FARMERS LET CONTRACT FOR REBUILDING ELEVATOR

The Farmers' Co-operative Elevator Company awarded the contract Tuesday to M. M. Egan & Son for the reconstruction of their elevator which was destroyed by fire last Thursday night. The building and equipment is to be the same as the one destroyed. The capacity is to be 50,000 bushels. The contract calls for the completion and putting into operation of the elevator within 60 days.

Work of clearing the ground is now underway, and material is now on the road for the elevator. The elevator will be new out and out, and will be modern in every particular.

This certainly is making record-breaking time. The elevator was burned last Thursday night and in less than a week the contract for its rebuilding had been let and work commenced. The Beacon is glad the farmers made the decision to rebuild this elevator. It is an institution we could not afford to lose.

SCHOOL AMENDMENT RALLIES AT SCHOOL HOUSES SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be held at the ten school houses in the north part of the county educational rallies in the interest of the School Amendment to be voted on next Tuesday. The School Board of Lockney Independent District has taken the initiative in these matters, and at a meeting held last Friday night at the directors' room of the First National Bank a program of speakers was made up and announced for the various school communities in the north half of the county.

A speaker will go to each one of these school buildings, and will deliver an address in behalf of the Amendment. Following is the list of schools and speakers to visit same, together with the parties from town which will accompany each speaker:

Meteor—Prof. Allen, speaker; Carl McAdams to accompany him.
Irick—D. P. Carter, speaker, S. A. Henry to accompany him.
Muncy—Rev. H. Bascom Watts, speaker; Wylie Mudgett to accompany him.

Pleasant Valley—A. B. Brown, speaker, Mr. and Mrs. John Broyles to accompany him.
Cramer—Harding Nail, speaker; A. J. Cramer to accompany him.

Roseland—Prof. John J. Wilson, speaker; Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Smith to accompany him.
Sunset—Judge J. N. Stallard, speaker; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Brown to accompany him.

Bobbitt—Elder Liff Sanders, speaker; Z. T. Riley to accompany him.
Providence—Judge E. P. Thompson, speaker; T. Z. Reed to accompany him.

Lone Star—Rev. Jno. P. Hardesty, speaker; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cowart to accompany him.
The speaking will take place at 2:30 p. m. the afternoon, and each school community is requested to arrange a short program, announce the speaker, etc.

The adoption of the School Amendment is a matter that country and town is equally interested in. The proposed law does not give the town any advantage over the country. The proposed amendment gives the various school districts the privilege of voting any tax for the maintenance of their schools they may see fit. The tax voted in the Lockney Independent District will not affect the tax in the country districts, or the tax voted in the country districts will not effect the tax in the town districts. Let every voter, man and woman, be present at the school buildings Sunday afternoon.

AID FOR FLOYD SCHOOLS CONDITIONALLY GRANTED

Judge John Howard has received the following communication from the Department of Education of Texas, announcing the conditional aid granted to Floyd county schools. The conditional means that there are certain conditions that schools of this county will have to comply with after the inspector visits the various schools. The letter to Judge Howard follows:

County Superintendent,
Floyd County, Texas.

Enclosed herewith find list of State Aid Schools conditionally granted aid. By "conditionally" is meant that the amounts set opposite these schools will be granted finally to such schools, provided, they have met the requirements of the Rural Aid Law when the School Supervisor visits them.

Our corps of supervisors will begin their work in the several counties the coming week. You will be duly notified some five or ten days in advance of their coming, so that you may prepare the necessary itinerary over the county.

You will confer a great favor upon the several trustees of the county by publishing this list in the local papers as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,
L. D. Borden,
Chief Supervisor of Rural Schools,
FLOYD COUNTY SCHOOLS.

IN MEMORIAM

Robert Burrell Barner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barner, was born February 4th, 1920; died October 22nd, 1920, age 8 months and 4 days.

The little fellow got a fall from a swing which injured his head, and then other complications set up and after some four weeks' severe suffering he passed away.

The funeral services were conducted from the residence of the parents by Rev. Jno. P. Hardesty, pastor of the Baptist church, on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, interment following in the local cemetery.

As a token of the love and esteem in which the family is held, a large number of friends and neighbors followed the remains to the cemetery where the grave of the baby was literally covered with floral offerings.

This good family has the sympathy of the entire community in their unspeakable loss. But they sorrow not as those who have no hope, for the little baby is safe from the storms and strife of this life, enfolded in the loving arms of Him who said: "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

"A bud of beauty nipt by death!
O, No! but upward born,
Where no rude wind or poisoned breath
Can blast a flower of paradise."

May the Heavenly Father grant His grace to the bereaved ones, and may they be able to say like the blessed Savior "Not my will, but thy will be done."

Jno. P. Hardesty.

NORTON BAKER SELLS HIS HARDWARE STOCK

Norton Baker sold his hardware stock last week to the Baker Mercantile Company, and will devote his entire time and capital to the Furniture business. The hardware will be kept at its present location with Norton Baker until later. Mr. Floyd Ewing enters the Baker Mercantile firm, and will have charge of the hardware. He took charge the first of this week. Mr. Ewing is an experienced hardware man, and has been connected with E. P. Thompson & Son for a number of years. He is well and favorably known throughout this section, and Baker Mercantile Company is fortunate in securing him as a member of their firm.

Mr. Ben F. Smith,
Lockney, Texas.

Dear Ben:
I simply want to write and congratulate you upon the type of paper you are getting out. I think the October issue of the Lockney Beacon was a most extraordinary paper for a town the size of Lockney.

Congratulations upon your progress. My! What a wonderful country the Plains country is.

Yours sincerely,
Porter H. Whaley, Manager.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The regular schedule of services for the day is usual.

The B. Y. P. U. meets at 5:30, with singing preaching hour at 6:20.

The public, especially strangers, welcome to worship with us.

Jno. P. Hardesty, Pastor.

COTTON ADVANCES THIS WEEK $25.00 PER BALE

Cotton this week has advanced to $25.00 per bale over the price of last week. Cotton has sold as high as 21 cents per pound on our streets. The trend of the county market is upward, and is very encouraging to the cotton growers of this section.

