Red Cross at Redland

Sunday about a dozen cars of Portales people attended the Red Cross meeting at Redland. This meeting was held under the leadership of Carl Turner and the Portales choir consisting of Miss Fannie Williamson, Mrs. Clyde Knapp, Mrs. E. L. Kohl, Frank Smith and Carl Turner. There was oratory and plenty of good music, but the chief event was the magnificent collation set by the good ladies of Redland. There was chicken, ham, salads, sandwiches, pickles, olives, all kinds of pies and every sort of cake that was ever known and that is good to eat, and all made without white flour. The crowd was large, yet it was unable to get away with more than half of the good things. A box of chocolates donated by Dr. J. E. Camp brought $47.00, and the net collections for Red Cross work was $97.15, with a monthly subscription of $46.00. The Redland folks have gone over the top at every patriotic meeting held there this year. They have no slackers in that community, in fact they would not be tolerated. When any one asks for white flour bread in that neighborhood they are told to enlist and they can get all they want, otherwise, nit.

Closed to be Right

Wednesday afternoon the store of C. V. Harris was closed voluntarily by Mr. Harris, he having learned that it was necessary for all grocers who sell supplies to hotels and restaurants to have a federal license. He immediately made his application and was instructed by wire to reopen his place that license had been recommended by state food administrator. This technical misunderstanding was due to the fact that proper instructions had never been sent to the merchants of this place and, with the exception of the Joyce-Fruit house which is also a wholesale dealer, every grocery in the city was in the same condition. Charley Harris is making every effort to comply with all the requirements of the government and is one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the administration in the city. He voluntarily closed for the few hours because he would not be even in a technical violation of the provisions of the food administrator's office.

Newport News, Camp Hill, Virginia, 1st Reg. Div. M. S. T. Company C.

To Sister Smith, Ben Smith, Coe Howard, Jack Wilcox and Irene Smith.

Have been so busy haven't had time to write you people, but think all of you owe me a letter.

This camp is an embarkation camp, they ship thousands of trucks, tractors, aeroplanes, cannons, ammunition, mules, horses, wagons, here where they are loaded on the transports and then sent to that large city, "Somewhere." It is a sight to see these war machines being unloaded. You see a tractor pulling a large cannon. They unloaded three cars of gauze and bandages here yesterday. At the truck park one day you see a thousand trucks, next day they are all gone. The tractors are wonders to see them pull and get around. I took a trip to Portsmouth, it is at the mouth of the James River, this camp being located on James river about fifteen miles up the river, in fact it is a continuous camp from here to Portsmouth. At Portsmouth is the naval training station, a good town of about one hundred thousand. I went by boat to Old Point and Fort Monroe. This fort guards entrance to James river, also Portsmouth and Hampton road. There are a few of the disappearing cannons here, fifteen feet long, twelve inches, shoots twelve miles, a hunk of steel weighs eleven hundred and ten pounds and guaranteed to give a fellow the head ache if he gets in the road. The old fort is very interesting. On my way to this fort I saw some of our large battleships, which were painted up like a society queen. Saw some of the light submarine chasers, and I say they are some fast. Went to the Curtis aviation field. Wait I forgot, at Fort Monroe I eat dinner (6 p. m.) at the finest hotel in Virginia, some class.

Now people don't forget that Uncle Sam is just getting started and if you could only see what is being done, as I have been seeing it, well it hardly looks possible to see the amount of war material that is going over. It comes by train loads not car loads. Our division is quarantined which means we must go soon. All of our men wants to go, and this good Yankee pup is bound to make a turning point in the war as soon as a large enough force can be placed on the firing line. Am feeling fine. Each of you write me a letter.

B. A. Stewart.

Citizens Come Across

When it came to closing the contract with the Fairbanks-Morse company for the town plant, it was discovered that satisfactory arrangements could not be made with the company for installing the two new units of one hundred horse power each, pending the voting and sale of the bonds. The matter was taken up with the business men and the following agreed to loan to the city the amounts set opposite their names for immediate use, and until such time as the bonds could be voted and sold:

G. M. Williamson	$500 00
Wilcox and Braley	500 09
R. G. Bryant	500 00
W. O. Oldham	500 00
Ed J. Neer	500 00
Ben Smith	250 00
E. E. Hoagland	200 00
J. K. Robertson	100 00
C. V. Harris	100 00
E. A. Herndon	100 00
E. B. Hawkins	100 00
C. J. Whitcomb	100 00
J. B. Priddy	100 00
J. S. Long	100 00
Coe Howard	100 00
J. R. Webb	100 00
Dr. D. B. Williams	50 00
C. E. Brown	50 00
F. R. Smith	50 00

The contract provided an initial payment of $2000.00, before shipment and another payment of approximately $3000.00 upon receipt of the first unit. The above money was borrowed to take care of the last named payment and the cost of installation. Portales can always be counted upon to "go over the top" in matters patriotic or for anything tending toward the betterment of the town or its facilities.

