YANKS MAKE SURPRISE ATTACK

College Graduating Exercises Friday Evening

Cisco Junior College will graduate its fifth senior class in its twenty years of operation when Dr. R. N. Richardson, a former principal of the Cisco high school and now president of Hardin-Simmons university, speaks in commencement exercises at the Cisco Presbyterian church, Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

An outstanding educator and historian, Dr. Richardson is a former Ciscoan whose services are much in demand throughout west Texas. He is an able orator and a keen thinker and his messages have both an informative and inspirational value.

There are eleven graduates in the college class. In view of the fact that all colleges have experienced a great reduction in enrollment because of the war, this number is exceptional for the local school, which has made a splendid success despite the difficulties imposed upon small schools by conditions beyond the control of educators. College authorities and the Cisco public are proud of the continuing success of the school, which, they point out, demonstrates that it is meeting a great need and that the field for its service after the war is great.

The splendid fine arts department of the college, under the direction of Miss Wilda Dragoo, will have charge of the music for the program. The exercises will begin promptly at 8:30 p. m.

HAZLEWOOD TRANSFERRED.

From the navy pre-flight school of Chapel Hill, N. C., comes information that Naval Aviation Cadet James M. Hazlewood, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hazlewood of Dallas, has successfully completed the course there and has been transferred to the naval air station at Bunker Hill, Ind., for primary flight training. Cadet Hazlewood attended Cisco high school in 1936 and later McMurry College. He was employed by West Texas Utilities company at Abilene before entering the naval training program.

RIE HELPED THEM.

ST. VALERY EN CAUS, France, May 23.—General Eisenhower had more than 40,000 repatriated prisoners of war today that he is personally doing everything to get them home as soon as possible.

Legislature Has Abolished 88th District Court

The 88th, one of Eastland county's two district courts, has been abolished by act of the state legislature now in session at Austin. Final action was taken May 21, when the house acted on a senate bill introduced May 1 by Senator Pat Bullock. Senate vote was 28 to 9, while in the house only two members voted to retain two courts.

The outgoing court, presided over by Judge B. W. Patterson, will cease to exist 90 days after adjournment of the present legislature, or about September 1.

Thereafter the county will have but one district court, the 91st, over which Judge George L. Davenport presides.

While sentiment had been expressed from time to time for several years that the county and district could be served thoroughly by one court, this feeling crystallized on April 23, when the Eastland county court adopted resolutions addressed to Senator Pat Bullock and Representatives L. R. Pearson and R. N. Graham, as follows:

"We, the commissioners court of Eastland county, Texas, being charged with the responsibility of checking various phases of the county business and strongly desiring that the county be run as economically as possible, and knowing that there has been some bills introduced in this session of the legislature which had to do with abolishing a district court in Eastland county, Texas, and

"After thorough investigation extending over several months' time, we are of the definite opinion that Eastland county does not now need two district courts. For us to maintain two district courts costs the taxpayers $5,000 per year for each court and the state of Texas an approximate equal amount for each court.

"Yours very truly, P. L. Crossley, County Judge; H. V. Davenport, Commissioner Precinct 1; P. L. Medford, Commissioner Precinct 2; Virge Foster, Commissioner Precinct 3; Arch Birt, Commissioner Precinct 4."

Howard Thurston, the great magician, was once a race horse jockey in Texas.

O. D. Brogdon, 47 Died Early Today at Home, Gorman

O. D. Brogdon, 47, brother of Guy Brogdon and Mrs. Floyd Harralson of Cisco, died suddenly at 6 o'clock this morning at his home in Gorman. Death resulted from a heart attack.

Deceased was born at Romney, June 28, 1898, and was a Mason and a member of the Methodist church. He married Miss Marcella Seales of Gorman and two sons were born of that union, one of whom departed last Sunday for service in the army. At the time of his death he was employed part time in the bank at Gorman and was also agent for the Chevrolet automobile. At one time Mr. Brogdon lived in Cisco and was an employe of the John H. Garner department store. His father, W. L. Brogdon of Romney, died April 18, 1944.

Other survivors in addition to the wife and two sons and Guy Brogdon and Mrs. Harralson, are two other sisters, Mrs. George Blackwell and Mrs. Edward Blackwell of Gorman.

Funeral and burial will be held at Gorman, but the date had not been set at noon today.

