PRESIDENTS OF 17 CHRYSLER UNIONS RECOMMEND IMMEDIATE VOTE ON 30 PCT. INCREASE

United Press. DETROIT, Sept. 19. — A new strike threat among 100,000 Chrysler Corporation employees was voiced today as the government's reinforced labor department sought to avert labor disturbances throughout the auto industry.

Presidents of 17 Chrysler unions recommended a strike ballot to enforce demands for a 30 percent wage increase. The union membership will be asked to approve the ballot Sunday. A similar strike vote already has been authorized by union members in 135 plants of General Motors employing 350,000 workers.

Shortly before the Chrysler strike vote was asked, Nash-Kelvinator announced that a wild-cat strike of CIO members had closed its Kenosha Nash division.

As the federal labor departments moved into the Detroit situation, the UAW vice-president, Richard Frankensteen, said he hoped the Kelsey-Hayes wheel strike, which has tied up the Ford plants, would be settled.

First of Salesmanship Classes at Moran, Star

The first of the series of Distributive Education classes in salesmanship started off this week at Moran and Rising Star with an enthusiasm that promises to make these courses — sponsored by Cisco Junior College in cooperation with the University of Texas — examples of an outstanding success.

The classes are taught by Miss Fieda Fulmer. The first was held at Moran Monday evening and the second at Rising Star Tuesday evening. Ten were present for the initial Moran class and 15 for the first class at Rising Star. Twice this attendance for succeeding classes was indicated. Employees of retail firms engaged in selling merchandise and operators of such firms are taking the courses. Subsequently classes in various other phases of business and industrial training are planned.

The course lasts two weeks, with two classes each week. As soon as the Rising Star and Moran classes are completed, similar classes will be conducted in Cisco. These are expected to start October 1. Classes will be held at Moran each Monday and Thursday evening and at Rising Star each Tuesday and Wednesday.

Information about the courses which the college is offering may be obtained from Arlin Bunt of the Cisco school faculty.

ONLY CIVILIAN to receive Silver Star is Henry L. Laussucq, 63-year-old commercial artist who successfully dodged Nazi Gestapo agents while smuggling radio equipment into France in June, 1944. He was agent for Office of Strategic Services, Maj. Gen. William J. Donovan, OSS Director, makes award.

526 Texas Hunt-Cisco Be Host to Wtcc Referendum to Kill Antelope Meeting, Oct. 2

AUSTIN, Sept. 19 (U.P.)—For the second time in more than 40 years a selected group of Texas hunters are going to hunt antelope. Population of the fleet animals in the Big Bend area has so increased during the 43-year closed season that the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission has permitted a few hundred hunters each to bag a single buck.

By killing a given number of the bucks each year, state game biologists claim this in a large measure will prevent the crop from deteriorating, and gradually cause it to increase. The 526 hunters whose names were drawn from 672 applicants this year will hunt on 28 ranches covering thousands of acres. In groups they will be assigned to hunt on the tracts at two-day intervals, Oct. 1-2, 4-5, and 8-9.

To the ranch owners, the hunters will pay fees of not more than $25. In addition, they must have the regular $2 hunting license and a special $5 antelope permit. To keep the landowners happy — aside from the fee which they may charge — the state has a "deal" which permits them to name 20 per cent of the total number of hunters who may shoot on their big tracts.

Cisco will be host to the first of eight district meetings of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce preceding the annual referendum convention of that regional body. The meeting will be held October 2, beginning at 2 o'clock. Proposed plans and policies for the WTCC operation during 1946 will be discussed.

Towns to be represented at the Cisco meeting will be Abilene, Albany, Arson, Baird, Breckenridge, Cross Plains, Eastland, Hamlin, Lueders, Moran, Ranger, Rising Star, Stamford, Strawn and Cisco. The referendum convention method of winding up the year's work of the WTCC and inaugurating a new year was instituted when war-time travel restrictions made the holding of annual conventions impossible, and the method has proved a success. By taking the program of the regional body to the membership through a series of localized meetings, such as that to be held here, more effective interest in the work of the body and a wider practical contact with the organization seem to have resulted.

The Cisco chamber of commerce has written all towns embraced by the district to be represented here, inviting them to send representatives to Cisco. P. R. Warwick is the Cisco director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and will be host director to the meeting.