To the Voters of Roosevelt County

Gentlemen, in presenting to you my candidacy for re-election to the office of tax assessor, possibly you are aware of the fact that I have only been elected one term which I am now serving. And I wish to say that in 1910 I made a thorough campaign of the county and the statehood bill passed carrying the provisions that all the old officers serving at that time hold over another year. The following year, I made a second campaign and was defeated by a very small majority of 24 votes, and in 1916 I was elected tax assessor and this campaign making the fourth time that I have been before the people and all this expense has come out of the first term, so you can see my standing from a financial standpoint, derived from the proceeds of this office.

As all true Democrats know that it is a long acknowledged party custom that when an officer is qualified and efficient in the performance of his duty, is he justly entitled to the endorsement by the people for a second term. A candidate coming before the people asking their support for them, is advocating a principle which you well know they do not stand for, because if they were elected to the office, they would ask you for a second term.

In regard to my record as a public official, the work I have done for the 2 years I have served stands before the public, and I heartily request and invite as many people who care to investigate as to value of merchandise or as to value of personal or as to the number of livestock of various individuals, it will afford me a great favor to show you through their renditions to the end that justice may be done to all alike.

I have lived in your county for 12 years and am thoughtfully acquainted with the ups and downs of the people as I lived out a homestead near Redland New Mexico, and if my services have been satisfactory for my present term of office, I solicit your careful consideration and support to a second term on the 11th day of May next, for which I sincerely thank you.

Very respectfully,
 Burl Johnson.

A Reminder

Mr. voter don't forget that I am still in the race for sheriff and will appreciate your vote May 11th.

Done Her Bit

Mrs. Minnie Roller, a widow lady who earns her own living and provides for a good sized family, was unable to buy a bond or to subscribe money for the Red Cross, however, she did her bit, and then some. She managed to take time from her daily work and to make a fancy bed quilt which she donated to the Red Cross. Saturday, at the raising of the honor flag, this quilt was spread at the foot of the flag pole and the crowd requested to throw onto it what loose change they could spare. There was an instant response with about $115.38 in real money. This was followed by auctioning off the quilt, which netted about $31.00, making a total of something very close to $146.49 for the quilt. How different has been the idea from that of some. This woman is an American, she could not endure the idea that she was not doing her part in this war. She used her head as well as her hands and "went over the top" just as surely and just as patriotically as did Rockefeller with his millions. How can America lose with such women to back the boys at the front?

Richland News

J. A. Vick has a new Ford car. Rev. Calloway, of Portales, filled his appointment here Sunday.

Joe Faw went to Roswell to work last week.

Clarence Rice and Alvin George are in Arizona at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Rice went to Electra, Texas, the last of the week, after visiting his parents here.

Miss Lottie Cares is still on the sick list we are sorry to report.

The Richland rural school will close Friday after an eight month term under the direction of Miss Carl Tally. Miss Tally's work has been highly efficient and greatly appreciated by her patrons and pupils. There will be a picnic for the children on the closing day.

J. W. Partin, L. H. Faw and L. A. Faw were in Clovis Saturday.

J. W. Fulton, R. J. Fulton and wife and Mr. Sam Butler arrived from Roswell Friday.

The Red Cross ladies of this branch met at the Odd Fellows hall Monday and made hospital garments. Quite a bit of work was accomplished and a great deal of patriotism was shown by those there.

