Paved Highway Being Opened in Foard

Pavement on Lee Highway Across Foard County Will Be Opened for Travel May 9th

Crowell, May 7.—With the opening of the pavement between Crowell and Vernon, Friday, May 9th, Lockney people will have over forty-five miles of concrete pavement to ride on in driving to Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, and other points, than they have had heretofore.

Pavement from the Motley county line to Paducah is already open and it is expected that contracts for pavement between Crowell and Paducah will be let within a short time.

After reaching Crowell travelers from the Plains will now have a hard surfaced road to most every major point in Texas. From Crowell it will then be possible to drive even to Brownsville without touching a dirt road.

A celebration to commemorate the opening of the pavement between Crowell and Vernon will be held in Crowell Friday, beginning at 4 p. m. and auto caravans from Wichita Falls, Electra, Vernon, and other cities will be here to take part in the program along with representatives from various other places on the Lee Highway.

In less than a year pavement on the Lee Highway, Highway 28 in Texas, has taken place in Wilbarger, Foard, and Cottle counties, and preliminary work toward paving has taken place in Motley and Hale counties. Floyd county is now the only gap in one of the most extensive highway development programs in Texas.

With the completion of the present paving program on Highway 28 the first paved highway from all central points of Texas to the Plains will be completed and Highway 28 should prove to be the major route for travel to the Plains. In the past a large part of this traffic has gone on the southern route by way of Breckenridge, Stamford, Spur, and Lubbock. Highway 28 now affords a much better route for Plains travel than any other. Strong competition for the Plains traffic in the past has also been offered by routes north of Highway 28.

As a result of the paving program on Highway 28, this route is considerably shorter than it has been heretofore and when the grading work in Motley county is completed the only square turn on the entire route from Plainview to Vernon, a distance of 170 miles, will be in Floyd county. There were 28 square turns between Crowell and Vernon before the pavement was completed and now there is not a one. The largest curve between Crowell and Vernon is only five degrees and about the same can be said of the new grades in the other counties.

The distance between Crowell and Vernon has been cut around five miles and about the same distance has been cut between Paducah and Crowell. Considerable mileage has been cut by the new grades in the other counties also.

DR. C. D. HENRY WITH PLAINVIEW SANITARIUM NOW

Plainview, May 4.—Dr. C. D. Henry, recently of Lockney, has been added to the staff of the Plainview Sanitarium, Dr. E. O. Nichols, chief surgeon, announced yesterday. Dr. Henry will have charge of diagnosis and laboratory work.

The last two years he has engaged in general practice at Lockney. He finished his internship, at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, two years ago. His wife, Dr. Mary Henry is moving to Plainview also, and will have an office in the Skaggs building and will engage in a general practice.

The sanitarium staff is composed of Dr. Nichols, Dr. J. H. Hansen, Dr. T. G. Eses, and Dr. Henry.

LITTLEFIELD HAS POPULATION OF 3,218

The town of Littlefield has a population of 3,218, according to a preliminary count of the 1930 census, as announced by O. M. Unger, district census supervisor.

Population of the town was not shown separately in the 1920 census. Littlefield is one of the young towns of the Plains that have shown sensational growth in the last few years. It is the center of a large and rich agricultural section which a few years ago was grazing land or large ranches.

Four new skyscrapers are to be added to the Dallas skyline during 1930—the 25-story National Building, the 18-story annex to the Republic National Bank, the 18-story Dallas Power & Light building, and the 22-story Tower Petroleum Building. The four structures will cost around $5,000,000.

HAIL CAUSES HEAVY LOSS IN SEVERAL PLACES

All Skylights in O'Donnell Broken Winds Bring Damage

O'Donnell, Lynn Co., Texas, May 3.—The most terrific hailstorm in the history of this section visited here Friday night, doing thousands of dollars damage to buildings, live stock, and orchards. Hailstones as large as baseballs were numerous, broke every building skylight in town and shattered practically all windows facing north. Several residences and barns were damaged by high winds in several sections in Lynn and Dawson counties.

A small tornado passed across the north end of O'Donnell, just before the hailstorm. The Edwards gin was unroofed and other minor damage done. Outbuildings were badly torn up at the W. L. Palmer farm, north-west of town. Approximately two inches of moisture fell, which will enable farmers to begin planting. Few farmers had begun planting and they probably have to replant after the beating and washing rain.

Schoolhouse Demolished

Lamesa, Texas, May 3.—A storm at Randle, northeast of Lamesa, Friday night demolished the schoolhouse there. The damage is estimated at $2,500 by W. T. Webb, county school superintendent.

Live Stock Killed

Sweetwater, May 3.—Some live stock and poultry were reported killed in a rain, hail and windstorm that swept this area Friday night. Hail was reported to have drifted to a depth of from four to fifteen feet west of here.

One Third of Texas Dairy Cows Loafing

Weed Out Drones Says State Dairy Chairman: Give Producers A Chance

Fort Worth, May 8.—Two thirds of the dairy cows in Texas should produce the state's total of milk and butter, according to J. W. Ridgeway, Texas chairman of the National Dairy Council.

"Replace all non profitable cows, now boarding on Texas farms with those who pay their way with milk and butter, and you can cut down the numbers in the herds," Mr. Ridgeway advised the dairy farmers of the state in a recent official bulletin.

The remainder of the herds that are high producing, thoroughbred cattle should be fed with more scientific attention to production, bred only to high grade bulls, and the herds thus weeded out until the farmer would no longer be paying board for scrubs in his herd, the farmer chairman says.

"If only calves from high producing cows were raised, and these were fed the proper mixture to increase their production, and all diseased cows and descendants of diseased cows were eliminated from the herds, we would soon see increased production with a fewer number of cows. The old range cow is still having her influence on the Texas dairy herd, and must be weeded out for the modern cow of a different breed and for a different purpose. The old pioneer was valuable in her day but her day is past."

The condition of too many cows for the amount of dairy products markets is found not only in Texas but thru out the United States. According to the National Dairy Council, the entire country is fed with about 22,500,000 cows. And the amount of dairy products from these cows could be obtained just as well from about 14,000,000 cows if the herds were properly thinned out.

"The American industry cannot look to foreign markets to absorb surplus American dairy products. The world is sufficiently well supplied by other countries now," the National Council has declared.

"Those nations which do not use dairy products as an important part of their diet are so low in the economic scale as to leave them out of the picture for a good many years," according to Mr. Ridgeway. A balance between production and consumption must therefore be adjusted within our own boundaries.

"If the farmer will help himself the problem will be solved. He must learn to consume his own products and to work out his herd to the highest degree of efficiency, and then he can look to others of the state and country to help him in his efforts to create sufficient home markets for all of his production," Mr. Ridgeway said.

Mesdames Tom Stewart, N. E. Groer, Deck Wells, Gordon Crocker, Bryan Wells, Miss Almira McComas, and Mr. Bert Wells attended the Passion Play in Lubbock, Saturday.

