

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

America has the highest living standard in the world. The nation's standard of living—wasteful, unnecessary dying—is also unequalled, for last year 38,300 persons were killed in traffic accidents.

National safety council figures show that in 1956, carnage on the highways continues to mount—traffic deaths in July hit a new high of 3570, a n d highway fatalities for the first seven months of the year topped all previous marks with a total of 21,730.

To a great many people, statistics are boring—but these NSC figures concern every man, woman and child in the United States. No one can afford to be bored by figures that disclose the vital statistics of life and death on America's highways.

There is no single, over-all reason for the highway slaughter recorded daily in the nation's press. Many human factors are involved—including drinking, carelessness, inattention, deliberate risk-taking, fatigue and faulty vision. But other reasons are also important.

Foremost among these non-human factors is the condition of most rural roads—the roads that carry most of America's automobile traffic. These roads, the majority of which were laid down just after World War I, were not designed for the traffic they bear today. They are, for the most part, narrow, poorly surfaced and inadequately marked and signed for even minimal driving safety.

NSC figures show that three-fourths—or, 28,550—of the traffic deaths in 1955 occurred from accidents in rural areas and in towns under 2500 population. The NSC makes the further point that "night driving is considerably more hazardous than day driving, and the hazard is greater in rural areas than in urban areas."

One obvious means of reducing death and destruction on our rural roads is to work for the modernization of existing roads through local, state and national groups, and through representatives of state legislatures and in congress. Such modernization is necessary, but it requires a great deal of time and money. A first step toward making these "everyday" roads safer for you and your family is proper traffic signing—and this is a step that can be taken immediately and at a mere fraction of the cost entailed in constructing new roads.

Marking of this sort, with reflective signs that do 24-hour night and day duty in warning of danger ahead, can cut down traffic deaths, reduce accidents and help make your daily driving the safe pleasure it should be.

Greyhound Bus Depot; WU Office To Move Soon

George Clarke, sales representative of Greyhound bus lines, announced Wednesday that the Ranger ticket office and station of the company agent, will be moved from the Paramount hotel to the building at 122 N. Austin street.

The Western Union telegraph company, also announced the moving of its local quarters to the same building simultaneously with that of the transportation company. The move by both organizations is expected to be accomplished by Nov. 1, it is asserted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lockwood will continue as agents for the bus lines and also representatives for the telegraph company.

A most modern ticket office, waiting rooms and cafe will be incorporated in the remodeled building in order to better serve the traveling public, officials said. The telegraph company stated that it would install the latest and most modern equipment available in the new location.

A change in Greyhound schedules was announced this week. Effective Saturday, Sept. 29, the so-called "early morning bus" will depart Rangers at 5:58 a. m. instead of 6:25 as heretofore.

Pioneer Leaders Listed; Rangers Fall from Top

ARLINGTON—Defending champion San Angelo Junior college took the lead in total offense and defense in the Pioneer conference last week on the strength of a 27-0 victory over the Hardin-Simmons frosh.

San Angelo, rolling to its second non-conference win in as many games, went ahead of Arlington State college in the rushing department with a 490-yard total compared to 453 (Continued on Page Seven)

Runaway Teen-age Girls Caught Here

Ranger police Tuesday were notified by the Cisco and Abilene police departments of two runaway teen-age girls from the latter city.

The names given over police radio were Robbie Jo Bird, claiming to be 17, and Theresa Holiday, age unknown, but allegedly a victim of polio in earlier life.

Two girls were taken from a Greyhound bus at about 6:15 p. m. in Ranger by local officers and held for investigation.

One of the girls proved to be Robbie Jo Bird, whose possessions were a PE suit from school and the clothing she was attired in at the time of her apprehension.

The other girl, detained at the same time, was later identified as Janice Brown, 17, also of Abilene.

According to police and the Bird girl's parents, it was established in a reporter's presence that the Brown girl is from a broken home. Her mother is supposedly in California and her father, when last heard from, was said to have been in Baytown. It was asserted that the parents are divorced.

The Holiday girl, who was reported to have been missing, was not with the two girls detained here and no reports of her whereabouts have been forthcoming. The anxious father made a trip by car from Abilene and stated that neither of the girls in custody was his missing daughter.

Robbie Jo Bird was returned to her parents at the local police station upon their arrival from Abilene by car.

