ARMY EXPENDITURES REDUCED 7 BILLION DOLLAR SAVING EXPECTED

Baker Tells Sonate Committee Much of War Money Is Un-

Washington.—Secretary Baker told the senate finance committee that, through contract cancellations, the war department expects to save approximately $7,250,000,000 of the $24,-281,000,000 voted by congress for the army during the war.

The secretary's statement to the house appropriations committee said the department's disbursements to date in the United States total $9,159,000,000 and those in France $1,168,000,000. Mr. Baker previously had informed the committee of contract cancellations aggregating about $2,600,000,000.

Preparations for the cancellation of army contracts were undertaken before the signing of the armistice.

LETTER-FROM-HOME WEEK

War Department Commission Wants Soldiers' Kin To Help Morale.

New York.-The week of December 15 has been designated by the war department commission on training camp activities as a time for special letters to be written by mothers, fathers, sisters, wives and sweethearts of the men now overseas. The week has been called "Letters-From-Home-Week," and the purpose is to apply the "home touch" to a broad-gauged military program for maintaining the morale of the men who find themselves idle after weeks of strenuous fighting. The war department hopes, through these letters, to keep the men contented, "straight," and ambitious to live up to the high ideals of American

A model letter such as the government wants the mothers and fathers especially to write has been prepared by the war department. This, with letters from Secretary of War Baker and Raymond B. Fosdick, chairman of the commission indorsing the plan, has been mailed to newspapers throughout the country. The letter particularly asks that the men overseas direct their attention to wholesome recreation and activities, instead of to the unwholesome influences that might result from the enforced period of idleness wherever large bodies of troops are awaiting orders to return for Some Time.

Washington.-Secretary Baker gave it as his personal opinion that none of the veteran divisions of the American army will return home before peace formally is declared. He indicated that the tried fighting men would compose the bulk of the force to be kept in Europe for the present.

Heretofore the understanding has been that the Rainbow division and two or three other famous units would be brought home soon, leaving their places to be filled by some of the new-

Many Oklahoma troops are included in the veteran divisions now in France and forming part of the American army of occupation. General Pershing has already designated the divisions which he will retain in France for guard duty and among them are the Thirty-sixth, Forty-second and Ninetieth divisions. The old First Oklahoma regiment now the 142nd infantry, is with the Thirty-sixth, and the Tulsa ambulance corps is attached to the Rainbow division, the Fortysecond. Other Oklahoma contingents are included in the Ninetieth.

Parcels Post Extended.

Washington.-Plans for an extension of rural parcel post through the use of army motor trucks were explained by Assistant Postmaster General Blakeslee to the house postoffice committee which is framing the 1920 postal appropriation bill. Mr. Blakeslee is asking for $8,000,000 for the rural service for next year, said trucks for the proposed service would be turned over by the war department without charge. Truck trains of one tractor and six or more trailers are planned.

WAR OVER -- EXPENSES DROP GOVERNMENT NEEDS SEVEN MILLION NEXT YEAR

Regular Army of Half a Million Men Contemplated By War Department.

Washington.-War expenses, persisting in peace times, but falling off rapidly, will make the government's outlay in the fiscal year 1920, beginning next July 1, $7,443,415,838 of which $5,212,000,000 will go to the war and navy departments, $893,000,000 to pay interest on war debt, and $579,-000,000 for continuing the building of a merchant marine, according to departmental estimates presented to

The expenses compare with $24, 599,000,000 appropriation for the current year, ending next June 30, with the $18,000,000,000 which probably will be actually spent this year, and with the ordinary annual expenses of about a billion dolars before the war.

A ragular army of approximately half million men is provided for specifically. Detailed items on the pay of the army show that in the total of $1,922,-000,000 asked for, exclusive of the for tification estimates, provisions made for the equipment of only 21,359 officers and 382,667 men of the line and approximately 130,000 non-combatant troops with the requisite staff officers.

Every provision is made for steady and rapid increase of the fleet, a total of approximately $434,000,000 being asked. Of that sum $200,000,000 is the first increment of the proposed new three-year building program providing for ten additional dreadnaughts, six pattle cruisers and 140 other fighting craft. The remainder of the $434,000,-900 would go to complete ships of the first three-year program. Secretary Daniels has renewed, also, the naval emergency fund item, under which congress apropriated $100,000,000 last gear to provide for the construction of additional destroyers, submarine chasers and other special craft and to expedite construction work.

Crown Prince, Who Knew More Than the Entire German Staff, Just Couldn't Get Them To Listen To Him.

Oosterland, Holland,-Neither he nor his father desired war, according to Frederick William Hohenzollern, who still claims the title of crown prince of Germany, in a statement made to The Associated Press during the course of a long conversation. The interview took place in the small cottage of the village pastor on the Island of Wieringen, where he is interned.