Loud Speaker to Bring Good Will Message

Oklahoma City Trippers to Broadcast Message of Friendliness to Entire City on Visit

A loud speaker—a mechanical one in addition to several of the human kind—will be a feature of the 29th annual Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce Goodwill Tour train which will visit Lockney, Thursday, May 15th at 8:33 A. M. local Chamber of Commerce officials have been advised by M. E. O'Neil, tour chairman.

It is definitely assured that Governor Holloway of Oklahoma and other state and city officials will accompany the party of 150 Oklahoma City business men, O'Neil said.

"Two baggage cars will be filled with souvenirs for distribution to school children and some for grown-ups too," O'Neil said. "There will be two diners on the train and local city and Chamber of Commerce officials will be the guests of the Oklahoma City group at dinner at each of the five night stops, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Lubbock, Altus and Clinton.

"The loud speaker will enable speakers to make themselves heard for several blocks and will permit speaking from the train where time or weather may prevent the trippers from going to a meeting place at a distance from the depot. It is being furnished by the Western Electric Co. and is guaranteed to call all straying trippers back to the train before leaving time—even should some of them happen to be in jail."

"There will be many of the party who have nothing to sell. They are coming into southwest Oklahoma and northwest Texas because they realize this entire territory comprises a vast empire of which Oklahoma City, like all the cities along the route of the tour, is a part. They want to become better acquainted with those in all communities in this empire that all may work together to better advantage in developing it as a whole."

Rotary Elects New Directors

At the meeting of the Rotary club last Friday, R. E. Patterson and J. H. Hoblaus, retiring president and secretary of the Rotary club, and Burton Thornton and Arleigh Cooper were selected as directors for the Lockney Rotary Club for the ensuing year, which begins on July 1st. These gentlemen, with Arthur Barker, president, Ray Wall, vice president, and Custer Blank, secretary, will constitute the board of directors for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Ridings and two children have moved to Lockney from Byars, Texas, and will make their home in the future. They are living in one of the Osborne houses, formerly occupied by Ivy Thomas, in the east part of town. Mr. Ridings has bought two sections of land in the Cedar Hill community, formerly known as the Buford place, and will live in Lockney and see after his farm holdings near Cedar Hill.

WOMAN HELD AT LAMESA IN MURDER PROBE

No Charges Filed; Believed Man Wanted for Fatal Hijacking Was There

Lamesa, May 5.—Emmell Mayhall of Breckenridge is being held here without charges in the city jail following her return Sunday night from Ranger where she was apprehended following a gun duel between a Ranger officer and a person believed to be F. M. McKee, wanted in connection with the slaying of W. R. Billingsley, Sparenberg merchant.

She was returned here by Deputy Sheriffs A. M. Bennett and Granville Wyatt, who made a rush trip to Ranger when they heard the lone bandit killer had been there. In Ranger they aided in the search for McKee, but were unsuccessful. McKee is believed to have stolen an automobile in Ranger early Sunday morning and left there going north. Mrs. Mayhall stated that she was forced to accompany McKee all during the time she was with him. Her 9-year-old daughter was turned over to Mrs. Mayhall's parents Sunday afternoon at Ranger. The $50 reward for McKee, who is said to have a criminal record in Oklahoma, is still standing.

Northside Singers Elect Officers

Roseland Selected for Next Convention, Which Will Be Held On October 5th

At the meeting of the North Side Singing Convention held at South Plains last Sunday, Walter Wood, of the South Plains community, was elected president for the ensuing year, to succeed G. C. Hilburn, who served the past year. Other officers were F. S. Byars, re-elected vice president and Reuben Fagan re-elected secretary.

Roseland was selected for the next meeting place of the convention, and the date set for the convention was the first Sunday in October, which will be the 5th day of that month.

There was an extra large crowd present at the convention, there being singers present from Flomot, Silverton, and nearly every community in Floyd county, and a big day was spent in singing. Most of the people brought their lunch and spent the entire day at the convention.

LOSES HAND AND FOOT AS SHOTGUN DISCHARGES TWICE

Plainview, May 5.—W. O. Teague, aged 48, lost his left hand and his left foot, when an automatic shotgun he was using to hunt rabbits at his home 16th and Quincy Streets accidentally discharged twice at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The members were removed at the Plainview Sanitarium where he was rushed by neighbors.

It is believed the accident occurred as he climbed through the garden fence, about 75 yards from the house. No one saw the accident, but Mrs. Fred Pfeiffer, who lives across the street from the Teague home, saw him a moment later. He was crawling on his knees, holding the injured hand up. Mrs. Pfeiffer ran over and notified Mrs. Teague, who was in the kitchen preparing breakfast. Mrs. Pfeiffer obtained some tea towels and tied them around the arm and leg to prevent loss of blood, and summoned a doctor.

Mr. Pfeiffer, John McKallip, and Mr. Shepard, neighbors, placed the injured man in an automobile and took him to the sanitarium. He was receiving treatment there within a few minutes after the accident occurred.

$9,000,000 IN HIGHWAY FUND ACCORDING TO REPORT

Austin, May 3.—Although contract awards by the Highway Commission have been heavy this year, the department on April 1 had cash balance of more than $9,000,000, it was revealed in a State Treasury report Saturday. At the commission meeting a week ago contracts totaled more than $3,000,000. When the regular session of the Forty-first Legislature was in session and measures affecting the department arose, it was disclosed at the time the cash balance was $16,000,000.

The fund has been accumulating under the 4-cent gasoline and registration taxes, the latter being reduced about one-half but making no extensive dent in the total funds because of the increased gasoline tax.

The figures as announced Saturday showed a balance of $9,812,000, against which are outstanding warrants of about $729,000. The May statement, as well as those for all summer months, will show a healthy gain because of increased travel and gasoline consumption.

The figures were regarded here as having a bearing on the proposed $350,000,000 state bond issue for highways.

Another significant announcement that bears even more directly upon proposed special taxes in order to raise revenues was to the effect that the net cash balance in the general revenue fund was $3,912,643 on April 1st.

"But during May," R. B. Harde-man of the Comptroller's Department said, "we will receive in gross receipts tax alone $1,122,794, so the fund will go to more than $4,000,000. At present the general revenue statement shows a balance of $4,000,000 but against it must be figured outstanding warrants of $1,695,000, leaving the net balance in excess of $2,300,000. There is no longer a deficit and probably will be none."

The Automatic Tax Board, consisting of the Governor, Comptroller, and Treasurer, meet in July to fix the ad valorem or property tax rate for the coming year, this now standing at 30 cents on the $100 valuation, 3 cents increase over that of last year. The 1928 property tax rate was fixed at 22 cents and boosted to 30 for the 1929, the rate now prevailing.

DEADWOOD DICK' FAMOUS OLD WEST CHARACTER, DIES

Deadwood, S. D., May 5.—Deadwood Dick, 83, pony express rider, Indian fighter, and one of the last characters of the old west, died at St. Joseph's hospital here today.

Hero of countless exploits of the Black Hills gold rush, Deadwood Dick, whose real name was Richard W. Clarke, was a familiar figure in fact and fiction of the history-making period of the early days, claiming the acquaintanceship of Wild Bill Hickok, Buffalo Bill, Captain Jack Crawford, "Poker Alice" Tubbs, and "Calamity Jane."

