The weather this week has been all that could be desired and the farmers are busy turning up the soil preparatory to planting large crops. One grain dealer told us he had sold about all his seed oats and did not have enough to supply the demand.

On Monday last some of the boys started out to have a good time and so far as we know enjoyed themselves very well, at least they paid for it at the rate of about $50 each. Fun comes high but some people must have it at any price and the public school needs the money.

When you see a well dressed man you can bet your bottom dollar he had his suit made by Blankenship & Woodcock. That's the kind they turn out. Call and leave an order.

The following is a letter received by W. K. Breeding in answer to the telegram sent to Gov. Otero asking him to veto the bill changing the name of Roosevelt county to Leonard Wood.

W. K. Breeding, Esq., Portales, N. M.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your telegram of the 16th inst. I never heard of such a bill being introduced, and it certainly never reached me.

Yours very truly,

Will Kuykendall left Thursday, going to Artesia for a few days visit.

Hon. G. F. Ellis, our representative in the Territorial Assembly, returned to Portales Tuesday. Mr. Ellis says he never heard of the bill he was reported as introducing changing the name of the county. The mistake arose over a bill introduced by M. C. De Baca providing for changing the name of Leonard Wood county to Guadalupe, and making Roosevelt and Quay counties, counties of the third class. Mr. Ellis introduced an amendment providing for the striking out of the word "Roosevelt" which only occurred once in the bill, and in that instance not changing the name of the county, but making it a county of the third class. The amendment carried and Roosevelt county is still Roosevelt county and a county of the fourth class.

Elida Items.

On last Thursday eve, the 16th a postal card was received by the constable of this place, W. W. Nivens, informing him that two horses had been stolen near Memphis, Texas. Two suspicious parties had just passed through here a few hours before night. Some time after night Mr. Nivens and Mr. John Roach went in pursuit of them. They followed them until about four o'clock in the morning and the travelers camped. The pursuing parties waited until daylight and rode into their camp, examined the horses and found brand and description to correspond with card, so they arrested the parties and brought them back to Elida where Mr. Cox, Deputy sheriff of Portales, took one of them by the name of Randall and landed him in jail. The other party was a boy about 16 years old giving his name as Johnnie Gibson. He was released.

We are having some beautiful sunshine days which are very acceptable.

Rev. J. P. Wheeler has been on the sick list during the past week, but is up and back at his old stand now.

Mr. J. L. Paxton, one of Elida's farmers was in the burg Tuesday attending to business.

Mrs. L. W. Youngblood and little daughter returned on Monday from a two months visit to relatives in Denton county, Texas.

Quite a lot of our people received shipment of fruit trees on the 20th. Other shipments are yet to come and we will be busy for some time putting out trees.

Farmers are putting forth every effort to get in large fields this year. The most of them will get in from 35 to 50 acres and a few 100 acres.

Now Mr. Editor, I am not very inquisitive but right here, while it is fresh on my mind I would like to ask what use has New Mexico for a force of Rangers? They may have been all right 50 years ago, but at this stage of the game I think it very unnecessary. The sheriffs, deputies and constables of the several counties and precincts have the authority to summons every able bodied man to assist them. Now if we must have Rangers why the need of sheriffs, etc.

Another question: What is the difference in the name of Roosevelt and Leonard Wood? The people of Elida and vicinity are very well satisfied with the present name of the county. Why not let good enough alone?

ELIDA ITEM.

Meeting of Penitentiary Commission.

The Penitentiary Commission met Monday morning, March 20, at the superintendent's office at the prison in regular session, and considered bids for penitentiary supplies for the coming six months. There were present: F. H. Pierce, Las Vegas, president; Juan Navarro, Mora, secretary; Judge W. H. Newcomb, Silver City; Lewis H. H. Albuquerque, and Malaguia Martinez, Taos, members. Bids for supplies were opened, examined and awards made. The afternoon was spent in a careful and thorough inspection of the prison and everything connected with it. The commissioners expressed themselves as well pleased with the conduct and conditions at the territorial penitentiary and found everything there in first class order.

A Grateful Customer.

I suffered for four years with eczema on the ends of eight of my fingers. Had it so long my fingers drew up and could do nothing at all at times, and I tried almost everything that I ever heard of, including several largely advertised ointments, spending many dollars for them. Never a thing did it any good at all. At last I saw in a home paper Hunt's Cure was being advertised and tried only a part of one box, which cost me only 50c, and it cured them. Now I can wash or do anything which before I could not without my fingers bleeding, burning and paining me very much. If this ever comes back I surely will know just what to get. I wish every friend and stranger that had anything of the kind could have seen my fingers before I used this and see them now. It is the best Ointment on earth. That 50c box was worth a hundred dollars to me. You deserve all thanks that can be given you for that wonderful salve, Hunt's Cure."

