

DISD to take over Satellite program

The Dimmitt School Board announced at its Monday night meeting that the public schools will take over the Dimmitt Satellite School program June 1, but only for school-age children.

The Satellite Training and Work Center has been 13½ years ago as a pilot project by the Amarillo State Center for Human Development, using a combination of state, federal and local funds. Originally conducted in the First United Methodist Church, the school operated for a decade or more in the Agricultural Housing Project before being moved last September into a new steel building owned by the school district and located near Dimmitt Junior High.

The Satellite School currently has six students, four of whom are of school age.

At Monday night's school board meeting, Supt. Robert Ryan presented a letter he had received from the Amarillo State Center regarding the future of the Satellite School here. The letter said that the state center would no longer operate the program after June 1.

That meant that the responsibility for school-age individuals enrolled in the program has shifted to the school district.

"This means (also) that the prime responsibility of the Amarillo State Center and the Dimmitt Satellite School is the two adults who are presently enrolled in the program," the letter stated.

Harry Heyman, director of the Amarillo State Center, told the News that the new building, state law and local school policy all figured into the state center's decision.

He said that after the program's new building was erected on school property, local school officials "felt that adults should not be placed in the program."

"That was the main factor — we could not use the new building for adults that are being referred to us," Heyman said.

He said the state center "will offer option programs" to the two adults now in the Satellite program here. They may receive services locally or in Amarillo, he said.

Also, Heyman said, school districts are now responsible under public law for the education of retarded but trainable school-age children.

Public schools in Dalhart and Canadian also have assumed responsibility for school-age retarded children where Satellite programs were previously being conducted, Heyman said.

Although the Satellite program in the past has been a year-round operation, Ryan said the small school will probably not be open during summer months when other public schools are closed.

The school district will probably hire one certified teacher for students enrolled in the program, Ryan said, adding that some Plan A personnel also may be shuffled around to aid in the program.

In other action Monday night, the school board: —Called the 1981 school trustee election for April 4. [See SATELLITE, Page 15] statements will also be considered at the meeting.

The afternoon program will feature Extension Service speakers Charles Hottel, county agent; Leon New, area irrigation specialist; Dr. Ray Thompson, area entomologist; and Dr. William E. Black, marketing specialist.

The meeting is free and open to the public.

A free barbecue lunch will be provided at noon, followed by the business meeting and the afternoon program.

The business meeting will include a discussion of recommendations regarding legislative action needed to accelerate the development of a fuel alcohol industry in Texas. Resolutions and policy

Most county workers get raises

MEXICAN FOLK TOYS—Librarian Brick Autry studies a collection of handmade miniature furniture, one of nine display cases in the "Mexican Folk Toys" exhibit now being featured at Rhoads Memorial Library. The unique exhibit, produced by the University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures as San Antonio, will be on display here until Feb. 10.

The Castro County Commissioners' Court Monday approved salary increases for most county employees and reviewed the auditor's report for fiscal 1980, which showed the county had spent $345,500 more than it earned during the year.

After much deliberation and some disagreement, the commissioners approved $75 more each month for most county employees, effective Jan. 1.

County Treasurer Oleta Raper and Justice of the Peace Marshall Young will receive $133 more per month. Their base pay will be $1,050, which will be more in keeping with salaries of other elected county officials.

Joy Jones and Elsie Maxwell in the county-district clerk's office will receive an additional $100. A $50 increase will be allowed for Leonard Dollar, Expo Building custodian. Bedford Smith's pay as veterans' service officer will increase approximately $47 more to bring his monthly pay to $300. Coy Dunn, relief dispatcher, will receive the current minimum hourly wage.

The commissioners gave no salary consideration to Jerry Heller, tax assessor; Beral Hance and Ann Cox, secretaries; Art Kasher and Earlene West, dispatchers; Neal Tindol, assistant county extension agent; Robert Kelly, courthouse custodian; or Dr. B. H. Lee, county health officer.

The commissioners appointed a Salary Grievance Committee including four people whose names were drawn from the 1980 grand jury membership rolls. They were Carl Dean Kleman, Gary Kimbrell, Claude Ray and Bob Murdock.

Also serving on the committee will be county officials Jerry Heller, Lonny Rhynes, Oleta Raper, Zonell Maples and Jimmy Davis.

The county governing board learned that Brown, Graham & Co., county auditors, gave a clean opinion to the Castro County operations on the Sept. 30, 1980 audit report.

Major receipts were $400,000 in ad valorem taxes, $167,700 in vehicle registrations, $145,600 in fines and fees of office, $126,095 in county road taxes and $82,749 in revenue sharing.

Largest disbursements included $462,150 for salaries and expense allowances, $51,321 for payroll taxes and retirement expenses, $342,749 in capital outlay, $139,716 for repairs and maintenance, and $66,008 for fuel and oil.

Inaugural party set in Amarillo

Panhandle Republicans and Reagan-Bush supporters who cannot attend the Inaugural in Washington will have their own inaugural party at 7:30 p.m. when they gather at the Hilton Inn in Amarillo.

For a $10 per person fee, supporters will view closed-circuit TV coverage of the Washington festivities, and Ronald Reagan will speak to the crowd via TV.

Hors d'oeuvres will be furnished to the expected 500 people, and cocktails may be purchased. Dress is informal.

Anyone wishing to join the Dimmitt delegation is urged to contact Deanne Clark at 647-3487 or mail $10 to the Panhandle Presidential Inaugural Committee, 1000 Polk, Amarillo, 79109. Reservations should be made immediately, as there is limited space available.

What impact will MX have if placed in our county?

By TERRI LOUDDER
Congressman Kent Hance has released an abbreviated form of the Air Force Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) on the proposed MX Missile System.

Hance's release contains selected excerpts from the EIS which summarize the economic, social and environmental impact the construction of the missile would have on our area.

The release lists the proposed action for deployment of the system and nine alternative choices. The basing of the entire MX System (4,600 silos and 200 missiles) in the Nevada-Utah area is referred to as "proposed action" in the report.

Of the nine alternatives listed, the first six involve full deployment of the system in the Nevada-Utah area.

Alternatives 7 and 8 involve deployment of the system in the Texas-New Mexico area.

The seventh alternative shows full deployment in the Texas-New Mexico area. Alternative 8 involves split-basing between Nevada-Utah and Texas-New Mexico.

