Hinds Tallies 31 Points As Dogs Rip Wylie, 58-34

Coch Boone Yarbrough's Bulldogs led by point-hungry Paul Hinds, who scored 31 markers, rocked over Wylie here Tuesday night, 58-34, in a District 7-A basketball contest.

It was the second victory in five starts for the Bulldogs this season. The stingy Bulldogs allowed Wylie only six points in the first quarter and eight in the second as they zoomed to a 34-14 halftime lead.

Hinds, the leading scorer, collected his points in the first three periods and was unable to tally in the Bulldogs weak fourth quarter. The Bulldogs B team also sneaked by with a 25-23 win in the opening contest as Bennie Robinson sank two free tosses in the last 20 seconds of the contest.

Gerald Shockey was high pointer for the winners with seven markers. Joe Rex Allen of Wylie, collected 12 points.

In the main event Claude Koenig amassed 11 points while David Wharton added nine. James Allen was high for Wylie with 12.

A psychiatrist saw another psychiatrist plodding down the street carrying a couch on his head.

"Why the couch?" he called after his colleague.

"House call," replied the burdened one.

Recent insurance scandals have touched in some way most of the State's offices in Austin and now, in two separate actions, directors of the State Bar of Texas meeting in Midland urged reprimands or disbarment for lawyer-legislators judged guilty of professional misconduct.

The wreckage in the wake of the State Bar's investigations of fellow members should not leave a pretty picture.

The directors formally requested local grievance committees "to investigate all instances of alleged misconduct" on the part of attorneys who are also members of legislative bodies.

Of course, the resolutions adopted by the directors was the result of investigations into insurance scandals. The suggested action would apply, however, to lawyers serving in any legislative position — national, state or local.

President Eisenhower Tuesday confidently predicted continued prosperity in 1956 with the nation's economy topping the $400 billion mark.

He proudly reported the nation "reached the threshold of a $400 billion economy" last year. He boasted of the "practical attainment . . . of the cherished goals" of full employment, rising incomes and a table dollar.

He did not predict what would be the financial plight of America's consumer or general public reaches a climax in the purchase of appliances, automobiles and other luxuries which we are beginning to feel necessary.

"What happens when we hit the peak? Little output in the large industrial areas means more workers unemployed to create an uneasy labor market forcing wages downward in many cases.

When salaries begin to slip, and consumer markets are overloaded with supply, and the credit terms become stiffer than then—a recession or depression? Possibly?

Here's hoping that the nation's economic structure will be adequate to cope with the climax and step us to face only a mild leveling off period.

Previously, and certainly well before the Eisenhower administration, the Republican party represented the big business. Wall street and in general the big money of the United States. Even during Eisenhower's tenure, the Republican party has portrayed its financial bigness with actions and statements such as Secretary of Defense Wilson's "what's good for General Motors is good for the country."

Even yet, Eisenhower, although a Republican ticket winner, has often appeared Democratic.

It has shown at times that a president can be a fence sitter, without veering to either party. But yet can we truly realize that advances during the past four years have been more in the interest of employee who works diligently five days a week or for his employer, the man who turns the employees' craft into multi-million dollar profits?

Why not follow Billy Graham's Far East religious invasion through the pages of the Times. It's an exact, quick and interesting picture of the young American's exploits through the tumultuous regions of the earth who have recently become the strategic areas of maintaining world peace.

We've heard so much of Dale Slaton of Eastland, Clarke Baum of Cross Plains and Max Pierce of Gorman during this basketball season that if they are so terrible in their hoop prowess that they have nearly reached the peak of perfection attained by the Bulldogs' Paul Hinds, Ranger's captain, leading scorer and only returning letterman, who is incidentally, only a junior.

He's second in district scoring and only because other teams have performed in more contests while he was quarterbacking the Bulldogs through football's regional playoffs. He ran completely amuck Tuesday night, hitting from four directions and he racked 31 points in leading his mates over Wylie.

Listed to this Eastland, Gorman and Cross Plains, the Bulldogs have played only five games this late in the season and they have all been conference contests. They have established a 2-3 mark with only one veteran among the starting five and if there's any wild notions that the second round will be as easy as the first, you better come off the high horse.

County Farm Bureau Seeks Gas Tax Exemption For Farming Chores

Lions Report Brisk Pancake Ticket Sales

The Lions Club has reported brisk sales on tickets for their annual pancake supper here Saturday night.

