COL. R. Q. LEE SPOKE HERE TUESDAY NITE

FOUR HUNDRED CITIZENS HEAR DIVERSIFICATION PROGRAM TUESDAY NIGHT

According to previous announcement, Col. R. Q. Lee, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by Mr. Whitehead, publicity manager of the W. T. C. C., Col. C. C. French, of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Co., and Max C. Bentley, staff correspondent of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, arrived in Lockney Tuesday afternoon, and took part in the diversification program held at the high school auditorium at night.

The party arrived in Lockney about six o'clock Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. E. S. Shoaf, secretary of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce, from Silverton, and were served supper at the Cozy Cafe, where about a dozen business men and farmers had arranged for the occasion.

At 7:30 the gentlemen were escorted to the school auditorium, and the program arranged for the occasion began promptly at eight o'clock.

Music was furnished by the "Corn Huskers" Orchestra throughout the evening, and the following program was rendered:

Music by the Lockney Ukelele Club. Composed of Misses Lauream Christian, Maenon Meriwether, Mavis Davis, Ruth Stapleton, Loraine Still, Emma Sue Buchanan, Leo Simpson. Several selections being rendered by the young ladies.

Vocal selection by Mrs. Esma Penninger, accompanied by Miss Christian on the piano. Mrs. Penninger answering an encore.

Reading: Mrs. O. E. Stevenson. Vocal Selection: Mrs. C. E. Marshall of Quitaque. Mrs. Marshall answered an encore.

A talk was made by Mr. Whitehead, publicity manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, on the things that the organization was doing in the way of saving money for the people of West Texas in freight rates, and the advertising the country was getting through the W. T. C. C. and the exhibits it sent out over the United States each year. He also told of the declamation contest to be conducted in Amarillo at the convention in June, and the awards to be made to the winner.

Col. R. Q. Lee, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was the next speaker on the program and made a talk on the diversification of farm crops. He stressed the value of more cows, hogs and chickens on the farms of this section, and advised that all farmers stay away from the one crop idea. He gave a lot of statistics showing the many articles that are easily raised on the farms of this section, but that on account of the farmers failing to raise them, we are today shipping in much food from other states. He stated that with the acreage planted to cotton last year that if a good crop was raised the cotton supply would amount to more than 20,000 bales annually, and this would mean that cotton prices would drop so low that farmers would be unable to pay for picking and ginning the crop, while if they diversified more and raised the things on the farm that was necessary for the family's use, raise sufficient feed to care for their work stock and raise hogs and dairy and poultry products, and plant fewer acres of cotton or wheat each year that the price of cotton and wheat would be far better at all times. He stressed farming fewer acres of land and intensely farming the land that is farmed, that a better product can be obtained from proper farming, and that such products always demand top market prices. He pleaded with the people to raise better quality milk stock, hogs and poultry, raise more garden and feed crops, feed a large per cent of their crops on their farms and market them through the hog, dairy and poultry products.

Mr. Lee's talk was one of common sense farming, living at home, looking first to making a good living at home and marketing the surplus crops, but never to raise a single crop and depend upon it for a living. He stated he realized that Floyd county was among the most advanced counties along the line of diversified farming, but that we were still in the infancy of this great accomplishment. He advised that a varied farming program be adhered to on every farm, and that the entire farming citizenship would profit more by the same.

Col. C. C. French, representative of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Co., and the daddy of the "Baby Beef" and Boys' Pig Clubs in the State of Texas, was the next speaker on the program. Col. French talk was along the line of raising a few better beef cattle and sheep on each farm, and having enough to supply the home needs of a few for market each year. He told of the increasing demand for hogs, sheep and baby beef, stating that three cars of dressed hogs were being shipped into Fort Worth each day in the year to supply the Texas market with pork products, and prevailed upon the people to raise more hogs, sheep and baby beaves in this country.

Visitors from out of town were Judge Charles Clements of Plainview, Judge C. D. Wright of Silverton, Col. S. E. Guy of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marshall of Quitaque, O. R. Tipps of Quitaque, Mr. Witherspoon of Silverton, Solon Clements of Plainview.