Since no missing persons report was filed for the Brown girl, and Abilene police did not have a warrant nor hold order for her and the juvenile delinquency officer had nothing on which to detain her, there was nothing to do but release her, see that she was put on the next bus and allowed to continue her journey, for which she had a ticket in her possession. This was accomplished by local officers.

H. E. (Jake) Lawson, district manager for Lone Star Gas company at Ranger, accepts engraved "Go Getter" loving cup from Ken Olson, district sales manager for Servel, Inc. at a special meeting in local office this month. The Ranger district employees won the award on basis of making 256 per cent of quota set for Servel gas refrigerator sales during July and August. Ranger was one of four districts within Lone Star's general division of distribution to win such an award. If Ranger wins again next year the cup will remain permanently at the local office. Lone Star employees are (left to right) U. L. Bennie, Jack Mace, Clayton Kuhlmann, George Guydis, Jimmy Littlefield, Jerry Wilson, Mary Jo Stie, Betti Huffman and W. T. Eaton.

Ranger Hall Will Be Completed Soon

Ranger hall, a combination cafeteria and community dining hall is nearing a reality.

Dedicated to the citizens of Ranger, Ranger hall is symbolic of the cooperative spirit that exists between school and community, and it demonstrates the ability of school and community to work together to provide our area with facilities that have long been needed.

Ranger has been unable to invite conventions and district meetings of social and civic organizations to our city due to the lack of adequate dining facilities to accommodate them. Ranger hall will be a modern, up-to-date community center, constructed of brick, tile, glass and ornamental iron, it will embody 4000 square feet of floor space with a seating capacity of 400. A small family-size dining room and a separate banquet room will be features of the new building.

A modern, well-furnished kitchen with the latest equipment consisting of steam tables, ice tables for salads, baking ovens, and steam kettles will make efficient meal preparation possible.

Four thousand dollars will be needed to finish this building in a manner that will make it a real asset to both school and community.

Generous donations in the amount of $2830 have already been received by Morris Newnam, chairman of the finance committee. Numerous other citizens have expressed a desire to have a part in this undertaking, while many other Ranger citizens who are ardent supporters of civic undertakings have not been contacted by the committee. Many were out of town or away on vacations when the committee of business men were making the contacts.

A list of donors to date are: Pulley Insurance agency, $25; Dr. W. L. Downstain, $50; L. L. Bruce, $50; Swaney drug, $100; C. E. Madlocks & Co., $100; C. E. May Inc. Co., $100; Ranger Furniture exchange, $100; L. R. Pearson, $100; Edna Chambers, $25; Crawford's Revall drug $100; Ranger Lumber and Supply, $100;

Ranger Frozen Food Locker, $200; Commercial State Bank, $225; Ranger Rotary club, $100; Social Science Lab, $25; K. C. Jones, $5; Ranger Ins. agency, $100; The Globe, $25; Lone Star Gas, $200; Times Publishing Co., $100; Ranger Lions club, $100; El Rancho, $50.

Raymond Bryan, $50; Dewey Cox, $25; Robinson Food market, $25; C. D. Hartnet, $100; Frances Jameson, $25; J. C. Ferney, $50; W. F. Denton, $25; Marshall Jolly, $25; Texas Electric Stry., $225; H. G. Adams Gro., $50; Mrs. Allis Ray Morris, $100.

To date $2830.00. An investment in a permanent dining hall for our city is an investment in greater Ranger. This is an opportunity that might come only once in a lifetime. Contractor's estimates on this building run $1 per square foot or a total of $4000.

Ranger junior college has a record enrollment this year of over 600 students. Nice dormitories and attractive dining halls are essential for progress. They ask the citizens of Ranger to join in this project. Call Morris (Continued on Page 7)

Ranger Invades DeLeon Friday Night; Toss-up

Ranger's Bulldogs will meet at Bearcat in Lamb's clothing Friday night when they take the gridiron against DeLeon at DeLeon. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The Bearcat in question is none other than that rip-snorting, hard-running 160-pound halfback, Wayne Lamb. He has set the fans and opposition on fire so far this season and will be out to carve even a greater niche in his personal hall of fame, this time at the expense of Ranger.

While it is conceded that Lamb has been the sparkplug of DeLeon's offense, much of his success must be credited to the quarterback, C. M. Caraway, in his cute handling of the Bearcat speedster.

