Stafford is Discharged From Army Air Forces

Master Sgt. J. L. Stafford, back in the United States after successfully completing his second round of air combat missions on the European front, has gone to western Texas on a recreation trip after spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don McEachern.

The Ciscoan is in good shape physically and shows little outward evidence of having 129 battle missions to his credit, although he is the possessor of about all the distinguished service crosses, oak leaf clusters, special citations and other recognitions of valor and skill that have been issued.

Rear gunner on several types of the larger planes, Stafford completed his first mission quota while the fighting over Europe was at its deadliest. But after a short visit home he returned and remained there until the second tour was completed. He recently received an honorable discharge from the army air corps.

Grandson of Cisco Couple Dies Camp Pendleton

Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Moad received word this morning of the death of their grandson Pfc. Fred E. Moad, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Moad of Clinton, Okla. His death occurred Tuesday night at Camp Pendleton, Calif., resulting from a brain tumor operation.

Burial will be in the Clinton cemetery, but time of funeral was not known this afternoon.

Pfc. Moad, 20, was born and reared in Clinton, Okla. He graduated from Clinton high school with honors. He had been in the service two years.

Tom Grissom Is Building Hereford Cattle Herd

The beginning of a herd of registered Hereford cattle of Tom Grissom, Eastland 4-H club boy, is well under way, says William Brigham, emergency war food assistant in the county agent's office. With two heifers and two cows, young Grissom is expecting an increase in his herd soon.

Tom Grissom, son of Judge and Mrs. Clyde Grissom of Eastland, has been a member of the 4-H club only a short time. He already has two uncles in the cattle business. Ernest Grissom of Fort Worth and Hardy Grissom of Abilene.

"Tom, as well as myself, are very much interested in seeing better beef cattle in Eastland county," Judge Grissom said, adding that no expense has been spared in starting a herd that would be a credit to 4-H club activities and to the beef cattle industry in the county.

One of the cows was recently purchased out of the dispersal sale of the Diamond Ranch Herefords at Albany. She is Martha Domino 6th, great-granddaughter of Diamond, Alexander's great herd bull for whom he named his ranch; she is also the daughter of Alexander's more modern bull Beau Gwen 50th.

This cow is under five years of age but has already produced two calves, both of which also were sold at the dispersal sale.

T. L. Wheat, Morton Valley rancher, also purchased two cows at the sale to add to his herd of registered Herefords, Brigham said.

Leones Rich In Tunisia; Overseas 26 Months

Technician Fifth Grade Leones Rich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Rich of Cisco, currently serving overseas in the African-Middle East Theater, is a member of the 57th Station Hospital which was awarded the Meritorious Service unit plaque for superior performance of duty during the period 1 January 1944 to 1 November 1944.

The presentation of the plaque was the highlight of the Army Day celebration in Tunis, Tunisia, at which the American, English and French armies, as well as members of the Guard of the Bey of Tunisia were well represented.

The Ciscoan is assigned as ward attendant at the 57th Station Hospital and is stationed in Tunis, Tunisia. He has served overseas for 26 months.

Texas Senators Pull a New One As Session Dies

AUSTIN, June 6.—The Forty-Ninth legislature ended its session Tuesday on the 148th day to make it the third longest Texas legislative meeting in history.

The only longer session was the 1939 session which met for 171 days in 1941 and the second longest when the legislature was in session 162 days in 1939.

The Forty-ninth officially ended its session at noon, but the clocks were stopped in order that late bills might be signed and the senate actually quit at 4:05 p. m., and the last gavel was wielded by Speaker Claud Gilmer in the house three minutes later.

The senate reiterated its determination to meet without the house on Jan. 8 when it voted to adjourn sine die for legislative purposes. Last week the senate voted to hold a one-day session to act on appointees of the governor.

Weaver Moore, author of the resolution calling for the unprecedented session of the senate, pointed out that the senate should be able to act on the governor's ad interim appointees before they had held office too long. Unless such a session is held the appointees would serve without confirmation of the senate until January of 1947, when the Fiftieth legislature convenes.

