New Minister Meets Brother Lions at Lunch

A. C. Green Has Embalmer License Number 67

Introduction of a new Lion, appointment of some committees for certain transactions, showing a movie-talkie on "In Service to America" and an announcement of November 23 as the date for the next scrap paper drive, were highlights of the Lions program Wednesday at Hotel Laguna.

Rev. W. A. Flynn, new pastor of the First Methodist church, was introduced by Lion A. R. Westfall. Mr. Flynn is a Lion and acknowledged the introduction briefly, saying he would probably remain at least a year and would not delay the program by lengthy remarks, contenting himself with the statement that he was glad to be in Cisco and was sure he would like the Lions and other citizens of the town.

President O. J. Turner thanked the Lions for their response to calls on the death of Lion E. E. Bue. He also appointed H. H. Tompkins, Austin Flint and E. G. Damon as committee for the teen-age canteen, while Turner himself was elected to take the place of Jay Garrett, resigned, to organize the paper drive for November 23. The secretary was instructed to order a Lions blind-man came for a citizen of near Cisco.

S. H. Nance was in charge of the program and gave the club a picture showing Henry Ford's organization at work for the country at peace and in war. The picture began by showing America at peace with her humming industry and in carrying on the pursuits of peace such as enjoying schools, churches, children at play and tilling the soil.

The Ford organization began with the simplest car which was little more than a body and top on a bicycle chassis. Then came the development into the Model T and on into the refined cars that have been leaders wherever fine car performance has been shown.

In the war of 1917, Ford took prominent part in building engines for Liberty planes, making tractors, tanks and better automobile engines.

This progressive industry continued into world war two, in which every kind of instrument of war with engines and moving parts have been built by this great organization.

At 2:20 p. m. two games take the air simultaneously. The S. M. U.-Arkansas game with Bill Michaels as play-by-play announcer and Jerry Doggett as color man will be broadcast over stations KTRH, Houston and KRLLD, Dallas.

STREET FIGHTING IN HOLLAND—British infantrymen crouch in the foreground as crocodile flame-throwing tanks aim their fire at enemy strong points during street fighting for the Netherlands town with the funny name, Hertogenbosch. Germans put up fierce opposition trying to hold the city. As result they suffered heavy casualties.

EXCLUSIVE PRESS CLUB—American war correspondent writes his dispatches from front "porch" of deserted native hut named Leyte Press Club by correspondents. Note sign showing how exclusive Club is. Japs must be accompanied by a member. And minus shootin' irons.

CRESTFALLEN LINEUP—These German soldiers were among the first to be captured by the Allies in their dash for Aachen. Sad and crestfallen, they face lineup for questioning, which revealed most of them are beginning to realize their cause is hopeless. Picture was taken on the outskirts of city wrecked by Allied bombing.

FOLLOWING THE PONIES—A GI and his WAC girl friend mingle with civilians as they place their wagers at betting windows of race track in Paris. Although Parisians haven't forgotten their years of domination by Nazis, they're rapidly returning to normal.

Texas Board Of Control Urges Salary Raises

AUSTIN, Nov. 16—Salary raises for most state employees, who still are being paid at the pre-war rate, furnish the major change in budget recommendations by the State Board of Control to the Forty-Ninth legislature which will meet in January.

The budget recommendations are $35,846,415 for the fiscal year starting next Sept. 1 and $35,461,392 for the second year of the biennium, each about $5,000,000 above the appropriations which the present legislature made for the judiciary, state departments, higher education and eleemosynary institutions.

Under a constitutional amendment, the legislature must keep appropriations starting next Jan. 1 within estimated revenue. The Board of Control said that its budget would be well within estimated receipts and is $26,201,748 less than the departments, colleges and other state agencies are requesting.

The board recommends increasing salaries below $2,100 a year by 20 per cent and those in the $2,100-$3,600 bracket by 13 per cent. In the higher brackets, the board said, it recommends raises only where the over-all increase would put some employee at a higher scale than the division-head receives. There undoubtedly are instances, the board declared, where employees making more than $3,600 a year should make more money.

The board estimated that living costs have risen 30 per cent since the war started and recalled that few employees have received restoration of cuts made by the legislature during the depression.

