At chili supper here Tuesday

Congressional campaign heats up

It was a chilly night for Cong. Larry Combest Tuesday night at a fund raising chili supper for Democratic candidate Gerald McCathern at the Expo Building in Dimmitt.

Organizers said over $2,400 was raised through the supper for the Hereford Democrat who will face Combest in the Nov. 4 general election.

Perhaps the most scathing indictment of Combest's 20 months in office came from Harold Bob Bennett, co-chairman of the Castro County Democratic Boosters. "The Revolutionary War wasn't fought for freedom," Bennett said, "it was fought because we had taxation without representation. We are back in the same place we were 210 years ago, being taxed without being represented.

"Our ideas are not being represented because Larry Combest is nothing but a political pawn, a political yes man, and he's voting the way 'they' want him to vote. Let the last six years in the congressional district speak for itself. The record is there in black and white, and I'm glad we can vote for a Democrat and glad we can vote for Gerald McCathern."

McCathern, who blitzed Lubbock accountant Mary Nell Mathis in the primary last spring, said the local fundraising effort "was not for Gerald McCathern but for you. We are taking the seat in Congress back to the people, the people who have lost their seat in Congress, back from the traders, bankers and industrialists who control our seat now. We've got to regain that seat and I'm optimistic we can do it."

"It's easy to see in a hurry this guy we have in Washington now ain't a George Mahon or even a Kent Hance. He has no feeling, doesn't understand what his people in his district want, and doesn't care about what his district wants."

McCathern pointed out that Combest had eight opportunities last year to vote in favor "of something other than $3 corn, and not only voted but spoke against it. He consistently voted against better bills, knowing it was wrong but doing it anyway."

"We have to have a big turnout. I don't think we'll have a problem, but you never know what's going to happen in Lubbock. If we have a large turnout in our rural areas, we can overcome what happens in Lubbock on Nov. 4."

Pot pilot arrested in California case

40-year-old William Scott Little, who was found guilty in 1979 after his airplane, carrying more than 530 pounds of marijuana, crashed in a western Castro County field, has been arrested and jailed in Santa Clara County, California, on charges of sale of cocaine.

Charges in California include delivery of cocaine on two separate occasions in June, 1986 to undercover agents, leaving Santa Cruz County, Cal., without permission, and associating with persons of disreputable character. Little has given addresses of Watsonville and San Jose, Cal., prior to his recent arrest, and listed his occupation as a charter pilot at the time of his arrest.

Four other defendants were jailed along with Little on charges of sale of cocaine and commission of drug offenses while armed with a handgun.

County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis said reports from California indicated Little showed California narcotics agents a clipping from Playboy magazine that told about how he crashed into what he thought was his landing spot in a playa lake bed. Actually, the lights Little saw were from spelunker's hats worn by students from Texas Tech University who were conducting research on pheasants.

Little was found guilty in an October, 1979 trial for possession and transport of the marijuana, and punishment was set at 10 years probation, a $5,000 fine and court costs. Little had recently attempted to secure an early release from the probation terms, but those efforts were blocked by Davis and officials of the Adult Probation office, and Davis said the county has made application to revoke the probation.

Little reportedly told California officials the value of the marijuana in his plane in 1979 was over $400,000, and that he had "to be careful with his sales because of his past," Davis said.

Wilson announces write-in candidacy

Long-time Precinct 2 Commissioner Edd Wilson has announced he will be a write-in candidate for the commissioner's post in the Nov. 4 general election.

Wilson filed for the post Sept. 5 with County Judge Polly Simpson.

Former Commissioner Dale Winders edged Wilson in the May 3 Democratic primary to earn a spot on the general election ballot. Winders has no Republican opponent on the ballot.

"With Kent Hance running for the Republican nomination for governor in the primary elections, a lot of our people voted in the Republican primary to help Kent who normally would have voted in the Democratic primary," Wilson said. "I think that if Kent hadn't been running, I would have been elected in the Democratic primary. Because of that situation, I've had a lot of people encourage me to run as a write-in candidate in the general election."

Wilson has served the past 12 years in the spot. Before Wilson was elected, Winders had served two terms in the post.

Wilson filed as a write-in candidate by using notarized forms provided by the state's attorney general's office. Simpson in turn filed Wilson's papers with the county clerk. The filing made Wilson a valid candidate, although his name will not appear on the ballot.

Wilson said the statutes require a write-in candidate to declare his intentions by filing with the county judge at least 55 days before the general election.

N-Waste group forms coalition

Spearheaded by the local Nuclear Waste Task Force, a national Nuclear Waste Task Force, combining the efforts of several groups, has been organized to help halt funding for the nation's first high-level, permanent nuclear waste repository.

Delbert Devin, head of the Texas Nuclear Waste Task Force headquartered in Dimmitt, announced the new organization Wednesday.

"The task force hopes to inspire the members of Congress from all states to work together in support of cutbacks in first- and second-round repositories and Monitored Retrievable Storage (MRS) facilities, and thus avoid a showdown between states."

The group is currently supporting a bill in the Senate Appropriations Committee to reduce the level of funding in the Dept. of Energy's 1987 budget to $380 million.

Devin said the reduction to $380 million is being sought because:

*Policies and expediency, not science, have directed DOE screening for all waste facility sites;

*Flawed siting processes will likely lead to selection of technically flawed sites;

*A one-year suspension of nuclear waste program siting activities is necessary for Congress and the courts to evaluate whether current DOE programs are in keeping with federal law, and to decide whether changes are warranted.

"Citizen groups long concerned about DOE high-level waste siting activities in their own states have banded together to demand scientific excellence in the overall program and a fair siting process for all," Devin said. "No state is safe under the current DOE program."

"The funding cutback would prevent site-specific work on the first and second repositories and on the MRS facility planned for Tennessee," said Caroline Petti of the Southwest Research and Information Center, who will represent the group in the nation's capital. "It will send a clear signal to the DOE that Congress does not approve of its 'scoff-at-the-law' approach to siting waste facilities."

Founding organizations include 27 groups from 14 states.

GARBAGE IN, FLYSWATTER OUT—Anne Acker of the News prepares to attack her new computer terminal Tuesday afternoon. News staffers learned GIGO was true after two days of intense training Thursday and Friday and two days of intense headaches Monday and Tuesday.

If you've already noticed something different about this week's issue of the News, congratulations. You're seeing the latest in newspaper technology, being used for the first time in a weekly newspaper in Northwest Texas.

The News is the first weekly newspaper in this region of the state to use a totally computerized system for news, and will soon be adding the advertising, classified, and business sections to the new operation, which was designed and installed by Titus Communications of Dallas.

The system includes software packages for all newspaper business, news and production aspects, IBM personal computers, and an Apple LaserSetter Plus. The LaserSetter Plus is capable of producing 32 different typefaces in a wide variety of sizes.

Let the record show that Saturday's weather was perfect for the biggest day of Harvest Days 1986.

The early-morning cool mist was just what the runners wanted, and they ran as if they could go forever. The mist was a little frustrating for the race officials, though — Jim Killingsworth said his tally sheet was so wet by the end of the race he could barely write on it.

Then it cleared up for the parade, which was a really good one again this year, and stayed balmy for the rest of the day's events.

Oh, sure, those entered in the paper-plane throwing contest at the "I.T." (Insane Things) competition groused about having to sail their craft into a fairly stiff westerly breeze toward the target. But who ever said the I.T. competition was fair? Beth Buckley scored big with her spear-shaped paper rockets, didn't she? Truly, American ingenuity prevailed. (Which makes me wonder: Why didn't any of the teams try to sneak some hard-boiled eggs into the egg-tossing contest? Where's your sense of unfair advantage, you guys?)

