Until recently, any man who wanted to work in Dimmitt could do so—but such is no longer the case. We have had about five men through our office during the past week asking if we knew anyone who needed a hand. These men were mostly semi- or unskilled and we expect to see more and more of these people asking for work as time goes on.

Ordinarily job-hunting people come to us only after asking for employment at the places they would like to work. When they come to us or the Chamber of Commerce office they are searching for work of any kind that will permit them to feed and clothe their families.

With 4,000,000 people unemployed all over the United States we are facing a limited crisis. Social Security bears some of the load, but there are few men who like to be unemployed and the problem is spiritual almost as much as physical.

If anyone needs a hand they may leave their names with either the Castro County News or the Chamber of Commerce. We do not plan to be an employment agency for day-labor yard work or domestic help. But if it's a steady full-time job with living wages, then we will be glad to help get employer and prospective employee together. It is never pleasant to tell a man you can't help him when you know he's broke, can't find a job anywhere, and his family is getting hungry.

We suspect this is a condition of the times, since farmers and businessmen alike are finding it necessary to cut their employee staffs to the barest minimums to stay in the black. We hope, with everyone else, that general business will increase to the point of eradicating unemployment soon. But until then, anyone wanting a hand should call us and we can get them in touch with several men right off.

Living in an area like this, it is hard to visualize New York Schools expelling hundreds of young hoodlums to protect the innocent. Certainly these conditions exist, not only in New York but in other larger towns.

Perhaps the beauty of living in a small town is to be spared some of the more distasteful realities of life.

Even a town no bigger than Amarillo has a juvenile problem more serious in proportion than our own.

Crime, especially on a juvenile scale, arises usually from poverty. Underprivileged groups have always been responsible for more than their share of all types of lawbreaking. Even here in Castro County the colored and Latin segments of our population account for almost ninety percent of arrests. Since a high, or at least even, prosperity has been enjoyed for many years by High Plains communities we have seen little criminal activity.

Often times we try to blame the fate of these malcontents on the parents, here and everywhere else. Certainly there are cases where this is true, but at the same time there are many boys who are incorrigible, who are worthless, rotten diseases of society and no amount of loving care could have erased it. Even Christianity, which has for centuries guided men along the right paths, is helpless to cope with some of these people at any stage of their life.

It is a national problem borne mostly of low mentality and an in-born desire to feel important and have as much money as anyone else.

Our vote for the most honest statement of the year came in last Friday's issue of the Lubbock Morning-Avalanche. We quote from an INS news story: "Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson denounced the existing farm program today as an 'economic straitjacket and political blind alley' that can 'only bring results that are distasteful to real farm people'."

The story said Benson went on storming at a National Press Club audience about how farmers are not responding to the "prosperity pills" the government is giving them and "it is high time we made further changes in the prescription."

Now we've always suspected the Agriculture Department hierarchy was somewhat lost and confused, but we never expected to hear the big man himself come out and assail what the Department has been doing since 1953. Perhaps he should be commended for being so honest about the work he has headed—certainly he is right about his program falling short of perfection.

Our entire farm program is Benson's handiwork. If he doesn't like it, we wonder who does? President Eisenhower probably must since Benson still has a job.

Icy Roads, Low Visibility Cause Four Accidents Here This Week

Three collisions in Dimmitt this week were attributed directly to the heavy coating of ice on the streets and falling snow.

The first occurred Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 when a 1957 Chevrolet driven by Mrs. V. L. Kirby collided with the right front of a 1955 Oldsmobile driven by S. W. Brown. Brown was returning the care to its owner, Dr. J. W. Spence, after servicing it at his service station when the accident occurred. The accident was considered unavoidable due to the icy road conditions prohibiting Mrs. Kirby from stopping in time. The collision occurred at the intersection of Northwest 3rd and Etter.

