

RURAL CARRIERS HOLD SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING

Rural Carriers met in regular semi-annual meeting at Presbyterian church, Hale Center. Rev. Patterson, Pastor of the Methodist church made the welcome address.

Discussions of some of the problems of Rural Carriers were taken up. It was unanimously decided that improvement of rural roads was our greatest need.

The following resolution was adopted, a copy to be mailed to the Commissioners court in every county in the association, namely, Hale, Swisher, Briscoe, and Floyd.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the committee on resolutions ask the careful consideration and adoption of the following:

We, the rural carriers serving routes in the various commissioners precincts hereby petition the commissioners of each precinct to give special attention to bad places in order that carriers may serve the whole of their routes in all kinds of weather. We ask that special attention be given to drainage, since the only places that get impassible is where water stands on the road.

It is the desire of this association in presenting this petition to co-operate in building and maintaining better rural roads and not to criticize work now being done.

Committee: E. H. HORTON, Chairman C. C. SCROGGIN T. W. SALISBURY.

Home Demonstration Club News

Roseland Home Demonstration Club The Roseland Club met at the club room Friday afternoon, Sept. 7th, 12 members and one visitor present.

Miss Bass did not give a demonstration and the time was spent in perfecting plans for the fair. We will have a full score card for our exhibit booth.

After the business meeting Mrs. Barton and Miss Anna Sims served punch to those present. Then came the real surprise when Mmes. Frank Robertson and Bruce Whitlock brought in several nice watermelons. We sure enjoyed them too.

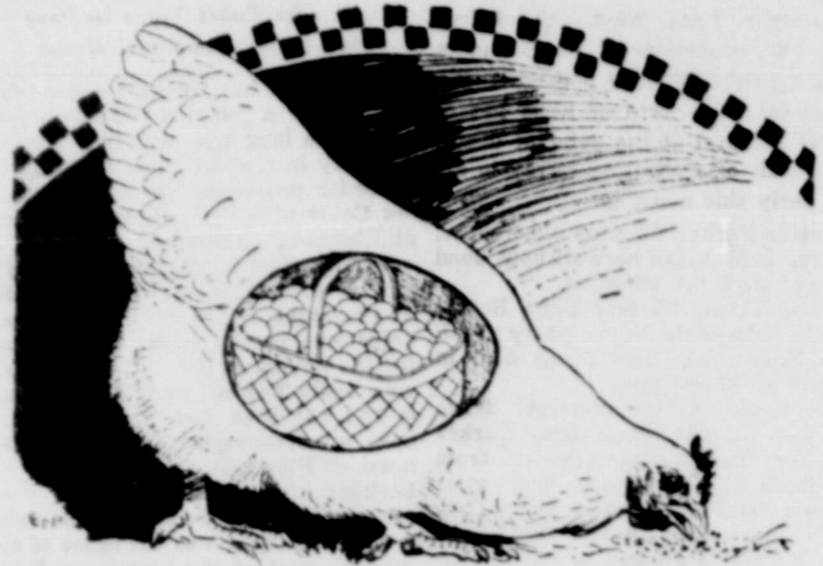

Our next meeting will be Sept. 21 at 1:30 o'clock.

Providence Home Demonstration Club The Providence Home Demonstration Club met Sept. 11th at the club room. There were eleven members present and we were very glad to enroll Mrs. F. E. Kennedy, as a new member.

Miss Bass was present and told us about the A. M. Short Course. We feel like we missed a great deal by not attending this year, but maybe we can send some one next year.

Miss Bass told us about the new score card for the fair and we don't feel like we are so far behind as we thought we would be. We finished filling out the score card and every member is asked to bring what they have fixed for the fair to our next meeting.

Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Kennedy were elected to go to Floydada, Sept.

Now is the Time to Fill Up the Storeroom!

In the winter, when the temperature is down, it takes almost all a hen can eat to keep her body going.

So if you want to get a lot of eggs this winter, those hens of your simply have to start now getting the kind of feed that will build up reserve energy for winter laying.

When a hen's fed properly, her body is a regular storeroom. The secret of Purina Poultry Chows is that they are balanced exactly right to start filling up that storeroom with little yolks which will develop into extra eggs all through the late fall and winter when egg prices go up.

Fight the high cost of feeding, by producing plenty of extra eggs! Order Purina Poultry Chows at the store with the checkerboard sign.

