

Three Boys in the Army

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Dunlap have three boys in the army, two in actual service in France and one in the navy. William, the last to leave left Portales last week. His father was with him at the depot and, while he could not help but feel regret and sorrow at his departure, yet none of it showed in his face. Just before the train pulled out he slapped his boy on the back and said, "Give them hell, Will." Mr. Dunlap could easily have gotten this last boy in a deferred class by applying to the district board, but instead he sent him, the last boy he had who was eligible to serve in the army of his country the others being too young even to volunteer. One can't but admire the spirit of these parents in thus freely giving at their country's call, their three eldest sons, not only giving, but giving freely, enthusiastically, as becomes patriots and Americans. Boys born of such parents will never bring disgrace to the colors they serve.

There is some contrast between these parents and others who have sons, sons within the draft age, yet whose sons are not now and probably never will be, inducted into the service of their country. Parents there are who have spent much time and money getting their boys in the slacker class. Cases where there was no merit in their claims for deferred classification; cases that were taken to even higher authority; cases where these false representations bore fruit and exemption from war duty secured. This is not only an injustice to the government, it is an injustice to the boy, who must, in the very nature of things, suffer indignity and contempt at the hands of all loyal and patriotic people.

A slacker, a moral and physical coward, one who by his actions, admits that he is deficient in manhood, lacking in all those requisites which are necessary to constitute the normal man. Who a one for a son? What woman but would hesitate to link her fortunes with the human derelict who had not the courage to defend his country, his fireside, from the depredations of an enemy? Much better that the boy should lie in a martyr's grave in a foreign land, honored and respected of men and women, than to live out his miserable existence with the finger of scorn constantly pointing him out as a slacker, as one who was afraid. There are not many such in Roosevelt county, but the isolated cases make for them the more prominence from their very isolation.

Home Guards Mustered

Wednesday night of this week the home guards were mustered in with the following officers; Captain, Joe Beasley; first lieutenant, Carl Turner; Second lieutenant, D. G. Colligan. There was a full quota present and the oath was administered by Colonel J. B. Priddy, recruiting officer. Tuesday night of each week was selected as meeting night. While the rifles furnished are of ancient pattern and obsolete, they would still be effective for drilling purposes and would make formidable weapons if used as clubs, however, it is not probable that the company would be called to actual service of any character inadequately armed, in the meantime, the guns we have will answer all purposes. The probabilities are that the Huns will become so disheartened upon learning of the organization of this company that they will throw up their hands and ask for quarter, especially so if they find out that Lieutenant O'Colligan, the man who put down the Boxer uprising in China some years ago is again in harness and has unsheathed his snickersnee. Also Sam J. Stinnett, one of the high privates in the rear ranks, is seeing red and it would be an unlucky day for the kaiser when Professor Sam gets his mug in line with the sights on his gun.

Oldham at First National Bank

W. B. Oldham has purchased stock in the First National bank of this place, and has been elected to the responsible position of cashier. Mr. Oldham is an experienced banker, has been connected with the First National for some years past, retiring about a year before the change in management. He was also cashier of a bank in Alamogordo for some two or three years, in management. He was also cashier of a bank in Alamogordo for some two or three years, in all of which positions he made good. He has a large acquaintance in and around Portales, and will prove an able and valuable addition to the official staff of the First National. He has a sort of parental affection for this institution, having devoted several years of his life to its upbuilding, some of them being in the early days when money was scarce and depositors few. His election as cashier cannot but add strength to an already strong financial institution.

Ford Tractors

At last a tractor has been put upon the market that is not only practical but it is economical and priced so that all may own one. Henry Ford has labored on this machine for the past several years, testing and proving each new model, thoroughly. It has all the advantages enjoyed by the high priced motors and some not possessed by them. The day of the farm horse is waning. He has been faithful and true, but the time has arrived when the four footed tractor must be replaced by the machine. The horse must be fed and cared for twelve months in the year, three hundred and sixty-five days, work or play, the tractor, when not at work, consumes no feed or fuel, one man will do with it in one day as much work as three or four men and a dozen head of horses. A horse after working all day, must rest at night, the tractor will plow all day, pulling two fourteen-inch plows, and can then be put on the road and worked all night, rest periods during the work hours are eliminated, the work being done better and more rapidly. Especially in the west and southwest, where farming is done on a larger scale, where fields often embrace from five hundred to two or three thousand acres, must the tractor be employed if the farm is to prove profitable. Also the farmer with only his little quarter or half section of land will not be slow to recognize the advantage of doing his plowing, his hauling and other work with coal oil instead of horse flesh. The tractor known as the "Fordson" is the machine for the work, Mr. P. E. Jordan, local agent, has investigated it thoroughly and is enthusiastic over its possibilities. He says that he will soon have one here for demonstration and he invites all to look it over, see it at work, prove its worth.

Juice from Clovis

Clovis is now furnishing the "juice" to operate the electric light and water plant at Texico-Farwell. Work was finished on the line from here to the State Line City last week and lights were furnished for that place for the first time last Saturday night. When the electric light plant was installed at Texico-Farwell the owners of the company made a contract to also furnish Portales but in some way this contract fell through and now the owners of the plant find that they can buy their power from Clovis cheaper than they can operate the plant at Texico-Farwell. The Texico-Farwell company constructed the line from here to that place at their own expense and will pay the city of Clovis on an average of about $300 per month for furnishing the "juice" to run their plant.—Clovis Journal

Had the above contract with the States Line Utilities company been completed then Portales would have been in the position of depending upon what, if any, surplus power Clovis, might have had to sell. The town board escaped from this dilemma just in time and, under the new arrangement, we will have one of the most up-to-date public utilities equipments in the state. It is understood that the new hundred horse engine will be ready for shipment on August first, and in the event that it is, it should arrive here within ten days thereafter and be in operation about the middle of the month.

Pearman Gets Souvenir

Mr. B. F. Pearman, president of the Peoples State Bank, of Alamogordo, recently received a novel souvenir war card from France. The card was sent him by an old time friend, 1st. Lieut. J. O. Hyatt, who is from Artesia and now with the American Expeditionary Forces in France. He took the card from a prisoner and it was from the prisoner's wife home. Mr. A. F. Menger has furnished a translation of the card. In general it did not give a very glowing account of how things were going back at the soldier's home. It is evidently written by a woman of the lower walk of life and Fritz got captured soon after he received his card from home.—Artesia Advocate.

