THE STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEETING

The State Teachers' Meeting which was held last week at Albuquerque was one of the most harmonious, largest attended and most interesting teachers meetings held in the history of the state. There were about 2,500 teachers in attendance and Albuquerque was prepared to take care of the large crowd with ease. The Association was voted to be held there again next year, so well were the teachers treated.

The most interesting speakers at the meeting were Dr. Suzzalo, President of the University of Washington; and Dr. Coffman, Dean of the University of Minnesota. These speakers made a number of addresses during the meeting all of which rang with true Americanism and showed the job before the people of the country and more especially of the teachers of the country in helping to keep the country safe from bolshevism. They showed that this reconstruction period was a critical time for the country and in passing through this great crisis people needed to give much thought to the solution of the many great problems arising.

Probably one of the most interesting things of the meeting is the proposal to greatly increase the equalizations of the teachers of the state, beginning in the year 1921 and making the requirements greater each year until the year 1927. At that time no one would be permitted to teach in the schools of the state except those who have completed a four years' high school course and had, in addition to this, some special normal training. Of course, along with this goes a big increase in salary so that the wages of the teacher will compare favorably with those of other people of similar qualifications. It is proposed that no first grade teacher be paid less than $1200 per year and no limit will be placed on the maximum salary. Why not? The average coal miner for the last nineteen months in the states of New Mexico and Colorado have received $1840 per year. They get an increase of 14 per cent making their salary average more than $2000 per year. It was shown in the addresses that there was a shortage of sixty-eight thousand teachers in the United States. Many of these places are being filled with teachers incompetent. What will be the effect on our civilization? Dr. Coffman in one of his addresses also predicted that there would for the next year be a falling off of perhaps 30 per cent in the male teachers unless something was done at once to induce men with qualifications to stay in the profession.

Another interesting affair of the meeting was the proposal that no language except the English be taught except in the high schools and higher institutions. This would eliminate the Spanish and all the children of the state would be taught only the English language till they reached the high school. It was shown by some of the Spanish-Americans how this would be a great advantage to the native people of the western part of our state and make them more able to compete with others for the better and bigger things.

State Superintendent Wagner was elected president of the association for the next year: John Milnt, of Albuquerque, secretary, and James Bickley, of Clovis, treasurer.

COSY THEATRE, PORTALES, N. M., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9TH

Mary Pickford is now her own boss. Her mother is her business manager. "Daddy Long Legs" will show you the kind of pictures she will produce now that she has her own way. You may have seen funnier films than the first two reels of "Daddy Long Legs"—but we haven't. Really, you haven't seen Mary Pickford until you see this picture.

OZARK TRAILS MEETING

Fourteen of the representative business men of Portales met at the courthouse Friday afternoon to devise ways and means of raising the $1100 assessed to Roosevelt county to bring the Ozark Trails through here. C. V. Harris was selected as chairman of the meeting and G. L. Reese secretary. After a few remarks by different ones committees were appointed to canvass the county as follows: For Portales, E. E. Hoagland, G. M. Williamson and Capt. T. J. Molinari. For Elida and Kenna, J. L. May, C. J. Hagerling and J. M. McCormack.

Those present were called on for subscriptions and in less than five minutes $450.00 had been subscribed. It is expected that the entire amount will be raised today so that the local authorities can wire the headquarters that the money is ready.

This is the best proposition this town has ever had from a standpoint of getting something for nothing, and will be something of untold value to our town and county.

LATE AGAIN

The News is coming out late again this week on account of not having current to run our linotype. The city plant has not been running days this week on account of shortage of fuel oil, and when we needed power the worst engine failed to start for them and the town was dark Thursday night. One consolation though, we were not the only one inconvenienced as several of the business houses depend on the plant for power.

The new engine has arrived and is being unloaded and Mr. Scherer, of the Fairbanks-Morse Company is on the ground supervising the unloading and says that no efforts will be spared in getting it put up in running order. After this engine is installed there will be no excuse for the plant being shut down and everyone should have plenty of water and light sat all times.

SOME GAS

Earl J. Stratton returned today from a business trip to Amarillo, Texas, and says that while there he saw the gas well north of that place tested out which tested 107,000,000 cubic feet each twenty four hours.

BROWN-YOUNG NUPTIAL

Mr. Lee Brown and Miss Bessie Young were married Wednesday of last week at Sayre, Oklahoma, and arrived Friday to make their home on Mr. Brown's farm near Arch.

Both these young people are well and favorably known in this county and have a host of friends who wish for them all the joys of life.

Girls Orchestra Organized

The Girls Orchestra has organized with the following officers: Manager, Irene Smith. Assistant Manager, Helen Lindsey.

Treasurer, Pearl Leach Rogers. Press Reporter, Lurline Sandefur. Executive Committee, Chairman Sydney Pearce, Roma Stone, Sue Henderson.

Meeting will be held every Monday and Thursday evenings at 6:30 and on Sundays at 2:30.

We have at present twenty-four members who are very much interested.

The Orchestra will give their recital on December 11th. Everyone must come as your band and orchestra will both play on that evening.

There will also be music by Mr. Clarence Priess, Mrs. Harold Rogers, Misses Mignon Jones and Lois Oldham. Also vocal selections by Miss Hallie Mitchell and Miss Gail Lindley, of Clovis.

F. T. Burke, formerly of this place but now of Statesville, N. C., was here last week and bought the George Lutz building which is occupied by C. M. Dobbs, and also Mr. Lutz' residence in the south part of town. We have learned since that Mr. Burke expects to return about the first of the year and will build an addition to the building and will put in a first-class bakery and meat shop.

Mr. J. W. McMinn entertained the Womans' Missionary Society of the M. E. church at her home Friday, November 28th. The attendance was good considering the weather. Eleven were present. The next meeting will be December 11th at the home of Mrs. Ben Nash.

Mrs. T. M. Caldwell returned to Amarillo this week after a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. L. J. Whiteman.

WHY REGISTER DEATHS?

1st. "That there may be available, complete and accurate information as to the cause of death, so that we may intelligently guide our efforts towards the saving and lengthening of human life."

2nd. "That the various public health agencies, national, state and local, may know the number and kind of deaths that occur, and so may operate intelligently."

3rd. "That epidemics may be detected early, studied intelligently, and stopped promptly."

4th. "That the success or failure of all preventive measures may be accurately determined and public funds be not wasted in useless measures."

5th. "That individual cities and localities may learn their own health conditions by comparison with other communities, and so determine the wise course of public health activity."

6th. "That homeseekers, immigrants and industries may be guided in the selection of safe and healthful homes and industrial sites by accurate information."

7th. That the settlement of estates and matters of inheritance pensions, etc., may be definitely settled by official records of death instead of on the memory of interested witnesses."

In New Mexico, no dead body may now be buried, or removed for burial, until a burial permit therefor has been issued by the local health officer. To obtain the permit, the undertaker, or the person who attends to the burial, must present a death certificate to the health officer. This death certificate contains all the information essential in death registration, and is preserved as a permanent record at the State Capitol.

