...ed 12 hours, snowed 2 the north wind blew at a speed, the thermometer flirited with zero by dopping 4 1-2 feet, I mean degrees, the thirsty wheat fairly funneled the moisture and old man weather played havoc in general Tuesday night and Wednesday.

Now that rain has poured over our lands, we must scout around and find something else to gripe about. Who ever heard of people being satisfied anyway? And the weather always furnishes plenty of material. First it is too hot, then too, cold, too much wind and sand and not enough rain. If it does rain two days we're going to have worms in our cotton and smut on our wheat—And you know the rest of the aches and pains connected with your fellow man as well yourself!

Thanksgiving time is turkey time. (for some of us) Ah! that reminds me of my childish conception concerning Thanksgiving obtained from the highly colored magazine covers seen each year featuring a little boy carrying a hatchet high over his head in a hot pursuit of a turkey gobbler. Each year I would wonder if the lad finally caught the old bird and chopped his head off, and sure enough on the appointed holiday there he would be right on our table with his toes turned up and his wings folded neatly beside him ready to be eaten along with a lot of other goodies.

But there came a hard luck year when the family budget was low because of illness and the price of a gobbler was high. On that memorial day of Thanks I discovered that our table only supported a small insignificant looking nude hen. Imagine Thanks giving without a turkey, a child without his toys, or Christmas without Santa Claus. My infantile dreams were blasted and I couldn't find a thing to be thankful for on that day when every one else was happy. Tears blinded a clear vision of that pert looking faul who was lying in the middle of the platter built for my imaginary turk!

Rainy, cold weather as we've had this week prompts one to fly into the kitchen and pop corn make candy, or just sit by the fireside dreaming of the future or by-gone days. Many a poem, novel, masterpiece, or invention was born on just such a day as yesterday. Such invigorating atmosphere stimulates one's imagination and sets one's brain to spinning definite patterns.

I am not a poet but I believe even I could almost write a poem about the beautiful autumn leaves seen falling here in our little village as the chilly breezes blow through the amber branches, sending the feathery leaves rippling to the ground in a yellow, brown, and red profusion of colors.

The next time you are standing under a tree and the multitudinous colors come floating down in to your very lap, pick them up and compare the hundreds of shades found in each leaf to the pastel blends in the rainbow. Then you will understand how two things can be equal in beauty, yet entirely different in color combinations.

Picked up here and there: Marvin Cox and George Webster attended a RCA Victor training school in Amarillo Wednesday.

It snowed something like 2 inches in less than 100 miles of Lockney Wednesday a. m.—Hart, Texas—The Lockney little Theatre is practicing on a play "Joe, the Dynamo," to be given before Xmas.—Gerald Sams has been working on an airplane model about three months for the U. S. National Museum Official Columbia contest sponsored by the Model Aircraft Engineer magazine. It will take two more months to complete it—Bill Downs, who has been ill for several months, is seen out on the streets quite often here of late enjoying life again—Windy Woods the new tailor, so I've heard, is one of the town's most friendly guys.

IRRIGATION WELL SUPPLY HOUSE LOCATED HERE

Head Of This Organization Has Spent Years Studying Irrigation Problems

We have located within our city a complete irrigation well supply house. This organization is headed by a man that has spent several year and expended quite a bit of money studying irrigation problems from every angle, including such items as types of equipment in pumps, power and fuel costs and performance, drilling and types of casing, length of suction pipe required, etc., as used in other irrigation districts of the United States. We have reference to Artie Baker, who has just returned from Washington where he spent a week or ten days conferring with different heads of various departments of Agriculture relative to irrigation in this district. While in Washington Mr. Baker was informed that the Federal Land Bank or Farm Commissioner would not finance the putting down of wells based on irrigated value unless this area is placed under a reservation, controlling the drilling of wells thus control tre water reservoir under our farms.

