Model A club visits Dimmitt

Six classic antique automobiles passed through Dimmitt on the way to Steamboat Springs, Colo., on Friday morning.

The cars were Model A Fords ranging from the model years of 1923 to 1931, and belonged to members of the West Texas Region of the American Association of Classic Automobiles.

Max Anderson began the West Texan Region of the AACA in 1959 with the required 15 chartered members. Today only two of the original 15 members remain — Anderson and Ralph Webb.

Anderson first became interested in antique cars in 1957. "I found an old 1927 Model T behind a man's house in Midland, and I had to have it," Anderson said. He took it home as what his wife, Jan, referred to as a "basket case", and eventually restored it.

Shorty and Dorotha Phillips, Louis and Helen Sweatt, Don and Eva Combs, John and Maxine Rutherford, Tom and Joan Montgomery and the Andersons are the couples operating the vehicles on this journey.

The six couples are from the Midland-Odessa area and are all members of the West Texan Region of the AACA.

Stagnate, or grow? Area has a choice

Castro Countians can continue to watch their local economy stagnate and their taxes go up, or they can fight back and try to get a share of the new industry that's rushing toward Texas.

That's the message that backers of the proposed new industrial development commission are trying to put across to the public and to local governments.

The plan is to set up a quasi-public commission, representing both the private sector and local governments, and hire someone who will spend all of his or her time in the search for new industry.

New industry can be established in several ways. An individual or group already living here could simply decide to start a new venture (as was the case with the Dimmitt Amstar Plant, Manufacturing, Inc., and others). An existing industry could decide to build a new facility in the local market (example: the Goodpasture, Inc., plant here, originally built by Western Ammonia). Or local growers could establish new crops and seek out a processor for them (as was the case with the Dimmitt's first vegetable processing plant).

One of the most promising avenues to new industry right now is through the state's industrial development board. The state is receiving outside inquiries daily from industries that want to set up shop in Texas.

Our state is one of the most attractive in the nation for industries that are looking to make a move. Texas is growing more rapidly than any other Sun Belt state; it is now a center of high-tech industry as well as a leader in agriculture, livestock and energy; it has a good climate and a large work force; it has a debt-free state government and no corporate or personal income tax; it has an industrial revenue-bond program that makes financing easier.

For these and other reasons, there's a rush toward Texas now by both new-wave and old-line industries.

Contacting these industries that are looking for a home seems to be the best route toward getting new industry in Castro County, backers of the industrial development commission say.

The trick is to get into the game with a team that's trained and equipped to compete, for there's a lot of competition out there. It's not the kind of game you can win by sitting back and waiting. Many Texas cities and counties, large and small, are actively wooing these prospective new industries, and the companies will go where they know they are wanted and welcome.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce industrial development committee — which included the general manager of the county's largest industrial plant — decided some time ago that they didn't really have the kind of team needed to play the game. Volunteer workers often don't have the time to do the research and make the contacts that are necessary. And the chamber didn't have the kind of money needed for research, market analysis, travel, etc.

So the committee set up the structure for a new industrial development commission, established a budget ($49,000 for the first year), and went to work to get it funded — mostly through local taxing entities and financial institutions.

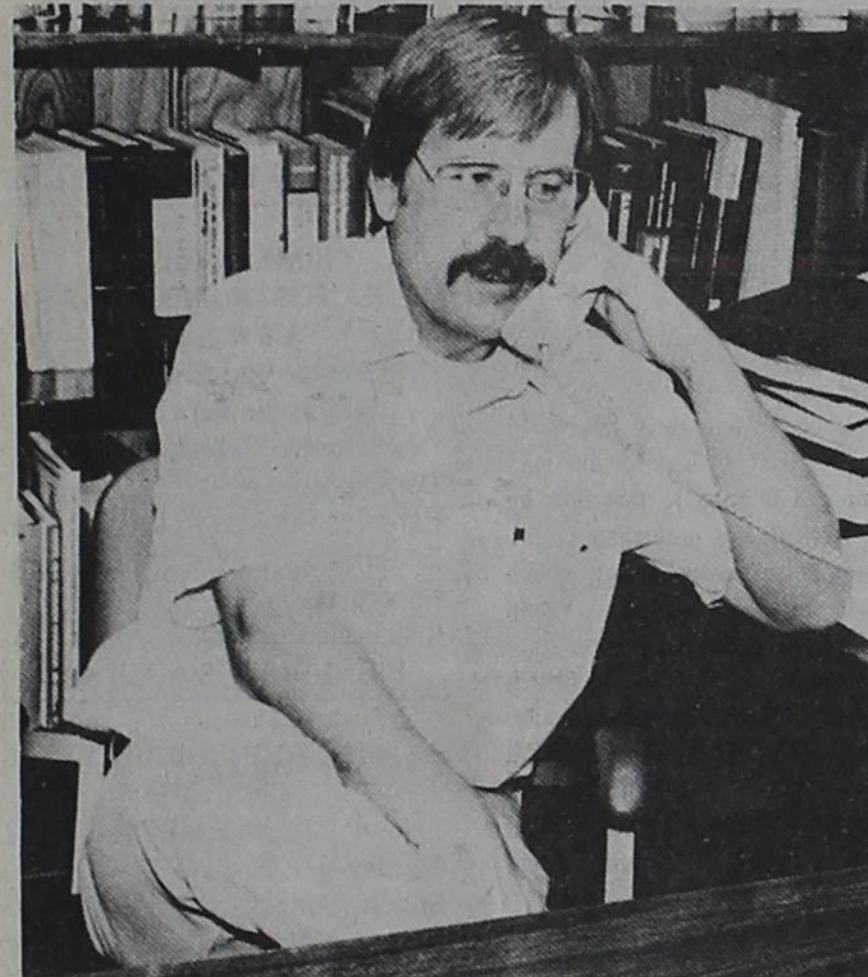

So far, the Dimmitt Independent School District has allocated $14,000, the City of Dimmitt $10,000 and the First State Bank of Dimmitt $2,400. The County Commission [Continued on Page 6]

Commission will discuss voting boxes

The Castro County Commissioners will meet Monday to discuss the possibility of combining three voting boxes in the county.

