Drive for More Irrigation Wells Started Here

Seven Men Have Signed Up For Wells With 12-Inch Pumps—More Men Are Ready To Sign

The drive for the installation of more irrigation wells in the Lockney country has started off with success, and seven new wells, and equipment have been contracted for at this time, with several other prospects in view and several other men ready to have the wells dug and equipment installed.

The first seven signing up for these wells are Olin Fry, 5 miles southeast of Lockney; Claude Harris, 6 miles south of Lockney; H. O. Shurbet, 6 miles south of Lockney; T. E. Mitchell, 5 miles south of Lockney; A. E. Meriwether, 5 miles southwest of Lockney; Geo. T. Meriwether, 6 miles west of Lockney; and J. F. Dollar, 8 miles southwest of Lockney.

Work has begun on the digging of the well on Olin Fry's place southeast of town, and there are two drillers in Lockney, ready to begin work. All these wells are expected to be ready for operation within 60 days.

These wells are all to be equipped with 12-inch pumps, with a capacity of 1,500 gallons per minute, and will be pulled by 15-20 tractors. The cost of these wells will not exceed $2,000, not including the power, which are tractors, and the wells will be capable of taking care of 160 acre tracts, planted in various crops, including alfalfa.

These wells will all be in operation to be used for watering in the winter to insure a good underground season, and to insure a season for wheat planting, for those who will plant some wheat.

It is hoped that a number of the farmers will take advantage of this drive, and put in wells, as by buying the pumps by carloads, a considerable amount of money can be saved, and this pump company is arranging good terms for those who wish to install wells at this time.

City Uses Large Amount of Water in Month

Residents of Town Use 4,128,000 Gallons of Water From June 20 to July 20

The report of Mayor Walter Childers, who is also collector for the water works of the City of Lockney, reports that 4,128,600 gallons of water were used out of the city mains during the month from June 20 to July 20, this year.

The amount of water used this year was probably in excess of any month in any year since the water works has been in operation, due to the fact that it has been drier on the Plains than in any year past, at this time of the year, and the people of the town used more water on their lawns and garden than ever before in order to keep them from burning up.

Water bills were higher on the users the past first than ever before on account of more gallons of water being used.

The water works plant has been enabled to take care of the proposition, however, on one or two occasions, it was necessary to cut down the supply at the swimming pool, so that the people could use the water for domestic and home purposes.

RAIN OVER MOST OF COUNTY MONDAY

Rains fell over most of Floyd county Sunday evening and early Monday morning, the rain fall in places reaching two inches, according to reports received at this office.

A good rain fell over portions of the county Sunday afternoon, one rain coming from the south and southwest, raining a good shower as far north as this city. Another shower fell in the east and northeastern part of the county. Monday morning, beginning about two o'clock a good rain fell over the county, with the exception of the northwestern part, the reports being as follows: Floydada 1.5 inches; Lockney .71 inch; Dougherty .25 inch; South Plains .25 inch; Sandhill 1.5 inches; Starkey 2 inches; Lakeview 1 inch; Blanco 2 inches.

This rain will be of great benefit to feed crops, and maybe worth a great deal to the cotton, where the stalk is large enough to put on more fruit. It will be worth a great deal more to those who desire to prepare their wheat land at this time for the next crop.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stakeup and daughter, Evelyn, left Sunday for points in New Mexico.

NEGRO HELD ON BOND AFTER AUTO CRASH

Amarillo, Aug. 18.—Henry Jefferson, negro, is under bond on a charge of negligent driving and G. D. Rigdon, 509 Fillmore, is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital as the result of an accident Sunday night at Fourth and Taylor.

Rigdon is suffering intensely, but his condition is not alarming, hospital attendants said Monday. Jefferson told police he was turning a corner in his motor car and hit Rigdon before he saw him.

No one appeared again Jefferson Monday morning in corporation court and the case was continued.

G. D. Rigdon is a brother of the Rigdons and Mrs. T. Z. Reed of this city. T. Z. Reed went to his bedside Monday.

Return from Wounded Man's Bedside

Mr. and Mrs. T. Z. Reed, T. J. Rigdon, W. G. Rigdon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson, and Mrs. Will Virden returned Tuesday from Amarillo, where they had been called on account of an accident Sunday night in which Grady Rigdon, brother of the Rigdon boys, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Virden, had been seriously injured, when a negro driving a car, lost control of the car and ran over the corner of the sidewalk, knocking Mr. Rigdon down. At the St. Anthony's Hospital, it was announced that Mr. Rigdon suffered the breaking of five ribs, one shoulder broke, and bruises about the head, which rendered him unconscious for several hours. His condition was still critical, when last reports were given out.

Lockney Day Designated At Tri-State Fair

Thursday, September 25th Is Set Apart As Floyd County Day At Fair

Amarillo, Aug. 20.—Thursday, Sept. 25th has been set aside by the directors of the Tri-State Fair Association as Lockney Day, and all residents of that county are extended a special invitation by Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the association, to attend the fair on that, their own, day, or any other day.

Under plans now being completed by the association this year's fair will far surpass that of any previous year. Mr. Hawk said yesterday, in outlining the progress made by the fair officials during the months they have been engaged in booking attractions for the midway and in arranging contests that will include every type of exhibit that might be entered.

Cash prizes, aggregating $18,000 will be paid to exhibitors at this year's fair. Of this amount $5,000 will go to beef cattle exhibitors; $3,000 to dairy cattle exhibitors; $3,000 to swine exhibitors; and $500 to exhibitors of pet stock.

A zoo crammed with overflowing with animals of every type will be one of the attractions.

A new automobile building costing more than $25,000 is being erected for this year's fair and will be completed Sept. 1st.