The Zaniest New Idea Award for Harvest Days 1986 goes to the three-wheeler rodeo. It was well planned, well run, noisy as a tunnel full of glass-packs, and was a real blast for the kids.

The Follies, the fair, the Old Settlers' Reunion, the special programs, the music and dancing, the pet show and kids' games, the food, all were just great. Thanks to everyone who helped make it all happen!

I got to watch all three of my favorite teams play Friday night—something I can do only when the Longhorns and Swifts play each other on the same night that the Bobcats play at home.

I shot pictures of the first half of the Dimmitt-Slaton game, and knew they'd never catch us after Todd Durham kicked his second-quarter field goal. (Do you believe that?)

At halftime I headed Hartward, and since that game was running a little behind the Dimmitt game, I was able to see and shoot the entire second half of it.

And I have to tell you, I am

Pinning ceremony is Wednesday

A traditional pinning ceremony has been slated for Wednesday at 9 p.m. at Bobcat Stadium as part of next week's Homecoming activities.

Special events are slated throughout the week, with the DHS Student Council scheduled to meet today to decide the final schedule of "spirit days" during the week.

The DHS Flame King and Queen are to be crowned at the Wednesday ceremonies and the Homecoming Queen will be named at the pep rally next Friday afternoon.

Homecoming week activities will also include a reunion for the DHS Class of 1956 and Class of 1966. The Class of 1966 will be honored at the pep rally next Friday.

Friday features tough opponents

The Hart Longhorns put their undefeated record on the line Friday at Muleshoe, while the Dimmitt Bobcats host River Road and Nazareth's Swifts host the Sudan Hornets.

All three games begin at 8 p.m.

River Road at Dimmitt

Every time the Bobcats and Wildcats have squared off in the past, it's been a nailbiter, and this Friday's contest at Bobcat Stadium should prove to be another barn-burner.

"At least it's always been exciting in the past," said Dimmitt coach Clifford Smith. "Last week was a big win for us, and it gave us loads of confidence. We made tremendous strides on both offense and

VICTORY! — Hart's Longhorns celebrate at midfield Friday night after their hard-fought 31-27 victory over the visiting Nazareth Swifts. The win ended a long losing streak for the Longhorns, and left Hart undefeated, while the Swifts are 1-1 so far. Both teams are highly ranked in their respective districts — Hart in 3-2A and Nazareth is 1-A North.

The Harvest Days celebration had to go on without me this time, but I am sure it was a big success! Since I was planning to be out of town over the weekend Wanda Murdock and I had a sneak preview of the Follies at dress rehearsal night Thursday. The program was a good show of talent and much hard work and long hours. As always, the children stole the show!

The Hospital Auxiliary met at Rhoads Memorial Library Wednesday morning for a brunch and their first Fall meeting. Mary Emma Matthews presided, Nell Ingram gave out the awards, Claudine Langford gave a report of the State Convention that she and Loranel Hamilton and Mary Emma attended. The new administrator at Plains Memorial Hospital spoke on the hospital situation and future plans. The hostesses served party sandwiches, fruit breads, and doughnuts, orange juice and coffee to members and several guests. The centerpiece was a fresh flower arrangement of pink and white carnations. Bea Hardy and Mattie Seale showed the quilt and wall hanging that the members made and was given during the Harvest Days celebration.

Ruby Ramsey usually entertains a houseful of relatives but last weekend she just had her granddaughter, Sonya Andrews, from Lubbock. They attended the Follies and church and had fun just visiting.

The Dimmitt Book Club met at Rhoads Memorial Library Wednesday afternoon for their first Fall meeting. Diane Townsend presided over the business meeting and Teresa Criswell read the minutes of the last meeting in May. Irene Blanton's guest reviewer was Marie Howell, who read two stories "Llerena Friend" and "Lorece Williams" from the book "Growing Up in Texas." Oleta Walser and Esta Vandiver served Neiman-Marcus cake squares and coffee from a pretty table with a dainty silk flower arrangement.

Odie Mundell from Roswell, N.M., and her daughter, Leta Tubbs of Dallas, and Odie's sister, Wilma Crutchfield of Amarillo, all met in Dimmitt and visited with Cora West. They enjoyed all the activities at the Castro County Fair, the Follies, and they attended church Sunday morning and Sunday evening. They enjoyed the Dobson Film that was shown before the evening services. Odie and Velma Woodburn came together to Dimmitt.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a day of bridge with Bernice Hill as hostess. Susie Reeves won high score and Emily Clingsmith won second high. Others playing were: Ferne Dickey, Elizabeth Huckabay, Alice Collyer, Virginia Crider and Era Heckerson.

The R.V. Good Sam Club spent an enjoyable weekend at the Primitive Baptist Foundation in Cone. The meeting was held in the old school building that was built in 1923. The group is called the Mini-Samborne for Texas Areas Nine. There were 100 campers and over 200 people attending. All proceeds went to the Lubbock State School to buy an electric wheelchair. There was all types of entertainment all weekend.

The guest speaker was Billy Sims. A film on the Lubbock State School was shown. They played table games and took time out for a business meeting. On Saturday night the Cecil Caldwell Band from Lubbock entertained the group with old songs including waltzes. Muffins and coffee were served each morning. Saturday the dinner was catered by Hens and Fins of Lubbock. On Sunday morning they had a devotional. The members from Dimmitt were J.C. and Rhoda Mays, Arthur and Melvina Oakley and from Hereford Clint and Dorothy Lundry, Roy and Leta Campbell, Ted and Virginia Summers, Mildred and Bert Brown, Howard and Mary Jean Gore and Pinky and Irene Matthews. There were others from Tulia, Plainview, Littlefield and other surrounding towns.

The joint Baptist and Methodist Children's Choirs met for the first time Wednesday in their preparation for a musical to be performed about Nov. 23. Watch for publicity of the event.

The Hereford and Dimmitt members met at the Y Park south of Dimmitt. This event was sponsored by the Prairie Dog Sons of Lubbock. J.C. and Rhoda Mays won the door prize which was an electric car polisher. (Don't work too hard, J.C.)

The Hendrix Family held their reunion in Slaton and Post over the weekend. I went to Amarillo first, attended the Amarillo-Pampa football game to watch my granddaughter, Lauren, march in the band. Saturday morning Bill, Mary Lynn and Lauren Lankford, Kevin, Neely, Adria, Matt and David Lankford and I drove to Lubbock where we picked up David, Sue, and Brent Vaughan at the airport. We drove on to Slaton where we met all the other members of the Hendrix family. The Saturday meal was catered and we served chips and dips for the evening meal. Two birthday cakes were served, one with "40" for Sue and two candles on another cake for David Lankford. The group sang "Happy Birthday" to them. All 12 in my little family stayed with a niece and her family out west of Post in a beautiful home on their farm. We enjoyed visiting in their pretty landscaped backyard with a gazebo, swimming pool and pretty flowers and trees. We all went back to Post for lunch on Sunday. Cake and cookies and homemade ice cream was served for dessert. Relatives came from Carlsbad and Roswell, N.M., Goodwell, Okla., Lakeside and Phoenix, Ariz., Layton, Utah, Whitesboro, N.Y., and Houston, Austin, Lubbock, Post, Amarillo, Richardson, Slaton, Dallas, Knox City, Olney, Hico, O'Brien, and Dimmitt. I stayed in Amarillo Sunday night since Mary Lynn's church choir presented a special "God's Trombones."