AIKEN CROWS

There was a large crowd present at the Parent-Teachers Association social Friday night. There was a fifteen minute business session, after which the following program was rendered:

Piano solo by Miss Roy Riley.
Reading by Mr. Claude Morris.
Piano duet by Jean Day and Wilora Allen.

Reading by Miss Aileen Tate.
Song, by Mesdames Jones, Henry and Riggsby.

Reading by Gerald Ramsey.
The meeting was then taken in charge by Jean Day, who in behalf of the pupils of the school, gave a short talk of appreciation to the parents. She said that the school children appreciated the many sacrifices that their parents had made in giving them the new school building, piano and the many other things they had done in making their school one of the best in the county. The school children then pledged their support to stand back of their parents for the school and community.

The parents were then given a surprise program by the children. First, was a duet, "When You and I were Young Maggie," by Velma and Vesta Day. Next a play, "The Rag Carpet Boy," by several of the High School girls. This surprise program was certainly enjoyed by the parents.

Last but not least, sandwiches and hot chocolate was served.
The P. T. A. needs more members. Please make every effort to come and be with us every meeting. Next meeting will be Friday night, March 5th. Come.

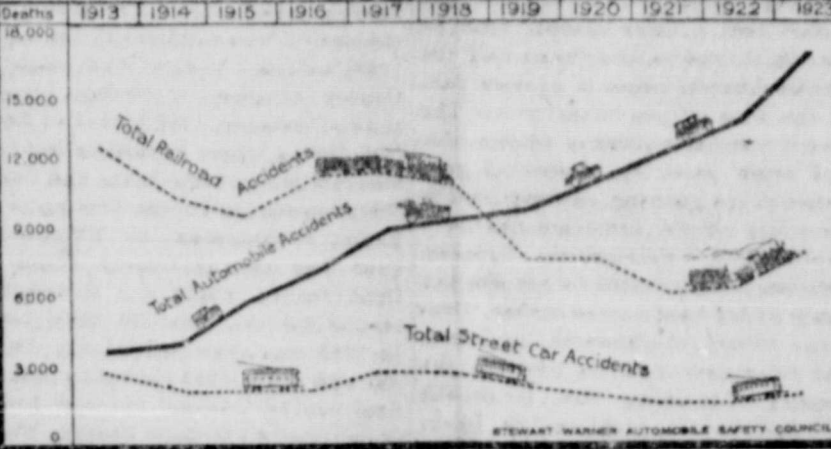

About twenty men of the community spent Tuesday working at the school house. They made thirty benches for the auditorium, and some of the men worked on the teacherage. This shows that the people of Aiken think of their school and community.

On Friday afternoon of last week the school children thought by cleaning the school grounds it would make their new building "show up" better. They went to work with a will and in a little while their school yard was "spick and span." With parents and children like these working with such a willing spirit for the community, you shall see great things happen at Aiken.

Miss Aileen Tate entertained the pupils of her room at the school house last Saturday afternoon from three until five. Several delightful games were played and all seemed to enjoy themselves. At the close of the games ice cream and cake was served.

Auto Tragedies Increase as Other Travel Is Made Safer

AUTOS STILL CLIMBING HILL OF DEATH

WHILE railroad tragedies and street car accidents in the United States have gradually been diminishing in the last ten years, the annual toll exacted by automobile casualties is steadily mounting, says the Stewart-Warner Safety Council for the prevention of automobile accidents. Railroad accidents have been cut more than one-third, or from 12,500 in 1913 to 8,074 in 1923, the latest government figure available. Street car fatalities also have been cut down one-third or from 3,080 in 1913 to 2,006 two years later. Automobile deaths, on the other hand, have increased over five-fold. Against the 3,822 deaths in 1913 we have 16,452 in 1923, and the score is growing each year.

