Stiff Blocking Drill Monday for Loboos

In yesterday's work-out the Cisco Loboos were sent through a stiff blocking drill followed by practice on foot-work, charging low for the backfield, and line-work for the linemen.

The new shift play was used as were the double and single wing-back plays. In the line practice two guards showed up good, they were Burny Allen and Bill Anderson. Troy Stewart has been moved to end for a trial also. Bill Latch is holding down the middle of the line in fine style.

In the track practice several boys showed good signs of running. Cullen Harrison stepped off a fast 220 run as did Roy Callerman. L. M. Yarbrough and Lavon Dill did some fast running in the fifty yards dashes. Thurman Mosley and Tommy La More also set off a fast 880 pace in the workouts. Other boys who did well were Dennis King, Vernon Steyer, and J. T. Culp. Vernon is the pole-vaulter and has one year of experience and is counted on heavily this year to capture honors at the county meet. J. T. is also vaulting and is expected to give a good account of himself.

The Horned Frog band of Texas Christian university, to be in Cisco Wednesday, has traveled more than 12,000 miles in the past 15 months—from the Pacific to the Atlantic—and has been received with wild acclaim wherever it has played. Beginning in

Cisco Will Greet T.C.U. "Swingsters"

The Horned Frog Swing Band of Texas Christian university will visit Cisco Wednesday. It is scheduled to play a short concert here when the Fort Worth "Booster" delegation stops in Cisco from 2:10 to 2:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The band is making its third trip with the Fort Worth delegations advertising the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show. The organization will have about 40 musicians, directed by Don Gillis.

U. S. Move to Take Over Isles Arouses Britain

LONDON, March 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt's move to take over the islands of Cato and Endorbury in the south Pacific caused a stir in the house of commons today.

Arthur Henderson, laborite, and Roland Robinson, conservative, gave notice that they would ask Prime Minister Chamberlain tomorrow what the British government is doing to "preserve the British rights."

The island, which the United States wished to develop for aviation purposes, has been claimed as British territory by orders in the council.

Parkers Indicted by Federal Jury

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—The federal grand jury today indicted Ellis H. Parker, Sr., of Burlington county, New Jersey, chief of detectives, his son, Ellis, Jr., and three others as kidnapers under the Lindbergh law.

The indictment concerned the alleged kidnaping of Paul Wendel, former Trenton resident, from New York to Parker's home at Mt. Holly, New Jersey, February 24, 1936.

At that time the Parkers issued a "confession" signed by Wendel that he kidnaped Charles Lindbergh, Jr., the crime for which Bruno Hauptmann was then under the death sentence.

The faked confession, allegedly obtained by torture, delayed Hauptmann's execution three days.

GIBRALTAR, March 8 (AP)—British seamen aboard rescue destroyers told today how the insurgent cruiser, Ballares, was torpedoed Sunday off Cartagena and went down with the admiral's flag flying when only 200 of the crew had been saved.

The admiral went down with his ship. British rescuers estimated that 600 insurgents were lost. Previously the British admiralty reported that 400 had been saved.

SCHOOL BOARD SETS ELECTION FOR APRIL 2ND

All Principals of School System are Re-Elected

The Cisco school board, meeting last night, called the annual school board election for Saturday, April 2, and endorsed as candidates to succeed themselves in the three places which will become vacant, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. Mrs. Sam Kimmell and Mrs. P. R. Warwick. The three women were elected three years ago. Terms on the board extend for three years and elections of the seven members are staggered three, two and two in consecutive years.

The board also re-elected all principals. O. L. Samsy will return as principal of high school; C. C. Duff as principal of grammar school; A. C. Bradley as west ward principal and T. C. Williams as east ward principal.

Mr. Duff is serving now as director of diversified occupation courses in high school and during his tenure V. A. Andrews is acting principal of grammar school. There is probability that Dr. Duff will continue in the D. O. directorship, but pending final confirmation by the state department in charge of that work, he is re-elected to the principalship.

The board expressed full satisfaction with the work of Mr. Andrews as acting principal.