Each year the Lions sponsor the pancake supper and donate profits to the March of Dimes drive. A feature attraction of the pancake supper has always been Jovial Aunt Jimma who in a comical way, supervises the cooking and serving of the pancakes.

Serving time will again be from 6 to 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the Gholson Hotel.

Aunt Jimma's Pancake Flour is being furnished by the Quaker Oat Co. without charge. The company also sends Aunt Jimma for the occasion.

Vermont Made Syrup made by Penick and Ford has been donated free of charge for the supper.

A WILL, A WAY—Martha Smoot, an Eastland County Polio victim from Sabanno, will be a guest of the Ranger Lions Club during their annual Pancake Supper here Saturday night. Martha first learned to write by holding a pencil in her teeth. Now, through the courtesy of the Eastland County March of Dimes Chapter she has acquired an electric typewriter.

Group Seeks Two Cent Federal Cut

Farmers in Eastland County will receive refunds on the federal tax they pay on farm-used gasoline if the Farm Bureau is successful in its efforts to secure gas tax-exemption legislation during this session of Congress.

Mitchell Campbell of Gorman, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau said the Farm Bureau is making every effort to obtain an exemption for farmers on the two-cent-a-gallon federal tax which the government now collects on farm-used gasoline.

President Campbell said he wanted to urge all farmers in the county to contact their U. S. Congressman, Omar Burtonson, by letter to give him their opinions on the matter.

If the tax exemption measure is passed, it will mean a savings of about $20,000.00 for Eastland County farmers. Texas farmers stand to save about $6,000,000 if the legislation passes.

The Texas Farm Bureau secured an exemption several years ago on the state tax of 4 cents a gallon on farm-used gasoline, president Campbell said. It has defeated many attempts to take away this state tax exemptions, he added.

Last year the American Farm Bureau Federation recommended to Congress and the President that the federal tax on farm-used gasoline be abolished. In his January 9 message on agriculture, President

Mid-Year Exams Halt Pioneer Loop Action

Four non-conference games will be the total action this week for Pioneer Conference basketball teams as mid-year examinations claim top priority on all campuses.

Schreiner Institute's Mountaineers, winners in five of their last six starts, will try to make it 500 for the season Saturday against SWSTC "B" at San Marcos. The Mountaineers also may get a clue to their PC prospects, for SWSTC "B" was a recent 65-63 victor over San Angelo, against whom Schreiner will open its league slate Jan. 31.

Another Saturday tilt pairs Tarleton State, league leader in overall season play, and NTSC's "B" squad at Stephenville. The game was tied out last week.

Friday games pit Arlington State's Rebels against Weatherford JC at Weatherford and the San Angelo Rams against McMurtry "B" at Abilene. The Rebels and Rams now share the Pioneer Conference lead with single victories and no defeats.

Although he sat out one of Schreiner's two games last week, lanky Mountaineer Center J. e. n. Mauze lifted his league-leading scoring total to 345 points as he flipped in eight field goals and eight free tosses in Schreiner's 78-67 victory over the Hardin-Simmons "B" team.

Truck, Car Crash At Intersection Here

A car belonging to Arles Grumbles was heavily damaged when it was struck by a trailer truck Wednesday night at the traffic light at the intersection of Main St. and U. S. Highway 86 here.

Grumbles, traveling west, was struck by the trailer of the truck as he attempted to make a left turn at the light. Investigating police officers issued both Grumbles and Jewell Franklin, of Dallas, citations for running a red light.

The truck, loaded and owned by Robert E. McGee of Dallas, crashed over the curbing at the west-side of Ratliff's Feed Store and smashed against a stop sign there.

Estimate of damage to the car, which was nearly sheared in front, was more than $200. No estimate was made of damage to the truck. It was not damaged enough, however, that it could not continue its route without repair.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The Nativity Gift of the Magi or three wise men was gold, frankincense and myrror but the desegregation gift of the nine wise men of our Supreme Court was Unrest, Bitterness and Hatred.

It is not strange that on five previous rulings the Supreme Court held segregation legal provided equal facilities were maintained? Then came the momentous overnight decision of '54. The 64 thousand dollar question now is—was the court right on the five findings of McGee on the last count, or was it wrong on the original five and right on the last decision? Herein lies the true issue.

As I see it on the first five findings we had men of the highest honor, honesty and integrity, men who held to the principles and precepts of the Monroe Doctrine and the Constitution. Men who catered to the common good of all and placed statesmanship far ahead of mere political party or personal prejudice.