Another accident occurred at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon near the intersection of Jones and Second Street. A 1951 Chevrolet, driven by Stanley Otis Wilcox, 16, suffered $75 damage when it was struck from the rear by a 1955 Ford pickup driven by Dan Bruton, 42, of Dimmitt. Again ice-covered roads was the direct cause of the accident since Bruton was unable to slow his vehicle to avoid hitting Wilcox. The pickup suffered little or no damage.

About 9 a.m. Wednesday a 1954 Mercury driven by Jose Martinez, 54, was headed west on Belsher when it collided with a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Alton Warren Miller, 21, at the intersection of Belsher and Southwest Second Street. Neither car was able to stop and no charges were filed. Damage to Martinez' car was estimated by City Marshal W. W. Jones to be about $150 and damage to Miller's auto was figured at $250.

Everyone involved were residents of Dimmitt.

Two other men are also in the race for the City Commission places. Claude Forson has filed and Joe Benson was filed by petition. The election to fill these vacancies will be held Tuesday, April 1.

Noble also stressed that the job of Corporation (municipal) court judge was open and that a candidate was needed to fill this position.

In towns of more than 5,000 population the corporation court judge is appointed, but in the case of Dimmitt, he must be elected. No salary goes with the job, but payment is made on a case basis. Traffic fines comprise virtually all of the duties of a municipal court. City mayor Joe Cowen is presently acting as corporation court judge. It is not a full time job, but the candidate should be available at any time to handle any cases that may come up. The term of this office is two years.

Claude Forson Announces for City Commission

The News has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Mr. Claude Forson, Dimmitt realtor and former contractor, for the position of Commissioner of the City of Dimmitt.

In making his announcement Mr. Forson said: "I have spent most of my life in Deaf Smith and Castro County and the past eleven years in Dimmitt.

"My experience for many years as a builder and contractor should provide me with background foundation for problems incident to city building and fire zoning ordinances, city sewer, street work and matters of a related nature.

"As a realtor actively engaged in the business, I am familiar with property values as they are related to city taxes.

"I would also like to make it clear that I am a life-long Democrat and have always supported party nominees, and my acquaintances ordinarily knew, without a doubt, how I have stood on various public issues.

"If the voters of Dimmitt see fit to elect me to the office of City Commissioner, I will do everything in my power to carry out this work in an efficient, cooperative manner and in the best interests of the citizens of this city."

Mothers March Nets $289.17 for Local Polio Fund

Dimmitt JayCee-Ettes' Mothers March to collect funds for combating infantile paralysis Monday night netted $289.17.

About 40 JayCee-Ettes and volunteers worked at the canvassing for the March of Dimes from 7 until 8:30 p.m.

This brings to about $800 the total funds available for Castro County polio expense. Some $400 was left over from last year and when the results of this year's drive are halved between county needs and the national chapter, about $800 will remain.

In 1956 the March of Dimes netted $1,221. By 1957 it had fallen to $791 and this year the amount to be left in the County will reach a new low of about $400.

One JayCee-Ette member said the organization would like to "say thank you to all of the ladies who assisted in the Mother's March for Polio."

Bobcats and Bobbies Cinch Tie for District

Dimmitt High School's Bobcats and Bobbies assured themselves of at least a tie for District Championship and an inside track to full possession of the trophy when they defeated both Tulia teams Friday night.

While Tulia was considered a formidable foe for both of Coach Johnny Etheridge's teams, the scores were not particularly close. The Bobcats won 71-63 the Bobbies took theirs, 69-55. Tulia remains the only other contender in the race for District 1-AA.

Inclement weather prohibited games Tuesday that would have settled the championship question. Dimmitt boys and girls both need win only one more game or have Tulia lose one. Dimmitt records stand at 8 wins, no losses for the District's only perfect record. The Bobcats and Bobbies have two more games to play.

Cotton Production Hits 39,734 Bales

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. this week announced that final tabulations showed Castro County produced 39,734 bales of cotton from the start of the season until January 16th of this year.

