A Pleasant Party. On last Tuesday evening the members and their friends of the Epworth League were delightfully entertained at the residence of Col. and Mrs. W. K. Breeding. There was about twenty five members of the younger set present and the evening was pleasantly spent in games, songs and music. The most beautiful part of the evening program was Col. Breeding making goo goo eyes at his shadow, and privately speaking, the writer thinks that he thought all of the young ladies present, his shadow. Also one of the young ladies of the merry crowd making love to Parson Wilson, who seemed to be quite bashful and backward in such things. And last but not least came the refreshments, delicious chocolate, cakes and fruits were served by Miss Ora Kuykendall assisted by Misses Ophelia Ferguson, Nannie Osborn and Georgia Stewart. Towards the wee sma hours of the morning the merry crowd adjourned, with many expressions of thanks to the kind host and hostess and their charming daughter for the very very pleasant evening. ONE OF THE PARTY. Poultry Show. A number of subscriptions to one of the best poultry journals published, will be given as prizes on pure bred fowls. All coops will be numbered and no other mark or name be allowed on them until the fowls are all judged then exhibitors may put their names on their own coops. Fowls must be entered in name of prize owner. Fowls to compete for actual award must be entered Friday Dec. 15 before 1 o'clock when judging will begin.

There will be a meeting of breeders Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. to decide on a show for next year. There will be a contribution box placed in the show room and those who want to give something can do so, it will make the expenses lighter and be appreciated. Everybody invited to come and bring your neighbors. Rather Strenuous. On Monday last quite an exciting little episode occurred between Attorney G. F. Ellis and J. B. Sparkman. It appears that Mr. Ellis had a note for collection which was the property of Mr. Sparkman. Ellis claimed that he had sold the note to the Bank of Portales and Sparkman claims that he had no authority for so doing. This controversy had been pending for some three or four weeks prior to the arrival of Sparkman. Upon his arrival here Mr. Sparkman called at the office of Mr. Ellis and demanded his paper, tendering $150.00 as attorney's fees. Ellis instead of producing the paper jumped into a spring wagon in which was his wife and started for home. Sparkman jumped on a horse, gave chase, overtook them and compelled them to return and deliver the papers. The public is already sufficiently informed of the proceedings in this matter without going into further details. Notice for publication. Commuted Homestead Entry No. 3433. Russia Faces Real Crisis.

Confronted With Rebellion on Land and at Sea Only the Army Can Prevail.

Sevastopol, Nov. 27.—The long expected mutiny of sailors who have been on the verge of revolt for months came Friday night and Russia's stronghold on the Black Sea is in danger of completely falling into their hands.

The situation is very critical. All the shore equipages, numbering 4,000 men, are in open rebellion, having driven away or taken their officers prisoners.

The Brest regiment of infantry has gone over in a body to the mutineers. Gen. Neptueff, the commander of the fortress, is a captive.

The Bellostok regiment, the only other regiment in the city, received the mutineers with cheers, but thus far it seems loyal.

Some of the artillerymen have also joined the men in revolt. Besides the Bellostok regiment, there are two battalions of artillery and a battalion of the fortress artillery here.

The Euxine fleet is standing in the offing, and is still obeying the orders of Vice Admiral Chaunkin, but the crews are dissatisfied, and there are grave doubts whether they can be restrained from joining the mutineers and graver doubt that they will fire on them.

The Seventh Army Corps and the commander of the corps has been hastily summoned from Simferopol, eight hours distant.

There is every evidence that the mutiny was deliberately and perfectly planned by the social revolutionaries, who have been pushing their propaganda with great energy since the St. Petersburg movement was organized to save the Cronstadt mutineers.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—At midnight the Associated Press was informed by an official of the Admiralty that the reports received up to that hour showed that there had been no conflict at Sevastopol yesterday. So far as the official knew, the crews of the Black Sea fleet were still loyal, but beyond that no information was vouchsafed. It is not known whether the troops which were ordered to proceed from Simferopol have arrived at Sevastopol.

The sailors who mutinied numbered about 4,000 and belong to various equipages from the twenty-eighth to the thirty-sixth. Including the sailors on board the ships there was about 8,000 in Sevastopol when the mutiny occurred. The troops in the garrison consisted of the Brest and Bellostok regiments, with two battalions of artillery and one battalion of fortress artillery. The Bellostok regiment during the outbreak several weeks ago, fired upon the sailors, and at the Admiralty no doubt is now entertained that the mutiny was the result of the carefully prepared work of the revolutionary agitators to whom the support given to the mutineers at Cronstadt by the workmen of St. Petersburg offered a powerful weapon.