Gov. Coke Stevenson said he had not made specific recommendation of salary increases because he is uncertain how much increase can be safely made and within the estimated revenue. In a letter to the Board of Control, Stevenson said it appears to him to be a close question whether the raise can be 15 or 20 per cent in the lowest bracket. The governor explained that the legislature will know better six months from now, when it actually is writing the appropriation bills, what revenues it can expect in the 1945-1947 biennium.

The Board of Control pointed out that the general fund's $28,665,845 deficit of two years ago has been eliminated and the treasury now is on a cash basis.

"We desire to emphasize that we cannot disregard the risk of grave financial disaster inherent in any assumption that appropriation for the next biennium can be based on current inflated revenues," the board warned. In the fiscal year ended Aug. 31 the general fund received $51,702,232, nearly $10,000,000 more than the year before, largely because war-time demands for oil greatly increased production taxes.

BEAT DOG: FINED

DALLAS, Nov. 16.—A man brought before Judge Frank O'Brien in corporation court yesterday was fined on a charge of cruelty to animals after witnesses testified they saw the defendant beat a dog with a stick, then throw it over a backyard fence. The man said he worked at night and was unable to sleep during the day and also that he feared the dog would attack him. Mrs. Emilie Schuyler, president of the Dallas Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, produced witnesses who testified the pup was very small and that its bark was not loud. The dog was taken to a shelter but Mrs. Schuyler said it was in such grave condition it had to be killed. The defendant was given time to prepare an appeal.

PATTON TIGHTENS DEATH GRIP ON METZ FORTRESS AND REDS CRACK NAZI FLANK, BUDAPEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—U. S. forces have seized the Mapa islands, 900 miles behind front lines in the Philippines where the U. S. Sixth army today tightened a triangular trap on the cornered enemy.

A small amphibious force Wednesday overwhelmed meager resistance in the Mapa landings, 150 miles north of western Dutch New Guinea. Two days of aerial bombardment by planes from the huge Biak island air-dromes, and a preliminary naval barrage shattered the light Nipponese defenses.

The invasion knocked out lookout posts from which Japanese spotters warned other enemy-held islands that U. S. bombers were on the way from Biak.

In other Oriental war theaters British submarines knocked off 24 more Japanese ships, Australia formally announced the enemy threat of invasion had vanished, and Chungking expressed growing fears of an invasion of interior China.

In the Philippines a double envelopment movement by the U. S. 24th division on northern Leyte island "practically severed the Ormoc road" on northern Leyte island and trapped several thousand Nipponese troops around Limon. Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced. The 24th is 14 miles north of Ormoc.

The advancing Seventh division "bloodily repulsed" enemy counterattacks at Balogo, ten miles south of Ormoc. This is the closest American forces have come to the Nipponese stronghold. First Cavalry and 96th infantry division elements pressed across the mountainous center of the island, roughly 14 miles east of Ormoc. Dismounted Cavalrymen, who have turned mountaineers on Leyte, seized three more peaks.

FT boats and Yank planes lashed what shipping they could find in the bay west of Ormoc.

While Yank troops were taking over the Dutch-owned Mapa islands, Netherlands officials announced in Washington they would soon recruit an army of their own to liberate the rest of the Dutch East Indies.

Australia announced that 95 per cent of its home guard, "The Australian volunteer defense corps," would be placed on the reserve list since the threat of invasion has been definitely removed.

A bright spot in China's dark picture was the arrival today of Donald M. Nelson to help the recently created Chinese war production board expand the nation's industrial output.

TIGHTENS DEATH GRIP

WASHINGTON.—General Patton's Third army tightened a death grip today from the west, south and north on fortress Metz, and all along the western front, with the exception of the U. S. First army's Aachen sector in Germany. Allied armies blazed into new action.

In the north the British Second army has gained seven to eight miles from the jump-off of its new offensive in southeast Holland, and on the southern end of the front the French First army opened up a new ang broad assault against approaches to the Belfort gap leading to the Rhine.

Berlin broadcasts indicated the German home front was being prepared for Metz fall as U. S. tanks hammered at the southern outskirts near Magny. Americans driving in from the north lunged to within 1 1/2 miles of the city. From the south Patton's men were little more than a mile away. To the southeast Fifth division troops held Poudilly ridge, commanding Nazi escape roads, and from the west the 93th infantry by-passed Forts Driant and Jeanne D'Arc. On the northern end of the assault the 90th infantry beat off heavy counterattacks and expanded its Moselle bridgehead to 14 miles, and on the lower end of the attack the 35th division all but occupied Morhange, 23 miles below Metz.