Care, more care and still more care, is the solution of this national problem. The pedestrian must be always on the alert and as spry as a kangaroo, if he is to keep out of harm's way, and the driver for his part must never relax his vigilance for a moment when human lives are at his mercy.

SILVERTON GIVES LEE HOME DEMONSTRATION GOOD HEARING

OLD TIMERS DO HONOR TO BIG WEST TEXAS BOOSTER AT NOONDAY LUNCHEON

Silverton honored R. Q. Lee at noon Tuesday with a bountiful banquet, which was held at the Orange Cafe. Men of every walk of life were present to do honor to this great man of West Texas. Many old time cow men attended, among who were R. E. Douglas, Jim and Tom Bomar, Bert Douglas, Minor Crawford, Frank Lowery and J. W. Ewing of Quitaque.

Music and songs were furnished by the high school girls Ukelele Club, led by Mrs. Gurley. One of the main features was a solo by Baby Morgan, four year old daughter of W. D. Morgan.

County Judge, C. D. Wright, ably presiding as toastmaster, and paid a glowing tribute to Silverton's sister city, Lockney, later a vote of thanks was extended to the Lockney Chamber of Commerce and its secretary, E. S. Shoaf, for the assistance they had rendered Silverton and Briscoe county in securing a railroad and publicity.

Judge Wright stressed the fact that West Texas needed the assistance of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at this time, as never before. Hon. John Burson, pioneer cattleman and banker of Silverton made an interesting talk.

E. S. Shoaf, secretary of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce, said, "I bring you greetings from Lockney and Floyd county. We are proud of your friendship and pride it very highly. We are ready and willing at all times to assist our neighboring towns and communities to the best of our ability."

O. R. Tipps, secretary of the Quitaque Chamber of Commerce, spoke of the wonderful scenery of Briscoe county, and of the citizenship.

Plainview was represented by Chas. Clements and several others. Mr. Martin of Tulla was present, as was G. Tunnell, the wheel-horse of Quitaque.

After the banquet Mr. Lee spoke at a well filled house in the district court room.

Lockney was also represented by Messrs. Carley Ayres and Adams.

SANTA FE PLANS EXTENSION EAST FROM FLOYDADA

Application is believed to mean First Step on Extension of Line from Plains to Fort Worth

Announcement was sent out from Washington Saturday that the Santa Fe Railroad Co. had asked for a permit to extend their line of railroad from Floydada to a point 15 miles southeast, near the corner of Floyd County. The application was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It is the general belief of the peo-

INMAN ON WAY TO OKLAHOMA IT IS THOUGHT

Sherriff H. L. Johnston of Lubbock is believed to be making an attempt to defy Oklahoma authorities and bondsmen for Joe Inman, alleged notorious outlaw, in making a second effort to return Inman to the Sooner state. It is thought that Johnston and Inman left here late Saturday.

The first attempt on the part of Sherriff Johnston and Oklahoma authorities to return Inman to his native state where he is wanted for having jumped appeal bond while under a ten year sentence on attempt to murder charge, was halted on the instance of Sherriff Johnston at Floydada last Friday after two Oklahoma men, one of them an officer, showed up at Floydada after it was claimed by other members of the party that they knew nothing of plans to return Inman to Oklahoma.

At Floydada Sherriff Johnston and the Oklahoma officials disagreed, resulted in Inman's being returned to the county jail here.

Inman Afraid
Inman is afraid of the Oklahoma officers who came here last week to return him to Grady County, Oklahoma jail, and has expressed belief that if given over to them his life would be taken before he got to that place. Because of the alleged attempt on the part of the Oklahoma officers to double-cross Sherriff Johnston, he has taken special interest in Inman's case and it is known that he is determined to see that Inman is returned to proper Oklahoma authorities without being molested.