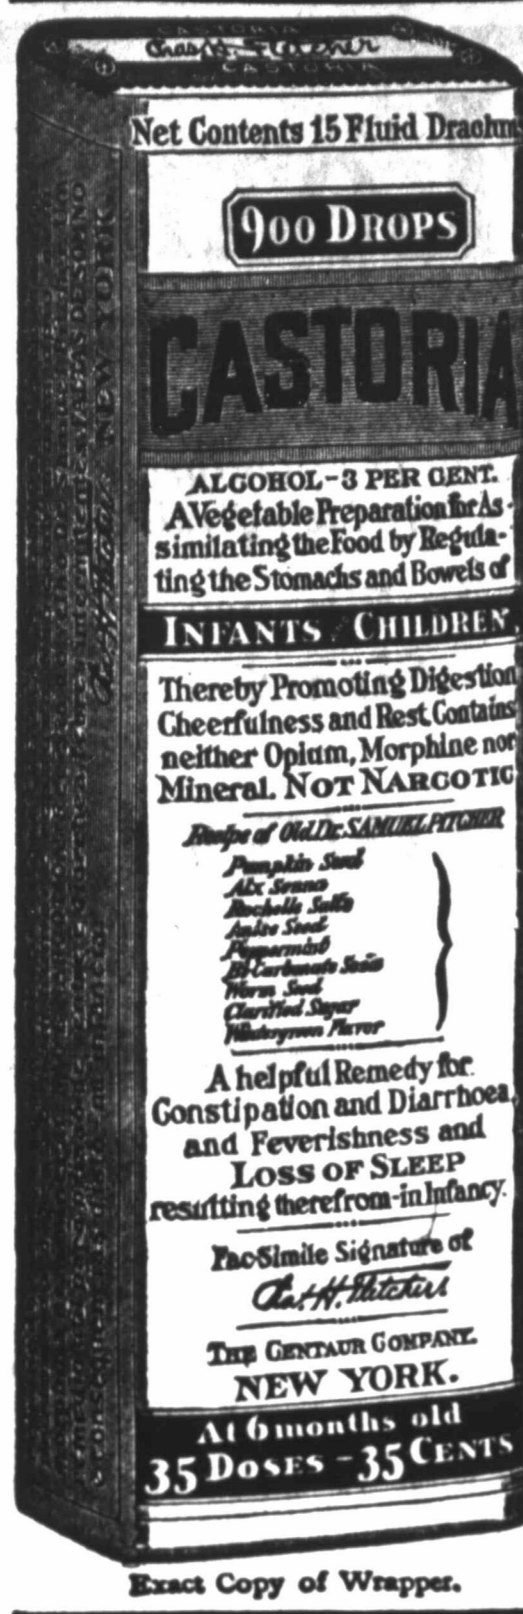

A very unusual thing happened out this way last Friday. It set the most of the people either to smiling or to work, both in most cases for we had a half inch of rain. Heres hoping we get more soon.

There was a very successful pie supper given at New Hope, Wednesday night for the benefit of the Red Cross branch there. Something over $70.00 was made and a good time was reported by everyone.

Mrs. J. N. Partin is still quite crippled up with rheumatism but we sincerely hope she may be gain relief soon.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—A good, young jack. Jas. B. Smiley or phone or write Frank M. Beard.

TRAILING ARBUTUS FLOWERS.

"We mustn't waste any more time," whispered one of the trailing arbutus family to another.

"Oh, Dear, I'm a Little Shy."

"It must be too soon. There aren't any." But they looked under some of our leaves and several of us were trying to peep out as fast as we could, so we would not disappoint the children. "Many of our sisters and brothers were picked and I believe they came out later on in water.

"But those same children have come back every year, and now they are almost grown-up. They always say,

"Here is the first place we find these lovely spring flowers." And so we know what is expected of us."

"How did you learn all that?" asked the first arbutus. "This is the first look at the world I've had."

"It's my first look, too," said the second arbutus, "but I almost feel as if I know all about the world, for the leaves have whispered to me when we were under the snow all about the glorious world.

"Ah, yes," continued the arbutus, "every year as our family goes away as the different flowers are picked, they whisper to the leaves:

"Don't forget to tell the buds in the spring that they must be the first to come out. It's expected of them. Remember to tell them."

"And so we know we must come out soon."

"Yes," said the first arbutus, "that's why I'm out. I thought perhaps you had been here before."

Just then they heard a rustling of leaves and then some laughter.

"I believe those are the voices of children," said the first arbutus.

"Oh, dear, I'm a little shy," said the second arbutus. "I must hide."

And it hid a little under the leaves.

Most of the arbutus family are shy, and they always hide under the leaves. But once they are picked and put into water they are shy no longer, and they give a glorious fragrance all around them, to let grown-ups and children know how happy they are they can give pleasure.

"We must look under the leaves," said one child. "I've heard this is the place where they come out first every year."

The arbutus flowers nudged each other and rustled a trifle under their leaves. "It's just as I said," the second arbutus whispered.

"Yes, it is," said the first arbutus. "Won't they love it when they see us hiding here? We're having a little game of hide-and-seek—that's all!"

"Look!" exclaimed the children. "Here! Here! Lots of them. Oh, aren't they beautiful, the lovely pink sweet flowers."

The flowers smiled. "Good morning, children," they seemed to say. And how bright and pink and happy they looked.

"It's true," said one of the children, "this place is famous for the first arbutus of the year."

"There," thought the leaves to themselves, and the roots which were left behind, we will have to tell the flowers the same thing next year. Oh, how sad it would be if we ever lost our fine reputation?"

"But I'll hurry things up next spring," said one of the roots.

"So will I," said another.

And off the children went, carrying the biggest bunches you ever did see of trailing arbutus flowers. And the flowers whispered secrets to the children, but as the children didn't understand flower talk, they didn't know that they were hearing secrets.