Mr. Baker is prepared, through his organization, to carry out a program of installation of pumps and drilling of well, for irrigation purposes, and it behooves every farmer to take advantage of this opportunity to put his farm under the irrigation ditch.

Mr. Baker has associated with him in his organization the following personnel: Floyd Barber as manager of the sales department of pumps. Ed Tuton is inspector and assists as credit man. Mrs. Tillie Griffith is in charge of clerical department. The general offices are located in the old post office building to the rear of the First National Bank Bldg.

Mr. Baker handles the Peerless Pump, and in order that he might give the people of this section of the country the very best of service from an engineering standpoint on pumps and installation of same, he requested the pump company to send him the very best man obtainable. They complied with Mr. Baker's request and Mr. Worth Jones, a man of 25 years experience with pumps in irrigation districts, is in the field now in charge of installation of pumps for Mr. Baker.

Over across the street from the Baker Manufacturing Co., where casing for irrigation well is manufactured. This department has ordered their second car of steel for the making of casing. This plant is under the supervision of Mr. Cardinal. Also a car load of Peerless Pumps have been ordered.

According to Mr. Baker an irrigation plant can be installed for $1,300 in this area, but he is of the opinion that an expenditure of $2,000 will prove more profitable to anyone who is contemplating the installation of a plant.

When it comes to pumps, Mr. Baker states that the Peerless pump is now the highest pulling pump on the market. That this company has secured large Government contracts this year has ed entirely on low horse-power required. The Government purchases its equipment under competent engineers testing the actual performance.

As we all know there is a limit to all things. Just so many irrigation wells can be put down on the South Plains and then a halt will be made though reservation controlled by the State or Federal government. Also finance for such projects can now be handled under National Housing Act, under Article 1, which is temporary.

If Lockney farmers get their share of these irrigation wells they must act now. We want 500 wells in this district before the lid is clamped down.

Just for your information as to the outlook for irrigated wells for the Lockney country, we are passing this along to you. There is never a day passes but what from one to a dozen men are in Lock-

Doyle Pennington Died Suddenly Wednesday; Hadn't Attended School for Several Days

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Pennington, and grandmother, Mrs. Talley, and a number of aunts and uncles.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pennington of Quanah, and Mr. and Mrs. Foy Pennington, and Mrs. A. J. White of Plainview were here for the funeral.

WHAT, NO DEER?

Alvie Fielder returned Tuesday night from a deer hunt in Kimble and Mason counties with a drooped spirit and a warped disposition because he didn't even get a shot at one of the coveted animals.

"Oh, yeah, we saw plenty of the dad dern things the two days we hunted in Kimball County and one day in Mason, but we didn't even go much as get a shot at one," Fielder said Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Fielder accompanied her husband as far as Rising Star where she remained with her sister, Mrs. Hubert Jones.

Others making the trip were Cecil Fielder of Abilene and Cecil Shultz and Hubert Jones of Rising Star.

Here's to the day when deers become tamer and huntsmen wilder!

ney conferring with Mr. Baker about irrigation wells in West Texas and the South Plains. He is going out after this business and getting business wherever he can. But what we are interested in is getting our quota of wells in the Lockney country before we are informed there will be no more wells put down on the South Plains, and we must act now.

We will have more to say next week about this proposition.

REV. OSBORN SENT TO KNOX CITY CHURCH

Lockney Gets Rev. Hamilton Of Jayton For Pastor

The Rev. B. J. Osborn, who has been pastor of the Methodist church here the past two years was sent to Knox City to be minister there, according to the report read at the Annual Northwest Methodist Conference held in Abilene last week. He and his wife are leaving for their new home this week-end.

The Rev. H. H. Hamilton of Jayton, Texas was sent here as pastor of the local Methodist Church for the coming year. He and his wife and family will be here by Friday evening of this week.

Those attending the conference from here were: Jake Griffith, R. F. Harris, R. C. McGilvray, Luther Cooper, M. and Mrs. Frank Perkins, and Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Osborn.