The board re-elected W. F. Walker as business secretary of the board and school district tax assessor, a position in which he has served for a number of years.

It also agreed to give Supt. R. N. Cluek, in the event he is elected governor of the 127th district of Rotary International, sufficient time from his duties as superintendent to discharge the duties of that position.

High Commandery Official Will Visit Cisco

Following the annual custom of the Grand Commandery of Texas for one of its officers to visit the different commanderies, over the state, Sir Knight H. P. Salter, of Corpus Christi, eminent grand captain general, will visit the Cisco commandery Tuesday evening.

Approximately 15 from the Dallas commandery and the same number from Abilene as well as a number from the surrounding towns are expected.

Sam Woods, Cisco commander, urges all local Knight Templars to be present at the First Christian church at 6:30 when a banquet will be served by the women of the church. Following the banquet the program will be completed at the K. P. hall.

Grammar P.-T. A. to Meet This Evening

The Cisco Grammar school Parent-Teacher association will meet this evening at 7:30 at the school building for a social period and a program during which the Rev. M. H. Applewhite, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will address the meeting and there will be several musical numbers.

Connally Says Cattle Import Guards Vital

SAN ANTONIO, March 8 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally, principal speaker opening the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association convention here today, warned against lifting importation restrictions on cattle from Argentina.

The senator said he felt certain that the United States-Argentina sanitary convention designed to lift in part the embargo on Argentine cattle because of the prevalence of hoof and mouth disease, would not be ratified.

"The cattle industry of the United States must not be imperiled," he said.

Norris Reveals TVA Internal Feud

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Senator Norris told the senate today that the Tennessee Valley authority officers declined to let Chairman A. E. Morgan testify in the recent federal court suit against a power agency because they were "worried" that "he would throw the case."

Norris, who fathered the TVA, said earlier that Morgan was "moved" by intense jealousy that "went beyond reason" in his feud with the other TVA directors.

House Turns Down Publicity Provision

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The house tentatively refused today to insert in the tax bill a provision for publicity for all corporation salaries in excess of $15,000 a year.

The vote was 118 to 60. President Roosevelt recently said he favored such publicity.

TEST IS BEGUN AT 11 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING

Rate of Flow Would Indicate 1,600 or More Barrels Daily

Official test of potential production under the supervision of the Texas Railroad commission began at the Lone Star Gas company's No. 1 Thomas, Ellenberger producer eight miles northwest of Cisco, this morning.

The flow was turned into the tanks at 11:10 a. m. There was no sluckering in the steady flow of oil that poured into the tank through the two-inch tubing and at the end of the first hour the well had gauged 83.6 barrels.

Unless the flow diminishes more than would be normal, this rate would make it gauge between 1,600 and 1,800 barrels daily.

Opened for half an hour yesterday before the potential gauge was started, the well put 37 1/2 barrels of oil in the tank within half an hour.

Meanwhile drilling was resumed on the Lone Star's No. 1 Van Parmer, deepening from a high gas level and now on top of the Ellenberger. Engine trouble has delayed operations in this well considerably.

Hickok Producing and Development company has started rigging up on its No. 1 Cleveland (D) about a mile north of the same company's Van Parmer No. 1 Ellenberger discovery well for the district.

Supper Served Band Members by Parents Club

Members of the Lobo band, about 75 in number, were served a buffet supper at the band hall last night by the Band Parents and Boosters club in appreciation of their work during the recent band clinic here under the direction of Col. Earl D. Irons.

The supper, arranged by a committee consisting of Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. H. H. Davis and Mrs. Fred Steffy, was prepared by the parents of the band members. The menu consisted of meat loaf, deviled eggs, potato salad, pickles, rolls, chocolate cake, ice cream, and punch. Appreciation of the gift of foods by local merchants was expressed. Ten parents were present to assist in serving.

Regular band practice was held following the meal.

The band is working in earnest now on contest music in preparation for the Stephenville band festival March 19 at which time their playing will be judged and criticized for weak points. No awards will be made and no winners announced.