12TH DISTRICT BAPTISTS END GOOD MEETING

R. E. L. Muncy of Muncy Is Re-Elected Moderator At Floydada

Floydada, Sept. 10.—The 12th district Baptist association session is closed. Sessions began Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the twelfth annual meeting of the Floyd County Baptist association which opened at the local Baptist church Tuesday night. The meeting terminated Friday evening after the city had been selected for the sessions next year.

Messengers were present from 25 of the 26 churches affiliated with the association. The Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, and members of the local church had as their guests over four hundred messengers and visitors representing practically every community and neighboring town within a radius of 60 miles.

Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor university was among the outstanding men of the denomination who have been in attendance. Dr. Brooks delivered an address before the association Tuesday morning on Baylor university, its hopes, its accomplishments and its future.

J. J. Kellum, representative, also spoke Tuesday morning on Buckner's Orphan Home in Dallas, maintained by the Baptist denomination.

Both talks were delivered in the auditorium of the new educational unit of the Baptist church now under construction.

The officers were elected Wednesday. R. L. Muncy of Muncy was re-elected moderator of the association at the business session held Wednesday. All the other officers were also elected.

Messengers from the local church were: The Rev. P. D. O'Brien, W. D. Smith, D. T. Bolding, W. F. Weatherly, Mrs. G. A. Linder, Mrs. Lon V. Smith, and J. C. Newsome.

Muncy-Crawford Robert Buckner (Bob) Muncy and

Miss Allie Mae Crawford of Memphis, Texas, were married Sunday, Sept. 9th, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Miller, Pastor of First Baptist church of Memphis, Texas, officiating.

Bob is the son of Rev. and Mrs. R. E. L. Muncy of Muncy and is at present owner of the Muncy elevator. Robert has been raised in Floyd county and has made a success of every business he has undertaken.

Mrs. Muncy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crawford, a prominent family of Plaska, Hall county, graduate of the Plaska High School class of '28, is a charming lady of high christian ideals and her friends are many.

They will be at home near the elevator to their many friends.

WILD SCENES ENACTED AT TEXAS CONVENTION; MANY EYES BLACKENED

Dallas, Sept. 11.—Amid the wildest scenes that ever marked a Democratic meeting in Texas, delegates refusing to endorse the presidential candidacy of Governor Smith bolted the state Democratic convention here today and organized a separate convention of their own in the blazing sun on the steps of Fair Park auditorium.

Many of the state's most prominent political leaders swung their fists in a free-for-all fight that ensued when former Governor Oscar Colquitt, avowed anti-Smithite, sprang to his feet a few minutes after the convention opened and shouted:

"Let all loyal Democrats retire." Eyes were blackened and noses blooded as the insurgents, trooping from the hall amid jeers and shouts of "Get out, Republicans," attempted to snatch standards from delegations of loyalists. Uninformed officers broke up a half-dozen melees before order finally was restored and the Hooverites repaired to their meeting place on the front steps.

The bolt was precipitated when a motion was introduced demanding that only those delegations loyal to Governor Smith be seated. The motion was an anti-climax to the action of the state executive committee yesterday, when anti-Smith delegations from five counties were notified that they would not be seated in the convention. It has been "open season" on insurgents for two days.

Meeting apart from the regular Democratic group, the Hooverites elected former State Senator Thomas B. Love temporary chairman, named committees and listened to several addresses before adjourning the rump convention and leaving their future activities in the hands of an executive committee, headed by Alvin S. Moody of Houston.

Both Love and Colquitt addressed the bolters, telling them to go to their homes and "prepare for the fight." A set of resolutions adopted by the Hooverites branded the nomination of Governor Smith as an "unfortunate error" and condemned the "high-handed and lawless methods of the regular convention."

Voluntary retirement of the delegates opposed to the Democratic nominee left loyal forces free to elect officers, frame their platform and attend to routine business without prospect of further interruptions. Before adjourning its noon recess the regulars heard an address by Myron Blalock, temporary chairman, and appointed committees on resolutions and platform.

Barring a possible conflict between Governor Dan Moody and certain members of the platform committee over the inclusion of a prohibition plank in the platform, the wind-up of the regular convention promised to be tranquil.

Governor Moody announced he would seek to incorporate a plank endorsing the principles of prohibition, and it was known that several members of the committee who believe that any endorsement of prohibition by the convention would be looked upon as a reflection upon the candidacy of Governor Smith planned to fight such a plank.