If the split-basing alternative were chosen, Nevada would have 70 of the missiles, 30 would be located in Utah, Texas would get 35 of the missiles and New Mexico would have 65.

The ninth alternative calls for no action, and the report states that this alternative is not applicable.

The release also contains maps and tables forecasting the impact of alternatives 7 and 8 on income, housing, health care, teaching and public safety personnel, land distribution and population of this area.

According to the statement, the choice of alternative 7 could create the need for the relocation of 82 housing units in Castro County. Alternative 8 could mean that 32 housing units would have to be relocated.

In the peak year of construction under alternative 7, 147 additional housing units would be required for the project in Castro County. None of these would be required for the long term, according to the report.

Alternative 8 would require 89 additional housing units in Castro County during the peak year, with none of those being needed for the long term.

1,097 acres of irrigated cropland in Castro County would be disturbed in the short term by the project if alternative 7 were chosen.

The disturbance of 684 acres would be the long-term effect.

The involvement of more than 1,000 acres, or more than 3 percent of the cropland in a county, is listed as a "high impact" in the statement.

Alternative 7 would require 4,611 acres in private lands in the county for the short term. The long-term effect would be the disturbance of 2,877 acres of private land.

The population of the county would increase by 393 during the peak year under alternative 7. That figure is 3.6% above the normal growth baseline. The report states, however, that there would be no long-term population growth due to the missile project.

The total employment change by place of residence under alternative 7 would be 204 in Castro County, or 7.1% above the normal growth baseline in the short term. But there would be no long-term employment increase.

Under alternative 8, the county's population would increase by 237, or 2.2% above normal in the peak year and employment would be up by 131, or 3.1% over normal in the peak year. However, there would be no long term growth in those two areas.

In capital expenditures, there would be an increase of $1,068,000 under alternative 7 and $646,000 under alternative 8. The MX project would induce no long-term increase.

Alternative 7 would mean a loss of grazing land for 1,210 animal units in Castro County, according to the EIS. That loss represents 0.6% of the county's total animal units. Alternative 8 would have no effect on Castro County's grazing land.

The report shows potential water erosion impacts to be low in Texas-New Mexico under either alternative.

The MX system would require a 2.3% increase in the number of teachers, a 1.4% increase in the number of health services personnel and no increase in public safety personnel in the county under alternative 7.

Alternative 8 would require a 1.6% increase in the number of teachers, a 1.4% increase in the number of [See MX IMPACT, Page 11]

Heller to take appraiser's post

Jerry Heller, the county tax assessor-collector, will be the new chief appraiser for Castro County, DISD Business Manager Gene King announced Monday.

King and members of the appraisal board met with the Castro County Commissioners' Court Monday and received authorization for part-time employment of Heller and the use of the west end of the county's new steel office building located east of city hall.

Establishing a single appraisal district is mandatory this year and it will include all the taxing entities within the county. They are the Dimmitt Independent School District, City of Dimmitt, Castro County, High Plains Under-ground Water District, Castro County Hospital District, Hart Independent School District, City of Hart, Nazareth Independent School District, and City of Nazareth.

The five-member appraisal board includes Harold Bob Bennett of Precinct 1, James Welch of Precinct 2, George Sides of Precinct 3, Cyril Brockman of Precinct 4, and Charles Nutt of the City of Dimmitt.

Reappraisal of the district must be complete by July 15, King said. The central appraisal office needs to be operating and staffed with at least five people before that time if possible, he added.

The appraisal board and Heller will have plans drawn for two offices, work areas and a vault. The county will pay for the building's development and the appraisal district will pay rent to the county. Each taxing jurisdiction will contribute to the expenses according to its prorated percentage of collections.

The appraisal board proposed to "share" Heller with the county on a percentage basis until the new office is completed. The county commissioners expressed concern about Heller's prospective release as the county tax assessor-collector, since an elected official's position cannot be abolished.

Without Heller, the county commissioners wanted to know, who will handle auto registrations, voter registrations, licenses and titles? Also, must the county appoint a replacement as county tax assessor-collector if the county tax collections will be implemented by the appraisal district?

Heller said he hopes to have answers to these and other questions when he returns from a training session in Austin this week.

Meanwhile, Heller said, he will continue to serve as the county's tax assessor-collector until the new appraisal district office is opened later this year.

the RIGHT LIGHT THE PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHER gives careful thought and study to lighting his subject. Contrasts must be right and reflections must be right to achieve the best effects. Individuals' lives reflect how they think and what they believe. Our lives count most, when we attend church regularly and walk in the light of the Lord.
EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE
The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Social Security in Castro County

By JANICE ULMER

What do these people have in common?

George Washington, John Quincy Adams, Woodrow Wilson, Gerald Ford.

Almost everyone can answer that question. All of these gentlemen have served as President of the United States.

There have been some equally famous men and women who never made it to our country's highest office. Among these were Benjamin Franklin, Daniel Webster, Susan B. Anthony, Douglas MacArthur.

Other Americans have achieved fame outside the areas of politics and national affairs. In the world of entertainment for example, we could mention Bob Hope, Elizabeth Taylor, Marilyn Monroe, Johnny Carson.

All of the people listed above — George Washington, Douglas MacArthur, Marilyn Monroe, and the others — have more in common, however, than first suggests itself.

They are Social Security beneficiaries. Not only that, there's more than one of each receiving benefits right here in Texas. Every other state has its share, too, of little-known recipients with well-known names.

What's the point in telling you about them? It's simply to remind you of the importance of your Social Security number.

Whatever your name — famous, infamous, or obscure — someone else (maybe lots of somebody else's) shares it with you.

But your Social Security number is something else again. Nobody else has the same number as yours. Even if thousands of others share your name, we'll never get your accounts mixed up if you use your own Social Security number in all your dealings with us.

Make sure you have a Social Security card. If you lose it, get a replacement card (the number will be the same). See that your employer has and uses your correct number.

If your number is used for any other purpose (on a savings account, for example), check its accuracy.

Doing these things will pay off for you and/or your dependents if you retire because of age or disability, or at the time of your death.

Allsup's offers drinks for kids in UCP campaign

Allsup's Convenience Stores, Inc., will sponsor a neighborhood drive beginning this week in support of United Cerebral Palsy.

All area youngsters are encouraged to visit their local Allsup's store Saturday and Sunday to pick up a collection envelope. After collecting donations for Cerebral Palsy and turning them back into the store, Allsup's will give each youngster a free fountain drink of his or her choice.