Johnston assumes this responsibility because of the fact that he and Deputy Vernice Ford and W. B. Jones of the Santa Fe arrested Inman at a small Reagan County town two weeks ago Saturday night after he had been at large after a period of two years. The fact that Inman is claimed to be one of the most fearless men sought by officers and that he had declared that he would not be taken alive probably had something to do with the failure of Oklahoma officials to effect his arrest. Now that Sherriff Johnston has endangered his own life and that of Ford and Jones in effecting the arrest of Inman, he does not feel that Inman should receive anything but fair treatment at the hands of the law and if he is making a hurried trip to the Sooner state with the alleged criminal it is to justify this sense of responsibility and fair dealing that the trip is being made.

PRAIRIE CHAPEL NEWS

Mr. J. B. Teaff is in the Plainview Sanitarium this week. From all reports he is recovering rapidly and we hope that he will soon be at home again.

Miss Ruth Cooper spent the week end with friends at Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Rose.

The singing Sunday afternoon was well attended. There were visitors from Aiken and Plainview.

Mrs. France Carthel is at Farmersville, Texas, at the bedside of her father, Mr. W. E. Smith, who is very low.

The County Championship for the girls basket ball was decided Saturday, Prairie Chapel team winning the final score of 18 to 12 over Floydada. Every girl on the team played excellently from the first till the last second. We are proud of our team and it is our purpose to bring home a bi-county high score, which will be played at the close of the week. Place not determined yet. Everybody come and help the girls win.

The warm days during last week and the first of this, have caused the wheat to begin to show up very nicely in most fields. A good rain or snow would almost insure a fair wheat crop.

Most of the farmers are busy getting their ground ready for a row crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Allen and family spent the week end with relatives in Amarillo.

The stork has been visiting in our community. Tuesday night a four pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Teaff. A fine girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carthel.

LOCKNEY PRAISED AT LITTLEFIELD

CROSBYTON WILL BE HOSTESS TO NEXT DISTRICT CONVENTION OF BODY

One of the greatest district conventions of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce ever held was held in Littlefield Monday of this week. The town was in gala array for the occasion and about seven hundred delegates from various towns over the Plains were in attendance. The program was quite lengthy and filled with speeches and musical numbers. Four bands were present, and Lockney's Ukelele Girls were the sensation of the day. Twelve towns were represented in the declamation contest on "My Home Town," the declaimer from Ralls winning the first place. A banquet was served at the noon hour with Assistant Manager Homer Wade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as toastmaster.

Lockney's Ukelele Club was represented by Misses Dorothy Ford, Maenon Meriwether, Mavis and Aline Davis, Leo Simpson, Emma Sue Buchanan, Loraine Still and Elsie Meriwether, who proved to be the favorite organization present, and rendered many numbers for the delegates during the day. Gid Waller represented Lockney in "My Home Town" declamation contest, and acquitted himself more than creditable, and would probably have been the winner, had it not been for the condition of his throat at the time. Young Waller will not doubt be one of the contestants in "My Home Town" contest at Amarillo in June, and we are expecting him to bring home the highest award.

Those attending from Lockney were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Angel, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Adams, Mrs. A. R. Meriwether, Messrs. J. W. Monroe, W. C. Watson, E. S. Shoaf, L. H. Graver, W. D. Biggers, Geo. T. Meriwether, S. W. Parry, Z. T. Riley, E. M. and Gid Waller, D. C. Lowe, and Misses Dorothy Ford, Maenon and Elsie Meriwether, Mavis and Aline Davis, Leo Simpson, Loraine Still and Emma Sue Buchanan.