Acting on recommendations of the permanent organization committee, the convention unanimously sanctioned appointment of W. A. Tarver of Corsicana as permanent chairman and approved also the following officers: Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, Bryan, vice chairman; Margis Neal, Carthage, secretary; C. C. Renfro, Dallas, and Ernest May, Fort Worth, assistant secretaries, and Ranger Captain Tom Hickman, Fort Worth, and John Davis and Pat O'Keefe, Dallas, sergeants-at-arms.

Escorted to the speaker's platform while a band in the convention hall struck up "The Sidewalks of New York," Tarver stepped before the loud speaker and launched into tribute to "two of the outstanding personalities in the Democratic party," Gov. Dan Moody of Texas and the party's standard bearer, Smith.

Prominent Brothers Fight
Among the prominent Democrats of the state who participated in the fistuffs on the convention floor during the tilt were Judge Charles A. Greenwood of Dallas and his brother, Judge Geo. Greenwood of Austin. Charles explained that he entered the fray when he saw someone holding his brother's head under his arm and pounding him in the face. Others who swung their fists in the convention were Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey, former State Senator V. A. Collins, H. Bascom Thomas, Stephen Puckney, W. J. Reid, Dayton Moses, and Pat O'Keefe.

At the height of the uproar which accompanied the bolt, when men were being knocked down and women roughly handled by the shouting struggling delegates, the band struck up "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You."

When the confusion was at its height, former Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey, was seen standing on a chair, attempting to wrest a banner from several anti-Smithites who attempted to carry it from the hall.

No One Seriously Hurt
Within five minutes there were a half-dozen fist fights in the Dallas section as uniformed policemen tried to restore order. No one was seriously injured in the melee, although blood flowed from several noses and there were a number of blacked eyes.

When order finally was restored and the anti-Smithites had left the hall, Chairman Wilcox introduced Myron Blalock, temporary chairman of the convention.

Former Senator Bailey then moved that the convention be purged of "Hoover Democrats." The motion was adopted unanimously.

After hearing addresses by several of their leaders, the anti-Smith delegates adjourned and left their future activities in the hands of the executive committee of the Anti-Al Smith Democratic party of Texas, headed by Alvin S. Moody of Houston.

Meet In Open Air
One of the principal speakers at the open air forum was former Governor Colquitt, whose remark precipitated the bolt from the regular convention.

Colquitt addressed the gathering as "The Democratic convention of Texas" and lauded the delegates for refusing to "wear the Tammany collar."

"That bunch inside has attempted to embezzle your political rights," Colquitt shouted. "Go to your homes and organize for the fight." He said that he would meet any man in the country in debate on the merits of the bolters' cause.

While the bolters were listening to addresses of their leaders, several delegates from the regular convention came outside to hear the proceedings.

CRUDGINGTON ASSAILS SMITH AND MAKES HIT

Amarillo Jurist Addresses Crowd of 300 at Memphis, Tenn., Saturday

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 10.—Judge J. W. Crudgington of Amarillo, district manager of the forces opposed to Governor Al Smith's candidacy in this section "set the woods on fire by his outspoken pronouncement" in an address delivered in Memphis Saturday afternoon on the courthouse lawn. The speaker was given a good hearing, there being about 300 persons in the audience.

Judge Crudgington was introduced by Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor of the First Methodist church. In the very outset of Judge Crudgington began "pouring it on" Governor Smith. "If Smith is elected to the presidency liquor traffic will become common," the speaker said. "He is a wet through and through and he now claims to be a dry. Smith uses liquor consistently and has always been in favor of liquor causes. His popularity was gained through Tammany Hall alone, as he started to work for that organization at $75 a month."

Senator Joe Robison of Arkansas, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee also received the flaming lash of the judge's ire. "Robison is a traitor to the Democratic party," Judge Crudgington contended, "because he is ashamed to face the prohibition issue in his campaign. He selector Little Rock, Ark., the wettest city in that state as his headquarters." As the speaker made this statement, a man in the audience said: "That is the truth, folks, for I live in Little Rock. It is the wettest city in the state."

Herbert Hoover was upheld by the Amarillo judge upon every issue, claiming that all of the bad things being said about him were falsehoods. He stated that Hoover, while living in London, would not even drink at banquets and dinners given in his honor, while on the other hand, Al Smith is a drinker. He further stated that he believes Hoover is the only man any broad minded man will vote for. He further said that he would stay out of the Democratic party rather than vote for Al Smith and a wet ticket, which statement was roundly applauded by the audience.