Free Talkie at Palace Tomorrow Morning at Ten

Invitations have been extended to approximately 450 homemakers who are using frozen storage lockers in Cisco and to anyone else interested, to attend a talking picture, "Frozen Foods," at the Palace theater Thursday, May 24 at 10 a. m. The picture, filmed in full color, shows detailed preparation of vegetables, fruits and chickens for freezing and also proper packaging and cooking of frozen foods.

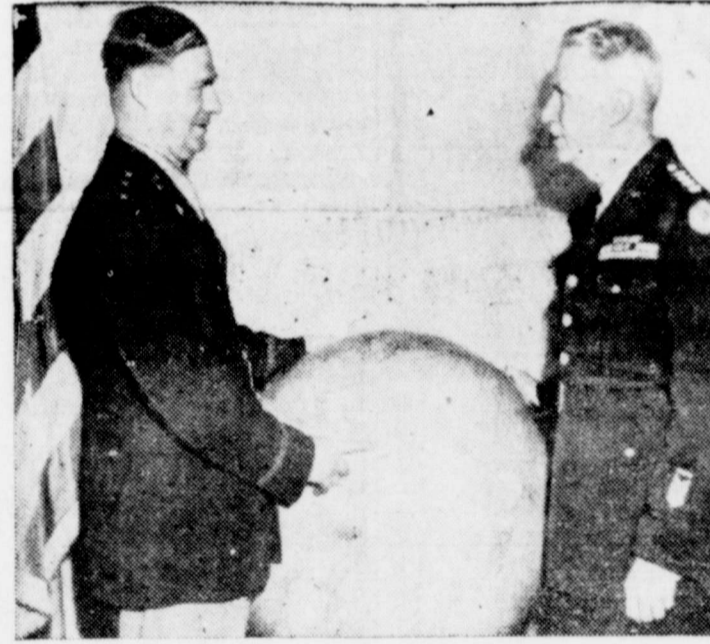

The film was written and produced under the technical direction of General Electric Consumers Institute, pioneers of the frozen foods industry and recognized as one of the country's foremost authorities on the subject. It has been brought to West Texas by the West Texas Utilities company as a public service in the interest of the national food preservation program.

Women of the Cisco area are in the middle of one of the nation's biggest jobs — to preserve every bit of 1945's food production. Freezing is regarded as one of the finest of all food preservation methods because it preserves food values in practically their natural state.

Meat is only one of the many foods that can be preserved in frozen lockers and home freezers. Many fruits and vegetables, including strawberries, peaches, pineapple, berries, peas, spinach, beans and corn are easier and quicker to prepare for freezing than for canning and the resultant product is more like the original in appearance, flavor and nutritive content.

CISCOAN HONORED.

Word from a 20th bomber command superfortress base in India says the distinguished flying cross has been awarded to Staff Sgt. Leon M. Love of Cisco. The communication said the Ciscoan was given the award for outstanding and meritorious achievement while participating in operational and combat flight from bomber bases in India and western China. Sergeant Love was among the first airmen to launch repeated and systematic superfortress attacks upon the Japanese homeland the official message added.

THE JOB AHEAD—Maj. Gen. C. P. Cross (left), chief of transportation, and Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, commander of Army Service Forces, study globe in making plans for extensive operation. They are the two men who are responsible for the transportation of U. S. troops from Europe to Pacific areas.

LEARNING to handle ship rope, tackle and block, these Merchant Seamen are trying for promotion in War Shipping Administration upgrading school. Over 20,000 seamen received upgrade training last year and close to 31,000 are taking advantage of opportunity now.

CHAPLAINS' COURSE.

San Antonio Aviation Cadet Center announces that Chaplain William W. Cook of Cisco, former pastor of the Methodist church at Stanton, is taking a two weeks' indoctrination course of study there in the army air forces ministry.

CHURCHILL RESIGNS.

LONDON, May 23.—Winston Churchill resigned as Prime Minister today, but the King was expected to commission him immediately to form a new government. Churchill's resignation submitted to King George VI automatically disbanded the coalition government he formed in May, 1940, and which he led through the depths of near-defeat to final victory in the European war. The King probably will announce tonight the dissolution of Britain's 10-year-old parliament and set a general election for July 5.