Since an occasional bale of cotton was still coming to county gins as late as several weeks ago, the total production this year may have reached 40,000 bales, which was still shy of pre-season predictions of most farmers and ginners.

This was 14,670 bales short of the 1956 crop, which was normally considered a bumper year. The 1957 crop was plagued by hail, rain, and early, repeated freezes.

On the High Plains 1,534,094 bales were produced in 1957, as compared to 1,630,391 for 1956.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture last week announced it will support grower prices of 1958 crop cotton at an average of about 81 percent of parity.

This means the price for Middling 7-8 inch grade will be 30.75 cents a pound. This compares with 28.81 cents for the 1957 crop which was supported at 78 percent of parity.

Better grades will be supported at premiums and poorer ones at discounts from the base grade. The schedule of premiums and discounts will be announced later.

W. O. Fortenberry, President of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., explained that the USDA after announcing this support of the 1958 crop at 81 percent, has the privilege of raising the percent of support later this year, probably this summer, if the cotton situation at that time indicates a need for a higher support price, however, the USDA cannot lower the support percentage from the announced 81 percent.

A possible alternative for cotton producers this year may be offered if a proposed cotton bill, introduced by Senator James Eastland, (D. Miss.) is adopted and passed by Congress. Senator Eastland's bill calls for a referendum to the cotton farmer whereby he would be offered a choice between the announced 81 percent of parity on his crop, or a possible increase in acreage of approximately 25 percent to be supported at 75 percent of parity.

Few cotton observers feel this bill can be passed in time to be effective on the 1958 crop, since planting is already underway in the Rio Grande Valley.

Dimmitt Needs Candidate for Municipal Court

Anyone interested in running for the City Commission should file by February 28, according to an announcement by City Manager E. B. Noble.

Harold Stephens, one of the present commissioners, will not run for re-election. The other incumbent, Don Gladman, has already re-filed for his office.

Two other men are also in the race for the City Commission places. Claude Forson has filed and Joe Benson was filed by petition. The election to fill these vacancies will be held Tuesday, April 1.

Noble also stressed that the job of Corporation (municipal) court judge was open and that a candidate was needed to fill this position.

In towns of more than 5,000 population the corporation court judge is appointed, but in the case of Dimmitt, he must be elected. No salary goes with the job, but payment is made on a case basis. The church was renamed when it joined the Associational Baptist Association, a group of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico Baptist Churches. It had formerly belonged to no organization.

A revival will be held at the church from March 2nd to March 9th, inclusive, at the church, located at Northwest Fifth and Hall Street. Rev. A. J. Holster of Oakland, Oklahoma, will do the preaching with services to be held each day at 7 p.m. The public is invited.

Rev. Dale Bryant New Minister At Local Church

Named new pastor of Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church (formerly Calvary Baptist Church) this week was Rev. Dale Bryant, formerly of Morton.

Rev. Bryant, his wife and two-year-old daughter have moved to 409 Southwest Second Street. He had been pastor for one and a half years at Trinity Baptist Church in Morton.

Another topic brought up was the necessity of finding housing for some 300 people who would come into the county to work in the harvest. Labor, and the housing of labor, is expected to be one of the major problems to be worked out in the vegetable harvest.

Planning the county planting to harvesting will be strung out over several months will be done by farmers and Pacific Fruit and Produce officials.

Vegetable Meet Heard Friday By 100 Farmers

Over 100 Castro County farmers were present Wednesday night to hear officials of Pacific Fruit and Produce explain the problems involved in growing and processing vegetables.

At the end of the meeting these farmers signed up for about 1,500 acres of carrots, cabbage and onions plus an undetermined amount of small acreages of miscellaneous vegetables.

Among the other commercially-produced vegetables expected in Castro County this year are peppers, broccoli, cauliflower, endive, parsley, turnips, beets, and egg plants.

Speaking for Pacific Fruit and Produce were Wallace Mahoney, Lloyd Wheeler, and Paul Williams. All three men were in Dimmitt during the vegetable season just past. Mahoney will remain as general manager and Wheeler will be field representative during the vegetable season. Williams will be permanently in Dimmitt as Pacific Fruit and Produce's representative.