The 'Cats like to stay on the ground with the ball and seldom resort to air travel, they grind out winning yardage the hard way.

The Bulldogs will probably be at full strength, coming out of the Jackboro game in good shape and should be sharper than at any time this season—so far, that is—according to the grapevine.

Coaches Yarbrough and Barrett will have a full squad to rely upon for duty against the Bearcats.

The aerial stunts will probably come in for a little more play this week than has been the case in the past games due to the fact that it (Continued On Page 7)

Chest Budget is Set by Directors At Tuesday Meet

Directors and members of the asking agencies of the community chest, met Tuesday night at 7:30 in the office of the chamber of commerce.

The quota for this year was set at $6160, it was announced. This amount the workers will attempt to raise through contributions of area residents.

Tuesday, Oct. 2, a kick-off breakfast will be held at King's Cafe at 7 a. m. for all directors, team captains and workers for the drive. Approximately 40 workers are expected at the breakfast, according to reports.

Directors, workers and members of asking agencies attending the Tuesday night meeting included Dr. Price Ashton, chairman; H. A. Shockey, Dr. Marshall Jolly, Roscoe Hopper, W. F. Crooner, Mrs. Hershel Angus, Mrs. H. C. Croon, Mrs. P. M. Kneekendall, Mrs. Joe Townzen, E. P. Brashier, J. E. Matthews, Gustav Dixon, Mrs. A. N. Answering Virgil Moore in Eastland

Virgil Moore, in his column "Moore About Eastland," in that spot over west which they choose to call a town, had to say Tuesday:

"Maybe Ed Johnson, Ranger Times editor, will calm down a bit now and quit making dirty remarks about Eastland's football. Ed stuttered his way through a marriage ceremony Sunday, and now he will have someone to correct his thinking for him. He will have to do his talking through his column now, though, it's a cinch he won't get a chance to say much at home anymore. At least that's the way it is at our house."

Well, about all I can say is that I still don't think Eastland would be able to give Ranger a very formidable marble game; much less one in football. And while you speak of having to talk through the column instead of at home—you still don't say very much, Virgil.

Come on over next Friday night, Oct. 5, we will try to arrange for you to sit in the press box, and I will personally point out the finer points of football to you—you can't know them very well, for the simple reason you haven't seen any over that way. Huh, and you have the gall to even talk about Eastland and Ranger in the same breath—Go get yourselves a reputation first—then come around to see me. Remember the 23-8 advantage, Virgil?

Rangers - Paposoes At Bulldog Stadium Tonight at 8 o'Clock

After giving the Tyler Junior college Apaches a run for their money last weekend, the RJC Rangers are invading Indian territory again this week when they meet the McMurry Paposoes at Bulldog stadium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Injuries were numerous in last week's game as the hard-hitting Rangers held the highly rated Tyler lads to a 7-0 score at the half. This week's fray will find Coach Tom Hestand and many of his squadmen matching wits with Ranger's former coach, Stan Burnham. Both teams were defeated in their last week's outings. Although the Rangers are short on substitutes, they are decidedly well supplied with spirit, pep, and drive. After McMurry they will have an open date to read themselves for the first Pioneer conference game with the powerful San Angelo Rams here on Oct. 13. Buddy Hightower, J. D. Hanson, Lionel Crisp, Ronald Darnell, Bud Remynse, and Lonnie Wood will see little if any action against the Abilene "B" team. Big Jim Mangum will be out of this week's engagement as he gains strength from a recent illness. The Rangers will be trying to keep their record clean against the Paposoes. Last year they scalped them by a score of 26-6. Ranger will rely largely on a ground game running from the split "T", but if necessary, they can take to the air with Shorty McLaren and Douglas Jordan doing the tossing, and Jack Rutledge, Dan Mitchell or John Butler doing the receiving.

The line will be bolstered by tackles Eddie Jo Jones and Robert James with Mickey Poteet and Teddy Henderson as guards. Wayne Smith or Buddy Hightower will fill the center slot. Bill Beebe, Joe Kazkoeka and Franklin Sims will likely handle the ball carrying department.

Humble Co. Begins Football Radio-TV Series on Saturday

The first Southwest conference football telecast of the season will be presented this week by Humble Oil & Refining company. In addition, there will be four broadcasts of Southwest conference games.

