WORLD DAY OF PRAYER BE OBSERVED

Church women of Cisco will unite Friday in a program to be held at First Methodist church at 10 o'clock observing the World Day of Prayer, according to Mrs. John Shertzer, president of the woman's society of Christian service in the host church. Mrs. M. D. Paschall is chairman of the program committee in charge of plans for the day's worship services.

The united council of church women with headquarters in New York City, is sponsoring the world-wide observance of the day. The first such world day of prayer was held in 1927 and each year since it has grown in its appeal to human hearts all over the world, states Rev. Leslie Seymour, Methodist pastor.

The theme for the day wherever it is observed will be a petition from a prayer Jesus offered, "Father, I pray that they may all be one." Dr. Georgia Harkness, Evanston, Ill., and Mrs. Benjamin E. Mays of Morehouse college at Atlanta, prepared the order of worship for the day, this to be supplied in printed booklets to all who participate in the service.

Mayor's Proclamation.
Cooperating with local women of the churches of Cisco and with the general organization of the Women's United Council of America, Mayor G. P. Mitcham has issued the following proclamation:
"In cooperation with the plans of the United Council of Church Women of America, who have designated next Friday as a World Day of Prayer, and at the suggestion of the local Federation of Church Women, I, as mayor of Cisco, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 12, 1943, to be a day of prayer and call upon all the people of Cisco to observe the day with earnest prayer to Almighty God for His mercies and blessings upon a tragic and distraught world."

G. P. MITCHAM,
Mayor of Cisco.

LENTEN SERVICES START MARCH TENTH

Beginning Wednesday, March 10, Grace Lutheran church will observe the lenten season in special services. The services will begin at 8:30 p. m. and will be conducted through the six weeks in which the Christian church observes Christ's suffering and death for the salvation of the souls of mankind.

We welcome visitors, says the pastor, Rev. W. H. Symank, and will be glad to have you worship with us. In these days and times when our young men are on the battle front fighting for everything we hold near and dear, we on the home front have every reason to fortify ourselves and seek the Lord while he may be found. The services are conducted each year in the local Lutheran church. This year, especially, we look forward to a good attendance. We cordially invite you. Following are the subjects and texts:

March 10, "Christ's Intercession on the Cross," Luke 23, 34.
March 17, "Christ's Promise on the Cross," Luke 23, 43.
March 24, "Christ's Solicitude on the Cross," John 19, 26-27.
March 31, "Christ Forsaken on the Cross," Matthew 27, 46.
April 7, "Christ Athirst on the Cross," John 19, 28.
April 14, "Christ's Triumph on the Cross," John 19, 30.
April 23 (Good Friday), "Christ's Death on the Cross," Luke 23, 46.

HAMMER LAE BASE.
GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Australia, March 6.—Allied planes have renewed their triphammer blows on Lae, Japan's biggest remaining base in New Guinea, after wiping out the last enemy survivors of the battle of the Bismarck Sea as they sought to escape in lifeboats, barges and rafts. Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today.

WEATHER SLOWS CAMPAIGN

The $18,000 Red Cross quota assigned to Eastland county is not being secured as rapidly as some predicted it would be, but considering the unusually cold weather that has gripped the county for the past several days, results so far attained are by no means discouraging.

The campaign, nationally as well as locally, will continue through March and it is safe to say that the full county quota will be secured.

Figures turned in to the Daily Press Saturday by Mrs. George P. Fee, city chairman, disclosed that Cisco has so far secured $1,836.25 of the $4,500 assigned to it. Thirteen of the 22 Cisco teams had made reports late yesterday, as follows:

No. 1, composed of Tom Stark, Nick Miller and R. L. Ponsler, $461.50.

No. 2, C. M. Nevill, L. H. McCrea and A. D. Anderson, $302.50.

No. 4, George P. Fee, J. B. Pratt and H. H. Tompkins, $201.50.

No. 5, Mrs. H. McGowan and Mrs. R. L. Ponsler, $177.50.

No. 9, Mrs. Paul Poe and Mrs. H. B. Hensley, $45.25.

No. 10, Mrs. R. W. Merrett and Mrs. Ed Caffrey, $23.25.

No. 12, Mrs. Rex Carrothers and Mrs. Bill Goodrich, $71.

No. 13, Mrs. S. W. Coplin and Mrs. R. A. Bearman, $91.50.

No. 16, Mrs. K. N. Greer and Mrs. Beecher Dierdorf, $19.50.

No. 17, Mrs. Austin Flint and Mrs. Roy Fonville, $44.50.

