Treasury Seeks Alternatives for Defeated Surtax

Through the Editor's Spectacles
By GEORGE

Who travels much sees better than he has at home. Thus, it is to that effect, goes the truth of it is constant.

It is significant to note that those who come from other places, invariably find the community as a living. These visitors, with experiences elsewhere, are in position to compare advantage.

Today come nice words from Hazen Redmond of the Rev. and Mrs. J. T. McKissock, who have come from Houston to the city of the First Christian church.

Mr. Redmond:

While traveling some 15,000 miles in the United States since January 1, 1937, I arrived in Cisco Friday afternoon.

I have been with very dear friends, the Rev. and Mrs. J. T. McKissock of the First Christian church here and also Mrs. J. T. McKissock, who are old friends of my mother.

It is an ideal town to make one's home. It is clean and has a climate and its people are friendly.

People appreciate those who come to Cisco people who are tired of the same old life to take off and visit in Cisco for comparisons that will show them with the superlatives of their home.

It reminds me of the habit of the fellow, not in Cisco, whenever he became home, subscribed to the idea of a town to which he should like to go and live a couple of months. At that time he was cured. He had his problems, its ups and its drawbacks. He went back to his job and the life with satisfaction.

Headquarters for Greene Church started here

Headquarters of the district of the Church of the Nazarene in Cisco was this week following purchase of a permanent residence district superintendent at Ninth street.

Mr. J. Walter Hall, district president, has already moved into his home. He and his wife have three children at home of whom is now away at college.

Other families are due to arrive here in connection with the new headquarters here. Mrs. J. T. McKissock, who was chosen as the head of the district, is in Cisco, Fort Worth and Denton.

HOUSE REVOLT IS SURPRISE TO LEADERS

Morgenthau Declines Comment; Wants Revenues Made Up

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau announced today that the treasury was preparing alternative revenue-raising proposals to fill the $41,000,000 gap in the new tax bill left by the defeat in the house of the special surtax tax on closely held corporations.

Morgenthau declined comment on yesterday's house action except to say the administration wanted any revenue losses in the bill made up.

The house revolt which slashed the surtax from the tax bill had these immediate results:

It sidetracked the revenue bill temporarily, perhaps for several days.

It consists of B. A. Butler, chairman, and E. P. Crawford, J. D. Lauderdale, Charles Sandler and J. L. Thornton.

Tentative plans, as discussed by the board of directors at the time the celebration was ordered, call for a three-day program. The committee was directed to formulate a tentative program and present it to the chamber for final approval.

On Plane Lost in California

Rescuers seeking the Transcontinental Western air liner forced down near Fresno, Calif., believed the only hope for the nine persons aboard was that the plane had landed intact in an eight-foot cushion of snow blanketing mountains east of Fresno. Hostess of the plane was Margaret H. Wilson, top. Among the six passengers were Mary and Jay Tracy Dirlam, lower pictures, students in Stanford University, en route to their home in Mansfield, O., to see their sick father.

Ickes Accused Willkie of Trying to Hold Up TVA Project

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Secretary Ickes made public a letter today in which he charged Wendell Willkie, president of Commonwealth and Southern, with asking the Public Works administration to "conspire" with him to hold up the $150,000,000 WPA-municipal power project in the Tennessee valley.

Ickes letter, addressed to Mayor Watkins Overton, Memphis, was in reply to a telegram from the mayor asking whether the WPA would recommend delay in the construction of the electric distribution systems.

Meanwhile, Senator Bridges, New Hampshire republican, denounced the TVA in a senate address yesterday in which he characterized David Lillenthal, a director, as its "Der Fuehrer," charged that an "authoritarian state" had come into being and demanded a congressional investigation.

Fred Moses, TVA field manager, he denounced as a brownshirt Messer" and a "Hitler in short pants." He should be called to account before a senate committee for utterances attributed to him, the senator said.

