

Drenched crops in trouble

Prospects of lodged milo, spotted cotton and shattered soybeans and castors face the county's farmers as the result of cold, steady rains that have washed out the harvest for the past two weeks.

CROP LOSS estimates range from 20 percent on remaining milo to as high as 50 percent on cotton.

While the harvest should have been in full swing, farmers have had to watch and wait as 3.28 inches of rain fell on their ripening crops during the last two weeks.

Faces brightened Saturday when the sun broke through and rain clouds drifted away — but Sunday it was the same old story as another front moved through, bringing another inch or more of rain.

DIMMITT'S 1969 moisture total passed the annual average of 16.75 last week, and climbed to 19.16 for the year Tuesday.

The ground is so soaked that farmers won't be able to get into their fields for 10 days or more after the rains stop.

"The rains are reducing the yield and quality of all the crops that are still to be harvested," said County Agent Charles Hottel. "It's pretty rough on the cattle, too — especially the feed-lot cattle."

THE COTTON crop appears to be the rain's main victim. The growth, and the continued moisture threatens heavy spotting of cotton.

"This looked like it was going to be the best cotton year in four years," one ginner said, "but now I wouldn't be surprised at a 50 percent loss."

The milo crop generally seems in less serious trouble, mainly because of a good price. The milo harvest was approximately 90 percent complete when the rains interrupted. And, although the summer's excessive heat and bugs hurt the yield and quality, the red grain is bringing a 25 percent higher price than it did at harvest time last year.

MILo was holding at $2.10 per cwt Wednesday at local elevators, compared with 1.65 this time last year.

Soybeans, which were on the verge of harvest when the rains started, may start shattering before the ground dries enough to harvest them, Hottel said.

Sugarbeet growers, already plagued by below-normal sugar content in their crops, are having to wait and hope. Holly Sugar Co. has stopped processing for the duration of the rains, and it will be a race against time when the harvest resumes.

"IN THE corn crops, rains could further deteriorate the stalks and make the recovery even harder," Hottel said. "The corn already was in bad shape because of the stress of wind, insects and dry weather."

MOONLIGHT FLIGHT — 'Twas the night before Halloween, and all through the town, not a creature was laughing — not even a clown. And I with my camera (and shaking with fear) was waiting for the fabled Great Pumpkin to appear — when out of the darkness there whizzed quite a sight, across the full moon as it lit up the night. Beyond Dimmitt's Doorknob there soared from the gloom, a little old witch trying out her new broom. Against the full moon she caused quite a fright, as she did loop-the-loops and whipped through the night. It was then that I noticed, with my fear-widened eye, she was chasing an object in the dark autumn sky. She climbed to the heights, then dived like an eagle, at a blue Sopwith Camel being flown by a beagle!

Help to make Halloween safe

They're small, swift, and turn up in the most unexpected places on Halloween night. And motorists are urged to keep a watchful eye out for the youthful spooks who will be trick-or-treating Friday night.

ABSORBED in their fun, the youngsters sometimes forget safety rules and may carelessly dart out into dimly lighted streets. Parents are also reminded to be sure their trick or treaters are dressed in fireproof costumes. Costumes may be flameproofed by dipping them into three quarts of warm water, seven ounces of borax and three ounces of boric acid.

Children should never carry candles. Battery powered lights are safer.

ALL costumes should be made of light colored materials with reflective materials in easily seen locations. Masks and costumes should be well fitted to prevent tripping and blocked vision.

Halloween is a night of fun for youngsters of all ages, but can quickly turn into a tragedy if adults are not aware of the dangers.

Address deadline is this week on 'Christmas Candy for GIs'

This weekend is the deadline for turning in the addresses of Castro County servicemen for the "Christmas Candy for GIs" project.

ADDRESSES should be taken to the county agent's office before 5 p.m. Friday, or mailed to Mrs. Beral Hance, Extension Office, Castro County Courthouse, Dimmitt, over the weekend. The office is closed Saturdays.

Mrs. Reta Welch, chairman of the unique project, said the addresses of all the county's servicemen are wanted — whether they're serving overseas or in the US — so they can be sent homemade candy from the county's kitchens for Christmas.

Six hundred pounds of homemade candy will be sent Nov. 10 to approximately 75 Castro County servicemen. The ladies working on the project hope to send the men in Vietnam 10 pounds each so they'll have plenty to share with their buddies.

All ladies of the county are asked to make candy for the project. Candy should be wrapped by individual pieces and packed in one-pound coffee cans, then delivered to the Castro County Farm Bureau office on North Broadway by Nov. 10. Each candy-maker should include her name and address on a slip of paper in each can, Mrs. Welch said.

Mrs. Welch added that $200 in cash is needed for postage. Contributions should be mailed or taken to the First State Bank of Dimmitt. Checks should be made payable to "Candy Project." Mrs. Virginia Hansen, head teller, is in charge of the mailing fund.

Unemployment claims reach all-time low

The number of people drawing unemployment insurance is at an all-time low in Castro, Deaf Smith and Parmer Counties.

LESTER H. RAPE, Hereford area office manager for the Texas Employment Commission, said only two persons have qualified for unemployment insurance checks in the three-county area during the last 30 days. He added that during that time the area office received applications from only nine people in the three-county area — five from Deaf Smith, three from Parmer and one from Castro.

"This is the first time since the office opened that this figure has been this low," Rape reported.

To qualify for unemployment insurance, a person must have worked for someone who pays the unemployment insurance tax, and must be unemployed through no fault of his own. Each claimant also must be available for work.

THE AMOUNT an unemployed worker can qualify for, Rape said, depends on how much he has earned during the first four of the last five completed quarters.

Only employers who have four or more employees (excluding the owners) are required to pay the unemployment insurance tax, Rape said.

Exempt from the tax are farmers and ranchers; city, county and state governments; schools, hospitals and other non-profit organizations.

A LOW unemployment rate indicates good job prospects, Rape said. He encouraged anyone who is interested in obtaining a job to register at the Texas Employment Commission office in the Castro County Agricultural Housing Project in East Dimmitt.

FATAL ACCIDENT SCENE ON RAIN-SOAKED HIGHWAY MONDAY ... Pickup's driver, Marvin Tisdale, died instantly in head-on wreck

Dimmitt man killed in crash

A 57-year-old Dimmitt man was killed instantly Monday when his pickup collided head-on with a Mack semi-trailer truck near the Tam Anne Gin, 10½ miles west of Dimmitt.

KILLED WAS Marvin Grady Tisdale, farm worker who lived in the Tam Anne area and worked on the Gordon Elliott farm.

The accident, which occurred at 1 p.m. Monday just half a mile south of Tisdale's home, strewn wreckage 300 feet along both sides of State Highway 86.

Highway Patrolman Billy Scott, who investigated, said Tisdale was driving west in his 1963 Chevrolet pickup when he turned into the path of a 1961 Mack cattle truck driven by Carl Ray Motley, 25, of Olton.

TISDALE was turning left across the highway onto the Tam Anne Gin yard and apparently didn't notice the truck coming, Scott said.

Motley, who was returning to Dimmitt Feed Yards after delivering a load of cattle to Friona, applied his brakes and the big truck skidded approximately 100 feet along the rain-soaked highway before the collision.

The impact knocked the pickup 108 feet down the highway and ripped off its hood, engine, radiator, doors, windshield and posts, scattering them 300 feet along the roadway and shoulders.

AFTER IMPACT, the cattle truck skidded off the road and slid 300 feet along the muddy shoulder — carrying the pickup's doors and hood with it — before snapping a power pole and jack-knifing to a stop. The impact ripped off the truck's hood and badly damaged its front end.

Motley escaped with a badly bruised leg, caused when his knee hit the gearshift. He was treated and released at Plains Memorial Hospital.

The cattle truck is owned by Norris Sampler of Route 2, Hart.

FUNERAL services for Mr. Tisdale were conducted Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the Avenue Baptist Church of Hereford. Bill Talley, of Dimmitt officiated. Burial was in West Lawn Memorial Park here, under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford.

Mr. Tisdale, a World War II veteran, moved to Castro County from Hereford in 1961. He was born April 28, 1912, in Dodson. He married Alva Mae Byrnes in Clayton, N.M., in 1932. His wife is an employee at Plains Memorial Hospital.

Survivors include his wife, Alva Mae; a son, Jerry, of Hereford; five daughters, Nancy, a Dimmitt High School student, Mrs. Sammy Lytle of Dimmitt, Mrs. Wanda Williams of Cordell, Okla., Mrs. Peggy Stable of Mead, Kan., and Mrs. Delores Morris of Hereford; two brothers, Jess of Amarillo and Roy of Wellington; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Shipley and Mrs. Otilie France, both of Hereford; and 13 grandchildren.

County Farm Bureau members adopt nine policy statements

Members of the Castro County Farm Bureau, at their annual convention Saturday night, adopted resolutions urging national commodity bargaining, cooperation with other farm organizations, changes in road laws and continuation of tax breaks for farmers.

A LARGE crowd attended the convention, which started with a chili supper in South Elementary School cafeteria.