At no other time in our country's history was any other president permitted to place over 3

229 District Farmers Lay Soil Plans in '55

Two hundred and ninety-nine farmers and ranchers comprising 73,517 acres developed basic conservation plans for their land with the supervisors of the Upper Leon

Soil Conservation District last year. These conservation plans were worked out by land owners with the assistance of local Soil Conservation Service technicians.

Individual farm and ranch soil information — such as soil type, steepness and length of slope, degree of erosion as gathered by the soils scientists of the Soil Conservation Service — was used as a basis for the development of the above type conservation plans.

Army Enlistments Open in 8th Infantry Division

Regular Army enlistments for direct assignment to the 8th Infantry Division, which is scheduled to move to Europe next August, are now authorized under the Army's unit rotation plan.

SFC Shelby Wheeler of the Breckenridge Recruiting Station announced.

Enlistment of non-prior service personnel for the 8th Infantry Division will be taken from January 23 until April 30.

Under the Army's unit rotation policy, the 8th Infantry Division will replace the 9th Infantry Division in Europe. Combat units are selected for rotation between overseas and stations in the United States on a fixed timetable.

The rotation plan allows the individual soldier to outline his future moves and gives him a chance to serve with one of the Army's outstanding units.

A full overseas tour with any U. S. Army unit in Europe is three years, therefore, recruits for the 8th Infantry Division must enlist for at least three years, with a four-year enlistment encouraged.

Basic training for the enlistees will be held at Fort Carson, Colorado, where both basic and unit training will be given prior to the overseas movement.

Additional information on enlistment for direct assignment to the 8th Infantry Division may be obtained by contacting Sgt. Wheeler at the Chamber of Commerce office between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Moisture - Laden Front To Bring Rain, Cold

A heavy mist began falling over this area early today as a moisture-laden cool front moved in from the Pacific coast.

Activity of the new front is expected to push temperatures down to the 30-degree mark Thursday night and they are not expected to rise above 42 Friday.

Eastland County had its first genuine day of sunshine Wednesday, the first in five days. However, light cloud formations did begin to form late in the afternoon Wednesday.

No moisture was reported Wednesday, but scattered thundershowers were forecast for the Panhandle Thursday and for North Central Texas Thursday night, the Weather Bureau said.

Rains could continue into the weekend from the Pacific coast front.

McCurry's Loss Leaves Rangers Weakened Here

Bill McCurry, Ranger Junior College's basketball captain, bid adieu to his teammates last week with a 23 point barrage, that helped the Rangers to their 83-72 conquest of Cisco.

McCurry, graduated from Ranger College at the close of the mid-term semester and has decided to complete his athletic eligibility at Midwestern.

His graduation leaves the Rangers minus the league's second highest scorer, their captain and a workhorse at basketball and football, where he also served as captain this year.

A Korean veteran, who survived the toughest ordeals the war offered, McCurry quickly adjusted himself to college life here and became one of the most popular students on the campus.

In ten games, McCurry has posted 188 points or an average of 18.8 per game and was chosen on the all-Pioneer Conference second team during the last football season from his tackle position.

Coaches say he is a dynamo of power, his character and leadership qualities have no peer and his personality makes him a welcome contender on any team.

Hinds Surges In 7-A Scoring Race

Ranger's Paul Hinds, the Bulldogs' highest basketball scorer, has crawled up the district point making ladder, and with a surge of 31 points against Wylie Tuesday night, sputtered into second place behind Dale Slaton of Eastland.

Slaton, who has accumulated 98 points and led the district scorers thus far in the season, counted 14 points in Eastland's 52-46 decision over Gorman Tuesday night, giving room to the returning Hinds, the Bulldogs' only returning letterman and captain of the team.

Hinds got off to a slow start in the early season before he got his second wind after a grueling football schedule but has brought his average up to a respectable 17.5 points per game.

The 31 points he scored Tuesday night is the highest individual scoring mark in any 7-A district clash this year. Previously, Slaton had scored 24 points to lead in this division.

Eastland now boasts three men in the top ten. Slaton, Benny Cates and Tankersley, with a total of 222 points between them. Ranger has two men in this group, Hinds and Claude Koenig, with a total of 142 points.

Cross Plains, who leads district play, has only Clarke Baum in the top ten with 80 points.

Barring any injuries or sickness, Hinds and Slaton, should battle down the wire for the district scoring honors. Hinds, the skillful and rugged field general, was the Bulldogs' second highest scorer last season in his sophomore year as Ranger toiled in 2-A competition.

In the district race, Cross Plains has taken a firm grip in first-round competition. The Buffalo added the fifth scalp to their belt Tuesday night when they edged Rising Star 47-45 in overtime.