He shouted that Dr. A. E. Morgan, chairman of TVA, now engaged in a dispute with Lillenthal and Hargourt Morgan, the vice-chairman, was "being liquidated." Meanwhile the three principals in the dispute which has disrupted the interral functions of the authority, and produced a volume of charges of bad faith and conspiracy.

Young Musicians Play for Rotary; Indian Talks

The Cisco Rotary club today enjoyed one of its most interesting programs when M. H. Applewhite presented five Cisco girls in a violin quartet, accompanied by the piano, for three numbers, followed by a brief address by Chief Red Fox, full blood Indian of Corpus Christi who appeared in the traditional and colorful Indian costume.

The four violinists were Misses Gloria Graham, Patty Jean Boyd, Rose Ann Woods and Emily Jo Boyd and the pianist was Miss Betty Slicker.

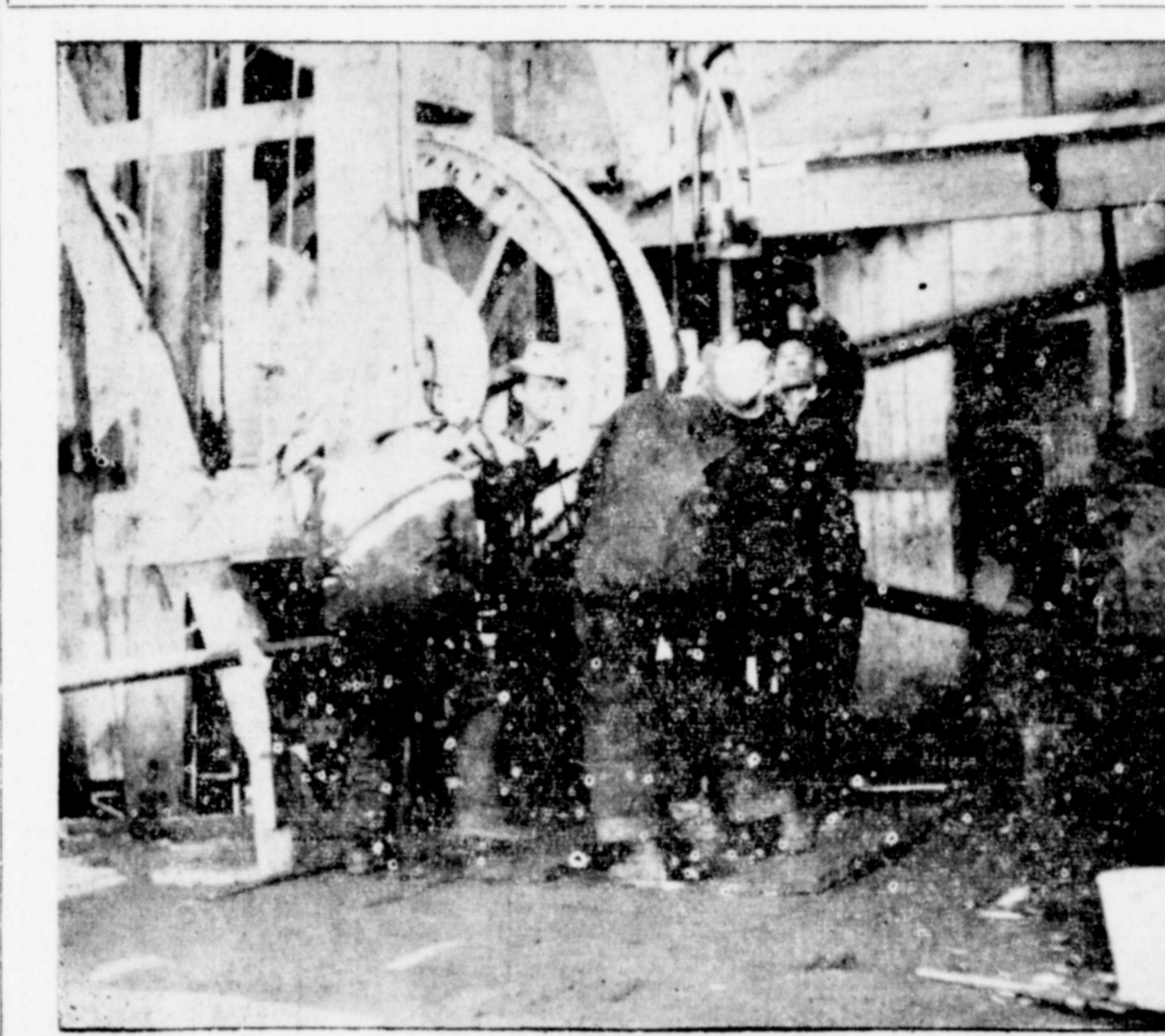

The novelty and excellence of the numbers they presented commanded the hearty appreciation of the club.

Chief Red Fox sketched briefly the history of the American Indians under government protection and described the loyalty and interest of the Indian in American citizenship belatedly granted him.

Prior to the program, the committee charged with the conduct of the campaign to elect President Bob Cluck Club governor of the 127th convention, reported that the responses received from various clubs relative to presenting President Cluck for the governorship were sufficiently encouraging to prompt formal announcement, and demanded that every club member respond willingly to calls for cooperation when made.

C. J. O'Malley of Temple; and Dan Junell, Walter Jarrett and Don Morris of Abilene were guests.

Running Tubing in New Ellenberger Producer

The scene above shows members of the crew running tubing in the Lone Star Gas company's No. 1 Thomas Ellenberger producer eight miles northwest of Cisco preparatory to testing production. The well is rated at better than 1,000 barrels daily following railroad commission potential test Tuesday.

Prospects for Good Producer in Deep Lime Are Seen

The Lone Star Gas company's No. 1 Van Parmer, about half a mile north of the Hickok Van Parmer discovery in the area northwest of Cisco eight miles, will be acidized probably late today or tomorrow following deepening operations from a gas producing horizon.

The well found Ellenberger lime at 3972 feet and has been drilled about 19 feet in. The hole filled with 2,500 feet of fluid but there was not sufficient gas to flow.

