Why is Pappy running again? When he started out, it was difficult to determine whether he was selling insurance or felt the urge that he never quit throbbing since the political bug first bit him. His campaign has been somewhat more forceful. He can still mount a red firetruck, pass the collection plate and harangue an audience willing to be entertained by scatterbrained, unwieldy charges against any and all present and former public office holders—himself excepted.

But there the "charm" ends. And how does he and his record stack up against that of the fellow from Liberty—the candidate without the O-apostrophe in front of his name? The answer is obvious.

Nowadays, you can't find anybody who voted for Pappy the first time he was elected.

It's downright strange. He was running against 12 other aspirants. He flatly stomped them in the ground—without a runoff. Seems to us like he got quite a lot of votes, but ask ten people walking down the street who they voted for last time, and seven out of the ten didn't vote for Pappy.

J. Evetts Haley seems to be just about as strong as anybody in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, but we're afraid he isn't quite strong enough over the rest of the state.

Haley might not make it this time, but we rate it worth another try if he doesn't. He sounds sincere to us.

And so the boy accepted the millionaire's reward of a free college education and, with Lady Luck holding his hand, began to fulfill a dream of becoming a doctor.

This is the happy ending to a story that began in October, 1951, when Martin Roche, 13 years old, decided to make a box scooter that would outpace any others in his neighborhood of Third Avenue and 53rd Street, New York City. Martin discarded the idea of using conventional roller skate wheels to make his scooter. Instead, he equipped his scooter with big wheels from a baby carriage.

One Saturday afternoon, Martin was proving to friends that his scooter could easily out-distance those made with roller skates. A race was started on Third Avenue, hardly ideal for such a challenge since the sidewalk was crowded with pedestrians.

One of the pedestrians was Alex Lewyt, an industrialist, and he crossed Martin's path just as the boy was picking up speed.

The scooter hit Mr. Lewyt, and knocked him down. Martin helped the industrialist to his feet, apologized and quickly got on his scooter to continue the race. Mr. Lewyt noticed how easily the scooter, with its big wheels, rode over cracks in the sidewalk. No doubt that inspiration was riding as Martin's passenger because the scooter's wheels gave Mr. Lewyt the idea to put big wheels on a vacuum cleaner.

After his new cleaner was produced in 1954, Mr. Lewyt decided to find the boy and reward him with a free education at any college of his choice. The industrialist enlisted help from the Kips Bay Boys' Club, located near the scene of the scooter accident. The club called its membership of 600 boys together and that's when Mr. Lewyt found Martin.

The boy is now 18 and next fall he will start at Columbia College. He hopes to become a doctor, with Mr. Lewyt paying for the course.

The industrialist explains that he is so grateful to the boy because he solved a serious manufacturing problem with his scooter that he will follow Martin's career closely.

In connection with his manufacturing problem, Mr. Lewyt explains it this way: "We had been spending many months at the factory, trying to figure a way to put something on the vacuum cleaner that would make it easy to move around, all over the house. Martin's scooter, with its baby carriage wheels, solved the problem."

And how does Martin feel about his good fortune? He's overjoyed, of course, and he feels so indebted.

Burleson Flays Benson And Soil Bank Program

Congressman Omar Burleson lodged a strong official protest with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson against the method being used in paying for cotton acreage placed in the Soil Bank.

"It simply doesn't make sense," Burleson said, "that the man who has planted should be paid only $6 per acre, while $18 or more per acre is being paid on unplanted acreage. No such thing was intended by the Congress and it shows that the Department of Agriculture does not know what it is doing."

Burleson says the whole Soil Bank Provision of the farm bill is holding out false hopes, and that the administration of it is now adding insult to injury. He states that it was the best bill the Congress could pass without its being vetoed by the President, but still it was not nearly good enough. Burleson was visiting in Ranger Tuesday campaigning for re-election. He is making a tour of the District, which includes the counties of Callahan, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Fisher, Hamilton, Jones, Nolan, Palo Pinto, Shackelford, Stephens, and Taylor.

The Congressman said he hopes to be able to spend a little time in every town and community in the 17th District between now and the Primary Election on July 28.

He returned from Washington Saturday, July 8, where his duties as Chairman of the House Administrative Committee and important legislative action in the Congress kept him busy until then.

Earl Conner Is Candidate For County Attorney

Earl Conner, Jr. of Eastland issued a formal statement Monday in behalf of his candidacy for county attorney.

He released the following statement to the press:

"In announcing my candidacy for the office of County Attorney I desire to express my appreciation to the citizens of Eastland County for having permitted to serve you in this capacity before. During the greater part of this time I served two District Courts, representing the county and State in a large number of contested jury trials, and I obtained a high percentage of convictions. I also represented the State in the County Court which then had jurisdiction to try criminal cases, as well as in the Justice Courts of the county. My entire time was devoted to the discharge of the duties of this office, and my working in close harmony with the various City Police Departments, Special State Boards and Officers, and all duly elected law enforcement officers, a good record was made.