Castro County Democratic Chairman Oscar Wylie will be on hand to discuss the matter with the commissioners. An informal poll taken by a county resident showed that a majority of voters in voting precincts 7, 11, and 16 were in favor of combining the three boxes.

All sessions of the commissioners' court are open to the public, except for executive sessions to discuss personnel or legal matters.

Randy Holme

Holme is new Amstar manager

Randy Holme, 36, of Dimmitt has been named General Manager of the Dimmitt Corn Operations of Amstar Corporation.

He will assume his duties July 1. Previously, Holme became technical manager of the plant in 1981, overseeing process engineering, as well as quality control. In 1977 he had been promoted to chief chemist, and before that he was named project leader upon his transfer here in 1976 from California.

A 1971 graduate of the University of California at Davis with a bachelor of science degree, Holme began his career with Spreckels (parent company of Amstar) in 1971 as a laborer at the Woodland factory in California. In 1972 he moved to the position of research assistant, holding progressively more important positions until his transfer to Dimmitt.

"He is really qualified to do the job and will be a big contribution to the operation of the plant," said current General Manager George Lambert, who is being promoted to Vice President of the Spreckels Division in San Francisco.

Holme and his wife, Billie, live nine miles northeast of Dimmitt, where they raise horses and run a few cattle "just as a hobby." The couple have four boys.

Party will honor Smith

A retirement party honoring County Veterans Service Officer Bedford Smith will be held in the county courthouse at the Castro County Courthouse Monday at 9:30 a.m.

Smith will officially retire on June 30 due to health problems. He has served 13 years as Veterans Service Officer in Castro County.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Hearing is set

A crowd is expected to show up at the public hearing Monday on the City of Dimmitt's proposed paving plan.

The hearing, set for 6:30 p.m. in the city hall meeting room, may last from three to four hours, according to City manager Paul Catoe, "in order to give all those affected by the plan a chance to speak their mind."

Catoe said that he has heard comments from several citizens planning to attend the meeting.

"Some have been against the program and some have been in favor," Catoe noted.

He added that some have given complaints that their paving assessment was not correct.

"An address is given on the letters that were sent out to which errors may be sent for correction," Catoe said. "We also have the address here at city hall if anyone needs it."

Catoe said that the city will have to pay $7,050 for a street which it wants paved, in addition to the city's 15% of the total project, which could run as high as $70,000.

The hearing will be held during a meeting of the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen, and will constitute the only item on the agenda. The next regular meeting of the board will be July 2.

AFS farewell tea planned

A farewell tea for Dimmitt High School's AFS exchange students Anja Biester and Owen Viles will be held Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the home of Doug and Cheryl Pybus at 1640 Sunset Circle in Dimmitt.

Biester, from West Germany, has been staying with the Monty Boozer family. Viles, from New Zealand, has been staying with the Pybus family.

Special guests at the tea will be Carlo and Angela Riva of Casano d'Adda, Italy. They are the parents of the family with whom Kyla Boozer stayed on an AFS summer exchange program last summer.

"The public is invited to attend the tea, meet the Rivas, and say farewell to Anja and Owen," Mrs. Pybus said. She noted that the AFS'ers will be leaving next Thursday on a two-week tour before leaving the US.

The long, 5½-month dry spell in the county was finally broken Saturday when the rains began to fall. They have continued to fall throughout this week and are expected to continue through next week due to hurricane activity off the Texas coast.

The average 3.14 inches of moisture received in the county during this rainy spell has almost doubled the amount of moisture received so far for 1984. Only 3.67 inches of moisture had been recorded in 1984 until last Thursday.

Rainfall for April and May was at a level almost half the average figured for those months over the past 64 years by local weather observer Goose Ramey.

The recent rains have ranged from 5.27 inches for the City of Dimmitt down to 1.07 in Hart, as recorded by Farmers' Grain Co.

Although some wheat is laying down and harvest has been slowed a little, most area elevator operators say it doesn't look like it will hurt the wheat any, and it will certainly benefit crops in general.

KDHN Radio, official US Weather Observer, recorded a total of 2.50 inches of precipitation, while Jerry Wilhelm recorded 3.5 inches five miles north of Nazareth.

Eddie Matthews of Easter Grain, reporting 1.07 inches, said the precipitation will benefit the corn and milo crops this year. He added that the rains would help cure out the wheat and would help it a lot.

"The rains should prolong the wheat harvest," said Don Gregory at Castro County Grain. "The moisture will be a big help to farmers. They will be able to shut their wells off. It will give a tremendous boost to the corn."

According to Fred Bruegel of Bruegel and Sons Elevators, the wet weather will benefit all crops. "It will make big bolls out of little bolls of cotton, and it will also make big ears out of little ears of corn." Bruegel reported 5½ inches at the elevator and 1½ inches at his home.

Sunnyside grain only reported 1¼ inches of rain over the last 10 days.

J.R. Brown of Flagg Grain reported 2.75 inches of rain with the biggest rain coming last Saturday when they received .80 inches. "The moisture won't hurt the wheat if it stops now," said Brown.

Charles Wales of Bethel reported 5.07 inches of moisture during the 10 day wet

With Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Three teams from Dimmitt entered the Rose of Sharon Baseball Tournament: the Cobras, the A's, and the Rose of Sharon. The A's Team won. These games were played at the City Park.

Allene Lilley spent three weeks with her daughter, Jean Swopes, in Chelsea, Okla. recently. She reported lots of rain while she was there. In fact, it was during that time the big storm hit Tulsa.