An invitation was extended by Rev. Jameson at the close of the meeting to those present to join the anti-Smith or Hoover Democrats and a large number responded.

ANTI-SMITH GROUP VICTORS IN CLASH

Wichita Falls, Sept. 8.—Members of the Wichita County Democratic Executive Committee opposed to Gov. Alfred E. Smith, as the Democratic presidential nominee, were victorious in their first clash with the loyal committeemen Saturday when Judge P. A. Martin granted a temporary injunction restraining Edgar Scarry, committee chairman, from interfering with J. W. Nicholson in his duties as committeeman in District 17.

The conflict arose when Nicholson and 14 other committeemen refused to pledge their support to the Democratic nominee. As a result of their disinclination to "toe the mark," Scarry had threatened to appoint substitute committeemen in each of the 15 districts.

Judge Martin held a majority of the committee did not have power under the law to remove from membership a duly elected precinct committeeman.

He further said that he had seen no statute providing such a pledge as Nicholson and 14 others had been asked to sign.

This dispute was brought to a climax when several of the recalcitrants appeared at committee meetings wearing Hoover buttons.

LET'S GET BUSY

An Editorial
INAUGURATION of train service on the newly constructed lines of the Fort Worth and Denver in the South Plains is scheduled for the early part of October. It is practically a month away, but it is not a bit too early for Fort Worth to begin preparation for its part in that celebration.

Fort Worth should send a special train for a tour over these lines and the trains should be made up of its most representative citizens in every line of business activity. Anything less will not be in keeping with the importance of the event, of the new territory opened by the construction of these lines, or Fort Worth's position with respect to them.

Fort Worth can not afford to overlook this territory. It can not afford to send a small delegation or to join with any other cities or town. It must have a large and thoroughly representative delegation of its own—of men who represent their own businesses and the City of Fort Worth and who know and have business deal ings with the men of the South Plains. They must take the time to make the trip, tour the new lines and visit the towns.

Some of the richest territory in Texas, that has suffered for the lack of a railroad outlet, will be brought into direct connection with Ft. Worth with the opening of these new lines. The possibilities of development are limited. The people regard Fort Worth as their natural market place. They fought for the Denver extensions in order that they might obtain a direct connection with Fort Worth rather than to be forced to haul and ship their products elsewhere. Whether Fort Worth profits to the full in the opening of this new territory, some other city is allowed to obtain the benefits, rests with Fort Worth.

We can not afford to be shortsighted. Let's get busy, organize a large delegation, get a special train to show these people that Fort Worth appreciate their friendly attitude, rejoice with them in the acquisition of railroad service and is prepared to serve their needs.

The time is not too much, if Fort Worth does the job as it should.

Herbert Hoover said in his acceptance speech exactly what he intended to do with regard to farm relief, if elected president. Farm leaders, with only a few exceptions, have commended his stand. What is the Hoover plan? Careful attention to the mechanics of marketing and distribution of agricultural products; adequate tariff protection for farmers as well as manufacturers; a Federal farm loan board equipped with authority and resources to meet farm problems as they may arise from time to time; frequent conferences with farm leaders for determining the best course to pursue. Gov. Smith promises, to be sure, that if elected he will call together farm experts and work out a remedy. The man who has never lived outside the City of New York, however, can hardly inspire the confidence of the farmers as one born on an Iowa farm, and who for many years has known agriculture and dealt with its problems.

