BRITAIN FACES MOST SERIOUS LABOR CRISIS IN HISTORY OF EMPIRE

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Efforts of the trade unionist mediators to find some means whereby the government and the railroad men might be brought together are unabated in spite of the breach in negotiations. Fourteen chosen delegates met today at headquarters of the Transport Workers' Federation to formulate further proposals. It is expected that they will approach Premier Lloyd George Monday and press their propositions before the trades leaders Tuesday. The cabinet met this morning at the residence of Premier Lloyd George. Never in the history of the British empire have the people faced a more grave labor crisis. The government has appealed to the people to form a citizen army and aid in the work of maintaining the food supply, while union leaders, who have been in conference here, have started for the big labor centers throughout the British Isles to engage in a vigorous campaign. In the meantime some improvement in railroad service is reported.

KING ALBERT FLIES OVER N. Y.; "FINE," HE SAYS

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—King Albert of Belgium flew over New York this morning in a naval hydro-airplane piloted by Lieutenant Commander Hauser. When the king alighted, he said enthusiastically, "It was a grand spectacle." Visits to places of interest occupied the time of the Belgian royal family today. They depart for Boston tonight.

ARREST MADE IN THE COOPER MURDER CASE

NASHVILLE, Oct. 4.—Thomas E. Jennings, a member of a prominent family here, was arrested today on the charge of being an accessory to the murder of Robin Cooper, prominent lawyer, Aug. 23, last. The warrant was sworn out by Gabriel E. Hansen, the psycho-analytical detective from Memphis. It is stated Jennings will be released on a nominal bond.

STAMFORD IS IN NEED OF AN EXPRESS DEPOT

STAMFORD, Texas, Oct. 4.—The local produce dealers will be represented at the special hearing granted the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, by the Railroad Commission to urge the building of an express depot here. Stamford does a jobbing business of five or six million dollars per year at the present rate. Much of the business is lost because the express service is not adequate for the shipment of perishables. The coming winter adds to the importance of an express depot. There is no jobbing center with a volume of business approaching that of Stamford that has an express depot.

BLOCKADE ON FIUME HAS NOW BEEN LIFTED

ROME, Oct. 4.—Orders that the blockade of Fiume be lifted were issued by the government today and Italian authorities in the vicinity of Fiume have received orders to allow mail and foodstuffs to pass into the city. VENICE, Oct. 4.—The steamer Hohenlohe, flying the inter-allied flag, with a cargo of foodstuffs for Fiume, has altered her course and is heading for Fiume, according to the newspaper E. Tempo.

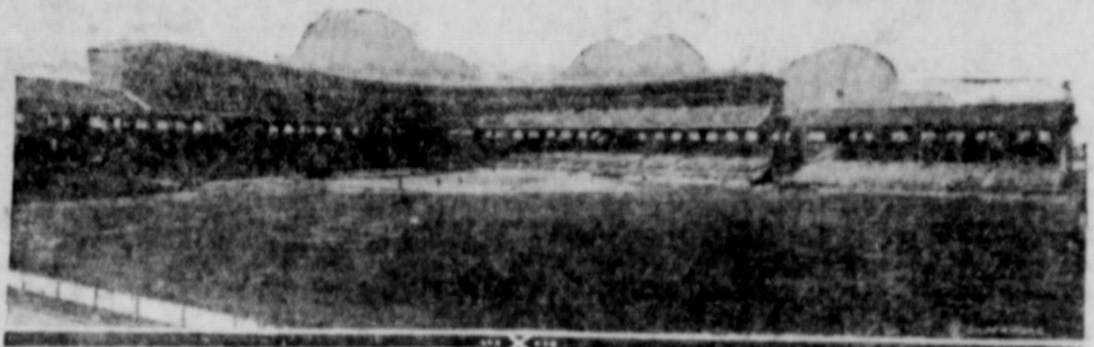

PARIS PAPERS ARE CONCERNED OVER WILSON

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Special prominence is given in all newspapers here to the Washington dispatches relative to the illness of President Wilson and editorial comments reflect that concern is felt in Paris over his condition. The Echo de Paris says that the President's illness means that the American senate will be left to itself, which perhaps is a "good thing." The Journal says that the "eclipse" of such a great factor is an event full of consequences as no one can replace Wilson.