Brad Murdock celebrated his 20th birthday on Wednesday. His parents, Bobby and Wanda, went to Amarillo and took him out to eat. Later they all went out to watch their daughter, Debbie, play softball and then they went to Brad's apartment for birthday cake. Brad's roommate, Scott Armandirez and Kyle Yates from Arlington, and Debbie, and the Murdocks all enjoyed the celebration. Kyle, a former Dimmitt resident, is in Amarillo visiting relatives while he is on vacation.

Mrs. Scroggins told me they have a new baby in the family — her sister-in-law, Theresa Matthews from Borger has a baby girl, Jetina Natassia.

Dennis Veals, son of Clarence and Jean Boyd, will be playing Pro-Football for the Denver Broncos in the Fall. He is already in training. Clarence will go see the games but Jean didn't think she could take it! I am sure when the time comes Jean will go too. Congratulations, Dennis!

Jean and Clarence Boyd are grandparents. Jean's son, Gene Veals and his wife from Lubbock have a baby boy. Gene played basketball while he was a student in Dimmitt High School.

Wayne McKee, another former Dimmitt Bobcat player, is living in Houston now, and he is manager of a shoe store.

Daphne Montgomery's niece, Caroline Simon, works at the hospital as a nurse's aide. Caroline is a sister to Craig Williams who is a former Dimmitt resident and was a star basketball player in the '70s. He lived with Daphne then.

Oleta and Guy Walsler went to Deming, N.M. for the 40th wedding anniversary of Jan Walsler's parents. The celebration was held at the Country Club. Jan lives in Hereford. On their return home, Guy and Oleta stopped in Roswell to visit Mrs. Ann Singer, a former Dimmitt resident. Mrs. Singer reads the Castro County News and she enjoys reading "On the Go." The Walslers also visited Alton and Lucille Lookingbill while they were in Roswell.

Irene Carpenter has returned home after visiting her children Joyce and James Autry of Rocky Ford, Colo. She and Joyce also attended funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Burch of Salda, Colo., a longtime friend, and resident of Dimmitt and Castro County. Mrs. Burch passed away in the Salda Hospital June 5 after a long illness. James, Joyce and Irene also went over to Blue Lake near Gunnison for a day or two of fishing. They had good luck with burned faces and swollen lips, as well as catching some trout.

A special summer guest will arrive in Amarillo on July 1st — Agathe Coulon, a 15-year-old girl from Orleans, France.

Agathe will be living with the Joe Higgs family for 30 days, as part of the Nacel summer exchange program.

She has studied English for four years and spent last summer in Montana.

Her parents are both physicians, and she has two brothers; two and four years old.

Evelyn Pate from Amarillo and her son Joe Edd and his family visited the Leland Smiths. Joe Edd and his family are from Saudi Arabia and are on vacation. Also Wesley Smith and family, Elbert Smith and family, and Robert and Vickie Funk were dinner guests. Evelyn, Leland's sister and Joe Edd and family visited Leland at South Hills Manor in the afternoon.

Bobby and Wanda Murdock entertained relatives for father's Day — Debbie and Brad from Amarillo and Mr.

and Mrs. W. H. Felder from Hart, and Scott Armandirez from Amarillo.

Little Lori Merritt has been spending several days with her grandparents, Glenn and Mona Merritt and Rev. John and Dorothy Street. Mark and Kay Merritt came for Father's Day and Lori returned home to Midland with her parents.

Debbie and Connie Dennis from Lubbock were home over the weekend visiting their parents, Edgar and Betty Dennis. They celebrated Father's Day while they were here.

Former Coach Covington has been visiting friends in Dimmitt.

Joe Higgs presided over the inspirational Sunday School meeting and supper last Wednesday night at the F.B.C. Everyone brought covered dishes and Joe and his committee had decorated the tables with red, white, and blue. A huge basket filled with English Ivy and five American flags decorated the serving table. The other tables held smaller flags in decorated flower pots and red, white, and blue streamers down the center.

Dorothy Elder was hostess to the Friday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizen's Center for lunch and a day of bridge. Opha Burks and Betty Cartwright won high score. Others playing were: Cletha George, Retta Cluck, Opal Bearden, Josie Bradford and Gladiola Shipley.

The shower for Yvonna Vanstory and Doug Hays was a festive party in the lovely home of Maxine Tidwell. Some of the out of town guests were Yvonna's mother and grandmother from Morton, Doug's sisters, Louann Bradley from Denton and Penny Jarecki from Amarillo, Nancy Hays and Mary Lynn McWhorter from Hereford.

The lovely shower for Kimberly Peggaram and Wesley Wellborn, held in the beautiful home of Esta Vandiver, was dampened with a downpour of rain all afternoon. There were out of town guests from Floydada and Lubbock, and some from Dimmitt who waded the high water to attend the shower.

The tail assembly of a plane with its trim tabs, rudders, and stabilizer is necessary for flight. Smoother flying may be brought about with a slight adjustment of a trim tab. The rudders steer and keep you flying in the right direction. Let God's word be your guide. Let the church help you guide your life. Seek the Lord's will. "And the Lord shall guide thee continually..." Enter the Lord's house at the beginning of each week, and see how much easier the path is made.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Two precious little angels were sent to us one day, Two tiny little rosebuds were picked for heaven's bouquet. Danielle and Dominique are in the Father's care, Safe in the arms of Jesus and waiting for us there. Sometimes we don't understand the things that bring us pain, Lord, bind up our aching hearts and make us whole again. We know You are acquainted with the sorrow that we feel, For the death of God's only begotten Son was real. Walk with us through the valleys and give us faith to say, "Thy will be done in our lives," for this, dear Lord, we pray.

"I was surprised how quick the variety was ready to graze."

"In fact, some of my neighbors tried to rent my pasture when they saw how much better established it was than others all around us."