WILL HAVE RABBIT RACE AT LUBBOCK FAIR
Lubbock, Sept. 11.—Rabbit races will be staged during the entire six days of the Panhandle South Plains Fair, Oct. 1 to 6 inclusive, directors of the fair association decided at a meeting Saturday.
The races will be one of the feature entertaining features of the fair and will be staged instead of football games this year.
Reports from the north and east where coursing meets are being held indicate that rabbit racing is literally "taking" the country and the fair association in an effort to live true to the purpose of the fair, that of offering the new, the novel, the popular, have decided to try the new sport out this year and see if it proves popular here.
"One big regret that we have," Dr. L. E. Barr, president of the fair association said after the meeting, "is that we will not have the ground to have our football games this year due to the large space that will have to be provided for the races."
About $450 in added money will be offered in addition to the entries that will be awarded to the dogs that win each round. The stakes and prizes are as follows. All age Gold Blood, $50; all age registered, $150; Futurity age registered, $150; and a stake of $150 for Saplings provided sufficient number of saplings are entered.
Entry blanks are being mailed out by A. B. Davis, manager of the fair and all dog owners are invited to write for blanks in case they do not receive same.
In addition to the rabbit racing, the Thearle Duffield Fire Works Company will offer a fire work's display each night, the Bacardie Trio, who offer clowning in perilous pranks, the Four Aerial Lorenzos, who perform dazzling feats skill and bravery on a 110-foot apparatus the highest in existence without a net below, Will Morris, the cycling comedian and other free acts will perform twice daily.
SANTA FE PLANS TO MAKE ORIENT STANDARD LINE
Engineers Are Inspecting Route; Make Line Good As Present System
Austin, Sept. 8.—Immediate steps will be taken by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe to bring the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient up to the physical and equipment standards of the Orient has increased enormously during the last few years, due largely to the oil developments in Upton, Crane and Reagan counties, and pipe line connections with the Yates field in Pecos county and the Hendrick field in Winkler county. Livestock shipments over the Orient during the last several months have been the heaviest known for many years. Several new towns have been created at different points on the line, and the influx of settlers and the establishment of new business enterprises have added to the freight traffic.

Activities of the industrial department of the Atchison will be extended to the territory served by the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient as soon as the proposed expansion program can be arranged, it is stated. Much of the agricultural development in the Panhandle and South Plains regions of Texas is due to the pioneering efforts of experts of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, and this work will be extended to the territory covered by the Orient. It is pointed out that several million acres of land, much of which is capable of agricultural development, lie adjacent to the Orient in Texas. While a large part of this wild land is in the dry belt of West Texas, there are many available sites for water storage reservoirs for irrigation projects.
Extensive beds of potash are located. It would shorten the rail ceasing government test wells having been drilled in Ector and other counties. It is estimated that commercial development of this under-ground wealth will be under way soon. Minerals of various kinds are known to exist in the more southwestern territory reached by the Orient. It is at Shafter, on the route of the proposed extension of the line between Alpine and Presidio, that one of the most productive silver mines in the United States is situated. It has a record of having produced approximately $22,000,000 in silver during the period of its operation. Its annual output is now around $500,000 in value. A Terlingua, in the Big Bend region, are several large quicksilver mines.
Engineers of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe recently made an inspection of the route between Alpine and Presidio; also of the old grade of the Orient which runs south from San Angelo one hundred miles toward Del Rio. The fact that the Mexico line of the Orient has just been completed from Chihuahua to Ojinaga, the latter town being situated on the Rio Grande just opposite Presidio, leads to the belief that it will not be a great while until the

COUNTY BRIEFS

McCOY

Sept. 10.—The school opened this morning with a large number present, there were also several patrons present. Miss Ilma Jackson is attending school at Lockney. Miss Elizabeth Thacker left for Starkey this morning, where she will teach school. Misses Thelma and Clara Smith and Miss Ima Nell Jackson, visited relatives in Ralls, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gamblin are moving to Floydada this week. We have very much to give them up. Miss Verna Nixon is attending school in Plainview. Bro. Burget of Starkey filled the appointment at the Methodist church Sunday, as Bro. Neely was attending the Epworth League conference. Bro. J. W. Dalton conducted the evening service.

ROSELAND

Sept. 11—Another rain fell Sunday night. The greater part of our community would like to see a "dry spell" now. School opened Monday morning with full attendance. A large number of the parents were present at the opening exercises.

Ida Barton, Viola King, Fay Marble Celia Mae Wicker, Glenn Hackney and Buster Whitlock entered Lockney High School Monday. These pupils will be missed by the Roseland school this year.

Mrs. P. M. Smitherman visited her parents at Floydada Friday. Grandpa Ford is reported ill at this time. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ford reports they have another granddaughter. Mrs. Chas. Flack of Plainview spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Sims.

Paul and Will Sims, P. M. Smitherman and sons, Ernest and Milfred, went to Flomot Monday, after penches.

Horace Marble, J. W. Lester and Misses Lola Barton and Velma Hudson, were Quitaque visitors Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Wilson of Blum, Texas, and Mr. J. C. Wilson and family visited the Carlsbad Cavern last week and a report a great time. Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Wilson have been visiting their sons, J. C. and R. V. Wilson, the past week.