Dr. Stitt and Puffin of Washington, who have been assisting Dr. Cereum, also have been called for the consultation.

Many residences have been erected in that section within the last few weeks and others are being built.

Cotton Hauled Long Distances to Cisco Gins

CISCO, Oct. 4.—Cotton is being hauled long distances to the Cisco gin, which is keeping the gin crews overworked to keep up with the long trains of wagonloads of the fleecy staple. It is said by some that in many places in the county where the oil fields are being developed most extensively that no gins are in operation this year, which is said to be especially true at Ranger, where valuable gin lots were leased for drilling.

WORST IS OVER AT ELAINE, ARK.; NO RELAXATION

ELAINE, Ark., Oct. 4.—Inhabitants of this little town breathed easier today than at any time since early in the week when race disturbances of a serious nature burst out without warning. It is generally believed that the worst of the trouble is now over. However, officials are emphatic in their assertions that there will be no relaxation of emergency measures and there are no indications today that the 500 soldiers sent here from Camp Pike will be withdrawn soon. Army officers estimated today that 800 negroes had passed through their hands. Among them were four women. The number of negroes known to have been killed as a result of the disturbances by soldiers and possees is given at fourteen, but officials believe from the statements they obtained from prisoners that the total death list might be doubled.

MORE NEGROES KILLED. HELENA, ARK., Oct. 4.—Confronted with the evidence pointing to the existence of an organization adaptable as an instrument of insurrection, Helena's committee of seven today renewed its efforts to determine beyond doubt the source of the agitation in the negro uprising, which broke out eighteen miles south of here at Elaine Tuesday. Declaring that the disturbances were on the wane with the exception of the rounding up of the scattered bands of blacks by the military, Elaine today announced the unconfirmed report that four or five negroes were killed last night at Lambrook, seven miles distant. The announcement added that a machine gun squad and a number of infantrymen participated in the battle.

UNIONS ARE LOSING IN THE STEEL STRIKE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 4.—The strike situation in the Pittsburgh district was quiet today in apparent anticipation of developments Monday when many mills shut down since the inauguration of the strike will resume operations. The steel companies continue to make preparations to open their plants while union leaders are exerting every effort among the steel men to keep them away from the mills.

Dr. Drives Lavalliere Stage Beauty, to Convent

By NEWTON C. PARKE International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—Eva Lavalliere, who once shared the honors of the French stage with Sarah Bernhardt, is leaving her theatrical career at the height of success, with managers offering her fat contracts, to enter a convent.

The beauty, who was a favorite with the late King Edward on his visits to the French capital and who cherished gifts from another European monarch, now dead, will become a Carmelite nun in an old convent at Marseilles.

She is quitting the stage, she told her friends at an elaborate dinner of farewell, because of a strange dream in which she saw herself pictured as a wrinkled old beggar at the door of one of the "old Paris restaurants where she had so often presided as the emcee of festivities.

"I had come home after what we thought was a 'big night,'" she said. "It was one of those after-theater parties, with wine and songs, that lasted until nearly daybreak.

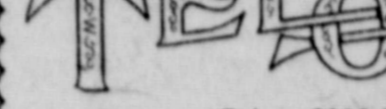

"The dream was so vivid I awoke suddenly, sitting upright in bed. I saw my old friends alighting from motor cars, richly clad as usual, entering the door of a gaily-lighted restaurant. I was outside in the cold, dressed in rags, shivering and bent like a woman of seventy, stretching out my hand for a few sous, unrecognized by the people who used to toast me and call me the queen of the French stage.

"I slept no more than night. When I awoke I went to see an old abbe whom I had known from childhood and told him of my dream. At first he advised against my entering a convent, but I have talked with him for two weeks and he finally has given his consent."

During her career of many years on the French stage Eva Lavalliere has displayed much interest in religious matters. She often visited Lourdes and watched sick pilgrims bathe themselves in the waters that were reputed to have miraculous healing effects.

I arose I went to see an old abbe whom I had known from childhood and told him of my dream. At first he advised against my entering a convent, but I have talked with him for two weeks and he finally has given his consent."