No. 18, Mrs. Reg Robbins and Mrs. Carl Armstrong, $63.

No. 20, Mrs. A. D. Anderson and Mrs. Monroe Sweeney, $83.

No. 22, Mrs. E. P. Crawford and Mrs. G. B. Nance, $33.75.

The War Industries Training School, in the hands of a special committee, reported the nice sum of $208.

Eastland and Ranger, with the same quotas as Cisco, had reported $2,670 and $2,420, respectively.

Teams desiring to turn in cash next week, Mrs. Fee stated, may contact Mrs. Charles S. Sandler, the treasurer, at the surgical dressings room on the fifth floor of the former Cisco Banking company building, afternoons, between 1 and 5 o'clock. If any one has been overlooked, they are asked to telephone Mrs. Fee at No. 410.

NOTRE DAME MAN TO BE AT LOBO BANQUET

The Lobo football banquet arranged for next Friday night, March 12, will have as its main feature a talk by Barry Holton, lieutenant commander of the navy department in charge of the physical fitness program for this area. Commander Holton was formerly a Notre Dame football player and coach of athletes.

The entire program, which will be for men only, is to be patriotic in nature with other numbers probably supplied from the Brownwood army camp. Tickets will be $1 each, and the banquet and program will be held at Hotel Laguna.

This program is an annual feature sponsored by the Rotarians and Lions. O. L. Stamey, principal of the high school, will be toastmaster.

Committees from the two clubs are as follows:
Tickets—O. J. Russell, R. W. McCauley, Geo. W. Downie and W. W. Fewell.
Arrangements and Decorations—Charles S. Sandler, Harry Schmidt, A. E. McNeely and Lonnie Shockley.
Program and Menu—L. W. Seymour, M. D. Fox and R. N. Cluck.

SPRINGBOARD—Much-bombed island of Malta, in strategic position in Mediterranean serves as springboard and landing base for British aircraft on prow for enemy shipping. Here are British Navy Albacores, carrying torpedoes, high over island.

NEUTRAL SHIP—Eire, formerly Ireland, has its own merchant marine and here one of its ships is clearly marked to warn submarines of belligerent countries that it is neutral. Eire is one of few neutrals in world ablaze with war.

J. L. BALLIEW DIED AT MORAN HOME FRIDAY

James L. Balliew, 68, father of Mrs. Earl Mayhew of Cisco and a resident of Shackelford county for 37 years, died at his home in Moran Friday after an illness of several weeks.

The funeral will be held at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church in Moran, with interment in the Moran cemetery. Rev. H. M. Weldon, pastor of that church, will officiate.

Deceased was born January 23, 1875, in Greenville, S. C., and was married to Sarah Jane Greenway at Spartanburg, S. C., in January, 1897. The family moved to Texas in 1900 and to Albany in 1906. Mr. Balliew purchased a ranch in the Deep Creek community near Moran in 1915 and engaged in stock farming until 1942. He was a most excellent man and had been a member of the Baptist church 41 years.

Surviving are his wife, three sons, St. Sgt. Robert L. Balliew, Luke field, Ariz.; Pvt. William H. Balliew, La Junta, Colo.; Horace Balliew, Albany; six daughters, Mattie Balliew, Albany; Mrs. Earl Mayhew, Cisco; Mrs. George Elliott, Crane; George Glenn, Carolyn and Linda Elliott, of Crane; Mrs. Nathan F. Mayhew, Moran; a brother, of El Paso, and a sister, Mrs. Nan Moore, Kings Mountain, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simmons of Longview are guests of his mother, Mrs. W. R. Simmons.

LET THE LAW HAVE ITS WAY; IT MIGHT HELP

Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer, calls attention to the fact that party or parties have been dumping dead carcasses on the dumping grounds without burning them and without permission, and states that it is against the law to do so.

Dr. Lee adds that parties guilty of such practices will suffer the extreme penalties of the law. There is a fine attached to die act and it might be well for these guilty parties to arrange for the burning of these carcasses, Dr. Lee suggests.

MOSCOW, March 6.—The Red army stormed into the railroad town of Osuga, 16 miles south of Rzhnev, and overran 29 other towns and villages today in its dash for Smolensk, Germany's key base on the central front. The Russians now had captured 133 towns and villages in the past 36 hours — an average of nearly four villages an hour—in their breath-taking advance.

As a pleasant surprise, the schools of Breckenridge, Weatherford and Eastland were represented by members of the royal families of those institutions. Because of tire and gasoline rationing, few responses had been expected to the usual invitation sent out to neighboring schools.

