Hiway Commission Grants Hearing for Road Over Leon Dam

By NORMAN WRIGHT

We don't know how some of the best of you feel about it, but for our part we are getting sick and tired of the way some elements in this country are playing around with the people's right to a trial by jury.

That is one of the most ancient rights in America yet it is being kicked around with no more respect than if it were a laughing joke.

The right of trial by jury is even older than the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees it. The denial of such a right was one of the grievances the colonists had against George III, and they so stated when they wrote the Declaration of Independence away back in 1776 which was long before the Constitution was written.

In listing their grievances against George III in the Declaration of Independence, one line read "...for depriving us in many cases of the benefits of Trial by Jury." The final line of this famous document read, "and for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance in the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

Yet here, in this country today, in the Nation's Capital, the highest authorities in our land strip an American soldier, William S. Girard, of his right to a trial by jury. They not only stripped him of that right, they stripped him of every right he had and turned him over to a foreign government with the full backing of the Army and the President of the United States, both sworn upon their honor to defend the Constitution.

Now comes the Civil Rights Bill, with an enforcement clause in it which would deny any person who violated its provisions the right to a trial by jury.

The Bill would set up a special department in the office of the Attorney General of the United States to investigate the violation of Civil Rights. This department would have the right to jerk up any American citizen on the slightest provocation of interfering with Civil Rights, take him before a Federal Judge and there have him sentenced without the benefit of trial by jury.

Backers of the Bill say this provision must be kept in it because no jury in the Southern States would convict a man charged with violation of Civil Rights. Again this attitude has the backing of this government and the President of the United States.

When the President, or any other person, makes such a statement as this, that no jury in the Southern States would convict a man charged with violation of Civil Rights, it is for them to say that they have no faith in our courts and in our judicial system, especially in the South.

Just as the Girard decision made two kinds of soldiers (those who stay at home and enjoy all the (Continued on Page Four)

The State Highway Commission has granted the request of "a group of Eastland and Ranger citizens" for a hearing in Austin for the purpose of asking that the road from Lone Cedar Crossing on over the Lake Leon Dam be designated a county farm-market road.

This information was made known late this week by County Judge John Hart who said he had been advised that an exact date for the hearing would be announced later.

Virgil Seaberry, Jr., who served as spokesman for the Eastland-Ranger group when they appeared before the county Commissioners Court, is expected to take the plea to the Highway Commission, and County Judge John Hart said Seaberry should have the backing of a record-breaking number of Eastland and Ranger citizens when the proposition is made to the State group.

It is expected that the Chambers of Commerce of both cities will get strong delegations together and make the trip to Austin when the time comes.

The plea will perhaps be made before Marshall Formby who heads the State Commission and Formby is already well acquainted with the situation around the Lake as he is the man who dedicated the Staff bridge back in 1954 after the Highway Dept., rushed it to completion at the request of Eastland-Ranger citizens. Formby will no doubt lend a sympathetic ear to the new request, as building of the Staff bridge, before the lake filled, proved to be a wise move indeed.

By having the strip of road in question designated as a farm-market road, the State would then be in a position to go ahead with a hard-surfacing program that would connect the road with the network of other farm-market roads in the area.

New Water Pump Now Operating

The new water pump which has been connected to the mains in the Young Addition began operation at about noon Friday.

Residents of the area noted a marked improvement in their water pressure at once. Water sprinklers that formerly would not even rotate suddenly began to whirl and squirt a fountain of water six or seven feet high.