H. W. Brandon, of Memphis, Texas, was here this week looking after his place south of town. Mr. Brandon says that he is getting ready to move back to Portales and that he hopes to be here before the winter is over.

We are requested to announce that the pie supper which was to have been given at Floyd last Friday night, was postponed on account of bad weather until Wednesday night, December 10th, at which time everybody is cordially invited to attend.

AMERICAN LEGION ORGANIZED HERE

Fourteen ex-service men met at the courthouse Tuesday night of this week and organized a camp of the American Legion for this county. Competent officers were elected to perform the duties and a detailed report will be furnished in a later issue of this paper. The organization will meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month and all ex-service men are urged to be present and make this a live wire in Roosevelt county.

NEW OIL RIG HERE

The drilling machinery and tools for the California Company who are to put down a test well near Redland, arrived this week and is being unloaded and hauled to their location. The machinery is all new and is competent to go the required depth.

This makes the fourth outfit in the county at the present time and it is expected that as many more will be here within the next thirty or sixty days. Let the good work go on.

TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your Liver and bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and bowels.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or shocking your insides every few days with Calomel, Salts, Oil and violent pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Cascarets never grip, sicken or cause inconvenience and Cascarets cost so little too.—Adv.

Raising the Rent.

Phil—You've got a fine place here; I suppose the landlord must ask a lot for the rent.

Tom—He may have to.—Boston Post.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

He who has no friends doesn't have to lend them money.

BEING THE AUTHENTIC NARRATIVE OF A TREASURE DISCOVERED IN THE BAHAMA ISLANDS IN THE YEAR 1903. NOW FIRST GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC

By RICHARD LE GALLIENNE

Copyright by DeWolfe, Page & Company

THE POCK-MARKED MAN.

Synopsis—The man who tells this story—call him the hero, for short—is visiting his friend John Saunders, British official in Nassau, Bahamas Islands. Charlie Webster, a local merchant, completes the trio of friends. Conversation turning upon buried pirate treasures, Saunders produces a written document purporting to be the death-bed statement of Henry P. Tobias, a successful pirate, made by him in 1808.

CHAPTER III.

I Charter the "Maggie Darling." As luck would have it, the loss, or rather the theft of Henry P. Tobias' narrative was not so serious as it at first seemed, for it fortunately chanced that John Saunders had had it copied; but the theft remained none the less mysterious.

However, leaving that mystery for later solution, John Saunders, Charlie Webster and I spent the next evening in a general and particular criticism of the narrative itself. There were several obvious objections to be made against its authenticity. To start with, Tobias, at the time of his deposition, was an old man—seventy-five years old—and it was more than probable that his experiences as a pirate would date from his early manhood; they were hardly likely to have taken place as late as his fortieth year.

The narrative, indeed, suggested their taking place much earlier, and there would thus be a space of at least forty years between the burial of the treasure and his deathbed revelation. It was natural to ask: Why during all those years did he not return and retrieve the treasure for himself? Various circumstances may have prevented him, the inability from lack of means to make the journey, or what not; but certainly one would need to imagine circumstances of peculiar power that should be strong enough to keep a man with so valuable a secret in his possession so many years from taking advantage of it.

For a long while, too, the names given to the purported sites of the treasure caches puzzled us. Modern maps give no such places as "Dead Men's Shoes" and "Short Shrift Island," but at last, in a map dating back to 1703, we came upon one of the two names. So far the veracity of Tobias was supported. "Dead Men's Shoes" proved to be the old name for a certain cay some twenty miles long, about a day and a half's sail from Nassau, one of the long string of coral islands now known as the "Exuma Cays." But of "Short Shrift Island" we sought in vain for a trace.

"All the same," said I, "the adventure calls me; the adventure and that million and a half dollars—and those 'Dead Men's Shoes'—and I intend to undertake it. I am not going to let your middle-aged skepticism discourage me. Treasure or no treasure, there will be the excitement of the quest, and all the fun of the sea."

"And some duck perhaps," added Charlie.

"And some shark fishing for certain," said John.

The next thing was to set about getting a boat and a crew.

After looking over much likely and unlikely craft we finally decided on a two-masted schooner of trim but solid build, the Maggie Darling, 65 feet over all and 13 beam; something under twenty tons, with an auxiliary gasoline engine of 24 horse power, and an alleged speed of ten knots.

Next, the crew.

"You will need a captain, a cook, an engineer and a deckhand," said Charlie, "and I have the captain and the cook all ready for you."

That afternoon we rounded them all up, including the engineer and the deckhand, and we arranged to start, weather permitting, with the morning tide, which set east at six o'clock on July 13, 1908.

Ship's stores were the next detail, and these, including fifty gallons of gasoline, over and above the tanks and three barrels of water, being duly got aboard, on the evening of July 12 all was ready for the start; an evening which was naturally spent in a parting conclave in John Saunders' snugery.

"Why, one important thing you've forgotten," said Charlie. "Machetes— and spades and pickaxes. And I'd take a few sticks of dynamite along with you too. I can let you have the lot. We'll get them aboard tonight."

"It's a pity you have to give it away that it's a treasure hunt," said John, "but then you can't keep the crew from knowing. And they're a queer lot on the subject of treasure, have some of the rummest superstitions. I hope you won't have any trouble with them."

"Had any experience in handling niggers?" asked Charlie.

"Not the least."

"That makes me wish I were coming with you. They are rum beggars. Awful cowards, and just like a pack of children. You know about sailing anyhow. That's a good thing. You can captain your own boat, if need be. That's all to the good. Particularly if you strike any dirty weather. But let me give you one word of advice: Be kind, of course, with them—but keep your distance all the same. And be careful about losing your temper. You get more out of them by coaxing—hard as it is, at times. And, by the way, how would you like to take old 'Sailor' with you?"

"Sailor" was a great Labrador retriever, who at that moment turned up his big head with a devoted glint behind his master's chair.

"Rather," I said. So "Sailor" was thereupon enrolled as a further addition to the crew.

"Old Tom," the cook, was first on hand next morning. I took to him at once. A simple, kindly old "darker" of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" type, with faithfulness written all over him, and a certain wisdom in his old face.

"You'll find Tom a great cook," said Charlie, patting the old man on the shoulder. "Many a trip we've taken together after duck, haven't we, Tom?"

"That's right, suh. That's right," said the old man, his eyes twinkling with pleasure.

Then came the captain—Capt. James Williams—a younger man, with an intelligent, self-respecting manner, somewhat noncommittal, businesslike, evidently not particularly anxious as to whether he pleased or not, but looking competent and civil enough.

Next came the engineer, a young hulking bronze giant, a splendid physical specimen, but rather heavy and sullen and not over-intelligent to look at. The deckhand proved to be a shakily, rather silly, effeminate fellow, suggesting idly, but doubtless wry and good enough for his purpose.

While they were busy getting up the anchor of the Maggie Darling I went down into my cabin to arrange various odds and ends, and presently came the captain, touching his hat.