"We hope all the children of the area will help us make this telethon more successful than ever before," said Kurt Verlei, director of public relations for Allsup's Convenience Stores. "Cerebral palsy is an injury to the brain that can never be cured. We feel that money raised will go a long way in helping the cerebral palsied lead a more normal life."

Biblical history course starts here

A Bible study course entitled "New Testament History" is being taught in Dimmitt by Wayland Baptist College.

The course, which offers three hours' college credit, is being made available to Dimmitt area residents through Wayland's Office of Special Services, and meets each Tuesday from 6:30 until 10 p.m. in the Education Building of Dimmitt's First Baptist Church.

Classes started Tuesday and will run through April 7, with no class scheduled for March 17. Adults, regular college students, and high school students who have completed at least their junior year may receive college credit for the course.

To be taught by Robert W. Gibbs, instructor in religion at WBC, the class offers a study and application of the New Testament, stressing the Gospels, the Acts, and the letters of Paul. The textbook being used is "The New Testament Survey," by Merrill Tenney.

"We're offering this course to people of the Dimmitt area to provide them an opportunity to take a regular college course for credit close to home," explained Dr. Bill Hardage, Wayland's director of special services. "The course also provides in-depth Bible study opportunities for pastors and other church workers."

Cost for the course is $155 for college credit, or the course may be audited (no college credit) for $100. Persons enrolling at Wayland for the first time must also pay a $15 application fee for admission.

Registration took place on the first night of class.

For more information, contact Hardage at (806) 296-5521.

Beet Growers to convene Friday

The Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association, Inc. will hold its annual business meeting Friday at 2 p.m. at the Community Center at 100 Ave. C in Hereford.

The annual banquet will be Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Hereford Bull Barn. Tickets will be available at the door for $7.50 each to non-growers.

Dr. Winter will present a brief summary of his work in the areas of seed varieties and water stress at the business meeting Friday.

Reagan Brown, state commissioner of agriculture, will be the speaker for the banquet. The evening's entertainment will be presented by the Flatland Bluegrass Band, which includes Dale Winders of Dimmitt.

The top grower in each sugarbeet growing area will be recognized.

HAPPY WATER—An unknown artist has turned Dimmitt's water reservoir six miles south of town into a Happy Face, to the amusement of local pilots. Entomologist Olan Moore noticed the change on a recent flight over the reservoir, and on his next flight he carried his camera and shot this picture. The word, "Smile," is also printed below the mouth but doesn't show up in the photo. City officials said they don't know who the topside muralist was.

Lapins promoted to Spreckels post

Doug Lapins, general manager of the Dimmitt Amstar Plant, has been promoted to the position of vice-president for operations with Spreckels Sugar Division in San Francisco, Calif.

In his new position, Lapins will still be responsible for the Dimmitt Amstar Plant as well as five beet sugar factories on the West Coast.

Lapins is being promoted to fill the post of Frederick F. Coons, who has just been promoted to executive vice-president of Spreckels Sugar.

The Lapins family will leave Dimmitt for their new home in San Francisco after the end of this school term, Lapins said.

Spreckels Sugar is a division of the Amstar Corporation, which has the corn wet milling and refining plant in Dimmitt. Amstar markets its sweeteners processed from beets and corn under the Spreckels name, and its cane sugars under the Domino label.

Dapins was the general manager of a Spreckels beet-sugar refinery at Chandler, Ariz., before coming to Dimmitt to manage the corn milling plant when Amstar leased it from Dimmitt Agri Industries, Inc., eight years ago.

Lapins is a member of the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen, and also has served as president of the Dimmitt United Way and as a board member of the Chamber of Commerce. The Lapins family has been active in the First Baptist Church here.

Lapins and his wife, Ginny, have two daughters — Laura, a 1979 graduate of Dimmitt High School, who is now a sophomore at Baylor University; and Katie, a sophomore in DHS.

USE POST-STYLE pierced earrings as lapel or collar pins, especially if an earring back is lost. A cluster of pins, strategically placed, is a very creative and attractive accessory, says Beverly Rhoades, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

A&M program set for users of ag census

A program designed to help users of agricultural census data make the most of this information is slated for Feb. 5 at Texas A&M University.

Speakers at the Census of Agriculture Data Users Conference will describe data available from the 1978 Census of Agriculture, agriculturally related data from the 1980 Census and other census data sources, and plans for the 1982 Census of Agriculture. They will also describe agricultural data availability and uses.

The day-long conference will begin at 8:30 a.m. in Room 601 of Rudder Tower. Sponsors are Texas A&M's Department of Rural Sociology, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Joseph Horak, assistant chief for agricultural statistics with the US Census Bureau, will be the featured speaker, points out Dr. Steve Murdock, head of the Department of Rural Sociology. Other national and regional census officials and state agricultural agency and agribusiness representatives will also be on hand.

Conference participants will have an opportunity to discuss agricultural data requirements and limitations, and to make suggestions for improving such data, adds Murdock. Additional information about the conference and pre-registration forms are available from Murdock at the Department of Rural Sociology, Texas A&M University, College Station, 77843.

Congress will take look at IRS 8055 rule

Congressman Kent Hance has announced that the Internal Revenue Service has postponed until May 31 implementation of a ruling that would have adversely affected banks, local governments, and municipal bond markets.

"If implemented, this IRS ruling would have been devastating," Hance said.

Revenue Procedure 8055 stated that no bank would be allowed to deduct interest it pays on negotiated time deposit accounts of governmental units if the bank uses tax-exempt issues as collateral to secure those deposits.

"The banks in Texas," Hance said, "have traditionally strongly supported the Texas municipal bond markets primarily because of the public fund pledging requirements and the high quality of Texas municipal bonds that have been established over the years."

Hance said he expects both the IRS and the Ways and Means and Banking Committees of the House to hold hearings on this issue prior to the May 31 implementation deadline.

ACCORDING to English legend, King Henry I established the yard as the distance from his nose to his thumb when he stretched his arm.

You can add to IRA until filing deadline

Eligible workers have until April 15 to make their 1980 contributions to their Individual Retirement Savings Arrangements (IRA's).

However, if they file their 1980 income tax returns after April 15 on an extension, they have until the date that they file their returns to make their contributions.