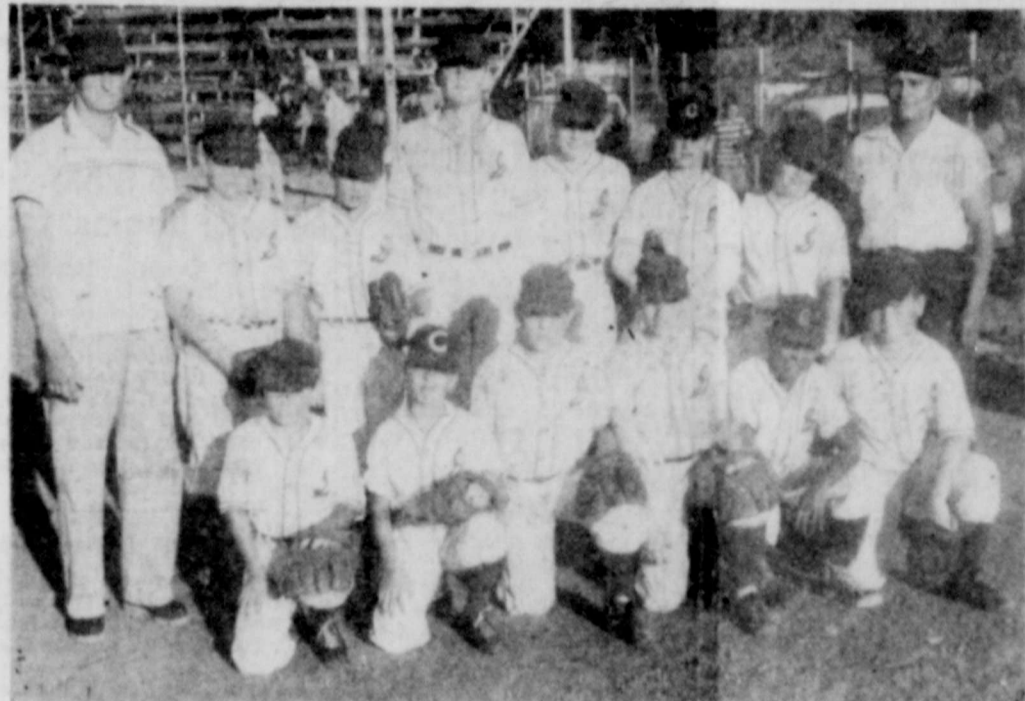

However, in the late afternoon, from about 4:30 on, when all the rest of the town starts watering, pressure drops considerably in Young, although with the pump it is much, much better than formerly.

NECK AND NECK FIGHT: The Little League Giants (top photo) and the Indians (lower photo) are in a neck and neck fight to the finish as all four Little League teams race for the wire next week, with the schedule ending for the season on Thursday night, July 25. The Indians are 1/2 game behind the Giants, but have a mathematical chance to win. The Dodgers are apparently out of the race since they are 3 1/2 games behind with the league leading Giants having only 3 more games to play, including the make-up game with the Yankees. The Giants could lose all three games and still come out ahead of the Dodgers, but the Indians have a chance to beat them. (Capps Photo)

Giants-Indians In Flag Fight; All-Stars Named

As the Little League race draws rapidly to a close with the final games scheduled for next Thursday night, the Giants and the Indians are in a neck-and-neck finish for the pennant.

TOMMY WARFORD (left) and James Johnson of Abilene, the man Tommy almost beat to win the Sixth Annual Reporter-News Junior Golf Tournament at Abilene Thursday. Runner-up Tommy and the winner are pictured resting in the shade and holding their trophies. Tommy shot a one-under-par 35 on the front side of Abilene's Municipal Course, but three bogey-fives on the back nine gave Johnson a 2 and 1 victory. Johnson is Abilene High School's No. 1 golfer and had to go all out to beat the Ranger ace who is rapidly becoming one of the finest young golfers in the State. He has a brilliant golfing future ahead of him, since he was only a Sophomore in school this past year.

As of right now the Indians are only a half-game out of first place, but the Giants did not get to finish their game with the Yankees last Thursday night and therefore their new position in the standings has not been figured.

However, the Indians have a good mathematical chance to overtake the Giants, and the Giant-Indian game scheduled for next Tuesday night will go a long way in determining the final winner of the pennant race. It is by far the most important game of the year.

Remaining Schedule
Remaining games to be played in addition to the Yankees-Giant make-up game are:

Tuesday night, July 23, Giants vs. Indians and Dodgers vs. Yankees.

Thursday night, July 25, final games of the season, Indians vs. Yankees and Giants vs. Dodgers. The Yankees are away out of the race, having won but one game all season, and the Dodgers are apparently eliminated as of today. The Dodgers are 3 1/2 games behind the league-leading Giants, and the Giants have only three more games to play, including the make-up game. The Giants could lose all three, and the Dodgers could win all of their other games, and still end up the season 3 1/2 games behind.

All-Stars Named

In the meantime the All-Stars have already been named to play in the area play-offs which begin in Eastland on Monday, July 29. They are:

Easy to See Who Signed for Low Rates

A person doesn't need the account books at City Hall to tell who signed up for the new low summer water rates for July, August and September.

All one has to do is drive up and down the streets in the different residential sections of Ranger and it becomes quite apparent.

Green lawns in front, back and on the sides, together with cool, damp-looking flower beds with high green plants in them, plus healthy, vigorous shrubs and evergreens, and trees with water sprinklers running under them at all hours of the day... those are the lads that signed up.

There were about 100 signers in all, but the City still does not know how it is going to come out on the deal. The City hasn't got its first month's water bill yet under the new set-up.

At least a hundred homeowners, though, are having a grand and glorious time.

Dr. D. T. Wier Opens Medical Offices Here

Dr. D. T. Wier, well known to hundreds of people in the Ranger area as a physician and surgeon, has opened offices here at the West Texas Clinic, 401 W. Main Street, for general practice with special attention to obstetrics.

Mrs. Wier, the former Maxine Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Henderson of Odien, and their two children, Donald 16, and Mary Ellen 7, will join Dr. Wier here about August 1.

Dr. Wier is a 1925 graduate of Ranger High School, and did his pre-med work at Hardin-Simmons University. He graduated from the Baylor College of Medicine at Dallas in 1933 and served his internship at St. Louis City Hospital, from 1933 to 1934.

Dr. Wier was associated with his father, the late Dr. A. K. Wier from 1934 to 1935. From May 1935 to May 1936 he was camp surgeon for the CCC before establishing practice in Belen, New Mexico, in 1936. He remained there until called to active duty in the Army Air Corps in March 1941.