This was an evening of Spirituals, with Lanny Allen directing. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Darryl Baergen from Oklahoma. Janice Davis and David Lowe were at the piano and organ, James Beckham, percussion, and Stephanie Bowen at the harp.

The program consisted of a prayer, "The Creation," "Go Down Death," "The Judgment Day," "A Prayer and the Crucifixion." The last songs, "Were You There?" and "Lord, I want to be a Christian," which were very impressive.

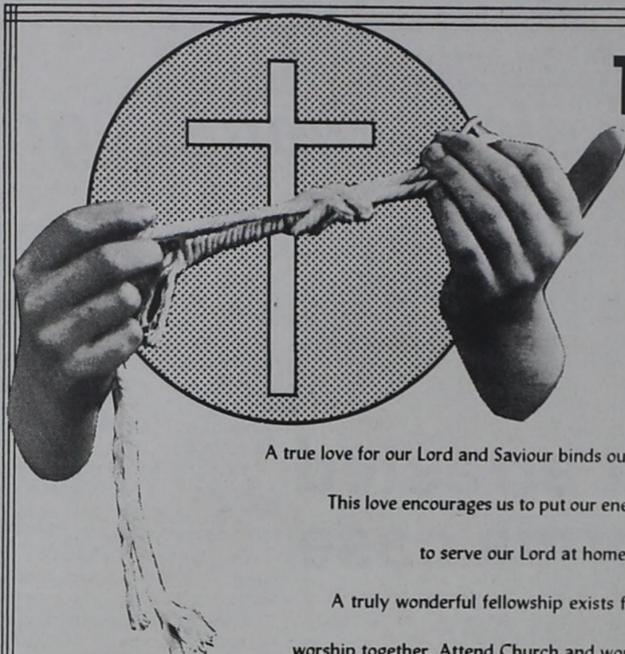

David and Sandra Honea of Dumas spent the weekend with their parents, C.A. and Oleada Hance, and sister, Martha and Jake Isaacs.

Reta Welch recently spent some time in Boston waiting the arrival of a new grandchild. While waiting she enjoyed the sights of Boston and Massachusetts with her daughter Sharon and son-in-law Pack. She especially enjoyed watching the people at Harvard Square. Also enjoyed the beautiful coast and ocean at Gloucester. Rhonda, Reta's other daughter, joined them at Gloucester for a weekend of sailing and wind surfing.

Aug. 13, Zoe Elizabeth Matthews Welch arrived. The rest of the visit was spent taking care of and getting to know the new granddaughter. The granddaughter is beautiful and the parents are doing fine also. Reta just happens to have lots of pictures (typical grandmother). Understand James was also showing some pictures.

The TIE that binds

A true love for our Lord and Saviour binds our hearts in Christian love.

This love encourages us to put our energies and efforts together to serve our Lord at home, at work, and at Church.

A truly wonderful fellowship exists for those who believe and worship together. Attend Church and worship with kindred minds.

"That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

We Salute Walt and Virginia

Dimmitt is blessed with many really fine, hard working, low profile type people . . . people who go about their business in such a manner that we rarely ever hear anything about them. They raise their children, work hard at their jobs, pay their bills, and strive to be good citizens . . . Walt and Virginia Hansen fall into this category.

Walt and Virginia are natives of the Panhandle and South Plains area coming to Castro County in 1956, five years after their marriage. In 1967, they moved to Dimmitt with their three children, Barbara, Debbie and Kirk.

Virginia's friends and acquaintances are generous in their praise and admiration. She is loved and respected and admired by those with whom she is associated. Part of this admiration and respect stems from the fact that she is so willing to do anything she is asked without complaint and not only do it, but give it her very best. Virginia is a very positive person. Those closest to her have never heard her make a negative comment about anyone . . . just the opposite, she can find something good about everyone and every situation.

We know that there is not a single person in Dimmitt that has not been on the receiving end of Walt Hansen's generosity. His commitment to this community is an inspiration to us all. His unselfish contribution of time and money and commodities have touched everyone in this community. Every organization, whether civic, religious, service, or athletic have been on the receiving end of Walt's generosity. These contributions are made without publicity or fanfare. They are not made by some organization but through this dedicated individual. Walt feels a real commitment to this community and it shows in everything he does. We would all do well to take lessons from this man. Walt has taken a position of leadership in Dimmitt, serving on the board of directors for the Chamber of Commerce on two occasions and on the finance committee in the Methodist church. He is also a member of the Lions Club and was awarded Citizen of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce in 1975.

Walt and Virginia came to a new community some 20 years ago, not to see what they could get out of it, but what they could give to it. Their many contributions make this community a better place in which to live.

County grand jury indicts five

Five persons were indicted last week by the Castro County Grand Jury at the courthouse in Dimmitt.

Victor Aleman Martinez was indicted for the Aug. 20 burglary of the Mini-Mart on East Bedford. The 19-year-old was also indicted for the Aug. 25 burglary of the Castro County Recreation Association.

Jose Serbantes Ortega, 27, of Dimmitt, and Ismael Munoz Casillas, 30, of Dimmitt, were each indicted for a third offense of driving while intoxicated.

Joe Ramirez, 25, of Hart, was indicted for indecency with a child by exposure as the result of a June 20 incident. According to County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis, four minor children were removed from Ramirez' home under court order prior to the return of the indictment, and the Texas Dept. of Human Services still has conservatorship through the district court.

Jose Juan Astorga, 19, of Earth, was indicted for passing a forged instrument at Falcon's Beer and Wine on June 7. Astorga remains in the Lamb County Jail pending similar charges in Littlefield.

In another case, heard in district court here, Jesse Garibaldi, 23, was sentenced to serve the balance of his sentence on a burglary charge after a recent DWI arrest, a violation of his probation.

Overcooking pork for safety is not necessary

Overcooking pork as a safety measure is no longer necessary, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutrition specialist.

The Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) of the US Dept. of Agriculture recommends cooking pork to an internal temperature of 160°, says Dr. Dymple Cooksey.

The FSIS says that today's pork is safe when cooked to "medium doneness." Its previous recommendation was for the meat to be cooked until "well done" at 170°.

Cooksey reports that FSIS officials consider 137°F as the temperature at which Trichinella Spiralis, a parasite that may be present in .1% of the pork supply, is destroyed instantly.

"The new recommendation should encourage consumers to enjoy today's tender, flavorful pork without overcooking," she says. "Since pork today is much leaner than it used to be, it also cooks quicker."

Cotton program is working

Contrary to numerous detractors in the media, the current cotton program is working as intended and if left alone will continue to do so.

That's the consensus view of almost all if not all professional, academic and government analysts who understand the real source of the cotton industry's ailments, say officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. in Lubbock. "And there's new supporting evidence for that view almost daily," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson.

The industry can be propped up to an extent by makeshift manipulations, but nothing fundamentally good is going to happen to US cotton until the heavy burden of excess US and world supplies is lifted, Johnson maintains.

"That requires an increase in US cotton marketings at the expense of foreign competitors, which in due time will force a decrease in foreign production," he says. "And that's exactly what the cotton program was designed to do."

For the most recent and most compelling evidence that the program is doing its job, Johnson points to the latest issue of USDA's "Cotton and Wool Situation and Outlook."

USDA reports that 1986-87 exports of US cotton are expected to reach 6.2 million bales, more than triple the 1985-86 level. As of Aug. 21, with the program in full effect less than a month, export sales for 1986-87 delivery already totaled 3.7 million bales compared to less than two million exported in all of the previous year. With almost all of these sales set for delivery in calendar 1986, leaving seven months before the end of the marketing year Aug. 1, 1987, some industry analysts think USDA's 6.2 million bale projection falls well short of actual export potential.