Troy Cross, 15 Won First Prize at Peanut Show

Troy Lee Cross, 15, of the Carbon I-H club, won first prize of ten sacks of fertilizer for the best single bunch of peanuts exhibited on Peanut Day, held in the Baptist tabernacle at Carbon. It was an all-day meeting, with some 75 people present, and covered every phase of peanut growing, disease, seed treatment, fertilization, home uses, harvesting and future outlook. Other winners were Elbert Richardson, Carbon, second and seventh place; E. Allison, Carbon, third; W. H. Justice, route one, Eastland, fourth; J. T. Foley, Carbon, fifth; F. L. Moore, route two, Carbon, sixth. The ten sacks of 4-13-4 fertilizer were given by the Southwestern Peanut Growers association, the $10 for second place by Gorman Peanut company, while Carbon Trading company gave $5 for third place. Ribbons for the first seven places were given by Eastland national bank. A total of 84 bunches of peanuts were entered. Besides County Judge P. L. Crossley, who spoke the words of welcome, others on the program included John Simpson and Mr. Goss, Rising Star; E. A. Miller, E.A.M. college; B. C. Langley, ex-

Public Sentiment Favors US. Welfare Department

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 19.—The American people with opinions on the subject vote two to one in favor of creating a new cabinet post in the federal government — the department of public welfare, according to a survey made by Gallup Institute. The great extension of federal activity in the field of welfare and social insurance and the increasing emphasis in recent years upon federal participation in education, health, and recreation has suggested the need for a new department headed by a secretary of cabinet rank. Establishment of an inclusive federal department of education, health, recreation, welfare and social insurance — headed by a secretary of cabinet rank — was proposed in a report made public this week by the Committee on Reorganization of Community Service, which made its study for The Women's Foundation, Inc. The fact that three in every ten questioned on the issue said they have no opinion is some measure of the task which lies ahead for groups who want to stir public interest in their project.

U. S. Policy In Dealing With Japs Will Be Vigorous

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson today outlined the American policy for Japan and said that "whatever it takes" to carry it out will be used to do so. His statement followed one by President Truman that the "size or makeup of the army of occupation forces cannot be determined accurately until next Spring. Acheson said that the important thing was our policy toward Japan and that the occupation forces in that area were "the instruments of policy and not the determinants of policy." Acheson said that our policy is that the surrender of Japan will be carried out and that Japan will be put in a position where it cannot renew aggressive warfare. He said the present economic and social system of Japan, which makes for a will for war, will be changed.

Crippling Texas Gas Shortage Is Almost Certain

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 19. — A crippling gasoline shortage was in prospect for Texas today as 25,000 CIO oil workers in the Texas gulf coast area moved toward a shutdown of oil refineries, pipeline companies and synthetic rubber plants. Oil workers in the Houston, Port Arthur and Texas City areas had already voted or were voting on a strike which is being directed by the Oil Workers International Union — CIO — to get 52 hours pay for 40 hours of work. The gas shortage in Houston will be critical in 48 hours after a shutdown and will expand to other cities, union leaders said. LONDON, Sept. 19. — William (Lord Haw Haw) Joyce was convicted of high treason against Britain in Old Bailey today and sentenced to death on the gallows. He will appeal.

Culwell and Henson Set Bowling Marks Last Night

Some nice bowling scores were rolled up last night when Cisco Gas Corporation took two of three games from Collins Hardware and Humble Oil defeated Nance Motor to the same tune. O. W. Culwell of Putnam, member of the Collins Hardware aggregation, topped 226 pins in the first round, 172 in the second and 203 in the third, for a three-game total of 601 pins. I. J. Henson of Humble Oil acquired 178 pins in the first, 224 in the second, 189 in the third—586. The high scores of Pete Nance and R. L. Ponsler represent their averages, neither of the two being in last night's games. Nance is under the weather physically and Ponsler is absent from town. BRITISH-AMERICAN FINANCE

From some of the speeches at Washington lately, we might think that a British invasion was engaged in ripping the roof off the capitol and melting down the gilt to pour it into the British treasury. But it isn't really like that. It's just the case of a friend, hard-pressed, asking Uncle Sam for a loan.

Whether the loan is to be made is for congress and the president to decide. But whatever is done, it is well to keep the main facts in sight. Britain used to be the world's greatest money lender. She impoverished herself by fighting a great war for her existence. It happened that Uncle Sam also sank a lot of money in that operation. But he had more to sink and emerged with good credit and large resources. The question now is, whether to help our war-time friend and partner until he gets on his feet again, or let him go to disaster.

Sentiment is one thing, and sense is another. Take your choice. There is little sentiment in the money market, whether domestic or foreign. But maybe there is more than money involved here. There is sense and sentiment both. If Britain were sunk financially, it would be a severe blow to this troubled old world just emerging from war coma. And if Uncle Sam let Britain sink, he would lose not only his most important foreign friend and ally, but would soon be saddled with international troubles far worse than any he has now.