"There's a party," he said, "outside here wants to know if you'll take him passenger to Spanish Wells."

"We're not taking passengers," I answered, "but I will look him over."

A man was standing up in a row-boat, leaning against the ship's side.

graduously: "Very well. Get aboard. You can help work the boat"; and with that I turned away to my cabin.

CHAPTER IV.

In Which Tom Catches an Enchanted Fish, and Discourses of the Dangers of Treasure Hunting.

The morning was a little overcast, but a brisk northeast wind soon set the clouds moving as it went humming in our sails, and the sun, coming out in its glory over the crystalline waters, made a fine flashing world of it, full of exhilaration and the very breath of youth and adventure, very uplifting to the heart.

Nassau looked very pretty in the morning sunlight, with its pink and white houses nestling among palm trees and the masts of its spongy schooners, and soon we were abreast of the picturesque low-lying fort, Fort Montague, that Major Bruce, nearly two hundred years ago, had such a time building as a protection against pirates entering from the east end of the harbor. It looked like a veritable piece of the past, and set the imagination dreaming of those old days of Spanish galleons and the black flag, and brought my thoughts eagerly back to the object of my trip, those doubloons and pieces of eight that lay in glittering heaps somewhere out in those island wildernesses.

Then Tom came up with my breakfast. The old fellow stood by to serve me as I ate, with a pathetic touch of the old slavery days in his deferential, half-fatherly manner, dropping a quaint remark every now and again; as, when drawing my attention to the sun bursting through the clouds, he said, "The poor man's blanket is coming out, sah"—phrases in which there seemed a whole lot of pathos to me.

Presently, when breakfast was over, and I stood looking over the side into the incredibly clear water, in which it seems hardly possible that a boat can go on floating, suspended as she went over gleaming gulfs of liquid space, down through which at every moment it seems she must dizzily fall.

As Tom and I gazed down, lost in those rainbow depths, I heard a voice at my elbow saying with peculiarly sickening unctious:

"The wonderful works of God."

It was my unwelcome passenger, who had silently edged up to where we stood. I looked at him, with the question very clear in my eyes as to what kind of disagreeable animal he was.

"Precisely," I said, and moved away. I had been trying to feel more kindly toward him, wondering whether I could summon up the decency to offer him a cigar, but "the wonderful works of God" finished me.

"Hello! captain," I said presently, pointing to some sails coming up rapidly behind us. "What's this? I thought we'd got the fastest boat in the harbor."

"It's the Susan B. sponger," said the captain.

The captain was a man of few words.

The Susan B. was a rakish-looking craft with a black hull, and she certainly could sail. No doubt it was pure imagination, but I did fancy that I noticed our passenger signal to them in a peculiar way.

I confess that his presence was beginning to get on my nerves, and I was ready to get "edgy" at anything or nothing—an irritated state of mind which I presently took out on George the engineer, who did not belie his hulking appearance, and who was forever letting the engine stop and taking forever to get it going again. One could almost have sworn he did it on purpose.

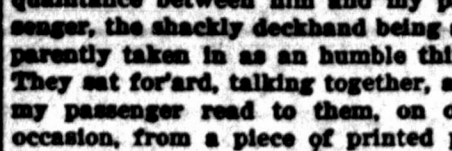

My language was more forcible than classical—had quite a piquant flavor, in fact; and my friend of "the wonderful works of God" looked up with a deprecating air. Its effect on George was nil, except perhaps to further deepen his sulks.

And this I did notice, after a while, that my remarks to George seemed to have set up a certain sympathetic acquaintance between him and my passenger, the shakily deckhand being apparently taken in as an humble third. They sat forward, talking together, and my passenger read to them, on one occasion, from a piece of printed paper that fluttered in the wind.

The captain was occupied with his helm, and the thoughts he didn't seem to feel the necessity of sharing; a quiet, poised, probably stupid man, for whom I could not deny the respect we must always give to content, however simple. He was a sailor, and I don't know what better to say of a man.

SUFFERED SINCE HE WAS A CHILD

Can Hardly Realize How Miserable He Was Before He Took Tanlac.

"I feel so fine and well now I can hardly realize how miserable I was before I started taking Tanlac," said J. F. Melcher, of 319 West Ninth street Houston, Texas.

"I had a weak stomach ever since I was a child," he continued "and had to be particular about everything I would eat, for the least little thing would upset me and cause me no end of suffering. My system seemed to be full of malaria and I would come down with fever every year. I could hardly sleep for nervousness, was constipated and would feel so tired, worn out and drowsy all day long that I wasn't fit for a thing.

"I took plenty of medicine, but it did me no good. Finally I tried a bottle of Tanlac and found I was improving on it. Since taking Tanlac I can eat most anything I want and have no trouble digesting my food, my nerves are steady and I sleep like a log at night. I am stronger and better than I have been in a long time and I never get tired, no matter how hard I work. Tanlac is a great medicine and I can't praise it enough for the good it has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Portales by Ed. J. Neer.

DELPHOS ITEMS

Sam Cox left for Oklahoma after a few days visit with home-olks. Sam says the United States awful good to him after a year in France. Mr. John Cox has charge of the Delphos store this week.

P. H. Morris went to Portales the first of this week for coal. The majority of this community has but little sympathy for the coal strikers this cold weather.

J. H. Bollinger spent last week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Herndon of Rogers were in Delphos this week. Meddie Bollinger returned home last Saturday from Slaton.

The Delphos pie supper was called off last Saturday night on account of the bad weather, but expect to have a big time next Saturday night.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Portales people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Edwin M. Rowden, carpenter, 411 N. Redding St., Clovis, N. M. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are now all right. My kidneys were in a bad way years ago and I don't know what caused the trouble, but it surely did bother me. My back was lame and stiff and made bending or stooping almost impossible. The action of my kidneys was irregular, too. Dizzy spells often bothered me and I felt badly all over. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and right from the start, they helped me. Two boxes cured me of the trouble. Anyone who doubts the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills should see me personally."

Many Young Men and Women Offer Themselves For Christian Service

Southern Baptists Will Have Ample Working Force for New Program—Campaign Hopes to Strengthen Local Churches and Win 2,500,000 Lost to Christ During Next Five Years.

Group of Young Women Volunteers, Preparing Themselves for Special Christian Service at Baptist Women's Training School, Fort Worth, Texas.

Probably the most encouraging development that has come to the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, so far, is the large number of young men and women throughout the South and Southwest who have volunteered their services for special Christian work wherever God may need them. A special day was set apart in the Baptist schools and churches for "calling out the called," when it was expected to secure a minimum of 5,000 volunteers for special Christian service, this number being necessary, it was held, if the enlarged program of the campaign was to be carried out. Returns from these services are still coming in with the prospect that the number will reach at least 7,300.