Heralded by a heavy artillery barrage, the new French offensive in the south spearheaded through the snow on a 25-mile front on both banks of the Doubs river and scored advances up to five miles by last night. A spearhead occupied Arcey, 11 miles southwest of Belfort, and 10 other villages were taken.

DECISIVE BATTLE NEAR

MOSCOW.—The Red army has cracked the German flank east of Budapest, and is hurling its armored might through a breach within 12 miles of the Hungarian capital, front dispatches said today. A decisive battle for control of the invasion routes to Austria appeared imminent.

A sustained pounding by wave of Marshal Malinovsky's assault forces forced the enemy into a damaging withdrawal from more than 50 towns and villages, including the large railway junction of Jaszbereny, target of a four-day attack.

The German withdrawal extended along a 100-mile front from Mende, 12 miles southeast of Budapest, to Korom and other towns 10 miles below the north Hungarian rail junction of Miskolc.

Quannah C. of C. Highly Commends Rev. W. A. Flynn

Rev. W. A. Flynn, who will preach his first sermon as pastor of the First Methodist church of Cisco Sunday morning, is highly commended in a letter from the Quannah chapter of commerce to the Cisco chamber, received this week.

"It is with regret that we see him leave Quannah," the letter read. "Not only has he served his congregation well, but you will be interested to know that he is a fine civic worker, having taken an active part in every worthwhile project during his stay here."

The new Cisco minister served at Quannah as president of the Lions club for 1933-44; as district chairman of the Advancement Committee of Boy Scouts, with the Red Cross, the United War Chest and various other civic and patriotic agencies.

"You will find him an energetic and enthusiastic worker in civic affairs as well as in his church work," the letter declared. "He and his family will make Cisco a fine, progressive family."

LOBOES TO MIDLAND

CONVINCING SUPPORT

The election gives President Roosevelt a great advantage in future conferences with Churchill and Stalin. He can point to the returns and say, "I was endorsed by the people of the United States, and have a mandate from them. Where is your mandate?"

Where indeed? England has not had a national election since 1935, five years before Churchill became prime minister. A free election in Russia is at present unthinkable. If any difference between the three leaders should arise, Churchill and Stalin might argue that the people of Great Britain and Russia were behind them. Neither, however, could back his statement up with such convincing evidence as the returns of Nov. 7.

JAP COMMENT

We used to think that we and the Japanese could understand each other, but apparently we were wrong. Between us there is, in Scriptural terms, "a great gulf fixed." We might cross it, with our superior power of imagination and broader sympathies, but it is evidently much harder for the Japs.

Radio Tokyo, in a recent message to the Japanese nation, declared that there could be no compromise peace negotiations between the two countries. But that was only a starter. It added these venomous words: "Our only path is to recognize clearly the beastly character of the American people and to renew our determination to crush America." Incidentally the message expressed amazement at the election vote which on both sides of the political fence strongly upheld the prosecution of the war. All this is mere Jap stupidity.

STAGE AND SCREEN

Old-time theater goers will have their memories on hearing of the death of Henrietta Crossman. She entered stardom in 1900 in "Mistress Nell," the life-drama of the colorful 17th century English court figure, Nell Gwyn. For many years afterward Miss Crossman successfully enacted Shakespearean and other roles, but mostly comedy. With her were such noted figures of the stage as E. H. Sothern, Herbert Kelsey, Effie Shannon and May Robson. While she had not been on the stage for many years, she was still vividly remembered by her many admirers throughout the country.

The decline in the stage has made such careers infrequent today. Nor do the movies take their place. The screen has its stars, but these are often short-time wonders, the tendency being to replace them constantly with newer and younger personalities. Though some screen actors like Adolphe Menjou, to name only one, have been popular for years, their careers have not been nearly so long as those of their stage rivals; also they have been far fewer.

UNDERSEA WORLD

The last stronghold of the unexplored is being entered. The bottom of the sea, with its strange animals and plants has been almost unknown. Divers have discovered a little. Scientific voyages have brought back occasional samples of the ocean floor, scooped up in long tubes let down from ships. The sum total of the information thus derived is very small.