BREEDING & BREEDING.

Japanese Take Tie Pass, And Occupy Sontoupu.

March 17.—Gen. Kuropatkin and the remainder of his army which was defeated by the Japanese on the Shaho and Hun rivers and again around Mukden and Tie Pass are now in the mountains, a few miles north of the southern entrance to the pass, trying to shake off their pursuers, who are apparently not going to repeat the mistake of Liao Tang and allow the Russians to escape.

Kuropatkin has been reinforced by the garrisons of Tieling and other northern towns and a few new troops, who were on their way from Russia when the battle of Mukden began. But even with these there seems little hope for him. True, he has some thirty or forty miles of hilly country extending from Tie Pass to Fengtaushan, which might enable him to head off the enemy for a time, but once out of the hills he has before him nearly three hundred miles of flat, open country and innumerable rivers and streams to cross.

Tokio, March 16.—The Japanese are now in possession of Tie Pass. A fierce battle is raging to the northward.

Oyama's forces struck from the west of the Liao River, taking Kuropatkin by surprise.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—Gen. Kuropatkin's rallied forces are fighting in their fortified positions to the north of Tieling with a fierceness, desperation and a knowledge that defeat means a disaster the least form of which would be a terrible retreat for hundreds of versts, lacking all supplies and ammunition.

The exhausted troops are harassed by the Japanese, who are declared this time to be bent on a fight for the extermination of the foe. The military attaches and correspondents with the staff lost their entire baggage. The former have hurried back to Harbin.

St. Petersburg, March 17.—With the evacuation of Tie Pass Wednesday night the Russian army abandoned the last stronghold in Southern Manchuria and definitely turned over that section to the Japanese for the campaign of 1905. At least no other strategy is possible for Gen. Kuropatkin, in view of his scant supplies of ammunition and stores, the shattered condition of his army and the wide enveloping movements which the Japanese have continued almost without a stop since the Russian defeat at Mukden. Nothing has been heard of the part which Gen. Kumamura's army is taking in these operations, but Gen. Nogi and Oku, operating in the low hills of the Tie Pass gorge, were themselves sufficient to turn the shattered Russian Army out of the fortifications, which had been prepared with a view of being held by the Russian army after it had withdrawn from Mukden.

The Japanese evidently are doing their utmost to accomplish the envelopment of the Russian Army, which all but succeeded at Mukden, but Gen. Kuropatkin with the railway for a line of retreat probably would be able to keep ahead of his pursuers. A constant succession of delaying rear-guard encounters may be expected.

Military men here have but the haziest ideas as to where the next stand will be made. Apparently there are no more fortified positions in Manchuria and the retirement probably will not stop short of Kirin or Kuzhsheny, on the railway line, and if the Japanese press the pursuit the Russians may retire beyond and up the Sangari River there to await new levies, the mobilization of which will begin.

The evacuation of Tie Pass involves the loss of the coal mines in that vicinity, which, with the Fushun and Yantai mines gone, is a severe blow. The railroad shops are at Tie Pass.

ADAMS IS OUSTED.

And Peabody Pledged to Resign, Making McDonald Governor Denver, Colo., March 17.—James H. Peabody won his contest for the office of governor, from which he retired on January 10, after serving a term of two years, but his victory was achieved only after he had given his pledge to resign and surrender the chair to Lieut. Gov. Jesse F. McDonald.

The vote in joint convention of the general assembly by which Gov. Peabody was ousted and Gov. J. H. Peabody installed was 51 to 41. Twenty-two Republican members of the general assembly, according to report, refused to be bound by any action in caucus on the contest and entered into a compact not to vote for Peabody. A majority of them, however, were in favor of seating the Lieutenant Governor in the Governor's chair, if means could be found to do so legally. Finally the leaders of the opposing Republican factions arranged a compromise by which Peabody would be vindicated by being declared elected and McDonald would be made governor.

Gov. Peabody's resignation, it is said, was placed in the hands of W. S. Boynton and will be filed by him with the secretary of state tomorrow.

Gov. Adams, who spent the day packing his effects, surrendered his office to Gov. Peabody shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Scores of letters, telegrams and telephone messages had reached the executive chamber during the day, urging Gov. Adams to hold his seat by force, but he decided to ignore this advice.

Sherman-Blue Ridge Line.

Sherman: H. Woodson, who represents the Chicago capital that is to promote the construction of the line of electric railroad from Bonham to McKinney, will make his headquarters in Sherman. Parties extensively interested in realty holdings along the route of a line, if built, from Sherman to Blue Ridge, Collin County, at which point it would intersect the Bonham-McKinney line, say they have met with much encouragement for such a project.