BITTER TASTE SOUR STOMACH

Pills and Strong Medicines Made This Lady's Troubles Worse, But Theford's Black-Draught Improved Her Appetite and Took Away Her Bile.

Nancy, Ky.—Mrs. Cora Waddle, a resident of this place, gives out this statement: "I have taken Black-Draught and found it to be the best liver medicine I ever used. It has just been fine for indigestion, sour stomach and a bitter taste in the mouth.

I used to get bilious and constipated and had to take something. Pills and other strong medicines would only tear my stomach up and leave me in a worse fix than before making. I began to have sick headaches.

After learning of Black-Draught I took it and was cured of sick headaches. One or two doses a week, or a pinch after meals, kept the bowels open and took away all bile. I have a good appetite, due to my use of Black-Draught."

If your liver is not acting properly you may suffer from such symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless relief is obtained serious trouble may result.

In its 70 years of successful use, Theford's Black-Draught has been found to relieve these ailments and stimulate the liver.

100 DOCTORS ASKED TO HELP FIGHT THE 'FLU

The Times has received the following:

In order that every possible contingency may be provided for in the event of a recurrence of influenza in epidemic form, I am calling upon the medical profession for 100 volunteer physicians who are willing, in the necessity arises, to serve as consulting assistant surgeons of the United States public health service, co-operating with the state board of health, at a salary of $200 a month, $4 per diem for subsistence, together with railroad fare.

It is the desire of the United States public health service and the state board of health to enlist 100 physicians who are willing to go to any designated point in the state and do relief work during a possible epidemic of influenza and without any charges for their services other than that above indicated.

Physicians desiring to enlist in this volunteer corps may do so by filing their applications in writing with me. All applications received will be duly recorded and given careful consideration in the order in which they are received. Very truly yours,

C. W. GODDARD, M. D.
"State Health Officer."

School Enrollment Reaches 350; Half-Day System

The enrollment in the city schools continues to increase. The total enrollment up to the 1st of September was 1650, distributed as follows:

On account of limited room in the lower grades, two new rooms have been constructed at the central school and will be available next week.

The high school is not crowded as badly as the grade schools and a number of additional high school pupils could be accommodated without difficulty. By the use of the half day system in the lower grades room has been provided for other grade pupils and it is the belief of the faculty that they will be able to find room for all who desire to attend, until the new buildings are completed. However, "unders" are not permitted to attend.

THEATERS

THEDA BARA IN "SALOME" SHOWS LAST TIME TODAY

Theda Bara's screen reincarnation of "a woman scorned" at the Liberty strikes a happy medium between the coldly classic silhouette of Jesus, the pornographic profile of Oscar Wilde and the vocally vibrant, orchestraly passionate—but still stonily statuesque heroine of Richard Strauss' operatic tone-picture of "Salome."

Miss Bara gives her audiences, whether they have ever seen, read or even heard of "Salome," a vivid realization of Shakespeare's line, "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." In addition, the hot, barbarous, but primarily human, heart of the proud princess of Herod's day is laid bare, so that even the who shriller at her deeds and reproach her Olympian lack of morals, must shed a pitying tear over the terrible, if deserved, punishment of one who "loved not wisely but too fiercely."

Buried under an avalanche of Roman shields, the last of a line of these magnificent barbarians who flourished in the blood-stained, passion-swayed days before John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea.

Canada Must Pay $30,000,000 to Its Wounded

Loans aggregating nearly $31,000,000 were authorized. Most of the borrowers sought money to purchase and improve homestead lands.

Great Record for Safety Made by Big Motor Plant

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Safety work in connection with the construction and operation of the government's big explosive plant "C" at Nitro, West Virginia, was described by W. E. Williams, the safety engineer in charge, at a meeting of the national safety council. The average number of employees in 1918 was 9,996, with an average of 182 per week admitted to the hospital. For treatment for such minor injuries as wood splinters, scratches, contusions, etc., foremen having been instructed to send all injured men to the hospital no matter how small the injury. As a result of this, Mr. Williams said, there were only 414 infection cases for the entire year, or an average of one to 1,000 working men.