Eastland, the second place contender, was beaten 46-45 in overtime by the Buffaloes for their only loss. Gorman possesses a 3-2 record while the Bulldogs roll along on two wins in five outings.

Rising Star and Wylie are situated in the district's fifth and sixth positions.

Counting Who Disappeared Being Sought

Relatives of Juan Castro, Ranger resident, stated today that he disappeared last November and no trace of him had been learned since and asked that anyone with knowledge of his whereabouts report to his brother, Jose Castro, 514 Cherry Street, Ranger, or to a friend of the family, Elena Zepeda, 408 E. Olive, Eastland. They said that he was epileptic and feared that he might have suffered a seizure at the time of or soon after his disappearance.

Farm Bureau -

dent Eisenhower urged Congress to pass legislation to relieve the farmer of the federal tax on purchases of gasoline used on the farm. "The inclusion of this recommendation can be credited one hundred per cent to Farm Bureau's action on the matter," County President Campbell said.

The gas tax exemption is expected to be one of the first issues to be considered by Congress. The permanent federal tax rate for gasoline is 1 1/2 cents per gallon. The temporary rate is 2 cents a gallon, but this temporary rate expires March 31 of this year.

This means that Congress will not wish to see the temporary rate expire, Campbell said, and it is expected that a tax bill covering the federal gasoline tax will have to move through both Houses and be approved by the President before March 31.

The federal highway program is closely related to the use of gasoline tax revenues. It is generally anticipated that an effort will be made in 1956 to increase the federal tax to 3 cents a gallon to pay for the proposed increase in federal expenditures in highways.

President Campbell listed these reasons why Farm Bureau is attempting to secure an exemption on the tax on gasoline used on farms:

1. The tax on non-highway-used gasoline is inequitable and discriminatory.
2. The government does not tax power used by industry in the form of coal, oil, natural gas, electricity, etc., but at present, tax on power when used on the farm in the form of gasoline.

The total consumption of gasoline in tractors and other farm machinery is estimated by USDA at 3 billion gallons per year. This means that at the present, farmers are paying a tax of .60,000,000 a year on gasoline used for farm production. If the tax is increased to 3 cents a gallon, the amount of this tax will go to $90,000,000 a year.

RED CHAIN Gro-Mo is a 20% protein feed which permits greater use of RED CHAIN Alcom or oars. It is rich in fish and milk growth factors. Gro-Mo is fortified and perfectly balanced with vitamins and mineral needs. Graham Welcomed With Mob Violence

By George Burnham
Chattanooga News-Free Press Staff Writer

BOMBAY, India—Billy Graham, who flew 8,000 miles to India as a representative of the Prince of Peace, was welcomed with a bloody orgy of mob violence described as the blackest days in the history of ancient Bombay. The surging street battles between howling mobs and rifle-firing police, with death tolls climbing past the 50 mark and hundreds injured, forced cancellation of Billy's Friday meeting here.

The rally, which would have been the largest Protestant religious meeting ever held here, would have been the first on the 25,000-mile around-the-world tour.

Two persons were killed outside the stadium where the meeting was scheduled to be held. A mob of rock-throwing hoodlums attacked the police station only a few minutes after Christian leaders of Bombay had conferred with the police commissioner about the danger of holding the meeting.

Five officers were killed during the day as police clamped a tight dusk-to-dawn curfew on the city and ordered cancellation of all public meetings and sports events. Authorities agreed it would be inviting a major disaster to hold the large open air religious meeting with such tension mounting.

A civil disturbance over the party that would rule Bombay, not the visit of Billy, was given as the cause of the violence but most officials agreed that the uprising was Communist inspired. Significantly, rioting has now spread to Madras, the next stop on Billy's speaking tour of India.

Billy went to troubled areas of Bombay where trams were stoned and cars burned. He saw young men beating an old shopkeeper for keeping his store open. Human hate was rampant. A policeman was stoned to death at his post. Acid bombs were thrown into faces of people.

Billy has said on many occasions that "Our skins may be different but the human heart, whether American or Indian, is the same. An intellectual pilot will fly through the skies and drop an atom bomb on human beings. A jungle savage will creep along the trail and plunge a spear into a man. Why do these things happen? They happen because the human heart is wicked and will stay that way until transformed by the power of Jesus Christ. I believe that if peace is to come to the world and people are to live without fear of wars it will only be through spiritual revival."