REWARD IS OFFERED FOR DAWSON BANDIT-KILLER

Lamesa, May 3.—J. C. Billingsley, brother of W. R. Billingsley of Sparenberg who was wounded fatally by a lone bandit Thursday night, has offered a reward of $200 for information leading to arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Very few clues were left by the masked bandit who forced Jack Bryce, half owner of a filling station there, and his mother to stick up their hands at the point of a gun. Officers of this county are of the belief that the killer is hidden somewhere in the breaks east of Dawson county. The slain man died from three bullet wounds he received when he attempted to stop the bandit.

Information was received by the sheriff's office here Saturday morning that a young man and a woman and a little girl stopped over at a farm house Thursday night. The man was said to have been bruised badly about the face and arms. He explained the face wounds with the story of an automobile wreck. He was said to have borrowed gasoline from the farmer and drove off into the rough country in Borden county. A posse followed and searched for him all during Friday.

Description of the bandit has led Lamesa officers to believe that he was the same person who committed robberies in Breckenridge, Abilene, and Anson. He is said to be driving a small roadster and is accompanied by a large woman and a little girl.

Billingsley's funeral will be held Sunday after relatives here postponed interment to allow distant relatives to attend.

TO BUILD 700 MILES OF GAS LINES IN WEST TEXAS

Seven hundred miles of gas lines, providing gas for nearly every town in that section, will be built by the South Plains Pipe Line Co., which has piped twenty-six towns for gas since 1927. Nine towns will be served from lines going out of Lubbock and thirteen from lines going out of Canyon.

The Consumers Natural Gas & Power Co. is building a 37-mile 8-inch main to connect with the South Plains company's line to supply Big Spring direct from the Panhandle field.

Plateau Singing Convention News

Fl. Sumner entertained the Plateau Singers of De Baca County, New Mexico, Sunday, May 5th. Judge M. B. Keator, member of the Advisory Board from Tucumcari was present and made a good speech and announced that Lockney, Texas, would entertain the Annual Convention on June 14th and 15th. President Paul Drake manifested a great interest in the work, the result, a great convention. Those present were especially pleased with the work of the Violin Quintet. Superintendent Rose and wife were also a great help to the convention. Over half of the year's finance was raised at the meeting. Those present of the Plateau organization included Secretary, Miss Evelyn Taylor and her sister, Miss Margaret. A good dinner was served and President Taylor expressed a sincere appreciation for the efforts put forth by the wonderful singers of the county.

A bison, carved out of Pecos River wood by Mr. King, a high school student of Fort Sumner and painted in orange and black, the high school's colors was presented to President Taylor in behalf of the singers of De Baca county. Mr. Taylor stated that such a demonstration made him feel as if his work with the Plateau organization had not been entirely unnoticed.

Ford, north of Hereford, will entertain the Plateau Singers of Deaf Smith on Sunday, May 11th. Great preparations are being made; the fatted lamb has been killed, a tabernacle built and every thing is in readiness for a great day.

Briscoe county entertains on May 18th. Learn P. Pearls No. 135. Remember the annual convention at Lockney.

RAISE IN WATER RATES

On the first of the month all patrons of the city waterworks were much surprised to find, upon receiving their water statements, that the water rate had been raised 50%, or from 10c per thousand gallons to 15c per thousand gallons, without the users having been previously notified of the raise, and given a chance to appear before the council and protest the raise, if they so desired. It was another case of going ahead and doing a thing without giving the people any consideration in the matter. For more than two years the water rate in Lockney has been 10c per thousand gallons, and if the water works showed a deficit, it has not been made public, and we don't believe that there is any reason why the water rates is not taking care of running expenses of the water works at this time. The water works are covered by a bond issue, upon which the taxpayers of the city are creating a sinking fund and paying the interest each year, and all that is collected from water rents is supposed to go for the maintaining of the system, and not for retiring the bonds and paying interest, therefore, if the rate was high enough to pay the running expense of the water system for the past several years, we see no reason why it is necessary to raise the rate at this time. Whether it was necessary to raise the rate or not, the users of water in the city should have been notified of the raise, and given an opportunity to protest the raise if they so desired, instead of going ahead and raising the rate and letting those who were buying the water figure out the raise the best way they could. The city government is supposed to be governed by the people who support it, the property tax payers of the community, and all matters pertaining to operating city property, buying and selling of city resources, bond issues, warrant issues, expenditures of large sums of money, etc., should be submitted to the people before any definite action is taken. The money that is spent by the city council is not the city council members' money, but the money of the people who own real property in the corporate limits of the town, and these people should be given due consideration in all expenditures of the city funds, the raising of rates for use of city owned property. If the city is correct in asking for funds to build or maintain any certain department, or to build other city improvements, if the question is properly placed before the property owners of the town, it is very seldom that it will meet with defeat, but to force things upon the property owners without their consent, is a horse of a different color and sooner or later it will rebound with a kick that will renovate the entire city government establishment. It is better to let the people who pay the bills know what it is all about than to let them find it out the best way they can. So far the city has not lived up to the law regarding the auditing of the books, the publishing of their financial statements, etc. The people will feel better about the proposition when they know how things really stand in Lockney, than they will if the affairs of the city are kept a secret.

Dry Land Fishing Has Begun

You can take a slant at the fellows standing around on the streets now, and start a hot argument on short notice, and hear some of the biggest and most unreasonable stories you ever heard, by just casually remarking that it is about time to go on a fishing trip. It is funny how many people talk about going fishing and how few really go fishing now days. The fact is, a great many of them do all their fishing on dry land, talking about the time "when I was a boy down in the sticks, and the creek run back of our farm, I sure did catch the fish, and I don't mean maybe." It's great to recall the days of youth, and think of the time when the people had time to spend on the bank of a creek, where they could fish, hunt and could stay several days or weeks at a time and take life easy—but that day is gone forever with most of us, as in this day and time we are all like alarm clocks, are clicking just as fast as we can, and never have time to stop, rest or feel content about anything—we are living in too big a hurry, and before we know it we will all be worn out and dead before the hair on our head begins to turn grey. Take a week or two off this summer and go fishing it will do you good, and it won't cost as much as to stay at home and work.

Just On More Week—Then Vacation
Give kids, it is a grand and glorious feeling—just one more week and that "old school marm" won't be your boss no more for a while at least. All the kids are glad to see the school term close; a few of them are glad to see it open again in the fall, but now is the time they are all looking forward to the vacation period and their hearts are happy and full of joy. Take time to go on an outing with your children for a few days this summer, let them see something that is new to them, and at the same time make their vacation enjoyable by having a little vacation of your own. They have been cooped up for nine months, and so have their parents, and both children and parents need a little relaxation and recreation, and the summer time, looking at creeks, rivers, caves, and other things, is the best time of the year. After a good vacation both the parent and the children are in better shape to carry on.

Wheat Heading

The wheat crops over the Plains country has begun to put on the grain, since the recent rains, and in most sections, or where the rains have fallen, the wheat is looking good and promises a very fair crop. The rains have been spotted so far this year, and a good general rain is needed, but a larger portion of the country has received sufficient moisture to make a very fair wheat crop, and put the land in good shape for planting the cotton and row crops.