Mr. Pearman is one of the pioneers of Roosevelt county, having held the position of agent at the Santa Fe as early as 1902. He still has a big bunch of friends here.

Rev. B. L. Nance, father of Mrs. E. B. Neale, arrived Tuesday from De Leon, Texas, for a visit with his daughter.

Boys Going East

For the past week troop trains have been having the right of way over the Santa Fe. Last Sunday there were four trains passed through Clovis to some destination in the east. Just where these soldier boys came from or where they were going was not divulged. That they were eager for the big event on the other side of the water was evidenced by their talk, their actions and ready and hearty response to any and all patriotic outbreaks. They appeared stout and husky, with no superfluous fat, but plenty of brawn and muscle, they looked much like the thoroughbred that has been trained for the race, and, like the thoroughbred, were eager for the fray. The one pitiful sight was the mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters, that had been for the past three or four days, meeting every troop train in the hopes of one more sight of their sons and brothers before they crossed the water. These would make a hurried inspection of each succeeding train, and the eager, expectant look would gradually give way to one of resignation and weariness as coach after coach was passed without their having found the ones sought, but this would soon change to a more cheerful expression as they shook hands with and talked to the boys in kaki. Each train unloaded the soldiers and gave them a short march around the town for exercise, some of them gave exhibition drills, and these were always greeted with cheers. These boys in the cantonments are the only one hundred per cent Americans we have; the only ones that are risking their all on the fall of the dice. They were prime favorites with the ladies and the children and were kept busy shaking hands. There was quite a bunch of Portales at Clovis Sunday in the hopes of seeing some of the Roosevelt county boys, but none were on the trains. One could not but feel proud that such a fine bunch of men were to be found in New Mexico, and each one felt that there was not a man in uniform but that would give a good account of himself.

Be Careful with Sugar

The undersigned, county food administrator, warns those who might try to repeat on their sugar orders that a close tab is being kept on all sugar purchases and that it will be impossible to get by the rules of the state administrator. Those attempting it will be prosecuted for hoarding. Your agitimate needs will be granted upon proper application. Advices from Mr. Ralph C. Ely state food administrator, are to the effect that there will be plenty of sugar if used economically for all purposes, and that it will be the policy to distribute it equitably and fairly. The great majority of the people are "toting" fair on this proposition and those who would do otherwise will experience something more than inconvenience if persisted in. This is a public and a patriotic duty, and one that should be performed gladly and enthusiastically by all. Our soldiers must not suffer through our greed and extravagance at home; they will not be allowed to suffer. It is much better to warn than to prosecute, but prosecutions will follow violations regardless of personal or other feelings. R. H. BAILEY, County Food Administrator.

Bad Actors, All

J. B. Priddy, Ed J. Neer, W. B. Oldham, Seth A. Morrison, G. M. Williamson and E. E. Hoagland, were among the fancifully decorated novitiates in the Shriners parade at Roswell last Saturday. The Journal has been notified that it will be mobbed in the event that any detailed description of the adornments worn or the part played by the Portales bunch appears in its columns and, as some of them were advertised as tough characters, the warning will be heeded. County Clerk Seth A. Morrison, being a pronounced and widely heralded suffragette, no reference will be made to the "Mother Hubbard" he wore, or the Salvation Army bonnet that adorned his flowing locks. Mr. Williamson, as a bank burglar, was a distinct success, while Ed J. Neer, being the most dangerous in the lot was locked in a cage while being taken from the depot to the hall. The gentlemen from Portales were all given some special distinction in the parade and all should feel highly honored.

Got the Money

Dr. L. R. Hough and Carl Graf this week closed their lease on their five hundred acre farm in Texas. The terms of the lease are $12,500.00 cash and $20,000.00 in four annual payments of $5,000.00 each, and one eighth of all oil produced. This farm is in the very center of one of the largest oil fields in Texas, and has proved so interesting that one of the big national oil concerns has closed the lease on the above terms and the first payment is now in the bank. For the past few years Mr. Graf has worked this place as a farming proposition, raising grain, hogs, mules, and it has not been a losing game at that. This winter they will take off, at least $5,000 worth of fire wood. It has taken some little nerve to hold this place and refuse the many lease offers tendered, but the doctor has stood pat, and has the coin as proof of his business sagacity. The company buying the lease will commence sinking wells some time this fall. If there is anything like the amount of oil located in the depths of this farm, then Doctor Hough and Carl Graf will be in the millionaire class in less than two years, in the meantime, they are not worrying about the high cost of living.

Mr. L. W. Brown and family have moved to Portales where they will reside in future. Mr. Brown has been clerk for the Santa Fe at the freight depot for the past year or more and takes up similar work at Portales. He has been at Portales for some two weeks and Mrs. Brown and the children went up there Wednesday night. Mr. Updike succeeds Mr. Brown in the place left vacant by him, while George Welton takes the work as assistant held by Mr. Updike.—Artesia Advocate.

GARAGE CAN BE MADE ARTISTIC

No Reason Why It Should Be Ugly, As Is Generally Case.

SHOULD FIT SURROUNDINGS

If It Is Near the House It Should Be So Treated as to Be in Harmony With General Scheme.

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1827 Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only inclose three-cent stamp for reply.

By WILLIAM A. RADFORD.

The garage is the Cinderella of architecture. No one seems to care much how it looks, how ugly its dress, or where it is placed, if it is not obtruded. It is only occasionally that some builder with the power of the fairy godmother waves over it the wand of his taste and his imagination, and reveals the dingy, neglected thing in all the possibilities of beauty.