It was estimated yesterday that as the well stands it is good for at least 125 barrels daily, making it much more promising than the same company's deepened Cozar to the west, which was acidized in Ellenberger for a potential of 235 barrels daily.

Tubing was being run this morning in preparation for acidizing.

Rayburn Is Confident Project Approved

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Representative Rayburn after a White House conference today said he "presumed" a $54,000,000 Red river improvement project, including a dam at Denison, had been approved for inclusion in the omnibus flood control authorization bill.

Checking up on the status of the project with President Roosevelt, Rayburn told reporters that the report on the project from army engineers had "passed over" the president's desk and he presumed it had been returned to the secretary of war for transmission to congress.

UNION COUNCIL MEETING

The Methodist Union Council will be held in Olden tonight at 7:30. All the Cisco young people who are planning to attend the meeting will please meet at the church at 7. It is hoped that Cisco will have the largest representation.

125 Expected for Dinner and Program at 7:30 Tonight

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist church of Cisco will host this evening to a meeting of the District Brotherhood beginning with a dinner in the church dining room at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Rupert Richardson, executive vice president of Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene, will be the principal speaker. There will be a program of music by the First Baptist church choir, assisted by musicians from other churches, under the direction of W. Frank Walker.

Women of the WMS will serve the meal.

During the program there will be reports from the brotherhoods of the various churches and associations within the area. Judge Homer T. Bouldin of Albany is president and Mr. Walker is vice president.

About 125 men are expected.

New Blocking Dummy Secured for Lobos

Blocking and tackling practice on a new dummy secured by Coach J. T. Petty will occupy most of the spring football training of the Lobos until after the county interscholastic league track and field meet two weeks hence.

The squad is coming along in excellent condition, Coach Petty said, with plenty of pep and interest among the boys.

Tomorrow Petty will take a squad of track and field athletes to Moran for an invitation meet beginning at 1 o'clock.

