Bulldogs Meet Mavericks At Eastland Tonight

After a delay because of adverse weather conditions, the Ranger Bulldogs continue their District 7-A basketball competition tonight when they meet their old rivals, the Eastland Mavericks at Eastland.

A feature attraction, the contest will throw together the league's highest scorers in Ranger's Paul Hinds and Dale Slotton of Eastland.

Hinds recently took the individual scoring of the league after Slotton had dominated the point-making department the first part of the season.

Eastland, the district's number two team, defeated the Bulldogs by 12 points earlier in the season. A loss tonight would throw them into a three-way tie with the Bulldogs and Gorman who have identical 3-4 records.

Cross Plains stands alone at the front of district race and has only to master two other opponents to take the conference championship. They should have little trouble in securing the flag this week.

Tarleton Edges San Angelo For PC Loop Tie

Pioneer Conference basketball action, predicted at the season's start to be close, is shaping up according to forecast with two teams tied for the lead and last year's champ a half-game behind.

The first place tie will be cleared Tuesday as co-leaders Arlington State and Tarleton State meet at Arlington. And on Saturday, San Angelo will entertain ASC's Rebels while Tarleton's Ploowboys host Schreiner Institute, further clearing the title picture.

Tarleton State's Ploowboys tripped San Angelo, 1955 titlist, in a 68-66 thriller Saturday at Stephenville to move into the first-place tie with Arlington State. It was the Ploowboys' second loop victory with no losses. San Angelo had won two before dropping the Tarleton tilt.

Arlington State staved off Schreiner Institute, 70-62, at Arlington Saturday to protect its share of the conference lead. It was Schreiner's second loop defeat, coming on top of a Tuesday loss to San Angelo, 82-83, at Ker-ville.

Ranger, feeling the loss by transfer to Midwestern University of its veteran center, Bill McCurry, bowed to Tarleton State, 54-83, at Stephenville Tuesday for its third PC defeat. Ranger's two non-league games, before edging McMurry 80-76, Monday night, were cancelled by weather last week.

Ranger Lions Plan Ladies Night Thursday

The Ranger Lions Club will have ladies night Thursday, it has been announced.

All members of the Lions Club are urged to attend with their wives. Unmarried members may bring female guests.

As It Looks From Here

U. S. Shipping Requirements Reduces Sale of Surplus Agriculture Commod

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Department of Agriculture has reported to Congress that the law requiring that at least 50 percent of the surplus agricultural commodities sold by the government to foreign nations must be shipped in American vessels has blocked the sale of a sizeable amount of these products.

They report that one such sale to Denmark in the sum of $11,300,000 was stalled because of it, and that another sale of $40,000,000 in surplus commodities to Norway, Sweden, and England was prevented because of it.

This is the provision which I attempted to strike from the bill last year, but was defeated on the floor in the effort.

Many people talk about the farmer being subsidized, but this requirement that at least 50 percent of the surplus commodities sold must be delivered by American ships is not only a subsidy to the shipping companies but is a handicap to the Government and to the farmer in selling our surplus agricultural products.

President Eisenhower has told Congress that the Post Office Department is losing $1,000 a minute and has asked for increases in the cost of stamps.

He suggests that the ordinary letter be increased to 4 cents and airmail from six to seven cents. In addition, he asks that second class mail, which is newspapers and magazines, be increased by a not 15 percent each year for two successive years. He further suggests that third class mail, which is mostly advertising, be increased immediately by 30 percent.

It is estimated that these increases will produce $406,500,000.

Predictions Are Always A Little Dangerous . . . but I shall venture one anyway.

When President Eisenhower makes his decision as to whether or not he will run, the stock market is likely to react one way or the other. If he is not a candidate, it probably will drop sharply, but if he is a candidate, I would guess it will immediately go up.

Regardless of the justification one way or the other, our system of economics should not be so sensitive to one man's actions. This is no reflection on the President because he will have nothing to do with it. Rather, it will simply be a result of the inevitable.

In the Future . . . we are often going to see in print the letters, "ICBM." This stands for Inter-continental Ballistic Missile, which will be the most deadly of all weapons.

The most deadly race in the history of mankind is now taking place between the United States and Soviet Russia to develop the first such missile, and one nation or the other will win. While we are stumbling over a lot of molehills, we must eventually climb this mountain. Either the United States or the Soviet Union will be the first to reach the top.

Court Of Honor To Head Celebration

Joint plans for the observance of Boy Scout Week here were being concluded by the two active scout troops and five Cub Scout dens, officials said here.

Walter Arlesburn, Cub director, has organized the program for the affair which will include a dinner for the Cub Scouts and their families and singing led by Troy Boone, district representative of Eastland.