More than 400 buildings were erected for the manufacture of smokeless powder alone. In addition twenty-nine store buildings, forty-three hospital buildings, more than 1,250 buildings for workmen, and ninety residences for executive officers were built up, a total of more than 1,800 buildings constructed in nine months.

"The greatest contributor to our accident list was out of our old familiar enemy, 'mills plus carelessness,'" the speaker said.

There were only eleven deaths due to accidents during the entire year and the great powder plant covering 240,000 square feet and consuming 2,500 tons of coal a day was built without a single death or permanent disability accident.

When the actual manufacture of powder began, additional precautions were taken to secure the safety of employees. Only one person received severe burns, a woman who eventually recovered. Mr. Williams described the process of making smokeless powder and the many steps taken to secure safety.

SCHOOL CONCERN.

The school facilities of Ranger should be made as adequate as the demands require. Just at this time the population of the city is being somewhat restricted because the schools are hampered for room. This condition is said to obtain to a less degree in other cities in West Texas. Heads of families employed locally deprecate long absence from wives and children and desire for the day when they can bring them here. But no man who loves his children will fail to deny himself the pleasure of association with his family for a time in order that his children may obtain the benefits of schools elsewhere not to be found here. In the last few days The Times has been informed of a number of heads of families who are not bringing their families here because school facilities deny them privileges to which they are entitled. The attendance this fall has been the greatest in the history of Ranger. All the double rooms have been occupied. At the same time, many of the recreation rooms have been vastly overcrowded. The individual pupil received less instruction and the teacher is overworked. It is said that in one room in a local school one hundred pupils received instruction from one teacher. The school structures are insufficient to meet the demands. This was anticipated back in the spring. Assurances were given that every possible step would be taken to meet the surplus scholastics known to be arriving. The situation has not been met. Whether it was partly the fault of the school board and partly of getting material and of the general situation, the purpose to say. Nevertheless, the situation has not been met. Every citizen of

We cannot continue to speak at length of our superior school facilities insofar as they are encouraged to welcome new pupils.
The Times suggests that immediate consideration be given to the situation. Let us study this matter from all angles. Let us suggest, think, study and ponder these matters. If we cannot increase these facilities without further financial aid, let us appeal to the citizenship. If it is a matter of inability to get material for the new structures, let us combine forces to bring about a preferential movement of building supplies. Those most essential structures. At any rate, if it is impossible to meet the situation, let us so state, so that the world may know that while we have overcome every other obstacle standing in our progress, we are unable to meet and defeat the issues opposed to an adequate school system.

"UNLOAD TODAY."

Without entering into the matter in detail The Times coincides with officials of the Texas & Pacific railroad that fifty per cent of the present alleged bad service locally is due to failure of shippers and receivers to properly load and unload cars. Figures are truthful elements if correctly employed. Director Lancaster has appended figures on the car capacity of the local yards, which adequately tend to prove that inbound freight moving into Ranger can be equitably taken care of if "Jones will remove his freight." These figures show carload freight receipts unload only about one-third of the cars daily brought here. Naturally this causes congestion.

No one can justly place all the blame upon patrons of the road. The company at times doubtless is to be censured. But much of the alleged abuse by the railroads is caused by patrons themselves. Until they see the condition in its true light not much relief can accrue to the city and the oil fields. There should be the most cordial relations existing between railroad and patrons. Co-ordination of forces for the upbuilding of Ranger and the oil fields is the dominant principle that should govern. Let's play fair with the railroad. Let's play fair with our neighbor. Let's play fair with ourselves. Let's unload our freight promptly. Unload today—but not on the railroad!

DAY SWEEPINGS.

If there is not a city ordinance prohibiting the sweeping of sidewalks in the business section between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m., there should be one. If there is one, it should be rigidly enforced. Pedestrians dislike to walk into a germ-filled dust cloud without a gas mask. Sweepers never halt in their task when ladies and gentlemen pass, but give them the benefit of the dust!

At any rate, if it is essential that sidewalks be swept clean between those hours a sprinkling should be given the dust to prevent its flying upon clean clothes and into the face, nose and eyes of those who pass by at the time.

WOULD YOU MURDER?

Again we must take cognizance of the threatened "flu." The weather has been summer-like. The elements have been propitious for the virus of the dread malady to make itself dangerous. We have been fortunate up to this time with no deaths and few patients.