"If elected to serve as your County Attorney it will be my sole purpose to continue to work with all officials and officers whenever called upon to render assistance, whether day or night, to the end that our laws may be enforced in a fair and impartial manner.

"I am a native of Eastland County. My family consists of a wife and two boys. Having been practicing law with my father, Earl Conner, Sr., for more than twenty years, I am naturally familiar with the problems confronting citizens, both young and old.

"Should I be given the honor of serving you again, you are to consider at all times that it is your office, and that you are to call upon me at any time to render whatever assistance I may be able to give; or to consult with you on your personal problems. These things, together with the promise to work faithfully and diligently at the job, I pledge you.

"Assuring you of my everlasting gratitude for your active support, I am,

Earl Conner, Jr."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Thinks Promise Of Rain Would Wrap Up Election

Dear Editor:

As the summer sun approaches meridian height, so does the governor's race get hotter and hotter, and Texas becomes dryer and dryer. Each gubernatorial aspirant promises more and better things for the people. Each zealous candidate is a past master at the age old political art of out promising on one hand and criticizing his opponents on the other. Where do they mix all the mud they are leaving? What do they use to mix it with? Maybe they are using "Krick Water?"

If there was some way of selecting the good points of each candidate and then compiling them into one personal pledge, Oh boy! What a governor we would have. It is the humble opinion of this writer that if one of the gubernatorial candidates could make good on a promise of a good drought-busting rain, he would be a cinch for election.

Yours for the best governor,
F. B. Alworth

Yanks, Giants Stay Tied For Loop Lead

The Yankees and the Giants remained knotted for first here Monday as both teams copped victories in Little League play.

The Yankees "considered the Bombs" while the men from Cooper's bluff civilized the Indians. The Yank margin was 12-5, while the Giants won by 10-4.

The Bronx Bombers never trailed in their conquest. The Dodgers scored the first run of the game, but that's as far as it went.

Charley Ferguson and Bobby Koenig limited Dodger bats to seven bingles, while their teammates were smashing out 12 hits off the combined efforts of Joe Barker and Vern Peterson.

The Dodgers broke scoring ice in the top of the first without a base hit. With two out Danny Kirkpatrick and Gerald Hodgkins both drew life on errors, Kirkpatrick tallying on the latter error.

But the Yankees matched this plus two in the bottom of the inning. Terry Townzen, David Webb and Bobby Koenig all smashed-out safe hits to lead off the inning and send two runs across. Billy Johnson's hit scored the third Yankee run of the inning.

That was all for the Dodgers until the fourth, but the Yanks outted two more in the bottom of the second. A double by Terry Townzen and a pair of errors produced the runs. Only a nifty double play got the Dodgers out of the inning without more damage.

Neither team counted in the third.

However, both teams sent runners across the platter in the fourth. The Dodgers were the first to do so in the original part of the inning, scoring two. A hit and an error, coupled with a pair of timely grounders, turned the trick effectively.

But the Yankees were not to be outdone. They scored three of their own in the same inning. Terry Townzen started the rally with his third hit of the night. Webb walked, and Koenig clouted a double to score both. Tommy Robinson scored Koenig with a single.

The Dodgers scored one in the fifth on a pair of hits by Danny Kirkpatrick and Richard Guest and another in the sixth when Bato Jiminer and Vern Peterson connected. However, the Yankees had added four insurance runs in the bottom of the fifth and the lead was unmountable. Charley Ferguson, Bill Johnson, Tommy Robinson, and Terry Townzen all got base hits in the fifth for the Bombers.

The Bombers had hit their target again.

The Giants also encountered little difficulty in racking up their 10-4 triumph over the Indians.

After holding the Tribe scoreless in the top of the first, the Giants sped six tallies across home plate to break things open before the game got started well. Highlight of the inning was a circuit smash by Johnny Merritt. Dean Martman and David Lockwood also connected for base runs.

The Indians turned the tables in the second, scoring one run while holding the Giants scoreless. It came as the result of a pair of walks and two hits by Charley De Los Santos and Alec Garcia.

The Indians made it 6-3 in the top of the third with two more runs. This time they connected for only one hit, by Charles De Los Santos, but they knitted together a walk, an error, and a fielder's choice to score the pair.

The Giants added a lone tally to their total in the last of the third without the aid of a hit and proceeded to set the Indians down scoreless in the fourth and fifth innings. They added three in the fourth to make it 10-3, and the Indians equaled the last tally of the game in the top of the sixth to round out the final score of 10-4.

Magnified a Thousand Times—

... is the common conception that it makes no difference, so why worry? The fact that a loaf of bread is taxed about 70 times has little outward criticism from the masses as we resolve ourselves into the complacent attitude that we can do nothing about it. But we should! It isn't Communism, nor Segregation, nor unpredictable Russia that are our greatest threats to survival, but taxes. If you happen to be a common laborer or one of thousands of small business men, better wake up!