A Court of Honor has been scheduled at the Methodist Church for the Boy Scouts with the newly organized Explorer Scout group assisting in the program. The Explorer Scouts is composed of boys who have graduated from the Boy Scouts following their fourteenth birthday. Fifteen awards will be made to Scouts of Troop 10 and five in Troop 15 will be awarded.

Rangers Edge McMurry 80-76 Monday Night

With Bubba Canuteson ripping off 30 points, the Ranger Junior College Rangers, edged the McMurry Papooses 80-76 in Ranger Monday night in a rough and tumble non-loop basketball contest.

After controlling the opening half the Rangers found themselves hard pressed and tied with only four minutes remaining in the fracas. An exchange of free shots pushed the Papooses ahead by one point, their second one point margin of the second half but two steals and baskets by Canuteson and Jerry Hudson pushed the Rangers in front of the race and McMurry was never able again to stop their charge.

Canuteson, who was highly accurate on both long set shots and driving lay ups, in the closing minutes of the contest staged two of the most daring ball court tactics as he dribbled in and out of the Papooses defense, consuming precious minutes of play.

Edd Farmer paced the losers with 16 points and Donnie Taylor was second to Canuteson with 12 for the Rangers.

Date Set For Annual County Orchard Show

Annual Eastland County Orchard Field Day will be observed Thursday, Feb. 23, on the J. E. Spencer farm about 6 miles southwest of Carbon, it was announced today by County Agricultural Agent J. M. Cooper.

Mr. Spencer grows a sizable commercial peach orchard there.

"We always get the best orchard men in Texas to speak to us on these occasions," said Agent Cooper. "This time we will have at least five men—all from out of the county—talk on topics definitely profitable to the growers."

These meetings have been held annually the past decade.

"There are a number of orchard growers in the county," said Cooper, "and the meetings have always drawn goodly turn-outs."

Fruits grown in the county include peaches, plums, pears, apples and grapes.

"I have always thought it too hot here for growing apples in quantities," said Cooper. "b u t there is one apple orchard of 140 acres and another of 40 acres in the county."

He said that peaches do well and that some trees over 20 years old are still producing.

"Some of the dead peach trees are being replaced," said Cooper. (Continued on Page Two)

Weed Control Shown For Peanut Crop At Eastland Co. Meet

Peanut land weed and grass control was shown in a herbicide meeting held at Rising Star High School, with fifty-seven farmers and others interested present, recently.

A great deal of interest was shown by the group as Robert E. Wheatley of Tifton, Ga., explained the success that had been achieved with the use of the chemicals in peanut fields in Georgia.

The meeting was conducted by County Agent J. M. Cooper. Host to the group were H. L. Gage and the Rising Star FFA chapter, who served coffee and doughnuts.

Mr. Wheatley cautioned farmers at the meeting that only small acreages should first be treated with chemicals in order to test results and to determine what different effects, if any, were to be expected from their use by reason of the peculiarities of local soils and climate.

The method of application followed in Georgia, he showed, was to use a roller behind the planter to press down the earth and to follow this with the spray of the chemical. The treatment is ordinarily effective for about six weeks in preventing the growth of grass and weeds, but its effectiveness depends upon the weather, he said. Rain will weaken the influence of the chemical.

Slides were used to demonstrate the application and effects of the herbicide.

It was announced that a field demonstration in the use of the chemicals would be made at the time of planting there. The place and details of the demonstration were to be announced later.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Within Reach—Health at the Start

Within reach of practically all babies is good health and a well developed body—truly one of the most precious endowments parents can give.

Such a start in life is a family affair. The baby's health at birth is affected by food habits—its family's food habits. The mother's long-time food likes and dislikes, in her parent's home and how she cooks to please her husband, all affect her and her unborn child, although possibly differently.

Science holds out a bright hope for parents. Mothers who have excellent or good diets during pregnancy—and before pregnancy—have good prospects for a bouncing, healthy baby, one that is well developed. Getting ready for baby—particularly the first one—is a big event. A most important part is to choose an adequate diet, one which supplies enough of each needed nutrient. Science is finding that diet in the first months of pregnancy—and even before—may have a profound effect on the developing child.

A mother-in-waiting adjusts her food needs under the direction of her doctor. While her demands for calories will increase only moderately, her need for protein and calcium will rise sharply. Requirements for vitamin C and the B vitamins—thiamine, riboflavin and niacin—almost double. To take care of these changes, she will want to eat plenty of meat, eggs, and dairy products. She will almost double the quantity of fruits and vegetables.