Will Begin Getting Down to Business

The political pot is beginning to boil, and the candidates for governor of Texas will have all made their opening speeches within the next few days. There are just fifteen in the race at this time. A great many people are awaiting the action of the Supreme court in the Tom Love case, to see whether there will be two tickets in the field. If Love is barred from the Democratic primary, there will be the lightest vote in the primary that has been polled for many years, and there will be the biggest vote in the general election next November that was ever polled in Texas, and we are gambling that Love will win out. If his name is placed on the primary ticket, then we believe that the race for Governor will lay between Earle B. Mayfield and Jim Ferguson, as the placing of Love's name on the ballot will practically eliminate him from the race, but refusal to allow Love's name on the ticket will elect him governor of Texas. It seems like every near-prominent politician in Texas is trying to run for governor this year, but when the first primary is over, we believe, Earle Mayfield will be the one who will have to clean-up on the Fergusons again Pa or Ma, we don't know which, but it is all in the family any way, and Earle can certainly do the job.

TEXAS THOUGHT

BY WAYE

PUBLICITY at one and the same time is the most potent influence in modern day life and the most feared. Industry, commerce, development of resources have been made possible by means of well ordered propaganda. Cities have been built and vast states opened up because their stories have been told. On the other hand evil practices have been broken up and graft and corruption stopped because those engaged in them have feared the power of public knowledge. Texas now faces one of the most crucial periods in its history. It is fast emerging from the status of an agricultural and rural state and is taking its place at one of the leaders in commerce and industry. Agriculture always will be a potent factor to the state, but like industry and commerce must make the advances that modern progress demands. At this stage of the state's progress well ordered publicity for the state, its resources and advantages, will furnish immeasurable aid in state development.

COMPLETION of the 1930 census will place Texas in a favorable light. The enumeration will disclose that the state has many cities approaching the quarter million size and a score of other sizable urban communities. The census also will disclose that enough of the state's rural population has remained on the farms to insure pre-eminence in things agricultural. A brighter day is dawning.

TEXAS VOTERS this year must take steps to curb the growth of influence and lines of political thinking that are threatening to undermine the very foundations of popular governmental control. More enters into the political question than the mere personalities of the candidates.

Dan Moody brazenly stepped forward in his message to the regular session of the Forty-first legislature as a spokesman for the anti-popular interests. He suggested to the legislative bodies in joint session that the machinery of the state should be so changed that only three state officers shall be elective. He suggested the election of a governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general. All other state officers, he declared, should be appointive.

MOODY may not carry these suggestions before the voters of Texas, but the seed of opposition to popular control has been sown. It has found root in the minds of would-be political thinkers who will attempt to put these principles into execution should they be elected to office. Only careful scrutiny of the platforms of every candidate offering for office can keep some of those espousing these undemocratic ideas from being elected.

That there is a concerted movement to disfranchise Texas voters from participation in the election of many of their officials is borne out by the fact that already a special school law has been enacted for one county whereby the county superintendent's office is made appointive, and is filled by the county trustees. In that county the office is now filled by a man who at the time of his appointment was a non-resident and who does not now represent the popular choice of the people.

MORE POPULAR control instead of less responsibility to the public would be the demand of Texas voters at this year's elections. The present operation of the highway department is a classic example of what lack of responsibility to the public will promote. The department is fast becoming a government within a government and last year attempted to foist a $300,000,000 bond issue on the taxpayers of the state. Even without the proceeds of a bond issue it superfluous annually the spending of more money than all other departments of the state; and since it recognizes no popular responsibility it cares little for what the public thinks.

Popular election of these officials would do much toward placing responsibility upon the highway commissioners, for if they were elected officials they would be held responsible to the electorate.

POPULAR election of highway commissioners is being advocated by Earle B. Mayfield, former U. S. Senator and now candidate for governor. His platform contains a clear and concise statement voicing his belief in popular control over all interests affecting the public good. The document will bear close study and should receive the thought of Texas voters who desire to cast their ballots intelligently in the forthcoming elections. Mayfield will open his campaign Saturday in Winnisboro. And it's going to be a grand political melee that Texas has this year. What with Mayfield, Ferguson, Love, Hatcher, Senter, Young, Small, and a dozen or so others in the race, Texas voters have a big problem on their hands.

HELPING TO BUILD TEXAS

With one of the very few 800-acre "cottonless" farms in the black land section of Texas, M. D. Jones, near Sanger, will experiment with irrigation for alfalfa growing in some rich valley land. On the entire 800 acres only foodstuffs are grown, 150 acres of sweet clover being a major crop with registered sheep, cattle and hogs to consume the feed. A. G. Selman of Panola County received gross revenue of $1,100 from three acres of Kentucky Wonder pole beans and three acres of Irish potatoes. He dammed a branch running through his place and used it to irrigate the six acres, net profit of which, after paying the owner $3 a day for his labor and taking care of other expenses, averaged $128.

The $2,500,000 addition to the power plant of the Dallas Power & Light Co. was given former opening April 15 when city officials and business men were guests at a luncheon and visit to the plant. The station is the largest in Texas and the largest supplying a single city, the addition giving it a total generating capacity of 110,000 horsepower.

Home Demonstration and 4-H Club News

Sand Hill Home Demonstration Club Entertained by Irick Club

April 25, at 1:30 p. m., twelve Sand Hill Home Demonstration club women were delightfully entertained by the Irick Home Demonstration Club with Mrs. Poage as hostess at her home.

A good representation of their club were present and it was a joy to be with them for a social hour and then the fun began with games to sharpen our wit, to make some of us put on our studying caps, and then to show our physical alertness.

Reading by Miss Opal Ashby was enjoyed. Such a varied program left all of us stirred mind and body and realizing club life is full of pep.

Nothing was left undone towards convincing us that we were being thoroughly entertained.

After the games delicious banana ice cream tipped with cherries and angel food cake were served to all.

Lovely plate favors carrying a cheerful greeting to each of us.

The threatening weather kept some of our members from going. Those going were: Mesdames Jake Greer, Jim Holmes, John Phillips, M. B. Holmes, W. M. Knight, L. V. Ray, W. M. Jeter, A. R. Hanna, Henry Ball-man, W. H. Pope, Jake Brock, and W. E. Miller.

Subject: "The Foundation Garment." This was a call meeting that we might get the program we missed on April 16.

There were 15 members, 3 visitors, and one new member present and every one appreciated the very instructive lesson on type and color, the alteration of commercial patterns, and making of foundation garment given by Miss Strange.

Nineteen of our 23 members attended the Short course at Canyon and felt that the trip was well worth while. The general remark being, "Wasn't it a fine day."

Our next meeting will be on May 7, at 2:30 p. m., at the club room with Mrs. H. O. Shurbet assisted by Mrs. Hilary Shurbet as hostess.

Subject: "Children of the Bible." Roll Call—Name a child of the Bible.