STATE RIGHTS

State rights have almost become a thing of the past. All powers are now vested in the government at Washington and through various commissions, bureaus, etc. the people have very little weight in things that are done. For instance in the railroad matters, here we sit on the Plains today awaiting a decision to be handed down by a man or set of men at Washington who will say whether or not the railroad is allowed to build. If you or I want to build a house or go into a legitimate business and have the money to finance the same, what right has any person, commission or bureau to say that we cannot do so. The Fort & Denver has the money to build their and are ready to build, then why should they have to ask the government at Washington about the matter? If they should build the line and it prove unprofitable, it would be their loss and none of the governments business. The authority invested or assumed by the Interstate Commerce Commission is not in keeping with good democracy and tend to make of the country an autocracy. It takes the right of development away from every state in the Union, and says whether or not a corporation or an individual has the privilege of investing their money as they so desire, and what returns they can receive for the money invested. Such a government breeds anarchy, Bolshevism and socialism, and if the Interstate Commerce Commission and such commissions and bureaus are allowed to continue and the government allows them more power and to assume more power the day is not very far distant until this country will be torn with revolutions and unrest just like the countries of Europe are today. To much governing leads to autocracy, graft, trodding down of the common people and taking from them their rights of free ment assume one right after another until today we practically have no individual or collective rights in our different states. If we desire that the government at Washington have all power as rights, we had better disband our state governments and save the taxation that we are now paying for the upkeep of the state departments. The taxation that we are subjected both the national and state governments is reaching proportions that are becoming almost unbearable, and every year they are growing. We read of big tax cuts in the papers but when we pay our taxes they are larger than they were the year before. Today taxation slowly but surely the common people into peonage. There is not a resident of Lockney, nor any other town in Texas, that cannot rent a home cheaper than he can own it, and on the farms half the owners borrow money a greater part of the time to pay taxes with. The people are not getting a square now and every year the powers of government are growing stronger on the American citizen, and more and more departments, commissions, bureaus, etc. are being created to rob the tax payer of his hard earned money. Congress should be answered by letters and telegrams from all parts of the country, demanding that it abolish all departments such as the Interstate Commerce Commission, Labor boards, and various others who are a detriment to the free citizenship of this country, and take the right of privilege from the American people. Let Texas take care of the business within her own borders, and every other state in the union do the same thing, and the National Government care for the business that is purely of a national nature.

Plant trees now on your property and create a value as the years roll by.

Farmers are very busy just now getting their land ready for the planting season. One of the largest row crops will be planted this spring in the history of the country. The man who will have the best bank account at the end of the season will be the man who plants a good feed crop, and markets it in chickens, eggs, pork, milk and cream. The man who feeds his stuff on the farm always has a good living at home, and when he comes to town he takes more money home with him than he had when he started to town. This is the thing the editor wants to see in the Lockney country. Bring enough produce to buy the things you need, and carry a deposit on a bank home with you extra. When farmers do this they can make their own prices, and get them, just the same as the industries name the prices today on the materials they manufacture out of the products produced by the farmers and on the cotton, wheat, feeds, etc. that they buy from the farmers. Independence among the farmers will win a war without the use of gun powder, and the way to get that independence is to raise your living at home first, sell your surplus, and pay cash for the things you need. If you raise your living at home you can pay cash for what you need from the surplus crops and produce you raise.

Read the ads in this issue from the various poultry raisers of the county. You will find that almost every known breed and strain of chickens is represented in this column. This means that the farmers of Floyd County are awake to the fact that successful farming on the Plains means large flocks of pure bred chickens. It has been truly said that the American hen is worth her weight in gold, and the man or woman who gives proper care to the raising of chickens on the Plains are not bothered long with mortgages or other indebtedness. The grocer dry goods or hardware merchant never doubts the standing of the man or woman who brings a coop of chickens, basket of eggs, or a box of butter to town every time they come. This class of farmers never have to borrow money to pay taxes, and very seldom do they ask for an extension on a note. They very seldom have notes to extend. They invariably have money to pay for what they want. Poultry makes people independent, and independence is the greatest of all things.

The man who has three to five good milk cows, two to five good brood sows, and a few score of good hens on his farm should not be envious of the banker or capitalist, for nine times out of ten he is far better off than either of the above mentioned. With a good smoke house or cellar every farmer in the Lockney country should be able to fill it in the growing season with enough food to feed the family well through out the year, and with his own milk and butter, meat, chickens and eggs, the farmers family should live far better at home than anybody can live out of a paper sack, and on the side still enough butter, cream, meat, lard, chickens and eggs too pay for all the clothes, fuel and implemets needed, besides put away a neat sum in the bank for the "rainy day."