Fortunately, inexpensive foods, such as potatoes and enriched bread are protective ones. According to a study made at the University of Iowa of diets of expectant mothers from modest income groups, enriched bread prevented deficiencies of two B vitamins—riboflavin and niacin—and iron, and supplied substantial quantities of protein and calcium. The study also revealed that potatoes, popular with this group, furnished sufficient vitamin C and additional iron.

All in all, parents can and do put good health in reach of their baby.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

START TAX RECORDS NOW FOR USE NEXT YEAR

There is no time like the present, while last year's tax problems are fresh on your mind, to start a procedure that will aid you with next year's income tax calculations. That is to maintain a record of your income and outgo. Such a record can be simple and brief but it may save you tax dollars.

The average man who works for a wage or salary doesn't have to concern himself about keeping books and records—at least so he thinks. His employer keeps a reliable record of his earnings and Uncle Sam looks primarily to the employer for information on his earnings and for the withholding of various taxes out of his wages.

But whether or not you run a business of your own, you have a partner who each year is claiming a substantial interest in your personal income. And the law requires that you keep books for him in case he ever asks for an accounting.

Perhaps you own your home or are paying it out in installments. It's likely that some day you may sell that house. When you do you'll want to be able to prove whether you realized a gain or a loss on that sale. If a gain in capital resulted, it probably will add to your income tax. If a loss was suffered, it probably will reduce your income tax.

You may have made certain capital improvements on the house while you lived in it, but unless you can show what out-of-pocket expense you incurred while making them, you may not get credit for them in your cost basis so as to prove that you had no capital gain or that you had a loss.

Or perhaps you received that little summer cottage on the lake as a gift from your father. If you ever sell it, you should be able to show Uncle Sam not only the cost of improvements you made on it while you owned it, but also what its fair market value was at the time Dad gave it to you.

It may be that you are receiving an annuity on an insurance policy. If so, do you know how much that policy costs you and how much of that cost you have recovered tax-free to date?

There are many kinds of transactions you enter into that may some day affect the computation of your personal income tax. The best proof of the cost of anything you've purchased is a receipted bill or canceled check. If one of these pieces of evidence relates to any transaction that may affect your income in later years, it's a good idea to keep it. Your "partner" may some day ask to see it.

(This column, based on Federal law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Receipt for Meat Balls of Sweden

Foods which originated in foreign countries are becoming more and more popular in American homes. They are tasty, nourishing, and particularly interesting to the housewife who prides herself in being able to offer a wide variety in down-right good eating. Here is one of those recipes:

Meat Balls from Sweden: Commine, mixing well, one pound finely ground beef round or chuck, 3/4-cup fine bread crumbs, 1/4 cup finely minced onions, one teaspoon cornstarch, 1/8 teaspoon allspice, 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg, 3/4 teaspoon salt, one egg and 3/4 cup milk. Shape mixture into small balls, using rounded teaspoon of mixture for each. Heat in heavy skillet over medium gas flame 1/4 cup salad oil. Add meat balls to hot oil a few at a time. Cook slowly to brown on all sides. As meat balls brown, place them in a covered baking dish to keep warm until serving, or meat balls may be prepared in advance and reheated in a covered baking dish in a moderately low gas oven (325 degrees F.) fifteen minutes. Makes approximately 36 meat balls.

Here are two brand-new recipes. All our family enjoyed them, and we hope you will, too.

Red Devil Gelatin Mold (Makes 6 servings)

One package lime or lemon gelatin dessert, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons regular or wine vinegar, 1 tablespoon horseradish, 1 family size (4 1/2-oz.) can deviled ham, 1/2 cup diced celery, 4 hard-cooked eggs.

Prepare gelatin as directed on package and stir in seasonings. Chill. When nearly thickened, stir in deviled ham, celery and 2 chopped eggs. Cut remaining 2 eggs in slices and arrange in oiled mold. Spoon in gelatin so that egg-slice design is not disturbed. Fill mold and chill in refrigerator until firm. To serve, unmold on large plate and garnish with carrot curls, radish roses and slices of lemon.

Deviled Cottage Layer Mold (Makes 6 to 8 servings)

One package lime or lemon gelatin dessert, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, pinch black pepper, 1 8-oz. container cottage cheese, 1 family size (4 1/2-oz.) deviled ham, 4 radishes, sliced, 1 small green pepper, diced.

Prepare gelatin as directed on package. Stir in seasonings and chill until nearly thickened. Spoon layer of seasoned gelatin mixture in bottom of ring mold and let set until firm. Mix together cottage cheese, deviled ham and cut-up vegetables. Spread on layer of set gelatin. Pat cheese-ham mixture down to make it smooth and even, then spoon on remaining gelatin mixture to make a third layer. Chill in refrigerator until firm. To serve, unmold on large plate and fill center with mixed salad greens, dressing or relishes.