During his travels around Bombay Billy saw many things strange to an American. He saw a mongoose kill a cobra; took off his shoes and walked through a Hindu temple where people worshipped some of their 35,000 gods; saw scores of mothers, fathers and children sleeping on streets and saw them tie their few possessions on branches of trees. During the day he talked with educated men who would never kill a cow or an ant or any living thing for fear they would be killing an ancestor. When Billy returned to his hotel room he fell on his knees and prayed, "Oh God, help us to love these people. Help us to put our arms around them and love them as Christ would have done."

The masses didn't get to hear Billy in Bombay, but a large indoor meeting was held for ministers and Christian workers. They rejoiced over the fact that God could use mob violence to make Bombay the most prayer-for city in history.

Billy told them he was not discouraged. Hate and death had marred the beginning, he said, but added that Christians around the world were praying that God would use the weakness of fighting men to spotlight the promises of Christ for people everywhere.

Other big meetings, with some crowds of over 100,000, will be held next week in the southern part of India. The rifles will stop firing and a young American will be given freedom to preach an old message that gives new life.

Supreme Court justices. Came Franklin D. Roosevelt who held office four times. Thru his strong determination and powerful influence appointed 5 justices. Harry Truman followed by appointing 3 more.

Ike appointed Earl Warren making 9 in all. When you consider 8 justices were New and Fair Deal appointees, and the New and Fair Deal was credited with the control of the negro vote by substantial majority, and Earl Warren is from California, a pro-negro state. Herein lies the reason for the history shaking decision of 9 to 0 in favor of desegregation. How could it have possibly been otherwise?

The NAACP holds the constitution provides equal rights to all. So must it be. No fair minded person will take issue on that. However, the NAACP in their eager efforts to establish equality seem to lose sight of the actuality that there are two distinct races to consider and conciliate on the desegregation question.

The White and the Black. Both have equal rights by virtue of the constitutional wording. However, when an organization deliberately designs to interpose the society of a minor group upon that of a majority group who are not too enthusiastic about the idea, there will be a natural friction created as a result.

By logical reasoning "Is not the sacred rights and privileges of the second group being abused?" Is this the justice our constitution is supposed to provide? Is not this also discrimination? The nine wise men of the court might well ruminate on reason, dissemble their decision and construe the constitution to coincide with the rights and privileges of both factions concerned.

The American people should indeed be grateful to the recent law that from now on no selfish man however ambitious shall ever be permitted to hold the highest office of the land more than two consecutive times.

Eastland Club Members Hostesses To County Federation Saturday

Members of the federated clubs of Eastland were hostesses when the Eastland County Federation of Women's Clubs met Saturday afternoon at the Woman's Club, Eastland.

Mrs. E. E. Todd of Gorman, president, presided and Mrs. Jack W. Frost served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Bill Tucker.

Mrs. J. C. Whitley, program chairman, presented the program which included a talk by Mrs. Anna Grace Bumpass, a piano duet, "Fiddle Faddle" (Anderson), by Charlotte Vaughn and Kay Culbertson, who took turns playing the piano during the tea hour which followed.

Mrs. Bumpass' subject was "There Is No Unanswered Prayer," which she had given at a recent meeting of Las Leales Club. "Prayer," she stressed, "is not a supernatural buzzer system but is conversation with God. It is a general interchange of sentiments, which may be thought or spoken. Only time alone can tell, sometimes, why the answer is no." Mrs. Bumpass explained that the author of the article said people do not know the area of water, all about heat, electricity and many other things but they don't stop using them just because they do not fully understand them. Neither should they stop using prayer because they do not understand all about it or because they are sometimes disillusioned about the answers. Often their desires may not be right, she said.

A letter was read asking the club presidents and members to write Senators Lyndon Johnson and Price Daniel to study the proposed closing of the Veterans Hospital at McKinney with the hope that it might be kept open. Another letter was read from Eudora Hawkins of Abilene on the great need of taking steps for water conservation.

Since the last meeting of the county federation, many clubs have had talks on the "Driver Education" program and several clubs have planned such plans in the near future. Mrs. Todd told of the Gorman Progressive Study Club's program on the subject, given by the school superintendent before all three of the Gorman federated clubs. Her daughter, Miss Ernestine Todd, described the course in Driver Education she took in the Gorman school—a complete training not only for driving a car and traffic rules but also to understand the various parts of the motor and how they function.

Mrs. Frank Sparks announced the Civic League-sponsored luncheon to be held here Wednesday and invited the women to attend this one and those to follow.