Since penalties are assessed for excessive contributions, this period for making contributions allows

'Computers in Agriculture' meet planned

Farmers and ranchers are into computers just like the rest of the business world, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is working to help them make the most of these technical marvels.

That's the purpose of a workshop on "Computers in Agriculture" to be held at Corpus Christi Jan. 27-28 at the Holiday Inn — Emerald Beach.

This workshop is designed to provide agricultural producers, agricultural lenders, commercial fishermen and Extension personnel an introduction to several of the computers available to them," points out Dr. Richard Trimble, Extension economist in management at Texas A&M University.

He notes that computer programs presently available, as well as those soon to be available, will be discussed.

Discussions the first day will center around electronic decision aids in farm management, programmable calculators, micro-computers and time sharing systems. The second day will be devoted to workshop sessions in these areas: programmable calculators, micro farm accounting system, time sharing systems, micro-computer decision models, TI 99/4 Micro-Computer software, and APPLE programs in commercial fishing.

Speakers will include Extension Service management and marine economists and a data processing programmer.

Advance registrations are requested by Jan. 23. Registration information is available from Lawrence Lipke, Extension area economist, Rt. 2, Box 589, Corpus Christi, 78410 (512/265-9201).

Justice to open office downstate

Kenn Justice, co-owner of Justice Real Estate, will leave Dimmitt this spring to open a new office in Paris, Texas.

Justice and his family will be moving sometime between Feb. 15 and March 1 to Paris, where he will open a Justice Land Association office.

The Justice Land Association currently has two offices, one in Dalhart and one in Vinita, Okla., which are owned by Mike Justice, a cousin of Kenn's.

Justice Real Estate in Dimmitt will continue under the management of Virgil Justice and Cliff Lewis.

Active in civic and church affairs, Justice has served as campaign manager and board chairman of the Dimmitt United Way, as president of the Dimmitt Lions Club and Meals on Wheels, and as a director in the Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Jan, teach a Sunday School class in the First Baptist Church here.

Justice moved to Dimmitt in 1975 to join his father, Virgil, in Justice Real Estate, and later assumed the management of the agency. The Justice agency has been instrumental in the development of the Ruskin Circle residential addition in West Dimmitt.

Flynt, Gruhlkey will be honored at FB reception

Jack Flynt and Perry Gruhlkey will be honored at a public reception tonight (Thursday), hosted by directors of the Castro County Farm Bureau.

The reception will be from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Dimmitt City Hall Meeting Room.

Flynt has resigned his long-time post as CCFB agency manager to devote most of his time to his American Legion activities. A former state commander and national vice-commander, Flynt is now a candidate for national commander of the veterans' organization.

Gruhlkey will be introduced as Flynt's successor as CCFB agency manager here. He was the agency manager in Hall County before accepting the post here, effective Jan. 1.

View from the library

By BRICK AUTRY

This is a short-story column this week because it consists of short items.

ITEM 1: "Westward Ha!"

This gift book to the library is surprisingly good. It is written by Elleta Nolte, a Pampa farmwife whose husband went off to homestead in north-central Nevada near Battle Mountain, a community of 2,000.

He tries to farm his homestead in the face of many trials, not the least of which is that Nevada is not the best place to farm. After he and the two older sons have tried it for a year, she moves the whole family out to Nevada to help him.

In the following year she experiences the whole new world of Nevada. In the end, though, not enough money is raised through the homesteading adventure and the Noltes return to Texas. But wait — there's a surprise ending which could not be topped even in the best of novels.

ITEM 2: The library was fortunate enough to get an exhibit from the Institute of Texas Cultures. It has arrived — all 1,000 pounds of it. Although toys don't seem all that exciting, the exhibit is a wonderful one and we all hope everyone will drop by to see it. It will be here all month.

ITEM 3: Finally, the library has received "Panhandle Cowboy," the much-requested new book. "Panhandle Cowboy" is a small book about the modern cowboy in the Oklahoma Panhandle. It is written by a former cowboy and has photos.

ITEM 4: Mr. Autry, the librarian, has a bad shoulder cramp today and is typing this with his left hand. He got the cramp possibly by lounging wrong in his chair. According to Marie, it certainly could not have been by helping put up the toy exhibit.

ITEM 5: This is a catty way to end a nice article, but honest to God, we mean it. If you have an overdue book from 1980, chances of your getting a book in this library in 1981 are very slim.

Free-throwers aim high in Easter Seals event

Coach Belinda White and students at Dimmitt Middle School will be aiming high and shooting baskets in the Texas Basketball Shootout for Easter Seals.

The event is open to all interested students 18 or younger. Each participant will solicit sponsors from the community to pledge a certain amount for each basket made. Students will then shoot baskets for a three-minute period.

Two statewide winners will be selected: the student who shoots the most baskets in the three-minute period, and the student who raises the most money. These winners, along with their coaches, will sit on the bench with Coach Abe Lemons and the Texas Longhorns at the big game against Texas A&M Feb. 21 at Austin. The two state winners and the eight UIL regional winners will each receive a large trophy and official UT autographed team basketball.

Coach Abe Lemons, honorary chairman of this year's Basketball Shootout, said, "Everyone who participates in this event is a winner."

Basketball Shootout challenges a student's talent and skill at the basket, and also provides an opportunity to become aware of community responsibility and help the disabled.

The Texas Easter Seal Society, the nation's largest and oldest voluntary health agency, provides direct services to handicapped citizens, including referral and follow-up programs, the purchase of orthopedic equipment, and speech, physical and occupational therapy, as well as recreational programs for the handicapped. Recreational programs are operated in a number of local communities, offering a social and recreational outlet for the handicapped. These programs include swimming, wheelchair basketball teams, stroke clubs, and many others.

It's the sound of growth, prosperity and progress in the Southwest. It's the sound of the Southwest making a bigger and bigger contribution to our nation's economy. It's the sound of electricity. Electricity that surrounds us with opportunities and jobs, pride and security. And with proper use of our resources, and new power plants using efficient, reliable fuels like coal, that sound is going to keep right on humming.

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of one of the smallest Beltone aids of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

Send for this model, put it on and wear it in the privacy of your own home. While many people with a hearing loss will not receive any significant benefit from any hearing aid, this free model will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It is not a real hearing aid, and it's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a fourth of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 72820, Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria St., Chicago, Illinois 60646.