Technical aspects of growing vegetables and the availability of equipment consumed most of the time at the meeting. Farmers in attendance were generally enthusiastic about the prospect of vegetables becoming a major crop in this country.

Last season almost every home same saw the west bleacher ever flow and on several occasions the east visitors bleacher proved inadequate to hold the crowd.

Involved in the project will be hauling the sections from Pampa, welding them in place and adding wooden seats.

Definite arrangements are pending the next school board meeting.

Material for doubling the capacity of Dimmitt's football stadium was purchased last week in Pampa and it is planned at present that the increased facilities will be ready for the coming season.

School board representatives traveled to Pampa to the site of the Top'o Texas Rodeo grounds to inspect the bleachers after notified of their availability. It was found they measured the same as Dimmitt's bleachers and will match perfectly. Purchase price was $1,000 for enough steel bleacher section to seat about 1,500, according to school board president A. C. Hays. This cost was considered less than the market price of the steel itself.

No definite plans concerning the new bleachers have been made. According to Hays, the School Board had for some time considered the need of additional seating capacity at the stadium, but due to the high costs involved had done nothing about it. By using the old rodeo arena bleacher sections cost of the addition should be more than halved.

First Baptist Church Names New Pastor

First Baptist Church of Dimmitt has a new pastor. He is Rev. M. A. Smith, Jr., who will assume his new duties with his Sunday morning sermon February 23.

Rev. Smith comes to Dimmitt from South Beckley Baptist Church in Dallas where he was pastor for three years. He will arrive in Dimmitt Friday, February 20, with his wife and 18-year-old son, David, and 16-year-old daughter Diane.

Rev. Smith is a graduate of Howard Payne College at Brownwood and Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth. He has held pastorates in Cresson, Pilot Point and Royce City. At present he is chairman of the Missions Survey Committee of Dallas County.

County Beset By Snow and Hard Freezes

With Spring just five weeks away, Castro County, along with the rest of the state, found itself shivering under a freezing mantle of dark grey clouds this week.

Snowfall, which came intermittently from Monday until Wednesday, ranged from one and a half to two inches. It was a wet, soggy snow, that left an estimated quarter of an inch of moisture on the ground (ordinarily 10 inches of snow equals one inch of rain).

Several automobile accidents were reported as roads became coated with a glassy layer of ice. Travel was hazardous here and throughout the entire Panhandle area. Very little melting had occurred through Thursday.

Temperatures rarely got above freezing, and when it did, it was just for a few hours. Lows throughout the week range from 15 degrees to 20 with highs being around 35 degrees. Most of the time, though, temperatures were well below freezing from Sunday on.

Elsewhere in the state, a shroud of snow lay over most of Texas Wednesday from the north Panhandle to the Gulf Coast. More snow was in prospect for Thursday night and Friday (at press time) for the Panhandle and South Plains as well as Central Texas areas.

A new low pressure system in the central Rocky Mountains is expected by weathermen to push southward and touch off the new round of precipitation.

The first high winds of the current cold snap arrived Thursday morning and by 10 o'clock the first sunshine in several days broke through the low-lying clouds.

No injuries were reported due to the inclement weather.

$10 Million Mark Nears In Loans on Grain

A whopping 575 million pounds of 1957-crop grain sorghums were put into the government loan program, it was announced this week by ASC Secretary Charlie Hill.

Paper issued on this grain in farm loans and purchase agreements came to almost $10,000,000. This represents a major portion of the grain sorghum produced in the county, but by no means is it a complete total. During the first of the harvesting season wet weather held moisture content of the grain above the maximum to put into loan so many farmers sold theirs on the open market. Also there are still farmers who are putting their grain into loan at this late date since the deadline is February 28.

2,800 grain sorghum loans have been processed to date.