LOCKNEY LEGION POST HAS RECORD NUMBER OF MEMBERS

75 Guests Attend Banquet; Geo. Newman Given Title of Rabbit Twister of Post

A banquet was given Tuesday evening in the club room of the City Auditorium by the Lockney American Legion celebrating the close of a four weeks membership drive that added 35 new members to the Post, making a total number of 65. That is the most members the local Post has ever had and the only time it has ever come up to its quota which was 60 in 1928.

The Post was divided into two teams with Jack Taylor as Captain of the winning side and O. C. Bailey captain of the losing side. George Newman was given the title of Rabbit Twister of the Legion because he obtained 16 new members, a number unexcelled by anyone else. The winning side netted 25 new members and the losing team netted 12.

F. J. Hurlbut, A. B. Cherry, and John Scott were the Plainview Legionnaires present for the banquet. Those from Floydada were Tom M. Goslee, John W. Maxwell, and Jack Henry. D. E. Cox and A. R. Meriwether were guests from Lockney.

Short talks were made by several of the visitors and Hub Mason, district committeeman, made an address on "For Betterment of the Legion." 65 trees were pledged at the meeting for the park improvement project now in progress at the City Auditorium by Legion members and guests. Sam Miller, Post Commander, made a talk of appreciation to those who contributed the trees and to the membership dues faithful work during the campaign.

There were approximately 75 members and guests present, including the Auxiliary members who served the dinner.

OH, DEER, ANOTHER TREE SITTER!

The 4 1-2 hour tree sitter, Bob Muncy, says he got a deer (four legged) last week in Mason County near Cherry Springs, Texas, when he fired out of the green foliage of a tree as his comrade, Jessie Sandusky, scared the ruminant out of the bushes into the direct range of his gun.

After the hunter's chest had expanded several inches for having made the kill alone, his fellow huntsmen discovered that there were two gun wounds in the animal and yet Muncy fired only once. Sounds queer doesn't it? Especially with Sandusky loaded for deer right in behind the branched horns. But then why hold a tree sitter responsible for what he sees or does much less shoots?

Other hunters in the party were Ross Henry of Floydada, John Cox of Goldbusk and Arthur Barker of Lockney. They left last Wednesday and returned Monday night.

RECEPTION TO BE GIVEN FOR NEW PASTOR

Members of the Lockney First Methodist church are planning a reception Friday evening at 7:30 in the basement of the church for their new pastor and family, the Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Hamilton, who were sent here from Jayton Texas, at the Annual Conference held in Abilene last week-end. A program has been arranged for the evening.

All of the ladies of the church are asked to bring a pie.

Everyone in town is invited to come and meet the minister and his family.

Mrs. W. R. Stone and her son, Jack Stone, of Slaton were here last Tuesday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Grobbs and family. Mrs. Stone is a former resident of Lockney having lived here a number of years ago.

Rain At Last!

First Snow Fall of the Season Here Wednesday; Moisture .63

The heavy threatening clouds hanging over the Lockney territory for the past four days decided to burst loose Tuesday night and Wednesday morning with .63 of an inch of rain here in town according to John Hammond's rain gage. But from the West Texas Oil Mill on to Floydada the rainfall grew heavier reaching something like three quarters of an inch.

It started misting here about 6 o'clock Tuesday night and increased as the night passed. At 7 o'clock Wednesday morning the temperature dropped 4 1-2 degrees and it grew steadily colder until about 9:30 snow began to fall in huge flakes, melting instantly as it hit the ground for about 45 minutes. It rained slowly along until noon Wednesday. Farmers said that all of the moisture went directly into the ground because of the slow falling of the rain.

Reports showed that the rain was general over this section varying from three inches at Silverton to showers at Abbock and to the west of Plainview .64 of an inch. The Fort Worth and Denver had reports of an inch of rain at Quitaque, Hart and Sterley, a quarter inch at Dimmitt and five-eighths of an inch at Petersburg.