Computers now analyze crying

For years, parents have listened to their newborn babies cry without any way of telling why — sleepiness, hunger, illness or anger. Howard Golub may have an answer.
Golub, a doctoral candidate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is developing a technique for diagnosing illnesses by listening to infants' cries, says Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, a health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

After listening to numerous tape recordings of healthy and unhealthy babies, medical researchers in connection with Golub's project have programmed a computer to analyze 88 different components of a baby's cry, Dr. Shirer explains.

Researchers report that this new computer program may have the capability to detect in newborns the following conditions: jaundice, respiratory distress, brain damage and Down's Syndrome, sometimes referred to as mongolism, which is a congenital abnormality with mental and physical manifestations.

Someday Golub's technique may serve as the early-detection device for problems that would otherwise not surface until later in life.

Hartman's shooting paces UT Longhorns

Junior post player Cheryl Hartman from Nazareth has played outstanding basketball so far this season to help direct the Texas Longhorns to a 10-2 season and eighth place in the Associated Press Women's Top 20 Poll.

Hartman, who is averaging 11 points and 6.8 rebounds through 12 games, maintains the highest shooting percentage on the team, hitting on 56 of 90 attempts from the floor for 62.2 percent. She has scored on 65 percent of her free throw attempts. She has started in 10 of the 12 games played by the Longhorns.

The daughter of Albert and Rita Hartman of Nazareth, she was an all-state player on the 1978 state champion Nazareth Swiftettes team.

Her best performance this season was a 22-point output against the University of Iowa. Hartman hit on 10 of 11 from the floor that night. In the rebound category, her best night was against Texas Southern, when she grabbed 20 rebounds.

The eighth-ranked Longhorns, coached by AIAW Coach of the Year Jody Conradt, face a tough schedule in the next few weeks that pits them against seventh-ranked N.C. State, second-ranked Old Dominion, 13th-ranked Stephen F. Austin, Wayland Baptist and Southwest Conference foes in the Southwest Conference Tournament in Houston Jan. 29-31.

The Longhorns made it to the second round of the AIAW playoffs last year and will begin their bid for nationals this year in the post-season playoffs beginning with the Texas state championships (TAIAW) in Denton Feb. 19-21 and the Southwest regional championships in Nacagdoches, March 11-14.

AMERICAN women have lower death rates than men for all diseases except diabetes, a US Census Bureau report shows, according to Cindy Wilson, a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Hearing Tests Set For Dimmitt

DIMMITT - Electronic hearing tests will be given at the Senior Citizens Center on Tuesday, Jan. 20 from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon.

J. Wampler, Hearing Aid Specialist, will be at 3rd and Lee to perform the tests.

Anyone who has trouble hearing or understanding words clearly is welcome to have a test using modern electronic equipment to determine if his loss is one which can be helped. Some of the causes of hearing loss will be explained, and diagrams of how the ear works will be shown.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year if there is any trouble at all hearing clearly. Even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told nothing could be done for them should have a hearing test and find out whether the latest methods of hearing correction can help them hear better.

The free hearing test will be given Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Senior Citizens Center. If you can't get there on Tuesday, call 647-2654 and arrange for an appointment at another time. In-home testing is also available.

Civil War heroes to be recognized

Monday has been designated by the legislature as Texas Confederate Heroes Day, a time for a special observance honoring soldiers, civilians and officials who distinguished themselves during the Civil War.

Speeches, memorial services, wreath-layings and other activities will be conducted in more than 200 counties, at locations of military and naval installations, manufacturing plants, scenes of battles and skirmishes and other significant sites. A number of these locations recognize activities of federal forces within the state.

An educational poster honoring the public service of 20 outstanding Texans in the Civil War will be displayed in schools, museums and other prominent places.

The Heritage and Pilgrimage Day is one of 10 to be sponsored annually by the Texas Heritage Project, a joint endeavor of the Texas Historical Foundation and the Texas Historical Commission. Local chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the 254 county historical commissions are also sponsors.

School trustee rides bus route with pupils

By DEANNE CLARK
Dimmitt School Trustee While many Dimmittites are sleeping, about 12 men and women trek out to the Dimmitt Independent School District bus barn — come rain (in West Texas that is any form of moisture) or shine — before daylight every school day.

Since I have always lived in town and have only heard mothers talk about "the school bus," I decided to roll out of bed early and join the driver of the longest route last Thursday, a foggy day. DISD's longest route (51 miles round trip) is driven by Paul Fry, a teacher in Middle School. Paul retires early (8 p.m.) in order to arise and deliver the Amarillo paper and then drive a bus. He has driven for 17 years here.

Paul wends his way south of Dimmitt, stopping for children of all ages, the first four getting on about 7 a.m., almost 1½ hours before classes are to start. The earliest four fell asleep by 7:30 in their seats, which were not designed for sleeping.

One especially small youngster, who began riding this year, has a large dog that stood between him and the bus for several days in a row to keep him from leaving the house to go to school.

Each seat is eventually filled with two or more "cherubs" who fill the air with chatter and the floors with clutter.

Paul says each bus has its own personality. For example, his motor often dies when he slows to turn a corner.

"There is a certain 'timing' to driving each day, and fog or snow effects the rhythm," he explained.

Although I felt bad about causing Paul to be delayed in getting to his class, I enjoyed the trip and feel grateful to the personnel who drive and the mechanics who tend the buses. The pay is nominal, and the demand is constant.

As a citizen and board member, I say a special "thank you."

More about MX impact ...

These increases in personnel would not be needed over the long term.

The final page of Hance's release shows the impact of MX system construction on traffic. The short-term impact on Castro County would be high. The report describes high impact as "increases in traffic expected which could generate requirements for substantial road system improvements." But there would be no long-term effect on the traffic.

Hance's release summarizes the impact of these various factors on Dallam, Hale, Bailey, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Hartley, Hockley, Lubbock, Lamb, Oldham, Potter, Randall, Moore, Parmer, Sherman and Swisher Counties in Texas, as well as Castro County.

Also included are Curry, Harding, Roosevelt, Chaves, De Baca, Quay and Union Counties in New Mexico.

Hance expected to be approved for W-M post

Congressman Kent Hance's nomination to the House Ways and Means Committee is expected to be approved next Thursday despite protests from Republicans in Congress and in the Lubbock area.

Hance was the first of three nominated to the prestigious and powerful committee last week by the Democratic Steering and Policy committee.