MAYVIEW

Sept. 10.—Every one is enjoying the beautiful weather we are now having. Most every one are making use of it by sowing wheat.

Mayview school opened this morning with a fairly good attendance, more are expected in the near future. Misses Annie McNeill, Sarah Davis and Grace Readhimer, entered High school at Floydada Monday, for the coming year.

The mass meeting of the Newlan and Mayview communities for the purpose of discussing consolidation of the two school districts was well attended Monday night. However, they came to no conclusion on the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith spent last week in Canyon attending the Teacher's Institute held at that place.

Several from this place attended preaching at Newlan and Joe Bailey Sunday and Sunday night.

There was no B. Y. P. U. at this place Sunday night, as most every one went to preaching at other places.

Mrs. T. J. Campbell entertained her Sunday School class at Roaring Springs Friday night. All report a most pleasant time.

ANTELOPE

Sept. 10.—School started here this morning, a large crowd was present, consisting of children and parents. The parents are taking more interest in their children this year than they have in the past.

Mrs. Suddith and daughters from New Mexico, are visiting their sister, Mrs. R. S. Moore.

Mr. John Aston, P. H. Thomas and Roy Caplinger, have gone to Littlefield on a business trip.

Miss Marguerite Aston has left for Spur, where she will attend school.

Mr. Bill Brown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wisdom.

Misses Donna Mae and Marguerite Aston spent last week with Miss Thelma Cross up at Lockney.

Mr. Stokes Campbell and Loyd Reidhamer spent Sunday with Miss Lora Belle White.

The Baptist meeting closed here Sunday night. We had several visitors with us from Mayview.

School time usually brings cotton picking time, so I guess it won't be long now.

CHURCHES

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Rev. M. M. Beavers, Presiding Elder of the Plainview District, will preach at Lone Star Friday afternoon at three o'clock; at Sunset, Friday night; at Aiken Saturday morning at eleven o'clock, after which the ladies of Aiken will serve dinner to those present. After dinner the presiding elder will administer the Lord's Supper and hold the 4th quarterly conference. There will also be preaching at night at Aiken. You are cordially invited to attend all these services.

J. N. S. WEBB, Pastor.

With the Churches

The Lord has wonderfully blessed us in our revival meetings—that we held for Rev. Green B. Patterson on the Floydada Circuit, at Fairview, there were 18 accessions to the Methodist church—most of them on profession of faith and baptism. Rev. Lance Webb did part of the preaching and had charge of the music.

We have just closed a very successful revival at Aiken. Rev. J. B. McReynolds and Rev. Lance Webb did the preaching. The last mentioned had charge of the music and young people's meetings. Misses Rutherford, McReynolds, and Edith Webb had charge of the Juniors; and the "old folk" had separate services for ladies and gentlemen. These four groups of prayer meetings, together, had as high as 160 in attendance.

Large crowds attended the preaching services. The church is wonderfully revived. However, there were only two conversions, and two reclamations—who made public profession.

Preaching at Aiken Sunday, at 11 o'clock, League services at the usual hour and preaching at night.

We give God all the glory.

Fraternally,

J. N. S. WEBB, Pastor.

T. E. L. Class Meet In Business and Social Meeting

The T. E. L. Class met with Mrs. Roy Turner last Friday afternoon for their regular business and social meeting, Mrs. Mitchell being joint hostess.

After the business was all transacted the meeting was turned to the hostesses, who entertained with some real interesting games and contests.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served to 16 guests.—Reporter.

FOUR ARE KILLED BY ACCIDENTS IN NORTHWEST TEXAS

Wichita Falls, Tex., Sept. 10.—The death of Luther Clark, 16, of Bowie, by drowning and that of Henry Pimberton, 7, of Bowie, in a fall from a horse brought the number of deaths by accidents in Northwest Texas over the week-end to four.

H. W. Pyle, 68, was fatally burned when fire destroyed the residence of T. W. Allen here Saturday night and Haskell Neisher, 12, of Vernon, was fatally injured when struck by an automobile yesterday.

AN ORDINANCE

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Lockney, Texas:

Section 1: That each and every property owner in said city is hereby required to number his building with the proper size number, the material to be either metal or glass in accordance with the Philadelphia System of numbering houses.