Speakers included high school students Guila Barrios of Dimmitt, Pam Shive of Hart and Walter Pohlmeier of Nazareth, delegates to a Farm Bureau-sponsored citizenship seminar at Baylor University in August; and Volunteer Fireman Bill Scott and Fire Marshal Guy Waldrop, who attended the Farm Bureau's annual firemen's school at Texas A&M in September.

Entertainment was by the Siro-Finn, a folk-music sextet of Dimmitt High School students Andy and Maryanna Murphy, Skip Skinner, Teena Proffitt, Sherry Cole and Gary Webb.

COUNTY Farm Bureau members adopted these nine resolutions to be submitted to the state convention later this year:

- "We favor wording resolutions in the affirmative whenever possible, rather than to oppose."
- "We favor changing the law on the operation of vehicles on highways, to allow a tractor which is more than nine feet wide on the highway without a permit."
- "BE IT resolved that the Farm Bureau select committees on local, state and national levels for the purpose of bargaining for better prices on all major commodities, and that they be empowered to enter into contracts with growers and processors for the marketing of such commodities."
- "We favor authorizing our personnel in Washington to work for programs which may be only partially in line with our resolutions, whenever they realize we cannot obtain programs fully in line with our policy."
- "We favor authorizing our leaders to have conferences with other farm organizations to try to work out agreements by compromise on farm programs."
- "We recommend that the administration and Congress keep credit as it has been this past year."
- "WE FAVOR continuation of the exemption of the state sales tax on farm equipment and farm production items, and urge that any increases in this tax should be on retail consumer goods only."
- "Be it resolved that farm program costs be broken down into actual payments to farmers; and that costs such as school lunch programs, administrative costs (Head Start), etc., be designated as such."
- "Be it resolved that all farmers curtail new purchases until a more favorable price situation is developed."

'Agribusiness' sausage dinner slated Tuesday

Business men will treat farmers to a sausage feast Tuesday night as the Chamber of Commerce holds its first "Agribusiness Dinner" of the year at Nazareth.

THE EVENT will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Nazareth School cafeteria. The sausage dinner will be prepared and served by the ladies of the Nazareth PTA.

Chamber of Commerce members are footing the bill for the dinner. Each business man is asked to buy at least two plates — one for himself and one for a farmer. Price is $2.25 per plate.

Mrs. Dorothy Magness, secretary, said chamber members may call her and tell her how many plates they'd like to buy, and she will bill them later.

CHAMBER President Jimmy Ross urged all farmers in the area to attend the sausage dinner. Invitations aren't necessary, he said.

"Through these dinners, we hope to bring the farmers and business men closer together so they will have a better understanding of each other's problems and can work together for the good of the county as a whole," Ross said.

HOMECOMING QUEEN — Sue Lust of Dimmitt beams as she is crowned Homecoming Queen of West Texas State University Thursday by Student Association President Gary Cook. Miss Lust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Lust of the Flagg community, is a sophomore at WTSU. She reigned Saturday over the Homecoming game against New Mexico State University, which was televised regionally by ABC-TV. (WTSU Photo)

OKAY! — Hart High School's Pop Club girls jump to their feet and give the symbol to "hook 'em, Horns" during a yell at the school's Homecoming warmup Friday. Although the weather forced postponement of the bonfire, enough enthusiasm was generated to inspire the Longhorns to a 54-8 victory over Nazareth in the Homecoming game Friday night.

Costume party brings out margarine king and Tiny Tim

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

A real fun party was the costume and mask affair at the Country Club Saturday night. Food, music and dancing was the fare for a big crowd of Halloween guests. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Posey, Mr. and Mrs. Halsell Thomas, Bob Vilas, Bobbie George, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover. The best costumes I heard about were Dr. Bill Lee as the Imperial King of Margarine, Marge McGowan as a mummy, Bob Meyers went as Tiny Tim, with long hair and a small ukelele. Cliff Cook went as a dirty long-haired hippy. James and Maxie Horton went as Hawaiians. They are just home from a trip to the Islands and bought the costumes there. Aural Davis went as Little Red Riding Hood. She says she "didn't" see a wolf. I didn't get to go to this party.

NANCY UPTON and children of Madill, Okla., are here visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Leland Lee and sister Carolyn Copeland and boys.

Turk and Janice Cates are the parents of a baby girl. She has been named April LaDanya. Isn't that a pretty name? They live in Ringwood, Okla. Grandparents are Judge and Mary Baldrige and the Deroy Cates. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Autry.

SEVERAL took advantage of the rainy weather to go fishing — Judge Baldrige, James Bradford, Harry Haut and Manuel and maybe more boys. Anyway they headed out for Falcon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Coursey and Mrs. Pete Maddox of Lordsburg, stopped here to visit their friends George and Josie Bradford. They were enroute to Memphis and a stay in Paris, Texas.

Mr. Mike King and son Michael of Hereford and Mrs. Irving King were lunching in Dimmitt Saturday. Mrs. Irving King went home with granddaughter-in-law for a visit, then on to Amarillo to visit her son Francis and family. The Mike Kings teach school in Hereford.

MR. AND MRS. W. E. Kirkpatrick are home from Houston where W. E. had his checkup and they stopped in Wharton to visit Lucile and family.

Mrs. Garrison and her daughter of Childress were here Tuesday for a visit with daughter Mrs. Carl Bruegel. Mrs. Whitworth of Texarkana and daughter Mrs. Bullock are here to visit son and brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Troy Whitworth. The mother has been in the hospital for several days.

Mrs. Sharon Hamilton of Dallas is here for a visit with her mother Mrs. Sam Maynard and her brother Wade and his wife Walter. Sharon gets the paper and likes getting news of Dimmitt.

MRS. KENNETH FULFER and daughters Elaine, Janet and Dee Dee left Lubbock by jet for Hawaii, where they will join Capt. Kenneth Fulfer for a week's visit and sightseeing trip. Capt. Fulfer has been serving his country in Vietnam.

A BIRTHDAY celebration was held Sunday, Oct. 26, in the home of Mrs. Charity Moore in honor of Mrs. Moore's, J. B. Moore's and Omega Johnson's birthday. It was Mrs. Moore's 83rd birthday. Those present were Mrs. Moore and four children — J. B., Christeen Moke, Christell Wilcox, Omega Johnson and families. Also there were 11 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blackwell, Mrs. Jerr Blackwell and Scott. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore and family of Hollis, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilbanks of Lubbock.

Two grandsons, Russell Johnson of Phoenix, Ariz., and Stanley Wilcox and family of Hereford and one great granddaughter were unable to attend.

RHENEBA BAKER, daughter of the Bob Bakers, was hostess Friday night to 22 girls who are in the eighth grade. It was Rheneba's 14th birthday. They had all kinds of food, went to the ballgame, and stayed awake.

K. C. Sessions visited his relatives in Childress last weekend. K. C. works for the El Castro Pig Farm, Sheffy's and Brown's.

Neva Dale Morrison and her aunt Ruby Cushionberry of Quitaque were Saturday guests of relative Neva Hickey. On Sunday Neva went to a market showing in Dallas. It was a spring show of fashions.

Fannie Cash Laos of Plainview was a Sunday guest of Leola Haberger. They attended church, then on to Hereford for dinner with Frankie Kerr Ridgeway.

Mike Elder, son of George and Bessie, is with the KPNR Radio Station at Hereford. His dad George, has been in Missouri on business for a few days.

MRS. RAY JOE RILEY, assisted by Mrs. John Gilbreath was hostess at a bridge party at the Country Club Thursday afternoon. They served several dips, desserts and coffee to Carolyn Jones, Ruth Jackson, Dorothy Mayfield, Stephanie Love, Gail Ratcliff, Katy Graham, Mona Merritt, Shirley Wise, Beth Jones, Mary Goss, Marilyn Carver and Ina Cleavinger.

Mrs. Dennis Blackburn was hostess on Tuesday for three tables of bridge. I didn't get the names.

Raymond King of Lubbock stopped in Dimmitt to visit friends enroute to Hereford on business. The Kings lived in Dimmitt a few years ago.

AURAL DAVIS was hostess on Thursday with dinner and bridge at the Hereford Country Club. That day was the "Yum Yum Cafe" with delectable dishes from Italy, China, Mexico. Guests are Messrs. and Mmes. Russell Moran, Ted Sheffy, Charlie Hays, John Merritt, J. M. Wright, Dorit Smiley, Charles Vandiver, Suzie Ellis and Carol Dyer. Her husband Goldman flew off somewhere on business.

Wilma Ashworth of Midland was a weekend guest of friend Barbara Stevens Wheat. Barbara is secretary for Burkett and Ross. Bill and Kay Stevens and children of Hereford were Sunday guests of his mother Wannie Stevens, who works for Norgas.

JERRY AND CAROL Cluck were hosts at open house Sunday afternoon. They have a big pretty house on the hill east of the Western Ammonia Plant on the Hart Road. Serving the coffee, punch and cookies were Keri Kirby, Leann Merritt and Jo Ann Stone. The table was very attractive, covered with a long linen cloth and a big turkey centerpiece. The bird was made of fall-colored leaves. Assisting the Clucks were the Ronnie Farris, the Richard Hunters, the Jess Willards, the Norman Nelsons, Carolyn Watts and Rachel Hunter.

