at the public service to the river. At the town of La Lande, which is on the site of the big government irriga scheme, known as the Urton Lake project, things appear to be moving along nicely. Judge McGill, who here the first of the week, says that he has sold a large number of town lots and that quite a number have let contracts for buildings, the material which is now on the road. All indications now seem to indicate that La Lande will be the town on the new road. It is practically certain that the government will commence work on the Urton lake project at an early date, and there also abundant evidences that La Lande is in the artesian belt and that flowing wells can be had at a reasonable depth. La Lande is situated in the world famous Pecos Vailey, the greatest fruit producing valley in the known world, and has an elmost limitless area of public lands surrounding it. This land is all open to homestead applications, and home-seekers are flocking there by the hundreds. Under such conditions how can La Lande fail to become a city?

To Mend Section 120.

The Texas Legislature Assembles In Austin to Amend the Election Laws.

Austin, Texas, March 26 .- "Corre ion 120, get through in a week go home," seems to be the sentient of most of the members of the egislature now on the ground, says patch to the Morning News of day's date. About half of the nembers are present. The main adrocates of the blanket primary idea are not so confident, or rather not so hopeful, as they were. The main reasen for this is that they find the House has been misinfomed about "flopping" in the Senate.

The House at the regular and pri mary sessions voted for a blanket primary. The Senate choked it off. Since then it has been reported that several of the opposing Senators had experience a change of heart. It seems that too much importance was attached to one of these reports; for instance, Senator Griggs was counted upon as one of the floppers. He acknowledged that he is for a blanket primary, but not at this session. He thinks the Legislature should patch up Section 120 to make it read as it passed before and then go home, but declared that he favors the enactment of a blanket primary law at the regular session next year.

"It looks like this might fix it." said Tom Love. "We can hardly spare any of the alleged floppers in the Senate

Notwithstanding this development, there are others who have a plan to get at the matter in another way. A Central Texas Representative has a bill prepared which he thinks will come within the limit of the Governor's call. It provides that the vote of the representative counties in convention shall be based upon the vote which they cast in the primaries instead of the vote in the general election. He claims that he has the pledged vote of forty members that they will support his measure.

TEXAS VS. ILLINOIS.

Railway Mileage, Territory and Business Compared.

Texas and Illinois being the states that lead in railway mileage, it is proposed in this communication to contrast the operation of their railways during the year ending June 30, 1905, to the interest of the people of Texas as shown by the annual reports of Texas, with an area of 265,780 square miles, had a railway mileage are practical questions and should reaight in apparently good health. When on the date mentioned of 11,744 miles, ceive the consideration their imporor one mile of railway to every 22.6 tance demands. The capitalization, including stock and bonds, of the Texas railways amounted to $389,736,027, or $33,418 per mile: that of the Illinois railways to $701,313,356, or $60,271 per mile.

carried during the year on the Texas roads aggregated to 12,276,484; on the Illinois roads, 53,547,290. The freight transported on the Ter as roads amounted to 30,653,070 tons; on the Illinois roads, 123,584,087 tous -the increase in tonnage during the period named over the preceding year on the Texas roads being 160,126 tons and on the Illinois roads, 6.832,288

The comparison above drawn well illustrates the disadvantage under which the Texas roads labor, as compared with conditions affecting railway operation in the more densely populated states.

Nor should it be overlooked that the average capitalization per mile of the Texas roads is much less than the average capitalization per mile of the roads in the states in any group, as shown in the report of the Interstate Commerce Commission for 1904. It should also be borne in mind that it was upon the stock of only seven of the Texas roads, aggregating 446 miles in length, that dividends, amounting to $381,927, were paid during last year, and that the current revenues of the roads were not sufficient by $1, 615,771 to pay expenditures for current operation, interest, taxes, betterments and rerts.

Much has been said about the bond ed indebtedness of the Texas roads. which is $22,433 per mile. An examination of the Interstate Commerce Commission report for 1904, however, will show that the average bonded indebt edness per mile of the roads in Texas is much less than the average bonded indebtedness per mile of the roads embraced in any other of the groups as defined by the Interstate Commerce Commissions. The question is pertinent-Can a good and sufficient reason be given why the Texas roads should not be allowed to earn revenue sufficient to enable them to pay current operating expenses, taxes, rents and interest and, also, to satisfactorily !respond to "the cry that is coming up from all parts of the State for better roads, better and faster service, better denot facilities and more freight cars?" to so reduce their revenues that they cannot improve their roads and render better service to the people?" "My work puts me out in all kinds weather, subject to irregular hours for meals and compelled to eat all kinds of food.