New photography will help to fill the gap. In addressing the Optical Society of America, Maurice Ewing, who teaches geology at Columbia University, said that pictures can now be taken as far down as 2,700 fathoms, or a little over three miles. Naturally it is hoped that this advance is only the beginning.

Look for interesting sea discoveries after the war.

AN AMERICAN ARTIST'S TRIBUTE TO IRELAND

EMAMON DE VALERA, Prime Minister of Eire, has accepted on behalf of the Irish Government through Leo T. McCauley, the Irish Consul General in New York, the gift of a large allegorical painting, "The Writing of the Epitaph," by the noted American artist, William R. Leigh. It has been said it should be the ambition of every Irishman in the United States to see this picture before it leaves our shores, much as it was with every American to see the Statue of Liberty upon its presentation to our nation by France. When Mr. de Valera was in New York a score of years ago, he went personally to Leigh's studio on 57th Street to inspect the painting. He expressed such approval of and pleasure in it that recently the artist wrote him as follows: "In commemoration of your heroic perseverance in bringing order out of chaos, and my profound sympathy with your people, I am happy to contribute my effort embodied in 'The Writing of the Epitaph,' which meet with your approval when you were in my studio some years ago." At that time Padraic Colum, in describing the painting, wrote: "The American poet Walt Whitman saw Ireland as a shadow before their eyes. Mother, mourning over the grave of her son, at her side an unused harp. But the conception of Ireland as 'an ancient sorrowful reaped and to where sheep spread themselves through a pasture. The tale of wrong and oppression has been gone through. The tablet in her hand is a new leaf, and the first words being written are in memory of the hero and martyr of the day that is passed, Robert Emmet's epitaph business the shadowy figure on the gallows—it is the Republic.

"It is an allegory set forth in moving and appealing terms; it is an allegory full of hope; it is an allegory that sets before us the young Irish democracy."

The title, "The Writing of the Epitaph," is drawn from the words of Robert Emmet when, on September 29, 1802, as he stood on the gallows, he said in his impassioned speech known to every Irishman, that not until his country was free should his epitaph be written. The picture will be held in the Consulate in New York until its transportation to Eire can be arranged.

Mr. Leigh, with his wife Ethel Traphagen, founded the famous school which bears her name. He is noted for his paintings of the Old West and his work as master painter of the various groups in the Africa Hall of the American Museum of Natural History, as well as for his series of American paintings in the P. M. Phillips Museum in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Fred Steffey was in charge when group one of First Christian church council met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. James Haynie. The meeting opened with a devotional brought by Mrs. Jim Latimer, who also directed the afternoon lesson on "The American Indian."

Articles from World Call magazine were reviewed and Mrs. Steffey conducted the business session. Minutes were read by the hostess and it was voted to pack a Thanksgiving box for the Juliet Fowler Home on the fourth Tuesday. Members of group one will be in charge of the fourth Tuesday meeting and a special program is being planned. The group also decided to send Christmas gifts to soldiers in hospital at Camp Bowie.

A social hour followed and refreshments of chocolate cake and coffee were passed to Mrs. Fred Steffey, Mrs. Roy Fonville, Mrs. W. R. Huestis, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Jim Latimer, Mrs. Edward Lee, Mrs. L. J. Preston and Mrs. Haynie.

THANKSGIVING

AROUND THE CORNER

With bountiful crops and jobs for all who are able to work, there should be much cause for thanksgiving. Victory seems to be crowning the efforts of our soldiers in the various fields of battle. This should most certainly be a cause for much rejoicing in America and in the conquered states of Europe where they are now, or soon will be, released from their bondage.

But there will be little thanksgiving in America as long as the boys of these fathers and mothers are fighting in battle fields of far-flung sectors. Few fathers and mothers will be able to really enjoy a thanksgiving day with those empty chairs at tables where their happy voices once made music to the ears of other members of the family.

Yes, that is what most parents are praying for just now. They are hoping those sons will be able to do the job soon and be on their way back home by Christmas. Until they are once more safe at the fireside, thanksgiving will be but an empty name.

LET'S HURRY THE JOB BY DOING OUR PARTS AT HOME—IN CISCO AND ELSEWHERE