Entertains With Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Crager and Mr. and Mrs. Warner Reid entertained with a bridge party on Friday night, May 2nd. Mrs. Roscoe Snyder won high score prize while Mr. Snyder did equally as well and won high prize for the men. Pink roses and sweet peas were used in decorating.

A salad course was served to Messrs. and Mesdames Snyder, Fay Guthrie, McAdam, Theo Griffith, Watt Griffith, Henry, Barker, and John Broyles.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Archie Crager and Mrs. Warner Reid were hostesses to a group of friends who gathered at the home of Mrs. Crager for bridge. A pink and green color scheme was carried out in decorations, prizes, and refreshments. Miss Hula Coleman won high score and Mrs. Frank Bushy consolation prize.

Doris Club Honors May Brides

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Applewhite, resplendent with spring flowers and other decorations, suggestive of May time and wedding bells, was the scene of a most delightful party last Friday evening, when the Doris Club honored their bride-to-be members, Misses Grace Wise, Mollie Newman, and Thelma Steele, with a bridge party. The tables were artistically decorated with bowls of pink and orchid sweet peas. These colors were further suggested in the table covers of pink and orchid tulle. The place cards and tally scores were beautifully tinted figures of miniature brides. While the guests were being served with a delicious ice course, they were entertained with exquisite music, furnished by Mr. Pavelka on his violin, accompanied by Mr. Pemberton on the guitar. Immediately following the musical program, tables were arranged, and the guests enjoyed enthusiastic games of bridge. Beautiful prizes were presented to the honorees, Misses Newman, Steele, and Wise with the love and best wishes of the club for many years of happiness.

Those who enjoyed this delightful affair were: Misses Mollie Newman, Thelma Steele, Grace Wise, Hula Coleman, and Almira McComas; Messrs. 'HOME BREW' PARAPHERNALIA MAY BE SEIZED

U. S. Supreme Court Affects Sale Displays—Nation-wide Drive to Seize Corks, Bottles May be Launched.

May Issue Warrants—Status of Private Maker Not Clearly Explained; After Bootlegger

Washington, May 5.—A nation wide drive to seize paraphernalia used in the manufacture of home brew was envisioned by Assistant Secretary Lowman of the treasury today after the supreme court had held that containers, barrels, bottles, corks, etc., might be seized when offered for sale in such a manner as purposely to attract purchasers who want them for the unlawful manufacture of liquor.

Lowman said before any action was taken a careful study would be made of the decision the court handed down. The ruling was in the test case which resulted from the seizure of materials from Ike Danovite, the surviving partner of Feitler Bottle Company of Pittsburg, Penn.

Treasury officials said the sale of bottles, corks, and other containers used in making liquor was widespread, and if it was found they could be seized the prohibition bureau would have an effective instrument with which to fight bootleggers who sell home brew. No effort has been made by the prohibition bureau to interfere with the manufacture of home brew in private homes, but its efforts have been directed toward stopping manufacture by persons who sell it.

The decision of the supreme court was unanimous. It held that the purpose of the prohibition act was to "suppress the entire traffic" and that "the act should be liberally construed to the end of this suppression."

May Issue Such Warrants
The opinion was handed down by Justice Holmes, who explained that the controversy turned on the proper interpretation to be given the prohibition against the "manufacture" of illicit liquor. He stated the statute made it "unlawful to have or possess any liquor or property designed for the manufacture of liquor intended for use in violating this chapter," and that there was no property right in such liquor or property.

A search warrant may be issued, he explained, and the liquor with its containers and other property seized must be held subject to the orders of the court. If the seized liquor or property was unlawfully held, possessed, or used, the liquor and property designed for its unlawful manufacture, must, he added, be destroyed, unless the court ordered otherwise.

Danovite had contended, Justice Holmes pointed out, that the empty containers, bottles and other apparatus, seized from him, had not been and could not be used for the manufacture of liquor, which the law prohibited, because the manufacture had been completed before the bottles and other containers could be used and that the articles were not designed for and could not even be used in the "manufacture" of liquor.

Asserting that Danovite's argument "is obviously correct if the word 'manufacture' be taken in the strictest and most exact sense," Justice Holmes stated, "the word may be used in a looser way to express the whole process by which an article is made ready for sale on the open market."

MARVIN JONES BILL TO ABOLISH COTTON EXCHANGES, FAVORED

Washington, May 5.—The house agricultural committee today took up consideration of cotton exchange bills and by a heavy vote substituted the Jones bill, written by Rep. Marvin Jones of Texas, for the Vinson bill and all other pending bills. Cotton exchange men say that the Jones bill would destroy the cotton exchanges, whereas the Vinson, Randall and other bills merely regulate them. The Jones bill in most respects resembles the Caraway bill pending in the senate. Action of the committee in making the Jones bill the order of business instead of the milder regulatory measures was expected to arouse the opposition of the cotton exchanges.

Of the 32,000,000 acres of land in cultivation in Texas, 2,600,000 acres are terraced, most of it having been done in the past five years.

Postal Employee Enthusiastic About Konjola Stomach and Bowel Troubles Soon Banished—"Should Have Taken New Medicine Long Ago," He Says

MR. FRANK B. NORMAN "I suffered for a long time with stomach trouble," said Mr. Frank B. Norman, 828 Mississippi street, Amarillo. I had a very poor appetite and after eating I was subject to painful accumulations of gas. I was becoming very nervous and did not sleep well at night. I was troubled with constipation and found it necessary to take cathartics constantly. I was losing strength and energy and no matter what I tried in the way of medicine nothing seemed to help me. I seemed to improve in health from the time I began taking Konjola. My appetite picked up and I was able to assimilate my food better. I did not have the tired out feeling in the morning and my work was easier and more pleasant. Constipation soon passed and cathartics were no longer necessary. After continuing the treatment for a time I realized that Konjola was the medicine I should have taken long ago. I am continuing to take Konjola and am recon-mending it to all my friends." Given a real trial over a period of from six to eight weeks, Konjola has made a record without parallel in the history of medicines. Ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels and rheumatism, neuritis, and nervousness readily yield to its power. Konjola is sold in Lockney, Texas, at Stewart Drug Co., and by all the leading druggists in all towns through out this entire section.

A Clean Thresher and a Grain Saver

Sectional View of the McCormick-Deering No. 8 Harvester-Thresher

12 Important McCormick-Deering Points

1. Adjustable to cut low. Gets lodged and tangled grain.
2. Continuation of grain-tight platform canvas forms lower elevator canvas. No grain lost at end of platform. Large capacity, wide elevator carries all grain to feeder.
3. Chain and slat feeder carries grain, heads first, into the cylinder. Direct front feed.
4. Spiked beater in feeder assures positive feeding and controls delivery of grain to cylinder.
5. Ninety per cent separation at cylinder. Straw and grain thus separated never mix again.
6. Four-section straw rack. Extends entire length of thresher from cylinder to straw spreader. Combs straw apart, drops it three times, thoroughly shakes out all the grain.
7. Extra long chaffer and cleaning sieve thoroughly cleans grain.
8. Revolving weed screen takes weed seeds out of threshed grain and bags them. Saves dockage and reduces spread of weeds.
9. Platform folds for transportation—does not have to be detached. No transport truck to buy.
10. A pioneer of small combines—backed by 99 years of practical harvesting-machine experience and by field tests under difficult conditions in the harvest fields of the world.
11. Expert service on the entire machine by permanent dealers and Company-owned branches.
12. Handles a variety of crops under a variety of conditions and seasons.