It was reported that a heavy snow was falling Wednesday morning at Dalhart and snow and rain at Amarillo with a high north wind. Hart, Texas, received a light snow Wednesday morning beginning at 5 o'clock and about an inch remained on the ground for a few hours.

Thursday morning the sun came out and at this writing there is not any indications of further rains.

FUNERAL RITES HELD FOR WOMAN HERE

Dies Suddenly Thursday of Heart Failure; Burial at Claude, Tex.

Funeral rites were held Friday at 1:30 in the Baptist church for Mrs. W. R. Kendall, 36, who died suddenly last Thursday morning of heart failure while standing up ironing. The Rev. A. L. Shaw conducted the services.

Immediately following the services the body was taken overland to Claude, Texas, where an other short service was held at the Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was in the Claude Cemetery under the direction of the Crager Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendall and family had been residents of Lockney the past three years and before that time lived at Claude for thirty or more years. An old time friend of the family, Bro. Hicks of Canyon, conducted the services at Claude Saturday afternoon.

The deceased is survived by her husband and four children: Billy, Mozell, and Elliot Johnson Kendall and one son by a former marriage, Weeks Hughs, a student at A & M; her mother of Claude, brother, Elliot Weeks, and a sister, Mrs. R. L. Bagwell all of Claude, Kendall's parents of Amarillo were present for both services.

These four days will give the teachers and pupils ample time for a short trip or a vacation at home before returning.

The sad thing about the present strike situation is not the "Wicked selfishness" of industry nor the "unreasonableness" of labor. It is the failure of both to understand their common interest. If an industry makes a man tend more looms, or more fires, or operate more machines than is reasonable, it only means trouble ahead. If labor takes advantage of these troubled times, to increase and consolidate its strength in order to ask unreasonable demands, it jeopardizes its future welfare. Whatever the results, unless the solution of strike troubles is based on "common interest" or "mutual understanding," then those involved are simply postponing tragedy, not averting it. Ideal conditions may be impossible. The world has known only one Perfect Man. But there is a reasonable viewpoint for both sides in every strike and as soon as both sides realize that a one falls the other cannot survive, the better it will be for the general public. And, after all, it is the general public which has to pay for strikes.

in his criticism, but he is springing nothing new on us, as everybody with a grain of sense knows that we have an expensive job on our hands in this relief business, but we will do the best we can. There is just one thing we would like to see happen, we would like to see Senator Borah or some one else throw a harpoon into one Mr. Harry L. Hopkins of the relief department at Washington. He is just a little bit too darn smart and independent.

Along sometime during the first days of December a government agent of some kind will visit Floyd county and tell our cotton farmers what a wonderful thing the Bankhead bill is and how much it has helped the cotton farmer. His visit will be just before a vote is taken on whether the Bankhead law shall continue in effect for another year or not. We would caution our Farmers to go just a little slow in accepting this plan for another year. We have had one year of this cotton plan, and in our opinion, it is not the plan we want. It works to our detriment in West Texas. It might be alright for the older cotton states, but not for a new county like West Texas. Congressman Marvin Jones will introduce a new cotton bill in Congress when it convenes in January. In our opinion, this new plan is much better, so let's put the Bankhead plan on the shelf and try this new plan. Don't become over-enthusiased after hearing a government agent tell you just what the Bankhead plan has accomplished, his job in many instances depends on whether this law is operative next year or not.