McKinney-Bonham Line to Commence.

McKinney: Hunter Woodson, promoter of the Bonham-McKinney Interurban Railroad, was in McKinney and held a conference with the citizens' committee, which will push the work of collecting the bonus subscriptions, in order to be ready to meet the citizens' obligations by the time the company is ready to begin work on the road, which will be in about sixty days.

Tom Parr, a young white man, was convicted of seduction at Sherman and fined $500.

Sixty-Second Court is Legal.

Austin: The Supreme Court holds that the Sixty-Second Judicial District, composed of Hunt, Lamar and DeWitt Counties, was legally organized, and that the court has constitutional existence. Recently the Court of Civil Appeals at Dallas held to the contrary, and a bill is now pending in the Legislature having for its purpose the removal of the objections which that court found.

New Texas Fire Insurance Company.

Austin: The Attorney General approved the charter of "The T. and C. Fire Insurance Company," those projecting it are J. T. Trzevant, Sam P. Cochran, C. C. Kinney, H. C. Dunn, B. A. Killough, Paul A. Florin and A. F. Pillet. The business headquarters of the company is located in Dallas and the capital stock of $100,000 is subscribed by Dallas capitalists.

Midland has voted dry by thirty-four majority.

Death in a Needle Point. Denton: A remarkable death is reported from the Territory. A young man, Girt Wilson, had a small sore on his left hand. His sister removed a needle from the wall paper, pricked the sore and inflammation immediately set in. Within two days Wilson died, caused from sticking the needle in a poisoned wall paper.

South Texas vegetable growers are getting very busy shipping stuff north and east.

While on his way to dinner Sunday at noon, E. S. Gibson, a veteran of the Civil War, and an inmate of the Confederate Home, dropped dead on the campus of the home from heart failure.

Woodmen to Meet in Dallas. Dallas: The last day of the fifth biennial convention of the head camp, Woodmen of the World, of the jurisdiction of Texas, Arkansas, Arizona and New Mexico, came to a close Thursday afternoon after interesting ceremonies, one of the most pleasant features of which being the presentation to the convention of the most prominent ladies of the Woodmen Circle, the head camp adjourned at 5 o'clock this afternoon to meet next year at Dallas.

KUROPATKIN DISMISSED. POPULAR LOAN MAY SUCCEED.

No News From the Front Creates Uneasiness in Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—Decided anxiety is felt here regarding the fate of the army in Manchuria under its new commander, no news of military developments during the last two days having been received here.

Gen. Kuropatkin has been dismissed and disgraced and Gen. Linevitch, commander of the first army, is appointed to succeed him in command of all the Russian land and sea forces operating against the Japanese.

Kuropatkin has been ordered to repair to St. Petersburg.

The only dispatches from the front are the brief dispatches Friday that Gen. Linevitch had assumed command and that Gen. Kuropatkin was departing for St. Petersburg, which disposes of a rumor that the latter had committed suicide.

The Russians are losing heavily in the rear guard actions, and Japanese columns are reported to be pushing northward as fast as possible to complete the envelopment of the Russian forces.

An international credit loan of $100,000,000 at a 5 per cent basis is now being negotiated by the Ministry of Finance. The loan will be floated probably in a short time. The price of the issuance has not been determined upon, but probably will be 92 to 95.

The Associated Press was informed at the Ministry that the issuance of this loan is entirely independent of the French negotiations which have not yet been concluded. Domestic rates are issued for a long term and will, as in the case from the internal credit loan, not be subject to the obligations of foreign loans. The payment of the interest and the principal will be in gold and probably will be taxable.

The determination of the government to turn to Russia itself for funds was taken only recently. Yesterday the Minister of Finance conferred with a number of the principal bankers of St. Petersburg and Russia generally and received the assurance that the project was feasible. The banks are prepared to underwrite on suitable terms. The Government Savings Bank, it is said, will assume $20,000,000 of the total and such banks as the Moscow Merchants and the Volga and the Kama Banks are well able to underwrite large portions of the loan from their resources.

Rice Gets a Black Eye.

New Orleans: C. C. Duson of Crowley and R. N. Sims of Donaldsonville, special representatives of Louisiana Texas rice interests, sent to Cuba to try and secure favorable legislation for the admission of American rice have returned. They say the bill will be taken up next month, but they fear there will be no favorable legislation before next year, owing to differences that have arisen among Cuban Cabinet officers.

New Dipping Vat at Ralston.

Guthrie, Ok.: The Santa Fe is to build a cattle dipping vat at Ralston, Ok., which will add another to the number of new ones to be erected on account of the new quarantine laws which went into effect on the 15th inst. This will make at least five vats along all roads by which cattle are to be shipped into the Osage country, which otherwise would not have been built. It is hoped that this general dipping will eradicate the fever tick.