Profiting by the mistakes of the mutineers at Cronstadt, however, those at Sevastopol took particular care to adopt measures to prevent their meeting degenerating into a drunken riot, and so far as known, both the mutineers and workmen in the port have comported themselves in perfectly orderly fashion.

PRISONERS MAKE A BREAK FROM MISSOURI PENITENTIARY

Two Officers and One Convict Are Killed in Fight.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 25.—Two officers and one convict of the State Penitentiary are dead and Deputy Warden R. E. See and another officer and two convicts are wounded as a result of a terrific battle with weapons and dynamite at the prison gate at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, followed by a running fight through the streets of the state capital.

Two of the officers were shot down and killed within the prison walls. They were Capt. E. Allison and Officer John W. Clay. Deputy Warden See was shot while in his private office.

The two wounded convicts are Harry S. Vaughn, the train robber, a leader of the attempted escape, who was sent up from St. Louis for burglarizing a drug store, and Charles Raymond. Convict Hiram Blake was killed during the fight.

Officer John Young was shot through the thigh while pursuing the fugitives. Convict Ryan escaped without an injury.

Twenty blocks were covered by three of the convicts in a heavy freight wagon before four young men intercepted and forced them to surrender.

Throughout the pursuit a perfect fusillade of shots was kept up, the convicts firing in volleys at Officer John Bruner and Policeman George Stahlr, the latter joining in the chase when the escaped prisoners turned into High street, the main business thoroughfare of the city.

Early in the chase Officer John Young was shot in the thigh and fell unconscious. Bruner continued following, firing at intervals with his rifle. He finally brought down Convict Hiram Blake with a mortal shot through the abdomen.

Then the three convicts sprang into a transfer wagon and, holding the driver between them and Bruner as a shield, drove rapidly toward the business portion of the town, passing the Governor's mansion in their flight.

None of the three was struck by the shots of Bruner and Stahlr until several blocks had been covered when Convict Charles Raymond dropped from the wagon.

With the wounding of Raymond the other two convicts, Vaughn and Ryan, urged the horses to a faster pace, seeing that Stahlr, who had secured a buggy, was gaining on them. At this instant Houck McHenry, owner of the wagon seized by the convicts, George Walters, Gerhart Crevelt and Leonard Green, intercepted the fleeing prisoners.

Green rushed to the horses' heads and caught their bridle. Walters drew his revolver and forced Ryan to hold up his hands. Quick as a flash Vaughn fired at young Green, but the shot went wild. Vaughn jumped from the wagon, rushed toward Green and ordered him to release the horses, pulling back the hammer of his revolver as he did so.

The shot from Vaughn's revolver would have killed Green had the weapon been discharged. The hammer caught and Green, realizing the desperate situation which confronted him, sprang at the convict, and, wrestling with him for a moment, wrenched the revolver from his grasp. Vaughn's nerve failed him when his revolver was gone and he surrendered without protest to Policeman Stahlr, who arrived just as young Green disarmed the former train robber and crook.

Boers Want Texas Lands. El Paso: Negotiations are being carried on by a group of Boers who wish to acquire a colony site near El Paso. Gen. Viljoen and his father are in El Paso conferring with the owners of the land which they would be glad to secure. One tract under consideration is about six miles north of El Paso and includes about 800 acres. Another tract is in the Mesquite Valley of New Mexico, twenty-four miles from El Paso.

Great Summer Resort Planned. Denison: Plans are being prepared by a local firm of architects for a combination hotel, dancing pavilion and theater, to be erected in Whitesboro, Grayson County, on the line of the interurban road that is projected from Sherman to Gainesville through Whitesboro. It is proposed to form a stock company with a capital of $150,000 to erect the structure and conduct it as a resort.

Atlantic City: Before adjourning sine die, the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry adopted a resolution declaring that "as we, as American citizens, believe it is every man's privilege to work as many hours as he will for pay and that in thrift and activity they should be encouraged and command rightful compensation for services rendered." This is taken as a direct aim at labor unions, which fix an eight-hour scale for a working day.

Wreck and Death Caused by a Boy. Harrisburg, Pa.: One trainman was killed and five others injured in a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad at Thompsonstown Friday. The wreck was caused by a rear end collision between two freight trains going west. The mail train leaving Harrisburg at 4:40 ran into the wreckage, blocking four tracks, and delayed traffic several hours, but no damage was done to the mail.

Tom Lawson Endorsed. San Antonio: At a meeting of policy holders in life insurance companies held in this city, resolutions were passed endorsing Thomas W. Lawson, and roundly condemning the more prominent members of the management of the large life insurance companies which have been in the limelight of publicity for some time.

The meeting was attended by about 150 persons, many of whom are prominent in the state.