Broken down, there were 501,466-285 pounds put into warehouse loans with a value of $9,329,670.50. Twenty-six straight grain sorghum loans, mostly farm stored, were issued on 8,607,266 pounds for a value of $151,000. Three purchase agreements were made for 6,740,000 pounds for a value of $120,000.

Other crops also showed impressive financial yields for county farmers. 45,810.53 bushels of corn brought $60,778.13; 26 barley loans were made for $27,000; 279 wheat loans were made on 638,556.51 bushels for $1,244,216.52.

75 Farmers Attend Soils Fertility Day

Some 75 Castro County farmers were on hand to hear five main speakers Wednesday afternoon at the High School Auditorium as part of the 1958 Annual Soils Fertility Day.

The annual affair, which has become something of a tradition in this county, began at 10 a.m. with introductions of speakers and guests. B. M. Nelson, manager of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce then made the introductions.

At 10:10 a.m. Dave Sherrill, Associate County Agent on Irrigation from Lubbock, gave his talk on "Irrigation Practices."

An hour later, John McHaney, Extension Economist, Texas A&M College, gave his talk on the "Agricultural Outlook."

Dimmitt Lions Club fed the farmers and businessmen their noon meal in the High School Gymnasium. More than an hour was provided for the lunch period.

"Working Together for a better Agriculture," was the after-dinner subject of Reagen Brown, Extension Sociologist of Texas A&M College.

He was followed at 2 o'clock by Joe Cole, Associate Lubbock County Agent, who spoke on "Vegetable Production."

The final speech of the day was by Charlie Scruggs, editor of Progressive Farmers Magazine of Dallas. He spoke on "Agriculture's Future."

According to Chamber of Commerce manager B. M. Nelson, the program was an outstanding one and the attendance was highly satisfactory.

Clinch Tie For District Crowns

Bobcats and Bobbies Defeat Muleshoe and Tulia

The Bobcats and Bobbies won two games each last week to clinch a tie for the district crowns. Last Tuesday night here the Bobcats and Bobbies won over Muleshoe boys and girls by a score of 67 to 40 and 66 to 38. The Bobcats and Bobbies were both pressed at the half, the Bobcats leading only one point, but each came through strong to take large margin victories. The high scorers for the Bobbies were Mickey Pelley with 30 and EdDena Boozer 21. The Bobcats were led by Keith Lowe with 27 and Hal Ratcliff with 16.

The Bobcats and Bobbies won close decisions over the Tulia team there last Friday. The girls won 69 to 55 and the boys took a thriller 71 to 63. The boys game was a tight dual with the score being tied 15 to 15 at the end of the first quarter. The Cats went ahead 32 to 31 at half and held a 50 to 45 advantage at the end of the third quarter. They lead throughout the fourth quarter, never letting Tulia within 3 points. The Bobcats had four to hit in double figures. Keith Lowe was high with 26, followed by Hal Ratcliff with 21, Truman Touchstone and Jimmy Curtis with 10.

Mickey Pelley and EdDena Boozer paced the girls with 29 and 28 respectively. The Bobcats and Bobbies need only one victory in their next two games to clinch the district crown. They have already assured a possible tie. They met Canyon here Tuesday and will close their season at Muleshoe Friday.

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day was named for three different Saints whose names were Valentine. The customs of Valentine's Day has no connection with the lives of the three saints other than their feast days which fell on February 14.

There are many different explanations for the sending of greeting cards and love tokens on Saint Valentine's Day. The explanation which seems to be the most nearly true is that Valentine's Day is a survival of a Roman festival which fell on February 15.

It was once a custom to draw lots to decide which young men and women should be each other's "valentine" for the coming year. The couples would exchange gifts, and sometimes they even became engaged. Sentimental valentines and gifts of flowers and candy are still commonly given by men to women in celebration of Saint Valentine's Day in the United States. The custom is not widely followed in Great Britain.

Plainview, Tex., Man Reports— "I Got a 2,000-lb.-per-acre Increase on 575 Acres of Grain Sorghum."