Several members of the junior band have now moved into regular places on the senior band. They are Eugenia Jackson and Robert Blackstock, flutes and Billie Jo McArdle, Dorothy Jean Starling and H. F. Litchfield, French horns.

There can be no doubt that many of these defective vehicles are in the rattle-trap class, cars whose owners are trying to squeeze the last drop of service out of them without expenditure for repairs.

THOMAS GAUGES 84 BARRELS FIRST HOUR District Baptist Brotherhood Meets Here Thursday

Through the Editor's Spectacles
By GEORGE

Through the handshake, a greeting which acquires considerable significance in years, has been a theme debate. A Garrettsville newspaper editor, when Specs began his travail, seems to have added the most logical of some commentators that the custom when men, who nor carry their weapons in their hand, used to join hands to show the ability to raise the hand as readily as to show absence of the American Indians. This explanation seems to be the best.

It suggests that the custom of shaking hands originated in the days when men wore heavy armor which made em- brace and formal dem- onstrations at best difficult to perform. Men came to clasping hands. Since in early general custom was to shake hands, this explanation seems logical.

As he writes in his column, "The Handshaking Year," the custom was to embrace, and to hug and hug. Women suffrage did not have anything to do with the custom.

Embarrassing iron mail, in the knights were cased, and their embracing; and with fingers clothed in the simple joining of the hand would have been cold and so that a prolonged shaking was a natural resort to cordiality, and as it has been awkward to shake hands unemploying in a gentle agitation was but natural.

A knight was exceedingly glad to meet a fellow knight and something extraordinary of him the "gentle agitation" became more vigorous.

It is the chivalrous custom of the knights to be developed into a "TEXAS Friends," and so there's reason for all to participate in the cordial clasp, to the extent that it may be likened to a citizen's handshake with a well pump.

The most successful men in life are those who have a well this "fine art," supported with a generous display of campaign cigars and

Remembering names and calling them while in the act of shaking comes in handy. Sen. Joe Bailey had the matter to a fine point. His son was generally accompanied by the question: "How is the complaint?" He knew everybody had some kind of

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—The federal grand jury today indicted Ellis H. Parker, Sr., of Burlington county, New Jersey, chief of detectives, his son, Ellis, Jr., and three others as kidnapers under the Lindbergh law.

The indictment concerned the alleged kidnaping of Paul Wendel, former Trenton resident, from New York to Parker's home at Mt. Holly, New Jersey, February 24, 1936.

Queen No Melancholy Dane

At that time the Parkers issued a "confession" signed by Wendel that he kidnaped Charles Lindbergh, Jr., the crime for which Bruno Hauptmann was then under the death sentence.

SCHOOL BOARD SETS ELECTION FOR APRIL 2ND

All Principals of School System are Re-Elected

The Cisco school board, meeting last night, called the annual school board election for Saturday, April 2, and endorsed as candidates to succeed themselves in the three places which will become vacant, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. Mrs. Sam Kimmell and Mrs. P. R. Warwick. The three women were elected three years ago. Terms on the board extend for three years and elections of the seven members are staggered three, two and two in consecutive years.

The board also re-elected all principals. O. L. Samsy will return as principal of high school; C. C. Duff, as principal of grammar school; A. C. Bradley as west ward principal and T. C. Williams as east ward principal.

Mr. Duff is serving now as director of diversified occupation courses in high school and during his tenure V. A. Andrews is acting principal of grammar school. There is probability that Dr. Duff will continue in the D. O. directorship, but pending final confirmation by the state department in charge of that work, he was re-elected to the principalship.

The board expressed full satisfaction with the work of Mr. Andrews as acting principal.

The board re-elected W. F. Walker as business secretary of the board and school district tax assessor, a position in which he has served for a number of years.

Sam Woods, Cisco commander, urges all local Knight Templars to be present at the First Christian church at 6:30 when a banquet will be served by the women of the church. Following the banquet the program will be completed at the K. P. hall.

Connally Says Cattle Import Guards Vital

SAN ANTONIO, March 8 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally, principal speaker opening the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association convention here today, warned against lifting importation restrictions on cattle from Argentina.