These volunteers will enter the ministry, go as missionaries, Christian doctors, nurses and teachers to foreign lands, labor in the homeland for the advancement of the kingdom of God or serve in any special capacity where they feel the Lord directs them. Baylor College, Belton, Texas, an institution for young women, led the list of schools with 430 volunteers; Besseie Tift College, Forsythe, Ga., responded with 248; Louisiana College, Pineville, La., 93; Women's Training School, Louisville, Ky., 114; Southwestern Theological Seminary, Ft. Worth, Tex., 88 for the foreign field alone; Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, 57; while similar responses came from numerous other institutions in the various states comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Prominent among the many interesting accounts of the special services held in the churches was a report from Rev. E. Allison, a Baptist minister of Etowah, N. C., who, now in his eighttieth year, looks back over an active ministry of sixty years, practically all of which has been spent in the vicinity which he is now serving. Mr. Allison has the unusual distinction of having baptized 5,526 persons and at least 100 additional converts under his ministry have been baptized by an assistant pastor since Mr. Allison's health has not been good, due to his advanced years. When this aged minister of the gospel presented the call for volunteers for special Christian service in this campaign, three young men, all of whom were converted and reared under Mr. Allison's ministry responded for the ministry themselves, one of them being his nephew.

But the campaign hopes to enlist a large number of Christian workers other than these several thousand who will give themselves entirely to special religious work. The campaign hopes to enlist 2,000,000 additional pupils in the Sunday Schools of the South and Southwest; win 2,500,000 additional souls of this section to Christ during the next five years; bring the Baptist church membership in the South to 5,500,000 and enlist all these in all forms of church work; increase the number of Baptist churches in the South to 40,000 and enroll 40,000 young men and women in the denomination's schools where they will prepare themselves for lives of Christian usefulness in their communities or for service in any part of the world where they may be needed.

While it is the hope to raise $75,000,000 to be invested in the larger program of Christian service which gave the campaign its name, raising the money is only one of the objects sought. Baptists are being inspired to give themselves and all of their talents as well as their money to God, Director Scarborough announces.

TUBERCULOUS SOLDIERS NEED SPECIAL NURSING

Seal Sale of December 1st to 10th Will Furnish Special Nurse for Work Among Discharged Soldiers.

Figures compiled by the American Red Cross show that 1,417 New Mexico boys were discharged from the army and navy because of physical defects, and that of this number 468 were tuberculous. This is in addition to the men who were rejected by the draft boards. The figures given only include men discharged after they entered the service.

That 468 New Mexicans should have been discharged because of tuberculosis is astonishing. This is nearly twice the proportion for Indiana, Illinois and similar states. It shows clearly that tuberculosis is on the increase among the native people of this state. Those afflicted are not easterners nor the children of people who came here for lung trouble. Over 50 per cent are Spanish-American names. Not a single county escaped. The percentage was especially large in Taos and Rio Arriba counties, which have been shielded from healthseekers coming into New Mexico from other states.

To stop this spread of the white plague, the New Mexico Public Health Association hopes to receive through the sale of Red Cross seals enough money to hire a specially trained tuberculosis nurse who will take up each one of the 468 cases among the soldiers and see that these boys are not becoming a menace to their community and that they are receiving the care which will enable them to regain the health they sacrificed in the defense of their country.

SEALS ARE ALWAYS SIGNS OF HAPPINESS

Other Emblems Bring Thoughts of Battles, Carnage and Suffering.

Red Cross Christmas seals have one characteristic which no other emblem can claim. They have always been associated with happiness and victory. The flags of many nations have been lowered in defeat. They bring memories of battle and carnage. Even the flaming symbol of the American Red Cross is associated with suffering and privation. But the Christmas seal, which bears both the American Red Cross emblem and the double-barred Red Cross of the National Tuberculosis Association, has always been the sign of cheer, of Christmas joy, of success in the fight against tuberculosis and other preventable disease.

The Christmas seal is a peculiarly appropriate holiday greeting. It bears a message of "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men," but also carries the emblems which mean an end to disease. The two crosses it bears remind those who see it that in the midst of holiday cheer it is well to remember those unfortunates who are suffering from tuberculosis and those whose ignorance of health matters may make them early victims of the disease.

The seals will make possible a strong campaign against tuberculosis in New Mexico since 91 per cent of the money received from their sale will remain in the state for health work.

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you eat just sits there fermenting and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.—Adv.

It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. ### MINERS REJECT 14 PER CENT INC.

GOVERNMENT'S EFFORT TO BRING PEACE TURNED DOWN

LEWIS HINTS AT ROUGH HOUSE

And Administrator Garfield Replies That the Government is Fully Prepared to Maintain Order At the Mines.

Washington.—An abrupt end came to all attempts to settle the nationwide coal strike by peaceful agreement.

Miners and operators spent a bleak Thanksgiving afternoon in embittered debate over the government proposal for a 14 per cent wage increase, made by Fuel Administrator Garfield, rejected it, and every other proposal that was forthcoming, and then dissolved in die.

Participants went home and where the break left coal strike conditions, no one of them, miner or operator, would say. Likewise, in official quarters there was silence.

Acting President John L. Lewis of the mine workers, although refusing to say a word as to the strike itself, which theoretically was called off in obedience to the federal court injunction holding it a violation of the Le-

LAW VS. ANARCHY.

"I cannot be responsible for any further disturbances which this policy of the government may bring," said John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, after the miners had rejected the offer.

"The government will keep order," was the quiet response of Dr. Garfield, when told of the Lewis statement.

ver act for war-time food and fuel control, scored the government at the conclusion of the conference. So did William Green, secretary of the mine workers.

The government plan for settling the soft coal strike which embodied a 14 per cent wage increase for miners and the stipulation that there should be no increase in the price paid by the public, was laid before the miners and operators by Fuel Administrator Garfield.

Miners Well Paid.

Dr. Garfield said the lowest wages paid to miners was $4.75 a day, and that working 200 days a year, the minimum return amounted to $950. That sum, he added, "is a little higher than wages in other employment, and this is without considering the 14 per cent increase."

Altitude Record For South America. Santiago, Chile.—Major Huston of the British army, attached to the Chilean army, as an aviation instructor, broke the altitude record for South America. He ascended 21,400 feet in 55 minutes.

TRAINMEN GET INCREASE

Hines To Permit Time and Half Under New Scale

Washington.—A new wage and working agreement was signed between the railroad administration and officials of the brotherhood of maintenance of way employes and railway shop laborers. While demands of the union were not fully met, the eight-hour basic day was established for track laborers and others of that classification, and time and a half pay after that hour was provided. Most of the other employes included under the agreement will receive time and a half overtime pay after ten hours.

Signing of the new contract by Director General Hines ended negotiations which have been in progress since February. Approximately 400,000 men are affected, railroad administration officials estimated. The contract also provides that it shall be applicable during the period of federal control of the roads, unless notice of thirty days is given of its cancellation.

Pussyfoot Johnson's Eye Removed.

London.—The right eye of William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, the American prohibition worker and organizer of the Anti-Saloon league, was successfully removed. Physicians explained in a bulletin issued after the operation that removal of the eye was necessary to save his left eye, and also that the pain could not have been relieved otherwise. Mr. Johnson's eye was injured on November 13 when he was dragged from a platform by students while he was making a prohibition speech.