There is general optimism prevailing among our people and with the people throughout the cotton growing section of the south. Some of the best posted cotton men in the south predict that cotton will sell again this season around 30 cents per pound.

IN MEMORIAM

Little Eva Lynn Visage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Visage, living near Roseland, died early Thursday morning, October 28, and funeral services were held at the Baptist church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the pastor of the family, Rev. Jno. P. Hardesty, followed by interment in the local cemetery. A large crowd of sorrowing relatives, friends and neighbors attended the services. The floral offerings were beautiful and profuse.

The child was three years, nine months and eight days old. She was an unusually bright and promising child. Her death was caused from blood poisoning, the result of a nail piercing her leg. She had the best of attention from friends and neighbors, as well as of her devoted parents, but after intense suffering for several days death snatched her away.

But her loved ones have the assurance from the Holy Scripture that she is safe from the storms of this life forever, with the loving Savior who loved little children and who will tenderly keep her till the fond parents and other loved ones shall join her in the home where partings never come.

"Though earth may boast one gem the less, May not heaven be richer here?"

Jno. P. Hardesty.

NEXT TUESDAY IS GENERAL ELECTION DAY

Next Tuesday, November 2nd, will be general election day. This is the day of all political elections in the United States. On this day we will elect a President and vice-President of the United States. There is not a great deal of interest in the election from a state and county standpoint, as the primary nominating election in Texas settles all state and county contests. Texas is an overwhelming Democratic state, and for this reason the opposing party or parties do not cause any uneasiness among democrats who have been nominated. If Texas ever becomes a doubtful state then general elections will have the same meaning to Texas people as they do in other states where the democrats and republicans are more evenly divided.

If you should ask us who will be elected president next Tuesday we would say that it will be Governor Cox of Ohio. If you should ask us who to vote for for president of the United States, we would tell you to vote for Cox, the great exponent of Democracy.

In general elections, like primaries, the Texas people, and especially Floyd county people, will vote right, inasmuch as they will vote their honest convictions, whether it be democratic or republican. When a man votes his honest convictions he is always right as far as he is concerned.

In next Tuesday's election Texas people will have an opportunity to vote on some very important Constitutional amendments, among which is what is known as the School Amendment. This amendment seeks to take the limit off the tax rate in common and independent school districts in Texas. If the amendment is ratified Texas people can have the privilege of improving their schools as a local proposition. In fact this is the only way to build up the school efficiency in Texas. It should be done locally, and the expense of the school borne in a large measure by the individual community.

There is one point in favor of the School Amendment we wish to emphasize, and that is the fact that West Texas and Panhandle-Plains people pay already more general state taxes than they derive school benefits. When we pay a general State tax we help to educate the children of North, Central, South and East Texas more in proportion than we draw back in school apportionment. In adopting this amendment and fixing the Constitution so that we can levy our own tax which will go to the sections above named. If those sections wish to improve their educational systems they will have to vote their own local tax.

The Amendment is democracy. It is local self government. Texas must adopt a plan of this kind if she hopes to fill her destiny in matters of education. The general tax levied and collected is not sufficient within itself to maintain the standard of schools that Texas ought to have, hence it is important that we add to the old plan by adding the new one as suggested in the proposed amendment.

The Beacon takes the position that it is the duty of every man to educate his own children as far as it is in his power. It would be a sorry case who would refuse to help carry the load involved in these matters and expect his neighbor to educate his and also your children. It is the duty of each community to provide education of the highest type for its children. This can be done only through the adoption of the Amendment and placing the tax on the individual property owners in each community. We already have a law that allows independent school districts to vote a tax on the property owners in said districts for school purposes, but the limit has been fixed by the Constitution at 50 cents on the $100 valuation. This 50 cents has been found to be insufficient for a comprehensive and progressive school system.

It is either change the Constitution in this regard or raise the general tax for State school purposes, and when the general tax is raised this section will pay more than they receive by reason of higher values in this portion of Texas. Vote for the School Amendment.

PRAIRIE OIL COMPANY HAS BIG GASSER; OIL MEN ELATED

Channing, Texas, Oct. 23.—The Prairie Oil and Gas Company's well, Lyman No. 1, six miles east of Channing, encountered a strong flow of gas this morning and have shut down until the boiler can be moved back to a safe distance.

It has been estimated by a gauge that the well is producing about 40,000,000 cubic feet. When drilling ceased the well was at a depth of 3,200 feet. The last 280 feet was through a hard limestone formation which made progress very slow. This formation has not yet been penetrated and it is possible that below it, a much stronger flow of gas will be found or perhaps oil.

A valve will be set in today, a few being to present place so that a flow of gas may be held in the mine.

The Red Cross membership roll call will take place in November, and strong efforts are being made to renew membership of old members and add new ones. No effort are being made in this county, as far as we are informed, to put on this drive. There should be a general renewal of membership as well as new ones added. The Red Cross did a fine work during the war, and much and lasting good can be accomplished by this organization during peace.

A court decision in Houston, rendered by Judge Harvey of the eighth District Court, declares the law recently passed by a call session of the Texas Legislature, requiring women to pay poll tax, is unconstitutional. The decision of Judge Harvey will effect a large number of women in Texas, who will now be allowed to vote, regardless of the fact that they have not paid their poll tax.

The Randall County News announces that it has purchased a Model S linotype and that their old "15" goes to the McLean News. What bothers us is, why did not Warwick buy a 14 multiplicity machine while he was at it. While the S will be a decided improvement on the 15, he will find that the 14 would have given him much more service. It is hard to estimate the advantage of a multiplicity machine over a single magazine machine. The amount of work one can turn out on a multiplicity machine does not compare to a single magazine machine, no matter how modern it is. Brother Warwick, you sure made a mistake when you selected an 8 instead of a 14.

Convicts in the State penitentiary during the month of September, according to an Austin dispatch, has decreased 58 per cent. The conclusion to be drawn from this statement is that crime in Texas has decreased more than 50 per cent. The reason of this decrease lies undoubtedly in prohibition and sobriety in this state. When liquor was stricken down, crime decreased with it.