"THE BIG BRIBE"

YOU ARE GIVING AWAY YOUR TAX MONEY WITHOUT HAVING ANYTHING TO SAY ABOUT IT.

It is axiomatic that in any money system there has been the practice of borrowing and lending money. Debtors who do not want to satisfy their debtors will either dislike their creditors or do anything to avoid payment. In this case, our government does not want our foreign friends to dislike us or go Communist. So, it just gives our money to our "foreign" friends and excuses itself by saying we are protecting ourselves when we give our money away to these "foreign" friends. Protecting us from what?

All of these incredible handouts all over the world shows up in the problem which keeps all of us worried—earning a living.

All of these billions are being raised not to defend us, but to defend something called the "free world" which is laughing at us right now.

We cannot buy friends. Do you know where Cambodia is? Well, we have been giving Cambodia fifty million dollars per year. The Prime Minister of Cambodia is really laughing at us. He isn't going to fight any Communists for us, but they are really enjoying the hand-out.

Our government gave Great Britain a grant of two hundred million dollars—OUR TAX DOLLARS—to finance a tax cut to the British. Our own government is bleeding us to cut our foreign friends' taxes.

We also gave Denmark one hundred million of our hard earned tax dollars to pay off a debt Denmark owed. We have literally thrown away well over one hundred billion of our tax dollars. This is part of our national debt. The government takes it away from us and then beats us over the head each year making the people pay over a billion and a half dollars interest on our own money which it gave away to our foreign friends to cut their taxes and make them richer and to keep them liking us and from going Communist. We even pay them rent, ransom, or bribe money to build airports for our bombers and fighter planes to protect them. Yet our government says we must keep this up forever to protect ourselves.

What would these billions have done for we the people? New schools, health, slum clearance, rural rehabilitation, reclamation, power development, churches, all by our own money if we abolished the progressive income tax law. Do we have to pay our foreign friends to be our friends?

In foreign lands, where our tax dollars are going, the rich are getting richer. The poor are getting poorer. Our tax dollars have not helped the little man in the foreign lands. He is getting squeezed just as you are here.

This give-away program is treason to the American tax payer. We gave France ten billion of our tax dollars to keep it from going Communist. But at the last French election, over five million Frenchmen voted the Communist ticket. 150 Communists were elected to the French Assembly and are now spending our tax dollars with glee and joy. The French industrialist is getting richer and richer with our tax dollars while the French peasant and worker is getting poorer and poorer.

If we have any respect for the Constitution, we will put a stop to this Federal Despotism in Washington which can squander our tax dollars as it sees fit without the consent of we the people. These men who are elected and then forget that they are representing we the people these outright dangerous politicians are at the bottom of all of our troubles. They entangle us in brawls of other nations, raise our national debt, tax us to death, and are leading us into a sickening slave state whereby the Federal government is usurping the State's powers and taking away our individual freedoms.

The low income people are paying 84% of the income taxes. You, the small businessman, the worker, the employee, are paying most of the income taxes so the politicians can give it away to our foreign friends who are not contributing anything to the cause of the free world but dragging us down in the muck and mire with them. All our foreign friends have been doing is holding their hands out and talking a pretty good game.

When the little man in America finally realizes he is paying most of the taxes, people will be elected who will go to Washington and bring an end to the useless bureaus, blunders, debts and slave taxes and make the government our servant instead of our dictator. We don't have to be afraid of the Russians. If we don't have enough hydrogen and atomic bombs, missiles, and airplanes to do the job without losing our sons on foreign soil, we better get rid of our politicians and find out just how many of our tax dollars have gone down the drain. This is supposed to be the Atomic Age, push button warfare, hydrogen and atomic weapons of devastating force. We are told by the experts that if the Russians wanted to they could attack us on our own ground anytime and our "foreign friends" would be of little help. The only real necessity for foreign friends is to have air bases closer to Russia, and we really don't need them with recent developments taking place.

Jefferson said, "The God who gave us life gave us liberty at the same time." "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I come not to send peace but a sword"—Jesus Christ, Matthew 10:34.

If we must give up our liberties, our freedoms, our pursuit of happiness to bribe our foreign friends to keep them from going Communist and joining a Godless system that would enslave us and control our very thoughts, then I can only say to you, the people of the 17th Congressional District, that we have let down our founding fathers and Ben Franklin who, when he walked out of Convention Hall, past eighty years of age, stated that he gave us a republic if we could keep it. God willing, we can keep our republic and bring our government back home to us, and still remain the most powerful nation on earth, and the Russians, and our foreign friends will be looking up to us and seeking our friendship instead of our government acting like a little sissy bribing the bullies with candy to keep them from harming him.