To accept the appointment, he would have to give up his membership on the Agriculture and Science and Technology Committees. House rules state members of the Ways and Means may not serve on any other committee.

The nomination will be submitted to House Democrats next Thursday for final caucus approval.

Lubbock County GOP Chairman Ruth Schiermeyer said Hance's departure from the Agriculture Committee comes at a critical time. Hance has also been serving on the Cotton subcommittee. "Cotton and other agricultural measures are extremely critical to our area. Since Hance already has some seniority on the Agriculture Committee, we hate to see it lost regardless of the opportunity to serve another committee," Mrs. Schiermeyer said.

She added that Hance will be low on the seniority scale as a first-time member of the Ways and Means Committee.

Hance answered, however, that the Republicans are ignoring the importance of Ways and Means Committee actions on agriculture.

"It handles all import and export legislation, which has been the key factor the last five years in determining the prices we receive from commodities," he said.

Mrs. Schiermeyer also felt that Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill had repudiated the voters' mandate by retaining the three seats on Ways and Means for Democrats, rather than giving the Republicans a gain.

The House Ways and Means Committee writes tax law, including all tax law affecting oil and gas legislation, as well as export and import legislation affecting agriculture, and most other tax-related matters.

More about County ...

[Continued from Page 1] was $172,870, the county spent some $345,500 more than it took in during the year. Jerry Ross, CPA, told the commissioners that his firm will present recommendations later.

In further action, the county board:

—Heard a report from Castro County Historical Commission Chairman Teeny Bowden including thanks for the county's support of the history-book project and a promise to reimburse the county for its monetary advance as soon as possible.

—Approved Mrs. Bowden's recommendation to appoint Jeff Isaacs to the Historical Commission. Isaacs is a senior at Dimmitt High School. The commissioners also retained present members of the commission with plans to add another member later. Commission members are Mrs. Bowden, chairman; Helen Richardson, vice-chairman; Cornelia Annen, secretary; Madge Robb, bookkeeper; Clara Vick, treasurer; Edwin "Goose" Ramey, George Bagwell, Lon Woodburn, Georgie Henderson and Jack Cowser.

—Set the official holidays for county employees. They will be Good Friday, April 17; Memorial Day, May 25; Friday, July 3 instead of July Fourth; Labor Day, Sept. 7; Thanksgiving and the next day, Nov. 26-27; and Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, Dec. 24-25.

—Decided to advertise for bids on a county depository.

—Authorized the Appraisal District's use of the west half of the new county building, located east of city hall.

Hand-wash wool sweaters at home to keep care costs down.

Although most woollens require dry cleaning, wool sweaters are an exception. Before washing a sweater for the first time, trace an outline of it on heavy paper. Use a pencil or pen that will not fade or run when wet.

Label the paper pattern, and keep it to use each time the sweater is washed. To wash a sweater, use lukewarm water and a mild detergent. Avoid using too much detergent — it's hard to rinse out.

Never use chlorine bleach on wool.

Pretreat any spots with a diluted detergent solution. Soak the sweater for five to 10 minutes, then gently squeeze the suds through the sweater several times. Avoid scrubbing, twisting or stretching the sweater while it is wet.

Squeeze out suds. Rinse the sweater at least twice in clear, lukewarm water. Handle the garment carefully. Squeeze out excess water after rinsing. Lay the sweater on a dry terry cloth towel, and roll the towel up. Let towel absorb water for a few minutes.

Place the paper pattern of the sweater on a dry towel or sweater drying rack. Place the sweater on the pattern, gently shaping the sweater to match the pattern.

Let the sweater dry away from direct heat and sunlight. When sweater is almost dry, turn it over to allow underside to dry more rapidly. Handle with care, and do not stretch sweater while turning it.

Homemakers meet tonight

The Dimmitt Young Homemakers will have their first meeting of the new year tonight (Thursday) at 7 in the high school homemaking lab. Babysitters will be provided. Daleine Springer of Hereford will present a program on "Caring For Your Skin." The public is invited.

Members will also finalize plans to attend the State Young Homemakers Convention on Jan. 30-31. Interested persons are urged to call Cindy Ellis at 647-5497 or 647-5332.

"I want a 100% attendance if possible," Mrs. Ellis said, "because I'm planning to do something different that has probably not been done before in our club."

Membership in DYH is open to any person interested in homemaking, not enrolled in high school and not over 35 years of age.

DRIPPING at the rate of one drop per second, a water faucet will waste more than nine hundred gallons of water in a year.

Lunch will be Dutch treat, and is optional. The meeting will be mainly a "mothers' time out," and no formal program is planned, according to Chris Maples, club spokesperson.

Saturday's meeting is open to all interested persons. The Multiple Miracles Club is made up of twins and mothers of twins in the Dimmitt-Hereford area.

Anyone desiring further information on the club or the meeting may contact Mrs. Maples at 647-5227.

UP AND AWAY—Three Dimmitt Bobcats battle with a pair of Lubbock Dunbar Panthers for a rebound in the third quarter of Friday night's varsity boys' game here. Dimmitt players in photo are Kyle Weatherford [21], Kevin Cleveland [11] and Randy Washington [24]. The Panthers won the rebounding battle, 47-30, but the Bobcats won the game, 65-58, to hike their season record to 19-2.

Cats, Bobbies burn nets in victories over Dunbar

Dimmitt's Bobcats had a rout going against Lubbock Dunbar here Friday night — until they went cold in the fourth quarter.

After blistering the nets for a whopping 45-27 halftime lead, the Bobcats took a 59-45 advantage into the fourth quarter.

Then their shots started rimming out and they went scoreless while the visiting Panthers cut their lead to three points, 59-56, with 1:45 left to play.

Kevin Cleveland finally got Dimmitt's first points of the final period when he sank a pair of free throws with 1:08 left. Randy Washington followed with two charity tosses with 26 seconds remaining and Kyle Weatherford sank two more with just one second showing on the clock.

The six crucial free throws were enough to give the Bobcats a final victory margin of 65-58.

Highlight of the game was Dimmitt's second-quarter scoring blitz. The Bobcats' outside shooters — Washington, Cleveland, Joe Nino, Terry Mixson — popped the net from all angles as they put on a shooting exhibition that resulted in Dimmitt's best quarter so far this year, 27 points.

Cleveland and Washington finished with 22 points each and Nino scored 10. Nino also put on one of the best floor shows of the year as he made 13 assists on teammates' baskets.