The report puts US exports at 29% of the expected world export total, an increase of 19% over 1985-86. Major losses of export market share are expected to fall on the Soviet Union, China and Pakistan, together dropping from 42% to 34%; Africa from 18% to 13%, and Latin American countries from 12% to 7%.

On the domestic scene mill use of cotton in 1986-87 is expected to reach 6.8 million bales, up 8% from the 6.2 million consumed in 1985-86 and the highest in 12 years. This would bring the year's total offtake to 13 million, nearly 60% above last year and among the largest volumes seen in the past 20 years.

This offtake and a 10.5 million-bale current year crop will bring the US carryover on Aug. 1, 1987 down to seven million, about 25% below the 1986 year-end surplus.

Johnson gives due credit to Cotton Incorporated's consumer demand-increasing work for a part of the growth in domestic consumption, but says "most of this would not be happening without the competitive pricing of US cotton made possible by the current cotton law."

impressed with both the Longhorns and the Swifts. Both teams have a really potent scoring punch, and it was a well-played, exciting game. I think the Swifts and Longhorns will both go into the playoffs this year.

The young - but - big Bobcats showed definite improvement Friday night. Mark my words—if the kids keep working, and listen to their coaches, they're going to surprise somebody this year. (Remember the 25-0 win over undefeated Morton two years ago, and the 14-14 tie with state-ranked Littlefield last year?)

How do you stop your son from being continually late to school? Just buy him a car. Then he'll have to leave early every morning to find a parking space.

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1986

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 15 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to provide by general law for the apportionment of the value of railroad rolling stock among the counties in which the property of the railroad is located for purposes of property taxation, and would delete the requirement that the Comptroller participate in making the allocation. To comply with both statutory and constitutional law, the apportionment currently is being made by the State Property Tax Board in conjunction with the Comptroller.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to provide by general law for the apportionment of the value of railroad rolling stock among counties for purposes of property taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 33 proposes a constitutional amendment that would replace the constitutional requirement that the subject of a bill be expressed in its title with a mandate that each house of the legislature adopt rules of procedure that would require the subject of each bill to be expressed in its title in a manner that gives the legislature and the public reasonable notice of that subject. Determining compliance with the rule would be the responsibility of the legislature. Currently, a law is invalidated if a court finds its caption is defective. The amendment would provide that past and future enactments may not be held void on the basis of an insufficient title.

The amendment also would eliminate the suggestion that the state's laws be revised every ten years, and instead would provide for continuing revision of state laws.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment requiring each house to include in its rules of procedure a rule that each bill contain a title expressing the bill's subject, and providing for the continuing revision of state laws."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 73 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the Legislature to authorize any county, city, town, or other political subdivision to use public funds or credit to pay insurance premiums on nonassessable life, health, or accident policies. Due to the prohibition in the constitution against the lending of credit and granting of public money, political subdivisions currently are prohibited from becoming shareholders in associations such as mutual-insurance companies, in which policyholders are shareholders. A nonassessable mutual insurance policy does not allow a company to raise capital by assessing the policyholder an extra amount on a premium. This amendment will allow mutual insurance companies and stock companies to bid for life and health group policies of political subdivisions. Public liability will be limited to the payment of premiums specified in the contract.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment allowing political subdivisions the opportunity to engage in and transact business with authorized mutual insurance companies in the same manner as with other insurance companies."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would repeal the prohibition against branch banking by state banks and would allow state banks and national banks domiciled in this state to establish and operate banking facilities at locations within the county or city where they are domiciled. The amendment would also authorize the Legislature to permit a state bank or a national bank domiciled in this state to engage in business at more than one place if it acquires a failed state bank or national bank domiciled in this state.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide that a bank may offer full service banking at more than one location within the city or county where its principal facility is located, subject to limitations and restrictions provided by law."

Exercise, nutrition important in physical fitness programs

Exercise and nutrition go hand in hand in a good fitness program, yet, many people abandon the rules of good nutrition when they begin an exercise regime, according to Addison A. Taylor, M.D., president of the Texas Affiliate of the American Heart Association.

The body cannot function without a well-balanced mixture of fuel and Dr. Taylor says that a number of misconceptions exist when it comes to the nutritional needs of physically active people.

What you eat enhances your fitness program. A nutritious and healthy balanced diet, according to the American Heart Association, is one that includes low-fat meats, fish and low-fat dairy products combined with complex carbohydrates such as whole grain breads and cereals, starchy vegetables, and legumes; less sugar; less salt; and adequate water (six to eight glasses per day).

Some of the misconceptions existing about the nutritional needs of physically active people and the facts that dispell them, according to the AHA, are:

MYTH: You need more protein when you exercise. FACT: Exercising on a regular basis does not increase your body's need for protein. On the contrary, active people require a fairly high carbohydrate diet to supply necessary energy for exercising.

MYTH: Foods with sugar are a quick source of energy when you exercise or are engaged in sports. FACT: Sugar is a source of fuel, but it takes 20 to 30 minutes before its energy becomes available to muscles.

MYTH: Salt tablets are beneficial for replacing sodium lost in sweat. FACT: Generally, sodium lost during exercise is best replaced at the next normal meal. Salt tablets are NOT recommended because excessive salt intake puts extra burdens on kidneys. Commercial "thirst quenchers," which contain large amounts of both sodium and sugar generally are not recommended.

MYTH: Restricted fluid intake when exercising. FACT: Water is essential to digestion, metabolism and waste removal and should not be restricted.

MYTH: Regular exercise increases appetites and is not beneficial to weight loss. FACT: Moderate exercise actually improves appetite in most people on low-calorie diets.

MYTH: When you exercise, you don't have to worry about cholesterol; exercise burns cholesterol. FACT: Exercise may increase the level of "good" cholesterol, but it does not significantly lower total serum cholesterol. Low-fat, low-cholesterol diets are important in reducing the blood cholesterol of most people.

One inch of rain was recorded for Saturday night or early Sunday morning. It was enough all over the community to stop the corn harvest which had just started this week. Sunnyside Grain and Supply got their first load Monday. It came in from Byer's Farms and tested 25 moisture. Farmer's Grain Leg received their first load Tuesday, brought in by Bob Cleavinger.

Alton and Betty Louder and Milburn and Janelle Haydon attended the graveside services for Charles White of Littlefield in the Springlake Cemetery Sept. 2. He was a cousin who was raised on the Lamb-Castro County line east of SH 385. His brother, Ernest, who lived with him for many years died a few years ago. Their brother, Frank, also lived in Sunnyside at the time of the tornado in 1960.

Willa Mae Sadler and other members of the Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary attended the memorial rites for Sue Miller in Hereford Saturday morning. Sue had put in many hours of work with the auxiliary, but would not keep a record of her hours so they honored her by wearing their "pink lady" uniforms.

Ardis Conner was an usher at the double wedding of his cousins, Janie Lorena and Lisa Gaye Moree in the First Baptist Church in Springlake, recently. He also escorted their mother, Mrs. Hollis Moree.

Kathy Gwyn and Holly took Karen Stewart, Tammy Smith, Erin and Robin Bridges and Christi Gwyn to the youth rally at the First Baptist Church in Dimmitt Saturday night.

Lacy Louder modeled for Tots and Teens at the Style Show at the Expo building Friday. Willie Mae Sadler helped man the Hospital Auxiliary booth at the fair.

Alton and Betty Louder and probably others from the community attended the Flatland Bluegrass band concert at the Expo building Saturday afternoon.

Coby Gilbreath participated in the Follies Saturday and Sunday. he was in the production of "Snow White."