Speaking of the beginning of the war, Frederick William asserted: "Contrary to all statements hitherto made abroad, I never desired war, and thought the moment quite inopportune. I was never consulted, and the report about a crown council being held in Berlin to decide on the war, I deny on my oath. I was enjoying a stay at a watering place when mobilization was ordered. "My father also, I am sure, did not desire war. If Germany had sought the best opportunity for making war, she would have chosen the period of the Boer war or the Russo-Japanese

"From the beginning I was certain that England would enter the conflict. This view was not shared by Prince Henry and the other members of my family.

"People have credited me with war like intentions. But I was only a soldier with a desire to see the army kept thoroughly efficient, and I worked hard to bring this about. People blame me with the failure at Verdun. But I refused twice to attack there with the troops at my disposal. On the third occasion my attack was successful for the first three days, but I was not properly supported.

"I have not renounced anything and I have not signed any document whatever," the former German crown prince declared to the correspondent.

When the Brest-Litovsk treaty was mentioned, he said, its terms were hard because in Russia the Germans were confronted by the bolsheviki.

With regard to air raids on unfortified cities, the fierce submarine warfare, the bombardment of Paris and the deportation of women from the occupied district to work in Germany, Frederick said he had always entirely disagreed with these folicies.

German diplomats, he declared, had made "awful" mistakes, being unable to see the viewpoint of the countries where they were stationed and misreading opinion in other countries.

Chill, Peru, Bolivia, Argentine and Brazil Arguing Over Two Small Provinces.

Santiago.-The United States, im agreement with the Chilean government, it is persistently rumored here, will propose to Peru and Bolivia that Chile cede the province of Tacna to Peru and turn over the province of Arica to Bolivia, the latter republica delivering to Chile a frontier province.

The mobilization of the Chilean army, already begun in the northern. provinces, has been ordered throughout the republic. The war ministry explains that this step was necessary to keep down threatened labor troubles.

Peru Not Mobilizing Army. Buenos Aires.—Peruvian legation here declared that Peru was not mobilizing its army. The ministry has been informed by the foreign office that Peru intends to take no military step, despite Chilean mobilization. State Department Denies Report.

Washington.-The American government has made no suggestions whatever to Chile and Peru as to the disposition of the disputed provincesof Tacna and Arica. This was announced officially at the state department.

"The state department," said the announcement, "has made no suggestion. whatever as to territory, but has urged that everything possible be done to maintain peaceful relations."

This was the first information that. the United States government had communicated with the Chilean and. Peruvian governments concerning the dispute over the two provinces.

According to official information received at the Chilean embassy the statement that the military and naval reserves had been called to arms is incorrect. What took place, according. to this information was "an administrative measure of an internal nature," including a decision that it was advisable to continue in service the drafts recently discharged.

The Peruvian legation also was advised from Lima that the Peruvian military reserves had not been called to the colors. It also was said that the relations between Peru and Brazil are in no way affected by the dispute with Chile. There has been areport, it was explained, that the Brazilian ambassador has been recalled. from Lima as a result of the difficulties between the west coast republics.

Senator Johnson asked how many Americans had been in actual fighting: up to the signing of the armistice. Secretary Baker estimated 750,000, and and General March added that it wasabove that number, "but somewhat. less than 1,000,000," General March also said unless rela-

DEVOTIONAL READING—Genesis 44:

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Genesis 42: 1-44; Ephesians 4:81, 82.

1. Joseph Discloses His Identity to His Brethren (vv. 1-3).

He treated his brethren harshly at first, his purpose being to ascertain as to whether they were the same cruel, heartless men as before, and to produce penitence in their hearts. They keenly felt their guilt and heartily repented of their folly. Judah's pathetic appeal overcame his apparent harshness, causing him to disclose his identity. Being unable to restrain his pentup emotions he orders every one from his presence. This act on the part of Joseph troubled them; it ought to have made them glad. Their sins prevented it being a time of joy for them. This most beautifully illustrates Christ's' dealing with his brethren, the Jews. Just as they who had rejected him and sold him were compelled to come to him for aid, so when the great tribulation comes, Christ's brethren, the Jews, will cry unto him for aid (Daniel 9:27; 12:1; Matthew 24:21; Zechariah 12:10brethren to test them and bring them to repentance. When Joseph revealed himself to his brethren, the remembrance of their sins pierced them through. Joseph's first question was about his father. This shows that his desire was to put their thoughts far away from their crime. He invited them to come near unto him, and assured them God had for their salvation. They meant it for empty purse. evil, but it was part of God's plan for good. This does not excuse them from the guilt of the sin. were sent with the glad tidings to would nourish them and that they should be near him. They were directed to tell of his glory. Faith Must Show Itself. If the church is salt, then the church must be different from the world around it. If the church is light, then the church must be unlike those who have not committed themselves to the leadership of Christ. When Christians say the same things which unbelievers say, and do the same things which scoffers do, they cease to be a leavening force in society. If faith in Christ is to have any meaning, it must show itself in the creation of a new type of man. A Christian should have something in him not to be found in any other human being. Unless he is more in disposition, aim and conduct than those around him, he is not giving the world the impulse or guidance which humanity is in need of .-Broadway Tabernacle Tidings.