Last Friday's dispatches states that England faces a general strike. The railroaders threaten to join the miners in a sympathetic walk-out. The English government is prepared to operate the railroads under an emergency plan worked out last year when the railroad employes threatened to walk out. England, like this country, has its labor troubles, and the supreme tests seems to have come to that country, like it will eventually have to come to this.

Speaking of its new linotype equipment the Randall County News hands itself a deserved bouquet in the following: "Several newspapers in this section have installed linotype machines on a par with the new machine we are getting, but there is not a town in this entire section of the size of Canyon that has a Miller feeder which was installed in our plant two months ago." While the Beacon can't boast of a Miller feeder, yet we can boast of having bought and installed one of the best cutters driven by motor to be found in the Panhandle-Plains print shops. We have not yet decided whether the Miller feeder is a practical proposition for a field the size of ours. When we do its dollars to doughnuts we will buy it.

Sundays Houston Press dispatches announce that John Kearby, the well known lumber king politician of Houston, had left the Democratic party and had joined forces with the Republicans. Kirby has been a prominent figure in Texas Democratic affairs. He was the Bailey type of Democrat, was a stand-patter, etc. His leaving the Democratic party and aligning himself with the Republicans will not cause a ripple on the political waters of Texas. Who gives a tinker's damn whether John Kirby stays in the Democratic party or gets out of it?

Frank Morrison, Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, denounces the American Bankers' Association for calling on labor to produce more. Why insult labor by asking them to work until the clock strikes four or five, the end of a day's labor? The American Bankers should be ashamed of themselves for intimating that laborers this day and age should work at all. For shame that any man or association of men should suggest to labor that they keep their hands out of their employers' pockets while they are at work. Produce more, the idea is repulsive to the average working man. Their theory has been for the past several years to produce less, both labor and products.

Sunday's dispatches says that Lord Mayor McSwiney, of Cork, is nearing the door. McSwiney entered a hunger strike 72 days ago from last Saturday. This hunger strike stunt of the Lord Mayor has created a great deal of comment over the world. The Lord Mayor undertook to reverse the policy of the English government towards Ireland by voluntarily starving himself to death. The English government stood pat and has allowed McSwiney to starve and systematically starve himself to death. The English government could not have done otherwise unless it was ready to make a complete reversal in reference to Ireland. Just what good McSwiney hoped to do in passing out by the starvation route, is more than the average man can see. He could not have done a great deal more for the Irish cause by living than by dying. Later: McSwiney died on the 74th day of his hunger strike.

A Houston druggist has been fined $15,000 for violation of the prohibition laws. It was proven that he bought and sold 24,000 pints of liquor at from $3.75 to $4.00 per pint. This was some nice rick off for this druggist to make as a result of violation of the Federal laws. The government came down on him good and hard which served him right. In this connection the Beacon wants to say that the American people wrote prohibition in their Constitution, and they mean to enforce it. The man who loves the almighty dollar so well that he would debate himself in selling liquor need not expect any sympathy from the people when he is overtaken in his crime. A man that violates this law, either as a druggist, boot-legger or in other capacity should be severely punished. It is just as much crime to sell substitutes for liquor when it is to be used for intoxicating purposes as it is to sell alcohol straight or pure red liquor. The law holds a man guilty when he sells stuff to make a man drunk if he has reason to believe at the time that this stuff is to be used as an intoxicant.

Governor Cox, democratic candidate for president, hands Ellhu Root a hot one, and accuses and proves that he, Root, has willfully misrepresented him in his position on the League of Nations. Root declared in his New York speech that Cox stood for the League of Nations according to President Wilson's interpretation. Cox says that he stands for the Hitchcock reservations in reference to Article Ten. The Republicans are hard pressed for argument and have descended to the level of misrepresentation. The Republicans are slipping fast on the grounds that they have undertaken to stand on in reference to the League. The Republicans are divided on the League, with Harding standing for a complete overthrow of the matter. The American people, regardless of party, stands for a League of Nations in some form. Therefore Cox's chance to be elected president is good. While that of Harding is very doubtful.

The meeting at Dallas last week of the bankers of Texas and others interested in the growing and marketing of cotton, resulted in the organization of a big cotton corporation for the marketing of cotton. The organization is to be capitalized at $10,000,000 and is to represent the entire south. As a result of the meeting cotton advanced $5.00 per bale last Saturday. The business men and bankers of the country are coming to the relief of the cotton farmers and plans are maturing to avert the pending crisis that is threatening them by reason of the slump in cotton prices. The thing for farmers to do is to become optimistic in these matters. There is no good to result from becoming panicky. Indications point to the fact that cotton will take an upward climb and will yet sell around 30 cents per pound this season.

Great business depression and a National disaster is predicted by Governor Cox in the event the Democrats lose the national election, and the League of Nations is overthrown. Governor Cox says that for the partisan part the Republicans have played in the game of world politics America would now be riding on full tide of prosperity, which she is entitled and which ought to be hers for years to come. As matters now stand there can not be any reconstruction undertaken. Commenting on these matters Governor Cox says: "America has been thrown into the world's economic whirlpool, and has been held there while conspirators worked their will for partisan advantage. We have had enough of the condition. I pledge myself to put the interest of America and of humanity above those of party in the solution of this vital problem. It is my conviction that America's successful future depends upon entrance into the league of nations at the earliest possible date."

The Beacon congratulates the Methodist Northwest Texas Conference in withdrawing their financial support from the Southwestern University at Georgetown and the Woman's Christian College. All the financial aid of the Conference will be given the Clarendon College after this year. The Methodists have said by their action that they will educate the boys and girls of the Panhandle-Plains countries and other parts of the State take care of their schools. Central Texas would not help this section in educational matters, denominational or State if they were asked, then why should Panhandle-Plains money be sent to the aid of their schools? The Methodists have shown by their action that they are for the Panhandle-Plains boys and girls exclusive of all other sections. Instead of financing these Central and North Texas schools and in addition to the support and maintenance of the Clarendon College the Northwest Texas Conference will build a Junior College at Abilene.