"For 7 years I was constantly troubled with indigestion, caused by eating heavy, fatty, starchy, greasy, poorly cooked food, such as are the most accessible to men in my business. Generally each meal or lunch was followed by distressing pains and burning sensations in my stomach, which destroyed my sleep and almost unfitted me for work. My brain was so muddy and foggy that it was hard for me to discharge my duties properly.

"This lasted till about a year ago, when my attention was called to Grape-Nuts food by a newspaper adand I concluded to try it. Since then I have used Grape-Nuts at nearly every meal, and sometimes between meals. We railroad men have little chance to prepare our food in our cabooses and I find Grape-Nuts mighty handy, for it is ready cooked.

"To make a long story short, Grape-Nuts has made a new man of me. 1 have no more burning distress in my stomach, nor any other symptom of indigestion. A Vindication for Dr. Pierce Decision by the Supreme Court of the State, Against the Ladies' Home Journal.

A verdiet has been rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the libel suit brought against the Ladies' Home Journal (published by the Curtis Publishing Co.) by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of which Dr. R. V. Pierce is president. The suit was brought by Doctor Pierce against the Curtis Publishing Co., for making false statements about one of his standard family medicines known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In the May number of the Ladies' Home Journal (1904), Mr. Edward Bok, the editor, stated that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription contained alcohol and some other harmful ingredients, and Dr. Pierce had in the action alleged that the defendant maliciously published this article containing such false and defamatory matter. Dr. Pierce further claimed that no alcohol is or ever was contained in his "Favorite Prescription," that said medicine was a vegetable preparation and contained no deleterious ingredients whatever; that Mr. Bok's statement, pretending to give some of the ingredients of said medicine, was wholly and absolutely false. During the trial, the Vice-President of the World's Dispensary Medical Association stated, that the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription were extracted from the following native roots: Golden Seal, Blue Cohosh, Lady's Slipper, Black Cohosh and Unicorn, by means of pure glycerine. He was asked how he knew, as a physician and experienced medical man, that the "Favorite Prescription" was a cure for the diseases peculiar to women, such as amenorrhea, dysmenorrhea, anteversion retro-version, and he stated that he knew such was the fact because of his professional experience and the many thousands of women whose ills had been cured by this "Prescription." The Vice-President, being asked to give his authorities, read from the standard works, such as the United States Dispensatory, The American Dispensatory and many other standard medical books.

The retraction printed by the Curtis Publishing Company two months after the libelous statement appeared and nearly two months after the suit had been begun stated definitely that analyses had been made at their request and that the "Favorite Prescription" did not contain either alcohol. onium or digitalis.

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases-Intelligent Women Prepare for it. Two Relate their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nerwous irritations make vous irritations make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symp-toms as sense of suffo-cation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipa-tion, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by in-telligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change

SIGNIFICANCE OF MONEY SIGNS.

English Terms Derived from Latin Words-Dollar Mark. They were discussing the other afernoon the question of currency symbols. The discussion had started by some one making a casual remark about "L. S. D.," referring, of course to "pounds, shillings and pence," says the Washington Star. The question arose why some of the coins were denoted by letters that had nothing at all to do with their selling, and there was not one in the crowd, though there were some nominally well-in formed people present, who could tel the significance of the letters till the question was looked up. It appeared that the pound sterling mark was simply a capital L. with a line drawn across the stem. It came from the Latin word "librae," meaning a pound The "d" used for the penny came also from the Latin, meaning "denarius, originally a small Roman silver coin but later having developed into t generic term for money and specifi cally for a small copper coin of in significant value. The "lb" mark; also used for the avoirdupois pound, came from the same word "librae" as in Saxon times the pound avoirdupois was the same weight as a pound sterling of silver and the shilling was one-twen tieth of this, making the old shilling about three times the size of the present one.

When it came to the dollar mark "$," there was more discussion, there being half a dozen explanations for this sign. But the most likely seemed to be that it was simply a modified figure "8," there having been eight silver reals in the old Spanish dollar or "piece of eight," in use in this country long before the introduction of American currency

Trust to Nature.

Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and wemen, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have illitreated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive sid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and this blood, the bedy arounce vicer and the exhaustion, bad nutrition — and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned ingredients and contains no lcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

Possessing complete ancestral records, Rev. O. S. Reed, of Veedersburg, Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Ind., establishes beyond all doubt the fact of his blood relationship to George Washington.