Life insurance agents and employers were excluded from participating in the meeting and the attempt to be conservative was not a marked success. The division of the house was close between the radicals and conservatives, and there was no large majority in any of the votes. A permanent organization was effected by the election of the following officers: Winchester Kelso, chairman; R. G. Callahan, secretary and an advisory committee composed of Jot Gunter, J. W. Blake, J. H. Kirkpatrick, L. C. Stewart and Shirley W. Johns.

Sea Island Cotton Raisers Organize. Valdosta, Ga.: The Sea Island cotton growers of Georgia and Florida met here Thursday and perfected an organization to be known as the Sea Island Cotton Association, and which is to be an auxiliary of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association. Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Association, was elected president of the Sea Island Association; J. Williams of Alachua, Fla., vice-president, and F. G. Shell of Lake Butler, Fla., secretary.

Resolutions were adopted pledging members to improve the staple as much as possible. The price of the staple was fixed as follows, and members of the association pledged themselves not to sell for less: Fancy East Florida, 24c; fancy Georgia and Florida, 22c; No. 1 Georgia and Florida, 21c; No. 2 Georgia and Florida, 20c; No. 3 Georgia and Florida, 18c.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted asking the Department of Agriculture for fuller and separate reports on Sea Island cotton.

Railway Commission Reconsiders. Austin: After a further consultation the commission has decided to give all three roads an hour's margin to wait for connections at their initial junctions. This was agreed upon in the case of trains No. 2 of the Katy and Cotton Belt, and an order will be issued giving the same hour to the International and Great Northern for its train No. 1 to wait at Longview instead of thirty minutes, as now. The Katy will be privileged to wait an hour at Denison, the Cotton Belt an hour at Texarkana and the International and Great Northern the same time at Longview.

On General Lee's Staff. Waco. In his general order creating his staff Gen. Stephen D. Lee, the commander in chief, names several Texans with high rank in the National organization of United Confederate Veterans, among them Col. George F. Alford of Dallas, H. M. Dillard of Meridian, Philip H. Fall of Houston, Davis R. Gurley of Waco, Henry Moore of Texarkana, B. B. Paddock of Fort Worth, C. C. Slaughter of Dallas, W. D. Woody of Rockdale and others. Gen. Lee retains on his staff from every state most of those who served in the same capacity on the staff of Gen. John B. Gordon.

Give to others the best you have and something better will come back to you.

Wouldn't Wear the Jack. New York: Because she would not wear a tiny British flag the night Prince Louis and his staff were at the theater, May Leslie, a chorus girl, was fined $15 and has served notice of suit for damages against the management. The flags were sent to the theater, May Leslie, a chorus girl, theater by British officers and the girls in the chorus were instructed to wear them. "I'm not the first Irish martyr," she declared.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

To Prove What the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of This Paper May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Absolutely Free by Mail.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly" begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

I was out of health and ran down generally; had no appetite, was dizzy and suffered with headache most of the time. I did not know that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble, but somehow felt that they might be. I began taking Swamp-Root. There is such a pleasant taste to Swamp-Root, and it goes right to the spot and drives disease out of the system. It has cured me, making me stronger and better in every way, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers.

Gratefully yours, Mrs. A. L. Walker, 231 East Linden St., Atlanta, Ga.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for many kinds of diseases, and if permitted to continue may suffer and fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often during the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, colic of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles; make your head ache and back ache, cause indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a sallow, yellow complexion, make you feel as though you had heart trouble; you may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and waste away.

The cure for these troubles is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the world-famous kidney remedy. In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that is known to medical science.

How to Find Out. If there is any doubt in your mind as to your condition, take from your urine on rising about four ounces, place it in a glass or bottle and let it stand twenty-four hours. If on examination it is milky or cloudy, if there is a brick-dust settling, or if small particles float around in it, your kidneys are in need of immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice, and is taken by doctors themselves who have kidney ailments, because they recognize in it the greatest and most successful remedy for kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

EDITORIAL NOTE.—So successful is Swamp-Root in promptly curing even the most distressing cases of kidney, liver or bladder troubles, that to prove its wonderful merits you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonials received from men and women cured. The value and success of Swamp-Root is so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. In sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Roswell, N. M., Sept. 25, 1905. Notice is hereby given that Township 19 south, range 31 east, has been surveyed and that the plat thereof will be filed in this office November 15, 1905, and on and after that day we will be prepared to receive application for entry of lands in said township.

Herbert J. Hagerman, the new governor-elect of New Mexico, is a young man of exceptionally good character, honest, earnest and capable and he will reflect credit upon the territory and power who elected him. He is free from all entangling alliances and will be inducted into office under peculiarly auspicious conditions. Upon his arrival home, Roswell, he was tendered a reception. His address to those assembled was straightforward, manly and courageous.