In the squad will be Marcell Odell and Cullen Harrison, L. M. Yarbrough, Vernon Steyer, Dennis King, Robert Cone, Roy Burnside, W. A. Wall, Chesley Tipton, J. T. Culp, Raymond Reams and Lavon Dill.

Second Acid Treatment Boosts Oplin Well Flow

A second acidization of the Hal Hughes No. 1 Poindester, oil-producing producer three miles northwest of Oplin, yesterday resulted in a considerable stimulation of flow, reports this morning said.

The well was treated with 7,000 gallons of acid and responded with a flow of 90 barrels during one hour after it was opened to flow in the tanks. Operators estimated that it would make 2,000 barrels daily, although this estimate was regarded as excessive here in view of the actions of the Hickok Van Parmer and the Lone Star Thomas Ellenberger producers, located eight miles northwest of Cisco and producing from approximately the same horizon as the Poindester. Geologists are of the general opinion that a definite geological connection exists between the two areas. Both the Parmer and the Thomas are rated at around 1,100 barrels daily and each responded with first hour flows of about the same proportions as that now credited to the Hughes.

Each later settled to a steady production of approximately 45 barrels hourly. It is suggested that the Oplin test, if it parallels the producing characteristics of these wells should be good for about the same potential, which would make it by all odds an excellent Ellenberger producer.

Railroad commission potential test of the Poindester was due to be made today.

Initial gauges on the test last week indicated average flows of around 35 barrels an hour. The well was never opened for more than a two-hour run, however.

The Poindester is believed to be producing from the Simpson, middle Ordovician sandy lime.

Gas and oil pay was logged from 4,368-79 feet, total depth. Both gas and oil showing had been increased by a 3,000-gallon acid treatment two weeks ago which set estimates up to 1,000 barrels per day.

Prior to the second treatment yesterday, the well was making between four and five million cubic feet of gas per day, giving a 100-high gas-oil ratio. Second acidization was in an attempt to

Can An Airplane Sink a Battleship? Yes, Says Army; No, Replies Navy

By DEVON FRANCIS
AP Aviation Editor

If an airplane can sink a battleship, defense of America's coastlines would appear to be a simple matter. If it can't a lot of energy is being wasted on that argument.

to sea to engage the fleet. At best, the invader's warship would be sunk or disabled.

The Air Corps has a good case for itself.

But so do champions of the warship, insisting that the navy still is the nation's first line of defense.

Little has been added to available knowledge in the Battleships.

Aircraft argument by the Ethiopian, Spanish or Sino-Japanese wars. No modern bombing plane has been tested against a modern warship.

Partisans of the airplane say they won the first air war in history without firing a shot — by dropping to sink the British fleet in the Mediterranean if the Suez canal were closed during the Ethiopian excursion. But the facts are not public.

Still a deep secret among military men were the results of the "bombing" of the battleship Utah by army planes last year, several hundred miles off San Francisco's Golden Gate. They were impressive. Dropped from an average of 12,000 feet, "water bombs" peppered the deck and the water near the vessel.

The answer to the plane's accuracy, was a new, secret, bomb sight.

It is all theory, of course, and the rebuttal of the navy adds up to an equally logical conclusion that for offense, the airplane is as effective as a goat on an elephant's hide.

Battleship Protection

Modern battleships, they point out, are armor-plated above the water line and that bulges or "bladders" below it absorb the shock of explosions.

Even the value of torpedoes against modern men-of-war is questioned. At Jutland the warship Marlborough was torpedoed, but not disabled.

The Spanish insurgent battleship Espana was sunk by a chance hit down a funnel. The gunboat Panay, sunk in China, was meagerly equipped for combat.

Alone among high navy officials, Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of naval operations, has covered publicly that an airplane might be able to sink a battleship.

Let's enter a hypothetical war. An enemy is approaching our shores. A warning has been sounded.