Mrs. Norman Nelson says the get together last week of the members of the class of 1969 was good. They plan for this group to meet here again during the Christmas holidays. Get the word around. Attending this year were the graduates and husbands or wives — the Ben Holcomb, the Glen Odoms, Brenda and Joe Andrews, the Norman Nelsons, Bill and Mary Lynn Langford of Dallas, Dornie George of Plainview, Gary Simms of Amarillo, Morris Westberry of Canyon, Joyce Messenger Ellis of Wellman, Marilyn Campbell Ginn of Lubbock and Elmer Hershey of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Betty Parsons and Mrs. Kathy Lindsey were hostesses at a bridesmaid's luncheon for Donna McGowan on Tuesday before her wedding to Ronnie Hathaway.

Mrs. Al Maurer of Nazareth attended a judges and commissioners annual meeting in Dallas. J. M. says they heard many speeches, some good, some not so good. They had a dress Hawaiian dinner too.

Rita Smith, whose home is in Portage, Ind., and is a student at Wayland, was a Sunday guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. B. Rials and cousin Pat Evans. Mrs. Rials is a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Tudor of Idalou were Sunday dinner guests of the Tcm Davises. They and Mildred Bradford and Dad Bradford went to the Country Club at Hereford for dinner.

Ginger Kemp, a student at Baylor University, played girls touch football, so guess what! She has a broken nose, a hurt leg and is on crutches. Homecoming is there next week. Sorry about that Ginger.

JUDGE R. E. Wilson, J. M. and Grace Wright, and Mr. and Guests were Marge McGowan, her mother, sisters Vicki and Deann, Terri Dowty, Sherry Cole, Nancy Jackson, Kathy Markley, Tammy and mother from Plainview. Kathy's husband is Wayne Lindsey, who is pharmacist at Parsons Drug. Kathy is a nurse at Plains Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemons of Bookcr were weekend guests of their son Al and family. Al is a coach here and Mrs. Lemons is in the hospital office as secretary.

I MET FRANCISCO Fernandez at the hospital. He lost a leg just below the knee a few weeks ago in an accident at one of the Hart Elevators. Dan Nelson interpreted the Spanish for me. Francisco has a wife and three children in Mexico. He will learn to wear an artificial limb later. Stop in and speak to him. It helps pass the time.

Oh ycs, the son of the J. Paul Wagoners of Sunnyside is there also, not very sick they said. But I called on Jimmy D. He has a huge boil on the upper lip. Jimmy D. goes to school at WTSU and his friend Gary Crum of WT and friend Debbie Morgan of Wayland called on him Sunday.

Mrs. Goolsby is in Plains Memorial Hospital and is much better.

At about 1 I know this week is croupy people and croupy wet weather.

Sid Sheffy (my husband) had to spend a few days in Plains Memorial Hospital. He couldn't get over his cough. Those nurses are so nice. I think the folks kind of like it there. Mrs. O. K. Howe went home feeling much better, but Mrs. George Bradford had to stay a few days. She seemed tired and headachy, no wonder, she never stops.

Sue Broderson came back for a few days. She also had a cough. Leral Hance was there for quite a time, also Mrs. Thomas and Jimmie Wyr and several others. I didn't get to talk to. I saw some pretty babies through the window.

So much construction is going on at Plains Memorial Hospital. The big wing is being completed, a much larger office space is worked out for the manager and office girls.

DID YOU see the pretty picture of Sue Lust in the Amarillo paper? She was elected Homecoming Queen at WTSU — and a good choice I would say. There are enough Dimmitt kids going to school there. They can almost elect who they want. The old saying "As Maine goes, so goes the Nation," well we say "As Dimmitt votes so goes WTSU."

Bible Thoughts

A HAPPY MARRIAGE By Ronnie Parker

In Iowa stands the historic LITTLE BROWN CHURCH and is the scene of many hundreds of weddings each year. The preacher has adopted a beautiful farewell to the many happy couples. After the ceremony is ended, he walks with the couple to the entry of the building and says, "Before you go, the bride has the honor of ringing the church bell." He hands her the rope, and she pulls with all her might, but the heavy bell will not turn. The preacher then turns to the groom and asks that he lend a hand and help his bride. Together they pull and the bell turns, sending out over the countryside the news of another wedding. Then the minister says, "as you go out into life, never forget that as long as you pull together, you can ring the bell." Ring the bell for a happier marriage by taking these steps.

- 1. Share the day's activities with each other and also your hopes for the future.
2. Meet each other at least halfway when disagreements arise. Quarrels are not a matter of who's right, but what's right.
3. Involve each other in family finances — in spending and saving.
4. Be together in whatever discipline and punishment you use in rearing children.
5. Remember — small acts of appreciation can be the most effective way to demonstrate love and respect for each other.

Time to Pray... Life can be so full and active... There are the school hours, time for study, and for a growing child there must be recreation. Also a time for eating is necessary, and a time to be with the family. One of the most needed times is to be with God in prayer. There are times that we should give thanks to God for our food, and times to seek his guidance and watch-care, and there are times to pray with others. This we can do by attending church.

INVESTIGATE BEFORE YOU BUY!

Insurance Policy Made To Appear As Investment

Beware of those salesmen who come to you with a letter of recommendation from one of your friends and try to get you "in on the ground floor" of his fabulous company. It is bad enough that he has probably already taken your friend for a commitment of a lot of money he could invest to much greater advantage elsewhere.

What the salesman is attempting to do is get you to make what he represents as a highly profitable investment which turns out to be an extremely expensive and highly concealed series of insurance payments on a very limited insurance policy.

Most of the "deals" include a profit sharing dividend feature with the implication that these dividends will continually increase in size as the company grows and makes better profits, but it will, in nearly every case, take years to even recover the original investment.

By its very nature the special policy is difficult to understand, lends itself to misrepresentation, and defies comparisons with other insurance policies which the layman may understand. More often than not they are sold in a highly promotional manner, represented as a one-time-only opportunity for a person to get in on the ground floor. Highly polished, canned sales presentations with exaggerated emphasis on the themes of profit investment, dividends and the like often leave buyers unaware that they have merely bought an insurance policy.

The above article recently appeared in the monthly publication printed by the Better Business Bureau of Arkansas, Inc. (Little Rock, Ark.)

4-H'ers to get awards Saturday

By IRENE KEATING
 Home Demonstration Agent

The annual 4-H Awards Program will be held Saturday evening. The county 4-H'ers will be recognized for their work this past year. All 4-H'ers, their parents and friends are invited to the covered dish supper to be held at the South Elementary School cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

THE LADIES who have made coats, jackets or capes this month in our sewing meetings will have a style show at 4 p.m. today (Thursday) in the assembly room of the courthouse. Anyone who is interested is invited to come see the garments.

All of us eat beef, but how much do we really know about it? Here is a quiz to let you know if you are as knowledgeable about beef as you should be.

1. Beef varies in quality more than any other kind of meat.
  - (a) Yes (b) No
2. The USDA grade mark for meat is:
  - (a) a circle, (b) a shield, (c) a triangle.
3. The USDA beef grade most widely sold at retail is:
  - (a) USDA Prime, (b) USDA Choice, (c) USDA Good, (d) USDA Standard, (e) USDA Commercial.
4. "Marbling" in beef means:
  - (a) a wider, thicker fat band, (b) meat nearest to the bone, (c) flecks of fat within the lean, (d) brighter red color.
5. The more tender cuts of beef are generally taken from:
  - (a) the less-used muscles along the back of the animal, (b) the rib section, (c) the loin section, (d) all of the above, (e) none of the above.
6. Name given beef cuts sometimes vary from store to store and in different parts of the country.
  - (a) Yes (b) No.
7. USDA grades, highly trained in determining meat quality, grade:
  - (a) whole carcasses, (b) wholesale cuts, (c) retail cuts, (d) both (a) and (b), (e) both (b) and (c).
8. All meat is graded.
  - (a) Yes (b) No.
9. Most often cured and sold as corned beef is the:
  - (a) shoulder clod, (b) shoulder arm, (c) brisket, (d) sirloin tip, (e) heel of the round.
10. Less tender cuts of beef are a waste of money.
  - (a) Yes, (b) No.