EASTERN END JAPAN'S STUBBORN OKINAWA DEFENSE LINE IS NOW RAPIDLY CRUMBLING

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The eastern anchor of Japan's stubborn Okinawa defense line crumbled today under a surprise American infantry attack as a U. S. communique from China lent support to reports Japanese troops were being withdrawn from North China coastal areas to Manchuria. Long-established Nipponese bulwark facing the Soviet union.

Simultaneously diplomatic circles in Moscow commented Japanese apparently showed unfounded optimism when they reported the mikado's government was on "completely friendly terms with the Soviet union."

China-based pilots of the U. S. 14th air force bombed troop trains and columns apparently headed toward Manchuria.

The break on the Okinawa line carried a pre-dawn attack, launched without artillery or tank support, through Yonabaru town to hills overlooking Yonabaru bay and the northern end of a curving ridge dominating Nakaguska bay, former Nipponese fleet anchorage.

Yanks in the southern Philippines captured a provincial capital against light opposition and knocked out a key defensive ridge in the Manila watershed with a novel fire-bomb and flame-throwing tank attack.

A small, pocketed Japanese force was annihilated in the Burma campaign, and successes reported on four China fronts.

Japanese broadcasts tended to ignore these developments and concentrate on worry about lack of unity on the threatened home front, the possibly growing peace sentiment and mentioned Soviet Russia as a model of "inspiration and ingenuity."

The Seventh division, returning to the eastern flank of the Okinawa fighting front after a two weeks rest, made the mile-long Okinawa advance yesterday.

Yonabaru, second largest city on Okinawa and the first sizable town on the island to fall, was overrun in the advance — the first major breakthrough in weeks.

Maj. Gen. Archibald V. Arnold of the 7th said the thinning Japanese line was stretched by 4,000 yards. This nearly doubled the front to be defended against the Tenth army which for the first time was hurling five divisions at the Japanese.

President Truman to Go to Frisco Early Next Month

WASHINGTON, May 23.—President Truman will go to San Francisco to address the final plenary session of the United Nations world organization conference.

Secretary of State Stettinius made this announcement today after conferring with the president on conference matters and what he described as a "wide range of subjects" dealing with world affairs.

Stettinius said no date had been set, but he expects the president will go to San Francisco early in June.

The secretary of state predicted the conference would "successfully conclude" early next month.

Influence of Democracies and Religion Slipping?

Nominations for officers for the new year beginning July 1, a talk by Rev. Arthur Johnson, pastor of First Baptist church and a vote to turn the scrap paper drive over to the American Legion organization, were the high lights of the Lions luncheon today. In the absence of President S. J. Turner, H. R. Garrett, first vice president, presided.

After the vote to turn the paper drive to the Legion, Lion Garrett announced that Lions would gather paper Thursday of this week in the residence district as well as the business section, asking that all paper be stacked at the curbs before 5 p. m.

O. L. Stamey, principal of the high school, announced dates and speakers for the graduating activities of college, high school and grammar school.

Lion Garrett introduced Rev. Mr. Johnson, who began his talk with two very appropriate stories, announcing that his talk was based on two of the most important ideas of men — Democracies and Religion — the influence of which appeared to be slipping in both cases, all over the world.

In his discussion the speaker said there was a difference in religious liberty and toleration. There must be no interference in religious liberties nor in democratic ways of nations, he emphasized. He then discussed what these institutions owe to each other. They have obligations mutually, and these must not fail.

All should vote, Mr. Johnson declared, because in our representative government political liberty could not otherwise survive. Politics should not be a profession, like the laws of medicine, but should be engaged in by men and women from a standpoint of needs and perpetuation.

Briefly reviewing the history of nations, he declared that the Jewish nation and Rome had their greatest glory and power for good when they were more or less democratic in their political structure. When they became imperialistic, they went into decadence.

The speaker ended with the declarations that democracy and religion were the basis of civilization. If they fail, then civilization as we know it will decay and darkness will come to the world, with all its attending persecutions and suffering.

Nominations for office were as follows: President, H. R. Garrett; vice-president, Dr. C. E. Paul; secretary, Charles Clark; assistant secretary, A. R. Westfall; treasurer, J. T. Eggen; lion tamer, Jay Garrett; taltwister, Charley Burke; assistant taltwister, Hugh Chief Brown; song leader, D. W. Diserens; pianist, Barbara Crist; directors, N. C. Huston and Austin Flint.