The Carrier's Brood

Ashore are the Air Corp's heavy bombing planes, the largest capable of flying 1,500 miles, unloading several thousand pounds of "eggs" and returning without refueling.

Co-operating with the defense fleet are the navy's slower, heavily armed patrol bombers. On cruisers and battleships of each fleet are nests of scouting and observation planes, and on aircraft carriers are several hundred combat observation, and light bombing machines.

The usefulness of the carrier's broods can be discounted beyond 300 miles from their base. Exceptionally vulnerable to attack, the carriers will remain far behind the zone of battle.

With the enemy still a thousand miles out, a dozen Air Corps bombers take off to meet him.

But, the navy interposes, how is the army going to find him? Wait, runs the answer, the Utah was found in a search of 80,000 square miles of ocean; to find a warship would be easy.

All right, says the navy. The enemy has been spotted, but the enemy also has spotted the army, and a swarm of fighting planes is rising from every ship.

A "curtain" of anti-aircraft shells is being thrown athwart the bombers' line of flight.

A New Idea

Not so fast, says the army: (1) Enemy observation units are off on missions and the surprise is complete; (2) Only a few enemy combat planes are in the air, and the rest are being launched too slowly to worry about; (3) The carriers, looming like the broadside of a barn, can be dispatched quickly; (4) Anti-aircraft fire is innocuous at 10,000 to 12,000 feet.

Very well, retorts the navy with deadly finality, but the airplanes can't sink the battleships; and as for "barraging" the enemy, submarines and torpedo boats can do a better job.

The Air Corps recently pulled a new idea out of its sleeve. How about laying down a blanket of deadly gas, it asks, and let the elaborate ventilating systems of enemy ships suck in the fumes?

The navy, which can give as well as take, will have an answer to that one soon.

House Revolt--

rushed away to notify President Roosevelt of the 180 to 124 teller vote by which the house knocked out the surtax anti to discuss its implications.

Emergency Session

Democratic committee members met in an emergency session to try to figure out some way of making up the estimated $30,000,000 to $45,000,000 in revenue which the broods can be discounted beyond 300 miles from their base. Exceptionally vulnerable to attack, the carriers will remain far behind the zone of battle.

With the enemy still a thousand miles out, a dozen Air Corps bombers take off to meet him.

LAND FOR LEASE

Nina and Jesse Penn own the only land, 160 acres, that is not under lease in the new oil field northwest of Cisco. There are good producing wells adjoining the property. A 3,500 barrel well, the Brooks just to the north; a big well just south, a 2,500 barrel well—and other good wells near-by. We have been offered good prices for a commercial lease on this land, but as yet, we have not closed a deal with any one. Any one wishing to bid on this inside of 20 days from the time this ad appears may do so, but must come prepared to close a lease as we will not give an option to any one. The first one with the money on the barrel head gets it if the price is satisfactory with us all. We all know that this land is as good a location as there is in Texas or any other place.

Carbon Girl
Mineral Wells Queen

Janita Carey, blue-eyed senior, will be crowned queen of Mineral Wells at the convention hall evening of April 1. Miss Carey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carey of Mineral Wells.

Miss Carey attended high school in Carbon during her sophomore year. Since returning to Mineral Wells she has visited often in the home of Miss Faye Stone. Last summer Miss Carey and Miss Stone often were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Pae of Cisco. Miss Carey defeated junior, sophomore and freshman rivals for carnival queen. Miss Stone will be house guest of Miss Carey during coronation week. The operetta, "Rose of the Danube," will be presented before the queen and her court. Miss Carey was selected "Miss Personality" the year she attended high school in Carbon.

Cotton Vote Will Be Held Next Saturday

Cotton growers of Eastland county Saturday will vote in the 1938 cotton referendum to determine whether agricultural officials of the nation should set marketing quotas for the crop, County Agent Elmo V. Cook announced Tuesday.