THE McCormick-Deering No. 8 Harvester-Thresher is noted among experienced threshermen for its ability to thresh cleanly and save all the grain. Elevator men write that grain threshed with the McCormick-Deering brings top prices and is free from weed seeds and stems, shriveled wheat kernels, and other trash.

The McCormick-Deering is designed according to the accepted principles so successful in stationary threshers. The continuation of the grain-tight platform canvas forms the lower elevator canvas. No grain is lost at the end of the platform. A large-capacity, wide elevator carries all the grain to the feeder. Direct front feed is assured on the McCormick-Deering. A chain and slat feeder carries grain, heads first, into the cylinder.

High Efficiency, Ball-Bearing Cylinder

A spike-tooth cylinder, the recognized type for clean threshing, is mounted on ball bearings, high enough to permit immediate separation of the grain by gravity through the concaves and grates. The grain separated here never mixes with the straw again. The feed throat has a capacity of 48 square inches—ample to handle any crop that can be successfully combined. Practically 90 per cent separation occurs at the cylinder in the McCormick-Deering.

The straw delivered to the straw racks has very little grain in it. Nevertheless, straw racks of extraordinary capacity are provided. The straw travels and is agitated over a separating space 10 inches by 37 inches. The straw racks are of the four-section type, equipped with risers and pins which comb the straw apart, tossing it and dropping it repeatedly until all the kernels are shaken out. The cleaning area is unusually large. The shoe sieve is 38 inches by 37 inches. A revolving weed screen separates and bags the weed seeds—making the grain clean and reducing the spread of weeds.

Play Safe—Select a McCormick-Deering

Come in and inspect the McCormick-Deering—inside and out. You'll find all of the principles and features that experienced threshermen have found best for clean threshing under all conditions and in all small grain crops, one year after another. And the McCormick-Deering is backed by an unmatched service organization which protects every McCormick-Deering user everywhere.

A long table extended the length of the club room and was beautifully decorated with a profusion of cut flowers. A four course luncheon was served, consisting of the following menu: Strawberry cocktail, fried chicken, cream gravy, cream peas in nest, pickles, sliced tomatoes, ice tea, perfection salad, ice cream, and cake.

As Mrs. R. C. Halthcock and Dr. Mary Henry were leaving the town and club, a gift to each was presented, with an appropriate speech by our president, Mrs. Mrs. McAdams. Immediately after Mrs. Wall, our incoming president, presented Mrs. McAdams, with a wall plaque, as a memento of her faithful services the past year.

Following the social meeting the club went into the last regular meeting of the year, instead of waiting until the regular meeting time at 3:30.

The program committee offered several courses for next year's study and a travel course was accepted.

After a splendid program, led by Mrs. Ball on "Infant Mortality," with Dr. Mary Henry and Mrs. Greer giving splendid talks, and Mrs. Arceneaux reviewing the latest "Book of the Month," the club adjourned until September.—Reporter.

3 to 5 Cents' Worth of Gas and a DE LAVAL Magnetic Milker operated by an ALPHA DAIRY POWER PLANT Will Milk 20 Cows an hour

The Alpha Dairy Power Plant pictured above is an extremely modern power plant built in every way like a fine automobile engine. It has many features never before found in a farm engine, such as counterbalanced crankshaft mounted on roller bearings, oil pump, both overhead valves mechanically operated, automatic governor control and others. It has a built-in water heater, consisting of a 4-1/2 gallon tank connected to the water jacket of the cylinder, which heats water for washing the milker at no extra cost while the engine is being run for milking.

WITH a De Laval Magnetic Milker and an Alpha Dairy Power Plant you can milk 20 cows and provide hot water for washing the milker, using only a few cents' worth of gas for the entire operation. And in addition to perfect, economical milking, this combination will save you valuable time, eliminate unpleasant drudgery, produce cleaner milk and afford you many other advantages as well as the greatest satisfaction a profitable investment has ever given you. We are at your service any time.

The End of Another School Year

During the last few weeks of school, every one is wanting to have a good time. The seniors want a day to be "Senior Day", or, in other words, a day for a good time. The Juniors are begging for a day for them to have a good time, too, but, all in vain. Pop tells them to wait 'till next year. The Sophomores want to have a party or go to the canyons. The freshmen are wanting to take one of the teachers to the canyons, rather than the teacher to take them.

PERSONALS

Leona Cope was absent Monday. Arline and Maurine Watson of Plainview visited Lucille Quisenberry Sunday. Rachel Graves was absent from school Monday afternoon. Ben Whitfill has withdrawn from school here. He has gone on a visit with his parents. Olga Carthel visited school Monday. Miss Francis Gunn and Floyd Barber Jr., of Lubbock spent Sunday with Estelle Byars. Carl Mann spent Friday and Saturday in Lubbock with Floyd Barber. Raymond Meriwether, a former graduate of Lockney High, spent the week-end with his parents and friends. Elvie Cook has withdrawn from school. Evelyn Fields and Virginia Thomas were absent almost a week on account of having tonsillitis. Evelyn Bobbitt has returned to school after several days' illness. Word comes from Jim Hill, who recently withdrew from school, that life in the baking business at Hobbs is quite busy. Miss Boedecker, who has been out of school on account of having scarlet fever, will be back the last week, and we have certainly missed her during her absence.

Tennis Team Goes to Austin

Glenna Collins and Myrtle Bradford, who won both the district and bi-district matches in tennis went to Austin to play there Friday, May 2nd. They were accompanied by their coach, Miss Carma Thomas. The group left Plainview Wednesday morning at 10:46 and arrived at Austin Thursday morning. There were thirteen teams competing for state championship. The first team the Lockney girls played was the League City team, winners in the bi-district match with Beaumont. The scores were 6-4; 8-6, favoring the League City team. The state champions were the girls who represented Fort Worth.

Although Lockney's team did not win, the school is proud of them. They represented our school well in a field where it had not been represented before, and we are expecting more from the team next year.

On Friday night, May 2, 1930, the Sophomores gathered for a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cox. Different games were played on the lawn. We wonder where Arthur learned to put the finishing touches to a story? And Andy thinks it takes sixteen pills to cure a broken leg. At the middle of the evening punch was served. Ice cream and cookies were served to forty-two sophomores at the close of the evening. We were very disappointed that our sponsor, Miss Boedecker, was absent on account of sickness, and we wish to thank Miss Simpson for chaperoning us through out the evening. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Crow-Caws

A freshman when asked how far it was to the moon answered that he was not sure, but thought it was about four blocks one direction, and two the other. Lots of baldheaded men have come out on top. The laundry teaches generosity by asking the shirt off one man's back and giving it to another. Some people grow quieter in their old age because they have more to keep quiet about. Some people have had their ancestors traced, but not caught. I have a little fairy in my home, a little miss in my motor, and a little made in the cellar. Let us all have a law abiding week. Most of us would have to stay at home in bed—unless that is against the law.