Senator William E. Borah, Senator from Idaho, and a fighter from Fighthersville, is raising quite a howl about waste in the department of relief administration, and as per usual he will get quite a bit of attention. Perhaps he is right, at least part right. Where there are billions of dollars handled by the government in any one department and handed out in chunks to various state departments, and from state departments to counties there is going to be waste in some form and in quite a few cases just plain "Graft" will creep in. We are sure Mr. Borah is on the right track above the caprock as for that matter, but we will not worry so much about dry weather when we get five hundred irrigation wells down in this community. Yes, five hundred wells, that's what we said. Sure it takes a lot of money, but we have a local organization that will take care of all the financing of these wells, so you see there is nothing to stop us. We are going to take the gamble out of farming in this community. LATER—It began raining Tuesday night at 11:30 and is still raining at this writing, 10:00 a. m. Wednesday. But we will go ahead and put down the wells anyway.

considerably. There probably is not a single man who has driven at night who has not had his heart jump up into his mouth when, just after passing a pair of bright headlights, he suddenly sees a concrete abutment of his right he has barely missed. Some drivers have not missed them—and are now six feet under sod. Outline abutments, fences, etc., and night driving will be made much safer.—State Line Tribune.

The American Liberty Leaguers, whose membership includes Louett Shouse, Al Smith, John W. Davis and John J. Raskob, are still out in front at times with a chip on their shoulder. They are just a bunch of disappointed politicians. They thought sure that Franklin Roosevelt would take care of them in a big way after he was president, but instead he gathered in a flock of college professors as his chief advisors, and they did not advise the president just to their liking. In other words, everything seems to be down the other fellows alley, and they just simply "can't take it."

Texas voters last week indicated that they are tired trying to patch up the Texas constitution and as a result turned thumbs down on every one of the eight amendments. The time is ripe right now for a new constitution. When the constitution of Texas was written more than fifty years ago, Texas was not the developed state it is now. Its lands was about all the wealth it had and consequently from that day until now taxing of real estate has been overdone in raising revenue for the state. The poor landowner, the town home owner and all the owners of real estate have to fork out the money to run the state, while those with notes and bonds and numerous possessions help spend it. Only a new constitution can remedy all the faults. Our present constitution was a great document in its day. But like the horse and buggy, its day has passed. Eventually we will have to write a new constitution. Now is a good time.—Asperment Star.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go
If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
It takes three good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.
But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

Sports

The Sterley senior and junior boys basketball teams played the Aiken teams on Friday, Nov. 16 on the Sterley court. Both teams were won by the Aiken teams. The senior team scored 33 to 8 and the junior team 10 to 8. Crawford Johnston starred for the Sterley junior team by making all of the scores. We hope the team is profiting by its losses and will turn defeat into victory in the coming games.

The Rushing Stream

It had rained and rained for three solid hours, when suddenly it stopped just as abruptly as it had started. I rolled up my pants legs, got on my horse and went after my saddle I had lost coming home. As I rode, I pictured in my mind the river I was compelled to cross. Finally I came to the river's bank. I coaxed my horse to approach the river. I stopped quickly, however, for the bridge had been washed away! I was forced to ford the river. I drove my horse forward, for I was confident that he could make it. He shied at the water but at last we were on the opposite side. I looked back with a sigh of relief at the rushing volume of water. As I looked I saw the tiny sticks in the stream, being broken or carried on. Being deeply moved I thought "What are men but sticks in the river of life to either be broken or carried on to success?"

We have often heard the saying, "There are two sides to every thing." This applies to our school life also. Many pupils look at school life as a continual struggle to gain more knowledge. They study and work on their lessons to make good grades, and never take time to enjoy the association of their classmates. These pupils make good grades, but their learning is just "book knowledge," of course this will be important to them in later life, but would it not be equally important for them to understand the people they come in contact with?

Then there is another type of pupils. They are the ones who go to school, it seems to play ball, or to enjoy themselves by annoying their classmates. They notice everything in the schoolroom except their lessons. This type of pupil is usually known as a "block head" at school and afterwards regrets that he did not study more and play less. As we do not wish to be either one of these types, we must combine the two sides of school life work during our work time, and play during play time. In this way our school life can be both happy and successful.

LIKES GOOD OLD WEST TEXAS BEST

Mrs. Will McGehee received a letter Wednesday from Mrs. Frank Ford, who has been visiting relatives in her old hometown Vicksburg, Miss., for the past two months, saying that the roses were in full bloom there now and the trees were beautiful, but in spite of it all, she liked good old West Texas best where one can go for miles and miles over the rolling plains without even seeing a tree! Mrs. Ford also sent her best wishes to her friends here in Lockney.