Relief Not Burden.

A yoke is not an instrument of torture; it is an instrument of mercy. It is not a malicious contrivance for making work hard; it is a gentle device to make hard labor light. And yet men speak of the yoke of Christ as if it were a slavery, and look upon those who wear it as objects of compassion.

God's Demands.

It is not from severity that God demands much from men in order to obtain knowledge of himself; it is of his kindness that he wills the soul by effort to grow capacious of receiving much that he may give much.-Meister Eckhart.

Abiding in God's Will.

The peace, freedom, and blessedness of all souls consists in their abiding in God's will. Towards this union with God for which it is created the soul strives perpetually.-Meister Eckhart.

GEORGIA PHYSICIAN PRESCRIBES TANLAC

Dr. J. T. Edwards Tells of Remarkable Rsults Being Obtained Through Use of The Master Medicine

"In my thirty years of active practice as a licensed physician have never seen anything to equal Tanlac as a medicine to produce results," says Dr. J. T. Edwards of Fayetteville, Georgia.

"People on all sides are telling of the benefit they have derived from its use" he continued, "and I am prescribing it for my patients almost every day. Just a little while ago, a well-known woman of Fayetteville told me that her daughter had been confined to her bed for three years with what had been called pellagra, and that after using Tanlac a short time she was up and well on the road to recovery. Did you ever consider what a convenience a good bank is in a community? By banking your money and paying bills by check you have a record of what you receive and what you pay out-and for what. Not only that, but many times a cancelled check has been the proof that saved disputes and even lawsuits over whether an account has been paid.

When you put your money in the bank, it is out of the reach of the ordinary pickpocket, thug or hold-up, and you are saved any uneasiness on that score.

The bank furnishes you a check book. When you meet a local man to whom you owe an account, you give him a check. When you need to pay an account at a distance you can mail a check or a draft and save the P. O. money order or express fees. When you need to get or send money in haste, the bank can make the transfer as quickly as a telegraph message-can be sent.

If you have never enjoyed these advantages, choose a good bank and make a start.

Low Meat Prices High Cattle Prices

If the farmer cannot get enough for his live stock, he raises less, and the packer gets less raw material.

If the consumer has to pay too much for his meat, he eats less of it, and the packer finds his market decreased.

The packer wants the producer to get enough to make live-stock raising profitable, and he wants the price of meat so low that everyone will eat it.

But all he can do, and what he would have to do in any case to stay in business, is to keep down the cost of processing the farmer's stock into meat so that the consumer pays for the meat and by-products only a little more than the farmer gets for his animals.

For example, last year Swift & Company paid for its cattle about 90 per cent of what it got for meat and by-products (such as hides, tallow, oils, etc.)

If cattle from the farm were turned miraculously into meat in the hands of retailers (without going through the expense of dressing, shipping and marketing), the farmer would get only about 11/8 cents per pound more for his cattle, or consumers would pay only about 21/4 cents per pound less for their beef!

Out of this cent or two per pound, Swift & Company pays for the operation of extensive plants, pays freight on meats, operates refrigerator cars, maintains branch houses, and in most cases, delivers to retailers all over the United States. The profit amounts to only a fraction of a cent, and a part of this profit goes to build more plants, to give better service, and to increase the company's usefulness to the country.

CAROLYN AND PRINCE MAKE THE ACQUAINTANCE OF AUNTY ROSE, MR. STAGG'S HOUSEKEEPER

Synopsis.—Her father and mother reported lost at sea when the Dunraven, on which they had sailed for Europe, was sunk, Carolyn May Cameron-Hannah's Carolyn-is sent from New York to her bachelor uncle, Joseph Stagg at The Corners. The reception given her by her uncle is not very enthusiastic.

A voice calling, "Chuck! Chuck! Chuck-a-chuck!" came from behind the old house. A few white-feathered fowls that had been in sight scurried wildly away in answer to the sum-

On the gravel path beyond the old well, with its long sweep and bucket, half a hundred chickens, some guineas and a flock of turkeys scuffled for grain which was being thrown to them from an open hand of a very dignified-looking woman, dressed in drab and with a sunbonnet on her head.

