business visitor in the city this week.

J. T. Turner and J. O. Benson both of Benson, N. M., were business visitors in Portales Monday.

Short Notes From Longs

The most important event in the current history of our community was the closing exercises of our school, which were such as to indicate that our teacher, Frank Greathouse, is "some pedagogue."

In the words of some one present on the occasion "The children never made a bobble."

A great number of candidates and creamery boosters were present boosting their respective interests and after the literary exercises it was considered too near the wee small, hours of the night for candidates to speak, so we regret to say that part of the program was called off and a number of boxes filled with the choicest viands of these parts were sold by Mr. Cornett to the highest bidders.

Candidates are always hungry and you might guess the results; $92.35 was thrown into the treasury of district 34 for the purpose of purchasing a school library and ye pedagogue feels a sense of satisfaction for he has even more than duplicated his work done at Inez last year.

In conjunction with our teacher we wish to express our thanks to all who in anyway contributed to our success, for we feel that the rural school library puts the isolated children of our county schools in touch with a world of knowledge, and opens a field of opportunity which they so sadly stand in need of over our county.

Let us see to it, that we employ only such teachers as will take as much interest in the healthful growth and training of our children into the very best citizenship, as the progressive farmer does in the raising and maturing stock of the very best quality.

We want to say also that our singing school is progressing nicely under the able leadership of Prof. Garrison and Peper.

Sunday school at Longs has an attendance of 73 and increasing.

A member of the board.

Singing Convention

Talk about your big crowds and bountiful dinners, ask Miss Sallie Bryant, Prof. S. J. Stinnett and wife, J. W. Yates and family and others of Portales who attended the singing convention that was held at the Doyal school house last Sunday, about twenty miles south of town.

The singing was fine and enjoyed by all present. The next convention will be held at Longs July 8th and 9th.

All are invited to attend.

Baptist Notes.

Last Sunday was a good day at the Baptist church. We were glad to see a number of people from other churches. Come again, your presence will be appreciated. Everyone is cordially invited to attend our services.

W. E. Dawn, Pastor.

The signs are right for the republicans in New Mexico to get cleaned up this fall. With the best element of the party at work with the Democratic party there will be nothing left but the favor of few and their slaves.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the Herald-Times was late last week, but here we are this week and we will try and keep on schedule time hereafter.

Bulletin N. M. M. I.

What N. M. is doing in the general movement for better military preparedness is well illustrated by the activities of the New Mexico Military Institute.

Just now the institute is being widely advertised by its motorcycle gun squad, an innovation in military appliances which is original with this school. A representative of the Pathe Motion Picture company recently made a special trip to Roswell to take a film of the cadets in action with this new implement of national defense, and this film will be flashed on the screen of theaters all over the United States.

The chief advantage of the motorcycle gun is that it can be taken to places and transported across country where no other gun can go. Two rapid fire guns are mounted on side cars attached to motorcycles. The machines can cross the roughest ground or climb the steepest hills. When the two guns get in action they have an efficiency equal to that of 8,000 infantry, spurring bullets at rate of 470 a minute.

The New Mexico Military Institute is now nearing end of the most successful year of its history. The enrollment this session has been larger than ever before and the standard of work accomplished higher. It is believed that the session of 1916-1917 will see an even greater enrollment and a more enthusiastic interest in the work of the institution; for the imperative necessity of preparedness for national defense is now uppermost in the public mind, and the excellent opportunities offered the young man by this school are such as to appeal to all who believe in the advisability of military training for the youth of the country.

New Mexico parents who would raise their boy to be a soldier, and an uncommonly good soldier at that, need not go further than the New Mexico Military Institute for the means of accomplishing that desire.
Roosevelt county has the best climate in the world and a great many do not know it. Tell them and send the Herald-Times to them for a year and let them know what we have.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blanton Mrs. O. A. Edwards and two children visited in Amarillo last week. They made the trip in Mr. Blanton's car.

Lucy O Culberson was awarded an Academic Diploma at Las Vegas Normal University, June 1st being one of a class numbering 22.

G. L. Reese and James A Hall left Sunday morning for Lubbock Texas, where they have legal business.

Helen Lindsey received the Regents prize for highest standing in Normal Senior class. All pupils from Portales made excellent records.

Cleve Compton.

For a candidate to answer the call of duty many miles from home and leave the field open to his opponent, requires a world of confidence in ones friends.