Ruel Cook Wins Fifth Place at State Meet

Ruel Cook entered the state contest Friday, May 2, in the half-mile race and was one of sixty contestants. There were two beats run; Ruel won second in his heat, thus qualifying for the finals. There are four places that are given points, so Lockney only won honorable mention. The school is very proud of Ruel's record, because he is one of the best runners it has ever had.

Why go elsewhere to get stung? Buy at home. Some pupils might as well continue this vacation except that they cannot loaf so comfortably at home. It is safe to eat ruta bngas in all months starting with Kx. Jerily is a good month to marry. But there is no such month. That's just it.

JOKES

Father—"Isn't that young man rather fast?"
June—"Yes, but I don't think he will get away."
Mr. Jones—"A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer."
Leon—"No wonder so many of us flunk in our exams."

"Why do you call the baby Bill?"
He was born on the first of the month.

"Spell your name!" said the court clerk sharply.

The witness began: "O double t, i, double u, e, double l, double—"
"Begin again!" Begin again!" ordered the clerk.

The witness repeated, "O, double t, i, double u, e, double l, double—"
"Your honor," roared the clerk, "I beg that this man be committed for contempt of court."

"What is your name?" asked the judge.
"My name, your honor, is Ottiwel Wood, and I spell it O, double t, i, double u, e, double i; double u, double o, d."

A teacher of English in one of our colleges describes a money-lender as follows:

"He follows you in the present tense, lends in the conditional mood, keeps you in the subjective, and ruins you in the future."

To My Mother

When mother was a little girl, Now many years ago, She had to mind her P's and Q's, She had to walk just so; And if her mother said, "Be quiet!" She didn't dare say "Baah!" For fear they'd send her off to bed— Without her supper, too.

When mother grew to womanhood, And got her children, then She found the fashion turned around She had to mind again: To-day it's Margaret, Jean, and Jane Who do the talking, and Poor Mother doesn't dare say "Booh!" Except upon command. —William Wallace Whitlock.

The above is a poem which may remind you that Sunday is Mother's day.

SCANDAL

Ruel, why didn't Helen go with the other seniors, Tuesday? Did anyone see Ermine Ida's bonnet Senior Day? Doc, why has Rex been acting so strangely lately? The Juniors "got stuck" Saturday; of course, barefoot Boogan pushed them out. Buster went swimming! Intentionally? We think not. What a relief Tuesday! The seniors were not at school.

Juniors Go to Canyon

A group of happy Juniors met in front of the Baker Hotel Saturday morning, May 3, ready to start on the long planned picnic. They were accompanied by two mothers, Mrs. Teaver and Mrs. Fields, and the sponsor, Miss Simpson.

The Juniors arrived at Claude's Crossing about 10:30 o'clock. It did not take long for the lunch to be locked in and the Juniors to be on their way to explore the canyon. We walked five miles to the falls where some boys went in swimming. We all rested and were not shocked to see that it was twelve o'clock, for we were all very hungry. We walked back to the cars where lunch was spread under a tree: All enjoyed the lunch, and were off to climb the hills, and wade in the water. All afternoon was spent wandering in the canyons, and about three-thirty all were ready to go home. On account of mud and car trouble we did not reach home until five o'clock. Saturday will never be forgotten by the Juniors, because everyone had such a great time.

Miss Thomson and the girls who went to the State Home Economics meeting at Houston, Thelma Good and Ethelene Wofford, returned Monday morning.

A Tribute to Our Faculty and School Board

To our faculty and school board, I've tried to compose in verses some words. Though my work may be poor and at times I reveal much may I get none of you "in Dutch." Now don't look at the floor; just listen awhile to more.

The Angel has come to Lockney Said the pupils, so happy and gay. She is teaching us children so earnestly And we all do love her, each one can say.

And over the roads to Lockney Came Miss Boedecker, so small and gay. With her head set to teach those seniors We can see that she has come to stay.

And now I have come to Biggers; His name he greatly deserves. He has shown dear old Lockney That there can be no reserves.

Miss Simpson, who so often says, "Como se llama y estoy aqui" She does shake her head most every day 'Cause we're naughty you see. She is our Spanish teacher, And sometimes we're glad the bell has rung.

But we're sure no one has ever existed Who can beat her twisting her tongue.

Turner, the agriculture teacher Will gather up his boys And quickly he will prove First place in judging him behooves.

many. It means leaving dear old L. H. S. for good and I think I am voicing the sentiment of the entire Senior class.

Miss Thomson who is very industrious Knows the way to prepare a home. She is teaching the girls of home economics That the proper way is not to roam.

And Miss Thomas we all know Is our English teacher, good and true She helps us all who are fast and slow. And of the latter she thinks there are never a few.

Mr. Jones will say in the days to come I hope you are not angry my children.

Don't turn me from your heart. If I had whipped you harder, I know your love would not depart.

Rice, Miss Ethel A. Rice To all her name seems very nice. We all know quite well

By her looking so swell She wishes to drop her old name for a spell.

If Lockney were minus of Reid, It would feel the dying of athletics very well. Or if he would leave us forever, Poor old Lockney would fall to the bottom of the well.

After school is over, After we see Mrs. Halthcock was not wrong. Each one of her history pupils Will sorrow to know she has gone.

New school board and old, This is to you You've shown day in and day out Your efforts for us Were never through. So, to you trustees and all, For this occasion we've prepared. We hope you may always know How much we've really cared. To you the greatest success and happiness Is not too much, we do confess.

Now, a little toast to you, trustees and teachers. May you always have the Most pleasant features.

Response to Tribute to Trustees and Faculty

Count yourself lucky, lad You have youth at your call You've life, love, and laughter Yes, you have them all.

Sure, your days are all numbered We trust they'll be many, For much joy and gladness And good deeds and plenty.

While you're thus spending The best days of your life We hope you'll remember Your friends in the strife.

There's your Math teaching Jones Red ink slinging Thomas Rice who knows all the bones Of bugs and dates of comets.

There's H. O. Boedecker Whom Boogin calls bad. Remember your Angel Then you will be glad.

Coach didn't teach English And keep each study hall. But produced winning teams In all kinds of ball.

There's gad-a-bout Turner Who knows his downs and ups He taught the boys judging And they brought home the cups.

Then Thomson the trainer Of the boys' future wives; And Simpson who taught you To speak Spic for your lives.

There's Pop with his typewriter Who averages the grades, Keeps wise on you fellows In all your hunts he raids.

If these you remember In years yet to be History you will have learned And that will please me.

When we are old and gray, Recalling each lass and lad We'll surely think of you As the best we ever had. —Mrs. R. C. Halthcock.

Ruel Cook, Glenna Collins, Myrtle Bradford, and Miss Thomas returned Sunday evening from Austin, where they went to the State Interscholastic Meet.

Some pupils have to be rewarded for being good, but some are good for nothing.