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 64TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS:

I wish to submit myself to you as a candidate for the office of District Attorney for this district.

I am a native Texan, "an old timer" in this region, having moved thirty-five years ago from Milford, Texas, to Talia, Swisher County, and the following year, 1892, we came over into Briscoe county to live.

I received my education in the public schools, and at Clarendon College, for four years, and at Austin as a law student. I was admitted to the bar in 1902, served a part of two terms as County Attorney of Briscoe County, and in December, 1907, moved to Hereford, Texas, where I formed a law partnership with Judge Baker and Judge Witherspoon, under the firm name of Baker, Witherspoon & Wright. In 1910 was elected County Judge of Deaf Smith County and served two terms, did not seek the third term. In 1915 was appointed County Attorney and ran in 1916 elected to that office, but on account of poor health in my family I move to Seattle, Washington, where we resided until Oct. 1921, when we came back to Briscoe County to look after some private business. In 1922 I was solicited to make the race for County Judge and was elected, this office I now hold.

I have been requested by friends in all parts of the district to make the race this year for District Attorney. I have had about twenty-three years experience as an attorney, four years of which I served as County Attorney, and am now serving my eighth year as County Judge, having been re-elected in this county in 1924 without opposition. With the experience I have had I feel sure I understand and can discharge the duties of District Attorney. If I did not feel capable of filling the office I would not ask for your support.

As to my character I refer you to any of my numerous acquaintances over the district. As to my official success I refer you to my records in Briscoe and Deaf Smith Counties. I have had similar experiences as Judge in both Deaf Smith and Briscoe counties. I went into office at each place right after the erection of a new court-house when there had been no provision made to pay the additional expense. With the help of good commissioners was able to meet it with no additional tax. In this county all departments are in much better condition than when I went into office: schools, finances and roads are much improved.

I have always worked hard to conduct the affairs of the office in a business like way for the benefit of the people as a whole.

I believe in strong enforcement of the law as that is the greatest insurance we have against the commission of crime. But I would persecute no one nor would I use the office to help any one to wreak vengeance upon an enemy.

The only promise I have ever made in any campaign I now make to the people of this district: I will discharge all the duties of the office to the very best of my abilities without fear or favor; I will at all times be a your service, "though I should go at midnight and alone," mistakes I may make but I will profit by them and study hard to avoid them.

I feel sure that my experience as an attorney, in the general practice of law, as a county attorney, and as a judge on the bench well qualifies me to fill the office to which I aspire.

I will endeavor to see all of you, but owing to the time required and to the duties of my present office I may not be permitted to see every person however, I will appreciate the vote and influence of each one, and if you elect me I will do my best to so conduct the office as to render myself worthy of your confidence.

C. D. WRIGHT.

SHERIFF AND TAX COLLECTOR

To the Voters of Floyd County:
I am a candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector of Floyd County, subject to the Democratic primary, and want your vote and influence.

I believe I can make you a good officer and assure you, if elected, will do my very best.

22 Years of Leadership and still Leading in Price ~ Design ~ Quality

Table with 2 columns: Model, New Price, Old Price. Rows include Tudor, Fordor, Coupe, Touring, Runabout.

Supremacy Maintained through Features which Established Ford Leadership

Left-Hand Drive--Originally introduced by Henry Ford on the Model T car in 1908 and since adopted for most American-made cars.

Three Point Motor Suspension--First used by Henry Ford in 1903, and a feature of the Model T power plant for eighteen years.

Dual Ignition System--Dual ignition is provided for Ford cars, (1) the Ford magneto and (2) the generator and storage battery. This has been a great factor in establishing the Ford reputation for reliability.

Planetary Transmission--Costs more to build than the conventional sliding gear type but gives better light car control.

Multiple Disc-in-oil Clutch--The multiple disc clutch is generally conceded to be the best and smoothest type for any car. The Ford clutch runs in oil.

Thermo-Syphon Cooling System--Extremely simple--always efficient. No water pump to require packing. Circulation of water is governed entirely by engine temperature.