There was no frown on her face; it was only calm, unruffled, unergotional. It simply seemed as though nothing, either material or spiritual, could ruffle the placidity of Aunty Rose Kennedy.

"No, sir." "They sent you up here with only that bag?" Mr. Stagg said with some exasperation. "Haven't you got any clothes but those you stand in?" "Mrs. Price said-said they weren't

Mr. Stagg was in haste to eat and get back to the store. "Or that Chet Gormley will try to make a meal off some of the hardware, I guess," he said gloomily.

"Oh, dear me, Uncle Joe!" exclaimed

Aunty Rose did not even smile, "Bless me!" Mr. Stagg excla "What's that on the mante Aunty Rose? That yailer letter?"
"A telegram for you, Joseph Stagg," replied the old lady composedly,
"Well!" muttered the hardware dealer, and Carolyn May wondered if he were not afraid to express just the emotion he felt at that instant. His face was red and he got up clums!! to secure the sealed message. "Who brought it, and when?" he asked finally, having read the lawyer's night letter, "A boy. This morning," said Aunty Rose, utterly calm.

"And I never saw it this noon," rumbled the hardware dealer. Mrs. Kennedy quite ignored any suggestion of impatience is Mr. Stagg's voice or manner. But he seemed to lose taste for his supper after reading the telegram.

"Where is the letter that this Mr. Price wrote and sent by you, Car'lyn?" he asked as he was about to depart for the store. The little girl asked permission to leave the table and then ran to open her bag. Mr. Stagg said doubtfully: "I s'pose you'll have to put her somewhere-for the present. Don't see what else we can do, Aunty Rose."

"You may be sure, Joseph Stagg, that her room was ready for her a week ago," Mrs. Kennedy rejoined, quite unruffled. The surprised hardware dealer gurgled something, in his throat.

What room?" he finally-stammered. "That which was her mother's, Hannah Stagg's room. It is next to mine and she will come to no harm there." "Hannah's!" exclaimed Mr. Stagg. Why, that ain't been slept in since

"It is time for you to go to bed, Car'lyn May," said Aunty Rose firmly. "I will show you the room Hannah Stagg had for her own when she was a girl."

"Thank you, Aunty Rose," said the little girl humbly.

She picked up the bag and followed the stately old woman into the back hall and up the stairway into the ell. Carolyn May saw that at the foot of the stairs was a door leading out upon the porch where Prince was now moving about uneasily at the end of his leash. She would have liked to say "good night" to Prince, but it seemed better not to mention this feeling to Aunty Rose. The fading hues of sunset in the sky gave the little girl plenty of light to undress by. She thought the room very beautiful, too.

"Oh, no, ma'am," said Carolyn May faintly. "Very welt," said Aunty Rose and

Like a marooned sailor upon a desert island the little girl went about exploring the bedroom which was to be hers-and which had once been her mother's. That fact helped greatly. Then she looked at the high, puffy bed. "How ever can I get into it?" sighed Carolyn May.

She had to stand upon her tiptoes in her fluffy little bedroom slippers to pull back the quilt and the blanket and sheet underneath it. The bed was Back Feel Achy After Grip?

OLDS and influenza leave thousands with weak kidneys and aching backs. The kidneys have to do most of the work of fighting off a cold or a contagious disease. They weaken—slow up. Then you feel dull and draggy, irritable or nervous, and have headaches, dizzy spells, lame back, backache, sore joints and irregular kidney action. Give the kidneys quick help and avoid serious kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills are always in unusual demand after grip epidemics as so many people have learned their reliability. Doan's are used the world over. They are recommended by your own friends and neighbors.

Personal Reports of Real Cases

AN OKLAHOMA CASE. F. J. Fritz, butcher, Broadway, Weatherford, Okla., says: "A great deal of horseback riding, exposure and being on my feet for long periods as well as being in a cold room considerably, tended to cause my kidneys to become dis-ordered. There was a tender feel-ing across my back just over my kidneys. These organs were dis-ordered, also. I had known of Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time, so I bought some. Several boxes afforded me much relief and I soon found it unnecessary to take any further medicine."

AN OKLAHOMA CASE. Mrs. James Manning, 312 Summit Ave., Lawton, Okla., says: "I suffered severe pains across my kidneys and through my shoulder blades. I believe the trouble was caused by a cold, which settled on my kidneys. I felt miserable ali over and frequently had spells of languidness. When on my feet very much, my back ached terribly. I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills and in less than a week the pains left my back and I was no longer bothered by languid-