The decorations of white and green were unusually lovely, with the floodlights and floor lamp effects furnished through courtesy of the West Texas Utilities company.

The throne and seats for members of the royal family were of white, likewise the dress of the queen and princesses. Dresses of others of the royal ladies were vari-colored.

The queen carried an arm bouquet of red and white carnations and sweet peas of the same color scheme.

The robe of the king was of purple taffeta, and with the crowns, were the same royal appendages used traditionally for these events during the past years.

A. J. OLSON LAID TO REST IN OAKWOOD

Funeral services for A. J. Olson, were held at the First Presbyterian church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Dr. Gary L. Smith, church pastor, preaching the funeral sermon to members of the family and sorrowing friends who gathered to pay their last respects to the good man who had been so active as a builder and architect through the past 39 years of his residence in Cisco.

The music was directed by Mrs. S. E. Hittson, church organist, with the choir singing appropriate and favorite numbers of the deceased.

Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery following the services at the church. The Thomas funeral home was in charge of burial and arrangements.

Mr. Olson was married to Miss Paulena Rushing of Weatherford, December 27, 1903, who survives him. Other survivors are his two sons, Marion Olson of San Antonio and Carl R. Olson of Oakland, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. D. E. Franklin, of Wichita Falls; four grandchildren, George Albert Olson, Caroline Olson, Carole and Paulena Franklin.

Deceased was a member of the First Presbyterian church, and the Knights of Pythias and I. O. O. F. lodges.

MARCH WEATHER RECORD.
FT. WORTH, March 6.—New wintry blasts, sharp as a pre-war razor's edge, roared through Fort Worth streets today with the threat of colder temperatures. A low of 12 degrees was forecast for tonight by the weather bureau. An overnight plunge of 45 degrees sent thermometers down to 21 degrees at 9 a. m. today, setting an all-time record for March 6.

BY TAKING THIS KEY POINT ALLIES NOW CONTROL PASS THAT LEADS TO KAIROUAN

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, North Africa, March 6. — Allied armored forces have captured the important town of Pinchon in central Tunisia in a drive eastward that now threatens Kairouan and the vital Axis reinforcement port of Sousse.

The capture of Pinchon was accomplished by American forces. The first troops in the town were armored patrols consisting of infantry and armored cars. By taking the town the Americans won control of the entrance of a pass that leads to Kairouan.

The drive carried the advanced elements of the Allied forces to within about 50 airline miles of the coast of Tunisia. If the offensive can be sustained, the Allies might be able to drive a wedge between the northern and southern Axis forces in Tunisia by cutting all the way across to Sousse.

Sousse, heavily battered by Allied air attacks in recent weeks, is the port which Marshal Erwin Rommel has been using to feed troops and supplies to his forces in central Tunisia which rolled through the Kasserine Pass and threatened to break the entire Allied line a few weeks ago.

Enemy activity on the northern Tunisian front died down, and Allied patrols seized the initiative and made local gains, a headquarters communique said.

A total of 30 enemy tanks have been destroyed since Rommel's forces started their attack in the north.

Front dispatches said that British forces, after driving the Germans from Sed Jenane in a bitter street fight, had evacuated the town after dark Thursday and taken up positions covering Tamera, eight miles west of Sed Jenane.

Patrol activity continued along the Mareth Line, and British Eighth Army artillery shelled enemy working parties which were preparing to resist the push that Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery is expected to order soon. French patrols continued to operate in the Chott Djerid area.

Air operations were restricted by bad weather in all parts of Tunisia yesterday, but the Allied air force flew patrols without losing a plane.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE.

Rev. Leslie Seymour, pastor of the First Methodist church, will be in Dallas Tuesday through Thursday of this week, attending a seminar and conference for Methodist youth leaders in anticipation of the summer schedule of youth assemblies and camps. Mr. Seymour has again been chosen to serve as dean of the young people's summer assembly to be held in June, as well as to be director of the Waco-Cisco youth camp to be held at Glen Rose in August.

NAZIS ARE DESPERATE.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—United Nations can possibly still knock out Hitler and Mussolini in 1943. This comes from a source with excellent pipe-lines into Germany and Italy. Dope is that the two countries are more desperate than is generally supposed; that Nazi Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop's trip to Rome was to complete Nazi domination not only of the Italian war effort, but of Italian life. Germany has one Sunday punch left. This can be as dangerous as Germany's final push in 1918, which came near succeeding.

RAF POUNDS ESSEN.