But there is coming a day when the weather will be propitious for the rapid propagation of this plague. Will it find us prepared with preventives?

Are we conforming to the instructions and suggestions of the state department of health? Have we cleaned up our premises? Has the cesspool been eliminated? Has the muddy drain or ditch been cleansed? How is our back yard? Do we through ignorance propose to commit suicide?

Will we negligently murder our neighbors?

Let Ranger take time by the forelock and cast the flu into the discard.

Receipts in the World's Series to Total Great Sum

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—What the world's series means in dollars and cents to the baseball fraternity can be exemplified by the statement that before the present series is completed the gate receipts for such contests played under the jurisdiction of the national commission will reach the impressive total of more than $3,500,000. Notwithstanding recent remarks to the contrary it is doubtful if big league baseball would have mounted its imposing position without the aid of the world's series.

The battle for the championship is the logical climax for each season's pennant races and the fact that close to two million spectators have paid almost three and a half million dollars to witness such contests places the stamp of public approval upon the play beyond cavil. Since 1903, when the national commission began its supervision of the world's series, fourteen have been played and the Chicago Americans and the Cincinnati Nationals now are engaged in a struggle for the fifteenth championship.

During the last fourteen seasons the attendance totaled 1,915,494, and as seventy-eight games were played in these series the average attendance has been very close to 25,000 per game. In the same period these spectators have paid in at the gate about $1.80 each for the privilege of watching the play, the aggregate gate receipts for the seventy-eight games being $3,429,720, in round figures, which is an average of very close to $44,000 per game.

Further delving into the figures shows that the club owners have profited to a greater extent than the players, for the sums divided among the competing clubs and the leaguers during the past fourteen years reaches the pleasing total of $1,715,700, while the baseball warriors have collected $1,370,300. The players represented twenty-eight teams during those series and even under a fifty-fifty division of the pool instead of the customary sixty and forty split, the players would have been more than $60,000 per team.

Why it is almost impossible to ascertain just how many players figured in the division of the money during the past fourteen years a fair average would be in the neighborhood of twenty-five in each club. Using this average as a basis it will be seen that about 700 players have shared in the world's series wealth. Until within a season or two it has been customary for the winning combination to receive 60 per cent of the pool and the losing team 40 per cent. Upon this basis some 350 players have received about $2,350 as winners and an equal number $1,500 as losers. The national commission's average per game approximates $4,380. Although it is quite likely that a new record in gate receipts may be established in the present nine game series it is doubtful if the players' share will equal the record established in 1912, since the new distribution arrangement requires that one-quarter of their pool go to proceeds of five games instead of four, but the deduction of 25 per cent of their pool is likely to more than counterbalance the gain from the fifth contest receipts. The club owners also are required to share more liberally this season with the other magnates of the league than in past years, for they will divide just half of their portion of the receipts with the clubs that trailed them in the pennant race of 1919.

OHIO LEGISLATURE IS TO CONSIDER AUTO THEFTS

COLUMBUS, Oct. 3.—When the Ohio legislature reconvenes in December it will be presented with a new plan to reduce the large number of automobile thefts. The plan will be submitted in the form of a bill by P. E. Thomas, warden of the Ohio penitentiary here. In brief, the plan would provide for a system of ownership cards bearing the serial number of the engine, description of the car and car owner. The proposed bill also would license sellers of gasoline and compel them to sell gasoline only to holders of ownership cards.

Warden Thomas says the plan would not stop "joy riding," but it would tend to work a hardship on a professional automobile thief. Automobile thieves, he said, would not be able to proceed any appreciable distance with stolen cars. The warden also would make it unlawful to sell or trade an automobile having the serial number of its engine defaced.

PEACH GROWERS RAISE HOGS.

International News Service.
READING, Pa., Oct. 4.—Peach growers in Berks county are combining hog raising with peach orcharding. A corn-fed hog is rated a choice product, but a Berks hog turned into peach-made hams is something new and better, connoisseurs say. The Berks county hogs are being fed on waste and unmarketable peaches and, according to those who have been carrying out the experiment, they thrive on the diet.