Holdover directors are E. T. Thomas and H. H. Tompkins.

DOENITZ GROUP ARRESTED.

PARIS, May 23.—All members of the acting German government as well as members of the German high command in Flensburg have been taken into custody as prisoners of war, supreme headquarters announced today. Those arrested included 300 officers, and a number of other ranks and civilians.

SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is shown as he broadcasts message to Allies in Reims, France. At right is Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur William Tedder, Deputy Allied Supreme Commander. Neither were present at actual signing of surrender.

MEN OR SUPERMEN?

It is often said nowadays that this is the era of "the common man," and it seems to be exemplified as much in the new president as anywhere.

President Truman makes no pretense of being a superman, a great statesman, a brilliant speaker, or anything else than a modest American with an inclination for public service, who tries to be a good citizen. He never wanted the great job that is now his, and has been represented, perhaps truly, as rather frightened by it. And, realization of the many complex problems facing this nation—dumped into his lap by destiny and his predecessor—might well frighten any modest man.

But Harry Truman is known as a good administrator and an honest man with a high sense of duty, and are not these the main things? It seems likely that when he has finished his course in the great task now his he will be known as one of America's "great" presidents. For these times tend to create greatness, and he is in the stream.

POSTWAR PROGRESS.

It was said in Napoleon's famous army, with which he conquered most of Europe, that every Frenchman "had a marshal's baton in his knapsack." And indeed it was surprising how many French leaders in those times seemed to spring up from nowhere and assume command.

It is much the same in America with regard to leadership, whether this faculty be military, social, or political. And lately, under stress of events, there seem to be more people rising to prominence in one field or another than ordinarily would happen in many years.

There is vast energy in this nation, combined with genius, now applied mainly to warfare in one way or another, but destined shortly to find new application of a hundred kinds. When the war is over, there should be a great flowering of progress. While many other nations will be exhausted, we shall be just getting our stride.

WAR AND LITERATURE.

Will important literary works come out of the war? If plays are considered, more notable ones have already appeared than the last war produced. Moss Hart's "Winged Victory," Lillian Hellman's "Watch on the Rhine" and now her "Searching Wind," Maxwell Anderson's "Eve of St. Mark" and Robert Sherwood's "There Shall Be No Night" are perhaps the most conspicuous of many excellent dramas inspired by the present struggle. Against these, World War I could set only some plays which appeared later, plays of disillusionment and sadness like "Journey's End," "What Price Glory," with its faithful reflection of the American soldier, his wisecracking, his goldbricking, his hardness and his loyalty, was in a class by itself.

Even in novels, the most common literary form, great works seem usually to produce little that is great. Tolstoy's "War and Peace" is almost the only noteworthy novel to be inspired by the Napoleonic wars. The Civil War's best novel, Stephen Crane's "Red Badge of Courage," did not appear until a generation later. The former world war was responsible for some venerated novels of protest, which are little remembered today.

It may be that wars as stupendous as this paralyze the imagination and leave most great masters of literature baffled.

LOOKING AHEAD
by GEORGE S. BENSON
President, Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Economic Security.

Back in 1865 senators and representatives in the Congress of the United States began drawing $5,000 a year; $100 a week. That was good pay 80 years ago but a first-class welder can do better now. Congressmen have had two raises in salary since then. The last one was 20 years ago when they started earning $10,000 a year which was, at the time, a comfortable living for them.

A great many executives in private enterprise earn more money than senators although they do not claim superior ability. Why do our legislators not earn more? Because their salaries are fixed by law and they themselves are the gentlemen who make the laws. They could vote themselves a raise in pay but there is always reluctance to introduce such a bill.

Throughout Government.

There are politics in it, of course. Revenue measures never are popular. Congressmen who vote for a dip out of Mr. Taxpayer's pocket come to regret it on election day sometimes, even when the expenditure was a wise one. That's exactly why employees in the Post Office Department haven't had a boost in pay since the congressmen did, a matter of 20 years ago.

Wage rates in private industry have advanced from 42c to $1 an hour in the last 20 years. They have more than doubled. Informed authorities say that living costs have gone up 30% or more during that time. Doubled pay for workers in private industry offsets the living costs that are about 1-3 higher, but what about government people from mail clerks to senators?