Mrs. Arthur Murrell announced the much-looked-forward-to Civic League-sponsored program, a lecture by Helen Poe of Dallas, world traveler and lecturer of international renown, to be held at Eastland High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 28. Mrs. Murrell asked Mrs. Todd to be ticket sales chairman for Gorman and invited the women present to attend this lecture and tell their friends about it. Later, Mrs. Murrell will appoint chairmen for each of the surrounding towns.

The next meeting of the county federation will be held at the Home Economics Cottage at Gorman the third Saturday in March, the president announced, and invited the women to attend.

The centerpiece for the serving table, arranged by Mrs. James Horton, was a tropical dried arrangement in a Hawaiian mat basket.

Mrs. Todd presided at the silver tea service, assisted in serving cookies and nuts by the hostesses: Mrs. Dave Fiensy, president of the Alpha Delphian Club; Mrs. Arthur Murrell, president of the Civic League and Garden Club; Mrs. J. C. Whitley, president of Las Leales Club, and Mrs. E. Roy Townsend, vice president of the Thursday Afternoon Club, having been appointed earlier by the president, Mrs. Sparks, to serve in this capacity.

The delegation included: Mmes. Fiensy and L. C. Brown, Alpha Delphian Club; Mmes. Whitley and Bumpass, Las Leales Club; Mmes. Sparks, Townsend and Floyd Casebolt, Thursday Afternoon Club; Mmes. Murrell and Jack Frost, Civic League and Garden Club; Mmes. Todd and Hallmark, Progressive Study Club; Gorman; Miss Ernestine Todd of Gorman and Kay Culbertson and Charlotte Vaughn, both of Eastland, program guests.

plied on 31,000 acres within the district. Proper use may be defined as grazing at an intensity which will maintain adequate cover for soil protection and maintain or improve the desirable grass species.

Closely connected with proper use is the practice of range deforestation. This is the resting from grazing for a definite period to improve forage vigor or to insure the production of grass seed and 44,567 acres of range were deferred within the district last year.

Range seeding was applied on 279 acres last year. This figure is under normal because of drought. Range seeding is the establishment of perennial forage grasses on either depleted range or former cropland.

Farm ponds were constructed on 286 farm units last year. Ponds are built primarily to furnish livestock water and improve grazing distribution.

Contour farming which is the planting or drilling with cultivation operations parallel to acceptable terrace or contour grade was applied on an additional 11,096 acres last year.

Cover crops were seeded on 17,292 acres for the first time last year. Cover cropping is the using of close growing or high residue producing crops for erosion control, improving rate of moisture intake, improving fertility, and/or improving plant-soil-moisture-air relationships within the soil.

Another cropland practice closely related to cover cropping is crop residue utilization. This is the management of crop residues or other vegetative material so as to leave a protective cover on the surface of the soil during a critical period of the year. Last year 21,936 acres of this practice was applied on the land.

Terracing was another popular conservation practice last year. This is the building of channels with supporting ridges across slope at various intervals to intercept runoff. Terraces are built of proper cross section to carry excess water and permit tillage operations with farm equipment and 134 miles of terraces were constructed last year protecting 2,500 to 3,000 acres of cropland.

Diversion terraces are large terraces constructed primarily above cropland to intercept outside water and prevent damage to lower areas. They are designed to carry runoff in excess of what could be carried by standard field terraces, and are also used for such other purposes as to divert water in or out of farm ponds. Thirty-five miles of diversions were built last year.

Last year 157 farm ponds were stocked with fish by district operators in cooperation with the Fish and Wildlife Service.

Waterways were completed last year totaling 38. A waterway is a natural or artificial watercourse through a farm established to receive surplus runoff water from terraces or other erosion control structures. A waterway is protected from erosion by establishing suitable vegetation.

Five flood water retarding structures were designed and constructed in the Green Creek project located near Dublin last year. These structures are primarily designed to lessen flood damage by trapping excess flood water and releasing it slowly over a period of several days or weeks.

Many of the above practices such as ponds, terraces, diversion terraces, and waterways, along with cover crop programs are county A.C.P. practices as selected by county A.S.C. committee. Soil Conservation Service technicians, county agricultural agencies, district supervisors, and others. Land owners receive cost sharing assistance from A.S.C. county committees on county approved practices.

Dirt moving contractors of the district have constructed a high percentage of the mechanical practices. These men have done a commendable job, and most all may be called "conservationists" in that they see the needs of the land and are in position to render the conservation effort a real service by assisting in the application of the various needed conservation practices. It was pointed out.