The largest exhibition of farm implements ever shown at a fair in any part of the United States has been arranged for and will be on display. Each night before the grandstand Ernie Young's Revue in "Spanish Nights" will be given.

Each afternoon Leonard Stroud and his troupe of trick and fancy riders will entertain the crowds, while other riders will vie for prizes aggregating $6,000 to be given to the winners in the rodeo contests which will be staged daily.

"The attractions outlined above are only a few of those arranged by the association to make this year's event the biggest and best ever," Mr. Hawk concluded.

McDermitt Amusements Here

The McDermitt Amusement Co., which has been playing the Old Settlers Reunion at the Old Rock House, last week, moved into Lockney Sunday and is making a week's stand on the lots near the West Texas gin plant, on North Main street. They have several riding devices and shows of different kinds.

The manager states that he has brought rain with him every time he has come to Lockney for several years, and that he is glad that the rain followed him from the reunion, where rain had fallen the last two days of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh Cooper were Amarillo visitors, Sunday.

Mrs. F. B. Brown returned home Saturday from Hart, where she has been visiting her son, Garland Brown.

Girl Drowns In Creek Under Caprock

Wall of Seven Feet of Water Suddenly Descends Bed of Shallow Creek; Girls on Bed, Ignited by Lightning, Uninjured

Quitaque, Aug. 18.—Altie Roach, 18, was drowned and another girl, Stella Adams, and her father, John Adams, narrowly escaped late yesterday afternoon when a wall of floodwater unexpectedly descended the small creek in which they were wading.

The two girls were wading in water about knee deep in the little creek near the Roach home, just off the highway five miles east of Quitaque in the Kent school neighborhood.

Mr. Adams and others were wading in shallow water near the bank and had told the girls not to cross the creek. Adams saw the wall of water coming and shouted a warning to the girls, but the wind was high and they failed to hear him.

The wall of water, described by Mr. Adams as six or seven feet high struck the girls and swept them downstream. The Roach girl was entangled in a wire fence and was rescued from it lifeless. The Adams girl, however, cleared the fence and her helpless body caught on a sandbar. Mr. Adams went to her rescue and himself was rendered unconscious, but was rescued with his daughter by others of the wading party.

Passers-by were hailed and assisted in reviving the two and in removing the Roach girl's body from the wire.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Lightning Strikes Twice Telephone and telegraph communication with Quitaque was disturbed by the wind and electric storm which accompanied rainfall of an inch and a half.

The home of Henry Brunnett, two miles south of Quitaque, was struck by lightning during the thunderstorm.

Three girls, resting on a feather bed, were badly shocked, but received no injuries, when the bed and paper on the wall of the room ignited by the lightning.

The fire was extinguished after it had inflicted only slight damage to the house.

Within the city limits, two miles from the Brunnett home, the house of Jack Hargrett, former manager of the South Plains Lumber Co., was struck by lightning. None was injured and damage to the house was limited to burned and scorched wall paper.

How The Editor Will Vote in Run-off Election

We Will Give a List of Our Choice in the State Officials for the Benefit of Those Who Care for Same

In the Governor's race, we have no preference, and therefore will vote for neither of the candidates.

For Lieutenant Governor—We will vote for Sterling P. Strong, as we know Mr. Strong over year's of time, and have found him at all times a good clean man, and on the moral side of every question.

For Attorney General—James Y. Allred is our choice, as we know him to be a fine fellow, clean, capable and energetic. To know Jimmy is to love him, and we do not believe a better man for the office he aspires to, could possibly be chosen.

For State Treasurer—Our choice is John E. Davis, editor of the Mesquite Messenger, a member of the legislature from Dallas county, a man that has a clean record as both a newspaper man and legislator. In the first race there were five men running for this office. In the run-off all three of the men, whose names were dropped from the list in the first race, are supporting him. His record will stand the test, and we believe he is the best man for the place.

For Commissioner of Agriculture—We will support A. H. King of Throckmorton county, because he is capable, has served his people well in the legislature, and is the Western man in the race.

For Railroad Commissioner—Pat M. Neff is our choice. Everybody knows Pat Neff, as he has formerly been governor of the state, is at present Railroad Commissioner, and only lacked a few votes of getting a majority in the first primary over the entire field that ran against him.

In the district and county offices we will not specify our preference of candidates, as all voters should be well enough acquainted with the candidates to have their minds made up in regard to whom they are going to vote for, and it would not be fair to these men for us to attempt to state our preference in this article.

Election Party Will Be Held Saturday Night

Returns Will Be Tabulated On Floyd County Returns at Beacon Office Election Night

We extend a cordial invitation to our friends and all those interested in the election returns to our election party on Saturday night, August 23, at which time we have arranged to get the returns of Floyd county, and as much of the State election news as possible, and will post same in tabulated form on our large black board.

On account of the length of the ticket, which is much shorter than the other primary ticket, we believe that all the election returns will be in before midnight. At the other election the larger boxes did not get through counting until Sunday morning about daylight, and the party lasted all night long.

Missing Man's Auto Found in Lubbock

Plainview, Aug. 18.—Another incident was added to the circumstances surrounding the disappearance of J. V. Flippin, Floydada man, when officers found his abandoned car at Lubbock, it became known here today. Mr. Flippin, who lives four and one-half miles west of Floydada, has been missing since last Monday. Relatives identified the car at Lubbock.

It is now known that Mr. Flippin when he left his car at Lubbock was wearing blue overalls, blue work shirt and black felt hat. His street clothes were found in his car. Lubbock officers spotted the car when it was allowed to sit on the street all Monday night. In the car also were some aspirin tablets and a bottle of syrup of peppin, bought at Floydada.