Ask for Consideration

One of the biggest newspapers in my state published an advertisement recently, calling the attention of the people of Arkansas to the employees who serve them. The display advertisement was bought and paid for by the postal workers themselves. In a diplomatic way they are asking their neighbors to help them ask Congress for better wages.

I want to see the postal people earning more money. I favor the passage of currently proposed legislation to boost the pay of senators and representatives 25% or better. I hope to see the day when a self-respecting poor man can afford to represent his state in costly and wealthy Washington. These are details however. It is wrong in principle that government employees wait 20 years for a raise.

Dangerous Bureaucracy.

The important thing is that every workman who quits a job in private industry to enter government employ gets his wage scale frozen. He may get a raise in pay but that's temporary. Whoever works at that job a generation from now will probably be earning the same amount and spending a lot more to live. Remember that the laborer of today is earning senatorial pay for 1865. These facts are understood well by men of industry and leaders in labor movements. It is encouraging to observe how the Labor-Management Charter, signed in Washington last March by labor union executives and prominent men of business, deals with the subject. In brief it states: Private enterprise is the necessary foundation for the welfare of labor as well as management.

LET'S MAKE THE MOST OF EVERY BAG

Feed is precious today. No right-minded feeder wants any part of avoidable waste in wartime feeding programs. That is why we suggest:

1. USE PASTURES. They reduce the amount of feed you need to buy.
2. PRACTICE GOOD MANAGEMENT. Live, thrifty well-bred stock pays best returns.
3. HANDLE WITH CARE. Be sure your stock gets all that's in the bag.
4. FEED WITH CARE. Extract the fullest worth of every bag in meat, milk or eggs.
5. GET RID OF RATS. They cost you money, waste feed, spread disease.

Your TEXO Feed Dealer urges you to look on every bag of feed as a potential producer of FIGHTING FOOD... needed for VICTORY!

THE CENTER

OF A "NEW FREEDOM GAS KITCHEN"