Pioneer® variety 2157 gets off to a fast start, quickly establishing the kind of healthy, vigorous growing stand so necessary for good pasture. Its upright growth habit helps provide maximum available grazing.

And because 2157 has proven to be such a good yielder, you can count on it to deliver top-quality wheat at season's end.

If pasture is part of your wheat program, new 2157 should be, too.

New Wheat Variety 2157

Superior Yield • Excellent Standability • Outstanding Grazing

"When I pulled my combine into the field, I knew for sure this wasn't an ordinary wheat crop."

"That 2157 was standing out there good and straight. And when I moved down the rows, I could hear the cylinders running full."

Farmers who've seen this impressive new high yielding variety like its standability and tolerance to dry growing periods and severe weather. It has excellent resistance to leaf rust, stem rust, fungal leaf blights, soil borne mosaic virus and the Hessian fly.

In side-by-side comparisons, Pioneer® brand 2157 wheat has consistently out-yielded other popular varieties. And it has shown consistently high test weights.

Stagnate or grow...

[Continued from Page 1] missioners' Court is awaiting a legal opinion from the attorney general's office before making a decision, and the hospital district, other financial institutions, the City of Hart, the City of Nazareth and the Hart and Nazareth school districts are still to be contacted.

"The reason we're going to the tax institutions and the banking institutions first is that they benefit first and foremost from the tax income and the influx of new capital," Chamber of Commerce President George Sides said.

"One of the main things that brought us to the decision that we needed the industrial development working fund was the change in the tax base in the last few years, caused mainly by the farm depression, tax exemptions and reappraisal of property," Chamber Manager Delores Heller told the Lions Club Tuesday.

If anyone has questions about why the county needs new industry, Mrs. Heller said, they can simply look at the effects of the farm depression in recent years here — the number of farms and small businesses that have gone under, the number of workers who have moved out, the number of homes for sale now (estimated at 90 to 100 in Dimmitt alone).

As to the kind of impact a new industry can have, she cited the Dimmitt Amstar Plant as an example during her talk to the Lions Club Tuesday.

Quoting a study compiled by Dick Schacher, she said Amstar provides employment for 158 people, has an average monthly payroll of $382,000, pays $576,400 per month in utility fees, spends almost $4 million per month for corn that is handled locally, and spends $265,000 per month for chemicals and repair parts — a total of $5,168,500 filtered into the local and area economy each month, or more than $62 million per year.

In addition, she said, Amstar paid $714,300 in local taxes in 1983 — $162,177 to the county, $411,520 to the Dimmitt Independent School District and $140,626 to the City of Dimmitt. This was 15% of the county's total tax income for the year, 24% of the school district's and 44% of the city's.

"Everybody in the county will benefit from any new industry anywhere in the county," she said. "If a new industry comes to Hart, it helps all of us in the county," Commission Member Bob Caddell added. "We're not just pushing the Dimmitt area. But we've got to move forward. Right now we're not going anywhere — we're stagnant."

Industrial development commissions are working elsewhere, Sides said.

"We've seen what Tulia, Friona and Snyder have done," he said. "Snyder has a new King Trailer manufacturing outfit that employs 250 people. Tulia has gotten the Ramirez Tortilla Factory that was planning to move from Hereford to Dallas, but has located in Tulia instead. Friona has a large new cold storage facility for beef."

There are more such industries, large and small, that would "fit" Castro County well, he said.

"I think something in the corn products field would be good here," Sides commented. "Carl King has been working with a lot of corn processors to show them that our food grade corn is superior for many uses; maybe this could lead to something. There are any number of processors that can use our corn. Fred Bruegel has been selling some grains to dog-food manufacturers; why couldn't one of them set up shop here? We have all these slaughtering plants around here, but there's no tanning factory anywhere near that I know of."

"The bottom line," said Calvin Marsh of the industrial development committee, "is that we need people working here who will bring home a paycheck and spend it here."

Pond makes honor list

Shelly K. Pond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Watts of Dimmitt was named to the Hardin-Simmons University Honor Roll for the 1984 fall semester.

The Honor Roll is composed of students carrying 12 or more semester hours who have a grade point average of 3.60 for the semester.

Hardin-Simmons University is a private, multi-purpose, liberal arts university affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Enrollment is approximately 2,000.

Hance concedes

Congressman Kent Hance conceded defeat to State Representative Lloyd Doggett last Thursday in the Democratic race for the US Senate nomination.

The statewide recount, which Hance's campaign committee paid for, showed Doggett to be the winner by 1,345 votes out of almost one million ballots cast in the June 2 runoff election.

It was the first election Hance had ever lost. He had served two terms in the Texas Senate and three terms in the US House of Representatives before entering the race to fill the US Senate seat being vacated by John Tower.

"Any time you get in this business, there is always the risk of losing a race," Hance said. "Now I know not only how it feels to win but how it feels to lose."

But he said he isn't finished with politics, and that he considers the statewide campaign base that he built in the senate race to be a good investment in his political future.

"It's not a race where I consider myself a loser," he said. "I'm 41, and it's an investment that I've made." Hance, who introduced

Doggett as the party's US Senate nominee at the State Democratic Convention in Houston last weekend, said he will return to Lubbock to practice law when his current term in Congress expires in January.

There wasn't as much rain reported halfway between Dimmitt and Hereford at the Simpson Dairy. Bob Simpson reported only 1.34 inches of rain.

Dimmitt Agri Industries reported a total of 4 1/2 inches over the last 10 days.

The general consensus among grain elevator managers around the area is that the harvest will be delayed, but that it shouldn't be damaged by the wet weather. They also agree that once the weather clears off and things dry up, wheat harvest will be in full swing.

Producers receive 28%

Without question, agriculture is big business in Texas as well as across the nation. But the agribusiness sector that supports the nation's crops of food and fiber producers also does a high volume business.