Patricia Powell of Canadian came Monday afternoon and visited with Ezell and Verba Sadler through Friday night. Verba helped her with some work on her house at Dimmitt. Patricia visited Monday evening with Larry Sadler, Laura and Matthew and L.B. and Teeny Bowden since Ezell and Verba had gone to Clovis, N.M. for the fiddlers group music when she arrived. She and Verba visited with the Bowdens again Friday night.

Stacy Norman and Jeremy came home with Sharon Sadler from Farmington, N.M. to stay a few days with the Sadlers.

Renee DeGreat of Earth spent the weekend with Monica and Tammy Smith and their mother, Alice.

L.B. Bowden got a good report from his surgeon last Thursday morning, and his colon and kidney doctors this week, but had to come home to Dr. Murphy, who gets him through his emergencies, to check his pancreas enzymes. Both doctors thought the other was checking this week, but neither checked.

Rev. Bentley and Kathy Gwyn, Christi and Holly spent Friday night through Saturday noon with his aunts, Margaret and Evelyn Boone in Snyder.

Christi performed with the Springlake-Earth Jr. High cheerleaders at a scrimmage game with Farwell at Farwell last Saturday. Rev. Bentley and Kathy and Holly watched both the game and her performance.

Rev. Bentley Gwyn gave an emphasis on the Mary Hill Davis State Mission Week of Prayer in the morning service Sunday and a goal was set for the church in the business meeting following the Sunday night service. Instead of a specific figure, each individual will give what they can toward starting one of the 2,000 new churches which is the goal for Texas, or a dollar toward starting each of them, or as many as possible.

Eulless Waggoner and Sandra Waggoner, Laura, Susan and John attended the Old Settlers Reunion in Dimmitt Saturday.

Cinnamon Cox participated with the Dimmitt High School twirlers at the Bobcat game with Slaton Friday night.

June Carroll and a friend from Anton visited Saturday afternoon with Verba Sadler.

Roger Sanders flew to Van Horn Friday on business.

Our word admiral comes from the Arabic phrase "Amir 'a ali," which means a man in high authority.

Police calls

Investigations are continuing into the early morning break-in at Western Foods east of the Dimmitt city limits on Monday.

According to reports an unknown person or persons entered the building and damaged several items. They reportedly smashed a telephone into several pieces with a club, used a cutting torch to cut the lock on the coke machine, broke several water and air lines going to brine tanks and started a fork lift, put it in reverse and backed it into an overhead door.

They then illegally entered the office building and opened the safe, removing approximately $55. Reports reveal that the alleged perpetrator(s) had to know the combination to the safe because it had not been forced open.

Four windows on the east side of the building and two windows on the north side had been broken. The knobs of both outside doors were also damaged.

Officials at Western Foods also reported a burglary sometime between Aug. 23 and Aug. 24.

An unknown person or persons reportedly entered the building via a conveyor belt going through a window.

The lock on the coke machine had been broken and approximately $100 in change was removed.

Officials believe the intruders then exited the building through a small west door.

Employees at Nelson Drilling and Pump Service also reported being burglarized and vandalized in two separate incidents.

In the early morning hours on Sept. 7, someone entered the fenced in area of Nelson Drilling and Pump Service and damaged several items totalling over $700.

Two days later, sometime between Sept. 9 and Sept. 10, someone had removed a white Chevrolet pickup from the fenced in yard at the business.

The chain-link fence surrounding the yard had been cut and the pickup was believed to have been driven over the cut portion of the fence.

Mae Taylor told police someone had taken her lawn mower from her front porch at 403 SW Third.

The lawn mower had been sitting on the north end of the west porch on Sunday and was missing Monday evening.

Police also investigated two minor accidents during the past week.

Crime Line

Castro County Crime Line is offering a $300 reward for information leading to the arrest and indictment of the person or persons responsible for the burglary of the Dr. R.H. Cox residence, 5 1/4 miles south of Flagg on Sept. 5.

Approximately $1900 in property was reported missing in the burglary and $200 in damage was reported.

According to officials, the culprits gained entrance to the house by breaking a window on the west side of the house that led into Dr. Cox's office.

They entered the master bedroom and removed 30 to 40 pounds of ammunition and a pearl-handled revolver from the closet.

The culprits took a 25 inch color television set from the living room. Investigations revealed the doors on an entertainment center in the living room were open and part of the satellite system was laying on the floor.

Further investigations revealed a 13 inch color television sitting on a counter top in the kitchen was missing.

Other items reported missing in the burglary included an Olympus OM10 with brown camera bag, zoom lens and 2X multiplier, a 12 gauge Remington pump shotgun, a Winchester .22 rifle and various ammunition.

Anyone with information in the case should call crime line at 647-4711. Callers will remain anonymous.

Prepare children for journeys to school

For young children, the first weeks of school can be an exciting time—so exciting that they may entirely forget all the safety warnings you've been teaching them. The Texas Medical Association says there are ways to make sure your child is prepared for a safe journey to and from school.

The first step is to decide whether your child will walk or ride to school. Consider factors such as traffic, distance and your child's maturity. Is your child old enough to walk to school by himself? Does he or she know the rules of traffic and safe crossing? If you do decide to let your child walk, you may want to contact other parents in your area and find a "buddy" for your child to walk with.

Select a safe route. Look at traffic flow, crossings, busy parking lots, blind alleys, garage entrances and exits. Choose the least dangerous path, even if it's a little longer.

Take the walk with your child at least a few times to let him learn familiar landmarks. Point out hazards along the way and explain the dangers to your child. Be sure to tell him not to talk to strangers or get into a stranger's car. Remind your child that crossing guards are there for children's safety and should be obeyed.

If your child is going to school by city bus, take a few rides beforehand so he can become familiar with the route. Make certain your child knows the name of his stop and what it looks like. Also, agree on a procedure to be followed if your child misses a bus or gets lost.

If your child is traveling by school bus, find out the driver's name. It will make your child more comfortable if the driver is a "real person" to him.

Be sure you know the length of time it takes your child to get home so you'll know when to expect him. And remember that most children need reminders about safety particularly during those first few weeks of school.

CofC opposes nuclear dump

The Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce board took a stand last Thursday against the establishment of a high-level nuclear waste dump in this area.

The Chamber board had discussed the issue earlier, but had postponed action until Chamber members could be polled about their feelings.

Chamber Manager Delores Heller reported that the survey showed 64 members opposed to a nuclear waste dump, six in favor and two undecided.

NISD lowers tax rate

The Nazareth Independent School District Board of Trustees met in regular session Sept. 10 and agreed to lower the interest and sinking rate by 4.95 cents.

The fund reportedly has sufficient money to meet this year's commitments, therefore, there will be a "0" bond rate for the 1986-87 school year. It was 10 cents last year.

The 1965 Bond Issue was paid off with the last payment in July. This lowers the school's commitment by approximately 5 cents. With the balance in the fund, the Board said they felt they should pass the savings on to the tax payers this year.

The board also discussed the bonuses for the principals and superintendent. Some adjustments were made with others to be considered when proper certification is received from the Texas Education Agency.

They also discussed adjustments on coaches salaries, and no adjustments were made on their bonuses at the time.

The board also agreed to make no adjustments to the teachers bonuses for the 1986-87 school year. They will remain the same as in 1985-86.

In other action the board voted to send a bus to the Texas Prison System for a complete reconditioning, including seat belts; approved the athletic training rules for the year; joined PAASB and voted to attend the meeting set for today; approved the puppet program in grades K-6 sponsored by the Lions Club; agreed to check into the installation of a push-button phone system for the school; and agreed to instruct architect Tom Mills of Lubbock to call for bids to re-roof the gym.