Mr. Flippin is described as a man of 6 feet 1 or 2 inches in height, dark complexion, and dark hair, and he weighs about 185 to 190 pounds. He has a wife and five children. He was last seen in his Chevrolet sedan near Petersburg by C. E. Bond, a friend. He is thought to have come to Plainview prior to that time with R. B. Gary, a foster brother.

Officers throughout this section have been searching for the missing man but so far no trace of him has been found.

WOMAN MAKES VAIN ATTEMPT TO SAVE BABIES

Mrs. D. G. Horn, Two Boys and Girl Are Victims of Flames Near Portales, N. M.

Portales, N. M., Aug. 17.—A heroic mother and three children perished in flames Sunday morning three miles southwest of Rogers, near here, when Mrs. D. G. Horn, sacrificed her life in a vain attempt to save her children as fire destroyed their farm home.

Mrs. Horn; Junior, 8; Robert 5; and Doris, 7, were victims of the flames. Charred embers revealed a funeral pyre for the four bodies as the walls of the small home caved in.

It is believed that the mother after calling the children from play, attempted to fill an oil stove and the fuel became ignited.

The mother was preparing the noon-day meal shortly before the fire, and the children were playing in the yard. Mrs. Horn called the three youngest children into the house and sent the eldest, Nell, 15, to the home of W. M. Strickland, a half mile west, to ask if they were going to church in the evening.

Before reaching the Strickland home, Nell looked back and saw the flames. Before neighbors could reach the house, it was a veritable inferno and entrance was impossible.

Mr. Strickland was the first to arrive. He stated that the house was ready to fall and it was impossible to enter. As the walls caved in and the roof fell, the four charred bodies were revealed huddled and burned beyond recognition in the east room of the two-room structure.

One child lay on the mother, one beneath, and the other by her side. Before the house fell, neighbors noticed that the door of the east room was closed, shutting off escape.

At the time of the accident, the father and one son, Duke, 19, were at the Rogers postoffice, three miles away. The Horns had lived on the farm for the past seven years. In March of 1928 their house was destroyed by fire and was replaced with the structure which burned Sunday.

LOCKNEY WILL HAVE NEGRO SCHOOL THIS FALL

Rev. A. B. Hanks, colored minister, better known to Lockney people as "Parson Hanks," is again in the city, and is making arrangements to start a subscription school for the negro children of the town, to be conducted in one of the houses in the negro quarters of the town. Annie Taylor, colored teacher, will have charge of the school, in which there have been nine children enrolled, and the school will start about October 1st, and run for three months, after which the teacher will go to Floydada, where she will teach a school the remainder of the year.

East Side Will Vote At City Auditorium

Election Saturday In Lockney Boxes Will Be At Methodist Church And City Auditorium

The people of the Lockney voting box No. 5 will take note that the polls will be located in the city auditorium, on the east side of town, on account of the revival meeting that is now in progress at the Baptist church.

Lockney Box, No. 1,8 will vote at the Methodist church basement, as usual.

The election supplies have been delivered to every box in the county by Chairman J. N. Stallbird and Sheriff P. G. Stegall, and everything is in progress for the run-off election on Saturday. There are sixteen contested offices on the ticket, and in most all of them the contests will be close, as a persistent campaign has been waged by the contestants.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW PAMPA-CHILDRESS LINE MUST START BY JAN. 1

Washington, Aug. 17.—The Burlington railroad Saturday scored a decisive victory in the fight with opposing lines for the lucrative business of the Pampa oil fields, when the interstate commerce commission granted it a provisional certificate of authority to construct a line of railroad from Pampa to Childress, giving it a connection with its subsidiary, the Fort Worth & Denver Northern and a direct route from the great oil territory to the Texas gulf ports.

The commission conditioned the certificate upon the joint construction of the portion of the line between Shamrock and Wellington, with the Rock Island, which previously had been granted tentative authority to build, over the strenuous objections of the Burlington. The joint construction also must continue from Wellington to a point where the Rock Island shall take off in a southeasterly direction to join the Frisco. This will give both the Rock Island and the Burlington a share of the business between northwest Texas oil fields and the gulf coast.

Dates for Construction Set

Construction of the new line must be commenced on or before January 1, 1931, and completed on or before December 31, 1932. The same dates were set for the construction of a short line in Gray county to be built by the Santa Fe as a modification of an order issued at the time the Rock Island was permitted to make a joint operating agreement with the Frisco between Wellington and Fort Worth.

The commission also affirmed today the recommendation of the division that the Frisco be authorized to build a line from a connection with its present line at Vernon, southerly to a connection with the line of the Gulf, Texas & Western at Seymour, about 42 miles. The Frisco also is authorized to operate under trackage rights over the Rock Island tracks from Jacksboro and Fort Worth, a distance of 17.6 miles, and to acquire control of the Gulf, Texas & Western, a move which will consolidate the Frisco and Rock Island.

The Rock Island originally proposed to build a line from Shamrock south through Wellington and on to a connection with the Frisco about five miles north of Quanah, and from Quanah to a connection with the Vernon-Seymour lines to be built by the Frisco, a distance of 108 miles.

The Burlington objected to this line being constructed, however, claiming that they should be allowed to run south of Pampa, and the commission agreed, ruling that there is not a necessity for two lines of railroad between Shamrock and Wellington.

Mr. Olen Newman of Chicago spent the week-end in Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Harris returned Sunday from Vaughn, N. M., where they have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Fred Payne.