The senator said he felt certain that the United States-Argentine sanitary convention designed to lift in part the embargo on Argentine cattle because of the prevalence of hoof and mouth disease, would not be ratified.

"The cattle industry of the United States must not be imperiled," he said.

Norris Reveals TVA Internal Feud

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Senator Norris told the senate today that the Tennessee Valley authority attorneys declined to let Chairman A. E. Morgan testify in the recent federal court suit against a power agency because they were "worried" that "he would throw the case."

Norris, who fathered the TVA, said earlier that Morgan was "moved" by intense jealousy that "went beyond reason" in his feud with the other TVA directors.

House Turns Down Publicity Provision

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The house tentatively refused today to insert in the tax bill a provision for publicity for all corporation salaries in excess of $15,000 a year.

The vote was 118 to 60. President Roosevelt recently said he favored such publicity.

Deep Test for Rising Star Area

Location of a deep test on a drilling block six miles northwest of Rising Star was reported to have been made by Monte Hayner, et al. The well will be drilled on the P. C. Larkin farm.

TEST IS BEGUN AT 11 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING

Rate of Flow Would Indicate 1,600 or More Barrels Daily

Official test of potential production under the supervision of the Texas Railroad commission began at the Lone Star Gas company's No. 1 Thomas, Ellenberger producer eight miles northwest of Cisco, this morning.

The flow was turned into the tanks at 11:10 a. m. There was no slacking in the steady flow of oil that poured into the tank through the two-inch tubing and at the end of the first hour the well had gauged 83.6 barrels.

Unless the flow diminishes more than would be normal, this rate would make it gauge between 1,600 and 1,800 barrels daily.

Opened for half an hour yesterday before the potential gauge was started, the well put 37 1/2 barrels of oil in the tank within half an hour.

Meanwhile drilling was resumed on the Lone Star's No. 1 Van Parmer, deepening from a high gas level and now on top of the Ellenberger. Engine trouble has delayed operations in this well considerably.

Hickok Producing and Development company has started rigging up on its No. 1 Cleveland (D) about a mile north of the same company's Van Parmer No. 1. Ellenberger discovery well for the district.

Supper Served Band Members by Parents Club

Members of the Lobo band, about 75 in number, were served a buffet supper at the band hall last night by the Band Parents and Boosters club in appreciation of their work during the recent band clinic here under the direction of Col. Earl D. Irons.

The supper, arranged by a committee consisting of Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. H. H. Davis and Mrs. Fred Steffy, was prepared by the parents of the band members. The menu consisted of meat loaf, deviled eggs, potato salad, pickles, rolls, chocolate cake, ice cream and punch. Appreciation of the gift of foods by local merchants was expressed. Ten parents were present to assist in serving.

Regular band practice was held following the meal.

The band is working in earnest now on contest music in preparation for the Stephenville band festival March 19 at which time their playing will be judged and criticized for weak points. No awards will be made and no winners announced.

Several members of the junior band have now moved into regular places on the senior band. They are Eugenia Jackson and Robert Blackstock, flutes and Billie Jo McArdle, Dorothy Jean Starling and H. F. Litchfield, French horns.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

God hath spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice. --Ps. ix. 4.

At a kneeling, my Lord, before Thee,
if my heart is near Thy throne,
kissed by Thy love as I Thee,
Bliss in Thee find joy and peace.
--German hymn.

Beholding Jesus as the Lamb of God gives us sight with which we can see onwards see Him in all the perfection of His character, and "seeing Him as He is" is the means by which the Holy Spirit transforms us into His likeness.

The Right Angle

It is highly improbable that little more than a recommendation will come out of the senate sub-committee now studying methods of pruning state government costs at Austin.

THE problem faced by the committee in bringing about this saving, however, is a difficult one. State departments are jealous of their prerogatives and are strongly minded to keep under their control whatever of patronage they have their hands on. Only a strong public sentiment backing the recommendations of the group will make it possible to realize its objectives.

OTHER OPINIONS

Resigned But Not Discouraged PRES. ROOSEVELT is becoming more philosophical under defeat, and it is a good thing for his own peace of mind that he is.