Furthermore, if we keep much cash on hand, some congressman will find a way to "shoot it at the birds."

THE PIGEON SCARER.

JUST when the pigeons are relaxed and laugh to pick the fallen berries from the ground.

He rushes from the house with lifted staff

And sets them off to whirling round on round.

They hide their time and circle down again

And fold themselves to satin buds once more.

They peck and croak but break to blooming when

He hurries out and scares them as before.

He does not want hackberries for his own.

He is too deaf to mind the clucking noise

And I, a neighbor pausing to condone

This constant wrecking of the pigeons' peace,

Recall, without much ruffling of my hair,

Another pigeon scarer here and there.

20 MILLION DOLLAR BANK ELECTS NEW BOARD CHAIRMAN

KARL HOBLITZELLE

LESLIE WAGGENER

FRED F. FLORENCE

Dallas, Sept. 18.—Karl Hoblitzelle, formerly vice-chairman of the board of the Republic National Bank of Dallas, on Tuesday, September 11, was named chairman of the board of that $20,000,000 capital and surplus institution, and Leslie Waggener, formerly chairman of the executive committee, was named vice-chairman of the board, announced Fred F. Florence, president, who said: "Our officers and directors are highly pleased that Mr. Hoblitzelle will be more active in the affairs and policies of our bank. The new responsibilities of Mr. Hoblitzelle and Mr. Waggener assure a continuation of the harmony that has characterized the operation of our bank throughout its existence." The election of Hoblitzelle to the chairmanship filled the vacancy left by the late Wirt Davis, who was chairman of the board from 1924.

Hoblitzelle has been associated with the Republic National Bank during most of the years of its remarkable growth from Dallas' smallest and youngest bank in 1920, with capital and surplus of $100,000, to an institution with capital and surplus of $20,000,000.

Hoblitzelle, nationally known theatre magnate and philanthropist, has served as director of the Republic National Bank since 1927. A native of St. Louis, Mo., he first came to Texas in 1905 in the interest of Interstate Amusement Company.

His favorable impression of the state and Dallas led to frequent subsequent trips and the establishment of residence here in 1920. In addition to Mr. Hoblitzelle being president of Interstate Circuit, Inc., and Texas Consolidated Theatres, Inc., he is president of the Dallas Citizens Council; a member of the board and executive committee of the Republic National Gas Company, Baker Hotel Company; vice president and chairman of the executive committee of the Southwestern Medical Foundation; member of the executive board of Southern Methodist University; director of Texas Technological College at Lubbock; member of the board of governors of the Dallas Foundation and president of the Civic Federation of Dallas, and chairman of the Texas Centennial Commission, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the statehood of Texas in 1945.

Hoblitzelle comes from a family of distinguished Americans. His great-grandfather, William T. Hoblitzelle, married Loretta Ogle, daughter of Maryland's Governor, Samuel Ogle. His father, Clarence Hoblitzelle, fought with the Confederate Army. Hoblitzelle's ancestry is typical American. On the father's side, Swiss, Austrian and English, and from the mother's branch of the family, Irish, English and French.

Leslie Waggener has been a director and officer of the Republic National Bank for twenty-two years and chairman of its executive committee since 1931. He is also a director and member of the executive committee of the Texas Employers' Insurance Association; a director and member of the executive committee of the Employers Casualty Company; a director of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company, the Liberty State Bank and the Oak Cliff Bank and Trust Company; a member of the advisory committee of the Dallas loan agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation; trustee of Dallas Historical Society; chairman of the ways and means committee of the Texas State Historical Association; a life member in Texas Folklore Society and treasurer of the Dallas Art Association.

He was born on the campus of Bethel College of Russellville, Ky., where his father, Dr. Leslie Waggener, at the time was president. Dr. Waggener, a Harvard graduate in the class of 1861, was the first president of the University of Texas. Waggener Hall, on the campus in Austin, Texas, was dedicated to Mr. Waggener's father in 1932. The new vice-chairman received his LL.B. degree at the University of Texas in 1898 and practiced law in Dallas for fifteen years before engaging in business. He also served on the board of regents of the University of Texas for ten years as chairman of the finance committee and one year as chairman of the board.