Mrs. R. O. Stark, who has been visiting her parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Will McGehee since last Wednesday, returned to her home in O'Donnel Monday.

The Newer Manner In Kitchen Refinements

The "Nesco" Roaster on display at our office embodies the most practical refinements for the kitchens of today. The charm and magic of electricity is built into the appliance itself. The full, Natural flavor of foods cooked in their own juices is retained by the "Nesco." Oven speed in baking is obtained simply by the "high and low" heats. Average cost of operation is slight. The heat generated within the appliance itself is so insulated that the heat is conserved.

We'll be glad to show you this newer refinement.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Canned tomatoes and sliced onions added to scrambled eggs make a toothsome light Fall supper.

Chives add interest to any kind of French dressing and a dish of soy sauce lends piquancy too. Bananas have an alkaline effect on the body and thus help prevent acidity in the body.

Chopped crisp bacon and chopped pasteurized dates, combined with a little salad dressing, make an excellent sandwich.

The use of white karo in the making of preserves, jams and jellies will help to prevent crystallization.

Canned Florida grapefruit juice served cold, is an easy but appetite-rousing first course, for breakfast or dinner or lunch.

Cubes of canned cranberry sauce—if you buy the bright ruddy variety—make a colorful garnish for chicken salad or fried sandwiches.

Brussels sprouts are immensely improved by the addition of cheese sauce.

Hot foods from a hot country! The Mexican enjoys tortillas, frijoles and favorite dishes usually contain "chiles" or peppers. Mexican Stuffed Peppers (called Chiles Rellenos) may be duplicated this way: take large firm green peppers, split down side and remove seeds and stem. Fill each half pepper with grated yellow cheese, dip in batter (egg and milk and crumb mixture) and fry in deep mazola quickly until done. Serve as vegetable or with rice, and tomato sauce. Another favorite is Chile Con Carne. To make it by the new quick method brown a pound of ground beef in a tablespoon of mazola then add a chopped onion. To this mixture add a can of kidney beans; a can tomato soup; teaspoon salt, dash of pepper and 1-4 teaspoon chili powder. Heat well and before serving sprinkle top with grated cheese and place under broiler for a few minutes.

On Using The Recipes
Unless otherwise specified, hard-wheat or bread flour is recommended for quick breads. A liquid shortening is used in almost every recipe, and it will be found that a smooth cool oil gives excellent results and makes unnecessary the work of melting the shortening.

West Indies Muffins
1 cup brand
1 cup sour milk
2 tbsps. shortening
4 tbsps. sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cups flour
3/4 cup banana cut very fine
1-2 teasp. soda
1 teasp. baking powder
1-4 teasp. salt
1 teasp. cinnamon
Soak bran in sour milk. Cream together the shortening and sugar. Add egg and beat well. Mix and sift flour, soda, baking powder, salt and cinnamon, and beat into creamed mixture alternately with soaked bran. Now fold in bananas and pour into greased muffin tins. Bake in moderately hot oven 400 degrees F. about 25 to 30 minutes.

Quick Orange Bread
2 cups flour
1 1/2 teaspas. baking powder
1-3 cup sugar
3 tbsps. mazola.
3/4 cup milk
1-2 cup candied orange peel
1 egg
Mix and sift dry ingredients. Beat egg, stir in mazola, and add milk and peel cut in small pieces. Beat well. Bake in oiled loaf pan 40-50 minutes in moderate oven.