ANSWERS

1. (a) — Yes. But you don't have to learn to judge beef quality for yourself. USDA grades are a reliable guide to meat quality.
2. (b) — Shield. The shield-shaped grade mark containing the letters USDA and the name of the grade can be found on most cuts of graded meat. A round mark is used to show that the meat has passed inspection for wholesomeness.
3. (b) — USDA Choice. Each USDA beef grade is a measure of a distinct level of quality. Choice grade is produced in the greatest volume and many retailers have found that this level of quality pleases most of their customers.
4. (c) — Flecks of fat within the lean. Marbling enhances both flavor and juiciness. The degree of marbling is one of the quality factors considered by USDA graders.
5. (d) — All of the above. Cuts from the less-used muscles are more tender than those from active-muscle sections. The most tender cuts are in highest demand and therefore they cost more than less tender cuts.
6. (a) — Yes. Your best guide is standard terminology for cuts, such as blade chuck, rib roast, rump roast, etc.
7. (d) — Both a and b. When the carcass or wholesale cut is graded, a purple shield-shaped mark containing the letters USDA and the grade name is applied with a roller. When cut into retail cuts one or more of the grade marks will appear on most of these cuts.
8. (b) — No. Meat grading is a voluntary service provided by Consumer and Marketing Service to meat packers and others who request it and pay a fee for the service.
9. (c) — Brisket.
10. (b) — No. Less tender cuts are often a good buy. Cook these with moist heat in any grade. The most tender cuts are more nutritious than less tender cuts. Score two points for each correct answer. 20-24, Excellent 16-20, Very Good 8-16, Fair Below 8, Failing

Letters To The Editor:

County NFO president urges feedlots to join, not fight

Dear Editor: There has been much controversy about the recent NFO holding action of grain sorghum in the six major grain sorghum producing states. I would like to say that NFO is not trying to create a hardship on the feedlots in the areas; we are only trying to survive as independent farmers and businessmen. We need the feedlots and would like very much for the feedlot owners and operators to join NFO and through NFO maintain a fair price for fat cattle. This is being done in other feeding areas and can also be done here. There is no doubt in my mind that the feedlots in this area can set the price of fat cattle in the nation if they will only join NFO. It should be a good businessman should have a positive attitude toward his prices. There is not much we can do about the prices we have to pay for parts, labor, new machinery, household items or whatever. Sure, we can bargain with the seller to a point, but when he reaches the point where he cannot make a profit, he will start a holding action. This is good business. This is what NFO is doing today. Again, I will invite the feedlot owners and operators to join NFO and through NFO maintain a fair price for their product.

ROBERT L. HAWKINS
President, Castro County NFO

'Friends' board receives books

Board members of the Castro County Friends of the Library received three book donations for the county library at their regular meeting last week.

MRS. MARY ACKER announced that Father Stanley Crocchio of Nazareth was donating the book, "Cicero and the Roman Republic," and the 1968 and 1969 editions of the Britannica Book of the Year.

The board announced that a brochure featuring the authors of the top 26 counties of Texas is now available in the library. The brochure was published by the Amarillo Public Library.

The "Friends" are now working toward National Children's Book Week, which will be Nov. 17-22. Purpose of this special week is to encourage reading and library use by children.

PRESENT at the board meeting were Mrs. Mary Acker, Mrs. Jo Eddy Riley, Mrs. Margaret Womack, Mrs. Virginia Newsom and Mrs. Irene Keating.

New clothing tag states guarantee

Something new has been added to the hang tags on some clothing: a guarantee that a garment will wear for a specified length of time.

IF THE garment doesn't live up to its guarantee, the manufacturer says he will return the purchase price or replace the garment. Fannie Brown Eaton, Extension clothing specialist, says.

She urges consumers to read garment labels, save the labels or hang tags and the dated sales slips. This proves how long a consumer has had the guaranteed garments.

Be sure the sales slip is dated when a guaranteed garment is purchased, the specialist cautions. Store clerks may not mention that garments carry a guarantee because so few clothing items have one as yet.

Grants offered to 4-H members

Some 89 educational grants for outstanding 4-H members are being offered this year by the Santa Fe Railway System.

THE AWARD offer is open to current 4-H'ers in the 11 states served by the Santa Fe — Texas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Eligible 4-H members must be at least 14, but must not have reached their 19th birthday by Jan. 1, 1969. They must have been enrolled in 4-H program at least three years, including the current year.

Santa Fe offers 25 scholarships of $500 each and 62 other achievement awards.

THE Cooperative Extension Service judges the records of state winners. These winners will be recognized at a dinner Dec. 1, during the 1969 National 4-H Congress in Chicago. The scholarship winners will be announced at the dinner.

Santa Fe has supported 4-H work on a regional basis since 1923, offering both achievement and college scholarship awards. Judging is based on the 4-H members' records of achievement and growth in projects, leadership, personal development and community service.

'Horror house'

for boys 8-10

Halloween thrills will come a night early for all Dimmitt boys 8 through 10 when a "Horror House" is unveiled at the monthly Cub Scout pack meeting tonight (Thursday).

THE MEETING will begin at 7:30 p.m. in South Elementary School cafeteria, and is open to all boys in the Cub Scout age group, whether they are Cubs or not.

Lonnie Bell, Dimmitt Cubmaster, urged all boys who are interested in joining Cub Scouts to attend the pack meeting and bring their parents if they wish.

In addition to going through the "Horror House," those attending will see the boys in Dimmitt's four Cub dens show the skills they've learned. Refreshments will be served, also.

"WE'RE TRYING to contact all boys who are interested in Cub Scouts," Bell said, "then we'll try to organize enough new dens to take care of them."

He added, "We need den mothers desperately. Our four present dens are full, and many boys have shown an interest in joining the Cub Scouts. We need mothers who are willing to host a den meeting of eight boys once a week or once every other week."

He said each new den should have a den mother, assistant den mother, and a Boy Scout or Explorer to serve as the "denner" to help the Cub Scouts learn scouting skills and earn their ranks.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Parris have spent the past two weeks on a trip as far as Irontown, Ohio, where they visited his brother, Clytus, and family. They toured interesting points and saw the foliage in Arkansas, Missouri and Kentucky and returned by way of the Dakotas. Letters to the Editor

Life seen as daily blessing in poem written by soldiers

Dear Editor:

My husband has recently returned to Vietnam after a short leave home. In one of his first letters after returning to Vietnam, he told me that his company had been in trouble and that a lot of his buddies had been killed. He sent me a reading entitled, "Good Mornin', Good Evenin'!" The words in it are words or things that each or all of the servicemen have said or done at one time or another. It was given to him by one of his buddies. He had these words to say:

"Good morning, Lord, and thank you again" are words we all used every day to thank God he gave us another day of sunlight. Larry Hallum wrote it and John Smalley is the one who made us start thanking the Lord every day. When he got up, the first thing he always says is "Good morning, Lord, and thank you again." When a man has lost someone who was his good friend, it isn't easy to forget. The job we have to do here is a drag, but we keep going because we love people back home. We need more support than anyone can say."

Here is a copy of the reading. Maybe you can find some way to use it to show the people at home just a sample of how the servicemen feel and how we all need to remember them daily because they are fighting and losing their lives for us every day.

Mrs. Junior (Kita) Hargrove Lubbock

★ GOOD MORNIN', GOOD EVENIN'!
Time to be up and movin' guys! Charlie will catch us nappin' otherwise. Still it's dark and ain't much light. But doin' the unexpected keeps us upright. Rollin' up my liner, cinchin' up my rucksack, Eatin' fruit cocktail helps us hump the pack. One good swig washes the night's darkness away. As the ocean bears the newborn sun, another day. Pausin' just a second to ponder, friend, "Good mornin' Lord, and thank you again!"

Leadin' out first. Who's got point? Don't mean nothin', GI anyway. May not believe it, but that's what we say. Ain't gonna be all alone way up front. Lookin' out close behind is your bud, another grunt. You gotta have a "bud" to cover you every day. Then you and he are gonna make it home — the right way. The big guy is always troddin' alongside too. Constant source of mental strength. Moral guide for me and you. Still scared, always am.

Lookin' hard, with intense listenin'. Senses are all in the bush and on the trail. The price too personal and too high-tail. Been movin' fast and I'm 'bout done in. Take a short break; Move out in ten! Alternate security, left and then right. Got to always have your stuff up-tight. Guess this could be pretty country even now. Just to replace bayonets with a sincere man's plow. To be a little more like Snoopy or Charlie Brown. To say the least would turn the work upside down. That' neither here nor there, I guess. Got to be a bushman now, I'll do my best.

Puttin' into our day logger we have security, twelve to six. Seems like we're permanent, twelve to six. But we ain't got anybody hurt, being twelve to six. So it's gotta be our thing, that's twelve to six. The Sir has first squad's twiggly movin' out. Savin' our patrol for the evenin', no doubt. Could be checkin' out a trail or an old river bed. Just watever's been workin' in the old man's head.

Out three to five hundred and set up! Wonder if Charlie's gonna come diddle-boppin' along? Playin' his transistor like there's not even a war goin' on. 'Cause he knows GIs don't move when it's hot. But this time his stuff is real flakey, is it not? Dink's comin' up on the right! Hold Steady, let 'em come in sight. It's hard-to-explain feelin', comin' face to face with "Chuck"— We're just thankful that this time, we had all the luck!

You just helped bring human life to an end. Death is personal, whether stranger, foe, or friend. Always hopin' that you don't kill for the mean joy. Of seein' a man topple like a soulless toy. "Who am I?" asked the philosopher of the inner-man. Surely it must be; I think, therefore I am. In the bush, philosophers we are not. But in the gentle silence we reason a lot. It's cool now with an evenin' breeze. And the sun has merged with the mountain's trees. Pausin' just a second to ponder, friend, "Good evenin' Lord, and thank you again!"

If the big rains come again next Spring, you're safe — with nitrogen already in the ground to give young plants a strong start. And you get the job done when the product, labor, and equipment are readily available. No last-minute rush.

Even if you graze stalks this fall, there'll still be lots of crop residue left in the field. NITROMITE plowdown will aid decomposition of this residue, releasing valuable nutrients for new plants in the Spring.