Durham boots Bobcats to 3-0 win

If you are one of those folks who saw the Dimmitt Bobcats play at Roosevelt last week and saw the 38-12 pasting applied, come on back.

Evidently, that was a busload of imposters that donned Dimmitt jerseys the first night of the year. Dimmitt had shown some glimpses of offense in their scrimmages, then not a thing against Roosevelt. But last Friday, at home against the Slaton Tigers, the Bobcats showed enough offense, lots of defensive determination, and a season's worth of breaks and good bounces to post a 3-0 win over Slaton.

The win evened the Bobcats' season record at 1-1, while the Tigers fell to 0-1-1.

The win was a near-miss for the Bobcats — Slaton had a 90-yard halfback pass for a touchdown called back for having an ineligible receiver downfield, and looked to have the ball deep in Dimmitt territory late in the fourth quarter after recovering a fumble.

However, the fumble recovery was wiped out by a flagrant facemask penalty which gave the Bobcats not just possession of the football but a first down, while insuring the Tigers of having to wait at least a week before entering the win column in 1986.

Things looked bad from the outset for the Bobcats, when they fumbled the opening kickoff and Slaton recovered at the Dimmitt 23. Slaton, however, picked up the first of 14 flags when they were whistled for illegal procedure. The Tigers never recovered from the loss, and, when quarterback Michael Cone slipped down while attempting to pass on fourth-and-10, the biggest threat of the night for the Tigers was over.

Late in the quarter, the Bobcats were pinned by a Tom Shelton punt at the Dimmitt 1, but were able to reach the Slaton 35 before being forced to punt early in the second stanza. Punter Todd Durham's first kick, a 61-yarder, was called back because of offsetting fouls. Durham's next punt was a yard better, though.

Much like the Roosevelt game, when the Bobcats scored two touchdowns thanks to their kicking game and special teams play, the Bobcats were able to strike moments later.

Slaton stalled at the Tiger 11, and Milton Carrasco partially blocked Shelton's punt with the ball finally fielded at the Slaton 18. The Bobcats were twice penalized during the possession, but a defensive holding call helped the Bobcats to a first down at the eight. The second of the 10-yard flags, both for holding, kept the Bobcats from gaining ground,

STACKING HIM UP — Dimmitt's Kevin Petty (25) and Scott Killough (85) rush in to help teammate Mark West stop Slaton's James Cavanaugh at the Slaton 11, two yards short of a first down, on a third-and-4 play during the second quarter of the Bobcats' home opener Friday night. Coming in at right is Dimmitt's Todd Durham, whose field goal made the difference as the Bobcats won, 3-0. Although a Jerry Gonzales reach-behind grab of a Ricky Zimmer pass moved the Bobcats to the 10, Slaton recovered an onside-kick attempt at the Dimmitt 48, but cornerback Jim Nelson picked off a pass three plays later to give the 'Horns break drought with 31-27 victory

In one of the most wide-open games ever in this rivalry, the Hart Longhorns ended a five-year losing skein with a 31-27 come-from-behind win over the Nazareth Swifts Friday at Hart.

Combining 189 yards rushing by tailback Johnny Washington and a halfback pass for three touchdowns, or 202 passing yards from Nazareth quarterback Chris Schmucker, it was about as exciting a game as you'd want to see.

"Oh, it was probably a super game to watch from the stands," said Hart coach Mark Stroebel. "It was tough to watch from the sidelines, but it was probably a great one for the spectators."

After holding the Swifts on their first possession, the Longhorns marched from their own 42 to the Nazareth 2, where a holding penalty stopped Hart's momentum. Cecil Diaz put the 'Horns on the board with a 25-yard field goal midway through the first quarter.

Nazareth came right back, driving 65 yards before Schmucker ran for a three-yard score with just 15 seconds left in the quarter. The quarterback then added the PAT kick to give the Swifts a 7-3 lead at the end of the quarter.

The early part of the second quarter was penalty-plagued, but the Longhorns got untracked first when Washington scored the first of his two rushing touchdowns on a 16-yard scamper. The Longhorns were flagged for being offside on the PAT try, and a pass for two points was blocked by Todd Hill.

Nazareth came storming back again to grab the lead just before

for good in the third quarter, with Brett Ritter hitting tight end Paul Ramirez on a 6-yard scoring toss to give the Longhorns a 17-14 lead after a successful two-point PAT run by Chris Rodriguez.

Nazareth fumbled deep in its own territory three plays later, and the 'Horns struck quickly. Washington broke four tackles on a 6-yard run to give Hart a 24-14 lead with 2 minutes left in the third period.

Hart had the ball at the beginning of the fourth quarter but was forced to punt. On the next play, Schmucker threw a 60-yard scoring bomb to Huseman, and Schmucker's PAT closed the gap to 24-21 with 10:24 to go in the game.

Hart came back quickly for the eventual winning score, with Stroebel reaching into his razzle-dazzle bag of tricks for the winning play.

Facing third- and -seven at the Hart 49, Washington kept the drive alive with a 23-yard misdirection run, then, three plays later, looked to be going around his right end on a sweep.

Washington, however, pulled up short and fired a pass to flanker Danny Ledesma, who made an over-the-shoulder grab in the back corner of the end zone for the clincher. Diaz' PAT put Hart up by 10, 31-21, with just 5:30 left in the game.

Hart appeared to have the contest sewn up when Nazareth was forced to punt on its next possession, but three turnovers in the last three minutes kept partisans from both sides on their feet.

Trying to run out the clock, tailback Danny Valdez, thrown into the fray when Washington went out with a slight injury, fumbled and the Swifts recovered 53 yards from a touchdown. Moments later, though, Valdez redeemed himself by picking off a Schmucker pass with 1:55 left.

HE'S NOT DOWN YET, although it appears that Hart's Johnny Washington is being stopped at the 3-yard line by Nazareth's Alan Birkenfeld (left) and Harold Verkamp (28). But the determined Longhorn tailback stayed on his feet, spun away from one tackler and dragged another across the goaline for the touchdown that put the 'Horns ahead by 24-14 in the third quarter. Such second efforts by all the Longhorn backs played a major role in Hart's 31-27 victory. Washington ran for two TD's and passed for another to pace the Longhorn offense.

Less than a minute later, though, Ritter and Rodriguez missed connections on a handoff and the Swifts recovered with 57 seconds left.

Schmucker wasted no time in guiding the Swifts down the field, and hit Hill with an 11 yard pass with 27 seconds left. Hart blocked the PAT kick, however, and ran out the clock to seal the win.

Bobcats ..

Bobcats another opportunity. The interception, though, was one of just three in the last 1:39 of the first half, as Slaton's William Carlton grabbed a Zimmer pass at the Tiger 23 with 11 seconds left, then linebacker Mat Bradley picked off a Cone toss on the last play of the second quarter.

In the third quarter, the Bobcats, behind workhorse tailback Kevin Petty, threatened again, but came up short deep in Slaton territory.

Dimmitt moved from its' own 38 to the Slaton 10, with Petty carrying the ball for 8 straight plays on the 13-snap drive. The sophomore tailback picked up 32 of the drive's 62 yards, but Dimmitt was just short on a fourth-and-5 try at the Slaton 13.

The next play caused the greatest commotion, as Cone pitched to tailback James Cavanaugh, who rolled right and threw to tight end Joe Wilborn. Wilborn had just gotten by free safety Mark West, but after the smoke had cleared, public address announcer John Thomas said, for the sixteenth time, "There is a flag on the field." The five-yard walk off moved Slaton back to the five, and two more minor penalties forced the Tigers to their own 3. Shelton, with a brisk breeze at his back, booted the ball to the Dimmitt 35.