The Amarillo News believes that teaching agriculture or manual training in the Normal would be a mere make shift in preparing a young man for his life work of developing this great Panhandle-Plains country. That being the case, then every law school in the United States is a make shift, as all of the literary subjects of the law departments are taught outside of of the law schools.—Randall County News.

The Amarillo News is evident not very friendly to the Canyon Normal in matters of Agricultural Training in the school. There is very little argument to be brought forward against teaching of Agriculture in the Normal at Canyon. Teaching of Agriculture at Canyon would benefit the entire Panhandle and Plains country. It would teach a class of agriculture that would be adopted to this section. While the Beacon is not in the way of a West Texas A. & M. College, yet it sees no reason why agriculture could not be taught successfully at Canyon, and to the advantage of this entire section. A West Texas A. & M. College would benefit the Panhandle-Plains country in name only, as our resources, our soil, climate, etc. are so different that this section could not be adequately represented by a school of Agriculture taught under the caprock. Let's build the West Texas A. & M. College and at the same time equip the North West State Normal College at Canyon to teach agriculture that would be adapted to this section.

There has been much unfavorable comment going the rounds as to future cotton prices, and necessarily much depression among cotton growers and others dependent on the raising of cotton. Some of our best authorities on the situation say that there is no need of alarm over the matter, and that if farmers will sit steady in the boat cotton will go back to figures that will prove profitable to the farmers. Secretary Hester of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, perhaps the best posted man in the United States in cotton matters, says that there is much needless alarm, and if farmers will hold their cotton off the markets for a short while the price will go back. John Wannamaker, the greatest American merchant, predicts 35 cent cotton. He says that it will take 15 million bales of cotton to clothe the peoples of the world. The Beacon sees a silver lining to the cloud, and believes that markets will soon rally, and farmers will yet derive a profit from this year's crop. Sit steady in the boat, and wherever it is possible market your cotton slowly.

The democracy of the News was called into question on account of the editorial last week expressing the belief that Harding would be elected. The News has always maintained that Woodrow Wilson was the greatest man in America today and has handled the affairs of this government throughout the eight years of the greatest trial this world has ever known, better than any other American could have done. But he is human and has his limitations as any other human. He made honest mistakes. The party he represents rightfully take the blame for these mistakes. Had the republicans been in power during the war, their candidate would have been defeated in the coming election. The leader in every one of the great nations in the war has either been scrapped by the political powers that be, or is riding a volcano that threatens to explode any minute. When the prejudices of politics are forgotten and time is allowed to expose and magnify the qualifications of the leaders during the war period, the name of Woodrow Wilson will stand supreme.—Randall County News.

No one that knows Editor Warwick would doubt his democracy, but we are inclined to doubt his judgement in predicting the election of a republican president next month. We think every indication points to Cox's election and a national Democratic victory. The American people are demanding that we return to a peace basis, and they realize that the only way to have a permanent peace is through the League of Nations. They want a League of Nations in some form, and we believe that they will vote for Cox and Democracy rather than support Harding and the Republicans who propose to return us to a before the war status in reference to wars and rumors of wars. To our mind Harding is a weakling, and will be more than the Republicans can be able to put across. We have never had the least doubt of democratic success this fall. We will see which one of us has the situation sized up rightly.

Just Ask the OilPull User

THE most satisfactory evidence of a tractor's performance is the work it does for its owner over a period of time.

So before you buy your tractor just talk with tractor owners in this locality and get their real opinions.

Ask them about the cost of operation—learn whether they can use kerosene under all conditions and at all loads—find out the cost to plow an acre of ground.

Ask them about their experiences with their cooling systems—of any troubles from overheating—freezing—time taken for filling or draining, of any inconvenience and delays caused by rusting, clogging, etc.

Ask them about the power and dependability of their tractors—if the power is sufficient—if there is reserve power for the "pinches"—if they can depend upon their tractor for day-in and day-out, year-after-year service without delays and interruption.

Ask them how long they have used their tractors, cost of upkeep, and how many more years service they can naturally expect.

Ask them about the lubricating and ignition systems—their effectiveness and dependability.

Ask them anything you wish to know about a tractor. Then sum up what OilPull owners tell you and make your own comparisons—draw your own conclusions.

We shall be glad to furnish you with the names of OilPull owners.

There are four sizes of OilPull tractors—12-20, 16-30, 20-40 and 30-60 H. P.

A New York pastor has set a new record for church fads by unveiling in the church yard a naked woman statue. The pastor who pulled this nude stunt was the Rev. William Norman Guthrie. The Rev. Guthrie says that he wanted a real naked woman in his church yard, a statue without any clothing or muffled body. He says that he wants to teach the sanctity of the body as God made it. This human degenerate should receive a swift kick from respectable society. The idea of his trying to pan off this kind of stuff on society is ridiculous, and is not calculated to improve the present morals of our people. The Rev. Mr. Guthrie has forgotten the Bible story of how God created Adam and Eve and placed them in the garden of Eden in nude form, but after they had sinned by eating of the fruit of the tree of knowledge they hid themselves from the face of God, and made fig leaves to cover their nakedness. Ever since then the fig leaf custom has been observed in some form or other. This Reverend gentleman would go back to the time before man and woman became aware of their naked state, and introduce the custom for twenty century people to follow. God Almighty does not intend that these things be as the New York preacher suggests. He is either a crack-brain degenerate or self lust has guided him into this mistaken attitude towards men and women. The world and society pays little enough regard to how much of the fig leaf is worn without the preachers advocating that they disregard them altogether.

Editor Loomis of the Canadian Record sends us a circular letter, announcing the fact that his name was left off the Republican ticket for Congress from this district. Mr. Loomis says that he has made an active campaign and lost much valuable time from his work, and now fears that many who intended to vote for him will be unable to do so by reason of his name not being printed on the ballot, unless they think about writing his name thereon. Of course Editor Loomis does not include us in the list of his friends whom he hoped would vote for him, but we being a democrat and wishing a square deal for all men, whether he be a democrat or republican, regret that Editor Loomis will not have his name printed on the Republic ticket this coming November election. Of course Loomis never thought for a moment that he had a chance to be elected, but we regret that he labored in vain for the Republican vote of this district. He will not have an opportunity to know just how bad Marvin Jones will beat him at the polls, or just how strong the democrats are in this congressional District.