Crowd Failed to Attend Co-operative Meeting

Only Four Farmers Interested Sufficient to Attend Meeting In Lockney Monday Night

The meeting arranged for at the auditorium in Lockney Monday night, at which time representatives of the Texas Cotton Co-operative Association were going to explain the co-operative contracts, etc., in connection with the Federal Farm Board plan for marketing the cotton in the future, was almost a failure as far as farmers being present was concerned. There were only four farmers present, however, all four of these farmers after hearing the proposition fully explained, signed the cotton marketing contract. Several business men of the town were present at the meeting, and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hudson of the Stoneback community in Hale county, who are county organizers, with Mr. Lanier, who is county chairman of Floyd county, were present to put the Federal Farm Board proposition before the farmers.

The question was brought up, as to whether the farmers are satisfied with their present marketing conditions, or whether they desired to make an attempt to make better marketing conditions. All these people are asking is a chance to explain the Federal Farm Board plan to the producers of cotton, and let them decide for themselves whether it is worth while to try their proposition. If the farmers want to hear and understand what the government has to offer, and the way they offer assistance in the marketing plan, another meeting will be arranged for at a later date, and men will be present to explain the proposition thoroughly to them, but if the farmers do not care to hear and give any consideration to the plan, we see no use in calling another meeting at this place.

NEW HIGHWAY WILL SERVE PLAINVIEW AND DIMMITT

Plainview, Aug. 17.—Two plains cities are being brought closer to each other by 18 miles without either of the cities being moved," is a statement that may sound like one of Believe-It-Or-Not Ripley's utterances, but it is described just exactly what is happening in Plainview and Dimmitt, the county seats of Hale and Castro counties, respectively.

A new 100-foot wide highway is being built direct from Plainview to the Castro county capital following the right-of-way of the Fort Worth and Denver railroad, which cuts down the distance between Dimmitt and Plainview 18 miles by highway. Existing highway routes make the two cities 60 miles apart, while the new road will make the entire distance just exactly 42 miles.

The highway was promoted by the Plainview Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, and most of the promotion work was done under the leadership of Bill Gouldy of Plainview, president of the organization during 1929. Upon his taking the office early in the year 1929, Gouldy told the organization's members that during his term of office he was going to see that the direct road to Dimmitt was built, and that he was going to stay on the job until it was done. At the expiration of his term of office this year the road was not built, but it was definitely determined that it would be built, and the right-of-way was ready for the grading, fencing, etc., which is now under way.

Much of the right-of-way, in fact, the biggest part of it, was donated by the property owners upon solicitation by committees from the Plainview Chamber. After all had been obtained in this manner possible, the commissioners courts of Hale and Castro counties took over the project. Hale County's commissioners, George Whitfield, J. A. Finey, Carroll Bird, and C. W. Terry, and County Judge E. C. Abernathy have worked hard on the project to have the Castro commissioners under the leadership of County Judge M. E. Avery, and Commissioner Sab Allen of the Hart precinct through which the road passes, and all are being praised for making the road possible.

The road lies on the south side of the railroad track the entire distance, and is up to State Highway Commission requirements. It will be made a state designated highway if the plan of its promoters meets with success.

Judge and Mrs. O. E. Stevenson, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stevenson, Jr., returned to their home in Loraine, Thursday of last week.

Miss Roberta Broyles of Amarillo is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Broyles.

QUALIFICATIONS

What are they? What you are offered in the Governor's race. Qualified—From Webster's Dictionary—"To be or become capable, to be fit, to obtain legal or competent power or capacity."

Texas is on the home-stretch in a primary election, and Saturday will tell the story of who the Democratic party has chosen as their preference as a nominee for governor of this Great State, and when the Democratic Party has spoken at the polls, what have we?

Analyze the two candidates, think them over with a clear mind; lay aside prejudice and campaign lies, and ask yourself the simple question "Is either one of these candidates fit to become Governor of this Great Empire State of Texas?"

What have they to offer you in ability and qualifications? Jim Ferguson has very little education, very little personality, very little of anything, except rule or ruin. His campaign is not based upon his or his wife's qualifications to serve the State of Texas. He does not even promise that he or his wife is capable of raising the standards of good government for the people of this State.

What does Ross Sterling offer you? By his own admission in his talk in Lockney he says he is not capable of being Governor of Texas. He boasts of the fact that he has not been schooled more than nine months in his entire life-time; the same as saying "That he knows nothing of the value of education, and cares very little if anything about it."

Texas does not have to submit to this disgraceful turn in the affairs of the Democratic party in this state. When the Democratic party fails or refuses to produce men for the highest honors in the State, who are not qualified to fill that office, when it is time for the voters of the State to look elsewhere, in other parties for men that are capable of administering the government as it should be administered.

This year the Republican party in Texas is offering a man for the Governor of Texas, that is capable, qualified, and clean. Few men, if any, in the State of Texas are more highly educated. His qualifications has drawn the attention of the Federal government, in that he has been appointed to position in a foreign country under the Coolidge administration. He has been before the people of this State on the Republican ticket, in 1924, and polled the largest vote of any Republican in the history of the state for a state office.

man in the office that is qualified and capable of being Governor of Texas. We appeal to your common sense and good citizenship to support him.

DO YOU WANT INSURANCE?

There is not a business man nor farmer who can afford to go without insurance and take the risk of loss by fire, tornado, etc., and very few will even attempt to do so. When their policies expire, they will renew them if they possibly can. If you buy an automobile, it is immediately insured by the holders of a lien against it, and that policy is in full force until the machine is paid for, the same is true with your tractors and combines. In other words every man who buys a piece of machinery pays insurance on same until it has been paid for, as far as the company they buy from is concerned, and in most cases the buyer keeps up the insurance on same after it is paid for until it is so near worn out that he thinks insurance is unnecessary.

If the average farmer thinks he has a chance to make anything like a fair wheat crop he does not hesitate to buy a combine with which to harvest that crop at a large expense, and in many cases he will be paying for the machine until it is worthless to him when the last note has been paid to the company selling him the machine.