The clincher is at harvest: if ever there was a good time, this will be the year to give your crop a great big shot in the yield with NITROMITE, Shamrock's fine brand of anhydrous ammonia — 82% nitrogen for bigger, high-protein yields.

SWPS increasing its efforts to develop new area industry

Southwestern Public Service Co. is expanding its area development department in an effort to offer additional services to communities and industry-seeking organizations in its service area.

THE ELECTRIC company has named Elvin Schofield of Amarillo to the post of industrial development consultant. In his new assignment, Schofield will develop industrial prospects for the service area on the basis of research data showing what types of industries can best utilize the resources, natural and human, of the region.

In addition, he will work with the various communities served by Southwestern to help them keep up-to-date the statistical data which is of interest to prospective industries.

Schofield joined Southwestern Public Service Co. in Amarillo as a sales representative in 1963. For the past few years he has been responsible for the sales of equipment in the company's Panhandle Division. He is presently serving as secretary-treasurer of the Panhandle Chapter of the Texas Restaurant Association.

A 1959 graduate of West Texas State University with a bachelor of business administration degree, Schofield received the Wall Street Journal Student Achievement Award as the outstanding WTSU business student in 1959. He is a May, 1970 candidate for a master of business administration degree at WTSU.

SCHOFIELD is a captain in the Army Reserve and served for more than five years as the commanding officer of the 974th Repair Parts Company, USAR, in Amarillo. He is also a director of the San Jacinto Lions Club in Amarillo.

Southwestern Public Service Co.'s area development department includes, in addition to Schofield, R. K. Owen, area development manager; Larry Milner, industrial development manager; and Sam A. Thomas Jr., agricultural development manager. All members of the department are available to work with communities and industrial development organizations in the company's four-state service area.

Schofield

ment includes, in addition to Schofield, R. K. Owen, area development manager; Larry Milner, industrial development manager; and Sam A. Thomas Jr., agricultural development manager. All members of the department are available to work with communities and industrial development organizations in the company's four-state service area.

COTTON STALKS left standing after harvest and regrowth after shredding provide food for boll weevils and pink bollworms. All stalks should be shredded and along with regrowth cotton should be plowed under. This practice, when carried out on a community or countywide basis, will cut down on next year's cotton insect problems.

Co-op Month spotlights state agriculture trend

A basic way of doing business in the American free enterprise system by both rural and urban people is receiving special attention during October, which is national Co-op Month.

THIS YEAR'S theme, according to Johnny R. Feagan, Extension economist in farm organization, is "Cooperatives: Progress Through People." Thus, the greatest asset of cooperatives — the people who own and use their business, who provide the leadership and management and who support the cooperatives from outside — are in the spotlight.

A cooperative, explains Feagan, is organized in and is a part of the community. It is established to meet specific needs, to perform functions that are important to the individual and the community, state and nation, says Feagan.

In Texas, the A&M University specialist says, about 187,000 of the state's farmers and ranchers conduct a relatively large business through their participation in a private, self-owned business institution. These people, he adds, have progressed through acting together in order to satisfy their economic needs.

IN ALL, according to preliminary US Department of Agriculture statistics, Texas farmers and ranchers operate about 745 agricultural cooperatives of many kinds. They include 508 processing, marketing and supply associations. During 1968 the value of business handled was placed at $767,438,000, an increase of 13.8 percent over 1967. Cooperatives in Texas points out Feagan, are getting larger in size which reflects the trend of producers.

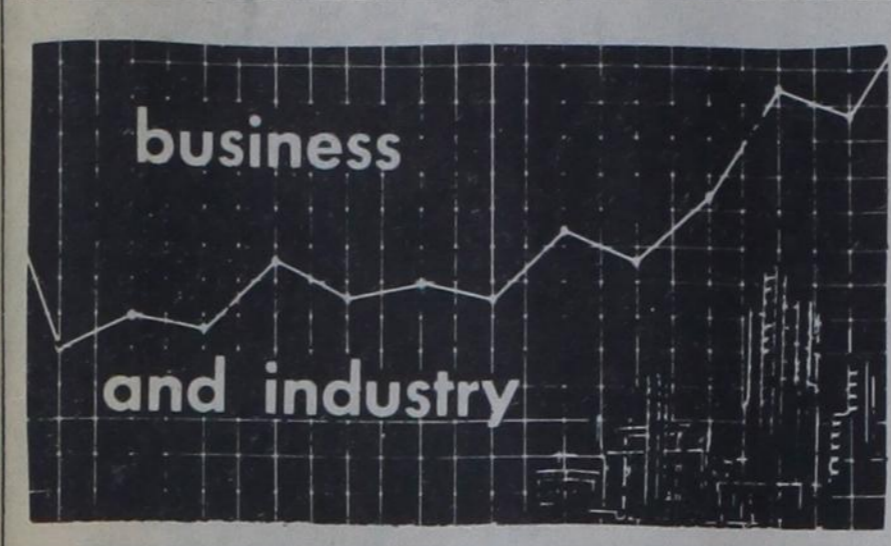

Nationally, nearly a million farmers have developed a $12 billion credit business through the Farm Credit System of 12 Federal Land Banks, 650 affiliated Federal Land Bank Associations, 12 Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, and 450 local Production Credit Associations and 13 Banks for Cooperatives which service 3,000 cooperatives. Farmers through their representatives at the local, district and national levels set the policies under which the system operates. They elect directors of all the associations in the system.

Texas farmers and ranchers have obtained 193-500 loans for more than $1.4 billion since the Federal Land Bank of Houston was organized in 1917. These loans have provided funds to buy land, refinance indebtedness, provide buildings and for other purposes. Seventy-two Federal Land Bank Associations with more than 100 offices in the state serve their clients with long-term Land Bank loans on farm and ranch property.

COOPERATIVES, like the farmers they serve, have a growing need for capital. Credit fills much of that need, and a major part of that credit is provided by the Banks for Cooperatives. The Houston Bank for Cooperatives provides this credit service to cooperatives throughout Texas. At the request of cooperatives, Congress in 1955 adopted a plan by which cooperatives could build up their ownership stock in the banks. By Dec. 31, 1968, all of the Banks for Cooperatives had retired all of their government owned stock.

Texas Production Associations have also played a major role in providing farmers and ranchers with operating capital. They retired all of the government owned stock in their associations in 1949 and became their complete owners. In 1968, the PCAs became complete owners of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston by retiring its government owned stock.

Thus, today, through their cooperative credit system, Texas farmers and ranchers not only have a source of credit to take care of their individual needs but for their cooperative organization needs as well, Feagan explains.

Pioneer Gas Co. to purchase two Elcor plants in Oklahoma

An agreement in principle has been reached between Pioneer Natural Gas Co. and Elcor Chemical Corp. whereby Pioneer will acquire Elcor's interest in the Ringwood and Madill gas processing plants in Oklahoma, according to an announcement made Friday by Burton P. Smith, Pioneer's president.

THE TRANSACTION is subject to required consents and waivers of preferential purchase rights by a third party.

Pioneer will acquire the properties for $3 million in cash and the assumption of approximately $1,470,000 of non-interest bearing notes payable from plant receipts. Also, Pioneer will grant Elcor an option to repurchase these plants at any time until July 1, 1972, for $500,000 above the total consideration to be paid by Pioneer.

The Madill gasoline plant is located in Marshall County, Okla. The Ringwood Plant is located near Ringwood, in Major County, Okla. It is jointly owned by Elcor and Oklahoma Natural Gas Gathering Corp.

ELCOR'S portion of the annual sales from both facilities is approximately $3 million.

The preferential right of purchase applies to the Ringwood Plant and would allow purchase of the plant by a third party for approximately $1,630,000, plus assumption of $800,000 of the notes.

IN ADDITION, Elcor and Pioneer Natural Gas Co. have agreed in principle to a revision of the prepayment provisions of the gas supply contract for Elcor's Rock House sulfur facility located in Culberson County, Texas, which would reduce required prepayments and current liabilities by $1,350,000 and extend the maturity of about $2,800,000 to July 1, 1972.

In return, Elcor will grant Pioneer the option to be paid for such adjusted liabilities, plus interest, at maturity in common stock of Elcor at the rate of $14.50 per share for the first $1,450,000 plus interest, and $18.50 per share for the remaining $1,350,000, plus interest.

Questionnaire will be mailed to VA pensioners

Some two million veterans and their survivors on the Veterans Administration pension rolls were reminded this week that the annual estimates of income are coming due.

AN INCOME questionnaire to be filled out and returned to VA will be enclosed with pension checks being mailed about Nov. 1, according to Jack Coker, manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco.

The pensions are paid to veterans with limited income, who are totally disabled for reasons not related to military service, and to their widows, and to certain other dependents of veterans who meet income limitations.

Where benefits are based on income, the VA by law cannot make payment starting next year unless it receives the questionnaire, filled out and signed, containing estimated income for 1970, Coker said.

However, to insure that pension payments are not interrupted, those receiving them should get the new estimates of income back to VA as soon as possible, Coker said.

He urged those receiving pensions to complete the questionnaire and mail it back to VA in the self-addressed envelope without delay. Any information and assistance they may need in completing the form may be obtained in this county, from the VA county service officer, Mary Flynt, 114 W. Bedford St.