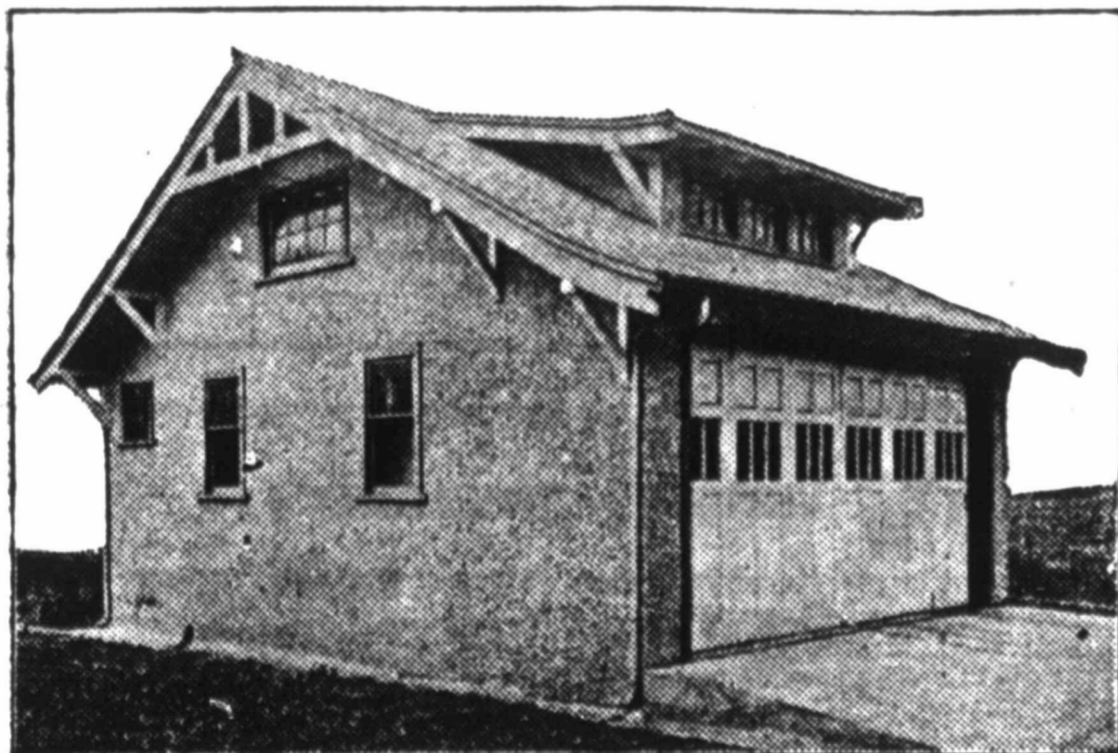

There is no reason in the world why a garage should be hopelessly ugly. Yet it has degenerated even from its ancestor, the stable or carriage house, which had at least some semblance of taste. The artistic possibilities of the garage, even on the grounds of fine country homes, rarely seem to have been recognized.

The only obtrusive characteristic of a garage, so far as its exterior is concerned, is an unusually wide door, but this is an easy thing to make attractive architecturally. There are no limits to the possibilities of the pleasing and artistic treatment of a garage. It may be designed in any style of architecture that best fits its site and its surroundings.

Character Depends on Location.

The first determining element as to the general character of the building is its location on the grounds. If it is near to the house itself and aggressively visible as part of the same glance of the eye, it should be treated as a subordinate element of the house in harmony with the same general scheme.

When it becomes necessary to place a garage on a small plot just at the elbow of the house, the limitations become more exacting. It is so easy to kill the appearance of the house by a cheap home for the motor car. But even here much can be done in simple ways, if it be just the right touch at the right place. A hood over the wide doorway may soften its aggressive severity; dignified pilasters flanking the entrance may bring the little side building into closer harmony with the residence; sloping the lines of the roof may eliminate the suggestion of a packing box that often breathes from a small building with a flat roof; the windows may be casemented or latticed or supplied with window boxes for flowers; ivy or growing vines may cover the sides with a note of gracious charm. Even a happy choice of the right color of paint may mitigate an architectural crime to a mere misdemeanor.

In remodeling an old garage or in planning a new one, the most satisfying results are often reached by making it a combination building to do more than merely to house automobiles. Keeping a country place is a work that is rarely finished. There is always a tendency to expansion and new needs that have no limits but the purse of the owner. A new garage may afford opportunity to make it combine an extra room for the help, a bowling alley, a tool room, storage space for garden and porch furniture, or whatever the yearning fancy of the owner may make him feel is essential for his comfort, or ease, or convenience. The man who eventually planned and built this good looking garage, as illustrated in the photograph, had been collecting ideas about garages and had studied the subject until he had some well-defined ideas about what he wanted. One day he summed the proposition up for me in these words:

"When I build a garage—and some day I am going to, in order to get away from the high cost of 'boarding' at the public garage—I will build my garage in the back yard close to the house, and will make it as nearly fireproof as I can. That is, the floor will be concrete and the walls hollow tile.

"It is fifty-fifty with me whether the tile surface is stuccoed or, vitrified tile being used, the dark brown surface of the tile itself is left exposed. Both are good looking, and both give good protection for the car, which is the important thing.

"If I build a double garage I will make it 18 by 26 feet, and if for one car, 11½ by 22 feet. I want plenty of windows and doors that operate easily. I know that there are several first-class ways to hang garage doors, and special hardware for the purpose, and I am going to look into them all very carefully before I decide; because a hard-working door or one that is not weather-tight is an everlasting nuisance."

No Sergeants' Messroom.

There is no sergeants' messroom in the American army. Sergeants and privates have the same food, served in the same style and place. The age for enlisting is from 18 to 35 years. All men offering to join must be United States citizens, or at least have in their possession first citizenship papers. The term of service is three years, and twenty-five years must be served before a pension is obtainable, except in exceptional circumstances. Soldiers' widows get $12 per month while they remain single and for each child an extra $2 a month is allowed until the child reaches the age of 16 years. Punishments in the army are very severe, two years' hard labor being the minimum penalty for desertion, even in time of peace. A repetition of the offense is punished by a penal servitude of five years. If a deserter manages to hide himself so as to avoid arrest for two years, and lives during that period in the United States he may not be brought to trial. Any one returning a deserter to his regiment can claim a reward of $50 from the government.

Foolproof Match.

A waterproof, windproof, foolproof match has been invented by a man who once won a prize from the Belgian government for producing a non-phosphorus safety match. United States authorities have tested the new matches and given orders for a quantity of them. They will be used on shipboard in bad weather for lighting signal rockets. They will burn five seconds in spite of strong wind, and water does not damage them. The ash is cool the instant the blaze is extinguished, so they may be thrown anywhere. That is why they are called foolproof.

Quicker Production of Antitoxin.