SILVERTON NEWS ITEMS (From the Silverton Star)

Dennis Bryant is down from Colorado and he and his brother, G. J., who lives near Lockney, were in town with Dan Montague Tuesday.

E. H. Perry and June Simpson have gone to the Quitaque country after the county engine and grader preparatory to commencing work on grading the roads on top of the Plains.

Arrangements have been made whereby the Silverton gin will commence operation within a few days. P. L. Hancock has taken charge of it and will operate it, we understand. This is a good move and will be of much benefit to our farmers who are having their cotton hauled so far to get it ginned.

T. J. Cress, a prosperous farmer of the Rock Creek community, has embarked in the registered Poland China business and has recently purchased at the pure-bred Poland China sales several hundred dollars worth of high grade hogs from some of the best strains in the country. He paid $250 for a young boar, some of the full brothers and sisters of which have sold for almost a thousand dollars, and quite likely much will be heard from this individual at the stock shows and fairs in the next few months. It is certain that many of our farmers are going to turn their attention more to the growing of pure-bred livestock and quit raising scrubs.

The home of Taylor Fortenberry, near Runningwater, was burned Monday night of last week. Practically all the household goods were also destroyed.

PLAINVIEW NEWSY ITEMS OF THE WEEK

John Crawford had a shipment of about six hundred cattle on the Kansas City market this week. The price received was very unsatisfactory. The material is being placed on the ground for the modern concrete grain elevator to be erected at Finny Switch, six miles north of Plainview, by the Corsicana Mill & Grain Co., and work will begin within several days. Mr. Wilson of the Burrill Construction Co. of Kansas City has arrived to superintend the work. Plainview News.

WHITFILL & SONS NEW GIN

At Lockney is now in operation, and can take care of all the cotton brought them. We have a four-stand gin, modern in every detail. Our capacity is 35 bales per day, and 35 bales at night. Are prepared to run day and night.

We have recently rebuilt our gin at a cost of $20,000, and have spared no pains in making it the most modern 4-stand gin on the plains.

Our equipment includes modern Cleaners, 4 stands, Double press, etc. We are prepared to give you as good turn-out and sample as can be found anywhere.

We urge the farmers to pick their cotton and take as good care of same as possible. The price of cotton this year is governed largely by sample. In order for you to get the best price, care should be taken in picking and the way you protect your cotton. Bring us your cotton and it will be ginned speedily. We want to do your ginning on a basis of the best of service possible.

FARMERS IN HALL REACH AGREEMENT ON MARKETING

Memphis, Texas, Oct. 19.—In an effort to start a move among the farmers toward raising the price of cotton and seed a resolution has been adopted by 600 farmers of Hall County at a meeting in Memphis, in which each signer agreed to hold his cotton and seed off the market for a period of 30 days, or longer, if necessary, until the cost of production of cotton is reached in its sale place. An appeal was also made to the bankers, merchants, cotton buyers, and land lords to aid the farmers in this movement. A clause of the resolution also stipulated that each farmer will reduce his acreage of cotton in 1921 thirty per cent, provided that an estimated fifty per cent of the farmers of the cotton growing section of the country will agree to the pledge.

According to the plan each farmer who signs the pledge will be provided with a suitable badge to be worn showing that he has agreed to the resolution, and posters are to be placed on each farm whose owner enters the agreement.

The resolution, as adopted by the meeting, was presented by the following committee: J. A. Middleton, Lakeview, chairman; S. A. Bryant, Memphis, secretary; W. H. Rowland, Estelina; G. H. Cross, Brice; J. T. Donson, Leslie; M. M. Owens, Lodge; W. A. Armstrong, Deep Lake; J. T. Nelson, Elite; E. R. Northington, Newlin. Below is the text of the resolution:

"To the Honorable J. T. Bishop, chairman of the mass meeting of cotton growers of Hall county, Texas: We, your committee on resolutions, beg leave to submit the following:

"First: We agree to hold our cotton and seed off the market for a period of thirty days and longer if necessary or until the cost of production is reached, pledge ourselves to use every legal and lawful means in our power to raise the price of cotton and seed to the cost of production.

"Second: We further resolve and pledge ourselves to use every legal and lawful means in our power to raise the price of cotton and seed to the cost of production.

"Third: We hereby appeal to all persons interested in cotton production and in the welfare of the country to cooperate and aid in every way to this end.

"Fourth: We especially ask the aid and cooperation of the bankers and merchants, wholesale and retail, and cotton buyers throughout the country in our efforts to bring about better conditions by refusing to buy cotton or seed, or to advance money to buyers for that purpose for a period of thirty days or longer, if necessary.

"Fifth: We especially appeal to the landlords to aid their tenants when necessary to comply with these pledges.

"Sixth: We pledge ourselves to reduce our acreage for 1921 thirty per cent. Said pledge to become binding when made by an estimated fifty per cent of the cotton growers of our nation.

"Seventh: To do what we call to bring about meetings, state and interstate, at the earliest possible date at which time such action may be taken as is necessary to formulate such pledges of voluntary reduction of acreage; to designate the number of signatures required to make the pledge binding; to devise methods of circulating said petitions and of declaring the resolution thereof; to provide for expenses incidental thereto; and to do all other things necessary to seek said reduction and to start on such a campaign all over the South as characterized by the patriotic rallies for the Red Cross and Liberty bond drives of two years ago.

"Eighth: We believe that every person signing the pledge should be provided with a suitable button or other emblem designating him as such signer, and that he be requested to post at a conspicuous place on his farm a designed sign or poster showing that the owner thereof or the tenant thereon has joined the Volunteer Home Guard of our Southland. That the true blues as well as their homes may be known to everybody."

26 ACRES MAIZE WILL FEED
TEAMS FOR FIVE YEARS

The enormous maize crop in Floyd County this year is sufficient to feed all the work teams in the county for five years, if taken care of.

