TRADES DAY Saturday April 6th, 1912

The Business Men's Association of Portales decided to inaugurate a Trades day for the citizens of Roosevelt county to come together to swap, buy and sell, horses and mules or anything they may have to offer on one day in each month.

The first Trades day was held on Monday March the 4th, 1912, and, we state frankly, even though the weather was very unfavorable, the Results Were Greatly Beyond Our Expections, WHICH GOES WITHOUT SAYING that the people APPECIATE our efforts to Give Them More Merchandise for Their Money than they have ever received in Roosevelt county before. Hence, we have decided to