Section 2: That any property owner who fails to comply with the requirements of section one of this ordinance within thirty days from the date of publication of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than one dollar or more than two dollars. And anyone failing for additional thirty days to comply with said section one shall upon conviction be fined not less than $2 nor more than ten dollars for each offence.

Section 3: The plan for numbering for the City of Lockney, Texas, is the Philadelphia System of one hundred each block with a number determined for every thirty feet of street frontage, regardless of the size or shape of lots.

Section 4: Main Street is the base for all streets running north and south, Locust street is the base for all streets running east and west.

Section 5: Even numbers will be found on the right and odd numbers at the left from the different bases on a respective streets and avenues.

Passed and approved this 26th day of March, A. D. 1928.

"I GUESS I'll have to ask you Kitchen Clubbers to come back and make my kitchen ugly," laughed Mrs. Adams, whose kitchen had been the subject for discussion several weeks before. "You've made it so attractive that not only my daughter but half a dozen other girls want to do their entertaining there."

Mrs. Adams was one of the thousands of mothers who find themselves having to compete with the movies, drug stores and the streets for their children's interest. She had met the situation fairly and frankly, realizing that she couldn't force her children to enjoy staying at home, even if she made them stay there. If home was to compete with outside interests, it must be more attractive. That was that!

When Mrs. Adams was a girl and Mr. Adams was coming to see her, an evening sitting on the sofa with him was thrill enough. But her girl scorned that kind of evening. She had to be doing something. And Mrs. Adams admitted to herself with a faint, reminiscent blush, that probably her daughter's idea of entertainment was the more wholesome of the two.

Mrs. Adams got her solution to the problem one rainy evening when she poked her head in the living-room door and announced that she would make raisin-nut fudge if she could find someone to seed raisins and shell nuts. Boredom vanished. Aprons went on. One couple made a great to-do over the raisins. The other couple shelled the nuts in not more than twice the time Mrs. Adams would have used. The candy was good, and the party ended at a late hour in the kitchen.

At the next meeting of the Club Mrs. Adams asked for a kitchen color scheme that would look sophisticated and wouldn't show dirt too much! Nancy's notebook shows what she got.

Cocoa

Mrs. Adams says her family refused to drink cocoa until she found this recipe for it, which makes a richer drink:

- 3 tablespoons cocoa
3 tablespoons sugar
3 cups milk
2/5 cup water
Pinch of salt
Pinch of soda

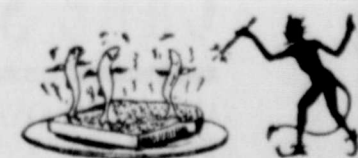

Boil together all ingredients except milk. Then add milk and bring to boiling point, but do not boil. Serve at once.

LEAVES FROM NANCY'S KITCHEN CLUB NOTEBOOK

Mrs. Adams asked us for a "swanky" color scheme and, believe me, she got it! We decided on a floor of midnight blue and white tiled tile; washable oil cloth walls, dark blue on a cream background, up to shoulder height; above that, deep cream washable paint walls. Table, cabinet, cupboards, refrigerator, white, stenciled in dark blue. Oil range, white porcelain enamel. Window seat covered with dark blue, white and orange cretonne. Cushions covered in solid orange. White curtains stenciled in orange. Midnight blue and orange braided rugs on the floor. Mrs. Adams got four rubberized cloth aprons in blue, white and orange for her daughter's friends to use.

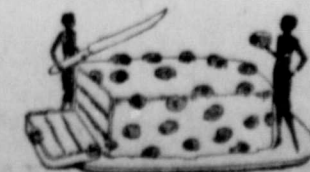

Midnight Dishes—Devised Sardines

Cover any amount of sardines desired with canned tomato soup. Cook for five or ten minutes. Serve on toast.

Midnight Dishes—Sandwich Loaf

Take a loaf of day-old bread. Slice off all crusts, making as square a loaf as possible. Slice lengthwise of loaf, full length of loaf, from bottom to top, leaving the bread in layers. Spread on bottom layer a filling of stuffed olives chopped and mixed with mayonnaise. Put on second layer. Spread with cream cheese-and-nut mixture. Put on other layers, alternating the fillings. When loaf is complete, "ice" with cream cheese and garnish with slices of olive. To serve, slice as you would ordinary loaf of bread. This makes a delicious and most decorative dish for luncheons and midnight parties.