Youths to march for CROP Sunday

Dimmitt youths will wage an attack on world hunger Sunday afternoon as they conduct a city-wide canvass for the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP).

THE UNITED Methodist Youth will coordinate the drive to gain funds to help feed the world's underdeveloped nations.

All youths who want to help in the canvass should gather at the First United Methodist Church at 2:30 p.m. Sunday. The canvass will be conducted from 3 to 5:30 p.m.

The local CROP project is part of a youth movement in 250 Texas churches.

THE "YOUTH in Action" project, for CROP started as a Halloween project with youths collecting "treats" for hungry children abroad in the form of milk. But the Halloween date has lost its preference in most communities in order that the CROP youth canvasses for world hunger might be more effective.

CROP is the hunger appeal of Church World Service, and the money collected will go into the overseas relief programs of the churches. The nondenominational church service branch has ministered to the starving refugees of the Nigerian-Biafran crisis and other similar emergencies.

Shower planned for Miss Laxon

Wanda Laxon, bride-elect of Sp-5 Harold Spencer, will be honored with a bridal shower Monday from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the Sunnyside Baptist Church.

THE CORNERSTONE

OF YOUR COTTON PROGRAM

a special message for the cotton producer who wants to make more money

Are we exaggerating? Giving too much credit to the least cost item in your entire cotton production program? University researchers don't think so. Their studies show that quality of planting seed definitely affects net profit; that most "farmer saved" seed is decidedly inferior to pure seedstock, by as much as 116 pounds of lint an acre in some cases. Think about it. You can do two things to make more money: improve your product and lower production costs. The only common link between the two is quality seed.

There is no excuse for planting poor quality seed when you can get both guaranteed quality seed and supply in one economical package. You get both through SEED BANK, the unique service provided by your own cooperative, Growers Seed Association. Growers has enough top quality, proven and tested seed to plant hundreds of thousands of cotton acres. Decide on the variety you want, apply at your local coop gin or elevator, receive your bank certificate and forget about it. Your seed will be ready next spring. Growers guarantees it in writing. Seed can also be custom treated.

But sign up now to be assured of the variety you want and the amount you need. Seed are sold first come, first serve, and the early freeze has created an unusually strong demand for planting seed. See your local coop for top quality JOHNNY COT-TONSEED brand seed.

Slow-starting Cats roll over Spur, 42-13

By JIMMIE CHAPMAN

The Dimmitt Bobcats, stepping out of District 3-AA to play Class A Spur, rode the throwing arm of Billy Sanders and the running of Nelvon Chavers and Danny Newton to a 42-13 victory over the Bulldogs Friday night in Bulldog Stadium at Plainview.

IT WAS the last time for the two teams to meet, as Dimmitt has replaced Hale Center and Spur with new district opponents, Littlefield and Morton, for the next two seasons at least.

Newton and Chavers led the running attack for the Bobcats, and the throwing arm of Bill Sanders continued to improve as the senior quarterback hit tight end Lo Wylie for two TD's in the second quarter. Both completions brought the Bobcats from behind in the second quarter.

Newton gained 74 yards on just 10 carries, Chavers rolled off 109 yards in 16 handles and Roy Thomas gained 72 yards in 16 attempts. The game also saw the return of Mark Wohlgenuth, but the tall junior quarterback saw action only on defense.

DIMMITT got a scoring opportunity early in the first period as Newton recovered a fumble by Spur end Gary Key at the Spur 35-yard line. Thomas gained four yards and Chavers picked up three, but a third down pass from Sanders to Newton went incomplete and Chavers gained only a yard on the fourth down try, giving the Bulldogs possession again at their own 25-yard line.

The Bobcats held the Bulldog's Mike Shoman and got off a good 40-yard punt to the Dimmitt 32. Two plays later Chavers fumbled and Pat Barrett recovered for Spur at the Dimmitt 34.

Chavers and Newton teamed up to throw fullback Brad Glenn for an eight-yard loss, but two passes by Chuck Harrison and three running plays moved the ball to the 18-yard line. Then Spur's Benny Ball took a handoff from Harrison on the end-around play and went the 18 yards for the first touchdown. Glenn's point-after-kick was wide, leaving Spur with a 6-0 lead with 4:47 left in the first quarter.

DIMMITT'S first score came after the Bulldogs gambled on fourth down at their own 31, and lost. After Spur was penalized for offsides, Chavers gained two yards, then Thomas plunged into the line for gains of nine and one to give the Bobcats a first down on the Spur 14.

Sanders popped a pass over the middle to tight end Lo Wylie, and Wylie romped seven yards for the score. Mark Cleavinger kicked the extra point and Dimmitt was ahead for the first time, 7-6, with 8:16 left in the first half.

But the Bobcat lead lasted only 17 seconds by the clock. CHAVERS got off a short place kick, and guard Ricky Lee returned it to the Spur 37. On first down, Chuck Harrison hit end Benny Ball over the middle at the 50-yard line and the 140-pound end rambled 50 yards for the go-ahead score. Brad Glenn's kick was good and Spur was again ahead, this time by 13-7, with 7:59 remaining in the second quarter.

Mark Cleavinger returned the Spur kickoff from the Cats' 10-yard line to the 35. Newton squirmed his way through heavy traffic for 10 yards, Thomas gained one and Chavers picked up four more to put the ball directly in the middle of the field. Then Sanders hit Wylie with a screen pass and the senior end rambled 50 yards for his second TD. Cleavinger kicked the point and the Bobcats were in the lead again, 14-13, with 6:35 left in the first half.

Spur was forced to punt from its own 41-yard line after Andrew Garza blocked a third-down pass by Harrison. The punt rolled to the Dimmitt 22, then the Cats started a drive that saw Newton as the workhorse.

NEWTON gained five yards, then Sanders hit Newton with a pass that was good for 15 yards — and 12 of those yards saw the swift halfback make one of the best runs he ever made. Chavers gained 30 yards on a blast through the middle, then Newton went for another 12 and Thomas gained two. Spur drew a five-yard penalty, but then Chavers fumbled the ball when he was hit by three Bulldogs. Dan Smith recovered for the Bulldogs on the Spur 24 to halt the Dimmitt drive.

But on the third play after Spur had taken over, the Cats negotiated a new lease when Garza intercepted a pass from Harrison on the 40-yard line and took it back to the Spur 7 before being brought down. Newton swept right end for the touchdown, making it 20-13 in Dimmitt's favor. Sanders fumbled on the extra point snap, but Cleavinger alertly picked it up and passed to Thomas for the two extra points. This made the score 22-13 with 2:17 left in the half.

The last two minutes of the first half saw lots of action. Clarence Rivars intercepted a Sanders pass to give the Bulldogs possession at the Spur 21, but with only 22 seconds remaining in the half Gary Longford recovered a fumble at the Spur 39-yard line. Newton gained 14 yards to put the ball at the 25 with 11 seconds left, but the Bobcats' hopes for a quick TD ended when Eugene Perry intercepted a Sanders pass as the half ended. The score was 22-13 at the halfway point.

THE BOBCATS started the second half with a determined 52-yard scoring drive. Thomas returned the kickoff from his 15 to the 33-yard line, Spur then drew a 15-yard penalty for piling on to put the ball at the Dimmitt 48. Newton picked up 10 yards, then Sanders gained three and 10 before Thomas took the pitchout and raced 29 yards to paydirt. Cleavinger's kick was partially blocked by Gary Kay but it went through the uprights to make the score 29-13 with only a minute and 28 seconds gone in the third period.

Play began getting out of hand during the third quarter, and several penalties were stepped off against both teams. Before the final buzzer, referees ordered two players from Spur and one from Dimmitt to leave the game. Six penalties were stepped off against Dimmitt and 10 against Spur during the contest. Dimmitt lost 70 yards via penalties while Spur was fined a total of 80 yards.

FROM THERE, Sanders went over for what appeared to be a TD — but the Cats were penalized back to the 6-yard line for illegal motion. Thomas failed to gain on the next play, but then Sanders threw a high floater over the defenders in the end zone and Cleavinger leaped high and pounced it down just inside the bounds marker. Cleavinger again kicked the point after and Dimmitt had a 36-13 lead when the quarter ended 15 seconds later.

Dimmitt's next score came late in the third quarter after Thomas halted a Spur drive by intercepting a Harrison pass on the Dimmitt 44. Chavers and Thomas gained 11 yards, then Newton went on another of his twisting runs for nine yards. Spur was penalized for hitting Newton after he was down, and that moved the ball to the Spur 20. The Bobcats got another golden opportunity on the first play of the final period when Matthew Daniels hit Mike Shipman with a jarring tackle, causing a fumble. Mark Cleavinger fell on the ball at the Spur 31. But on Dimmitt's second play Bill Sanders was knocked loose from the ball and Dan Smith recovered for Spur on the Bulldog 39.

Six plays later, Wylie broke through and tackled Harrison for an eight-yard loss or third down, forcing the Bulldogs to punt. Randy Schumacher charged through and blocked the punt, and the Cats took over on the Spur 49.