January, 1928 (Cisco Daily News Files)

It was one of the best meetings yet held by the Cisco Parent-Teachers association that convened in the high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 18, 1928. There were 30 or 40 present, and much interest was manifested by everyone in attendance. Judge Eugene Lankford, president of the association, presided, while the proceedings were recorded by

Mrs. J. B. Farmer, the secretary. The attendance, while not as large as it should have been, yet the members and officers were encouraged by the increased number who manifested their interest in child welfare by coming out. The fact that the parent-teacher movement is gaining in popularity, some cities reporting their associations having as large a membership as there are pupils in the schools, is an encouraging sign that people are waking up to the importance of giving more attention to the intellectual development of their children.

The session was opened with a violin solo by Mr. Wiley who was accompanied by Miss Walters on the piano. Both were from Randolph college.

The feature of the meeting was the address of Judge J. J. Butts who spoke in his own original style, telling those present some truths regarding the rearing of children, and the attendant difficulties, according to his own experience. "In rearing and training children we must follow the lines of common sense and common honesty," Judge Butts said. "Some of the troubles of the present generation of our young people are that their parents are too busy making money or attending their own club entertainments and other matters, which, they think, of more importance than their children. When our four children were in school they kept Mrs. Butts and myself busy all the time. While this work was very confining and irksome at that period, I think it was the most important and profitable work of our lives, and a work that gave us most pleasure. Children need practical education and training," Judge Butts continued, "and if we allow our children to pursue their own way during the week days, and compel them to attend church on Sunday, and expect them to become useful and honorable citizens, we are likely to be doomed to disappointment," he concluded. CIRCLE ONE MET IN JONES HOME TUESDAY.

Circle one of First Baptist women's missionary union met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. R. Jones, with Mrs. Paul Poe presiding. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. W. F. Gunn and reports were made of carrying out assignments.

Articles were assembled for filling two kits for needy Russians. Report was made of cash offerings by members who could not be present at the meeting. This was the final meeting of the fiscal year. Work was reviewed and all gifts were reported sent in and all bills have been paid.

The meeting then turned to Mrs. Kate Richardson, who requested all to take part in reading eleven verses of Psalm 40. The topic, "Waiting on God," was discussed and the meeting closed with a chain of prayer thanking God for the successful year's work together; that our nation is now at peace and also for the leaders of the nation and armed forces.

A social hour followed and refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and grape juice were passed to Mrs. C. A. Williams, Mrs. W. P. Gunn, Mrs. Paul Poe, Mrs. E. G. Pierce, Mrs. Ada Wheeler, Mrs. W. J. Poe, Mrs. Kate Richardson and Mrs. Jones.

Qualls, sponsor and Misses Christine Whitlock, Doris Jean Harrelson, Oma Lee Fenley, Erma Lou Coats, Mrs. Fern Brown and the hostess.

Enthusiastically APPROVED by Texas Motorists

Users are enthusiastic about better than pre-war Esso Extra! They tell their friends and their friends tell theirs! Company records of new users—repeat sales—sales increases—all the things which tell us that users like Humble products—indicate prompt and hearty approval of better than pre-war Esso Extra by Texas motorists.

Have you tried this fine gasoline? If you haven't, drive into the nearest Humble station and fill up today. Like your friends, you'll notice—instantly—the better than pre-war quality of Esso Extra. Always first among premium gasolines, today's Esso Extra is better than ever before. Now—in addition to easy starting, matchless pick-up, knockless performance—Esso Extra has a new high octane rating exceeded only in the fuel used by war planes in combat.

Don't wait longer for better than pre-war performance from your car. Take a tip from your friends—fill up today with better than pre-war Esso Extra, the finest gasoline you've ever used.

Now is the fitting time to say "Thanks" to the men and women who stand together under the Humble sign . . . now, when their skill and Humble's unrivaled manufacturing facilities have been turned to the needs of peace . . . now, when the Company can keep its wartime promise to Texas motorists to provide them with gasolines of pre-war — or better — quality at the first opportunity . . . now, when the opportunity is here, and Humble can offer you better than pre-war Esso Extra, the finest gasoline you have ever been able to buy for your car, and a new, high-octane Humble Motor Fuel, second to none at regular price.

COMING SOON!

There's new, high octane Humble Motor Fuel on the way. It marches just behind Esso Extra, and from it you can expect smooth, easy starting, quick pick-up performance at regular price. When Humble Motor Fuel is available, announcement will be made in this paper.

Have your motor tuned for better than pre-war performance

To take full advantage of the better than pre-war quality of Esso Extra, we suggest that you have your motor tuned. Some cars need only a simple adjustment with a screwdriver; others need the attention of a mechanic. But you know what your car needs. When you use better than pre-war Esso Extra, have your motor tuned for better than pre-war performance.