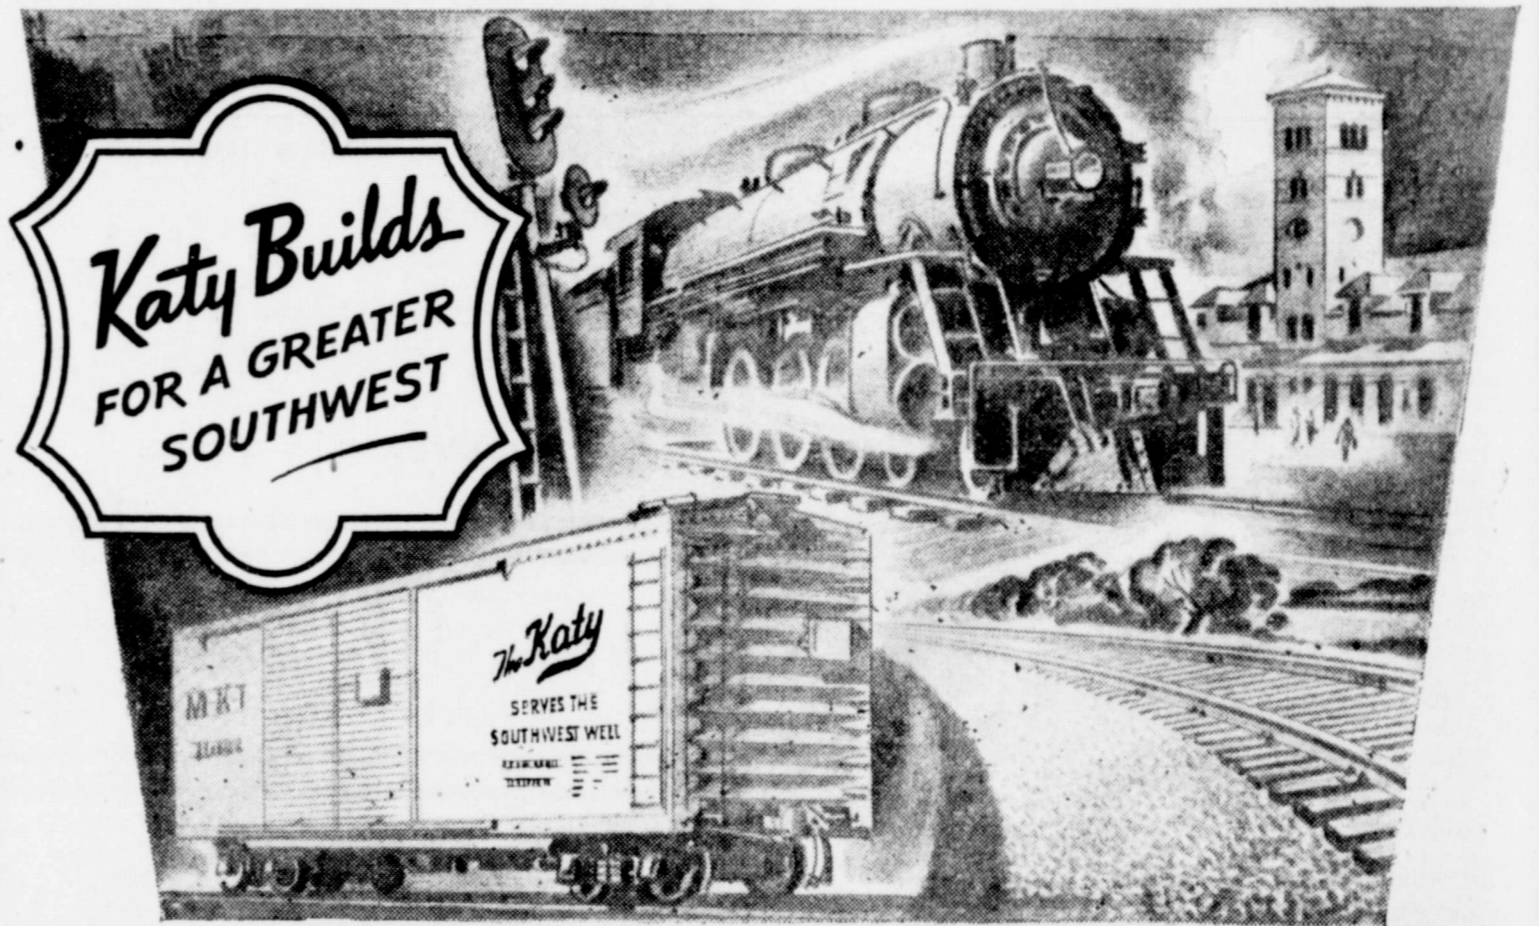

... A "CERTIFIED PERFORMANCE" GAS RANGE

Those coordinated "New Freedom Gas Kitchens" which you are hearing so much about are planned around a C-P Gas Range. This is the range built to the highest standards of quality and performance. It is the result of engineers and home economists of gas companies and equipment manufacturers pooling their knowledge, experience and ideas with cooking experts and homemakers. They will be available when factories are released from important war work.

CP is not a brand. It is a mark of quality to be found on ranges made by 20 leading makers. It signifies that the range is built to the highest standards.

The Building Bill - $100,000,000

A new and finer Katy now serves the Southwest!

Within the past four years nearly a hundred million dollars have been put back into Katy properties to afford the most efficient rail transportation the Southwest has ever enjoyed.

In spite of serious shortages of men and materials, every inch of main-line road bed has been reballasted... Nearly 350 miles of new steel have been laid... 4,500,000 creosoted cross ties installed... 900 locomotives given heavy repairs or rebuilt... Revenue freight cars in bad order reduced to 3/10 of 1 percent of ownership—a record "low" in the Company's history... All passenger equipment has been repaired and renovated... Stations, service buildings and bridges strengthened, repaired and painted, and many other improvement projects completed. And the Katy's record of good housekeeping is outstanding.

All this without a borrowed penny—and at the same time the mortgage debt was being reduced approximately $40,000,000.

The Katy is building to keep pace with the new and greater Southwest.

DOG EATING RED POINTS PUTS BITE ON WOMAN
Last week, Mrs. Ed Lane gave the dinner scraps to her dog, Rusty, and settled down with the paper. But not for long. There on the food page it said that housewives threw away thousands of red points because they did not save meat trimmings and plate scraps!
Now Mrs. Lane saves all fat scraps to be melted down and added to the salvage can. That way she gets more extra red points. Rusty is doing nicely on a leaner diet. He was too fat, anyway. And our country is getting more of the used fat it urgently needs for war- and home-front essentials.