Chavers blasted through the middle on first down and raced 49 yards into the end zone. Cleavinger missed the extra point this time, but the Cats had a 42-13 lead with more than eight minutes left in the game. David Nino took over the kickoff chores for Chavers, and Spur set up shop on its own 33-yard line.

THE BOBCATS held the Bulldogs in check the rest of the game. The closest Spur got to the Bobcat goal line was the 19, where Daniels again knocked the ball out of Harrison's hands and Terry Robertson recovered for the Cats. Jerry Matthews threw a couple of incomplete passes and Daniels picked up six yards before the clock ran out.

Cats to visit winless Owls while Floydada hosts Olton

By DON NELSON

Dimmitt's Bobcats will take a sentimental journey to Hale Center Friday night to bid farewell to the winless Owls.

IT WILL BE the final Bobcat-Owl game within the foreseeable future. Hale Center, which has climbed the class ladder with Dimmitt from B to AA for more than two decades, will drop back to Class A next season. As a result, the Owls are being dropped from the Bobcats' schedule for the next two years to help make room for Littlefield and Morton, the two new 3-AA members.

With a rich football tradition, Hale Center has produced some memorable teams and has provided tough, respected gridiron competition for the Bobcats through the years.

The current season, though, has been a long, long one for the Owls. They've lost all seven games so far and have scored only 48 points to their opponents' 194.

POST, a first-division team in District 4-AA, was the first to ruffle the Owls' feathers this year, posting a 21-7 decision in the season opener.

That loss by the Owls was followed by a 40-0 walloping at the hands of Springlake, a 12-10 loss to Tahoka, a 27-0 defeat by league-leading Floydada, a 14-6 loss to Friona, a 40-6 jolt by the surprising Olton Mustangs, and a 40-19 whipping by Abernathy last week.

This year's Owl squad is very young, composed almost entirely of sophomores and juniors. Only one-year lettermen — including five seniors — returned from the team that finished in next-to-last place in the district last year.

BUT DESPITE the Owls' inexperience and poor showing so far, the Bobcats will have to remember the lesson they've learned several times over as co-favorites this year — the underdog always seems to be "up."

Hale Center Head Coach C. H. Keeton said it well: "A high rating places your team under a lot of pressure. . . . Everyone gangs up on the favorites, hoping to inherit the glory of scoring an upset even if they don't win another game. From the starting whistle the favorites have to fight for their lives in every game as long as they survive. . . . And it's the final record, not pre-season ratings, that counts."

And it's the final record, not pre-season ratings, that counts."

WHILE THE Bobcats are at Hale Center Friday night, two key games elsewhere will be helping to decide Dimmitt's ultimate fate in District 3-AA.

The spotlight again will pit Olton's Mustangs against the unbeaten Floydada Whirlwinds at Floydada. If the upstart Mustangs get "up" again and topple the favored Whirlwinds, it will be all over but the shouting and Olton will have the inside track for at least a first-place tie with Dimmitt or Floydada and the right to go into the playoffs.

And anyone who thinks the Ponies can't do it has a short memory. Since their 28-26 upset victory over Dimmitt three weeks ago, the Mustangs have been playing with new life. They bombed Hale Center, 40-6, two weeks ago and Friday night they knocked out the favored Lockney Longhorns out of the title race, 28-5. The Mustangs are now in second place in the district with a 3-1 mark, with only an early-season loss to Abernathy marring their conference record.

Floydada will be Olton's next-to-last foe. The Mustangs will finish their conference season against Friona Nov. 7 — a week earlier than the rest of the league's teams.

Dimmitt coaches and fans, of course, will be praying for a Floydada victory over Olton Friday night. That would knock Olton out of the race and leave the Bobcats a chance for a first-place tie with Floydada and post-season honors if the Cats can win the rest of their games.

Another important 3-AA match Friday night will see Abernathy hosting Lockney. Abernathy is tied with Dimmitt for third place at present, with victories over Olton and Hale Center and a loss to Dimmitt. After Lockney, the powerful but desperate Antelopes will have Floydada and Friona remaining on their schedule. They're playing for a three-way tie with Olton and Dimmitt, and will have to win all the rest of their games to do it — starting Friday night against Lockney. It's a tall order, and perhaps remote, but it's one of the possible turns the woolly 3-AA race could take.

Hart routs Nazareth, 54-8

Hart's Longhorns scored two touchdowns per quarter Friday night to roll up a 54-8 Homecoming victory over the visiting Nazareth Swifts.

IN POSTING their sixth win of the season, Coach Doug Higgins' Longhorns racked up 445 yards rushing and 49 through the air in a well-balanced attack that saw every touchdown scored by a different runner.

The Hart defense held Nazareth to 62 yards on the ground. Although the Swifts struck for 88 yards and a touchdown through the air, the Longhorns picked off five Nazareth passes to stymie the attack. The Swifts captured two Hart passes.

Johnny Ethridge opened the Hart scoring with a five-yard touchdown run midway in the first quarter. He followed with the extra-point kick to give the Horns a 7-0 lead.

TWO MINUTES later, Landra Brington charged five yards for Hart's second TD. Ethridge kick was good, giving the Longhorns a 14-0 lead at the end of the initial quarter.

Hart ran the tally to 21-0 early in the second period when Jimmy Robinson scored on a five-yard run. Ethridge's toe again placed the point-after kick through the uprights.

Quarterback Harold Bob Bennett — who ripped off long yardage all night with his roll-out options — broke loose on a 49-yard scoring run late in the second quarter. Ethridge added the point to give Hart a 28-0 lead at intermission.

QUINCY HAWKINGS picked off a Nazareth pass on the Hart 45 early in the third quarter and raced all the way to paydirt in the longest scoring run of the night. Ethridge's kick was true again to hike the Hart lead to 35-0.

Sophomore back Roy Ethridge matched his older brother's touchdown run midway in the third period, scrambling eight yards for Hart's sixth marker. Johnny Ethridge's kick was good, and the Longhorns owned a 42-0 lead. Nazareth's touchdown came late in the third period when big senior end J. C. Pohlmeier grabbed a pass from quarterback Gene Schmuicker, shook off two tacklers and raced 25 yards to paydirt. Schmuicker ran the two-point conversion to alter the score to 42-8.

A 13-YARD pass from Bennett to Dornie Black early in the Hart's seventh touchdown. The point-after attempt failed, making it Hart 48, Nazareth 8.

Freshman fullback Stanley Dyer added more frosting to the Longhorn's Homecoming cake when he plunged three yards for Hart's final touchdown. The point-after attempt failed.

Johnny Ethridge was the game's leading scorer, running one touchdown and booting six extra points in seven attempts for a 12-point total.

"ALL the boys gave a good effort," Coach Higgins said. "I believe it was our best offensive game so far, overall."

The Longhorns, who own a 6-1 record and are undefeated in district play, have an open date this week as they prepare for their Nov. 7 meeting with Lazbuddie, a game that will probably decide the District 4-B championship.

It was Nazareth's fifth loss of the season against one tie.

Wylie wins Bobcat honor

Loy Wylie, 157-pound senior end, was named "Bobcat of the Week" for his performance in Friday night's Dimmitt-Spur game.

A MAINSTAY on both offense and defense, Wylie was credited by Coach Brown L. Smith for several key plays in the game, including a touchdown pass reception and a punt block that set up another Dimmitt touchdown.

He was announced as the week's top cat at Monday night's meeting of the Dimmitt Athletic Booster Club.

Thirty-two persons attended Monday night's meeting in the DHS cafeteria.

MEMBERS voted to send the freshman, B team and varsity football players to Tech's Homecoming game with Rice University Saturday.

Butch Strickland was named the winner of the club's $5 cash prize for having the week's best decorated car. The Boosters voted also to award $10 to the class that has the best decorated hall before the Lockney game, last home game of the season.

Coaches reported that all the week's games except the varsity contest were cancelled because of the weather.

Goose hunters' forecast is good

Wildlife biologists are expecting good numbers of geese in the area this winter because of good nesting and hatching conditions in Canada during the summer.

ONLY A FEW flights of geese were in the area on the opening day of the season, Oct. 18, with the main flights still to come. The season ends Jan. 11, 1970.

The possession limit is five geese or brant, but is subject to restriction in different sections of the state.

West of US Highway 81 the daily bag limit and possession limit is not more than one Ross's goose and, in the alternative, one white-fronted goose; or one white-fronted goose and one Canada goose; or two Canada geese.

East of US Highway 81 the daily bag limit is not more than one Ross's goose and, in the alternative, one Canada goose; or one white-fronted goose. The possession limit is not more than one Ross's goose and, in the alternative, two Canada geese; or one Canada and one white-fronted goose.

SHOOTING hours for geese and brant are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. Sunrise and sunset are announced daily by the US Weather Bureau.

The daily bag limits specified are the maximum number of the indicated species which may be legally killed, taken or possessed during the permitted shooting hours in one calendar day.

The possession limits specified are the maximum numbers of the indicated species which may be in one person's possession at any time.

ONE FULLY feathered wing must remain attached to dressed ducks and geese while being transported between the place taken and the home of the possessor, or between the place taken and a commercial preservation facility.

Hunters are required to make a reasonable effort to retrieve killed or wounded birds.