Lem Brock, of Plainview, Tex., says: "I put down 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia on 575 acres of irrigated maize land, and got an average of 2,000 pounds of grain increase per acre. I also put down 100 pounds of Phillips ammonia on castor beans and got an increase of 500 pounds of beans per acre. Also, by using Phillips 66 ammonia I got 1½ bales of cotton to the acre in an unseasonable cotton year."

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that the 82% nitrogen in top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them to get more profit per acre, through higher yields and lower production costs.

They have found that, by using Phillips 66 Ammonia, they get more cotton that grades out higher at the gin; yields of grain sorghum grain and ensilage are increased; more marketable vegetables are harvested, and profits on wheat are increased through better forage, and higher yields of grain.

MY TAIL IS TOLD

Hello there! Are you busy? Oh, good, then may I ask you a simple question? Why don't people have tails? Monkeys have them, and they look so nice. There are so many ways that tails would help us in this modern age.

For instance, a tail of proper length would save many lives in any of the following ways:

1. Automobile accident prevention: a built-in signal without taking your hands off the wheel for a second.
2. A sanitary aid for the swatting of insects which may be carrying a deadly virus.
3. In war, a tail would act as a sort of sensory unit for the protection of the rear.
4. A man's hat could be tipped without dropping all of his groceries.

The fact is, I don't see how man can live without a tail. Times are too dangerous. Think of what a powerful weapon it could be to use against the Russians. I even built myself a beautiful tail to see if an artificial one would work, but they took it away from me.

Oh dear! They are coming to get me again now. It may be just as well because I don't have anything more to say. My story is done.

As the young polar bear said to me as he sat on the iceberg, "My tail is told!"

I just found out that the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church is planning to participate in the "White Shower" idea. I think it is grand the way the idea is taking hold. If there are any other organizations planning to take part, please let me know so credit can be given where credit is due.

In case someone doesn't know about the "White Shower," it is a project in which an organization has a shower for the Castro County Hospital in the way of sheets, pillow cases, towels, wash clothes, diapers, receiving blankets, stomach bands, etc.

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

The hottest thing on Capitol Hill last week was the investigation being conducted by the Legislative Oversight Subcommittee. This is a Subcommittee of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce doing some investigating of federal agencies. I am not a member of the Subcommittee but am a member of the parent committee. The Subcommittee is headed by Honorable Morgan Moulder, a Member of Congress from the State of Missouri. Mr. Moulder is a very able lawyer and has been a hard working Member of the Congress. He has a tough job on his hands and one that will require him to step on some pretty sensitive toes. The Legislative Oversight Subcommittee was set up originally to make a thorough investigation of the activities of the several agencies of the federal government such as the Federal Communications Commission, the Federal Power Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Civil Aeronautics Board and others. These commissions and agencies were originally set up as arms of the Congress to handle licensing and investigative work in matters concerning the public interests which required treatment of a quasi or semi-judicial nature. It was anticipated that these agencies would continually represent the people, to wit, the Congress of the United States. However, during the late years, he agencies have gradually slipped out from under the purview of Congress and have apparently considered themselves answerable to the Executive Branch of the government. Many people became disturbed about this trend because of the political overtones with which some of the decisions seemed to be clothed. There were charges that these agencies were overstepping their jurisdictional authority and were being used to further the political ambitions, as well as the financial ambitions, of a few favorite sons. There were many other charges involving the agencies. The truth or falsity of all the charges had to be determined because these several agencies involved have jurisdiction over matters which affect the daily lives of every single individual living in the United States, such as railroads, buses, trucks, airplanes, radio, television, telephones, telegraph, securities, trade practices, electricity, gas and many other things.