And some farmers are raising more maize than that.

As an instance, A. L. Scoggin, east of Floydada, has just finished cutting 26 acres of maize that made 750 bundles per acre. This is enough maize to feed a four-horse team (enough horses to cultivate 100 acres) a bundle each three times a day for four years and 225 days, according to figures made by J. C. Dickey, who says that with a little grass on the side that the feed would last Mr. Scoggin a full five years.

Many other farmers are reporting heavy yield, the heaviest in years. W. W. Payne, who lives east of Floydada, in the Mayview neighborhood, says his crop is running around two tons per acre throughout, both the early and late planted fields showing heavy production.

It is altogether possible and probable that the farmer who does not rush to market with his feed crop may yet realize a fairly good cash return from his surplus maize, aside from the value of the crop for making crops the next two or three years.—Respectfully.

Tire Treads Improved 25%

The latest Miller triumph is a super-grade tread. It excels the best rival treads today by an average of 25 per cent. This has been proved, under careful watch, by many road comparisons.

The Miller Tire mileage is the talk of the day. But these new-grade treads outwear the balance of the tire.

Not one Miller Tire, built with this new tread, has ever come back with the tread gone.

These treads do not vary. Every day the Miller tread stock is vulcanized and tested in the laboratory. It must prove up to these new standards before a tread is made.

Miller Cord Tires, in the factory tests, now average 15,000 miles. Miller Fabrics from 8,000 to 9,000 miles. And these factory tests are extreme.

Watch your mileage on one Miller Tire. Compare it with any other and it will win you. You owe that to yourself in view of Miller records.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ARE FEELING PRICE DECLINE

Local merchants tell us that the decline in price of merchandise and farm products has hit them very hard, and that they are having rather hard steering just now.

The decline in prices has caught them with considerable stocks of goods on hand, bought at higher prices, and they must now sell them out cheaper, in fact profits are being wiped out and losses sustained in many instances. They had to buy these goods early in the year at high prices in order to maintain their stores and continue to supply the needs and wishes of their customers. The decline in the price of farm products has caused dull business, and caused people to be slow in buying fall and winter goods.

A local merchant declares that Plainview merchants have not profited during the past several years, but considering the cost of goods and of doing business they have not made excess profits, as their balance sheets will show. They have merely been doing a legitimate business, and have met the problems of their business as best they could, giving full value for what they have received.—Plainview News.

STICK UP MEN INVADE CANYON

Jack Covington was the subject of a hold up Tuesday evening at 6:30 when he started from his home in the north part of town to the business section.

He states that he was near the Kesser feed lots when two young men or boys joined him. One asked for a match. As Jack searched in his pocket a flash light was flashed into his face and pistol pulled on him. The men searched him thoroughly, but he had only $2 upon his person.

Jack ran to the R. W. Foster home as the men left him and reported the case. The officers were called but so far no trace of the men has been found.

Mr. Covington and P. V. Winstead were on the front porch and were within calling distance of the scene of the hold up. They state that a few minutes after Jack left the premises two men ran up the street, and upon seeing them cut down to a walk. As soon as they had passed the house they broke into a run once more. Campers near the old mattress factory report that two men ran near their wagon and went west. The officers drove a few miles in all directions and carefully searched the railroad yards, but failed to find any trace of the men.

This is the first case of a hold up ever being staged in Canyon or any place in Randall County.—Randall County News.

CONVICTS IN STATE PEN DECREASE 58, ESCAPES TOTAL 33
Austin, Oct. 21.—Convicts in the State penal institutions decreased in number fifty-eight during September. The total number on October 1 was 2,606, as compared with 2,664 on September 1.

During September thirty-six convicts were pardoned and sixty-eight new convicts were received. Of these Harris County contributed twelve, which is the highest number of any one county. Grayson was second with seven, while Dallas and Tarrant each contributed six. None were from Bexar County.

Twenty-one convicts were recaptured, fifty-nine discharged, thirty-three escaped, six returned from parole and five died.

THE UNDERTAKER

The midnight hour, the darkest hour
That human grief may know,
Sends forth its hurried summons
Asks me to come—I go!

I know not when the bell may toll,
I know not when the blow may fall,
I only know that I must go
In answer to the call.

Perhaps a friend—perhaps unknown—
'Tis fate that turns the wheel,
The tangled skein of human life
Winds slowly on the reel.

And I! I'm the undertaker,
"Codd-blooded," you'll hear them say,
"Trained to the shock and chill of death,
With a bert that's cold and grey."

Trained—that's what they call it
How little they know the rest—
I'm human and know the sorrow
That throbs in the aching breast.

CANDIDATE FOR

District Clerk of Floyd County

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

In view of the fact that by virtue of Floyd County's population having passed the 8,000 mark in the recent census, our state laws automatically separate the offices of County and District Clerks and as Miss Lola Walling was nominated for County Clerk in the recent primary she retains that office and a separate office of District Clerk has been created, and I have announced for this new office.

I am thirty-one years of age, have a family and have lived in Floyd County for nearly eleven years. During which time I have been deputy County and District Clerk for two years, giving me a thorough knowledge of the duties of the office.

I have also been a farmer and stock raiser for a number of years, but for the past year I have been engaged in the Real Estate and Insurance business.

I have a thorough knowledge of bookkeeping as well as a general business training and am thoroughly competent to properly attend to the duties of the office of District Clerk.

If elected I promise a clean business administration of affairs of the office and solicit your support and that of your friends on that basis.

No names will be printed on the ballots in November for the office of District Clerk, and I will appreciate your careful attention to the spelling of my name and use of my initials, that you may properly write my name on the ballot and have your vote counted for me if you so intend it.

Respectfully,
G. C. TUBBS.

Jiu-Jitsu Used By Chinese in Terrific Battle in Opium Den

Lone White Man Fights Entire Band of Orientals—Several Players Sent to Hospital as Result of too Much Realism.