"Of the more than $300 billion consumers spent last year for domestically produced farm foods, about $215 billion was for services rendered by the so-called 'middleman,'" points out Dr. Forrest Stegelin, agribusiness economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

This dollar volume for services added between the farm and the retail establishment where consumers purchased the final product accounts for 72 cents of very $1 spent by consumers, notes the economist. The remaining 28 cents goes to the farmer.

"The agribusiness sector not only turns raw agricultural items into ready-to-buy products, but also supplies inputs to generate a long line of raw farm products," Stegelin said.

From an employment standpoint, agriculture is the nation's largest employer. Farming and agribusiness combined employ more than 15 million people, with two-thirds of these involved in storing, transporting, processing and merchandising farm products.

"An interesting point is that there are about 16 people needed in the agribusiness sector to support one farmer," Stegelin points out.

Families can ease the move to a nursing home

Moving an elderly relative into a nursing home can produce a family crisis.

"Whether the move is initiated by the older person or the family members, it brings to the surface all the mixed feelings that characterize close human relationships," says Judith L. Warren, a family life education specialist.

With the move to an institution, all family members become aware of the older person's declining health, and aware that it is probably the last move which he or she will make, says Warren, who is with the Texas A&M University Extension Service home economics program.

Families need to maintain close ties at this time in spite of feeling angry, hurt, afraid of rejection and deeply sorrowful. "The entire family may actually be grieving for the passing of an era," she says.

In this difficult situation, many adult children may have the impulse to retreat, notes Warren.

Yet research indicates that the best thing families can do is to stay close during the first few weeks after the move while the older person adjusts to the new surroundings.

At least one family member should spend the entire first day at the home and daily visits by as many members as possible should be made for the first two weeks, suggests the specialist.

While the adjustment period is critical, it's also important that family members continue contact with visits, phone calls and notes, she adds.

"This contact demonstrates the adult children's commitment and reduces their parent's fears of abandonment," says Warren.

Cancer Society Survey shows smokeless users start habit early

A state-wide survey of junior and senior high school students revealed that 88% of the smokeless tobacco users in that age group picked up the habit at age 15 or younger.

Fifty-five percent of the 486 students who were chewers or dippers began at or before age 12, according to the survey. By comparison, only 35% of smokers had picked up the habit by age 12.

Allen Henderson, Ph.D., a social psychologist at Texas Wesleyan College and chairman of the Texas Division Helping Smokers Quit Committee, sees this young "age of onset" as a significant issue in planning health education efforts.

"The most startling piece of information to come from the survey was that the age of onset is much earlier than for smoking," Henderson said. The implication is that health education about smokeless tobacco needs to begin earlier, at about age seven or eight, the survey concludes.

More than 5,000 students of 30 schools participated in the survey, which was administered through members of the Division Schools and Colleges Committee.

The survey was developed by Henderson, Myron Dees, Ph.D., of West Texas State University, and E. D. Glover, Ph.D., of Oklahoma Health System Agency.

"In the past, we've had so little objective information on the facts—when they start, how much they use," Henderson said. "We were trying to get an understanding of their (the students) perceptions and beliefs about health habits," he said.

Survey results also indicated that smokeless tobacco use is considered "safer" than smoking cigarettes. Seventy-five percent said they believe cigarette smoking is "very harmful" to health; only 40% saw smokeless tobacco as "very harmful".

In addition, very few of the students were aware that sale of tobacco products to minors is illegal. Sixteen percent knew buying cigarettes is illegal; only 10% realized sale of smokeless tobacco is similarly regulated.

Henderson sees the next step as development of new materials. "We need to do two things," he said. "We need to develop materials aimed at adolescents who are current users to give them more facts on the immediate health hazards of smokeless tobacco."

A new slide-tape presentation planned by the Bexar Metro Unit Dental Committee is in development.

Program for pure-bred beef breeders

A special symposium for purebred beef breeders at Texas A&M University, Aug. 15-16, will help breeders identify genetically superior purebred cattle, thus improving not only individual breeds but the entire beef industry.

The symposium is being planned by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System and major Texas breed associations.

Key officials in the purebred beef cattle industry, including breeders, ranchers and scientists, will be on hand to discuss the nuts and bolts of the purebred industry, such as requirements of the commercial beef producer and beef merchandising.

Decision on farm bill based on three issues

Texas and U.S. farmers face three basic issues as they decide their stand on the 1985 farm bill, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

1. Do farmers want to rely on government payments or market rewards for income?
2. To what extent are farmers committed to the export market?
3. Do farmers want to maintain the middle-sized family farm?

"Those who want to rely on government payments for their income will support high target prices," says Black. "But high target prices stimulate production, so these farmers must also accept tighter production controls through acreage diversions. In addition, they would support farmer-owned reserves."

On the other hand, farmers who want to rely on market rewards for pay should support lower loan rates so that commercial sales to foreign buyers can continue. In this situation, prices would control production while expanded crop insurance would protect against natural disasters, Black points out.

"Many farmers believe expanded agricultural exports can resurrect this country's faltering agricultural economy," Black says. "If they are sincerely interested in the export market, they can't have deep-cutting production controls and high loan rates. After all, you can't sell from an empty wagon."

Black also notes that a two-price plan may encourage export trade, where foreign sales would move out lower prices than prevail in the domestic market. Farmers who are not committed to the export market will support strict production controls and high loan rates, he adds.

"Perhaps the most critical choice farmers face in the mid '80s has to do with the medium-sized family farmer," contends Black. This is the traditional full-time farmer who relies on farm product sales for his income. He has little or no outside income and depends on his family for labor. He has suffered from recent hard times in agriculture."

Programs that will keep the middle-sized family farmer in business are the strict payment limitations, limited government loans to family farmers, mandatory production controls, marketing quotas, elimination of the cash-tax accounting system and progressive taxation by farm size. These ideas have been talked about for a long time, says the economist.