Most of the Bobcat squad played errorless ball, committing only four fouls and one turnover. This, plus the hot shooting streak in the first half, enabled the Bobcats to overcome Dunbar's big 47-30 advantage in rebounding.

In the girls' game, the Bobbies played what Coach Jimmy Hoyle said "was probably the best overall team effort we've had all year" and chalked up a 60-50 victory over the visiting Pantherettes.

Jackie Anthony, giving her best individual performance so far this season, sank six of 11 field shots and a free throw for 13 points, and garnered five rebounds. Cindy Sageser also was a big factor in the victory as she sank all four of her field shots and led in assists with 10.

Steady Becky Andrews had the biggest numbers again as she led the scoring with 20 points and was Dimmitt's top rebounder with seven. Sonya Andrews had a good night, too, sinking 10 points.

The Bobbies needed the total effort because the tall Dunbar girls outrebounded them by 42-21, "and you don't usually win games when that happens to you," Hoyle commented.

The Bobbies led all the way, taking a big 16-5 lead in the first quarter as the Pantherettes had trouble finding the hoop. Dunbar's chilly streak continued until the Bobbies had built a 45-30 advantage going into the final quarter. The visitors finally put together a 20-point quarter in the fourth, but the Bobbies were scoring 15 at the same time to hold the Pantherettes at bay.

Friday night's games were played before a big "Basketball Spirit Week" crowd that included a lot of former Bobcats and Bobbies. Exes were recognized, and current players and their parents were introduced between games.

Pvt. Jessie Lopez
Lopez finishes USMC training

Marine Pvt. Jessie Lopez, son of Ruben and Modesta Lopez of Dimmitt, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and regained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1980 graduate of Dimmitt High School, Lopez joined the Marine Corps in February 1980 under the delayed entry program.

Bobcats ranked fourth, Swifts sixth in state

This week's Texas High School Basketball Rankings, compiled by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, ranks Dimmitt's Bobcats fourth in the state in Class AAA.

But wait. Ranked No. 1 in the state is Perryton — which will be Dimmitt's bi-district opponent if the Bobcats win the 2-AAA title. Perryton's Rangers have a 15-1 record, compared with Dimmitt's 19-2 ledger going into this week's schedule.

And lurking in the No. 3 spot with a perfect 16-0 record are the Coleman Blue Cats.

That means that three of the four top-ranked teams in the state are all in Region I-AAA. And assuming they all win their respective districts, only two of them will get to go to the regional tournament.

The No. 2-ranked team is Prairieland with a 17-2 record. Bowie, Pittsburg, Childress,

New Boston, Huffman and Hudson round out the Class AAA Top 10.

Abernathy, defending state champion, is ranked 12th, while Tulia is ranked 14th. Littlefield, another District 2-AAA team, is ranked 15th with a 13-3 record.

In Class A, Nazareth's Swifts are ranked sixth in the state, behind (who else?) Snook, Avinger, Krum, Brookeland and Grafrod. The Swifts held a 15-3 record at ranking time.

In Class AA, Morton is ranked third behind Sabine and undefeated Archer City.

Police calls

Highway Patrol officers arrested two Hereford youths Friday on misdemeanor charges of possession of marijuana. One of the young men was charged with driving under the influence of drugs. The two were released on cash bonds and fined in later court action.

A 41-year-old Oklahoma man and a Hereford man, 25, were arrested by sheriff's officers Friday afternoon on a bench warrant for charges of theft over $200 and under $10,000. The two were released on bond pending court action. The Hereford man has been placed on probation.

A 28-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested Saturday by city police officers and charged with misdemeanor DWI. He was released on $250 cash bond pending court action.

City police arrested a 21-year-old Friona man on a misdemeanor DWI charge early Saturday. He was fined $253 and placed on 6 months probation.

Highway Patrol officers arrested a Friona man, 46, on a public intoxication charge early Saturday. He was fined $75.

A 46-year-old Friona man is being held on $3,000 bond after having been arrested by city police officers early Saturday. The man is charged with felony DWI.

Highway Patrol officers arrested two men Saturday on misdemeanor DWI charges. One was an Olton man, the other from Dimmitt. They were fined $253 each. A third misdemeanor offender was arrested Saturday by city police officers. He was also fined $253.

City police arrested a 19-year-old Dimmitt man after pursuing him a short distance for speeding and making an improper turn. He was charged with driving with a suspended driver's license and was fined $203.

Highway Patrol officers made two arrests on misdemeanor DWI charges Monday evening. The two men were fined and released.

City officers made four arrests last week on public intoxication charges. The four men ranged in age from 28 to 57. Two were from Dimmitt, one from Springlake and one from Junction.

Kenneth Cheshier, a resident of the Agricultural Housing Project, filed a complaint with the Dimmitt Police Dept. that his 1961 Ford pickup had been vandalized. Damage reportedly included a broken windshield, a broken head light and a dented hood.

Police were summoned to the TG&Y Store Saturday, where Manager Larry Brogdon was holding four juveniles for shoplifting. Brogdon filed a complaint on the loss of assorted toys and jewelry amounting to $35.59.

Edwin Dean Harris was waiting for the light to change at the Broadway and Bedford intersection Saturday morning when his 1975 Chevy Malibu was struck from behind, according to a police report.

The second vehicle, a 1969 Mack truck driven by James David Lockett of Olton, left the scene after striking the Malibu, police said.

Lockett was later stopped by city police officers and taken into custody on a misdemeanor charge of DWI. He was then told by the investigating officer that he was being cited for failure to control speed and failure to give information at an accident.

Lockett was fined and placed on probation.

A three-car accident occurred Sunday evening in the 500 block of West Bedford, involving a 1976 Olds 98, a 1979 Ford pickup and a 1978 GMC pickup.

The GMC pickup was legally parked in the Fire Department parking lot on West Bedford, officers said. The 1976 Olds 98, driven by Margaret Parsons of Dimmitt, was attempting a right turn into that parking lot when it was struck from behind by the Ford pickup, driven by Jerry Lee McGuire, also of Dimmitt, police reported.

Mrs. Parsons' car then hit the right rear of the parked car, officers said.

Mrs. Parsons was cited for failure to control her vehicle and McGuire was cited for unsafe passing.