Voting places will be at Eastland in the agent's office, at Ranger in the chamber of commerce, at Cisco in the chamber of commerce, at Gorman in the Progress office, at Carbon in the trading company store and at Rising Star in the Higginbotham store between 9 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Eligible to vote are landlords, cash tenants, owner operators, one-fourth tenants and one-half tenants who had an interest in a cotton crop in 1937.

The county agricultural committee, composed of R. R. Bradshaw of Scranton, J. D. Guy of Carbon and E. E. Blackwell of Alameda, will canvass the returns and declare the result at 9 o'clock Monday morning at Eastland.

Judges for the election will include T. E. Castleberry, J. F. Mosley, Ray Norris, Eastland; Ellis Cooper, J. S. Hutton, R. H. Hodges, Ranger; H. H. Harrelson, Joe Donaway, Cisco; L. A. Bennett, Gorman; H. W. Gilbert, Ed Allison, H. A. Lovell, Carbon; and A. L. McDonald, O. D. Carver and A. H. Morris, Rising Star.

It has been explained that cotton farmers of the nation must abide by the outcome of the voting in all states which must be by a margin of at least two to one. The ballot form will be "Do you favor cotton-marketing quotas for the 1938 crop?"

Cotton marketing quotas, if in effect, will mean, U. S. Department of Agriculture officials have said to producers.

(If a person plants within his acreage allotment) 1. You will be eligible to receive agricultural-conservation payments. 2. You will be eligible to receive cotton-price adjustment payments on 1937 cotton. 3. You will be eligible for a loan on all cotton you produce in 1938. 4. You and other cooperating producers will be protected in your efforts to adjust supplies.

(If a person should overplant his allotment) 1. You would not receive any agricultural-conservation payments. 2. You would not receive any cotton-price-adjustment payments on 1937 cotton. 3.

Where Torrent Tore Up Street in Burbank

A little thing like a concrete street meant nothing to the torrents that rampaged through the Los Angeles area after four days' downpour. This picture, taken in the suburb of Burbank, shows pavement washed out by the fury of the flood. Note the shack and car overturned at the side of the street. This was just a small part of the tremendous damage wrought by the floods that inundated 30,000 square miles of southern California and ravaged more than 100 towns.

warned the railroads that much corporate and financial housecleaning lies between them and sound operations. Commissioner Miller called for consolidation of all railroads into a single system.

While conceding laws and conditions virtually force a partial increase in rates, the commission was not wholly optimistic about effect of the rates. Commissioner Atchison predicted the increase would hamper business recovery, and the majority opinion emphasized that higher rates might be offset somewhat by decreasing traffic volume.

Commissioner Eastman, the administration's former coordinator of railroads, estimated, however, that the increase would amount to $270,000,000 per year and would be adequate to compensate the carriers for increased wages and other costs and also for the failure of past increases to meet expectations.

The commission said the railroads could apply the new rates on ten days' notice, but must have them in effect by July 1.

Some of the pre-historic Indian houses in Petrified Forest National Monument, Arizona, were built of petrified wood instead of ordinary stone. One of these, known as Agate House, has been partly restored.

Gold production in the Union of South Africa during the last year amounted to 11,749,500 ounces, a new record.

Common Sawdust Is Enlisted in War on Hoppers

COLLEGE STATION, March 10.—Common sawdust, preferably weathered for a year, is being drafted as shock troops for the campaign farmers and federal and state entomologists plan to wage against threatened grasshopper infestation this year.

It isn't cricket, or in other words it's a dirty trick, to make a condemned grasshopper eat sawdust in order to die, some fair-minded people may say. But members of the Texas Grasshopper Control committee, meeting at Texas A & M college, figured a grasshopper killed by any means is better than a live hopper, especially when the hopper tribe will endanger crops on some 3,000,000 acres of fertile Texas land this year.

Entomologists have found a combination of sawdust, mill-run bran or "red dog" flour, and sodium arsenite will kill the hoppers almost as effectively as more costly mixtures. The bran and sodium arsenite, when mixed with water, form a dough and coat the insect. Mr. Grasshopper likes to nibble the dough-covered flakes, but when he does he eats enough of the arsenite compound to kill him.