SQUILL KILL

Rats Cost Millions Annually

You can rid your premises of this costly pest without danger to your poultry or domestic animals by using Squill Kill, a Red Squill preparation. Red Squill is recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in farm bulletin No. 1533, as being taken readily by rats and relatively harmless to human beings and domestic animals. Rats cost the American people $200,000,000 annually. They distribute the virus of plague of hydrophobia, of trichinosis, of equine influenza. When you can be rid of these pests by using Squill Kill at a cost of 50 cents, can you afford to have them? Squill Kill carries a positive guarantee. If used according to instructions, your money will be refunded if Squill Kill does not kill rats and mice.

PRIMARY GRADES PRESENTED MAY FETE

In spite of the rain which fell on the evening of May 1, a large crowd was assembled together in the city auditorium to see the annual May Fete presented by the Primary grades. There were a few of the children who were unable to get there to be in their numbers, but by putting in substitutes or by leaving vacancies, the program was very nicely rendered.

The program opened with the procession of the King and Queen and their attendants who marched from the entrance of the auditorium upon the stage, after which King Paul of the House of Shick crowned Queen Sibil of the House of Mudgett the queen of May. Following the coronation a number of lovely dances were given for their Majesty's pleasure.

One of the prettiest dances of the evening was a Patriotic Hoop Drill given by the boys of first grade B. Several of the boys in this drill were not present, but the little folk went through the drill almost perfectly without them.

Another enjoyable feature of the program was an old fashioned Virginia Reel given by six boys and six girls from the second grade B, and the third and fourth grades. These children danced entirely through this number to the lively strains of "Turkey in the Straw" without making an error.

The little folk from first grade A gave two delightful numbers. The little girls were lovely in their white fairy costumes as they did a pretty Fairy Dance. The little boys dressed in green and yellow frog costumes, gave a most enjoyable "Frolic of the Frogs."

The pupils of second grade A impersonating the wee good folk of Frank Pavelka, accompanied by Mrs. Pavelka and Mrs. Edd Manning at Fairy Land gave a pleasing dance for her Majesty, the Queen. These little folk gave an attractive fairy and elf costumes and were very pretty.

Some girls from the third and fourth grades did a beautiful Japanese

INTERMEDIATE GRADES GIVE LAST CHAPEL PROGRAM

Last Wednesday morning all the pupils of the Primary and Intermediate departments assembled in the auditorium for the last chapel exercise of the year. Each of the rooms in the intermediate grades took part in the program.

The special feature of the program was some violin music rendered by the piano. Mr. Pavelka played a number of beautiful pieces which were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. We thank these people very sincerely for so willingly helping us out with this splendid entertainment.

Other numbers on the program were: Song, "Onward Christian Soldiers," —All. Reading—Gladys Pratt. Piano Duet—Leota Shelton and Hazel Ford.

Reading—Marie Howard. Song—Iwana Simpson, Doris Fields, and Pauline Beall. Reading—Delber Rose. Piano Duet—Frankie Dodson and Virginia Hoblaus. Reading—Frankie Dodson. Reading—Miss Chambers. Reading D. Trammell.

FIFTH GRADES CLOSE SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST

The two fifth grades undertook a subscription project lasting through last week, through which they might make some money for their school. They sold subscriptions to the Household and The Cappers' Farmers magazines. The school received fifty per cent of the proceeds taken in. In addition to this there was a pocket knife offered to the boy who sold the most subscriptions, and a buffet set to the girl. Each pupil who sold as much as $3.00 worth of subscriptions received a good fountain pen and pencil set. The pocket knife was won by Doyle

Pennington and the buffet set by Glenna Whitfill. Those who won the pen and pencil sets were Iwana Simpson, Doyle Pennington, W. M. Wicker, Glenna Whitfill, Gladys Pratt, Mar-Sams, and Robert Jackson.

In order to make more interest the two rooms had a contest to see which room could sell the most subscriptions. Room 5B won by one fifty cent subscription, and they will be entertained by Room 5A some day soon with a Marshmallow Roast.

The total amount of money made for the school was $17.50. We want to thank every one who helped in this work by subscribing to the magazines.

MOORE TEAM WINS TOURNAMENT

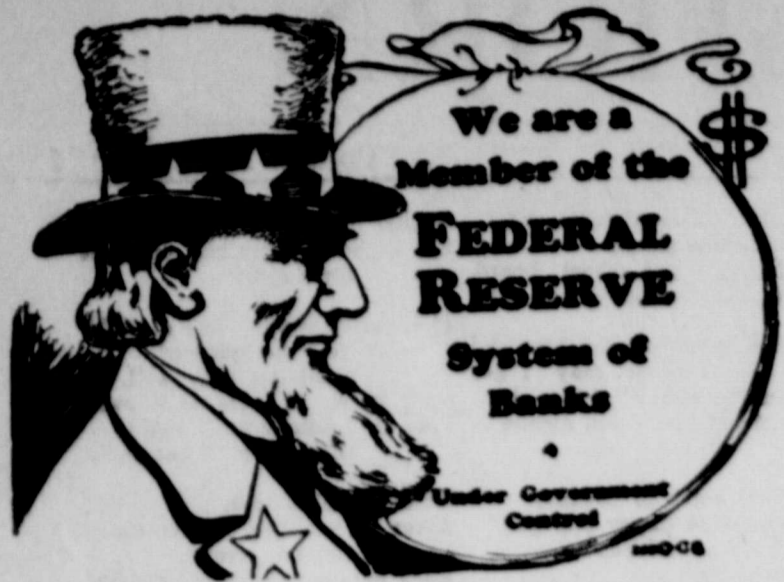

The baseball team with Ottis Moore as captain won the playground baseball championship pennant by defeating the "nine" which has been under the direction of Russell Spence. For several weeks, preliminary games had been played, and there was keen rivalry between the competitive teams, and much enthusiasm manifested in the final outcome. Suitable pennants had been offered as a prize to the winning team. The decisive game was called by Chambers, with Tate and Wall as official score keepers. The score was 6 to 1.

BT ENTERTAINS 7A WITH POVERTY PARTY

Friday afternoon of this week the pupils in room 7B who have made A in spelling for the past six weeks, will give a Poverty Party for the A pupils of room 7A. The party will be given in the old study hall of the Ward school building, beginning at 3:15 p. m. The guests will come dressed in rags and a prize will be given to the boy and girl who best represent their costume, the spirit of the party. More than fifty guests will be present.

Will to move and power of motion
Depend on nerves as well as notion,
And these actions call into play
Thousands of nerves in many a way.
When with sickness one must contend
Adjust the spine from which nerves extend.

Suppose All Your Bills Were Reduced 58 per cent

HOW CHEAP YOUR RENT WOULD BE!
AND YOUR CLOTHES!
AND EVERYTHING ELSE!

Your electric service bill, however, already HAS been reduced.

While the cost of living has increased 71% ABOVE the pre-war level, the average price of domestic electricity has been reduced 28% BELOW the pre-war level.

And this in spite of the increased cost of material and labor.

Improvements in generating and distributing electricity, and increased efficiency in the management of the business have made this possible.