LET HIM WALK

There seem to be more agents abroad in the land than ever before. When a fellow is out of a job and restless he doesn't always wait for opportunity to knock at his door, but he goes knocking at people's doors and telling them why they should have the article he is offering. But selling books "ain't what she used to be." At housecleaning time most housewives around Lockney wonder why they bought most of the books that now only gather dust on the shelves. However, occasionally a book agent gets in before he can be shot or the dogs can get him. One of them, it is said, stepped into the barn of a farmer in an adjoining county as the farmer was bedding down the horses. It was a few days after the opening of school. "You ought to buy an encyclopedia now that your son is going to school," said the book agent. "Not on your life," said the farmer. "Let him walk the same as I did."

DRESSED TURKEY SHOW TO BE HELD AT PLAINVIEW

The Southwestern Dressed Turkey Show will be held in Plainview December 6 and 7. A total of $350.00 in premiums will be awarded contestants in seven classes of exhibits.

The show is being sponsored by the Staked Plains Turkey Improvement Association and the Plainview Board of City Development as a measure to improve the grade of turkeys and to encourage farm dressing and packing of birds for market. Grady Shipp, Plainview, is manager of the show.

Classes will consist of singles of young and old toms and hens hatched since January 1, 1934, and boxes of young toms of not less than 6 nor more than 10 birds to the box, and young hens of not less than 8 nor more than 12 to the box. Ten premiums will be offered in all single classes and 12 premiums in box classes. 3 premiums of twenty-five, fifteen and ten dollars will be offered in county exhibits.

Contentment!

There is something about a friendly open fire that seems to radiate a spirit of peace and contentment—something that warms the heart as well as the hands. PRACTICAL HOUSE FROCK

Pattern 8220—New and smart are the pleated sleeves and stitched belt of this house dress and very becoming to larger figures. The yoke on waist repeated in effect on the skirt gives the much desired slenderizing lines.

Every woman who does her own sewing wants her house frocks easy to cut and make and this is one which is very simple.

Calico is being used for house frocks because of the gay and varied designs and colors in which it is found.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE to Patricia Dow, (Lockney Beacon), pattern Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Street frocks as distinct from the more formal afternoon frocks seem to be tremendously liked this year, especially by women who have decided to be about a great deal during these brisk Autumn days. These frocks are in woolsens or velveteen, both being equally smart just now. We liked a gray and red overlaid woolen dress trimmed with a stitched red velveteen scarf, as well as a street dress in velveteen pea cock blue, a most attractive shade. This has a carelessly flung open collar. Another nice dress is of gray with polka dots embroidered in bright red wool. This has a simulated bolero with bands of embroidery that cleverly simulates black astrakhan.

Many of the shoe shops are high-lighting shoes to go with dinner and cocktail suits. These shoes serve a distinct purpose and are ever so smart. One such model is an oxford in black crepe with silver, petal piping while another model is a high-collared opera pump in black satin with pipings and narrow lines of gunmetal kid. Black suede with silver, and brown suede with gold pipings are liked.

A good fur-trimmed cloth coat will give you ever so much more wear than will an inferior all-ful coat. The new cloth coats use fur with a lavish but discreet hand many of them featuring huge fur cuffs that actually become muffs when the hands are placed together. This fashion is liked, too for evening wraps, a charming wrap of caramel brown velvet using these enormous cuffs in kolinsky. The coat with fine silver fox trim is good for almost all occasions. A useful model is in sleek black woolen with a big high collar of silver fox with a fox head in front at either side. Grand for general daytime wear, is a double breasted coat of beige tweed with tailored, pointed revers of muskrat.

Most likely your new evening frock will have a slit skirt to show an alluring few inches of silk clad leg, but if it has a train, the train will be short. And it is quite likely that it may have a tunic and it may be trimmed with fur. All these points mark a lovely gown which is of dull rose taffeta with slanting shoulder straps of brown kolinsky that continue down the back to the waist. Delightful for the more mature woman is a tunic dress of plum colored Chantilly-type lace with a long slim tunic and a trained skirt. There is a sash of plum colored satin. Another tunic dress has a tunic that is pointed at the back to form an overtrain. It is of red sequins over a dull red crepe skirt.