Zero Hour

"Zero hour" for the attack, the control committee has decided, will be about April 15 when the first hoppers begin to emerge. By attacking quickly, the workers hope to thin out the first generation of hoppers considerably before they have time to multiply and organize for a march on the croplands.

Grasshopper control work directed by the committee in 1937, it is estimated, saved farmers $6,000,000 and produced $110 in results for each dollar spent. An index of the damage that otherwise might have been done by the hoppers last year, control workers said, is found in the fact that sections which did not cooperate in the 1937 campaign suffered approximately $3,000,000 in crop loss. The loss, they added, was borne to a large extent by seven counties.

Entomologists who made hopper egg-counts during the fall and winter, estimated hoppers left over from the 1937 infestation laid enough eggs in 77 counties in Texas to warrant assumption of the infestation.

BE IT RESOLVED that a general municipal election be held between the hours of 8:00 o'clock a. m. and 7:00 o'clock p. m. on April 5th, 1938, at the City Hall in the City of Cisco in Eastland County, Texas, to be participated in by the qualified voters of said city, for the purpose of electing three City Commissioners.

Dated this 4th day of March, A. D. 1938.
LONNIE SHOCKLEY,
Secretary City of Cisco.

Railroads Given 270 Million Hike in Freight Rates

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The interstate commerce commission granted a $270,000,000 annual increase in freight rates Tuesday night to save the railroads from threatened insolvencies and possibly to stimulate industries which sell railroad equipment.

Railroad men, who had pleaded for a flat 15 per cent increase amounting to about $470,000,000, were frankly disappointed, however.

President Roosevelt, who had been waiting for the rate decision before searching for a permanent solution to chronic ills of the railroads, immediately summoned a group of congressional, I. C. C., railroad and labor leaders to meet next week to discuss the next step.

The I. C. C. gave the railroads a 5 per cent increase on farm and forest products and 10 per cent on virtually everything else that moves by rail. These increases, however, are inclusive of raises granted on steel, coke and many other "heavy" commodities last fall. Therefore, on some of the rates raised in the autumn there will be little or no additional increase.

The fellow who is willing to leave his products with you on trial to prove they will do everything he claims, or the fellow who must have his money in his fist before he leaves anything with you? I am so sure that Watkins Mineralized Hog Tonic will make money for you that I'll leave it with you on trial. If you are not satisfied with the results, you do not need to pay me a cent. That's fair enough, isn't it?

A motor car is a total instrument of transportation. How well it performs depends upon a number of things—pure oil and gas, properly inflated tires, safe brakes, clean windshields, proper lubrication; all minor items but in the aggregate important. The most convenient place to get them is the filling station. The more rounded that service, the more it will attract the motorist. The station which can relieve him of car worries.

ETOQUETTE 'Phone Manners Begin on Your End of Wire

By JOAN DURHAM

AP PHOENIX (Circle 10) — On the telephone, it's not so much what you say as how you say it.

Telephone conversations always should convey a feeling of personal interest, says John Turner, telephone executive and specialist on telephone manners.

With your phone rings and you pick up the receiver, he says, don't lose a perfunctory "Hello" or a vaguely inquiring "Yes" into the mouthpiece. Give an informative, sensible "Mr. So-and-So's residence" or "Mrs. So-and-So's telephone" if you have servants don't let them say "Mrs. So-and-So's maid (or butler)" either. That sounds pretentious.

At the office it is well to give two items of information as soon as you pick up the receiver: the firm's name and yours. If there is a switchboard operator to give the firm's name, it is to answer with "Mr. So-and-So speaking."

Added telephone manners: Hold your mouth half an inch away from the mouthpiece. When you want to get the operator, cover arm up and down. If you do it fast the switchboard may not call at all.

In making take brief and to the point. It costs money to be able to your firm. It may be waiting else may be waiting. Nearly all employees that a certain social calls are a business hours. But an understanding of a employee and employer.