LONDON, March 6.—Hundreds of British bombers, carrying the Allied pre-invasion aerial offensive through its 10th consecutive night, loosed a thunderbolt saturation raid on Essen, home of Germany's great Krupp arms works, last night. The air ministry announced that 14 bombers were missing after a "very heavy and concentrated attack" — an indication that the raiding force numbered upwards of 300 bombers.

STRONG WORDS.

"For some strange reason," writes a pastor, "naughty, swearing and using 'naughty' words is considered a mark of a real man, especially in time of war."

"I beg to differ with those from information received from many of our chaplains. I know there are good soldiers who do not use the bad words. In fact, they may even be better soldiers than the others."

Well, nobody is likely to be much about the strong old "Eggs" (ethan) English that seems to run rampant nowadays in military and also civilian life. Few approve it, but many condone it.

Offensive profanity, however, often represents merely an inadequate vocabulary. There are plenty of words in the English language to express any shade of moods, however strong, without using the nasty and indecent ones.

International trade is not a one-way operation, but a two-wayed business, as seen by Frederick C. Crawford, president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"Diplomatic peace and economic warfare cannot live side by side," he says. "If we want a market in China, Russia, India and other nations for the goods we can produce best, obviously we must not bar those nations from our markets."

Moderate tariffs, presumably will still be necessary, to safeguard crucial industries and as a convenient way to supplement direct taxes in meeting government expenses.

Former President Hoover has now been out of office 10 years. The average for all our presidents is 11, but since the last war it has dropped considerably.

He would have to live only 15 years more to tie John Adams' record of 25 years as an ex-president. Perhaps the far-famed California climate will do that for him.

They are important, however, Americans have remained rather calm about Mohandas Gandhi and the problems he creates whenever he quits eating.

They are important, however, Americans have remained rather calm about Mohandas Gandhi and the problems he creates whenever he quits eating.

to Mr. Gandhi, and no doubt to some hundreds of millions besides. The people of India are mostly not so "practical" as we are. They live more in their minds and are more swayed by tradition. We may not understand or go along with them, but their ideals are as important to them as ours are to us—maybe more so.

As far as Gandhi is concerned, at least he doesn't kill people. He doesn't approve of it at all. He's the opposite of Hitler. And in a time of general slaughter, that's something worth remembering. Such men really believe that human life is sacred, that force is futile, that wealth and power are trash, that people are souls, and that nothing else matters much.

A similar measure has been offered in the legislature several times in recent years. In 1935, it was submitted to a vote of the people and was defeated.

To the casual observer the proposal may seem of minor importance. A careful study of its implications and possible effects will, however, reveal dangers that may not at first be apparent.

The amount of money involved in buying textbooks for the 50,000 pupils attending private and parochial schools in Texas would not be large. But the cost is not the vital issue.

Texas provides educational facilities, free textbooks, free tuition, buildings, furniture, equipment, etc. to its school population. If administrators, superintendents and county school boards support it, it does not seem wise for the state, except in emergencies, to exercise close control over private enterprise.

It sets up the qualifications of teachers; it determines the conditions under which a pupil may enjoy free school privileges at the expense of the state.

If a citizen prefers not to comply with these conditions prescribed by the state, and chooses to send his child to an educational institution which is not supported by the state, he exercises a right guaranteed him under the constitution, but by this act he forfeits every claim to any sort of state subsidy.

QUALITY COUNTS
Now that we are getting straightened out with our point rationing, customers should more and more insist on the Best in Quality, since a can of poor quality goods uses up as many of your points as does one of the highest quality. Goods selected to sell at a cheap price are usually lacking in value in many ways.
This store does not cater to goods because they are cheap. The quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten. We believe that.

The Greatest Mother in the World
Soldiers Say She Helps Solve ALL The Personal Problems of Themselves And Their Families.
The Red Cross Mother Is Also Banker and Friend.
RED CROSS WAR FUND MARCH - 1943
The Red Cross mother is found on every battlefield and army camp in the world. Wherever there is bloodshed... Wherever there is sorrow and sickness, she is there... If a wounded soldier needs to send a message to family at home, this mother will see that it is sent.
If a soldier is in any kind of trouble, the Red Cross Mother is a willing listener to help smooth away confusion and solve the problem.
So give to the Red Cross — Freely — Generously — Knowing that your dollars will help some soldier or family in trouble — if not your soldier, then some other Mother's boy — If disaster comes your dollars will help relieve the burden.
If you have not already given freely, do it now. The suffering world needs what you can give.