In this immediate section of the country, especially on the west side of the town of Lockney, for a strip some seventy-five miles long and fifty miles across there lies just under the ground the greatest crop insurance that was ever offered to any man or set of men, a sure insurance that gives an unlimited guarantee to the producer every year, and at all seasons of the year, and yet few take advantage of that wonderful insurance, and instead of taking out this insurance and making it pay them large dividends, go to all the trouble to plant and cultivate their crops and then sit down and watch them diminish with the unfavorable growing weather, for the lack of moisture every year.

It is not a question of whether this insurance will pay or not. Every man in this section has looked at the crops where the water has been applied from this underground supply, and has compared it with the crops where the water has not been applied. Every man in this section knows that no matter how wet the year might be from rainfall, at some time during the year his crop has been cut short by the moisture not having been applied at the proper time. Every man who has investigated knows that when crops are the very best under dry farming methods, that the irrigated farm produces from a third to twice as much as the unirrigated farm, and that the irrigated farmer does not have to wait for the rain to plant and cultivate his land.

Few farmers, if any, hesitate to go into debt to get the machinery they need to cultivate or gather their crops with, when they are taking a big chance on not making the crop they look forward to, but they go right ahead and buy the machinery, and take the chance, when if they would dig a well and equip it with a pump, they could afford to go in debt for their machine, with a certainty that they would raise some crops, and therefore be able to pay for the machinery they bought.

In farming in this country, when cash is not paid for their machinery, which is seldom the case, the buyer does not know that he can ever pay for same. He is taking a desperate chance of losing the machinery and the money that he does pay on it, for he has no assurance that he will be able to raise any crops at all to pay the bill with. It is a game of chance and risk in every sense of the word, and in some localities these chances and risks must be taken, as the farmer has no alternative in the matter; but here in the shallow water belt the farmer does not have to take any such chances, for he can insure his crop for every year and every month in the year at a far less expense than it takes to buy a combine and tractor, and this insurance will in a few years put him in shape to pay cash for all the combines and tractors he wants.

An irrigation well sufficient to take care of 160 acres of land, planted to the common crops, in a diversified farming program; or a well that will take care of a sixty acre patch of alfalfa, can be dug and equipped with a pump for about two thousand dollars, and good terms can be had on this work and pumping material, and this rig can be pulled with a common tractor, and from 900 to 1200 gallons of water per minute can be pumped with such equipment. This would mean that the average farmer could have plenty of water to take care of his wheat, cotton, feed, garden, orchard, a reasonable size alfalfa patch, and most any other kind of crops, and that he would make a good crop every year, and the only chance he would be taking with his crop, would be the danger from a hail storm.

Why not spend a few dollars on a sure thing—for you already spend many dollars on risky things. The farmer who has the water now knows that it pays better than any investment he has on the farm. It is the sure way of knowing that your crop will not be a failure. God has given the farmers of this section a way to provide profitably for themselves by placing this inexhaustible supply of water at their command, and it will show good judgment and good business to put it into use.

There is no use of trying to put up an argument as to its worth. The question in the past has been the cost of getting the water on top of the ground. That cost has now been put in the hands of every man who has a quarter section of land, and the increase in the crop in two or three years will pay the entire expense of the pumping plant, and the plant will last for fifteen or twenty years without any expense for repairs, etc., as has been proved by the wells that have been put in by the Syndicate, some of them have been run for seventeen and eighty-two years without the pump ever having been brought to the top of the ground. Irrigation is not an experiment here, it has been tried, and the people know its worth, and as the opportunity is now presented to get a well on every farm, we hope that every farmer in this district will take advantage of it.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

The Beacon: I'm sick, I tell you folks I'm sick; I have been ailing ever since the 26th of July. I'm down in my back. My kidney's won't act; my liver is dormant. My heart is affected and any body can tell that my head is not right from the way it rattles, and I am affected with a terrible running off at the mouth. I tell you good people I'm sick. I got uneasy about myself and went to see the doctor. After thoroughly diagnosing my case he said, Tilson, you have got a terrible case of Mabetus, and it may prove fatal if you don't get immediate relief. I said, well Dr. go to it, its relief I'm after. He prescribed a spoon-ful of Sterling's pills and assured me they would bring me around all right in ten days or two weeks; at any rate by the 23rd of this month. I said Dr. this is an awful bad disease; I never heard of it before. I have had the itch, the measles, the smallpox, but these were all luxuries and thoroughly enjoyable compared with the terrible malady. Well, I said, Dr. if I ever get over this is there any danger of a relapse? He said it was impossible but if you can run the gauntlet until after the 23rd of August, I think there will be no further danger. But he said, if the worst comes to the worst and you do have a relapse, we have an unfailing, infallible remedy. It is a little bitter and hard for some people to take, but it sure will do the work. Well Dr. what is it? I am anxious to know. He said it was a few bottles of Dr. Butler's double gear, or back action purgative pills followed by a tonic put up by the same doctor. He said it might take some time, possibly until the 5th of September for it to perform its perfect work, but a complete rejuvenation of the whole body would be effected and a full guarantee that I would never have another attack of the loathsome disease Mabetus and that it would never again be heard of in Texas.

Trinity Lutheran Church Trinity Luther Leagues of Trinity Lutheran church at Providence attended the third annual convention of the Northwest Texas District Luther League, which was held at Wilson, Aug. 9 and 10. All of them report an enjoyable and profitable time spent at this convention. In the business meeting held on Saturday afternoon, the district unanimously decided that the Individual Leaguers should carefully study the constitution of the newly organized Luther League of the American Lutheran Church, and that they should seek closer affiliation with that body. An assembly of approximately 350 Leaguers enjoyed a very pleasant social on the church lawn on Saturday night.