Slaton threatened again midway through the fourth quarter, and had the ball at the Dimmitt 45 when Cone attempted a shovel pass in the middle of the line to Cavanaugh. Defensive tackle Billy Martin, though, had snuck into the backfield and dropped Cavanaugh for a five-yard loss, ending the Tigers last threat.

The Bobcats began moving down the field after stopping Slaton on downs at the Tiger 48, and moved to the Tiger 38 before a clipping call moved them back to the Dimmitt 49. With 1:24 left in the contest, Petty was carrying into the right side of the line when the ball suddenly came bounding free—but a penalty flag came bounding out, too, with a facemask call wiping out a recovery by the Tigers at the Dimmitt 35.

TWO OF THE TOP PERFORMERS in Friday night's Hart-Nazareth game collide as Longhorn linebacker Chris Rodriguez gets a grip on Nazareth receiver Craig Huseman after the speedy Swift fullback had gained 17 yards on a pass from quarterback Chris Schmucker in the fourth quarter. Huseman scored two of the Swifts' four touchdowns on pass plays covering 60 and 13 yards, and finished the night with four catches for 100 yards. Rodriguez was in on 17 tackles to pace the Longhorns' defense. Hart won the exciting contest, 31-27.

Lady 'Horns place third at Brownfield

Hart's Tammy Menchaca won her second individual title of the year, and the Lady 'Horns placed a close third in a tough field at the Brownfield Invitational Cross-Country meet Saturday.

Out on the JOB

WATCH UP FOR POWER LINES

Out on the job, power lines bring needed electricity to the site. But they can be dangerous... if you don't watch up! You need to be especially careful when you are handling re-bar, pipes, scaffolding, or tools that are long enough to contact overhead lines. Contact with power lines is also a potential danger to operators of front-end loaders, dump trucks and any other equipment of unusual height.

Keep an eye up for power lines. Watch up, for safety's sake.

"Be Protected from the Unexpected" is week's theme

In tough economic times for farmers, an accident that inflicts personal and financial losses could be the last straw.

Since agriculture is one of the most hazardous industries in this county, farm safety merits particular attention, and that's the purpose of National Farm Safety Week, which begins Sunday.

Theme of this year's observance is "Be Protected from the Unexpected."

Last year, more than 3,000 farm residents died in work, home, public and traffic accidents and nearly 300,000 others were disabled, according to Dr. Gary Nelson, safety engineer with the Extension Service.

Only use of a crystal ball could prevent all accidents, but many that occur on farms and ranches could be prevented if people took time to protect themselves from the unexpected.

A rollover protective structure and safety belt should be integral parts of any farm tractor, Nelson said. Machinery guards can also protect operators from the unexpected, and personal protective equipment, just like most industrial workers use, could be of great benefit on the farm or ranch.

Nelson contends that one way to reduce the risk of farm accidents is to remove hazards from buildings and lots. "Not only is a well-maintained place safer, but it also makes work easier," Nelson said. "Owners should conduct periodic safety checks of the house, yard, lots and outbuildings to discover potential trouble. Hazardous materials should be removed or ways to protect against unremovable hazards should be devised.

"Accident prevention is often a matter of forethought and troubleshooting. Many lives and millions of dollars could be saved each year if more agricultural producers would take time to protect themselves, their families and their employees from the unexpected."

Plan residue management now for next year's crops

Proper residue management now will give you a head start on your 1986 crop.

"Give careful attention to present field conditions and crop residues, since these will have a big influence on your crop yields next year," advises Seth Ralston, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

A significant percentage of annual rainfall in much of Texas comes during the fall and winter months, so it's important to begin refilling the soil's water storage capability, says Ralston. Some deep, fine-textured soils will hold two or more inches of available water per foot of depth. This deep moisture is what sustains crops when the going gets rough next summer.

Proper crop residue management aids the moisture storage process. Good crop residue management requires that live stubble be shredded right behind the combine while it still has a high moisture content. Also, destroy the root system of grain sorghum to prevent regrowth and subsequent use of soil moisture, advises Ralston. It is important to keep as much stubble on the surface as possible.

Tillage equipment to be used may include a sweep, chisel or subsoiler, singly or in combination, or any one of a number of other methods, says Ralston. Minimize the number of tillage operations so that residue is retained on the surface.

Nitrogen may be applied but probably will not be needed, he added. However, if a crop is to follow shortly (36-60 days), nitrogen fertilizer applied to the residue will be a paying proposition. Otherwise, hold off until later so that the fertilizer will be used more fully by the following crop.

An inch of moisture stored deep in the root zone this fall will go much further toward yields than an inch of moisture in the form of light showers next summer, contends Ralston.

Moisture that doesn't soak in runs off, carrying soil and plant nutrients with it. With proper residue management, you can hold the maximum amount of water where it falls and make the excess move slowly to the bottom of the slope, he added.

Nuclear conference slated at Texas Tech

The geochemical aspects of isolating high-level nuclear waste will be the topic of a public lecture set for Friday night at 8 at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Ridge Associated Universities. Free to the public, the speech is sponsored by the Permian Basin, South Plains and Panhandle Plains sections of the American Chemical Society.

Gary Jacobs, a geochemist with Oak Ridge National Laboratory in Oak Ridge, Tenn., will speak on A Geochemist's Perspective on the Isolation of High-Level Nuclear Waste in the Chemistry Building, Room 38 at Texas Tech.

Jacobs, who holds a doctorate degree in geochemistry, is manager of the US Nuclear Regulatory Commission Waste Programs. The NRC sponsors laboratory experiments and computer modeling to determine geochemical reactions in nuclear waste repositories.

The speech is part of the US Department of Energy traveling lecture program administered by Oak

ACR-CU MAINTENANCE

Proper maintenance of ACR and CU acres is required throughout the calendar year. I realize that weeds have done real well due to our fine rains, but they must be controlled. Failure to do so can result in a payment reduction. We have begun spot checking so you are urged to take care of this problem if it applies to your farm.

Volunteer wheat can hurt new crop

Volunteer wheat in summer fallowed fields may look innocent enough, but these rogue plants can significantly hurt the coming wheat crop and should be eliminated. "The problem is that volunteer wheat hosts a growing number of insects and disease-causing organisms," points out Dr. Travis Miller. "These insects and diseases reduce grain yields and frequently require one or more applications of expensive fungicides or insecticides. Such problems could be avoided or reduced by one or two light tillage operations or the use of an effective herbicide," notes Miller, an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

gress of rust in the field next spring."

Other problems aggravated by volunteer wheat overwintering in fields are the brown wheat mite and wheat curl mite along with wheat streak mosaic virus complex (for which the wheat curl mite serves as a vector). Destruction of volunteer wheat, which is the host prior to planting, is the best and least costly control of these mites and the virus disease they cause, explains the agronomist.

The Russian wheat aphid, which has gained considerable notoriety since its discovery in Texas last March, will readily survive on volunteer wheat and wheat grasses which are found in fallow wheat fields, according to Miller. He recommends careful seedbed preparation and destruction of volunteer wheat and grasses in and around wheat fields to reduce this pest's habitat and initial infestation levels.

More about

Football . . .

(Continued from Page 1) defense—I think we would have been in the ballgame a lot longer against Roosevelt if we had played like we did against Slaton—and now we know we can win. We need to continue to improve, though."