In the political arena one encounters many strong and seemingly unsurmountable situations, no matter how difficult, there will arise a man big enough and faithful enough to the trust of friends to cope with the situation.

When the Mexico situation took on such proportions that in the belief of our President, it necessitated the calling out of the National Guard of the border state, Judge Cleve Compton held a commission as Lieut. in the Guard. The fact that he was a candidate for Probate Judge did not cause a moments hesitancy on the part of Cleve Compton. He answered the call to the border, leaving his past record as Judge of this county and his many score of friends to look after his interest at the coming primary.

Judge Compton was at the time of his election to the present term of office, one of the state's youngest attorneys and the youngest Probate Judge in the State.

He is a graduate of the Law Department of the Cumberland University. He came to Portales 12 years ago when the age of 18 years and has made this his home continuously since. During the term of his office of Probate Judge, he has never had a decision reversed by the higher courts, and has been the recipient of many compliments as to the manner in which the affairs of the office has been conducted.

At the present time when we are remembering the boys on the border, we are certain that they are remembering the loved ones back at home, yet we know that Judge Compton and his boys on the border are placing the full confidence in us to take care of them in their absence. Under the above circumstances, it is only fairness and justice to Judge Compton that you give his candidacy for Probate Judge of Roosevelt county, your warmest and careful consideration, and take care of your home boy.

Mrs. S. F. Culberson, County Superintendent, who attended Educational Convention at Las Vegas, is much pleased with the conclusion of the discussion of educational plans and reforms.

W. J. Hobson of Kermit, was a business visitor in our city Monday.

A Square Deal For the Taxpayers

He sleeps a sleep that knows no awakening until the resurrection Morning when he shall awake at the sound of the first trumpet, when Christ shall come to gather his jewels home.
We have the assurance that Brother Fowler won his crown and is now resting on the banks of sweet Deliverance.
He had a respect for the recompense of reward which God gives choosing rather to suffer, afflictions with God's people than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, ever ready to assist those who were in distress.
Brother Miles Fowler was born in Gilmore county, Georgia, Feb. 20th, 1872, moved with his father and the family to Shelby county, Texas in 1884.
On July 10th, 1890, he was married to Miss Ella Carlton of Texas. To this union were born four children, three boys; Belton, Jewel and P. G., one girl, Bessie. All of whom together with their mother, one brother, one sister and his father still survive to mourn their loss.
He professed faith in Christ in 1896, two years later he united himself with the Missionary Baptist church at Burnsville, Tex. He was always faithful to attend his church and Sunday school and did his part in keeping up the expenses and general interest of the same.
Moving with his family to Portales, N. M. in 1906, settled on a ranch 10 miles Southwest of town, where he remained until 1914 at which date he moved his family to Portales, though remaining in the ranch business until his death, May 21st.
Funeral being preached by Rev. J. W. Bristow, after which his remains were laid to rest by the W. O. W. Lodge of which he was a faithful member.
To the family and the many friends who are left to mourn their loss, we are proud that we can say from our hearts: Weep not, for he, after having shuffled off his mortal coil, fell quietly in the arms of Jesus. We are glad that he testified within a few moments of his last breath, that he was ready to meet his reward. What more could we ask of his life?
Loved ones and friends, may his life be a help to us in bearing up and meeting the untried places in life, trusting in Jesus to give us strength, until we have finished our life on this earth and are permitted the pleasure of hearing God peacefully call to all of us: "It is enough, come up higher." A Friend.

Gone But Not Forgotten

U. E. Dodson of Chinle, representing Eastern capital is moving to Portales, and will open a loan office in the Reese building. We are glad to have Mr. Dodson with us. He states that he has plenty of money to loan on farms at 10 per cent which should be a benefit to the farmer.

What's the Matter With Us?

Whenever we see the business men of any community wake up go to boosting we take off our hat to them. We would like to do the same to the business men of this town.

Arvada, Colorado, is an example just now of what can be done when people want to do.

In some manner this impression was spread abroad that the business interests of Arvada did not invite an overly close relation with the community at large. It injured the town.

When this impression reached the ears of the business men they wasted no time in van regrets. They went to work like men and organized a community club—it is called "The Arvada Community Club." The object of the club is in the main to unite the interests of the town and the surrounding trade territory by bringing all of the people into closer touch one with another.