The Presna Medica, Buenos Ayres, reports fine results with horses over ten years of age in the production of antitoxins. "These results with old horses surpass in the number of units and in the shortness of the time anything previously realized with the old technic, thus saving both time and expense."

Unmasked.

She—"Tom, dear, I have at last discovered that I love you." He—"Ah, you have heard, then, that my uncle has left me $50,000." She—"Sir! After that remark we must part forever. I heard it was $50,000."

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

The Accepted Time.

"Merciful powers!" horrified ejaculated Tennyson J. Daft, glaring at his newspaper. "A well-known Eastern editor says that poets should be killed at the age of twenty-six. What a brute!"

"Of course, he is a brute, to talk of allowing them to pester the suffering public so long," replied old Hector Harsh. "Poets should be killed at the age of sixteen, or, if the symptoms are discovered so early, at six."—Kansas City Star.

Owner—Well, I think seven times in one mile, is my record.

WHEN HE WAXED ELOQUENT

Phonograph Record of Just What Mr. Smith Said Might Have Been Interesting.

Speaking at a dinner, Representative Joseph J. Russell of Missouri referred to the glory of feminine fashions and fittingly related a little story along that line.

Recently Smith and Jones met in a restaurant, and while daintily manipulating the abbreviated bits, their talk turned to a comparison of domestic expenses. First it was beef, next it was butter, and finally millinery came up for a few sighful remarks.

"You should have seen the peach of a hat my wife toted home a few days ago," said Smith. "It was all plumes and other embellishing things, and, after telling me that it was standing against my account at $50 she sweetly asked me what I thought of it."

"I see," was the smiling response of Jones. "Of course you told her."

"Oh, yes," answered Smith, with a grim expression. "I simply raved over that hat for an hour."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

Right in One Respect.

"Well, now that you have been the father of a fine boy for two months, have you found time to map out his future career?"

"No," replied young Professor Giddings. "The boy's tastes and desires are so elementary that I haven't been able to reach any conclusion regarding his mental potentialities, but, as a biological specimen I don't mind saying that he fills my heart with joy."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

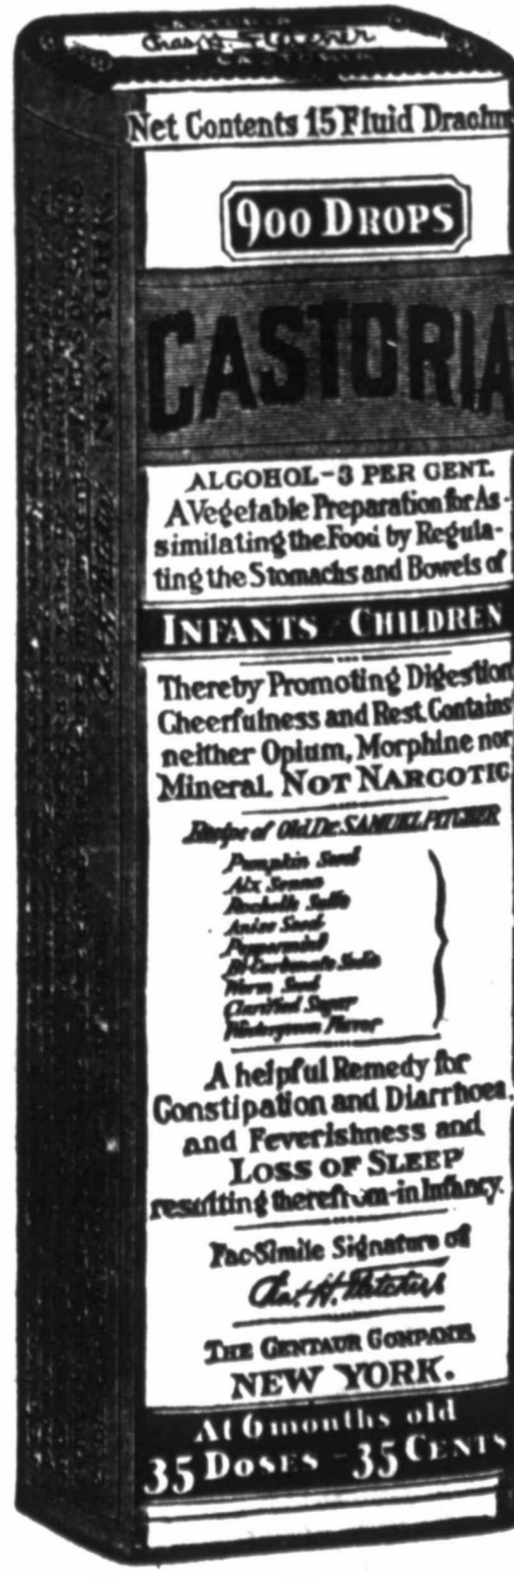

A Great Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

THE SUGAR SITUATION

The sugar situation is one that must and will be borne patiently with by the people generally. The further reduction by the national food administration from three pounds per person per month, to two pounds per person per month, will also be followed without much grumbling. There is no inclination on the part of those remaining at home to ask for anything that is needed by the soldiers of our own or allied nations, yet there cannot but be some grumbling about the more than liberal allowances made to non-essential industries. In Portales the amount of sugar allowed to cold drink institutions is as follows; For the month of July, 350 pounds, for August, 350 pounds, for September, 300 pounds. This allowance is for each of the places, or two thousand pounds of sugar in three months. If the same liberal treatment is accorded proprietors of cold drinks stands of all cities and towns, then there is enough sugar used in non-essentials to furnish all the demands of the army without curtailing in any manner the amount necessary for home consumption. It is scarcely reasonable that people would hail with delight the curtailment of their necessities while non-essential industries were amply provided for. Cold drinks cannot, even through the widest stretch of the imagination, be classed as necessary, and certainly not as healthful, hence they should be the first to feel the stringency of any shortage. Under the two pound allotment per person for each month, breakfast foods must be eaten without sweetening, or the coffee taken black. This will be done cheerfully, if necessary, in fact, there are but very few in Roosevelt county who would not willingly do without sugar entirely were they requested so to do, and given to understand that it was asked as a war measure, but they certainly have a right to be heard when it comes to wasting thousands upon thousands of pounds of sugar in non-essential industries that are carried on for profit solely; that are neither necessary nor beneficial; that the public be better off without. The Journal is not finding fault with the food administration, but rather, is attempting, in some measure to present the side of the legitimate consumer as against the side of the business of profit. It is believed that if the food administration officials would give this matter the careful consideration its importance merits, that a ruling much different would result.