LOOSE BALL—Dimmitt's Pam Nelson [14] and Jackie Anthony [left] chase a loose rebound late in the fourth quarter of the Bobbies' game with Lubbock Dunbar here Friday night. The Bobbies won, 60-50, before a big home crowd to hike their season record to 11-7.

Teams zeroing in on district play

Dimmitt's Bobbies will open District 2-AAA play Friday when they host Littlefield. The Bobcats, meanwhile, will travel to Hereford Friday and won't play their first conference game until Jan. 27, when they travel to Muleshoe.

Nazareth's Swifts and Swiftettes already have chalked up four conference victories apiece, having started their heavy District 5-A schedule Dec. 16.

Hart's Longhorns and Lady Longhorns opened loop play in District 3-AAA Tuesday night, both losing close games at Farwell.

The Bobcats, Bobbies, Swifts and Swiftettes all have something in common — they're all defending district champions.

The Bobbies, with a 12-7 record, is the only girls' team in 2-AAA with a winning record going into district play. Friona stands at 9-9, while Littlefield, Muleshoe and Olton have all lost more than they've won.

And only two boys' teams in 2-AAA have winning marks. The Bobcats lead the way with a 20-2 record in a super-tough schedule. Littlefield hasn't been slouching along, either, as the Wildcats own a 13-4 mark going into district play.

The Swiftettes cleared a big early hurdle in their District 5-A race when they downed Sudan by a surprisingly wide margin of 66-37 Friday night. The Hornettes went into the game with a sterling 18-2 record, compared with the Swiftettes' 17-2 mark.

Nazareth and Sudan own the only two winning records among District 5-A girls' teams.

But on the boys' side of District 5-A it's a different story as Nazareth, Happy, Spade and Sudan all have good records so far. However, the Swifts (14-3) have already topped Happy (12-3), Spade (10-6) and Sudan (8-6) to gain a big lead in the defense of their district title.

Hart's varsity teams both got off to a shaky start in their District 3-AA races Tuesday when they lost to Farwell. The Horns and Lady Longhorns both own 6-8 records at this point. Top-standing teams in the boys' loop are Vega (ranked No. 4 in the state), Bovina and Springlake-Earth.

On the girls' side of District 3-AAA, Kress went into loop play with a 12-3 mark while Springlake-Earth stood 10-4 and Farwell 9-5.

7th girls win tourney title

The Dimmitt Seventh grade girls won the championship of the Canyon 7th Grade Tournament last weekend, chalking up their first tournament victory.

The girls breezed through the opening round of tournament play with a 37-23 victory over Hereford-Stanton. They held a healthy 11-point lead over Canyon Purple at the end of the semi-finals round.

In the championship game, they managed to squeak past Canyon White by a score of 22-20.

The championship victory was also a first for the team coach, Belinda White, who is in her first year of coaching.

Irrigation increasing, Census Bureau reports

Approximately 50.7 million acres on 303,000 US farms were under irrigation in 1978, about five percent of the nation's farmland.

This is up 9.4 million acres from the 1974 figures, according to the Bureau of the Census, US Dept. of Commerce.

These figures were reported in the 1978 Census of Agriculture Preliminary Reports, recently compiled for all 50 states.

The summary data shows 2.5 million farms with 1,031 million acres, comprising 46 percent of the US land area. The average size farm is 416 acres.

California leads in irrigation, with 8.6 million acres, followed by Texas, 7 million, and Nebraska, about 5.5 million.

By regions, the West has a commanding lead, with 27.3 million acres, compared with the South, 13.1 million; North Central, 10 million; and Northeast, 189,000 acres.

Acres irrigated was up 3.8 million acres in the West, 2.4 million acres in the South, 3.2 million acres in the North Central, but down 10,100 acres in the Northeast.

Artificially drained agricultural land was estimated at 105.3 million acres, approximately 10 percent of the total land in farms.

The North Central states led in drainage with 52.1 million acres. The South had 45.7 million acres, followed by the West, 6.2 million, and the Northeast, 1.3 million.

Illinois had the most drained land, 9.7 million acres. Iowa was next, 7.7 million, and Arkansas third, 7 million acres.

Schools set ECD screening

Screenings will be performed from 9 a.m. to 12 and from 1 to 3 p.m.

To be eligible for the early childhood development program, a child must be handicapped in some respect. The screening is used to detect or confirm handicaps and determine their type and severity.

Interested parents are asked to call 647-3103 in advance and speak to someone in the special education department.

Sen. Sarpalius gets assignments

Bill Sarpalius, freshman state senator from the 31st District, has been named to the human resources, economic development and natural resources committees.

As a member of the human resources committee, the Hereford legislator will serve on the public health subcommittee.

Sarpalius was also appointed as chairman of the Senate subcommittee on agriculture as the new Texas Legislature organized this week.

WV executives die in crash

Two executives of Western Vegetables, Inc., died when their single-engine light plane crashed and burned last week in South Texas.

Killed were George Benschmidt, chief owner of Western Vegetables, Inc., of La Junta, Colo., and his son, Charlie, who was the field manager for Western Food Canning Co. of Hutchison, Kan., and a part owner of Western Vegetables.

The two men were on a flight from La Junta to Uvalde when their plane was reported missing Jan. 5. Their final radio contact was with flight services in Abilene, a Dept. of Public Safety spokesman reported.

When their plane failed to reach its destination that night, the Civil Air Patrol started search operations. The plane was found burned last Thursday.

Both men had business interests here. Western Vegetables, Inc., contracts cucumbers here and operates a processing and brine-storage plant in Dimmitt.

SONYA ANDREWS swishes a basket to give Dimmitt's Bobbies a big 53-36 lead over the Lubbock Dunbar Pantherettes in the fourth quarter of Friday night's game here. The Bobbies won the game, 60-50, to hike their season record to 11-7.

MULTIPLE WINNER—Wyette Maynard, 7, and his dad show the first-place trophy which Maynard's 1939 Ford coupe won in the "World of Wheels" car show at the Lubbock Civic Center over the weekend. It was just one of several awards which Maynard won with four entries. The yellow coupe placed first in the Custom Coupe class and was also named the Outstanding Coupe of the show. Maynard's 1940 two-door Ford sedan placed second in the Antique Cars class and was named Outstanding Sedan. His 1941 Ford pickup placed first in the Custom Restored Vehicles class, and his 1971 Lincoln Continental Mark III placed second in the Current Restored Vehicles class.