Simple, Dependable Lubrication--Exceedingly simple, combining the splash principle with gravity flow. No pump required.

Torque Tube Drive--Henry Ford originated the Torque Tube in 1908--a driving principle now embodied in many of the highest priced cars.

TO OUR ROUND BALE CUSTOMERS:

We wish to announce that the Round Bale press has been closed down for this season. It was done by order of the owners due to the fact that such a large per centage of cotton being received is of rotten and perished staple.

Cotton of such character is not to be put up in Round Bales according to the terms of the agreement made when the press was installed, therefore, we have no criticism to make against Anderson, Clayton & Company, and are only grateful for the large service they have rendered us in particular and the community in general as long as we had Cotton that was Cotton.

We thank you for the generous patronage accorded the Round Bale press the past season and look forward to a still greater business in 1926-27.

Elsewhere it is announced that we will continue ginning on the square bale press on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays Only.

GRIT & SAND by JAKE

Well, Boy, we invaded Littlefield Monday. You did not have to tell any one that we were from Lockney.

Our Ukelele Club was the sensation of the convention.

When we passed through Plainview the natives were unable to understand just what was going on.

Many complimented our girls on their good deportment, yes sir, they are all real ladies.

Porter Whaley says they are the proverbial peaches, and grow only in Lockney. Right, Porter.

Everybody had a big time, and they sure helped to put Lockney on the map. Thanks to all.

Lockney was second to Lubbock in largest number of delegates. Go on Lockney.

Clean up week is coming! Are you ready?

The city officials should take more pride in their city, and keep the refuse cleaned up on main street. Wake up City Dads.

Yesterday is today gone by. Forget it, expect to profit by its experiences.

Tomorrow is today yet to arrive. Don't wait for it, for to do so may be too late.

Today is here. Use it to the best advantage, profiting by the experiences of yesterday when it was today.

"I am going to" never accomplished anything. Now is the only time when a thing can be done, for "tomorrow" never comes and "today" has gone.

Its street cleaning time, Mr. Mayor, and today is the day.

Don't forget to clean up your premises, plant some flowers, and shrubbery. A well kept yard is a good advertisement for the owner.

Hats off to Lockney's talent—Singers, Readers, Musicians, Debators and all. They are the best in the West. And then some more.

D. C. Lowe says that he is a better man, mentally, spiritually and other wise for attending the Littlefield convention.

On to Providence. Friday night is the night. Be there.

Lockney is on the map to stay. Are you doing your part.

If you are not for Lockney, and do not like the people and the town, you and the town would both be better off if you would go to the place of your choice.

See you next week.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Most of the farmers are very busy farming these days, though the ground is hard and dry.

Some of the school boys went to Ramsey Friday afternoon to play a game of basketball, which resulted in a victory for Ramsey. The score was 23 to 2. Our boys played good ball but were greatly outshined.

Ernest, Charlie and Miss Mary Callis returned last Thursday from a several days' stay in Hill county, where they formerly lived.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassey Yarbrough visited in the Sand Hill community Sunday.

D. F. McKinsey and sons were Floydada visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hubbard entertained a number of friends as guests at dinner Sunday. The dinner was given in honor of Mr. Hubbard's birth business last Saturday.

Your "Selective-Ringing" Telephone Rings Only For You!

Every "selective-ringing" telephone in Lockney has a "one-party-line" bell ringing service. This means your bell rings only when your number is wanted.

The subscriber who shares your line has no means of knowing when you are being called, and you are not disturbed by the ringing of HIS bell.

In fact, unless you use your telephone much more frequently than the average householder, the only substantial difference you will note between the two forms of service will lie in the size of your monthly bill.

DOROTHY DIX'S ADVICE

Allure for men is a gift of the Gods that gives a woman a come-hither look in the eye—It is neither beauty, nor wit, nor virtue, but utter femininity that is irresistible to men.

Girls are always asking why some girl, who is neither beautiful, better dressed, more intelligent or a better dancer than they, has men swarming around her like bees about a honey-pot, while they never have beaux nor a date to bless themselves with.