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF SUIT

The state of New Mexico to Henry B. Allen and Martha M. Allen.
Greeting: You are hereby notified that a suit has been filed against you in the district court of the Fifth judicial district of the state of New Mexico, in and for Roosevelt county, wherein the Advance Rumely Thresher Company is plaintiff, and you, the said Henry B. Allen and Martha M. Allen, are defendants, said cause being numbered 1393 upon the civil docket of said court. The general objects of said action are as follows: Plaintiff sues the defendants upon four promissory notes and a mortgage, executed by the defendant, Henry B. Allen, and delivered to the Rumely Products Company on the 17th day of November, 1914, and thereafter duly assigned to the plaintiff, for the sum of $1000.00 less a payment of $668.50, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum until maturity and 10 per cent thereafter until paid, and the plaintiff seeks to foreclose said mortgage given for the security of said sum including 10 per cent additional on the amount due, for attorneys fees, and a further sum of $37.46 for taxes paid by the plaintiff for the defendants, upon the following real-estate to-wit: The northwest quarter of section twenty-seven in township one south of range thirty-three east of the New Mexico Meridian, New Mexico, and the plaintiff prays for the sale of property upon the foreclosure thereof, and for the application of the proceeds to the payment of his said judgment and demands; to have its said mortgage declared a prior lien upon said described real-estate, superior to any claim of the defendant, Martha M. Allen, who is alleged to have purchased said property subsequent to, and with due notice of plaintiffs said mortgage; and for general relief, with costs of suit.
You are further notified that unless you enter your appearance in said cause on or before the 31st day of August, 1918, the plaintiff will take judgment against you by default in said cause and will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.
You are further notified that George L. Reese is the attorney for the plaintiff and that his post office address is Portales, New Mexico.
Witness my hand and the seal of the said court on this the 8th day of July 1918.

Things Personal

BY THE CUB REPORTER

D. M. Russell has bought the J. M. Huffman residence and moved to it. Mr. Russell and family are from Elida

Mrs. Maude Smith and daughter, Miss Leta, were in Clovis Wednesday of this week, where Miss Leta had her tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Oldham will leave some time this or next week for Mineral Wells, where, it is hoped, both will benefit their health.

Captain T. J. Molinari left Tuesday morning for Santa Fe to bring home his daughter, Miss Irene. He made the trip in his Dodge car.

Dr. R. H. Bailey is at his Eddy county ranch this week shipping out some yearling heifers recently bought to his ranch near Farwell, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Oldham will leave Saturday morning for Dallas, Texas, and other points. Their vacation will be of indefinite length.

W. B. Oldham and family and H. C. Waggoner left Saturday for Dallas, Texas, where they will take an outing until school opens. Mr. Oldham will be back in about ten days.

Mrs. J. M. Huffman and family will leave Saturday for Wichita Falls, Texas, to make their home. Mr. Huffman has been there for some months. They are old residents in Portales and have many friends who will miss them sadly.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Landers, Miss Edna and Lee Carter returned Tuesday from a fishing trip to the Pecos river. The sum total catch of the party was one cat fish that would weigh about three pounds, fisherman's weight, and one coyote.

Jack Callaway, who has, for the past year been employed at the Portales Lumber company yard, will leave Saturday morning for Bokchita, Oklahoma, to take charge of a yard at that place. Jack is all right and will make good in his new position which is a step upward.

Mrs. F. R. Smith received word this week that her son, Albion E. Ritchie, at Camp Travis, Texas, was dangerously ill with pneumonia. She left at once for that place. The latest report received here was to the effect that his condition was somewhat improved.

Messrs. C. L. and Ben Tallmadge, old timers in the immigration business in the Pecos Valley, were in Portales Wednesday of this week. They are trying to make arrangements for colonizing about two or three thousand acres of our irrigated lands, and incidentally, to secure the Roosevelt county delegation for the candidacy of C. L. Tallmadge for the United States senate.

W. C. Simpson, sheriff of Luna county, this state, is here visiting his daughters, the Misses Florence and Louise, at the home of their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Smith, of this place. Sheriff Simpson was holding office at the time that something like one thousand I. W. W. pro-Germans were unloaded upon his county by the state of Arizona. He says that he had something like what the American boys are giving the kaiser for awhile.

J. H. Toulouse, secretary of the state council of defense, was in the city this week in the interest of that organization.

D. W. Jones, the road man, returned Monday from a ten days trip among the road camps he is looking after for the state highway engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ball, who have been visiting here for a few days returned Thursday to Almagordo. Mr. Ball has charge of a large gang of state convicts that are working on the public highways at that place.

The government expects that no fruit or vegetable will be permitted to go to waste. They should be put up, as much as possible, without sugar, but there will be sugar for necessary canning. Not, may be, as much as you might want, but what you actually need.

Ed. J. Neer and C. M. Dobbs this week solicited funds with which to buy the posts and sign boards for the marking of the Postal highway through Roosevelt county. It is expected that the work of putting up these will commence just as soon as the sign boards can be painted.

C. E. Brown, for some time paying teller at the Security State bank, will leave the first of the week for St. Louis, Missouri, where he has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Harvey house. There has, as yet, been no announcement as to who will succeed Mr. Brown at the bank. "Shorty" as he is familiarly known, has many friends here and his departure will be regretted, as will that of his family.

Blest be the tongue that speaks no ill, Whose words are always true, That keeps the law of kindness still Whatever others do.

Blest be the hands that toil to aid The great world's ceaseless need— The hands that never are afraid To do a kindly deed.

IN CHERRY TIME.

The cherry pie is considered the sine qua non of pie excellence; and who could refuse a wedge of juicy lusciousness? Cherries, like many of our fruits, cannot be enjoyed to the full until one may pick and eat from the trees when the fruit is in its prime.

Fine varieties are the wonderful Bing and Royal Ann which grow in perfection in southern Idaho where the trees are as large as an ordinary shade tree, carrying tons of the luscious fruit. An experience never to be forgotten is to ride under those trees, picking the great meaty cherries, so solid that there is no danger of staining the gown, with all the lap can hold.