"Two things will kill the middle-sized family farmer — unlimited income subsidies and payments geared to production," says Black. "These programs help big producers the most."

Social Security in Castro County

People who get Social Security checks and who earned more than the annual exempt amount in wages from a job or in self-employment in 1983 have until Monday to file an annual report of their earnings.

The 1983 exempt amounts were $4,920 for people under 65 all of the year and $6,600 for people 65 or over any part of 1983. In general, a person has $1 in benefits withheld for each $2 of annual earnings over the exempt amount.

Social Security uses the annual report to decide whether the person received the correct amount of benefits during 1983. If too much or too little was paid, any adjustment necessary is made based on the annual report.

A special monthly test is used during a person's first year of retirement. Under this test, a person can get a benefit for a month in which he or she did not earn wages over the monthly limit and did not perform substantial services in self-employment. This monthly test can be used only in the person's first year of retirement.

Most people who need to file a report should have received one in the mail. If a person did not get a form, or lost or misplaced the one he or she did get, another copy of the annual report form can be obtained at any Social Security office.

The people at the office will be glad to answer any questions. They also have a leaflet, "How work affects your Social Security checks," which contains more information about the earnings test.

The annual exempt amounts for 1984 are $5,160 for people under 65 and $6,960 for people 65 or over.

A different test applies to people who get benefits because of disability.

If you have a question concerning the annual report or any question regarding Social Security please call us at 293-4371. If you need to visit our office, our address is 1401-B West 5th Street, Plainview.

Six from here attend GOP state convention

The Republicans of Texas held their largest state convention to date, with more than 4,400 delegates and alternates registered, Saturday and Sunday in Fort Worth.

Attending from Castro County were Deanne Clark and Willie Fave Huseman, delegates; Aurelia Schoenenberger, alternate; Carole Schroeder, guest; and Becky Schroeder and Becky Benton, pages.

Annual reports showed the Republican Party of Texas to be debt-free, and plans were announced to use 80% of contributions to aid candidates and county chairmen serving 244 counties. Vice-President George Bush addressed the convention, as did Sen. John Tower and State Party Chairman George Strake.

The usual campaign booth selling buttons, stickers and T-shirts were in operation. One popular T-shirt carried the message, "If Doggett is the answer, then the question must be stupid."

While Mel Tillis performed at Billy Bob's Texas for the GOP, a prayer and sing rally was held at the Hyatt Regency for over 1,000 conventioners.

Resolutions were adopted pertaining to immigration, federal judges, presidential line-item veto power, flat-rate income tax, rights of crime victims and persons bearing arms, and right to work, as well as resolutions calling for reform in welfare, the Federal Reserve System, and education, wherein local control would be exercised.

The agriculture resolution called for programs that encourage the sale of raw agricultural products in the market place at prices on par with the rest of the economy.

Ernie Angelo of Midland and Fran Chiles of Fort Worth were re-elected national committeeman and committeewoman. Twenty-nine presidential electors were elected, along with delegates and alternates to the National Republican Convention to be held in Dallas in August. Delegates from Lubbock, Odessa and Brownfield were selected from the 19th Congressional District.

"The underlying message of the convention was to continue to work begun to restore America to fiscal, military and moral preparedness, and a warning to the convention was to guard against complacency," according to Deanne Clark, Castro County chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Steinle make home in Dimmitt

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Steinle are at home in Dimmitt after their honeymoon trip to a mountain cabin near Pagosa Springs, Colo., following their June 2 wedding. The couple exchanged vows in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the Lee Street Baptist Church of Dimmitt with Rev. Ronnie Travis, pastor, officiating. The bride is the former Elaine Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene

Thompson of Cleveland, Tenn. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Steinle of Lucas, Kan. Parents of the couple served as honor attendants in the ceremony. The mothers wore floor-length, taupe gowns. Organist was Dwight Joiner of Dimmitt. Bobbie Adkerson of Cleveland, Tenn., aunt of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer." The bride sang "He Has Chosen You For Me." A children's choir composed of Michelle Caddell, Emily Clary, Jennifer Felts, Denea Hanes, Renae Josselet, Tessa Newton, Deena Richards, Shandra Strickland and Lisa Travis sang the selections "Whither Thou Goest" and "Now I Belong to Jesus." Ushers for the ceremony were Todd Miller of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride, and John Naegele of Hays, Kan., brother-in-law of the groom. Kala Naegele of Hays, Kan., sister of the groom, sat at the registry.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of pleated ivory chiffon over taffeta. Styled with a Queen Anne neckline, the gown featured a fitted bodice covered with lace encrusted with seed pearls. The same lace formed wide cuffs for the full-length sleeves of sheer chiffon, and also formed matching borders at the hemline, and just above the hemline, which swept into a chapel-length train. Her matching ivory hat was covered with lace and bridal illusion and anchored her fingertip-length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and lavender roses encircling a white orchid.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with an off-white cloth trimmed with lace and bows. It held the four-layer bridal cake, which was formed in two tiers separated by white columns. Between the columns and on top of the cake were arrangements of silk flowers in varying shades ranging from lavender to purple, with lighter shades in the top arrangement and darker shades in the bottom arrangement. The icing was lavender, with decorative borders and flowers in various shades of lavender and purple. Grape punch was served.

A silver candelabra holding lavender tapers complemented the silver appointments. The wall behind the table was decorated with fans adorned with flowers and streamers in the bride's chosen colors.

The off-white cloth covering the groom's table was accented by purple netting forming a swag and tied with purple bows. A hurricane lamp holding a purple candle and surrounded by clusters of purple grapes formed the centerpiece. German chocolate cake was served, along with hors d'oeuvres.

Servers included Diane Miller, Debbie Arnold, Libby Cleveland, Tammy Davis, Darla Myatt and Linda Raso.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Bradley High School and a 1982 graduate of Lee College. She is employed as a teacher in Dimmitt.