Smith said the Wildcats probably should be 2-0, but come into tomorrow's contest off a 16-12 win over 2A power Panhandle after a season-opening loss to Friona, 21-14, "when they just suffered way too many turnovers," Smith said.

The Wildcats will come out in a Houston Veer split-back attack that features quarterback John Pierce and running back Craig Kennedy, plus flanker Shane McMinn.

"Pierce is a quarterback with a good arm, plus he reads the triple option very well. Our defense must make them put the ball on the ground, force turnovers, plus make them do things they don't want to do—make the quarterback make the wrong decision."

The offensive line is headed by guard Rusty Sieck (5-10, 165) and guard Joey Read (5-11, 195), both returnees from last year's squad.

Sieck and Kennedy, at linebacker, will be the mainstays of the 5-2 defense, which will also feature defensive linemen Dusty Stovall and John Biggers.

Sudan at Nazareth

Two of the region's top Class A teams square off Friday at Nazareth when the Swifts host the Sudan Hornets. Both teams enter the contest with 1-1 marks. Sudan lost its season opener against Sundown, while the Swifts dropped a 31-27 decision to Hart last Friday.

"Sudan is really stacked this year," said NHS coach Rex Minshew. "They have 18 seniors, and they are good at every skill position. Plus, their line averages over 200 lbs. a man, so it's going to be tough for us."

The Hornets are guided by senior quarterback Brent Kirkland, "a good, smooth quarterback," according to Minshew, "and he's got a great target in flanker David Wood, plus a great halfback in Ronnie Williams (5-11, 175)."

Williams, at safety, and Wood, at end, help key the Hornets' 5-3 stack defense, "and from everyone we've talked to, their defense is pretty stout. Their line is pretty good, and Abel Perales (6-2, 225) will be one of the best individual linemen we'll face this year."

Hart at Muleshoe

It's not surprising that Hart is 2-0 after two games—at least not as surprising as the Muleshoe Mules, 0-9 last year, also being 2-0 after two games.

Another surprise is that Muleshoe has scored 56 points in its two outings, against Boys Ranch and Olton, after scoring only 6 points all of 1985 (in a 13-6 loss to Floydada).

"They are definitely improved," said Hart coach Mark Stroebel. "Their backs (quarterback Todd Bessire, tailback Michael Dunham and fullback Armondo Deltoro) run hard and play well, so we had better be ready. They are improving every week—our scouts said they played much better against Boys Ranch than against Olton, and they won both games, so we have to be prepared for a tough game."

"They run some wild things on offense—they run from an unbalanced line, and do some things that are strange. They're bigger than us, but I think we'll have a quickness advantage. We should be able to take advantage of their secondary, where I think they're a little weak, and we'll run some misdirection to confuse their linebackers as much as possible."

"We're going to have to be aggressive, and cut down on our mistakes as much as possible."

Evidence is mounting that volunteer wheat is responsible for a good portion of the rust problem that has plagued the Texas wheat crop the past two years. Favorable weather conditions and huge acreage of susceptible wheat varieties have added to the problem.

"Informal surveys in several areas of the state are revealing the presence of leaf rust in volunteer wheat this summer," says Miller. "A good job of volunteer wheat destruction will reduce early rust infestation and may impact the pro-

Football Sidelines

Friona lost to Idalou, 9-7, last Friday, but kicker Sam Montoya, who has been kicking for the Chieftains since he was a fifth grader, it seems, just missed a 61-yard field goal on the last play of the game...If the Chieftains had won that, it would have been all over...Didja hear what Clovis coach Eric Roanhaus had to say after his Wildcats were punted 42-0 by Hereford? Supposedly, he said he was tired of getting it stuck to him by the officials every time he came to Texas, and might not play in Texas anymore...Good-bye...Cumbly is no longer the worst football team in Texas. That distinction, according to the Harris Rating Service, is now held by Savoy, with a power rating of 82...Hereford has jumped to sixth in the HRS in 4A...San Antonio Holmes has a power rating of 203. That's the highest I've ever seen anyone in the HRS. Permian is second at 195...Littlefield has moved to second in 3A in the HRS...Tulia is No. 21, Friona No. 50, Floydada No. 141, Dimmitt No. 149, and Muleshoe No. 154...Word is out that when Canyon opens its new high school, it would create two 3A high schools. Highland Park in Amarillo might be 3A by then, too, and don't be surprised if those three don't join Boys Ranch, Dimmitt and Tulia, as well as River Road, in the same conference. Of course, Dalhart would be thrown in there to make the traveling really nice...What the heck has happened to Seagraves?

The Eagles are 0-2 and falling fast...And what is the matter with Muleshoe? They were 0-9 last year and lost their best player, and now they're 2-0 in 1986 and expected to give Hart a tussle tomorrow night...What is Austin Johnson doing playing Amarillo Palo Duro? I can understand why they might want to play each other, but doesn't anyone know there's a depression going on in this state?

We don't want to do this . . .

You've been getting your Castro County News for the same subscription rate and the same newsstand price for years. We wish we could keep it that way. But we can't.

Effective Oct. 1, your subscription rates will go up by just a little if you live in Castro County, and by a significant amount if you live outside the county.

In a series of increases that started last October, the US Postal Service has doubled the rates for mailing your newspaper to you. The biggest increase (100%) is on those copies mailed to addresses outside the county of publication.

So we must increase our subscription rates and newsstand price accordingly.

Because of the widening gap between in-county and out-of-county postal rates for newspapers, we are establishing (for the first time) separate rates for in-county and out-of-county subscribers. These rates directly reflect the difference in the annual postal cost of delivering your newspaper to you.

50 million people take comfort in it

Babbling Brooks

By John Brooks

We have officially entered the computer age at the Castro County News, and I think I'm going to like it.

By the way, I think Don is about ready to make somebody a good deal on some typewriters, those old-fashioned things we used to use until last Thursday evening to produce copy from the front desk. Now, we just wham away on the ol' keyboard, say the two magic cuss words, and we sometimes get some copy.

The really bad thing about these computers is they are too smart. They ought to be able to realize what I meant to enter, not what it says I entered. And, too, there is supposed to be a spell checking system in here somewhere. Now, I can spel awmost enny werd, but I hav trubbel getine it two cum ow rite on the screen. I'm sure this is a great system, but we may have to examine its' tensile strength when subjected to 1,000 lbs. of force applied by a human fulcrum swinging a baseball bat before the week is out.

Didja see the opening of the Monday Night Football game this week? They played the tape of Golden Richards making a tremendous catch in the back of the end-zone in the last minute of yet another Roger-the-Dodger-Staubach comeback in about 1975. Brought back some memories...

Of course, MNF was a little different back then. You had a constant debate going in the booth between Howard and Frank and Don. Now you get glitter with Al and Frank.

Why not throw Howard in there for a guest shot? After all the nice things Howard has had to say about ABC and Frank, it would be kind of like throwing the piranhas into the shark tank, and it would be fun to see.

I've always wanted to see piranhas and sharks going after each other. Wouldn't that be fun?

Local CAP responds to rescue call

The Dimmitt Composite Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol was called out on a mission Friday night after receiving a call from the Amarillo Composite Squadron of the CAP.

An Emergency Locator Transmission signal was being picked up from the Muleshoe area, and Dimmitt CAP members were asked to help with the call.

Dimmitt CAP members who responded to the call were Jerry Annen, Debbie Annen, Fred Annen, Jim Tilley, Garner Ball, Jim Baker and Wayne Proffitt.

They traveled to a location 15 miles southwest of Muleshoe as they were directed by Amarillo CAP members who were flying over an aircraft that had attempted to land in a field.

The plane was heavily damaged, but no one was injured in the accident.