The Baylor-Texas Tech game will be televised from Waco. Kern Tips and Alec Chesser will be there to describe all the action and color. TV time will be 1:45 p. m. over KRBC-TV, Abilene;

Turkey Crop for Texas is a Record

The nation's turkey producers are raising 16 per cent more turkeys this year than last . . . 29 per cent more heavy breeds and 19 per cent less light breeds.

Texas producers are raising about 47 per cent more birds than in 1955. Production of light breeds is down 4 per cent but heavy breeds are up 55 per cent in the state.

The expansion was caused primarily because prices during the last half of 1955 were 7 per cent higher than for the same period in 1954 and feed prices were down by 10 per cent. Too, turkey prices for the first half of 1956, which covers the main hatching season, were about 6 per cent higher than for the same period in 1955 and feed prices averaged 7 per cent less. These factors were enough to encourage expansion.

It is believed the commercial turkey industry will continue to expand especially if general economic activity continues at a high level. Two main factors are cited as reasons for the expansion . . . improved technology and larger supplies of feed and other resources.

The record number of turkeys raised this year is sure to sell for less money than last year's crop. In fact, prices to growers will probably be much lower.

Growers are advised to consider such items as age of the turkey, weight, fleshing, finish (fat) and time of selling. Decisions by producers on when to sell should be based upon the above items as well as the price per pound offered. It is often unwise to keep feeding birds for additional weight after they are well fleshed and finished.

Go to market with only top quality birds. Competition will be keener than in many years and dockage on less desirable birds heavier.

Fifty Attend First Annual Pecan Tour

"How many pounds of pecans would you say is on this tree? At 150, well how much money would that be at 40 cents a pound?"

Speaking was County Agent J. M. Cooper. His audience was a group of Eastland county citizens who are interested in the pecan industry in this county. Cooper was busy making them realize that pecans make a profitable crop, even during the serious drought that the county is now in.

The occasion was the first annual Eastland County Pecan tour which was held Tuesday. Growers, civic and agricultural leaders numbering about 50 took part in the affair.

The group met Tuesday morning at the swimming pool at Ranger and from there visited the Elmer Cooper orchard. From there they went to B. B. Freeman's orchard in Chesney and then to B. M. Bennett's place at Gorman. There they enjoyed lunch.

Tuesday afternoon the group went to three other Gorman orchards. They visited the C. D. Simmons, D. J. Jobe and Mrs. A. C. Underwood farms.

All except one of the orchards were set or planted. All but two were in deep sandy soil, which Cooper said was some of the best pecan land in the world.

L. G. Romberg, a pecan expert from the Brownwood Experiment Station, also made the tour. At the Freeman orchard the group saw a number of experiment trees provided Freeman by the Experiment Station for testing. Some of them were described as "excellent."

Cooper said he hoped to make the tour an annual affair. "Pecans are, although we haven't realized it much before, a fairly good drought resistant crop. In Eastland county we have some of the best soil in the world for raising pecans. Although the crop is not considered a minor one, it could prove to be a lifesaver in the years to come."

Hunters of Texas are fast becoming "poor sportsmen." This does not mean that all of the sportsmen are law violators, but it does mean that no few are ruining the reputation of the ones that are true sportsmen and are reaping their just deserts in courts at law. Just a few of the "bum" sports' fines:

A blue rock pigeon, protected by law, was killed by a Mercedes resident, who was fined $25 and costs. This bird is comparatively rare and is a flareback to the days of bountiful wildlife. It has a red bill and red feet.

A Flaw in the Title
 . . . has been costly to many honest and sincere purchasers. Unlike the precious stone, the title with a flaw, in most cases, may be cured by means of the abstract and the attorney's opinion. A flaw in your right of ownership not only impairs the value of your investment but sooner or later is almost certain to cause you loss of time and money. In buying real estate always ask for an abstract.

costing them dearly. A Houston man paid $150 for killing a spike buck. Fines of $100 and costs were levied against two men, one from Chester, the other from Cleveland, for night hunting.

The hardest lick in recent days was for "telephoning" fish. Three persons were fined $200 and costs, each, for this illegal practice. It can easily be seen that "good" sportsmen are fast becoming "bum" sports—if you can't lose gracefully, don't win gleefully.

UT's Walter Fondren scored one TD and made two conversions in the USC game to take his place as top scorer of the Longhorns this season. We predict this boy will be an SWC "wrecker of hopes" this year and that the six conference opponents are dreading the very thought of Fondren far more than any other player—if truth be known.