A 1975 graduate of Lucas High School and a 1980 graduate of Fort Hays State University in Kansas, the groom is employed as a coach and teacher in Dimmitt.

Michael Wilkerson and DeAnn Hanson

July 28 vows are set

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hanson of Dimmitt announce the engagement and upcoming marriage of their daughter, DeAnn, to Michael Wilkerson, son of Clea Wilkerson of Dimmitt. The wedding ceremony will take place July 28, at 4 p.m. in the Lee Street Baptist Church of Dimmitt.

Hanson is a 1983 graduate of Dimmitt High School and is presently employed at Stan Byrnes Motor Co. Wilkerson is presently employed at Richard's Tractor & Auto. The pair plan to reside in Dimmitt after the wedding.

WALLPAPER affords a number of opportunities for variety in decorating, and there's a wide range of patterns and styles from which to choose, says Dr. Peggy Owens, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The type of wallpaper chosen will have an effect on wearability, washability, removability and cost, she adds. Washable wall coverings are made from a variety of materials that range from those that can be wiped clean to those that can be scrubbed. Some of the plastic coated wall coverings can be cleaned with a damp cloth, while some vinyl coverings are labeled "scrubbable," she says.

Two locals go to TAHA convention

Loranell Hamilton and Betty Freeman represented the Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary as delegates to the Forty-first Annual Convention of Hospital Auxiliaries, at the Marriott Hotel in San Antonio, June 3-6.

The theme of the Convention was "The Golden Rule — Key to Auxiliaries." There were 906 representatives from the Auxiliaries of Texas. The Opening Session was held in conjunction with the Texas Hospital Association, with Howard K. Smith as the speaker at the Convention Center. There was also a display of exhibits of the newest technical needs of any hospital.

"Tuesday was Uniform Day, and we thought all wore pink smocks, so we were surprised to see some with blue for 'bluebirds,' and some with yellow for 'sunshine ladies' and some in bright red vests," Freeman reported.

"Also, many of the groups have men to assist in various local activities."

"There were helpful workshops, table topics and speakers to challenge everyone with many new, and some old, ideas to make the Auxiliary better for the community," Freeman said.

"Caring, Sharing and Serving" was the main theme for the awards luncheon on Wednesday. The scrapbooks, newsletters, posters and exhibits had been on display during the convention, and the awards were presented to the different categories. The local auxiliary's scrapbook, prepared by Edith Graef with pictures of our work and activities by Reta Welch, was given a certificate of recognition.

In free time, Hamilton and Freeman toured historical sites, the River Walk, Market Square, Tower of the Americas, and historic homes.

GI BILL 40TH ANNIVERSARY

President Franklin Roosevelt signed the World War II GI Bill on June 22, 1944. There was little realization, then, of the impact this legislation would have on life in America. According to Stephen Lemons, Director at the Waco Regional Office, "This single act is believed to have had more impact on the American way of life than any other law passed since the Homestead Act of 1862."

Since June 22, 1944, America has had the greatest veterans program in history. No other country approaches America's generosity to its veterans in quality health care, education, job-training opportunities and a chance for a decent home.

More than 18 million persons have received some form of training under the GI Bill. This includes 8 million World War II veterans, 2 and one-half million Korean Conflict veterans, and 8 million Post-Korean and Vietnam Era veterans have been the greatest participants in GI Bill training. More than 70% of those eligible have received training — compared with 50% for World War II and 43% for Korean veterans.

Amended and extended, the GI Bill changed the national concept of adult education. It also started the greatest home construction boom in history. The GI Bill transformed something as ephemeral as an American dream into something as solid as a house on a plot of land with a mortgage. By backing loans of $224 billion for homes and businesses, the GI Bill has been a way of American life for more than 11 million veterans. For millions more, it promises to be a way to secure dreams in the future.