The chief speaker at the convention was Prof. H. F. Ander, Dean of the Lutheran College, at Seguin, Texas. In his sermon on Sunday morning he showed that our district motto: "Greater Things for God," could be realized and made effective only under the condition that we take Christ and His Gospel into our work.

Interesting programs were rendered by the different Leaguers of the district Sunday afternoon and night. The program on Sunday night was devoted to a discussion of church music.

The invitation of the Wichita Falls League to hold next year's convention in their midst was enthusiastically accepted.

YOUR SERVANTS

Are you taking advantage of the many electrical servants available? Do you realize the number of ways that electricity can lighten the burden of household duties?

Developments during the last forty years in the electrical industry have revolutionized homes, industries, transportation and communication.

Of the 28 million homes in the United States, almost 20 million now have the advantages of light and power. The facilities of the power companies and the many appliances now in the market enable all of these homes to employ electrical servants at reasonable cost.

These servants do not have to be humored. You do not have to give them "a day off." They work for you with the same efficiency all day, every day. Are you enjoying their service?

To the Voters of Floyd County:

In my campaign for District Judge I have tried to see every voter, and if I have not seen you I want your vote just the same. I have worked hard, because I feel that any thing worth having is worth working hard to obtain. And when you elect me your District Judge I will be on the job in the same way, handling your court with economy and dispatch.

Judge Bain says he hopes you will think it fair to elect him as he has had the office only a half term, or two years. He is serving now at the appointment of Governor Moody, and not by choice of the voters. He had to make no expensive hot weather race to get the appointment from Governor Moody. He only used a little political pull with Moody. Are you going to let Governor Moody dictate to you who to vote for in this race for District Judge? You are under no obligations to Governor Moody, Judge Bain or any one else in making your first choice for District Judge.

As County Judge of Dickens County for 6 years I tried and disposed of hundreds of cases. Of this large number tried by me only ten cases were appealed to the higher courts. In all the others the parties on both sides were satisfied with my rulings. Of these ten cases appealed, only three were reversed by the higher courts. Any lawyer will tell you this a good record, and is far better than the record made by Judge Bain as District Judge.

In the first primary you were good enough to give me a larger vote than was received by Judge Bain. If you will be as good to me in the second election I will be your next District Judge, and I will conduct myself and your court in such a way that you will never have cause to regret your choice. I will appreciate your vote on the 23rd of August.

Sincerely,
H. A. C. BRUMMETT.

Notice to the Voters of Floyd Co. Tex.

I desire to tell you voters to be sure and vote this 23rd for Sterling for your governor.

I came to Texas in 1871, and I became acquainted with a good many citizens at that time, and since I moved away in 1885, from these friends that I made in 1871, and recently I visited these old friends who are still living, and these friends have recently told me that they have known Mr. Sterling since he was a boy, and know him to be absolutely honest, having made all his money honestly, and the reason that he wants to be governor, is for the sole reason that he feels that he can be of some real benefit to the State of Texas, as their governor. I would like to see this county go strong for Sterling.

ONE WINDMILL for a Lifetime

Is all you will need to buy if you select with care. The Auto-Oiled Aermotor is made to last a lifetime. It oils itself, adjusts itself to the strong winds, and works quietly and efficiently in any wind. Day after day, year after year, you will depend on it to pump the water which you are constantly using.

If you choose an Aermotor of the right size for your well, and a tower high enough to get the wind from all sides, the Aermotor will do the rest. One oiling a year is all that it needs. The gears run in oil in a tightly enclosed gear case.

The improved Auto-Oiled Aermotor is stronger and better than ever. It is so skillfully designed and so well made that there is nothing to get out of order. Turn it loose and let it run, and you will always have fresh water when you want it.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

In my race for Sheriff of Floyd county I have tried to personally meet each voter, but it has been almost impossible to do this. For the benefit of those whom I have not seen and to solicit the continued loyalty and support of all my friends and supporters, I am making this last appeal before election day, Saturday the 23rd.

I have endeavored to conduct a clean race, free of personalities and mudslinging. I leave you to be the judges as to my conduct throughout this race.

Let me say now that I am running this race strictly on my own merits. If my 15 years residence in Floyd county has not shown you I am and what I stand for; has not enabled my friends and neighbors to determine my worth as a man; has not shown my character as a law-abiding citizen; has not enabled the people to tell something of my ability; then, I have failed utterly.

I am glad to stand or fall on the record I have made while a citizen of Floyd county. I also invite you to investigate me from every angle, both in private and public life.

It was rumored by some who opposed my election that I had not been diligent in the enforcement of the law while I was deputy sheriff of Lamb county and on the police force in Amherst, Texas. To prove that this rumor was false, I refer you to the sworn statement of some of the most prominent business and professional men of Lamb county, which appeared in this paper recently. In this sworn statement it was shown that I had been diligent in my work as a peace officer and that I had stood for strict law enforcement.

Another false rumor was circulated on me to the effect that I had not paid my 1924 poll tax here in Floyd county. This was common talk all over the county. I am reliably informed that the present Sheriff and Tax Collector's tax rolls show that, up to this week, this 1924 poll tax has not been paid.

For your benefit I wish to say that I did pay my 1924 poll tax at the proper time and that I had my 1924 poll tax receipt in my pocket while this rumor was going the rounds, and hundreds of Floyd county citizens have seen it. Since the fact that I have paid this 1924 poll tax has become common knowledge; since I have receipt for this 1924 poll tax; since J. R. Maddox, who was Sheriff and Tax Collector at the time in question, has made affidavit which was published in this paper, to the effect that I paid my 1924 poll tax, giving the book and page number of the record so that

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ALL GOOD VOTERS TO COME TO THE AID OF THEIR COUNTRY!