No similar session has ever been held in the nearly 100-year history of the state's law-making body.

Governor Stevenson, when notified of the senate action, made the comment that there was nothing in the Constitution which required that he submit names of appointees to the Jan. 8 session of the senate.

Elbert Lindley Top Turret Gunner With 7th AAF

A 7TH AAF HEAVY BOMBER BASE IN THE PALUS. — When a Jap anti-aircraft shell exploded beneath his 7th air force Liberator bomber, Staff Sgt. Elbert Lindley, 27, of Eastland, Texas, top turret gunner, missed serious injury or death by the skin of his arm.

Among the nineteen sizable steel fragments which pierced the fuselage was one which came up through the floor and tore into Lindley's turret. It passed between his body and right arm and knocked the gun controls out of his hand. A scratch on the arm and a few minor cuts from flying glass was the extent of his injuries.

The bomber was participating in a strong 7th AAF strike at Marcus Island in the north Central Pacific and, despite the flak damage, the pilot proceeded to the target where the bombs were successfully dropped. The 800 mile over-water flight back to the base was uneventful, even though a two-foot square section of the tail had been blasted away.

It was the 33rd combat mission for Lindley. Previous attacks had been against Jap air power, shipping and ground installations in the Palaus and the Philippines. "If I'm ever going to have a closer call, I hope it is when I am 95," said the Texan.

Sergeant Lindley's father, L. M. Lindley, lives in Cisco, Texas. His wife, the former Miss Ruby Lee Nelson, resides with her father, E. R. Nelson, at Eastland. He was graduated from Parks, Texas, high school in 1933 and entered the army in December, 1942. Five brothers are in the armed forces — Theodore, Nathan and Carl in the AAF, Benson in the signal corps and John in the infantry.

PROBABLY HITLER.

BERLIN, June 6. — A high Russian military source said today a body found in Berlin had been identified with fair certainty as that of Adolf Hitler. The body was badly burned and it was said the man almost certainly died of poisoning.

Blacks Want College Like UofT or Admission There

DALLAS, June 6. — An early effort to have a Negro enter the University of Texas as the opening step by race leaders to force equal higher educational facilities through legal procedure is predicted here. Negro leaders are said to be feeling that $25,000,000 will be required to build a Negro university equal in status to the University of Texas.

A move of this kind would be similar to that taken in Missouri a few years ago and then carried successfully to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Texas Negro leaders admitted the move was in prospect despite efforts of the legislature to establish Prairie View Normal and Industrial College as a full university.

A bill was signed by Gov. Coke Stevenson last week authorizing expansion of Prairie View, with appropriations due to follow as fast as needs arise.

Failure of the legislature to accompany the bill with appropriations means, Negro leaders said, there might be little more done on the matter in the future.

The same procedure followed in Missouri was said to have been agreed on here at a meeting of directors for the Texas Branch of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

W. J. Durham, Dallas attorney, said a student applied for admission to the University of Missouri. When the Negro was denied admission, a petition for a writ of mandamus was filed in United States District Court and taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. This was the case of Lloyd Gaines vs. the University of Missouri.

The highest court decision held that Missouri had the alternative of building a Negro university comparable to facilities for whites or admitting Negroes to established white institutions.

Durham said this resulted in establishment of Missouri institutions on a par with those for white students.

Directors of the Texas National Association for the Advancement of Colored People meeting here over the week end, issued a statement that they "after due deliberation decided to institute legal action for equalizing educational opportunities for Texas Negroes.

"The first case to be filed will follow the precedent of the Lloyd Gaines vs. the University of Missouri case.

"Plans are being made to file subsequent suits for equalization of educational opportunities for Negroes on all levels.

HOME AGAIN—Flanked on each side by flags of United Nations, American soldiers file down transport gangplank to check in on pier of New York Port of Embarkation. Two ships brought 376 wounded soldiers and 1,213 liberated American prisoners to Staten Island terminal. Wounded were transported to Halloran General Hospital and others went to Camp Kilmer. N. J.