Spiced Cherries.—Cherries are spiced as any other fruit. Take seven pounds of the cherries to five pounds of sugar, three tablespoonfuls each of cinnamon and cloves tied in a cloth and cooked in a pint of vinegar. Cook all together an hour and a half very slowly. Remove the bag of spices, if desired, before putting away.

Cherry Olives.—Get the rich, dark, well-flavored cherries. To a pint of the cherries left with the stems on add a cup each of water and vinegar; add a teaspoonful of salt and seal. They will be ready as an appetizer in two weeks.

Pickled Cherries.—Put the desired quantity of cherries and cover overnight with a good vinegar; in the morning drain and add an equal weight of sugar. Stir occasionally through the day, then set away in a cool cellar, covered with a cloth and plate. The vinegar may be sweetened and bottled for a summer drink.

'Tis everybody's business In this old world of ours, To root up all the weeds he finds And make room for the flowers, So that every little garden No matter where it lies, May look like that which God once made, And called it Paradise.

SUMMER DISHES.

When cooking peas wash the pods and boil them first, reserving the liquor to cook the peas.

This is a French method of conservation and gives the peas a much finer flavor. Add a teaspoonful of sugar to the water when cooking the peas and sometime, for a change of flavor, drop in a bunch of mint.

Lettuce is so commonly served fresh and crisp or with a dressing of bacon fat that we must remind ourselves that it is both tasty and wholesome cooked as one does any vegetable. When lettuce gets a little old is the best time to turn it into greens. Dress it with butter, pork fat, or in any way to give it a good seasoning. It may be cooked until tender, then served with thin cream or milk, with seasonings as one does tender cabbage.

Cucumbers are another vegetable so commonly served uncooked that we forget how good they are cooked until tender and served with a butter sauce, seasoning with onion juice, salt and pepper.

Swiss chard is a vegetable which should find its way into every garden. When very young it may be used as a crisp salad, with French dressing, and when well grown as greens. Spinach is another most wholesome green which, when eaten freely in the spring and summer, will supply all the iron needed in most diets. In this season of the year when there is such a wealth of fruit and vegetables we should see that they are served every day upon our tables. For those who accuse the salad of giving them indigestion, let them look into the whole meal and especially the salad dressing. Mustard when used in even small quantities will cause stomach trouble. When using mustard the mere suggestion is sufficient. French dressing is easy to make and on the whole is the most wholesome of salad dressings. If your family do not like olive oil, teach them to like it, for it is quite worth while.

Nut Potato Salad.—Mix a cupful of pecan meats, broken in bits with two cupfuls of riced potato. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, add onion juice and marinate with French dressing. Serve on watercress with a boiled dressing.

Calomel Today! Sick Tomorrow!

I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Don't take nasty, dangerous calomel when bilious, constipated, headachy. Listen to me!

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quicksilver and it salivates; calomel injures your liver.

If you are bilious, feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tone to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.—Adv.

Hot Weather Poisons Hit The Stomach First

How to Keep Your Stomach Strong, Cool and Sweet

Hot weather always starts those quick chemical changes which produce poisons in meats, fish, fruits, vegetables, milk and food products.

Such summer poisons in foods not only make well stomachs sick but develop with dangerous rapidity in sensitive, sick or ailing stomachs and bowels.

These poisons not only generate gases and fluids which cause that bloated, lumpy feeling, heartburn, sour stomach, belching, acidity, but endless other stomach and bowel miseries.

A sure, safe, quick acting relief has been found which absorbs and neutralizes these poisons, too much acid and harmful gases. EATONIO Tablets, one or two taken after every meal, will keep your stomach sweet. You will have a good appetite to eat what you like, when you want it and be free from all those bad effects liable to come after a hearty meal in summer.

EATONIO Tablets are hot weather protectors for the stomach. They guard against the germs that lurk in the things you eat and drink. They rebuild listless appetites, promote digestion by aiding proper action of the stomach functions and insure speedy relief from indigestion and all stomach distress.

EATONIO is good to eat like candy. People from all over send grateful testimonials. Tens of thousands are obtaining relief with EATONIO every day but the best evidence is to let your own stomach tell you the truth. Go to your druggist and get a big box of EATONIO. Tell him you want it for the prevention and sure relief of stomach and bowel disorders produced by hot weather poisons.

Then if EATONIO fails to satisfy you—return it to your druggist, whom you know and can trust. He will cheerfully refund your money. If your druggist doesn't keep EATONIO—drop us a postal. It will be delivered to your address and you can then pay for it. Address, H. L. Kramer, Pres., 1015 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

SHIPPING EGGS IN CAR LOTS

Average Losses of From 3 to 9 Per Cent Can Be Greatly Reduced by Proper Packing.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The amount of damage sustained in marketing eggs in car-load shipments which, according to various reliable authorities, averages from 3 to 9 per cent, has been reduced to less than 1 per cent in tests conducted by the United States department of agriculture, covering a period of more than two years and in which the eggs were shipped on an average of 1,200 miles. By following good, commercially practicable methods of packing, storing, and hauling, eggs can be transported in car-load lots with a total damage, including "checks," "dents" and "leakers," of less than 2 per cent.

In order to reduce egg losses to the minimum they should be packed in new standard cases symmetrically made with 5, or preferably 6, 3-penny cement-coated nails at each corner of the sides and bottom and at the center partition. Cases made of cottonwood have, on the whole, the greatest number of advantages. Medium fillers (three pounds, three ounces) or heavier should be used. It is absolutely necessary, also, that the filler be perfectly new. Even a short-haul shipment into the packing house should disqualify the filler for further use. Suitable cushions of excelsior, with a flat, should be placed on the top and bottom of the case.

The load of eggs must be a solid unit in the car, fitting without play. This is the most important factor in avoiding damage in transit. The amount of damage in properly loaded cars buffed with straw is slightly less than in the same cars buffed with wood. In placing the buffing, care should be taken not to permit it to prevent circulation of air, which is essential to good refrigeration. When the straw buffing is placed at the bunkers and extends from the top of the load to the floor of the car, it is found that at least 50 per cent of the refrigeration is lost.

Self bracing of the load by means of suitable strips placed below the cases proved much more satisfactory than braces nailed to the car. Nailed braces seldom arrive in place and frequently cause much damage.