Italy Disbands Army.

Rome.—An official decree issued puts on the retired list 200 generals, 1,600 superior officers ranging from colonels to majors and about 20,000 subaltern officers. This is the first step in the reduction of the army to the lowest, possible limit.

Sea May Go Dry.

Washington.—Whether constitution al prohibition will operate to make American passenger liners dry, has been referred to the legal department of the shipping board for a decision.

FIRING SQUAD FOR ANGELES CARRANZA GETS A CHANCE FOR REVENGE

Villa Officer Served in World War With French and Perfected the Famous 75

Chihuahua.—General Felipe Angeles Mexican rebel leader, and famed throughout the world as a military genius, was executed by a Carranza firing squad at Chihuahua City, following his conviction with two companions on charges of rebellion against the Mexican government.

General Angeles was sentenced to death by four Carranza generals in the Teatro de los Heroes ("Theatre of the Heroes"). He was immediately taken from the building through a rear entrance to await execution.

General Angeles was entirely unmoved apparently as sentence was passed. Throughout the trial the military leader, famous among military men of the world as the man who brought the 75-millimeter gun to perfection and made it admittedly the best piece of artillery ordnance in the world, had presented a smiling countenance to his accusers.

Gen. Felipe Angeles.

The trial was the most sensational ever held in Chihuahua City, where Angeles and two companions were brought after their capture near Parral by state volunteer troops November 19.

Four companions were captured with Angeles after their discovery in a cave near San Tome, Mex. One of these already had been executed by Carranza troops. Of others in the small party with General Angeles, five were killed in the fight that ensued in their effort to escape the state troops.

The two remaining companions, Major Noster Enciso de Arce and the soldier Antonio Trillo, were joint defendants with their chief before the courtmartial. Major de Arce also was sentenced to death, but his sentence was commuted to twenty years imprisonment. Trillo, a 17-year-old boy, was sentenced to serve six years and eight months in prison.

NORTH RUSSIA IS SWEPT

Denekine's Army Hard-Pressed By Reds.

London.—An official statement from the soviet government at Moscow, indicates that most severe fighting is in progress on the Volga front, where the anarchists have captured Dubovka, 180 miles southwest of Saratov, with 800 prisoners.

The statement claims that the anarchists have annihilated three regiments of the forces of General Denekine, leader of the anti-anarchist armies in southwest Russia.

The advance of the anarchists continues rapidly in the Omsk region, where they are approaching the western shores of Lake Cham, capturing Tartarskaya, 100 miles east of Omsk, with 1,500 prisoners.

General Denekine's statement admits that the anarchist offensive in the direction of Astrakhan has caused him to retire considerably.

CARRANZA WILL NOT RELEASE JENKINS

BULLHEADED DICTATOR DEFIES THE U. S. GOVERNMENT

RELATIONS GROWING STRAINED

Washington insists Jenkins is innocent of Conspiracy With Bandits For His Own Kidnapping and Ransom.

Mexico City.—Declaring there is "no legal foundation nor principle of international law" upon which the United States bases its demand for the immediate release of William O. Jenkins, United States consular agent at Puebla, the Mexican government, through Hilario Medina, under secretary of foreign relations, stated it was impossible to accede to the request of the American state department.

It is asserted that the executive department cannot, under Mexican law, intervene at this moment in an affair which is strictly in the hands of state courts. It is declared the imprisonment of Mr. Jenkins was neither unjustified nor arbitrary and that Mr. Jenkins is preventing his own freedom by refusing to give bail, for which reason, it is said "he cannot be considered a victim of molestation."

Cabinet Finds Situation Serious.

Washington.—The new flare-up over the Mexican problem growing out of the Jenkins case, was given serious consideration at a meeting of the president's cabinet.

No attempt was made to conceal the feeling that the situation was serious and that relations between the United States and Mexico were strained. Officials said the three departments, state, war and navy, were ready to deal with any situation arising out of a more defiant attitude by the Carranza administration toward the United States.

Jenkins' Record O. K.

Meanwhile the government has checked upon the official and private record of Jenkins and has given him a good rating. Officials declared there was no foundation for the charge that he had conspired with the bandits, and that information from every available source showed that his statement of his capture, and the methods employed by the bandits, was correct in all details.

In looking into the various features of the consular agent's predicament officials pointed out that under the Mexican constitution state courts had no jurisdiction over cases involving diplomatic or consular officers, such jurisdiction being lodged specifically in the federal court.

It was contended that the federal court of Mexico could settle the question with one stroke of the pen, simply by assuming jurisdiction as its right.

Wealthy Ranchers Held for Ransom.

Washington.—Ten of the wealthiest ranchers of Vera Cruz, captured by bandits November 15, are being held for $15,000 ransom each, advices from Mexico City said. A number of other ranchers were caught at the same time when the bandits dynamited a train, but they were released because of no funds.

The amount demanded from those in custody was exactly what bandits obtained from William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla.

T. C. McKenzie, American manager of an electric power plant at Ciudad Camarga, Chihuahua, was seized recently by bandits, but federal forces rescued him before he could be taken to the hills.

Mexican Bandit Murdered.

Marfa, Tex.—Jesus Renteria, Mexican bandit, who kidnapped Lieutenants Peterson and Davis, American aviators, and held them for ransom, has been murdered by a member of his bandit gang, according to word received here. Renteria is said to have been killed at Carrizozo Springs following a quarrel with several of his followers over the distribution of the balance of the ransom money paid for the release of the American aviators.

Men's Clothes Go Higher

Boston.—Retail clothing, in accounting for the prevailing high prices of men's clothing, at a hearing before the commission on necessities of life, says that spring suits should cost even more.

Federal excess profits taxes, passed along by each handler of the goods were said to be largely responsible for the increased prices, with advancing costs including that of labor as an added factor. The clothing in several instances claimed to be running their business at a net loss.

Arkansas Lynching.

Fort Smith.—A mob of twenty-five citizens met members of a posse who were en route to Cotter with T. T. Lee, captured following a hunt through the mountains of Arkansas and southern Missouri for several days and hanged him to a tree. Lee was implicated in the assassination of K. V. Loba, prominent farmer.

North Dakota For Suffrage.

Bismark, N. D.—The state senate passed the federal suffrage amendment by a vote of 43 to 3.

THE FLAVOR LASTS SO DOES THE PRICE!

Good Looks by Study. The Cri de Paris, the weekly gossip magazine, says that Maj. Sir William Orpen, the painter, who is still working on pictures of the peace conference, was haunted by the idea, when he was young, that he was very ugly. He used to turn his face aside in the street to avoid being seen.

Working as an art student, he noticed that his fellow-pupils, by dint of mental concentration upon the beautiful models of antiquity, gradually came somewhat to resemble them in their own features. Orpen eagerly awaited promotion to the same class, and determined to spend all his time copying the Venus de Milo. "I shall thus acquire her admirable expression of haughty serenity," he said. "Unfortunately," he continues, "when I was promoted to copying antiquity my master made me spend the whole year drawing nothing but 'The Dancing Faun,' so that I never realized my ambition."