REST FOR THE WEARY—Tired Marines of the 6th Division take brief rest in shelter of wall on outskirts of Naha before battling into heart of city. Leathernecks now occupy about two thirds of the capital city of Okinawa. Allied bombs and shells have reduced town to rubble.

TOKYO PAPER WARNS THAT 'THE MOMENT OF A BATTLE OF DECISION ON OUR OWN SOIL IS NEAR'

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6. — Japanese admitted today American invaders have reduced Okinawa to an "isolated island" and warned an invasion of Japan was "imminent."

The virtual admission that Okinawa is a "cooked goose," came as an unexplained American silence indicated a possible end of the campaign and the semi-official Domei news agency claimed "fierce fighting" raged between the U. S. Tenth army, and Japanese "firmly entrenched in new positions."

Admiral Nimitz, in his daily communique, failed even to mention ground action on the island, reporting only United States air strikes into Japanese home waters.

Such news blackouts in the past often have preceded announcement of developments of major importance, such as conclusions of campaigns or the launching of new invasions.

The American advance reduced Okinawa to a "strategically isolated island," and air attacks such as yesterday's 450-plane Superfort raid on Kobe were interpreted by the Tokyo newspaper Yomiuri Hochi as "unquestionably significant of a direct invasion attempt against the Japanese mainland" in the near future.

As Yomiuri warned that "the moment of a battle of decision on our own soil is rapidly approaching," the newspaper Mainichi published a poem calling on Japanese children to "follow in the wake of the children of Aka-Jima" who it reported charged American tanks on Okinawa with hand grenades.

Tokyo radio boasted of elaborate underground fortifications of a type never seen before which "will mark a new epoch in military history." It described them as bomb-proof and they probably are.

Eight American Superforts were lost in the successful fire raid on Kobe, at least one of them to a piloted "baka" rocket bomb. Parachuting American airmen were strafed by Japanese pilots.

Tokyo reported southern Japan was raided again today.

American planes sank seven Japanese ships and damaged five in their daily patrols along the shores of Japan and Korea. Troop-laden barges were caught by others in the Hong Kong-Canton area.

Showdown battles approached in the Philippines on northern Luzon and western Mindanao. The U. S. 27th division rolled six miles up the winding road leading to Luzon's Cagayan valley, taking over an unnamed Japanese defense line. They are 30 miles from the enemy base at Bayombong and 216 road miles from the northern tip of the island. A parallel move by the 37th encountered stiff resistance.

The 21st pushed five miles into Mindanao foothills, squeezing Nipponese remnants against the 31st division.

College Heads Oppose Draft In Time of Peace

WASHINGTON, June 6. — The spokesman for a large segment of American education cautioned Wednesday against "regimentation of the mind" he said would result from a peacetime draft law.

First of a group of opposition witnesses expected to be heard during the next three days, A. J. Brumbaugh, vice president of the American council on education, told the House postwar military policy committee:

"The opposition of representatives of higher education to immediate action on conscription is due primarily to the fear of what universal military training will do in regimenting the minds of our youths."

"It is impossible to give only military training — the body can not be regimented without comparable regimentation of the mind."

For Congress to act now on a peacetime draft program, Brumbaugh said, is to declare "in advance that we have no faith in collective security and international action" and to assert "that we believe that World War III is inevitable and that it will come soon."

Before taking such action, he suggested, "we must first make an earnest and sincere effort to establish an international structure which will maintain the peace."

College Credits May Be Secured During Summer

College classes are under way at the high school building, said Mrs. Ora Kirklín today. "Many young people are idle at home this summer and they might just as well be working toward some credits as not," she said.

"Work is being offered in most college subjects and one can finish a semester, thereby getting a few credits to the good on time which otherwise would be wasted.

"Classes have already begun and those who expect to enroll should waste no time, but do so at once," Mrs. Kirklín concluded.