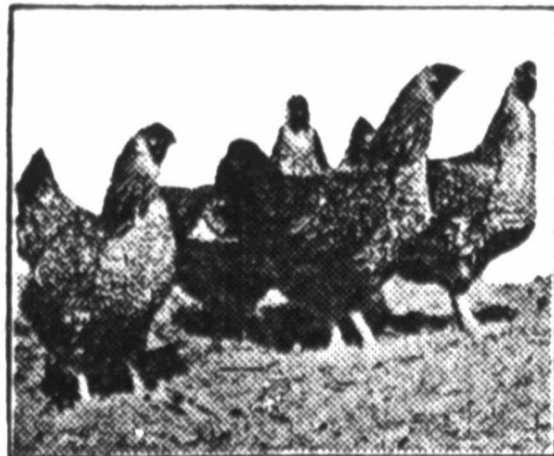

KEEP HENS FOR CHEAP EGGS

Flocks in City Back Yards Can Be Supported Principally on Waste From Kitchen.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The best opportunity for cheap eggs for city families during the war lies in keeping enough hens in the back yard where they can be supported principally on kitchen wastes to supply the family table. The keeping of hens in back yards is an economic opportunity for city families and at the same time an essential part of the campaign for increasing poultry production.

The smallest and least favorably situated back yard, says the department, offers opportunity to keep at least enough hens to supply eggs for the household. The number of hens needed for that purpose is twice the number of persons to be supplied. Hence, the smallest flock to be considered consists of four hens. When hens are kept only to furnish eggs for the table no male bird is needed.

A coop for a flock of four hens should have a floor area of about 20 square feet, or about five feet per hen. For larger flocks the space allowed per bird may be a little less, because the space is used in common, and each bird has the use of all the coop except what her companions actually occupy. For the ordinary flock of 10 to 15 hens, the space allowed should be about four square feet per hen.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

Get New Kidneys!