Former resident hurt in accident

Mrs. Kay Singer of Plainview, a former Dimmitt resident, narrowly escaped serious injury Monday night when her car collided with a loaded semi-trailer truck four miles south of Amarillo on the Canyon Expressway.

SHE RECEIVED lacerations and possible back injuries, but was reported in satisfactory condition at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Highway patrolmen said Mrs. Singer apparently had parked her car on the shoulder of the divided highway and was attempting to cross the southbound lane and turn back north when her car was struck broadside by the freight truck.

Both the car and the truck were totally demolished. The truck's driver was not injured.

A 7-YEAR-OLD child is in the "crisis age." He craves as much as he writes, trying constantly to make his work more nearly perfect. Jennie Kitching, Extension family life specialist, says the 7-year-old is anxious to do well and to learn how things are done. He needs a job at home and may be a small allowance.

Country Club to meet Monday

The Castro County Recreation Association will hold its annual membership meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Country Club.

DIRECTORS of the association term the meeting "urgent."

Members will be asked to vote on five proposals for increasing the Country Club's income. The alternatives are (1) increasing memberships by lowering the sales price of memberships, (2) charging for exclusive use of the facilities, (3) assessing members directly and (4) increasing monthly dues, and (5) installing a bar in the clubhouse.

Also on the agenda will be the election of two new directors, report on the association's financial status, audit report, a report by Club Pro Bud Posey on the physical condition of the facilities, and members' suggestions for improvement of the operation.

Barba graduates from Job Corps

Apolonio Barba, 18, of Dimmitt, was among 185 Gary Job Corps Center trainees to receive a certificate of completion at formal graduation ceremonies recently.

The Gary Center has an average enrollment of 3,000 young men 16 through 21, and offers skill-related basic education as a part of its training program.

Girl avoids rabies shots

Debbie Dannevik did not have to start undergoing rabies shots Monday.

DEBBIE, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dannevik, 616 NW Eighth St., was bitten by a half-grown Siamese cat Oct. 18, and the incident touched off a cat-hunt throughout northwest Dimmitt.

"We think we found the cat that bit her," Debbie's mother reported this week. "She couldn't be absolutely certain, having looked at so many Siamese cats, but she thinks it was the one, and it seems perfectly healthy."

Mrs. Dannevik added, "After weighing all the factors, we decided not to start the shots. It was a Siamese cat that bit Debbie, and Siamese owners usually take good care of their cats. Debbie was pretty sure we had found the right cat. And there hasn't been a case of rabies in our area in a long time."

DEBBIE'S father, who has chased down two dozen Siamese cats during the last 10 days, said the suspect cat and one other are penned up.

"We're assuming that these two are strays," he said. "We have them penned up, so if anyone is missing a Siamese cat they could check with me. Both of these cats act like pets — they're both gentle."

Most Siamese owners in the area showed their cats, then kept them indoors for the duration of the search to avoid confusion.

"We really appreciate the way our neighbors kept their cats inside after we had checked them, so we would find the strays," Dannevik said. "Everyone was very good about calling us when they saw a stray Siamese."

Mrs. Dorothy Magness, chamber secretary, said statements will be mailed to member merchants next week.

THE merchants committee also set a timetable on downtown Christmas decorations. Pole lights will start going up Nov. 15, and the courthouse lawn and trees will be decorated Nov. 30. The committee will ask each member business to send one man to help with the decoration part. Women's clubs also will be asked to set up their courthouse lawn Christmas scenes on that day.

Price co-sponsors House bill to stem flow of pornography

Panhandle Congressman Bob Price has joined a bipartisan group of representatives introducing a bill to control pornography sent through the mails.

THE BILL would prohibit the use of the US mails to send sexually provocative materials to anyone unless the occupant, in writing, specifically requested the materials from the sender.

It also would prohibit the mailing of such materials to minors residing in those states which already have laws prohibiting the mail circulation of obscene materials to the young.

Price said the bill has grown out of the increasing nationwide concern over the extensive flow of pornographic and obscene materials through the mails.

"I HAVE received many telephone calls, letters and telegrams from concerned individuals in the Texas Panhandle and throughout the state on this matter," Price said. "In this Congress, I have already introduced legislation designed to stop and control pornography. I think that this new bill closes the legal door even further."

The Post Office Department estimates that more than $500 million worth of obscene material is sold to young people through the mail each year. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover warned more than a year ago:

"The publication and sale of obscene material is big business in America today. It is impossible to estimate the amount of harm impressionable teenagers and

"AD ALTARE DEI" awards were presented to Boy Scouts of Nazareth Troop 265 Sunday by Father Stanley Crocchiola (right), Scout chaplain, for services rendered by the boys to the church. # Cotton marketing quota announced; vote called

The US Department of Agriculture on Oct. 1 announced a national marketing quota of 15,066,667 bales (standard bales of 500 pounds gross weight) and a national acreage allotment of 16 million acres for the 1970 crop of upland cotton.

In addition to the national acreage allotment, the USDA also announced a national acreage reserve of 150,000 acres for the establishment of minimum farm allotments, as provided by law.

GROWERS will have the opportunity to vote on the new marketing quota in a referendum to be held by mail Dec. 1 through 5.

The 1970 national acreage allotment of 16 million acres is the same as for the past several years, and is the smallest permitted under present law.

The quota of 15,066,667 bales (standard 500 gross weight) is the result of converting the 16 million-acre national allotment on the basis of a four-year (1965-68) average yield of 452 pounds per planted acre.

THE NATIONAL acreage allotment of 16 million acres and the national reserve of 150,000 acres for 1970-crop upland cotton are apportioned to states according to provisions of law. These allotments, with comparisons of the total 1969-crop acreage allotted to Texas, are:

1970 Texas share of national allotment — 6,795,696 acres.

1970 total allotment available for states — 6,822,682 acres.

1969 total allotment available for states — 6,835,134.

THE LAW provides that no state shall receive an allotment for upland cotton for 1970 which is less than 4,000 acres, or the highest acreage planted to cotton in the state in any of the years 1967, 1968, and 1969 — whichever is smaller. The remainder of the national acreage allotment is apportioned among other states on the basis of acreages planted to cotton in the years 1964 through 1968, with adjustments in these acreages as required by law.

The national reserve is apportioned to states on the basis of the estimated needs of states for such additional acreages for establishing minimum farm allotments.

The 1970 upland cotton allotment for each state will be apportioned among counties, and the county allotments among farms. Notices of farm acreage allotments will be mailed to operators of cotton farms prior to the referendum.

IF MARKETING quotas are not in effect for the 1970 upland cotton crop, the allotment program would remain in effect, but there would be no price support payments. Price-support loans, however, would be available at 50 percent of parity to cooperators who plant within their allotments.

Marketing quotas are in effect for 1969-crop upland cotton. They were approved by 95.8 percent of growers voting in the referendum held by mail Dec. 2 through 6, 1968.

Also announced was a 1970 export acreage reserve of 62,500 acres. All cotton produced on farms receiving any export acreage reserve must be exported. In addition, price-support loans and program payments will not be available for any of the cotton produced on a participating farm, or on any other farm in which the operator with export market acreage has a substantial or controlling interest. Growers can apply for export market acreage through the county Agricultural Service office. Closing date for filing applications for export acreage is Dec. 31.

Following the carnival, the student council will sponsor a movie in the high school for students from seventh grade through high school.

Each class and organization in junior high and high school will have a carnival booth. A pancake supper will be served before and during the carnival hours. Seniors and sponsors will conduct an old favorite — the cake walk. The carnival is open to all who wish to attend.

THE JUNIOR class of Hart High School has announced its play cast.

The play, "Rest Assured," a three-act comedy by Donald Payton, will be presented Nov. 13.

Members of the cast are Janet McLean, Ralph Bell, Sandy Bennett, Debbie Davis, Lonnie Davis, Carol Miller, Sharon Brooks, Donnie Shive, Vic Nelson, Carolyn Cole, Gary Six, Don Follis, David Warren, Donnie Burrus, Denise Lowery and DeRhonda Brown. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Carol Farris and Sherri Scott, junior class sponsors.

Barley diversion to be 20 percent

Minimum diversion for barley in the 1970 feed grain program will be 20 percent of the farm's barley base acreage, Charley E. Hill, office manager of the Castro County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reported this week.

THIS IS the same minimum diversion that was required in the 1969 program. The 20 percent diversion also will be required of producers of malting barley who participate in the feed grain program, as it was in 1969.

Participants in the 1970 program who substitute wheat for oats-rye will also be required to divert 20 percent of their oats-rye base. In 1969 the diversion requirement was 15 percent.

Hill said these provisions of the 1970 feed grain program were being announced now to aid producers of winter barley in their farm planning. Other provisions of the 1970 feed grain program — relating to corn, grain sorghum, and barley — will be announced soon.

Sugar sorghum available soon

Another source of sugar-sweet sorghum may be added to the market in the near future, says Extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M University. US Department of Agriculture scientists have been looking at sweet sorghum for many years, but starch in the juice made sugar recovery either uneconomical or impossible.

Now a new formula removes the starch and leaves the juice to be processed much the same as sugarcane juice. Sweet sorghum crops require little water and labor.