To this heartbreaking query, I can only reply that the secret of a woman's fascination for a man lies neither in her looks nor her accomplishments. It is the come-hither look in her eyes. And to say that is merely to substitute one mystery for another, for no one knows just what it is. It is just something that a man recognizes at sight and goes down before like ripe wheat before a sickle.

Nor does anyone know why one woman has it and another woman has it not. Neither can it be acquired by any art of artifice or by fasting or by prayer. It is the gift of the Gods.

It has to do with a woman's looks. Yet the whole of it is not beauty, for for we all know women of classic form and features whom all men admire at a distance, but never desire to approach closely. Some of the handsomest women in every community are old maids, the traditions of whose youthful fairness lingers like a halo about them as long as they live. It is also notorious that great beauties seldom make big marriages.

On the other hand, there are girls with no claim whatever to pulchritude who could have as many husbands as they have fingers and toes were not one husband as much as any woman can stand musing around the house. Indeed, it is almost an axiom that any woman who can marry once can marry again should providence or the divorce court free her from her spouse.

Nor does a woman's fascination for men have any relation to her worth of character. Theoretically, men worship goodness, purity, amiability, modesty, and domesticity in a woman, but personally they do not run after the model of virtue who possesses all of the shining attributes. That kind of a girl is generally the kind that a man recommends other men to marry but doesn't marry himself.

The women who have held men in thrall from the time of Adam's first wife down to the youngest flapper have not been conspicuous for their goodness. Nor have they fooled men. Men have known them for just what they were. They have probated them and despised them, but they saw the come-hither look in the woman's eyes and followed it to their doom.

Even less has intelligence in a woman anything to do with her allure for men. On the contrary, feminine brains are caviar, as a general thing to the masculine taste, and the less sense a woman has the better men like her.

Any pretty moron can marry a dozen times to a college graduate once and the surest way for a girl to queer herself is to attempt to talk to men as if she were a reasonable human being instead of an adlepted butter fly.

The limit of intelligence that the average man will stand for in a woman is for her to have shrewdness enough to hide from him how much sense she really has and to jolly him along so that she makes him feel that he is as strong as a prize fighter and knows more than the Century Dictionary.

If, then, neither beauty, wit nor virtue light the beacon in a woman's eyes, what does?

Primarily it is sex. There are women who are human beings and there are other women who are just women. There are women in whom femininity is raised to the Nth power. There is not a line in their bodies nor a quality of their minds nor a fiber of their minds that isn't just all woman, and these women, by the very law of nature, draw every man they meet toward them as a magnet attracts a bit of metal.

These women cannot stand alone in the world or fight their own battles. They are bound to have something to hang on to, they never stretch their tendrils in vain. Some man always rises up and qualifies for the sturdy Oak.

The more utter feminine a woman is the more irresistible her charm for man, and this is why the business girl, the good fellow girl and the athletic girl find it hard to marry. Probably no man in the world ever popped the question to a girl when she was wearing knickerbockers.

Undoubtedly, also the come-hither look in a woman's eye is a look that expresses willingness. It is a gentle, soft inviting look. It is not the hard predatory look of the huntress of men who is determined to chase down a husband and catch him and bear him to the altar as a sacrifice. Nor is it the cold, self-satisfied, self-contained look of the bachelor maid that says her heart is an impregnable fortress that she dares a man to try to break into. That look affronts a man's vanity and drives him away instead of tolling him on.

The come-hither look is a flattering look—a yielding, caressing look that makes every man feel that he is a hero of romance and ready to swear that he is the only one who has ever had that signal wig-wagged to him from the eyes of that particular woman. It is a fluttering, flaunting invitation to come into the land of love, and a man would have to be more or less than a man if he didn't answer it.

A curious thing about the come-hither look in a woman's eye is that it is a vision vouchsafed only to men. No other woman can see it in her sister's orbs. She recognizes the deadly results of her having it.—Dorothy Dix