International News Service.
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 4.—"It's just as necessary for me to break a plate glass window occasionally as it is for a dope fiend to have his 'shot' in the arm," George Mulkey, thirty-three, told Acting Judge Shepard in North Municipal court here a few days ago, after he had admitted smashing a plate glass window of a store on Main street.

"I'm going to fine you $100 and send you to the municipal farm to take the window-smashing cure," advised the court.

MUCH COTTON AT ABILENE.

Special to The Times.
ABILENE, Oct. 3.—Cotton is rolling into Abilene daily in an uninterrupted sluice, following several days of sunshine and cool weather. Local gins as well as those in all parts of this country are swamped with cotton and are working overtime in an effort to keep up.

A large number of pickers are available and the problem of getting the crop gathered is almost solving itself. Many are coming from East Texas and it is indicated a large number will come from the coast region, where the storm ruined all crops, to work in the cotton fields.

INVESTIGATION PROVES UNDERTAKERS PROFITEER

International News Service.
TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 3.—The undertaking business is too good here, according to the first report made by the attorney general's office in the inquiry held to determine whether the profits were exorbitant. One dealer called on the carpet admitted that a casket costing $47 with same plate and other trimmings was sold for $175, a clear profit of nearly 100 per cent.

International News Service.
BETHANY, Mo., Oct. 3.—A stick of dynamite looked like a common ordinary stick of wood to Raymond Summerfield, the 8-year-old son of Spencer Summerfield, of Bethany, when he found the explosive in a shed recently. And, being unaware of its destructive qualities, young Summerfield struck it with an ax. As a result Raymond is in a hospital with a shattered right hand, which, the doctors say, will have to be amputated.

SATURDAY

Lay your other work aside, if necessary, and come down town today to see the new bakery. It is unlike anything else of its kind.

There is much to surprise you and much to delight you. You will see baking done in a new way. You will see new standards of quality and cleanliness and courtesy. And you will wonder why all these better ways of doing things have waited for the

New Federal Bakery

One of the distinctive features is that the whole process is conducted in full view. Every customer can see every step from the mixing of the flour till the bread comes out of the big glass-sided ovens ready to be wrapped and delivered over the counter. You can even point to the loaf of bread you wish and have it handed to you. There is nothing secret. You can ask questions and get full information about every part of the process.

Hot Bread and Rolls

Every Hour of the Day

This is one item of the SERVICE which will particularly please you. Only our continuous baking process makes this possible. Stop in any time during the day when you are down town or have a member of your family stop on the way home from work. There will be no delay. Always the rich brown bread and rolls will be waiting, just out of the ovens. And such bread and rolls! There's a richness in them that comes only from expert baking and the absolute purity of every bit of flour and other materials used.

1,000 Free Souvenirs

To the first thousand women who visit our new bakery which opens at 10 o'clock this morning, we shall distribute FREE 1,000 bread knives. Come early, if you can, and get one of these souvenirs but come anyhow. The new things you see will amply repay you for the visit. And then, too, you will find a place where you will wish to buy tomorrow and every other day. Remember that the FEDERAL SYSTEM OF BAKING is based on these three things—

GOOD BECAUSE PURE

FEDERAL WHITE BREAD—15c a pound and a half loaf—contains no substitutes. And every material is just what the careful housewife would select for her own baking. The flour is laboratory tested to make doubly sure that only a very high grade is used. Quality cane sugar, fine table salt and rich whole milk add to the food value.

Then all these things are so handled in the mixing and baking that their full worth is retained. For both children and older folks, FEDERAL BREAD holds a wealth of nourishment and a welcome appeal for the appetite.

Let Them Have Plenty of RAISIN ROLLS

Just put these goodies within reach of the youngsters—they'll show you how good they taste. And they won't want butter on them—plenty rich enough without—that's a saving.

Enjoy them yourself—you will if you like feather-light rolls, just sweetened enough, deliciously flavored with cinnamon and nutmeg, and with lots of luscious raisins scattered through them.

Not a seed in these raisins—they're the famous Sun-Maid, best California grows. Federal Raisin Rolls are a REAL treat at any meal.

Twelve cents a pan of ten big, fluffy-light rolls. Ask "him" to bring some home tonight.