Separate Statehood in 1908. According to latest reports by reliable correspondents of big newspapers published in the large cities of the country, the statehood sentiment in Washington seems to be veering around and that in favor of one single state for Oklahoma and the Indian territory and separate statehood for New Mexico and Arizona, although the latter is not to be had for some time to come. Close observers have looked for this news, as it has been well demonstrated and brought to the attention of the Fifty-ninth Congress that the majority of the people of the two territories are, at this time, strongly opposed to jointure no matter what the eastern money changers and the statesmen and politicians who desire to keep political power east of the Missouri River, thought of the matter.

The following plan which would prove acceptable to the great majority of the people of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona and would be the fairest and most just to be devised, is suggested by the New Mexican, as far as the Territory of New Mexico and its sister Territory of Arizona are concerned. Let the Fifty-ninth Congress, during the coming session, pass an enabling act for separate statehood for New Mexico, and putting the day of its entrance into the Union off until November, 1908. The bill should be so framed as to provide for the election of delegates to the constitutional convention, for the holding of the same and election thereunder in the year 1908, and for the first state election on national election day of the same year. The bill should be liberal in its provisions and should not only contain the grants of land which were in the Hamilton joint statehood bill passed by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-eighth Congress, but in addition, should contain a donation of 5,000,000 acres of land to be used for the purpose of paying the territorial debt and at least the railroad bond debts of the counties of Santa Fe and Grant. These 5,000,000 acres should be leased for forty years and the lease money derived therefrom should be applied to the maintenance of the public school systems of the new state. At the end of forty or fifty years these 5,000,000 acres should be sold and the proceeds used to pay the state bonds heretofore issued for the present territorial indebtedness and that of the counties above named; the remainder should be placed in a perpetual school fund. In forty years from now it is safe to say that every acre of this land to be so donated to the new state would be worth from five to ten dollars per acre. The bonded debts that are to be liquidated from the proceeds of this sale will amount to less than $2,000,000 and the immense surplus that would be realized there and there would go for the benefit of the public school system of the state. The bill should provide for the submission of the constitution during September, 1906, and for a general state election later in November. Were this to be done and such a bill passed the people of New Mexico would have nearly three years within which to become acquainted with its provisions and to do their utmost to add to their wealth, to induce immigration, and to become thoroughly conversant with the project and prepare for statehood three years hence.

It is not too much to say that by the first of January, 1909, this territory will contain 350,000 inhabitants and more, and its real wealth will be $500,000,000 and over. New Mexico has made almost phenomenal progress since the census of 1900. Recent investigations and reports of the census office prove this fully. The item that the manufacturers of New Mexico had advanced over 40 per cent in the last five years is one of the proofs positive of this assertion. The fact that the population has increased since the census of 1900 fully 15,000 to 100,000 people is another strong point in favor of this plan. It is certain that by the year 1909 the territory will contain between 3,500 and 4,000 miles of completed and operated railroads, and that communication between its several sections will then be easy and quite cheap. Those who are well acquainted with conditions are sure that the present development in every right direction will keep up and increase steadily and satisfactorily. Unless some great disaster brought about by natural forces happens, there is every reasonable hope that what the New Mexican says above will come true. The plan of putting off the constitutional convention, the election and the entry of the new state into the Union for three years ought to pacify and satisfy the eastern Senators and members of Congress who are afraid of western domination and the increase of western power. They will not then have the cause of complaint that this territory has too small a population and too little taxable wealth to join the sisterhood of states. The people of the territory will be on probation and if they do not form and adopt a just and good constitution, or if they do not behave themselves, or if they do not advance in population, in wealth and show themselves worthy of preferment, the present United States can then and there withhold the boon of statehood from them by the President not approving and certifying to the constitution which they may adopt. There would be nothing lost by this course, but much would be gained. Three years are not a long time in the history of a country. This short time will pass quickly and people will hardly know it. They will have plenty of time to consider everything to be connected with the new state with the greatest of care and upon mature consideration. There will be no unseemingly and undue hurry, there will be no detrimental haste and there will be no undue sudden combinations. Everything connected with the statehood movement will be conducted sedately, carefully, intelligently and with a dignity and understanding the important subject demands. There may be a few hundred or so, at the utmost two or three thousand people, who may not like the plan, but even they will lose nothing except a few years. Even the majority of the joint statehood advocates favor separate statehood if possible. Under this plan they would have it by abiding a short space of time.

The New Mexican has been for separate statehood for Sunshine Territory for forty-three years. It would be willing to wait three years longer in order to obtain it. It is sure that separate statehood must come sooner or later if the people will have the patience to wait for it. Three years would be quite soon, and if necessary, in the option of the New Mexican, nine-tenths of the people of the territory are willing and ready to wait that length of time.—Santa Fe New Mexican.