They will organize an exchange with a competent man in charge. Farmers, gardeners, any person in country or town who has anything for sale can list it with the exchange and it will be disposed of for them without the charge of any commission. Once a month a big public auction will be held at which all articles not heretofore sold will be disposed of without expense to the seller. The sale days are to be widely advertised in the local press and the most experienced auctioneers obtainable will be engaged. The business men of the town are to be urged to advertise their merchandise heavily in the Arvada papers and make special bargain days for the auction sale, and in this manner establish a close relationship between the town and surrounding territory that will be of lasting benefit to both, and that will cause the farmer to forget that such a thing as a mail order house ever existed.

Now if Arvada can do it, why can't we? What's the matter with us, anyway? Any man with a particle of gray matter under his hat knows that if the farmer could dispose of his crop and his small stuff all in this town to advantage he would do so. And if he did he would also do his trading here, for he is just as intelligent and as much human—possibly more so—as some of the rest of us. He knows when his bread is buttered, and he invariably takes the buttered piece.

We should have such an organization in this town, and it should be in working order in time for the summer's output.

Sighing and growling and cussing the mail order man won't do a particle of good. Nothing but brains and action will put him out of business in this community and keep our trade at home where it justly belongs.

The business interests of this community have the brains, but where's the action? What's the matter with us, anyway?

See the Tractors.

Already over forty manufacturers of tractors, plows, harrows and road machinery have signed up to demonstrate their line at the first national demonstration to be held at Grand Prairie, Texas, on July 18-21. This location is midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, and has ideal facilities for quick transportation to and from the ground.

This will be the greatest demonstration of power farming ever staged in the Southwest. Every conceivable belt and bar capacity of tractors will be shown and road building machinery will be demonstrated daily.

Plans have been made to make this event of value to the farmers and dealers and to everyone interested in the development of any phase of power farming.

Railroads have intimated that a very favorable rate will be given.

Our Homes and Our People.

The home life of this community is an indication of the character and makeup of the people who constitute the community.

Of course you will find exceptions to every rule of life but it is an indisputable fact that the home life of this town and countryside is one of the brightest spots in our existence.

We have been in a majority of the local homes and in almost every case we have found a spirit of happiness, contentment and thrift prevailing seven days in the week. We have found amicable relations existing between the heads of families; we have found strong indications of filial respect and devotion on the part of children for their parents; we have found a spirit of love and comradeship existing one toward another.

It speaks in volumes for the homes, the people, and the community. It indicates that we have a people who are above the average in intelligence, moving in an atmosphere that elevates instead of destroys.

In the business house and the offices, in the factories and in the shops, we find a consistent desire to be fairminded and just in the commercial affairs of the day.

That craving of "skin the other fellow" so prevalent in some communities is happily absent here. Our people are moving steadily and persistently and consistently upward and upward and to better things and to a greater future.

Such is the spirit of the community as we find it in our daily rounds. It is a condition of which we are proud.

It is the mirror which reflects the inner life of our homes and our people.

To the Voters.

The day is now approaching when the Democratic Primaries for this county will be held. I have been a resident of this county for more than fourteen years and my record is an open book. If you have not investigated my claims to the office of County Treasurer, you still have the time in which to do so.

It has been impossible for me, because of my present official duties, to talk with all the voters of the county. It is regretful that such is the case, but I could not afford to neglect the duties of the public in order to prosper my own personal ambition. I have made the campaign of the county in a general way, and if I did not get to see you it was not because I wished it so. To see all has been quite impossible.

I am in the race and will be until the last votes are counted. My friends believe that I am sure of election, but no one knows just how many votes he may have until those votes are counted, and I am still on the job hunting for good old honest votes. I may need them, who knows?

In case I should be your choice for County Treasurer I promise you now that I shall render the very best service that it is possible for me to render, and that I shall do the same in a manner pleasing to the public.

As to my candidacy I wish to say that I was brought out by myself for the good and sufficient reason that I want the office, and believing myself competent to fill it in a satisfactory manner I have applied to the voters for the position.

Your support will certainly be appreciated. John W. Ballow.

To the Voters of Roosevelt County

I still hope to see each of you and place my candidacy before you before the 17th, but in as much as my school closed late and I am having to make this campaign hurriedly I hope no one will be offended should I fail to speak to them personally and ask their support.

I am making this campaign on my merits, I hold a Professional Life Certificate, which is the highest the state grants, have had seventeen years experience as a teacher and promise that I will use my very best efforts to build up a good school in each community and trust that I may have your support.