Substitute for "Amen." A substitute for the classical Greek word of reverence has been discovered by a member of the doughboy double quartette at base hospital, Fort Sam Houston, Tex. He has a powerful deep bass voice and a powerful love of that little classic called, "Roll Dem Bones."

After every song he booms out as a sort of Amen, "Roll Dem Bones." The Red Cross musical director is afraid he will forget when they sing in the choir some Sunday.

Watching His Valuables. "Anything in the house, Bill?" "Not a thing." "No jewelry in the bedrooms?" "Yes, but I didn't want it." "Go through the cellar?" "No." "Why not? That's where he keeps his booze?" "I know, but that's where the guy is sleeping now."—Detroit Free Press.

Tomorrow is the only day in the year a lazy man wants to start something.

DIDN'T FAZE HIS BROTHER

Of Course He Was Not Going to Admit That the Little Fellow Was Afraid.

An Indianapolis matron was giving a birthday party for her little daughter and had among the guests the two sons of the family minister. They enjoyed the party and made many quaint remarks.

But at the supper table they did the best. Suddenly the fuse burned out and the dining room was in darkness. The hostess urged the children to sit still until she could get some candles. "But you may eat what is on your plates if you wish to while I am hunting them," she told them.

The youngest son of the paragon began to weep aloud. He was really afraid, but his older brother offered another explanation. "He doesn't know what to do, Mrs. —," he said. "You see we're used to light meals at our house."—Indianapolis News.

Trapped! Often he returned home late—so late that when wifey asked the time he'd murmur: "Oh, about twelve, dear!" or "Just after midnight, pet!" But one evening, or rather morning, she said, instead of the usual request: "John, dear, I wish you'd stop the clock, its ticking worries me." The hapless, unsuspecting man did so.

Next morning wifey asked artlessly: "What time did you come home last night, John?" "About midnight," he replied gibbly. "John," she said coldly, "look at the clock!" The hands of the timepiece pointed to 2:15!

REAL SALE MONEY SPENT IN STATE BY RELIABLE MEN

MONEY SPENT IN STATE BY DIRECTORS OF NEW MEXICO PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION.

Contrary to the general belief, the money received from the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals and Health Bonds does not go to some organization outside New Mexico, but 91 per cent of it is spent within the state under the supervision of the officers and directors of the New Mexico Public Health Association. In the list of twenty directors and officers are included prominent citizens from all parts of the state whose honesty and ability are universally recognized.

Governor O. A. Larrazolo is an honorary vice president of the association. Lieutenant Governor Gen. F. Conway, "Honest Uncle Ben," is chairman of the state committee. Holm Dursum, Socorro stockman, is president of the association. Nathan Jaffee, president of the board of regents of the state university and prominent business man of Roswell, is treasurer. These men have signed the health bonds as their endorsement of the campaign of December 1st to 10th.

The three active vice presidents are: D. Murray, Silver City banker; Bronson M. Cutting, owner of the Santa Fe New Mexican and donor of the new gymnasium at the Roswell Military Institute, and Dr. O. T. Hyde, medical director of St. Joseph's Hospital at Albuquerque. Dr. F. N. Carter of Santa Rita is secretary of the association, with Mrs. T. G. Rogers of Las Vegas as assistant.

On the board of directors are such men as Dr. David Ross Boyd, former president of the state university; Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts of the Las Vegas Normal; Jonathan H. Wagner, state superintendent of public instruction; H. J. Hagerman of the State Taxpayers' Association; W. E. Lindsey of Portales; Eduardo M. Otero, Paul G. Redington, Chas. Springer, Albert Calisch, President A. D. Crilla, C. N. Cotton, Felix Garcia, Gherson Gudorf, Antonio Lucero, Dr. C. E. Waller, Hugh H. Williams, Archbishop Daeger, Geo. L. Ulrich and Powhatan Carter.

PANKEY WOULD HAVE HEALTH CHRISTMAS

Chairman of State Seal Sale Committee Would Give Humans as Much Protection as Cattle.

"Let's make this a health Christmas," says Lieutenant Governor B. F. Pankey, state chairman of the Red Cross Christmas Seal Sale Committee. Here is the way the chairman looks at it:

"In 1917, we had a war Christmas; in 1918, we had a peace Christmas. Isn't it time now to begin considering health? The war taught us how important health is in the life of any nation. It showed us also that one-third of our young men in the prime of their life were unfit for military service. The same percentage probably applies to health among women and girls. Let's change this and give every boy and girl a fair start in life. Sheep Levy Five Mills.

"In the cattle business I have found that it is economy to spend 50 cents a head looking after the health of my steers. I don't see why we shouldn't spend as much for ourselves. They tell me a human life is worth $2,000. I think it's worth much more, but even at that low figure a mill levy on 400,000 people would produce $400,000 annually. That isn't a big levy. The levy on cattle is one mill; on sheep and goats, five mills, and on hogs, three and a half mills. Surely one mill isn't too much for human beings.

"The Christmas seal sale isn't for $200,000. It's way below one mill. It's only $60,000 in New Mexico. Paint your town red with Red Cross Christmas seals. Each one is a penny's worth of prevention and cure. Buy seals liberally. Make this a health Christmas."

Get the Banking Habit --IT IS WISE

Modern methods of banking are typical of America's democratic way of doing business. Rich and poor alike keep their money in the same bank and the dollar check drawn by the girl clerk in a department store on her small account is honored just as quickly and with as little question as a check drawn by John D. on his own account.

A deposit in a bank is the basis of credit for any man or woman. It establishes a personal relation between the depositor and the bank, which may be of value in many ways to the depositor. If he will ask his banker's advice before investing his savings in numerous schemes which are afloat today seeking to get his money, he will in many instances be saved severe losses.

The banking habit is a good one to cultivate. It raises you in your own estimation and sense of confidence in your ability to do things.

A bank depositor and a home owner are not good material for the Bolshevist and socialistic agitators and herein lies America's safety today.

We are having some real cold weather now and it has caught the most of our people out of coal. I guess we can burn maize and corn if we can't do better.

D. Z. Little came down from Clovis to visit his family and intended to preach here Thanksgiving and there was to be dinner on the ground, but the weather was too bad for anyone to come.

There was a singing at J. D. Wagner's Sunday night.

Seems as though the cold weather doesn't keep the Jersey cows of Causey from giving milk, as our merchant, Mr. Judah, bought four cans of cream last Saturday.

Uncle Dan Little and wife have gone to Clovis to stay a few days with their daughter, and will then return to Cleaver, Mo.

Hog killing seems to be the go at present and we are having pretty weather for it.

Sister Bertha Little will preach at Causey every third Sunday at eleven o'clock.

Mr. J. W. Taylor bought some thoroughbred white faced calves from Arch Gregg.

Mr. Morrow, of Elida, was in our community a few days ago buying mules.

The boys of Causey are kept busy trapping for wolves and skunks and they are catching them too. Furs seem to be a better price than ever.