Picking Up Coal.

San Francisco: Officers from five British freight steamers that were captured by Japanese while trying to run the blockade into Vladivostok, arrived on the steamer China from Yokohama. The number included twelve men from the British steamers Rasalle, Lethington, Oakley and Baudrey, all bound from Great Britain to the Siberian port, where they were captured. The total amount of coal reached nearly 25,000 tons.

Extension From Seymour.

Fort Worth: The largest owner of the Oklahoma and Wichita Falls and Wichita Falls Railways says that his companies have decided to build extensions in the near future; in fact, preliminary work might begin at once. The first extension will be to build from Seymour a little west of south. The exact line will be decided on after the surveys have been passed upon.

Standard in Missouri.

Jefferson City: Attorney General Hadley has filed a petition before Judge Marshall of the State Supreme Court for an order to the Standard Oil Company, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company and the Republic Oil Company to appear and give testimony regarding allegations that they are in a combination to control prices and the supply of oil in Missouri. Judge Marshall set March 23 for preliminary action.

Deliberate Suicide of a German.

San Angelo: A well known erman, Emil Harmuth, who has lived here many years, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a Colt's pistol. He was 68 years old and had lived alone all his life. Everything in his room was found arranged neatly and he had dressed himself with care in his best clothes and laid down upon his bed before firing the shot which ended his life.

THE ROCK ISLAND EXTENSION. Much Depends Upon What the Legislature Does in the Case.

Fort Worth: Hon. N. H. Lassiter, general attorney for the Rock Island in Texas, reports that the bill granting the Rock Island company certain privileges in Galveston adopted by ordinance, relative to the closing of certain streets and other matters in connection with wheat and elevator privileges has been introduced in both the house and senate, and that there is every reason to believe the bill will go through by the middle of the week. It can not be stated here when the Rock Island will get to work on the alveston improvement if the grant is made by the Legislature. It is un-

KUROPATKIN'S SUCCESSOR.

It seems to be taken for granted in St. Petersburg that Kourapatkin will be recalled and Gen. Sakharoff, the minister of war, is picked as the man most likely to take his place as head of the army in Manchuria. Gen. Sakharoff is 64 years old, a veteran of the Turkish war, and was chief of staff of the army in Turkestan when he was called to St. Petersburg to succeed Kourapatkin as minister of war a year ago. His younger brother is Kourapatkin's chief of staff in Manchuria.

It is understood that the situation at Galveston depends on just what the Rock Island will do in getting to that port, whether a line will be built direct from Dallas or Fort Worth, or whether the Rock Island will purchase the Houston and Texas Central. The improvements, it is stated, may be begun in a year or later, and it is believed that the Rock Island would not like to bind itself to commence work even within two years. It will probably require some time to work out the plan to get into Galveston, and if the road is to build it would require some time to make extensions.

Russian Internal Troubles.

Warsaw, March 17.—A dispatch received here from Lodz says that owing to the rumors of an approaching army mobilization, the workers in the woolen mills there have struck. The Seventy-Fifth Brigade has been withdrawn from Lodz and will be dispatched to Manchuria. It will be replaced by artillery reserves from Nijni, Novgorod. Reports of the spread of the peasant agitation are coming from nearly every part of the country.

Milt Watson, a Collin County farmer, beat a neighbor's wife, and the courts decided that the offense was worth a fine of $500.

W. E. Love, formerly of Dallas, a manufacturer's agent for buggies and implements, died Tuesday on a train between Kerens and Corsicana.

Severe Rain and Hill Storms.

Mill Cree, I. T.: Over four inches of rain and hill fell here Thursday afternoon and night. There was little damage done, as the storm was not accompanied by any amount of wind. At Pavia, a small town sixteen miles below here, the report comes that a terrible hailstorm ensued, the hail going through the roofs of houses and doing considerable damage generally. Creeks are all out of their banks.

Sam Burton, an Ellis County negro, stole two or three pieces of bridge timber from a railroad and was sentenced to spend five days in jail and to pay a fine of $10.

The State meeting of Photographers will be held in Dallas Oct. 3, 4 and 5. New spouters on Spindle Top have revived the interest in that field.

It is given out that the Brazos Valley Railway is to extend soon from Coolidge to Dallas.

A white and a negro boy stole a hide from a Waco dealer and sold it back to him and stole it again, but were caught before they got away with the booty.

Farmers in the vicinity of Terrell report the alfalfa crop this spring as the finest so far that has been for many years.

A cotton gin owned by L. W. Ward and located near Detroit was burned. The plant was valued at $3,500, and insured for $2,700. The origin of the fire is not known.

A movement is on foot to consolidate the National Cotton Association and the Southern Cotton Association.