I am not being run by any person, ring or click and if elected will have no political debts to pay. My policies have been stated since I first announced, they are my own and they are the ones that will be followed should I be elected. I will be free to deal with all people alike, expect to deal fairly with all with special privileges to none, and expect to devote my entire time to the duties of the County Superintendent's Office that I may be able to so systematize the school system of this county that each boy and girl may be well educated and trust the voters will not forget me on the 17th.

Yours for better schools. Robert A Deen.

have to say about cream separators this week

BUYING a cream separator is good deal like hiring a man to work on your farm. A hired man that does poor work and is lazy is an expensive proposition, no matter how little you pay him. A cream separator that is hard to turn, hard to keep clean and doesn't skim close, would be expensive even if you got it as a gift.

Creamerymen and dairymen all over the world recognize the superiority of the De Laval.

About the only reason why any one ever buys any other cream separator is because they can get it a little cheaper. Then they soon find out they have lost ten times as much from separation, inconvenience, poor skimming and a machine that quickly wears out, as they saved in the beginning.

Remember that a De Laval will soon pay for itself, and if you have no separator now, or an inferior machine, we can sell you a De Laval on such terms that it will pay for itself while you are using it.

The best cream separator is the cheapest. Let us prove it for you on your own farm.

Sooner or later you will buy a DE LAVAL who marketed two carloads of bulls here, made a good report on that part of the range country. Mr. Meyers said the country is fairly well stocked after the spring shipments. "The calf crop will be fully up to normal," said he. "There is a considerably larger number of cows in the country than formerly, which will mean an increase in our cattle supply. Many cows were shipped in last fall and through the winter. Aged steers, however, are scarce." Drovers Telegram.

School Bonds.

The $30,000.00 bonds voted in July, 1915, were first contracted to Sweet, Causey, Foster & Co., Denver, at $30,825.00 and expenses, subject, of course, that the record of the issue be approved by the attorneys of the purchasers. By Jan. 1st, 1916, the said record was finally rejected and the said purchase and sale refused. Main ground of objection appeared to be, that the law under which the bonds were voted was repealed because omitted from the 1915 Code of the Laws of New Mexico, which became effective on the 15th of June, 1915.

January 3rd, 1916, the board again contracted the said bonds to Percival, Brooks Coffin, of Chicago, Illinois, at $30,700.00 and expenses, subject of course to the approval of the record of the issue by the attorney of the proposing purchaser. A contract of sale and purchase could and cannot be obtained without such condition. To the present date, May 5th, 1916, no final report has been made by the attorney for the said Coffin.

Anticipating the payment of the money on the first offer, above mentioned, the school board secured plans for a "Unit System" of school buildings to be erected on the site of the present building, involving the raising of that structure and the use of its materials in the new structures. Under the proposed system a "Unit" consists of a one story structure having accommodations for three teachers and their assignment of pupils.

Because of the general rise in prices, occasioned largely, it appears, because of the European war, it is generally conceded that a building or buildings that could have been had for $30,000 a year ago, will this year cost $40,000. In view of this apparent fact, it occurs to the writer that it would be better to withdraw the offer to sell these bonds at this time, reserving their sale until such time as price conditions have reached what may be judged to be normal level. In the meantime, what can be done to provide necessary room space to accommodate the over crowded pupils in the schools?

It is estimated that one of the three room "Units" under the proposed building plan can be erected for approximately $30,000.00. This could be placed and constructed where it would fall were the whole "system" constructed at the same time. We are informed that there is now on hand in the "School Section Fund," some $3,100.00. Why not use this money, or so much of it as is necessary, and construct a "Unit" of the system, beginning immediately at the closing of the present term of school?

The three additional rooms, together with the present equipment, would be sufficient for at least the next coming year. $1800 interest per year on the $30,000.00 issue of bonds would be saved to the taxpayers.

Probably, within a year or two prices of materials for construction will have decreased as much as they have increased in the year or two last past, and if so, a great deal better building can be had for the money available for the purpose.

Let those who will, speak up.

J. S. Pearce

The campaign issues are usually viewed from two standpoints, viz: the point of view of the candidate and the point of view of the people. The candidate wants office and the people want service, and in order to get office too often the candidate is long on promises and short on performance; and as a result the people get nothing. Something they already have too much of. My first desire is to be honest with the people and to do this it is necessary to confine campaign promises to what you can perform. I wish to renew my promises to the people, which is my very best efforts to serve them efficiently and faithfully if elected to the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. One.