Phoenix will build a $20,000 home for the American Legion of that city, according to announcement of City Manager Thompson.

Uncle Sam is richer by about 150 gallons of red "licker" and $20,000 in fines and costs as a result of the clean-up of illicit liquor selling in New Mexico by the United States District Court since the first of last July.

A project that will add close to 30,000 acres more of fertile farming land to the Salt river valley in Arizona is being developed by enterprising Chandler and south side men in the opening of the East Chandler country.

So pleased are mining men with the result that has been obtained in the collection of ores and minerals on an exhibit at the Arizona state fair that a plan is now afoot whereby, with the aid of a caretaker the mines and minerals building may be kept open all year for visitors.

Hidden in a tunnel in an almost inaccessible part of a mountain range south of Salt river, Sheriff Montgomery and a deputy discovered their twelfth distilling plant since the first of the present year in that part of Arizona. The equipment for illicit manufacture of liquor apparently had not been in operation for some months, although much material was found.

Captain Walter S. Ingalls, appointed by Governor Campbell as adjutant general of Arizona, announced that formation of a National Guard organization would be commenced at once and that an $80,000 state fund was available for armories. He said cities and towns would, as in the past, be the bases of National Guard units with the same company designations as formerly.

The board of officers of the United States army which has been in session in Deming, N. M., has finished its final session. Alleged inebriety among the military and civilians of Nogales, Ariz., has caused an investigation to be inaugurated by the Department of Justice operators and the State Department officials regarding the smuggling of liquor into the United States from Sonora and the issuance of passports to Americans, alleged to have no further use for passports, than to patronize drinking resorts in Nogales, Sonora, recently re-opened under sanction of the Mexican state officials.

Many others have been killed this fall in different parts of the county, and the farmers and stockmen expect to continue the drive until they can rid their farms and ranches of these pests.

Governor Campbell of Arizona signed paroles of three prisoners confined in the prison or jails in various parts of the state, recently. Mrs. Maud McNeil was paroled from the Coconino county jail after having been convicted on Aug. 6, 1919, and sentenced to serve fourteen months on a charge of illicit liquor traffic. She was represented as being the mother of three children needing her support. A condition of the parole was that she leave the state.

Hearne's time for the 100 miles was announced officially as being 89 minutes 9 seconds. I. Christ's Suffering (vv. 32-34). 1. The place (v. 32). The garden of Gethsemane—an inclosure containing olive and fig trees, beyond Kidron, about three-fourths of a mile from Jerusalem. The name means olive-press. The name is significant of the occasion. Edersheim says it is an emblem of trial, distress and agony. Perhaps the garden was owned by one of Jesus' friends.

2. His companions (v. 35). He took with him the 11 disciples, that they might share, so far as possible, this sorrow with him. Being a real human being he craved sympathy. He bade them watch with him. While he knew that he must "tread the wine-press alone," he had a keen appreciation of sympathy so far as those who loved him could give it. The behavior of the disciples shows the utter limitation of human sympathy.

3. His great sorrow (v. 34). This is the same as the "cup" in verse 36. It was not primarily the prospect of physical suffering that was crushing him; it was the suffering as a sinner bearing—the sensations of his pure soul coming into contact with the awful sin and guilt of the world. Only pure and refined natures can understand this. In addition to this, there was the judgment stroke from the holy God as it fell upon his Son instead of the sinner. God caused the iniquities of the world to strike upon Jesus (II Cor. 5:21; Isa. 53:6).

II. Christ Praying (vv. 35-42). Though he prized human sympathy in the hour of supreme need, his only recourse was prayer. The sympathy of our friends is helpful, but in the great crises of life we can find help only when we go to God in prayer. "Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray" (James 5:13).

1. The first prayer (vv. 35-38). (1) His posture (v. 35). He fell on his face, prostrate on the ground. In the hour of our great need we naturally prostrate ourselves before God. This is a becoming posture. (2) His petition (v. 36). "Take away this cup from me." By the cup is meant his death on the cross. He did not desire to escape the cross. No doubt it was most grievous to him to face its shame, but he pressed on, knowing that for this cause he had come into the world (John 12:27, 28; cf. Heb. 2:14). He prayed that the "hour might pass from him," that is, that his life might be prolonged to die on the cross at the appointed time to make atonement for the sins of the world. The burden was so great that it seemed his life would be crushed out. His prayer was heard (Heb. 5:7). When God hears our prayers he grants the petition desired (I John 5:14-15). Angels ministered to him, giving the necessary grace to endure to the end (Luke 22:43). (3) His resignation (v. 38). His will was in subjection to the Father. He knew that his death on the cross was the will of God the Father; for he was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (4) The disciples rebuked (v. 37). He singled out Peter, since he had been the most conspicuous in proclaiming his loyalty (John 13:38). Though he would go with him to death, he could not watch one hour. (5) Exhortation to the disciples (v. 38). "Watch and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." The only way to be able to stand in the time of trial is to be watching and praying. Jesus knew that although the disciples meant well, they would fall in the trial unless aided from above. The flesh is too weak to stand the strain.

2. The second prayer (vv. 39, 40). He withdrew the second time from his disciples and uttered the same words in prayer. This was not vain repetition. It is proper to repeat our requests. He found the disciples asleep again. Their shame and confusion was more marked than at first.

3. The third prayer (vv. 41, 42). He uttered the same words in his third prayer (Matt. 26:44). He now tells the disciples to sleep on and take their rest, as the hour had come for his betrayal. There is such a thing as being asleep when wanted and awaking when it is too late. If the disciples had been praying they would not have fallen asleep.

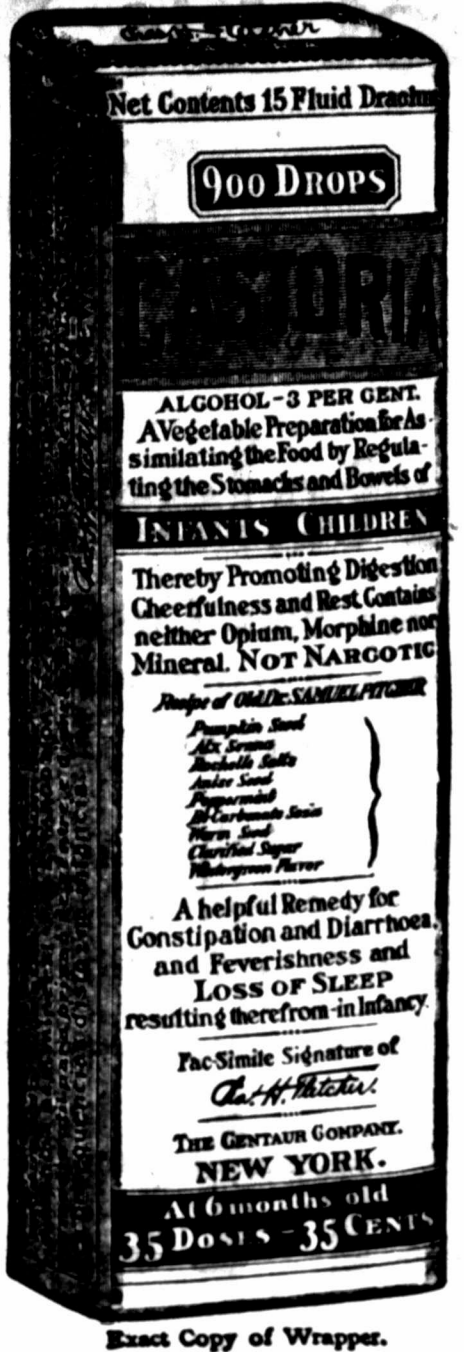

Kindness, Cheapest of All. The cheapest of all things is kindness, its exercise requiring the least possible trouble and self-sacrifice.—Smiles.