Jiu-jitsu was used to excellent advantage in the filming of "gang fight" scenes in "The River's end," a Marshall Neilan production, written by James Oliver Curwood, which will be shown at the Olympic Theatre, on Sat., October 30.

The battle, which takes place in an opium den at a Canadian trading post, between John Keith (a murderer) and a gang of Chinese, is one of the most spectacular ever screened, in the actual blood that flowed, the hits, kicks, falls and blows that were delivered. One of the Chinese is hurled clear across the room, his head striking the log wall. Several members of the cast were confined to the studio hospital, as a result of "too much realism."

Lewis Stone is seen in the dual role of John Keith (wanted for murder) and Derwent Conniston (of the mounted police). Majorie Daw, Jane Novak, Charles West and J. Barney Shaw support the star.

SEED PRICES OF VARIOUS STATES

Austin, Oct. 26.—In connection with a statement advising farmers not to sell cotton seed at prevailing Texas prices, D. A. Gregg of the Texas Department of Markets and Warehouses, has the prices on seed in various States as quoted to him October 16 by Commissioners of Agriculture of those States. The prices follow: Alabama, $14 per ton; Georgia, $30 to $32; Arkansas, $28; Louisiana, $27 to $28; S. Carolina, $25; North Carolina, per bushel, 75 cents; Oklahoma, per ton, $24 to $25.

FINED FOR DEALING IN LIQUOR

Houston, Texas, Oct. 28.—Judge J. C. Hutcheson, in Federal Court today, fined James A. Radford, Main street druggist, $15,000 for violation of the liquor laws. Radford pleaded guilty to sixty-one counts of an indictment returned against him. The original indictment contained 127 counts, but the District Attorney's office dismissed sixty-six of them.

The counts Radford pleaded guilty to were filling prescriptions not on the proper forms prescribed by the Government, failure to keep proper records of liquor transactions, transportation of liquor without a permit

WOMAN LOSES LAW PROTECTION

Austin, Oct. 26.—When a woman discards feminine garments for men's clothes and the masquerade is thorough enough to lead an observer to believe the woman to be a man, the woman loses some of her rights under the law, the Court of Criminal Appeals held in effect in an opinion reversing the judgment of the lower court which Bartos Vyoral of Liberty County was fined $250 for aggravated assault upon a Mrs. Garrett.

According to the statement of facts, Vyoral, while driving an automobile, met Mrs. Garrett, who was in a buggy. Vyoral testified that the woman had on a man's hat and shirt and that he thought she was a man. She refused, he testified, to draw to the right hand side of the road far enough to let him pass, and he alighted from his car and attempted to lead the horse from his right-of-way, when the woman threw a wrench at him. He threw the wrench back with better aim and hit the woman, whom he testified he thought was a man. The case was reversed because the judge refused to permit the introduction of evidence to show that the woman had entered suit for damages against Vyoral, but the higher court stated that the lower court also erred in failing to charge the jury that the defendant had the right to plead mistaken facts and thus attempt to reduce the offense from an aggravated to a simple assault, which it would have been had he hit a man.

Tom Carter is here on a visit to his brother, D. P. Carter. Tom is just out of the navy, where he served four years with credit to himself and country. He formerly resided here before going into the service and has many friends who are glad to see him.

WHY WEST TEXAS SHOULD VOTE FOR THE BETTER SCHOOLS AMENDMENT

There is a reason why West Texas should be for the Better Schools Amendment that does not apply to other parts of the state. If the public schools of the state are supported by state taxation, West Texas will have to pay into the state treasury about twice as much as he will get out. For instance, we pay now our pro rata of the present school tax of thirty-five cents on the hundred dollars worth of property for the state available school and text book fund and, because of the fact that the per capita wealth in this part of the state is much greater than in other parts, we get back, in the way of a per capita apportionment for our school children, not much more than half as much as we pay in. In other words, to support the schools by state taxation will cost West Texas about twice as much as to support them by local taxation. Last spring, the Legislature appropriated four million dollars out of the state treasury for the support of the schools and of this four million dollars, West Texas will pay into the state about twice as much as she will get back in a per capita apportionment for her children and is thus helping educate the children of other parts of the state when she ought to keep her money at home for her own schools. If other parts of the state were unable to educate their children, West Texas would not hesitate to help them do it, but when they are just as able to educate their children as we are ours, we do not believe it is right to force us to help them.

If this Better Schools Amendment

CABLED PHOTOGRAPHS

Photographs have been successfully cabled across the Atlantic. The first pictures actually transmitted were probably those taken in New York of the recent international yacht race and reproduced a few hours later in a London newspaper. There are several methods of transmitting photographs by wire and even by wireless electricity, but the system followed in cabling the yacht pictures is probably the best. The negative containing the photograph is "coded" or prepared for transmission by an ingenious device which reduces the picture to an arrangement of messages which resembles an ordinary cable code and can be transmitted as such. This message can be handed into a telegraph office for transmission like any other message. On being received on the other side of the Atlantic this message is placed in a machine resembling a typewriter and is in turn reproduced by a series of holes in a long tape. The tape is then placed in the reproducing machine with an undeveloped plate and after being transmitted the plate is placed in a developing bath which reproduces the original picture in every detail. Some details are lost in the sending, but it is promised that the machine will soon be perfected, and long distance transmission of photographs will be commonplace.—October Boys' Life.

SLACKER HUSBAND FOUND SCANT WELCOME FROM WIFE

Thirteen years ago a farmer who owned a certain 80-acre tract in Texas concluded that to work on the land for his wife and young son was an undesirable job, so he quit his home and left the woman and the boy to shift for themselves.

The woman was a worker and she kept the home fires burning. Recently the man came back. He found conditions different. His wife and son had become wealthy. They rode about in an automobile and wore good clothes. Also they had money in every pocket and at the banks with a large account in the woman's name.

The returned husband was delighted. And his wife pretended to be glad that he was back. She gave him some cash, and he also rode around for a short period in the automobile.