C. W. Terry

When a man talks to honest people who possess brains he gets right, to the point in direct and simple language. That is exactly what I am doing with you.

I was born in Lamar county,

Texas, and engaged in farming there until about six years ago when I came to Portales. I was engaged in the coal and grain business the first year in Portales and since that time have been devoting my time to stock farming.

I am a candidate for the office of sheriff on the Democratic ticket, and my fate is in the hands of the electorate of this district. It is in YOUR hands.

I have no promises or pledges to make of any nature, with one exception: If I am elected to the office, I alone will be the sheriff and the office will be administered strictly in accordance with the law governing the same, and in the interest of all of the people, irrespective of party affiliations.

That is the only pledge I have to make, but that pledge will be religiously fulfilled even to the minutest detail.

It is with this understanding alone that I earnestly solicit and hope to receive your support at the polls.

Yours truly
C. W. Terry.

Sam J. Stinnett

The day is near at hand when the Democratic primaries will be held.

I wish to state to the voters that I have tried to see all of you but owing to the fact I was engaged in teaching, my time has been limited.

If I failed to see you, I trust you will give me a careful consideration for the important position to which I aspire.

Having taught for seventeen years and ten years of that time having been in Roosevelt county, I believe acquaints me with every duty pertaining to the office of Superintendent of schools. I have been one of you for fourteen years and my record is open to all.

I am making this race solely upon my own merits and with all fairness to my opponents.

If I am your choice on June 17, I will ever appreciate your support and promise you a fair impartial and efficient administration. I thank you.

B. B. Clayton Speaks

To The Public:-

The duties of the Sheriff's office are many and arduous. Often times that office is working out problems of which the public knows nothing. To curtail expense this office has been using only one deputy, and because of the bad health of Mr. Deen the duties of the office for the past few months have fallen heavily upon me. Mr. Deen only recently returned from an extended trip to Mineral wells, Texas. Because of this situation I have been unable to prosecute my campaign as vigorously as I would like to have done, and I have been compelled to forego the pleasure of seeing many of the good citizens of our county. I did not, however, feel that it would be right that I should, in the absence of Mr. Deen, neglect the duties of the office and there by prove false to the trust imposed in me. I shall not at any time neglect my present duties as Deputy Sheriff in order that I might further my political ambition.

I sincerely desire that every voter in this county should investigate me. My record is before you as an open book. I believe, and my friends assure me, that my experience in the office for the past five years has fitted me for the duties of the office, and I know that if elected I shall give to the people of Roosevelt County the very best and most economical service that it is possible for me to give. Efficiency shall be my watchword.

Some one has said that it has been rumored that I expected to withdraw from the race. Such reports are very pleasing to me for they are certainly proof that some one wishes to impair my strength, hoping that I might lose a few votes by means of such a report. I wish it distinctly understood by every one that I am in the race and will be until the very last vote is counted, and that I feel that I shall be successful. If you can conscientiously vote for me your action will certainly be appreciated, but if you do not feel that I should have the office, then it is your duty to vote for the man whom you think will be the most capable official, and we shall always be friends just the same.

Yours very truly,
B. B. Clayton.

ROBERT A. DEEN
Candidate for County Superintendent

Candidates are having their last round with the voters this week and next week it will all be past history.

Monroe Honea

I have lived in Roosevelt county long enough for the people to know what I stand for and if you should not know me ask about me before casting your vote for commissioner of precinct number one, and you will never have cause to regret the vote cast for me. I am a Democrat by birth, and should you see fit to elect me to this office I will give to the people a clean administration.

Brains in Demand.

Isn't there some man in this community with brains sufficient to devise a plan for marketing the products of our farmers without enriching the hordes of middlemen who are now fattening on the toil of others?

Isn't there some one man with initiative enough to take the lead in this important matter and push it through to a successful completion?

Unquestionably it will require brains, intelligence, ingenuity and determination of a high order. But we believe we have such a man in our midst. We believe we have a number of such men.

Now let's root him out and start him to thinking, and moving, and doing. And let's all back him up to our limit as a united community.

We are paying out too much money to the grafters who infest the road all of the way from the farmer to the retailer and the ultimate consumer. It's time for a new system, a new regime.