At his press conference last Friday, fifth anniversary of his incumbency, he gave the impression that he is resigned to failure of wage and hour legislation at this session.

indications are that Mr. Roosevelt has sized up the situation correctly. The bill is still deeply enmeshed in the web of controversy which held it up in last year's regular and special sessions.

Although the administration would have it that Southern congressmen knifed the bill, the fact is that their outright opposition to any legislation of that character was less effective than the inability of groups which favor it in principle to agree upon a practical formula.

Mr. Roosevelt told the reporters that his five years in the White House haven't swerved him from his principal objectives: To establish financial stability, increase purchasing power and end special privilege.

It remains to be seen whether the congress to be elected next November will be more or less tractable than the present one. But if the rebellion of the 75th congress against White House dictation, which began when Mr. Roosevelt tried to pack the supreme court, accurately reflects the public attitude we are apt to see an even more pronounced turn toward congressional independence after January, 1939.

For Love of Polly

By RACHEL MACK

LAST OF CHARACTERS
POLLY CHELSEY, becoming stranded in London when she breaks out.
JERRY WHITEFIELD, here; the Yankee who sees her through.
ABELLE BANKS, privateer captain.

CHAPTER XXX
JUST how Jerry Whitefield wondered, did the commander of an American privateer go about getting a visit home?

It was now high summer and he was far from Connecticut. He had no difficulties. The ship he had engaged in combat had received a broadside from one of the May Queen's long guns that wrecked her.

"Very bad business," Jerry complained to his first mate. "Our gunners need practice." His thrifty Yankee nature revolted at sinking a good ship.

The May Queen was again full of prisoners. Plainly, there was but one thing to do—put them ashore off the coast of France as he had done that other time. This was accomplished, but at the price of a fortnight of maneuvering.

Polly saw her father coming down the street, walking as usual with his two canes, and yet more urgently. He turned in at the picket gate, forgetting to shut it after him; and when Nuisance ran to meet him he frisked him away with his canes.

She uttered a little cry, took the letter and broke the red seal. There fell out a folded sheet with a short message written on it:

"My dear Polly," said the elegant writing that was obviously not Jerry's. "I send you this letter from Jerry which I forgot to post four months ago. It was written during our last stop in Wilmington when I was hard pressed with worry and so I absent-mindedly put it with some papers to be left with my banker. Today on opening the packet I came on the letter. Words cannot express my regret. I heavily tender my apologies to you and shall tender the same to Jerry when I see him this evening on the Gray Gull. We are about to go our separate ways and I shall sorely miss the companionship of this man I have come to regard as a brother. As he is coming to you in person as fast as ship can take him, I shall leave him to recount our adventures since we parted from you. Your admiring and obedient s/v, Cabell Banks, junior."

"No. He carries papers for privateer sailing." "His own?" the question was intended merely as a humiliation. "He's been on a friend's privateer," Polly answered.

IT seemed to Polly that she must hurry through her sewing with frantic speed. But when her dress was complete to the last button and when little Richard's was finished as well, she saw that she had been too hasty.

"Is he comin' to see the house or you?" Trepid asked in irritation. "I never knew a man off a ship cared a continental whether he had window curtains or not."

WHEN the house stood shining and spotless and she could think of nothing more to do to it, Polly bought a length of calico print to make herself a new frock. She looked longingly at some India mullin displayed in Mr. Pell's store; but now that these were no longer being imported from England, they were too dear for ordinary people to buy.

"Mrs. Pell came sweeping through the store presently and paused at the counter. Because she wished to have further conversation with Polly she decided to forgive her for that outburst they both remembered so well.

"Mrs. Pell had never liked Polly's gentle London mother from the day she stepped off Trepid Chelsey's ship, and so it was easy to dislike the daughter.

A motor car is a total instrument of transport. How well it performs depends upon a number of things—pure oil and gas, properly inflated tires, brakes, clean windshields, proper lubrication of minor items but in the aggregate important. The more rounded that service, the more it attracts the motorist. The more it attracts the motorist, the more it relieves him of car worries.