Deviled cottage layer mold, top and red devil gelatin mold are two hearty salads which are ideal to serve almost any time.

Vote Strength Of County Due Be Near 7,500

That the voting strength of Eastland County in 1956 is expected to be around 7,500 has been learned from figures compiled in the office of Tax Collector - Assessor J. C. Allison. This includes paid poll taxes and tax exemptions issued.

A total of 2,703 taxes were paid in the office at the courthouse in Eastland and the substation collections put the number paid by potential voters at 5,100. Exemptions of first year voters and voters past the age of 60 will make up about 2,500 it is believed.

In the last general election year of 1952, a total of 6,600 taxes were paid and two years ago about 5,100 taxes were collected. Tax authorities report that about 7,000 persons are subject to the tax in Eastland County.

States or Russia will win this race and the security of the world may depend on which one has it first.

It has been my strong contention for more than two years that a man of unquestioned ability should be placed at the head of our missile program to push it with everything we have. Instead we have been bogged down in red tape and governmental boondoggling. It looks as if we may have to come from behind to win this race, but it can be done if we will do it as was done by General Leslie Groves in handling the first atomic bomb project.

Secretary of Defense Wilson has now indicated that he is looking for such a man and may follow such a plan.

Unless something unforeseen prevents, I shall devote my next week's column to this subject.

Bible Comment: All Work Is God's Work

TO the intelligent and earnest Christian, who knows his New Testament, there is no such thing as secular work.

Paul admonished the early Christians, whether they ate or drank, or whatever they did, to do all to the glory of God.

It might seem a strange and incongruous conception to one engaged in work of plain drudgery, or to one doing a routine task, day after day. A great part of the world's daily work is drudgery, if one thinks of it in that way.

What of the "woman's work," that until the emergence of appliances and household helps (including more male participation in the work of the home) was "never done?"

Even the work of the artist in many instances has its element of patient drudgery.

Drudgery is almost more a matter of the spirit than of the nature of the work.

There is a sort of finished whole in the work of the world, and to have a part of it in the right spirit is to achieve a certain mastery of life.

We have moved a long way from the days of the exploitation of child labor and the worst sweat-shop conditions.

It may be that in many areas there is still some way to go, but in some respects a major problem in an era of shorter hours concerns the use of leisure as much as the conditions of work.

Work! So necessary, so vital, so much man's cooperation with the Great Creator, and with the Christ who said, "My Father worketh hitherto and I work."

Kitchen Unit Is 'Cool' Preview of Tomorrow

BY EDNA MILES

ABOUT ten years from now, as kitchen design indicates, all you should have to do 15 minutes before you expect the hungry family home is to stroll into the kitchen and punch buttons marked "roast," "potatoes," "salad," "hot bread" and "dessert."

Dinner will be delivered from slots on the dot, piping hot and just as you ordered it.

Well, things may not be exactly that way but they won't be far from it.

Latest candidate for a really modern kitchen is a new, automatic defrosting, five-cubic-foot food freezer that takes up no more space than a standard kitchen base cabinet and can be installed under the counter or placed free-standing anywhere in the kitchen.

Sound good? It is. The freezer will hold up to 173 pounds of food while taking up very little space in your kitchen. It has a temperature control with nine cold positions. There are four miniature ice trays. It adds counter-top work space to the kitchen and eliminates trips to basement, garage or utility room for frozen food.

And it comes in smart kitchen mix-or-match colors.

The freezer of tomorrow is here today. Used as a free-standing unit, it adds a table-top work area to the kitchen. Saves trips to the basement for frozen food.

Give Your Chicks a Super Start

Your chicks should grow up to 5.6% faster on 7.4% less feed per pound of gain than ever before on Purina Super Chick Startena

Purina scientists have done it again! They have improved even last year's wonderful formula so much that you can see the difference.

SUPER GROWTH. Several thousand chicks in many different tests have averaged 5.6% bigger than ever before on Startena. And they took 7.4% less feed per pound of gain.

SUPER SAFE. You can order Startena with a built-in coccidiosis control. It's the best control ever tested by Purina Laboratories to help you protect chicks from the worst killer of all chick diseases.

SUPER VIGOR. You can see brighter yellow shanks, perkier red combs and fast smooth feathering.

SUPER ECONOMY. It takes only 2 lbs. of Super Startena per light-breed chick, 3 lbs. per heavy. This is a real saving, because most feeds recommend 3 to 4 lbs. of starter—more—before the chicks are ready for growing ration.