The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

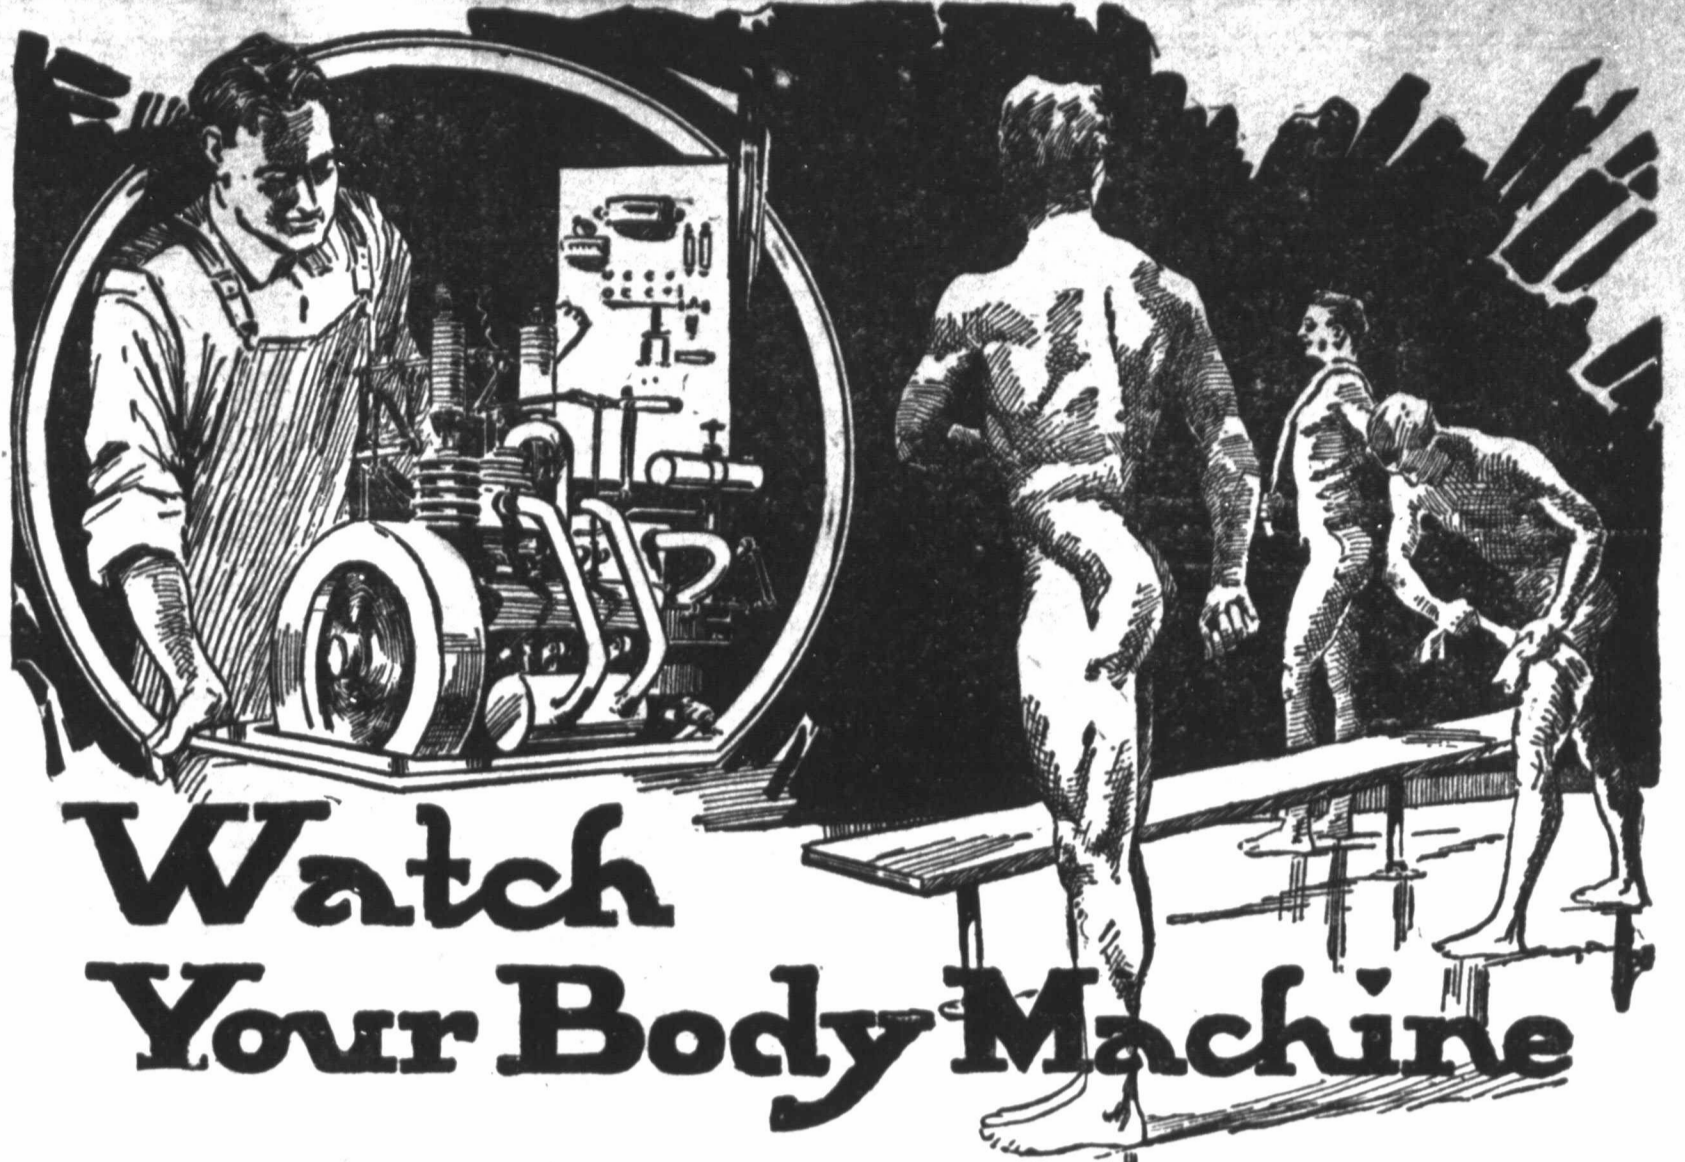

Do not delay a minute. At the first indication of trouble in the kidney, liver, bladder or urinary organs start taking Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules, and save yourself before it is too late. Instant relief is necessary in kidney and bladder troubles. A delay is often fatal.

You can almost certainly find immediate relief in Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an unflinching remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles.

It is the pure, original Haarlem Oil your great-grandmother used. About two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Get it at any drug store, and if it does not give you almost immediate relief, your money will be refunded. Be sure you get the GOLD MEDAL brand. None other genuine. In boxes, three sizes.—Adv.

Watch Your Body Machine

You're careful not to let your power plant run down. But how about your physical constitution? Do you give it the same thoughtful attention?

The human body is but an intricate piece of delicate machinery and demands to be kept in perfect condition for high efficiency. Nature soon renews neglect and imposition and does not hesitate to warn, by unmistakable symptoms, of her purpose to revolt.

You cease to have a relish for your meals and even what little you do eat weighs like lead on your stomach. Your nerves are discordant, "all to pieces"; the least thing out of the ordinary over-excites you and causes your heart to flutter. Again, at times, you have that awful "gone" feeling, becoming thoroughly exhausted upon the slightest effort. Your inclination and desire to do and to accomplish things has left you because you lack not only the spirit to go ahead, but the strength of mind and body as well to execute your ideas and plans. Still, in all, not really sick enough to go to bed, but just "fagged out," "all in," "dog tired" as it were. Notwithstanding, these are the formidable harbingers of the impending crisis—a complete break-down, and Nature's insistent demand for better treatment. Neglect spells disaster! It's easy to repair—provided, the repairing is done in time. Don't wait! Commence today to take

LYKO

The Great General Tonic

It is Nature's wonderful assistant in all cases of general debility—a positive reconstructive of quick and PERMANENT results. It's not a temporary tonic of transitory relief, but a dependable agent of LASTING benefit. Why? Because it revives the vital force of the body, building up both brain and brawn, by restoring to normal and healthy state all of the vital organs of the body, the heart, stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Its beneficial effect being not confined to a single organ alone, but pervading the entire body, the whole physical organism is attuned and adjusted to perfect working order, and, consequently, to the highest efficiency.

Outside of its superior qualities as a general tonic and systematizer, "LYKO" is so sparkling in color and so reliable in taste that you'll hardly realize that you are taking medicine at all.

If you are deficient in strength, from whatsoever cause, let "LYKO" rebuild you. Buy a bottle today from your local druggist.

The Piano at the Front.

Lieut. Reginald B. Jones, formerly organist at the Commercial Street Baptist church, Newport (Mon.), writing from France, says:

"The padre came along on Sunday evening, and our battalion had an open-air service while the shells were whistling over and the German planes hovering. We salvaged an old piano from a ruined cottage. It had seven notes missing and three holes from shells in it, but we mended the wires with telephone wire and string. I played it for the service, the fitter having 'tuned' it. In spite of the great discords we had fine, hearty singing."

So Do We All.

This Season's Objective.

"Where are you going this summer?"
"Don't know for sure," replied the young man. "France, I hope."

What Made Him Laugh?

An impertinent young man once declared that women positively could not keep a secret, whereupon a would-be youthful lady naturally took issue with him, stating that she had kept one since she was twenty-one.

"But you will let it slip some day," said the impertinent young man.

"No, I won't," she rejoined. "I think that when I've kept it for twenty years I come pretty near knowing how."

He laughed with an air of self-satisfaction.

Un-Kultured.

"Nero fiddled while Rome burned."
"Yes," replied the Count von Schrecklich. "But he was a very amateur incendiary. He made no special arrangements for demolishing cathedrals and hospitals."

The man who agrees with you in all things will at least be credited with having good judgment.

Like Home.

There is real sentiment in the case of the dairy farmer boy who, when he was sent a can of condensed milk over in France, christened it "Holstein Belle" and made a stall for it with two bits of board on the shelf in his dugout.

In Fight with Outlaws

Mounted Policemen W. O. Biggerstaff was close to the fight with the Rileys, cattle thieves, deserters and slackers, that occurred near Fort Sumner last week, and in which Deputy Sheriff Brown received a bullet in the fleshy part of his leg. Up to this time the outlaws have evaded capture, but the officers are hot on their trail and most any day may see them brought into camp. It is a useless piece of business showing this character of cattle any mercy. The proper system is to shoot first and cry halt afterwards.