In the view of Herbert Hoover, "the greatest issue in America and all mankind is the encroachment of government to master our lives." That single brief sentence says more than 100 windy political speeches—or tartly phrased partisan platforms designed to offer all things to all men.

Those who look to government for doles, for favors, for special privileges, for cradle-to-the-grave security, will find that government will demand the death of liberty in return. Then we will have the security of the prison.

"Doctor," said the patient, "if there's anything wrong with me don't frighten me half to death by giving it a long scientific name. Just tell me in plain English what it is."

"Well," the doctor replied hastily, "to be perfectly frank you are just plain lazy."

"Thank you doctor, and now, will you give me the scientific name for that condition so that I can tell the folks at home?"

No subject is more frequently discussed than the federal income tax. Yet, apparently, a good many people don't realize just how deeply this tax cuts into our income. The tax begins at 20 per cent, on the first $2000 of taxable income. Then it progresses upward, reaching a top figure of 91 per cent.

A short time ago, an association offered a documented plan for tax reform. Over a 5-year period the tax rates in all brackets would be gradually reduced. At the end of the period the maximum rate would be 35 per cent.

A poll was taken to find out what people thought of the plan. Approval was given by the majority. And many of those polled expressed amazement that the tax rate went as high as 35 per cent. When told that it now goes higher, far higher, to 91 per cent, they "could hardly believe it."

The peak tax rates are paid by a relatively small number of people with big incomes. But that doesn't mean that the rest of us are in no way concerned. The main reason why tax relief is needed is to make more money available for industrial investment and expansion—which is an absolute necessity if jobs are to be created for the one million additional workers who enter the labor force each year.

Tax rates which take as much as nine cents out of each 10 cents a man earns certainly don't encourage any kind of an investment. It will be the many, not just the few, who will gain the most from tax relief—if and when we get it. They say that, up on the Potomac, what we would like to see is—something that the little guy can feel. Most of us will never have $1,000,000—but if we did—we would be willing to let them tax that—we wouldn't know what to do with it any way. But the little guy—he gets "bit" each week—is the hardest hit of all—bar none.

Mrs. James Parten . . . formerly Nettie Newman

Nettie Ruth Newman and James D. Parten are Wed in Cisco Rites

Miss Nettie Ruth Newman, daughter of W. A. Newman, formerly of Cisco, became the bride of James David Parten, son of Mrs. I. M. Parten of Carbon Thursday evening, September 13, in the First Christian Church in Cisco.

The Rev. Irvin Watson, pastor of the church, performed the double rites before an altar decorated with tall baskets of white gladiolas, greenery and the traditional wedding candelabra.

Mrs. Troy Powell of Cisco served as organist and accompanied Bob Latson as he sang "Walk Hand in Hand With Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Candles were lighted preceding the ceremony by Stanley C. McCracken and Cherry Meglason, both of Cisco.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Bill Stephens. She wore a traditional waltz length gown of white chantilly lace over satin and net. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, long sleeves which tapered to points over the hands, and corded at the waist. The full skirt was of scalloped tiers of lace. Her veil was caught to a tiara of white lace outlined in seed pearls and she carried a white Bible.

Mrs. R. A. Stephens of Fort Worth, maid of honor, wore a waltz length gown of light blue taffeta and net and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. She wore a headdress of blue carnations.

Judy Stephens of Fort Worth was flower girl and Blendie Stephens, also of Fort Worth, was ringbearer. They wore identical ankle length dresses of light blue taffeta and net with headdresses of blue and white carnations.

Donald Nicholas of Carbon served the groom as best man.

and Mrs. A. M. Worley, 901 West 6th Street, Cisco. The bride's table was laid with an imported white linen cut work cloth and held a centerpiece of blue and white carnations. The three tiered wedding cake was iced in white and decorated in blue with the tradition bride and groom on top.

Members of the house party were Mesdames Patricia Isbell, Yvonne Phagata, Nadine Meglason, and O. C. Lomax and Miss Jocille Kelley. Mrs. Sybill Roser presided at the bride's book.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 502 Avenue H, Cisco.

For traveling the bride chose a two piece dress of light blue faille with black accessories and a white carnation corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Parten attended Cisco schools and is presently employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Parten attended high school in Carbon and is a graduate of Cisco Junior College. He is employed by Kinard Service Station.