This is what the flowers were saying: "We hide our heads under the leaves because we're shy, but we love children and the whole beautiful world, so pick lots of us, and we'll be bright and gay."

But the children only knew that the flowers were very, very fragrant, and so, so very sweet!

The horse race scheduled for Tuesday afternoon turned out to be no horse race at all. The little black, belonging to Seth Tidwell, run away from the long legged bay and hid. That bay might be a good horse in a race if he had a land terrapin to run against and the distance was not over thirty feet.

Seth Morrison, county clerk, wants the people of Roosevelt county to know that he appreciates the fact that he has had no opponent in his race for the second term. He had intended to get out among the people just as though he had a vigorous campaign to wage but the work of his office had multiplied so that he would have had to neglect his duty, and that he would not feel justified in doing. He believes that efficiency and hard work are the best evidences of appreciation any officer can give his constituency, and this you will always have from Seth A. Morrison.

Coe Howard

Coe Howard is one of the old timers in Portales and Roosevelt county. It was through his efforts largely, that Roosevelt county was changed from a sparsely settled prairie to a thickly settled and prosperous community. Mr. Howard is largely interested in the affair of the county and state. He is a man of affairs and of ability and has for the past two years been associated with the directorate of the Security State bank. He is a graduate of a reputable law school and has decided opinions on matters of public interest. He feels that he is qualified for the position to which he aspires. Mr. Howard is asking to be sent to Santa Fe as representative of the Twentieth representative district. He has been given much encouragement by the electorate and feels confident that he will be the choice of the Democratic voters on May 11th. His candidacy has been neglected to some extent by reason of the very active part he has taken in the flotation of the different United States bond issues and the work of the American Red Cross, yet he felt that that work was paramount to any personal interest that he might have in the campaign. He is in hearty sympathy with the administration at Washington and is ready and willing to do anything necessary to help eliminate the Hun from European control. He asks for your support and your influence in his candidacy and will appreciate anything you may be able to do in his behalf.

To the Organizer Addressed:

As you are aware the third Liberty loan campaign is going to be conducted in a much more thorough manner than any previous loan, and the personal responsibility of every citizen is going to be brought home to him in a manner never attempted before. In this line of thought, we want you to be prepared, after the campaign has been in progress for about two weeks, to give to us a list of the names and addresses of every man in your county who is well known to possess wealth, and who has not done his full share in the purchase of Liberty bonds. That is to say who has not purchased just what you consider to be his individual quota. We trust you will have the names ready for us on call. You will realize the necessity and advantage of such a course and will call for your watching the subscription lists very closely. This is one of the duties which we ask you to assume in this campaign. We ask you to realize that records and data relating to the third Liberty loan campaign must be of permanent character, and we ask you to keep these records by you subject to our call at any time. We know that we will receive your hearty co-operation in these very important matters.

It is further provided that the voting place in each precinct shall be held at the usual and accustomed voting place or box of each precinct unless changed for good cause by the election judges appointed to hold said election.

In the event any judge or clerk herein appointed shall fail or refuse to act, or shall be absent at the time for the opening of the polls on election day, the qualified Democratic voters of the precinct assembled at the polling place shall select other Democrats qualified to vote at said primary to fill any such vacancy or vacancies.

A qualified voter may vote outside of his precinct, provided he shall not vote but once in said county, upon furnishing satisfactory evidence to the Judges of the particular precinct wherein he offers to vote that he has not voted at any other precinct in the county, and that he has a reasonable excuse for not voting in the precinct of his residence.

The Judges may examine and swear the applicant in such case, and may, if they desire, require of him a written affidavit entitling him to vote in the precinct proposed.

When the polls are closed all ballot boxes with the returns shall be, with convenient speed, returned to the County Chairman, and the judges of said election shall see that such ballot boxes are transmitted with dispatch; and after all the returns are in, it shall be the duty of the County Chairman to call a meeting of the County Committee to canvass such returns and declare the result of the election.

The Judges herein appointed, and in the absence of action by them, where the occasion may require it, the precinct committeeman, may select a polling place in any precinct where the usual voting place is not available, is inconvenient for a majority of the voters of the precinct, or otherwise impracticable.

Witness our hands this the 25th day of April, 1918.

How would you like to travel 108 miles by sleigh in zero weather?

That's what President Terry of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company did after the great New York fire of December 16, 1835, in order to make immediate payment of the Hartford losses.

In the same staunch spirit the Hartford promptly paid out $1,900,000 after the Chicago fire, and $10,000,000 after the San Francisco disaster.

Hartford protection costs you no more than other kinds—and you can depend upon prompt settlement in case of fire. May we tell you more about it?