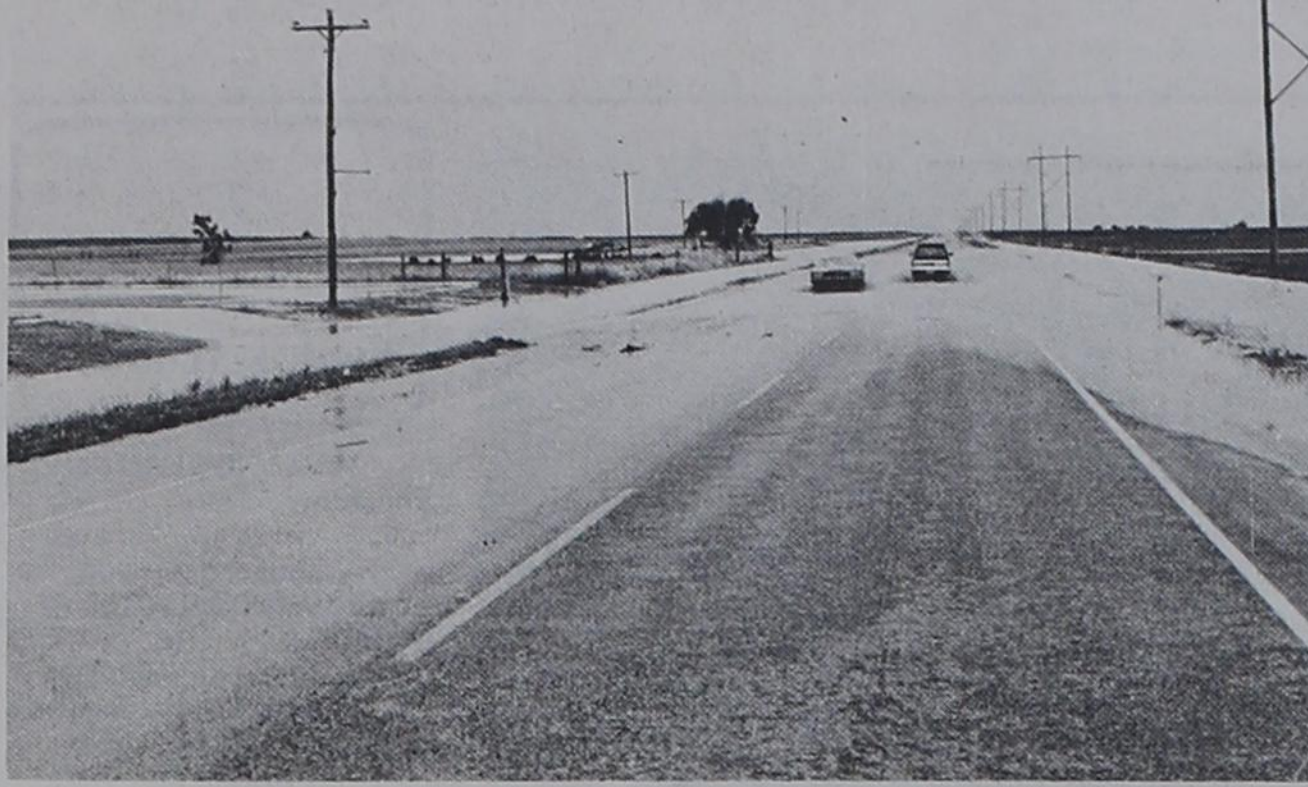

"Unlike many VA benefits," Lemons stated "there is no expiration date for use of the home loan entitlement." Veterans who have already used it once may have their entitlement restored and be able to obtain a new VA guaranteed home loan. Widows of veterans who died of service-connected causes are eligible. So are the wives of men who are prisoners of war, or missing in action.

Lemons added, "The program has been made more flexible in terms of the kind of housing that may be bought. Veterans can use their loan guaranty entitlement at whatever time in life it is most useful — whether it is for a manufactured home near a military base, a retirement home, or a condominium in the city."

The GI Bill has had a tremendously positive impact on veterans — just as it has had a powerful effect on all America. The GI Bill has been good for veterans and good for America.

JEREMY LANGFORD of the Yankees slides home with a run on a passed ball to give his team a 20-18 lead over the Dodgers in Mustang League action Thursday night.

Langford's steal came in the top of the fourth, during a two-inning playoff of an unfinished earlier game. The Yankees went on to win, 20-19.

Mustang

Dodgers, Yankees split

Leon Rodriguez blasted a two-run homer to power the Cards to a 21-12 victory over the Rangers in Mustang League action last Thursday.

The game had originally been scheduled for May 24, but was rained out and rescheduled for June 14.

The Cards jumped out to an early 6-1 first inning lead. They opened the game up in the second with 11 big runs and took a 17-3 lead. They added another four runs in the final inning to close out the win.

In another game rescheduled from June 7, the Dodgers drilled the Yankees 45-7. The Dodgers built up a 19-6 lead after the second inning, and then proceeded to bury the Yankees with a 20-run inning in the third. They added six more in the fourth to take the 45-7 victory.

The Yankees got revenge later on the same night. The second game between the Dodgers and Yankees was rescheduled from May 24 because of rain.

The Yankees edged the Dodgers 20-19 in their second meeting of the night.

After the end of two innings, the Yankees held a 13-9 lead, and added six more to their score in the third. The Dodgers tried to make a comeback in the bottom of the third, but it wasn't enough to surmount the Yankees early lead.

Police calls

A 28-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested Sunday night on charges of disorderly conduct, attempted escape and a terrorist threat.

The man was visiting his ex-wife at her apartment, and he refused to leave when she asked. She went to the Sheriff's office, and officer Paul Horn accompanied her back to her residence. He got the man out of the apartment and offered to take him home. The man consented, but on the way he began to use abusive language and became belligerent and very aggressive. Horn arrested him on charges of disorderly conduct at that point. As they arrived at the police station, the suspect jumped out of the police car and ran. Horn pursued him and caught him pursuing him and caught him, handcuffing him. Horn then added charges of attempted escape, filed a complaint on the suspect and he was then charged with making a terrorist threat.

On Monday night, a light brown Ford LTD, owned by Janice Nutt of Dimmitt was parked in the 800 block of West Jones Street. An unknown vehicle struck Nutt's car and left the scene, failing to leave information. Reports show that Nutt's car was possibly struck by a vehicle that had been formerly parked alongside of it.

On Saturday, a 26-year-old Muleshoe man was arrested on charges of DWI and speeding.

A 48-year-old Amarillo man was arrested on charges of public intoxication.

Public comment asked on proposals

Proposed 1984-85 Early Season Migratory Game Bird Regulations are being prepared by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department for publication in the Texas Register for the required 30-day public comment period. Final Commission action is scheduled for July 25.

The early season regulations are for migratory game bird species which have hunting seasons that begin before Sept. 29. These species include doves, gallinules, rails and teal ducks.

No changes are proposed for gallinules, rails, and teal ducks. However, changes required by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service as well as those recommended by TPWD, will necessitate some modification in dove regulations. The proposed changes will include:

—The names of the dove hunting zones (Panhandle, Central, and Rio Grande) would be changed to the North, Central and South Zones. These designations seem more acceptable to Texas dove hunters and should avoid the confusion that has resulted from the use of the names Panhandle and Rio Grande to describe parts of Texas not usually associated with these names.

—Proposed statewide bag limits during the regular mourning dove hunting season would be: 12 mourning, white-winged, and white-tipped (white-fronted) doves in the aggregate including no more than two white-winged and two white-tipped doves per day; 24 mourning, white-winged, and white-tipped doves in possession. This modification would permit a limited harvest of white-winged and white-tipped doves while still protecting the breeding populations of these species.

Persons wishing to comment on the proposed regulations may do so by writing or calling Ron George, Dove Program Leader, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Austin, TX 78744 (Telephone: 512-479-4979).