The Subcommittee was formed about eleven months ago but got off to a slow start because of the difficulty in being able to find a qualified staff. Once the staff had been selected, work was commenced in gathering data. Among the first data gotten together was information indicating that some of the members of these commissions might have accepted numerous gifts, honorariums and presents from the firms and individuals in industry and businesses which the commissions are supposed to be regulating. This immediately brought forth serious suspicion that such gifts and presents were intended to influence the decision of these members of the commissions on behalf of the donors. The report containing this information was supposedly a confidential report but was leaked by someone and portions of the report appeared in the newspapers. This, of course, caused a political explosion which brought forth more charges and countercharges, excuses and explanations that will, no doubt, consume all of the time of the Subcommittee for several weeks to come. This means that the Moulder Subcommittee will be front page news during most of this session of the Congress. There are already accusations being returned home with them for supper.

made on the floor of Congress that this Subcommittee is intended to cast reflections on the Republican Party for political reasons. These charges will undoubtedly grow more heated. As the matter now stands, the people of this country are entitled to have all of the facts regarding the activities of the members of these commissions, as well as the policies pursued by them. If the interest of the public is not being served properly by these agencies neither in the individual capacities of the members or the agencies as a whole, then the Congress is duty bound to make such changes as will carry out the intent and purposes of the statutes which created these agencies.

Crime in the District of Columbia
 The District of Columbia has been plagued for some time with a crime wave which was dangerously close to getting out of hand. In recent weeks there has been an uptrend in the crimes involving personal attacks. These have not been confined to nighttime activities. Older people have been accosted on the streets in broad daylight and viciously and unmercifully beaten. The motive for all of these crimes seems to be robbery. The streets in a great many sections of the Nation's Capital are considered extremely dangerous after dark to foot travelers—especially women. There has been a wave of purse snatching, both during daylight and after dark. In many instances people are set upon from behind by small gangs "employing what the newspapers term, "the yoke method" of robbery. That is, the gangs sneak up behind an intended victim, and the first the victim knows about being in danger is when he or she feels a small cord or rope around their neck. This is held very tightly by the robber, and the victim is told not to move while he or she is being searched. By using this method, the criminals prevent the victim from seeing them for identification purposes.
 The police in the District have worked most diligently in an effort to stem this criminal tide. However, it seems to be growing worse, insofar as the personal attack types of crime are involved. One District resident has suggested in a letter to one of the local newspapers that the troops from Little Rock and bring them to the District of Columbia to cope with the situation.

'Rip' Ford Was Tough Hombre Says Tech Professor's Cowboy Stuby

Western gunslings of television fame are Eastern dudes in comparison to "Rip" Ford and his Indian fighters who battled the wily Comanches in West Texas during the late 1850's.

William J. Hughes, instructor and doctoral candidate in history at Texas Tech, describes "Rip" Ford's Indian fight on the Canadian River in the current issue of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Review.

When Regular Army contingents were transferred from northwest Texas to more troublesome areas in other territories, the Comanche horsemen swept through white settlements in 1857 and the reeling casualty lists and tools of vanished or destroyed property again began to mount," Hughes writes.

The Federal government stalled in answering pleas of the settlers for more protection and finally Governor Harding R. Runnels obtained $70,000 from the State Legislature to mobilize an additional 100 men to bolster the Ranger ranks.

John S. "Rip" Ford, who had proved himself with Col. Jack Hays in earlier years, was named Senior Captain of the group and by February 1858 the Rangers were on the march.

"Most of the men, like Ford, carried two Navy Colts, and every man had at least one, as well as the familiar muzzleloading rifle," Hughes writes. "The firepower of the force was estimated at 1,500 rounds without reloading."

While the Rangers had no uniform, "broad-brimmed hats, pulled low over the eyebrows, and high boots, into which trousers were tucked gave a certain uniformity to the column, as did the cap-and-ball rifles with walnut butts protruding forward from rawhide boots."

The punitive expedition was joined by Indians from the Texas reservations and representatives of at least a half-dozen Indian nations accompanied the Texans, Hughes reports.

Marching with the Rangers were the CaddoAnadarko group, the cannibal Tonkawas, a mixed command of Shawnees and Delawares, the Wacos and the Tahuacacos.