Surely, if there ever did exist a time in Texas history, that voters should vote, certainly this is the time.

When you vote for Ferguson, you are approving his pardon record. Surely the record that was made in the last 29 days the Fergusons were in office and sworn to by Mrs. Jane Y. Y. McCallum, Secretary of State, should cause every good man and woman to vote against them.

Surely you good people of this country cannot approve the method of permitting rapists, robbers, and murderers to go unpunished. When you vote for Ferguson you are approving the fact that criminals who commit such crimes should go unpunished.

If Fergusons are elected, who will be the next innocent citizen to be murdered, robbed or raped by the 2,000 criminals that he has promised to pardon? And besides, the effect that the failure of punishment will have on the lawless element. The fear of punishment prohibits crime.

The most unreasonable thing I have ever known is how good, honest people, people who are my friends, neighbors, people who I trust, and am glad to trust, and really better men every way than I am, can still approve of the pardon record of the Fergusons by voting for them.

They tell you Sterling is rich, and anyone who wished to might see for himself that the tax was paid; why has not Mr. Stegall, present Sheriff and Tax Collector of Floyd County, my opponent in this race, CORRECTED the tax rolls of his office to show that Fred N. Clark's 1924 poll tax has been paid? I say, WHY NOT, if he wants to be fair with me and is willing for the voters of Floyd county to know the truth? I grant you that Mr. Stegall may have thought that my 1924 poll tax was unpaid in the beginning of this affair. BUT he has known for several weeks that his record is in error and, in fairness to me and the voters of Floyd county, he should have made proper correction of this mistake and thereby help undo the damage that has been done me by this false rumor.

There is another thing that looks a little peculiar in connection with this poll tax matter. The tax roll in the Sheriff and Tax Collector's office which shows my 1924 poll tax to be unpaid is a "COPY" of the "ORIGINAL" tax roll. The Deputy Tax Collector was unable to locate the "ORIGINAL" roll from which this "COPY" was made, although he made a pretty thorough search for two Floydada business men this week. A search through the County Clerk's office also failed to locate the 1924 tax roll, notwithstanding the fact that a copy is supposed to be on file there. All the rolls from 1889 with the exception of the year 1924 were found. Will some one please EXPLAIN why only the roll affecting Fred N. Clark, present candidate for Sheriff of Floyd county, is the one that is MISSING from both offices? VOTERS, FRIENDS, I offer no comment on this odd situation. I leave you to say whether I have had a fair deal in this matter.

Again I repeat that I, Fred N. Clark, am running this race on my own merits. No one is running me and I am not controlled by any man or set of men. If you elect me as your sheriff, I promise you that I will do all in my power to enforce the law, without fear or favor. I will be the sheriff of every citizen of Floyd county, allowing equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

Furthermore, if you elect me as sheriff, I will appoint as my deputies men you will respect and for whom you will have no occasion to apologize or be ashamed.

Let me again thank all who supported me in the first primary and ask for your further support and influence on the 23rd that I may be your next Sheriff of Floyd county.

Respectfully,
F. N. (Fred) CLARK.

DELIGHTFUL COLORADO

By Marion Watson

Less than an hour ago I threw snowballs; and now the morning paper tells me in screaming headlines that the country is baking in the worst drought in fifty years. Hardly seems possible, does it?

And yet, in the Colorado Rockies anything is possible! Snow in the shadows, sunshine in the open; and always, cool, clear air on the mountain slopes that makes one forget the heat in the valleys below.

A real inspiration, these Rockies. A sea of snow-crowned peaks, awe-inspiring in magnitude and grandeur; sheer canyons whose rugged walls of sandstone and granite plunge thousands of feet to depths below; great glaciers sparkling like millions of diamonds in the sunlight, tumbling mountain streams foaming and frothing against a background of eternal snows; rich, fertile valleys; and endless fields of gaily colored flowers!

So many things to see... so many to do! One could stay here for months and not know the region as it really is. There's Cave of the Winds, for instance, where sixteen fascinating chambers filled with crystalline decoration make you think you've wandered into the underground castle of a fairy prince. Stalactites and stalagmites, they call the queer formations that protrude from the walls like huge icicles and sparkle weirdly under the electric lights (I like the funny names, don't you?)

Then there's the Garden of the Gods, near Colorado Springs, said to have once been the worshipping place of the Indians, who saw in the strange rock figures wrought by Nature, the image of his divinities.

And Glenwood Hot Springs, on the west slope of the Rockies, a delightful spot for recreation. A mineral springs with natural vapor caves, and a great outdoor swimming pool, where you may splash to your heart's content the whole year round.

Finally, the famous Pike's Peak Auto Highway, which turns, twists, winds and writhes upward around the mountainside until it reaches the summit, 14,000 feet in height. Here, from the top of the world, you look out over the universe and find yourself quite overwhelmed by the view.

In the Colorado Mountain playgrounds, under a turquoise sky, the cares of an everyday world are forgotten. Already I feel the temptation to linger here indefinitely. But the calendar reminds me that this is no time to flirt with temptation. For, in a few brief weeks, I must return to the typewriter in the heart of Chicago's noisy "Loop."

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harris left Tuesday afternoon for Carlsbad Cavern, expecting to go through the Cavern on Wednesday, and sight seeing in New Mexico for a few days.

Carl Meriwether spent the week-end in Lubbock.

Herbert Seale and family of Jonesboro, Ark., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. I. A. E. Box.