LANGUAGE.

Mandarin, the dialect spoken by nearly two-thirds of the population of China, has been the official Chinese government language for centuries. Thousands of poets have used its perfect imagery, hundreds of treaties and similar documents must have been written in it. But probably because of the difficulties its complicated construction presents to Western minds, it was never used as an official diplomatic language until the San Francisco Conference.

As a result, headaches have ensued for the few available Chinese printers. For in Chinese, each word is represented by a separate character, unique in itself, instead of being a combination of letters from a short alphabet like our own. This is said to have meant that, in order to provide word-for-word translations of official documents, nearly a thousand new characters had to be designed for words which had no exact equivalent in Mandarin, and then these had to be cast in type metal before printing could begin.

Here were a thousand completely new words in a few weeks. And some Americans worry about the speed with which we change our own language to meet our needs.

PHILOSOPHER.

Behind cruel deeds often lies a cruel theory. The Nazi atrocities were regarded as justified by the racial theories of Alfred Rosenberg, recently seized by the Allies.

Rosenberg, like Hitler, was not German by birth. He was a Russian of German ancestry, born in Estonia, and did not become a German citizen till 1923. Then he fell in with the still unknown Hitler and enchanted the future Fuehrer by his plan for a pure Germanic race with the German as a superman above all ordinary human status. Replacement of Christianity by worship of the old Teutonic gods soon followed naturally.

This new religion was encouraged by the Nazis, but not made compulsory. So, too, the French Revolution, under Robespierre, dallied for a time with the worship of the Goddess of Reason in place of the traditional Christian faith.

Rosenberg was the philosopher of the Nazis and the chief editorial writer of the party organ, the Voelkische Beobachter. Had Germany conquered Russia, he might have become its gauleiter. Now, as the instigator of barbarous crimes, he is likely to pay a long overdue penalty.

Ultra-nationalists think that other countries are always out to do us, and we should be rigidly suspicious. There is far more wisdom in Emerson's saying: "As long as our civilization is essentially one of property, of fences, of exclusiveness, it will be mocked by delusions." Such a delusion is the notion that we can do without the rest of the world.

UNTIL JAPAN IS WHIPPED telephone factories must still work for war

V J

THERE'S still a vast war to win in the Pacific, and it will be a long time before we can serve the last person on the waiting list for telephones.

Telephone factories must continue hard at work for war

Huge quantities of new telephone and electronic equipment are needed in the Pacific. For instance—in the first five days on Iwo Jima, the marines built a telephone system big enough for a city of 65,000. The bigger the armies in the Pacific war, and the longer they must fight, the more they need telephone equipment, radar, automatic gun directors—all the things that telephone factories are making. That's why, even though the war in Europe is over, the amount of such equipment required in the Pacific theater is greater than anything sent there so far.

Cuts in war demands for telephone equipment will help, but...

...the war load on telephone factories will continue to be heavy. If all war demands ended tomorrow, it would be many months before everyone who wants a telephone could get it without delay.

Telephone factories must switch to making "civilian" equipment again—dial central office equipment, switchboards, cable, wire, telephones—all quite different in many ways from war equipment. And of course, the factories can make the switch only as fast as the war load permits.

It takes time to put new equipment to work

Putting equipment to work can take more time than making it. More than 1,000,000 connections go into dial central office equipment to serve only 10,000 telephones. And 225,000 people are waiting for telephone service right now in the Southwest.

Just to install that many telephones alone would take a long time, despite every effort to speed up the job. Before the first "all-war" year of 1942, our biggest increase in telephones was only 117,000. That was in 1941, when there was still plenty of equipment of all kinds.

These things are sure

Of course, the end of the German war brings us one step closer to the time when we can again serve everyone who wants a telephone without delay. But as long as the Pacific war lasts, the armed forces' needs come first. That's the way we know you want it.

We can promise you this. We'll continue to do our level best to provide telephones as fast as we can, to as many people as possible.