Ford's scouts discovered a Comanche encampment in the vicinity of the Fort Smith-Santa Fe "bull wagon" road where it topped the Washita-Canadian divide. The battle began about 7 a.m. and was over by 1 p.m. when the remaining Comanches fled northward.

A surprising and little known fact about the Tonkawas is revealed by Hughes.

"As the Rangers again plodded through the debris of Iron Jacket's shattered village commenting on the piles of gorgeously beaded buffalo robes, the piles of dried meat, and the heaped containers of cornmeal, salt and coffee obtained by the Comancheros, Ford was astonished to notice that among the bodies of the Comanche braves there were some which lacked hands and feet."

The reason soon became clear for "The missing extremities dangled from Tonkawa saddle bows: those wolfish people were planning a victory feast."

The battle came just in time for one of the prisoners revealed that the Comanches were drying and packing meat for use on a campaign against the settlers and reservation tribes, Hughes said.

Ford's official report tells the true value of the expedition:

"Indians can be pursued and caught in the Buffalo region—the country beyond the Red River can be penetrated and held by white men, and the Comanches can be followed, overtaken and beaten, provided the pursuers will be laborious, vigilant, and are willing to undergo privation."

The result was that the War Department changed its policy from a defensive concept to one of attack, Hughes said. After the Civil War, Army commanders like Van Dorn, Custer, Miles, Mackenzie and Crook led the long blue files into the heartland of the nomadic foe.

An example had been set for them, Hughes writes, "in the Spring of 1858 by a hundred youthful Texans led by "Old Rip" Ford."

LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Despite the adverse hauling conditions due to the snow and ice, the arrivals of cattle and calves at the Amarillo Livestock Auction were practically identical with a week ago at 3,491 head but about 500 less than a year ago. The big share of the run was comprised of stocker and feeder classes with feeder steers predominating on Tuesday. The stock calf supply arrived for Monday's trading and were almost absent on the following session. Price trends for the week were mostly higher as buying interests were aggressive. Cows are steady with last weeks average or 50c higher than the close. Downturns of 50c were recorded on bulls while slaughter yearlings and calves continue to arrive in too limited numbers to establish a trend. Improved dressed beef traded pushed the prices of Stocker and feeder steers and heifers 25-50c higher. The full average was registered on feeder classes and Medium grade stock steers. Upturns of mostly 25c were recorded on stock calves, few sales 50 up.

Ag Teachers Hear
Vegetable Talk
By Cole Monday

A group of Panhandle and South Plains agricultural teachers Monday heard Mr. Joe Cole of the Lubbock Extension Service tell what had been done of a demonstrational nature about vegetable crops for this area.

Attending the meeting were eleven agricultural teachers from as far away as Sudan and Littlefield. The meeting was held at Dimmitt High School.

Mr. Cole discussed what had been found about production costs of various common vegetables. Lettuce, of which there are 60 to 70,000 acres in the Panhandle and South Plains, costs about $123 per acre to produce. This includes, among other things, $12 for irrigation, $8.00 for seed; $8.00 for preparation; $40.00 for cultivating; $23.50 for fertilizer and $34.00 for fertilizer.

Cost of other vegetables are: Tomatoes, cost of production per acre, $48.35, and harvesting $6.00 per ton; Okra, cost of production per acre, $35.00, and harvesting, $228.07 per acre; Onions cost $177 per acre; Squash cost $30 to $35 per acre; Watermelons cost $30.00 per acre plus a harvesting and marketing cost of $205 per acre.

Your CASH
isn't TRASH!
Treat your dollars with respect. True, they won't buy as much as they used to. But, this is the very reason why you should spend as few of them — and save as many — as you possibly can. The dollars you needlessly spend only help to keep prices high. The dollars you save help to relieve inflationary pressures and thus bring prices down. Every payday put some of your money where it will do YOU the most good . . . in an account in this bank. The time to start is NOW!