Letter from Chile

The following letter from Mr. Carl Blackwell, son of A. J. Blackwell of Lockney, has been received by his father. We reproduce the letter for the reading interest that will be found in it, as it is from one of our South American friendly nations. The letter follows:
Dear Dad:
Well, here we are a long way from home. It is quite a different place from the U. S. A. The sun is in the north and there is heaps of snow in the mountains, which can be seen from here. It is very cold for us. We are wearing heavy overcoats and furs and are still cold.
We will be sailing for U. S. A. in a few days, but thought I would drop you a line from here. Will write you more about my trip later and tell you still more when I see you again.
They have certainly treated me royally here. I had dinner with the President of Chile, Monday and with the American Ambassador Tuesday. I have been at the American Embassy twice since I have been here. One at tea last Friday and then at dinner on Tuesday. I have also been received by the Mayor of Santiago and Valparaiso, and by the "Intendente" (or governor) of each province, also by the Secretary of Agriculture, and by many other notable people down here. They have shown me every honor possible.
The best treat of all was at our dinner Tuesday. The phone rang and it was Herbert Hoover in Washington calling. I had a head phone at my place so I listened to a conversation between President Hoover and President Ibanez and Ambassador Culbertson. Pres. Ibanez was at dinner with us when Hoover called. I could hear Hoover as clearly as if he were in the next room. It was a rare treat to be on the phone and hear a conversation between two presidents and be in the room dining with one of them. One spoke Spanish and the other English.
I have several pictures taken in groups with President Ibanez and other great men here, which I will show you some day.
We are anxious to see our kiddies again and to be at home. I know we will be more anxious as the time nears.
Much love and best wishes for you all from us both.
CARL BLACKWELL.

HUMAN RANGE OF VISION
FROM THREE TO 132 MILES
The range of visibility of a person standing on the earth's surface at tide-level is estimated to be three miles. One's vision will extend beyond this, says W. L. G. Joerg, of the American Geographical Society, only when he is looking at mountains or other masses. Range of visibility rises rapidly with increased altitude, being about 50 miles at 1,500 feet and about 132 miles at 10,000 feet.
Sixteen million passengers were carried on street railways in the United States last year and only fifty of them were injured in street railway accidents.

IT'S WISE TO CHOOSE A SIX

Announcing a new production record

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder engine—the comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And

Konjola Ends Neuritis and Stomach Pains Grateful Man Eager to Endorse Fam- ed Medicine That Did So Much for Him

MR. W. T. BRYANT "Konjola is the best medicine ever made," said Mr. W. T. Bryant, 1009 Morrill street, Oak Cliff, near Dallas. "Neuritis became so severe in my legs that I could scarcely walk. There was a constant aching in my back and shoulders. I could never get a perfect night's rest. My bowels were irregular and I was constantly taking cathartics. I always had a sour stomach, frequent accumulations of gas and severe headaches. My vitality was at a low ebb, and I felt miserable.

"After giving Konjola a trial I am like a different man, Konjola restored my organs to normal condition and they function perfectly. I am no longer bothered with indigestion or constipation. The neuritis pains have completely left me and my entire system is in good condition. Konjola deserves all the praise it gets—and more." When taken for six to eight weeks, Konjola the new and different medicine, will work wonders that will astonish those who suffer from the stubborn ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels of rheumatism, neuritis, and nervousness. Konjola is sold in Lockney, Texas, at Stewart Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

INTERESTING BRIVITES Every time an automobile smashes into a trolley pole and breaks it down, its costs $100 to replace. In one city recently in one week speeding automobiles broke nine poles. TO THE CITIZENS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

In asking you for re-election to the office of Sheriff I pledge you the same strict enforcement of the law as I have tried to give you in the past. The office of Sheriff and Tax Collector having been separated I feel that I can give you even better service. I especially invite every citizen to look into my record as your Sheriff and determine whether or not I have been efficient.

In the enforcement of the law, and especially the liquor law, I have incurred the enmity of quite a number of people who are organized to bring about my defeat and will leave nothing undone that this purpose may be accomplished. However, it is a well known fact in West Texas that Floyd county is one place the bootlegger cannot buy the protection of the Sheriff and his Deputies.

It has been my purpose during my tenure of office to give you honest, conscientious service and my record is an open book. I appeal to you for your support on this record. In the first Primary Election there were many good men swept off their feet by last minute campaign falsehoods, who have investigated the facts and are now giving me their support.

I want to especially warn my friends to be on the watch for last minute campaign stories, as the opposition is leaving nothing undone to bring about my defeat.

The issue in this campaign is whether or not the law will be enforced.

Respectfully,

P. G. STEGALL.

She Was Setting on My Knee By and By— I Don't Know Where I Had Found a Chair.

I did not answer. "Richard cabled," she went on. "He said he was starting earlier than he had expected, on his exploring trip through the unknown parts of Europe. And he said one never knew one would come back. And he asked me to meet him here and marry him before he left."

"I was still silent. "I telegraphed," she went on. "I said yes. Mother didn't like it. She said he could put off his trip, come to Singapore—we were staying at Government house—and do the thing recently. She almost forbade me to leave. But—well, Mother's pretty clever; she knows when to stop. She said at last that if I was bent on marrying some one, it was better Richard than—than—"

"I know." "So she let me go. She couldn't come herself; my sister Anne had joined us, and Mother thought his excellency was rather taken—he's a widower, you know. And that made her determined to stop, if the heavens fell. . . . Well!—So I came. And I— Let me go."

I did not struggle to hold her, by so much as a finger or a fold of her dress. I knew that, for the moment, something other than love, or I, had her in its grip. Death. The thought of today; of the man who was to have held her in his arms; lying "tossed with tangle and with shells" at the bottom of the Coral sea. I understood.

She came back as I had known she would, in a minute or two and, shielded by the darkness, let me wipe the tears from her face.