Judge John M. Henderson, associate Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who has been quite ill at Austin, is much improved, and is rapidly recovering.

The Ministers Urge Peace Proposal Upon the Czar.

Agitation Among Workingmen Continually Grows.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—While Emperor Nicholas, whose word is final, still declines to abandon the prosecution of the war and the government maintains its ability to continue the conflict, the Associated Press is in a position to state that powerful influences, including several of Emperor Nicholas' ministers, are now strongly urging that the time has come to indicate to Japan Russia's desire for peace upon a reasonable basis.

Should Japan then attempt to impose too onerous conditions these influences argue that in view of the universal wish to see the bloody conflict ended, Russia's position will be strengthened abroad by the alienation of sympathy from Japan and the situation at home improved when the nation is made to understand that the emperor's pacific proposals have been met with impossible terms.

Warsaw: Now that most of the strikes are ended, the workingmen are beginning to carry out the threat of revenge on such of their fellows as refused to quit work with them. On Saturday a foreman who had refused to join the strikers was fatally stabbed and today a workman who had refused to walk out was shot and severely wounded.

The authorities fear that these incidents are only the beginning of a series of such outrages.

The working class is greatly excited in anticipation of orders for army mobilization. The men are determined to offer violent opposition. Scarcely a day passes without the appearance of seditious pamphlets. One secret publication, entitled "The Barricades," which was recently circulated, preached revolutionary doctrines, urging workmen to prepare for the struggle and build barricades in the streets. The mobilization is expected to begin in Lodz tomorrow. Workmen in several mills there are already striking as a manifestation of hostility to such measures. The school strike at Warsaw is reaching an acute stage.

IT IS NOW SENATOR WILLIAM WARNER.

Republicans of Missouri Elect a Senator at Last.

Jefferson City, Mo.: After having been in a deadlock since Jan. 18 on the selection of United States Senator to succeed Francis M. Cockrell, the Legislature at fifteen minutes before nine adjourned Saturday elected Major William Warner, Republican, of Kansas City to fill the contested vacancy.

Seven ballots in joint session were taken in effecting a decision and the closing scenes of the Legislature have not been paralleled in the history of Missouri politics. When it became evident that Warner would be the choice, the Democrats, who had steadfastly supported Cockrell throughout, locked horns with the Republicans, who were split on the caucus nominee, Thomas K. Neidringhaus, Richard C. Kerens and a score of other nominees, and the assembly chamber became a place of general riot.

Efforts were made to stop a roll call on the seventh ballot, several attempted to tear the presiding officer from the chair and the Democrats tried to effect an adjournment without election. The time for sine die adjournment had been set for 3 o'clock by concurrent resolution and as the hour approached the clock was smashed in the melee. Amid an uproar that almost baffled control at times the seventh ballot of the day was cast, resulting in the election of Major Warner.

The vote stood: Warner 91, Cockrell 83, Neidringhaus 1. Total vote was 175, making 88 necessary to a choice, and Warner received three votes more than the majority.

Will Build a $25,000 Church.

Fort Worth: At the conclusion of the morning service of the Broadway Baptist Church Sunday it was decided that the location of the new church would be changed to the northeast corner of Lueda Street and College Avenue. Dr. J. W. Gilton, announced that work would be commenced shortly on the new church, plans and specifications for which have been agreed on and which will cost something like $25,000.

Mr. Green Hangs Up a Trophy.

New York: E. H. R. Green of Texas, who has ordered two American air-cooled racing cars for the Vanderbilt cup race, has offered a perpetual challenge trophy for competition at 100 miles. The first race for the trophy is to take place on the track at Dallas, Texas, and thereafter the selection of the course will be made by the holder of the cup. Col. Green already owns two American racing cars, one of which holds the 100-mile track record of 2 hours 6 minutes 42.35 seconds.

Increase Tobacco Acreage.

Nacogdoches: The Florida, Havana and Sumatra Company of Quincy, Fla., has leased the Redfield tobacco farm, north of town, and will grow twenty-three acres in wrapper tobacco under the shade this year. Sol Friedman, the local manager of the company, closed the contract for the land for this year's crop. This same company raised an experimental crop here last year on a small scale. The crop was considered a success.

Hon. D. A. McFall Dead.

Austin: Hon. D. A. McFall died at noon Sunday, after an illness lasting twenty-one days. Not of robust constitution, an attack of grip settled in his heart, and for several days he hovered between life and death. During the past week his condition improved. Saturday he relapsed and became unconscious. Judge McFall was 36 years of age. He came from Tennessee to Austin with his father at the age of 6.

Japan Will Want the Philippines.