Just as he was becoming accustomed to the new order of affairs, something happened. She had a talk with him. "You have been gone thirteen years," she said. "You did not care whether the boy and I had starved or not. I worked night and day and struggled to get going. It was a trying experience. But you did not care. Now, since you have learned that the farm you deserted is one of the richest oil leases herabouts, you come back. You expect by your soft talk to wheedle me into letting you enjoy the riches that have come to us. I have permitted you to get a taste of the good thing we possess. You now fully realize what you have lost."

"I have not lost it," said the man. "I came back to live with you and to love you to the end. You'll forgive me, even if I have seemed to be a

Ready For Business

In the early morning of October 22nd our plant was entirely destroyed by fire. But the Lockney Farmers are determined to do business and do it in a businesslike manner. We let no grass grow under our feet—before the sun sank below the horizon yesterday we had adjusted our loss with the insurance company, had let a contract for the erection of another modern fifty thousand bushel elevator, had the material enroute, and have the assurance that the new elevator will be completed and in operation within sixty days, or less.

We are in the market now and at all times for Wheat, Oats, Maize and all kinds of grain and will pay the highest market price for same—our loss did not cripple except as to convenience in handling grain but stung us to further action in securing for our members and other farmers a responsible market price for their grain. Our members receive every dollar made in handling their products. Our business is theirs.

We had some loss, that is true, but we were not counted out. We never stopped buying grain a day and we don't intend to. We are somewhat handicapped at present but can take care of your grain and we shall be running in full blast again within sixty days.

If you think we are doing the community a service; if you like the way we do business; if you admire the way we come back; if you wish to get every dollar your crop is worth—become one of us. Bring your grain, drop in and talk it over. It is no trouble to explain the merits of farmers co-operation, and how it will benefit you.

ago civilization was unknown, and heathen aborigines howled in unison with the marauding coyote in mid night orge over fallen prey, now nestles the happy homes of thousands of industrious American citizens whose efforts won the admiration of thousands at the state fair this year and won for them 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes for best agricultural exhibits. What was dubbed at one time by ignorant easterners as the "Great American Desert," is now known to the world as the great Panhandle of Texas—the most productive area* of the biggest state in the union. In forty-nine counties of this section there are now 28,275 farms as compared with 6,049 in 1900.

What was one time the greatest beef producing section of our union only to be shut out of existence by the packer's trust, is now rated as the greatest small grain section of the United States. Embracing as it does, an area as large as several of the smaller states, the variations of climate permit the propagation of an unbounded list of agricultural varieties such as is known only to the great plains section.

An empire not without its drawbacks and disappointments but thanks to the sturdy pioneer who blazed the way, each succeeding obstacle was overcome and used as a means to combat the next. Peopled in earlier days by the scions of the pioneer mothers—God's uncrowned queens—whose dauntless courage knew no hardships and scorned the quitter, made it possible for you and me to enjoy a privilege of association and climate among a people whose hearts are just as big as the Empire of the Panhandle.—Clarendon News.

PANHANDLE OF TEXAS BECOMES GREAT EMPIRE

No place on the globe shows the progress made by the Panhandle of Texas during the past forty years, or within the lifetime of some of her oldest inhabitants. Where a few years ago the sleepy-eyed buffalo sought shelter from the norther in Paloduro canyon, is now located a great state normal school. Where a few years ago Comanches sought the scalps of more intrepid whites, is now located one of the leading junior colleges of the south. Where a few years

Chinaman Holds Beautiful White Girl Under Strange Spell

Weird Story of Oriental Mysticism and Treachery Revealed in "The River's End" by Jamames Oliver Wood

There is a strange tale of Oriental mysticism in "The River's End," that will both startle and fascinate. This picture from the book by James Oliver Curwood, author of "Back to God's Country," will be shown at the Olympic Theatre on Saturday, October 30th.

Shan Tung, the Chinese, is a prince in disguise. Driven from his own country by political factions, he settles in Northwest Canada on the edge of civilization, where he keeps an opium den and traffics in vice.

And Shan Tung, because of his wealth is a power in the community. He falls in love with a beautiful white girl and demands that she marry him. She loathes him and is horrified. Yet he holds a strange spell over her and she apparently is powerless to cope with his will.

She appeals to an officer of the Royal Mounted to help her free herself from his influence, but she withholds some secret from him, evidently fearing to reveal it.

The Chinese is getting more and more of a hold on her when the officer of police visits the den on Shan Tung's command. And Shan Tung openly demands that he be a party to the deliverance of the white girl to him.

But the officer is not the craven Shan Tung thought. There is a terrific battle in the opium den, which is finally set afire and burned. What happens to this officer and the white girl is something you will want to see.

LEGION GIVES ENDORSEMENT OF SCHOOL AMENDMENT

Endorsement of the Educational Amendment, which will provide better schools for the rural districts of the state and which is to be voted upon November 2nd, has received the unqualified endorsement of the State Executive Committee of the Department of Texas American Legion, according to advices received at Legion Headquarters at Austin.

The resolution adopted by the Texas state body of the Legion is as follows:

"WHEREAS, after religion, education is the most important thing in life, and

WHEREAS, in the State of Texas generally the cause of education is seriously jeopardized on account of the notoriously inadequate pay the teachers of this state are receiving, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Department of Texas, American Legion, hereby endorses the proposed Constitutional amendment which will give to the schools of Texas, particularly in the rural districts, an opportunity to improve educational facilities, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call on the people of Texas to support this distinct American and Americanizing Constitutional Amendment."

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back — especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset.

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

West Texas Gin Co.

Now Fully Equipped

—and prepared to gin all the cotton that comes to them. We are prepared to gin day and night, which gives us a capacity to take care of all the cotton that comes to us. Night ginning will be inaugurated whenever the picking situation demands.

Our crew are all experienced and first class gin men. Our gin was thoroughly overhauled this past summer and every piece of machinery is in first class shape. We feel sure we can give you as good service, turn-out and sample as any gin on the plains.

PICK YOUR COTTON

We urge the farmers to pick their cotton, and keep it in as good condition as possible. Cleaner the cotton, better the sample and better the price you will receive when you go to sell same.

In order to meet the farmers half way by reason of the low price of cotton, we have lowered our ginning price from 50 to 40 cents per hundred.