Leopard is a splendid fur for the coat designed for the younger woman, and it is splendid as trimming on suits and cloth coats. One girl wears a dark green suit with leather collar and muff and her dark green hat has a touch of leopard, too. A black tweed has a collar and wide, double revers of leopard, while the spotted pelt is also used in a vertical border of the fur. The bellshaped oversleeve is banded with the fur.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Brown of Dallas, and former residents of Lockney, were here a few days the first of the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dines and other friends.

Miss Roberta Barber of Hart, Texas, was here over the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barber.

BACKSTAGE in the TELEPHONE SERVICE

The telephone service this company furnishes you could not be as uniformly good, as quietly accurate, as far-reaching and inexpensive, if the nation-wide organization of the Bell System did not stand behind it.

There is American Telephone and Telegraph Co., the parent organization, furnishing technical and business guidance to the 24 operating companies.

There is Bell Laboratories, the research organization, constantly seeking better and more economical methods and equipment.

There is Western Electric, the supply unit, buying and manufacturing at a cost in most cases below what would be paid in competitive markets.

Each of these units stands behind the men and women who give you your local telephone service. Each is dedicated to the fundamental and enduring Bell System policy of giving good telephone service, at a fair cost to the user.

Back of this policy lies our belief that in an undertaking such as ours, planned for the long run, what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the course that will be the sounder, more enduring success.

1935 CORN-HOG PROGRAM DISCUSSED
"A corn-hog program for 1935 has been definitely decided upon by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and the contract and other forms are being prepared now." Farmers will be invited to sign these contracts either late in December of this year or early in January 1935.
The 1932-1933 base already established will be used again in carrying out both the programs.

...the hope up to 90 per cent of the established base, and benefit payments will be figured at $15 per head for the 10 per cent not produced. Another feature of the 1935 hog program is that it permits the unrestricted purchase of feeder pigs by contract signers from contract signers.
An outstanding feature of the 1935 corn program lies in the fact that the exact amount produced is optional with the farmer within the limits of 70 per cent of 90 per cent of the established base. Benefit payments will be made at the rate of 35 cents per bushel on the appraised and adjusted yield.
Regulations as to what contract

...of corn production will be liberal. The only restriction is that they may not increase the amount of land planted to any other base commodity.
Exact details of the corn and hog programs are not yet available, but it is hoped that they will be announced some time within the next 30 days.
PIE SUPPER AT CEDAR
A pie supper will be given Friday Nov. 23 at the Cedar Auditorium for the benefit of the basket ball teams.
All the ladies are invited to come and bring pies, and all the men to bring a pocketfull of

...boys and girls, are going to buy suits with the money made.
Mr. and Mrs. David Hamilton of Plainview were in Lockney Sunday as the guests of their parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Morg. Hamilton.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tannahill of Stinnett have moved into the

NOTICE! To The Irrigation Minded I Have Found a LIGHTER PULLING PUMP That Is Perfect In Operation. Before you buy go see the Peerless Pumps now in operation at the W. H. Pope place 6 miles south of Lockney, Arch Crager's place 6 1-2 miles southwest of Lockney, L. P. Cox farm eight miles east of Plainview, and B. S. Livingston's place 1-2 mile northwest of Kress. Guy Johnson 9 miles west of Plainview. Take a gallon measure and test the gas consumption with any other pump sold or operated and see the saving in operation. Don't let anyone make you think this pump is not sufficiently constructed, and if anyone questions the shaft size used it reflects his utter daubness of pump requirements. You would have a stronger wheel on your car if you would use truck wheels instead of car wheels, but you can make sixty miles on car wheels and forty miles on truck wheels, at the same fuel cost. This pump does have as good a guarantee from the factory as any pump made, also maybe a much larger company too boot to make the guarantee good. The Government has purchased large quantities of these pumps this year based on low cost performance. These are the reasons that I am selling these pumps. They can be financed through the Federal Housing Plan. Artie Baker Lockney, Texas