Washington: Representative Hull of Iowa is not alone among public men in feeling that the time will speedily come when Japan will seek the Philippine Islands. There is scarcely a prominent army or navy officer in Washington who has not in private conversation expressed the belief that if Japan defeated Russia she would like to extend her possessions to the Philippine Archipelago.

STOCK

Foundation of the Emment Cheese. In the first place, it is a cheese of the best quality, a cheese that possesses a large proportion of the most of some recognized best breeds. Cheese possessing considerable dairy food may give rapid and economical gain, but the carcass of beef from such a steer does not carry so large a proportion of valuable meat as that of the strictly beef animal. This point has been demonstrated in many experiments. The dairy-bred steer had a tendency to form a large amount of fat that is not edible, whereas those portions of the body which carry the most valuable meat are poorly developed and lacking in covering of flesh.

While it is impossible to say exactly how the animal will feed stably from inspecting it, at the same time, there are certain features which are peculiar to the animal which will make rapid and economical gain in weight, and which possess the constitution to stand heavy feeding. A good type of steer should possess a deep body, broad back, short neck, moderately fine bone, thick, fine coat of hair, and a somewhat thick but mellow skin, which moves freely under the hand over the underlying tissues. When the hand is laid flat upon the ribs of the animal and pressed against them, a mellowness and elasticity should be noticeable, which indicate a ready fattener and a good quality of flesh. The animal which has a thin, wiry coat of hair, and which feels hard and unyielding when the hand is laid on the rib, is seldom a quick feeder, and does not possess the thickness of flesh which is desirable in a beef animal. Of course, we do not expect that a thin steer will handle like a fat steer, but in handling a thick-fleshed animal, that mellowness of handling, previously mentioned, is noticeable, though the animal may be comparatively thin.

It is desirable to have good depth and thickness at the heart in order to indicate constitution; but there should be proportionate development towards the rear of the animal where the meat is more valuable. Viewed from the side, the steer should present a well-balanced appearance, that is to say, he should not show an undue development of forequarter in proportion to hindquarter, because the forequarter is of less value than the hindquarter. Beware of the steer with extremely heavy shoulders and coarse, "wooly-looking" head and horns. A full, bright eye and wide muzzle are also indications of breeding qualities.—Prof. G. E. Day.

The Teeth of Sheep.

Under ordinary conditions it is safe to take the teeth as a sure indication of a sheep's age, says Edward Van Alstyne in Rural New Yorker. Of course with some breeds or individuals that mature early there might be a little variation. The following are the accepted rules and may be found useful in determining the age of a sheep:

At one month there are eight temporary front teeth or incisors (always in the lower jaw) and three temporary molars on each side of each jaw. At three months there will be added a permanent molar to the three temporary ones. At nine months there will appear the second permanent molar. At from twelve to fourteen months the first pair of permanent incisors or front teeth appear.

At sixteen months there will be the third permanent molar. At from twenty-one to twenty-two months there will be four permanent incisors. At twenty-seven months the temporary molars drop out, and permanent ones take their place. At thirty months there will be the six permanent incisors.

At from three years and four to six months all the eight permanent incisors have appeared and the sheep may be said to have a full mouth. After this it is not so easy to tell, but if the teeth are even and the mouth full one may take it to be between four and five years. From this time on the general condition of the sheep and the good or bad state of the teeth will indicate whether the sheep can be profitably kept or not.

Supply of Army Horses.

An English army officer, Major Moore, in the course of a lecture on the supply of horses for military purposes, at the Royal Military Service Institution, estimated the equine population of the world at about 80,000,000, half of which belong to Europe, and the major portion of the remainder to America. Russia, he said, was the greatest horse country, possessing 23,000,000 animals, which made her independent of outside sources. In no country was greater attention given to breeding, and exporting was closely guarded. It was curious, he said, how little was heard of the work of horses in the Far Eastern war, considering Russia's enormous supplies. It was not stated where Japan, who is short of remounts, got her horses, but she had made great efforts to repair her deficiencies with stud farms and prizes to breeders. The best field of supply in the world was America, and in most countries government aid was given or breeding farms were maintained. The British Empire was lacking in numbers, although the United Kingdom possessed the best types in the world. The Colonies were deficient in numbers and quality, and close attention was needed for the subject, in order to have adequate supplies in time of war from our possessions as a first line. The plan of Continental studs was supported by many, but the British farmer could give points to the Continent in the matter of breeding.

Weights of Seed and Grain.

There should be a national law regulating the weights of seeds and grains. As it is, chaos prevails largely in such matters. Wheat is quite uniform in weight throughout the states, but such is not the case with most of our grains. The best direction should need with some uniformity.

REIGN OF TERROR.

Bands of Armed Peasants Plunder and Burn.
St. Petersburg, March 20.—The peasant disorders are growing rapidly in the black soil belt and other districts of Southern Russia. Provincial journals bring alarming reports, showing that an actual reign of terror already exists in some districts. Not only are estates plundered and buildings burned, but landlords are murdered.