NOT AT ALL BAD REASONING Few Have Real Confidence in Advice That is Handed Out by Acknowledged Failures.

Harold Bell Wright, the novelist, said in an after-dinner speech in San Francisco: "After all, success—financial success—is the best proof of a book's merit. All good books, from 'Robinson Crusoe' down, have had phenomenal success—made hundreds of thousands of dollars."

"We all know this is true about financial success. We are all like the tramp who asked the old gentleman for the price of a glass of beer. 'I have no money,' the old gentleman said, 'but I will give you a little advice, friend.'"

"The tramp lit a cigarette butt and blew a contemptuous puff of smoke into the old gentleman's face. 'Well, if ye ain't got no money,' he said, 'yer advice can't be very valuable.'"

Must Prove it a Fact. The only trouble with a good opportunity is that it takes some lucky cuss with a lot of nerve and pluck to demonstrate that it is good.

'HONK, HONK!' THERE YOU ARE After That It Was Easy to Understand Where Old Lady Wanted Letter to Go.

A portly Dutch woman applied to the post office for a money order to send to her son in the far East. She told the clerk she had left her son's letter at the home, but said he was "some place out in China, dot sounds like der noise an automobile make."

The clerk smiled, and turning to another nearby, he said: "What kind of a noise does an automobile make, Joe?"

"Honk, honk!" the other suggested. "Yah, dot's it," exclaimed the woman, her face brightening. "Honk honk, dot's der place."

So the clerk made the order payable to Hongkong, and the woman went away happy.

EASY HOW TO SAW LOGS AND CUT DOWN TREES

Only one man, or even a boy, with the improved Ottawa Engine Log Saw can easily cut twenty-five to forty cords a day, and at a cost of less than 2c per cord. This machine, which outdoes all others, has a heavy, cross cut saw driven by a powerful especially designed 4-cycle gasoline engine. It's a fast money-maker for those using it, and does more than ten men could do, either cutting down trees, sawing logs, or buzzing branches while you rest. When not sawing, the engine can be used for other work requiring power.

The entire machine is mounted on truck wheels to make it easy to move to the trees or logs, and from cut to cut on a log without stopping the engine. For moving on the road, the truck wheels are placed parallel with the skids and the rig hauled straight ahead. The wheels turn on a two-way spindle. You do not have to take them off, but can change direction of wheel travel by merely taking out a pin.

The Ottawa can be fitted for sawing down trees. It cuts level with surface of ground, thereby getting all the timber and leaving no stumps sticking up. An automatic friction clutch stops the saw in case of undue resistance. Two men can fall forty to fifty trees a day in ordinary timber.

The whole outfit is compact, simple, durable against a lifetime of hard wear. It sells for a low price and is fully guaranteed for reliable operation in the hands of every one who has trees to cut down and logs to work up.

Full information and low factory price to you can be had simply by addressing the Ottawa Mfg. Company, 2724 Wood St., Ottawa, Kansas.

POULTRY

GREEN FEED DURING WINTER

Poultryman Should Have Supply to Last Through Season to Keep Fowls in Condition.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Green feeds for poultry contain only a small percentage of actual food nutrients, but are important because of their succulence and bulk, which lighten the grain rations and assist in keeping the birds in good condition. The poultryman should secure a sufficient supply of such feeds to last through the winter months in sections where growing feeds cannot be obtained. When chickens are fattened without the use of milk, green feed helps to keep them in good condition.

Cabbages, mangel wurzels, clover, alfalfa, and sprouted oats are the green feeds commonly used during the winter. Cabbages do not keep as well in ordinary cellars as mangel wurzels, so where both of these feeds are available the cabbages are fed first. They are often suspended, while the mangel wurzels are split and stuck on a nail on the wall of the pen. Clover and alfalfa may be fed as hay, cut into one-half to one inch lengths, or may be bought in the form of meal. Alfalfa meal has a feeding analysis equal to bran, but is not as digestible on account of its larger percentage of fiber. Clover and alfalfa should be cut while slightly immature, if they are to be cured and fed to poultry. The leaves and chaff from such hay are especially adapted for poultry feeding.

Sprouted oats make a very good green feed and are used quite extensively in this country. The oats can be soaked for 12 hours in warm water and then spread out in a layer of from one-half to one and one-half inches deep on a floor, or in a tray or tier of flats, which have openings or holes or a three-sixteenths inch mesh wire bottom, so that the water drains freely. They may be stirred daily, sprinkled, or allowed to sprout without stirring, until ready for feeding. They are usually fed when the sprouts are from one to one and one-half inches long, although some poultrymen prefer to allow the sprouts to grow to two or three inches long. Oats need a moist and warm atmosphere in which to sprout quickly, so that it is necessary to furnish heat or to keep them in a warm room during the winter, while they may be sprouted out of doors during the rest of the year. It takes from six to ten days to sprout oats, depending on the temperature of the room.

MITES REMAIN IN FEATHERS

Night Pest of Chickens May Stick to Fowls in Sufficient Numbers to Scatter Themselves.

Chicken mites, the night pest of poultry, may not always leave the fowls before daylight, as commonly supposed, but may remain in the feathers in such numbers as to make poultry possible carriers of this pest to uninfested places. This fact was brought out recently by an entomologist of the United States department of agriculture in the course of a study of the life history and habits of the chicken mite, undertaken to discover principles on which combative measures might be based.

COMFORT IN COLD WEATHER

Hen House Should Have Plenty of Fresh Air and Sunlight—Make It Warm as Possible.

Be sure that the poultry house is comfortable during the cold weather—that it has plenty of air and sunlight on bright days, that it is made warm as possible, while furnishing enough fresh air, during the cold nights when the hens are on the roost.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Hearlem Oil has been relieving the weakness and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Hearlem Oil is enclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Hearlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. At the first sign that your kidneys are not working properly, go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Hearlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

A Letter From the Mother of the Family

Winchester, Tenn., September 17, 1919.

I am the mother of seven boys and seven girls, all about grown. We, I suppose, are one of the healthiest families in the South. . . . We are a large family; you will see very few families, mother and father, with fourteen grown children, who can say that their health is better than ours, and we have used for our family medicine THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT, and very little of anything else.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is the best liver tonic I have ever seen. We have used it for headache, torpid liver and constipation, and it is just as recommended.