Deaths in the Mine.
Charleston, W. Va.: An explosion occurred at the mines of the New River Smokeless Coal and Coke Company at Rush Run Saturday night and at least twenty-four men were killed. The explosion was in the Rush Run mine, but it extended through to the Red Ash mine, nearly two miles away, and flames burst out of the mouth of both mines. In the two explosions at least twenty-four men were killed, ten of the dead being members of a rescue party, who were caught by the second explosion in the Rush Run mine.

No News From the Front Creates Uneasiness in Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 12.—Decided anxiety is felt here regarding the fate of the army in Manchuria under its new commander, no news of military developments during the last two days having been received here. Gen. Kuropatkin has been dismissed and disgraced and Gen. Linévitch, commander of the first army, is appointed to succeed him in command of all the Russian land and sea forces operating against the Japanese. A Terrific Hail Storm.
Temple: Paul Lackner, postal clerk on the Santa Fe Railway between Temple and San Angelo, reports a terrific hailstorm on that line Wednesday between Goldthwaite and Coleman. At Coleman the ground looked as if snow covered when the train passed several hours after the storm, and at that time the hail drifts were several feet high near the track. At Mullin hall was reported as being three inches deep on the level.

Kills Herself at Little Rock.
Little Rock: Mrs. L. W. Owens of Terrell, Texas, who was visiting her sister here, ended her life by shooting herself with a pistol, once in the head and once in the breast. She left no written explanation of the act, and at the inquest no evidence was adduced to show why she killed herself, other than that she had been despondent lately. Her maiden name was Miss Spraggins, and she was 41 years old.

Woodmen to Meet in Dallas.
Waco: The last day of the fifth biennial convention of the head camp, Woodmen of the World, of the jurisdiction of Texas, Arkansas, Arizona and New Mexico, came to a close Thursday afternoon after interesting ceremonies, one of the most pleasant features of which being the presentation to the convention of the most prominent ladies of the Woodmen Circle, the head camp adjourned at 5 o'clock this afternoon to meet next year at Dallas.

Japanese Take Tie Pass, And Occupy Sontoupu.

March 17.—Gen. Kuropatkin and the remnant of his army which was defeated by the Japanese on the Shalke and Hun Rivers and again around Mukden and Tie Pass are now in the mountains, a few miles north of the southern entrance to the pass, trying to shake off their pursuers, who are apparently not going to repeat the mistake of Liao Yang and allow the Russians to escape.

Kuropatkin has been reinforced by the garrison of Tieling and other northern towns and a few new troops, who were on their way from Russia when the battle of Mukden began. But even with these there seems little hope for him. True, he has some thirty or forty miles of hilly country extending from Tie Pass to Fenghsien, which might enable him to head off the enemy for a time, but once out of the hills he has before him nearly three hundred miles of flat, open country and innumerable rivers and streams to cross.

Tokio, March 16.—The Japanese are now in possession of Tie Pass. A fierce battle is raging to the northward.

Oyama's forces struck from the west of the Liao River, taking Kuropatkin by surprise.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—Gen. Kuropatkin's rallied forces are fighting in their fortified positions to the north of Tieling with a fierceness, desperation and a knowledge that defeat means a disaster the least form of which would be a terrible retreat for hundreds of versts, lacking all supplies and ammunition.

The exhausted troops are harassed by the Japanese, who are declared this time to be bent on a fight for the extermination of the foe. The military attaches and correspondents with the staff lost their entire baggage. The former have hurried back to Harbin.

St. Petersburg, March 17.—With the evacuation of Tie Pass Wednesday night the Russian army abandoned the last stronghold in Southern Manchuria and definitely turned over that section to the Japanese for the campaign of 1905. At least no other strategy is possible for Gen. Kuropatkin. In view of his scant supplies of ammunition and stores, the shattered condition of his army and the wide enveloping movements which the Japanese have continued almost without a stop since the Russian defeat at Mukden. Nothing has been heard of the part which Gen. Kumamura's army is taking in these operations, but Gen. Nogi and Oku, operating in the low hills of the Tie Pass gorge, were themselves sufficient to turn the shattered Russian Army out of the fortifications, which had been prepared with a view of being held by the Russian army after it had withdrawn from Mukden.

The Japanese evidently are doing their utmost to accomplish the envelopment of the Russian Army, which all but succeeded at Mukden, but Gen. Kuropatkin with the railway for a line of retreat probably would be able to keep ahead of his pursuers. A constant succession of delaying rear-guard encounters may be expected.

Military men here have but the haziest ideas as to where the next stand will be made. Apparently there are no more fortified positions in the region.

Fatal Collision.
Fort Smith, Ark.: A coach containing about a dozen passengers on the Arkansas Western Railroad ran down an incline while switching was being done near Waldron, Wednesday, and crashed with terrific force into a train which was standing on the main line. D. C. Cowling of Rogers, Ark., was thrown against a stove with the force that he was fatally injured, dying a short time later.

readiness and the retirement probably will not stop short of Kirim or Kuanchentsy, on the railway line, and if the Japanese press the pursuit the Russians may retire beyond and up the Sungari River there to await new levies, the mobilization of which will begin.

The evacuation of Tie Pass involves the loss of the coal mines in that vicinity, which, with the Fushun and Yental mines gone, is a severe blow. The railroad shops are at Tie Pass.

ADAMS IS OUSTED.

And Peabody Pledged to Resign, Making McDonald Governor.
Denver, Colo., March 17.—James H. Peabody won his contest for the office of governor, from which he retired on January 10, after serving a term of two years, but his victory was achieved only after he had given his pledge to resign and surrender the chair to Lieut. Gov. Jesse F. McDonald.

The vote in joint convention of the general assembly by which J. H. Peabody installed was 51 to 41. Twenty-two Republican members of the general assembly, according to report, refused to be bound by any action in caucus on the contest and entered into a compact not to vote for Peabody. A majority of them, however, were in favor of seating the Lieutenant Governor in the Governor's chair, if means could be found to do so legally. Finally the leaders of the opposing Republican factions arranged a compromise by which Peabody would be vindicated by being declared elected and McDonald would be made governor.

Gov. Peabody's resignation, it is said, was placed in the hands of W. S. Boynton and will be filed by him with the secretary of state tomorrow.

Sherman-Blue Ridge Line.

Sherman: H. Woodson, who represents the Chicago capital that is to promote the construction of the line of electric railroad from Bonham to McKinney, will make his headquarters in Sherman. Parties extensively interested in realty holdings along the route of a line, if built, from Sherman to Blue Ridge, Collin County, at which point it would intersect the Bonham-McKinney line, say they have met with much encouragement for such a project.

McKinney-Bonham Line to Commence.

McKinney: Hunter Woodson, promoter of the Bonham-McKinney Interurban Railroad, was in McKinney and held a conference with the citizens' committee, which will push the work of collecting the bonus subscriptions, in order to be ready to meet the citizens' obligations by the time the company is ready to begin work on the road, which will be in about sixty days.

LESSON XIII, MARCH 26—OF QUARTER'S LESSON
Golden Text—"But These Things Ye Might Believe That He is the Christ, the Son of That Believing Ye Might Light Through His Name 20:31.

The lessons of the quarter over the first nine chapters of Gospel.
The Gospel according to J characteristics, its aim (as "Golden Text"), and its reaching this aim, by one of its peculiarities in the selection of incidents recorded, that it may all be included under signs, illustrating the truths he taught by them under witnesses to the truths.

1. How many record signs? 2. How many bear witness? 3. How many? This review gives an unusual opportunity to present Christ so vividly, in so much of his goodness, beauty of character, as to make deep impression on our scholars a late article on English literature and Christian culture, Prof. W. of Yale states very clearly some of those who are of great importance to our scholars.

"The most influential in the world is, we suppose, what we see in other people's lives; and, if we cannot see, we can know by convention and reading." "The story of noble woman in life or in real life becomes a permanent force uplifting the race." "The deeper this is Christian character, Christian in hood, womanhood . . . a character, a culture that have most of spirit of Christ." "We all know it the faster and the more complete the world gets toward the realization of that conception of Christ which is common to all the churches and can be drawn from the Scripture and from the lives of those who seem to Christlike, the better, unspokeably better, will it be for the world."

The largest sense of Christian culture in the glory and beauty and sweetness and beneficence of true Christ likeness, we want a Christian culture we want it in its fulness, and we want it soon."

For this purpose a teacher might read the following bright story illustration from a late Youth's Companion:

Whenever Mrs. Joshua Ely declared that for her part she believed in speaking the truth and not minding manners, her hearers know that somebody's reputation was about to suffer. Mrs. Ely, herself, said that she always had been outspoken, and she intended to be. Her neighbors, however, were not so ready to meet the citizens' obligations by the time the company is ready to begin work on the road, which will be in about sixty days.

Character. Character is great and worthy in itself and not because of the greater or less fame of a deed through which it manifests itself. The sad sacrifice of Gordon at Khartoum, for the sake of England and of Egypt, is of the same heroic quality as the sacrifice of the missionary among the Arabs or the Chinese, of whose name and fame the world hears but little. It is not the kind of thing through which we show ourselves, but the kind of self we have to show, that counts with God.