During his tour of duty with the Air Corps he was stationed variously at Kelly Field, Randolph Field, Santa Maria, Calif., Bethesda, Md., and Lawson Field, and in May 1943 was sent to North Africa, as Group Surgeon. After the North African campaign he was stationed in Sicily, and in February 1944 he was sent to England where he was assistant wing surgeon in charge of air evacuation of wounded from Normandy to the United Kingdom.

Dr. Wier returned to the states in August 1944 and was assigned as officer in charge of office patients at Ft. Logan, Colo. He was later assigned to Greenboro, N. C., in charge of physical examinations and remained there until he resumed private practice in Belen, N. M., in Sept., 1945. He later moved his practice to Albuquerque where he remained until Sept., 1954 when he again entered active service.

Whittington Says Lone Cedar Land Co. Over-Sold

Dr. Jim Whittington of Eastland said this week the Lone Cedar Land Company finally wound up with 25 or 30 more pledged members than the minimum of 225.

"That's just fine," Whittington said, pointing out that 225 was a minimum, not a maximum. Whittington said that Eastland, Buang Star, Gorman and Strawn now have at least their minimum of paid members. Cisco lacks 10 having enough paid-up members, he said, and Ranger lacks 12. Dr. Whittington said, however, that both cities had more than enough pledges.

Dr. Whittington said he was scheduled to speak next Thursday in DeLeon to a group of citizens there who are interested in getting in on the organization.

It is undoubtedly one of the best investments that can be made today, and many people figure the time will come when shares in the land company cannot be bought at any price.

New Telephone Books In Service Throughout City

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company this past week completed distribution of the new 1957 telephone books in Ranger, and they are now in use all over the city.

The new books, like the old, have 11 pages of listings but many new subscribers are indicated because Page 11 of the old book, the last page, had only a very few names on it, whereas Page 11 in the new book is two-thirds full of names.

Yellow pages in both books remained the same with 16 in each.

ABC Floral kept its listing in the new book as the first name on the list, as it was in the old. Ben Young, on Strawn Road, also maintained his listing as the last in both books.

Ranger has evidently picked up a Jones and dropped a Smith. The new book has 11 Smiths as compared to 12 in the old, and it has 14 Jones as compared to 13 in the old.

The Smiths and the Jones still dominate all names for frequency.

Indians Nip Dodgers; Giants Burned Out

It is said that something like 40 Dads will be available for playing assignments Saturday night and every one of them will get into the two games before they are over. It is also said that a few nenas might have to be run in if the worse comes to the worse.

Indians	11	5	.687	1/2
Dodgers	8	8	.500	3 1/2
Yankees	1	14	.071	10

The Little League Indians beat the Dodgers 10 to 6 Thursday night and climbed to within 1/2 game of the league leading Giants who did not get to finish their game with the Yankees due to a fire on one of the light poles which caused them to have to call their game at the end of the first inning.

Temporarily, then, the standings are incomplete until the Giants and Yankees play their make-up game which will have to be very soon since the season ends Thursday night of next week.

Had the Giants lost their game to the Yankees Thursday night, the Indians would be leading 1 1/2 games but had the Giants won their game, they would have been 1 1/2 games ahead of the field instead of 1/2 game as the standings now show.

Anyway it goes, it will be a bitter fight from here on out between the Giants and the Indians for first place.

Santos started on the mound for the Indians Thursday night and Owens relieved in the fifth. Peterson started for the Dodgers and founds relieved in the fifth.

Box score of the Indian-Dodger game is as follows:

Merritt, ss	5	1	2
Owen, 3b	3	1	3

Members of the Fort Worth Amputee Ball Club, all of whom have lost either an arm or a leg or both, are going into their game against the Ranger Dads tonight at Little League Park "crippled," believe it or not!

That was the report of Barney Capshaw, organizer and president of the Amputees, who told the Times Friday that practically every one of the players were "slaughtered" over at Baird earlier in the week in a game played there for benefit of the Little League.

One of the players, Capshaw said, suffered a "broken" leg, not his good one, but his artificial one, and will be out of the game here because his leg is in the shop for repairs. "We are hoping they get it put back together in time for him to play here," Capshaw said, "because we need him."

Capshaw said repair to the player's leg would cost him $35, "but that is the risk we take. We still go ahead and pay our own expenses and take nothing at all out of our benefit games."

Capshaw said that was another reason why his team always carried one or two players who were not amputees—so that they might have substitutes in case some of the amputees had an accident. "It is much easier to injure an artificial limb than it is a real one," he explained.

As far as the Ranger Dads are concerned, after a week of stiff workouts including batting, base running and sliding, they feel like they need to be replaced all over with something artificial, perhaps, a robot, that could get out there and play the whole game for them.

Just who Ranger will support in the rooting section is a good question, but it is thought the Amputees will have about as many backers as the Dads. Two games will be played, the first to be a 5-inning game, and the second a 7-inning game.

It is said that something like 40 Dads will be available for playing assignments Saturday night and every one of them will get into the two games before they are over. It is also said that a few nenas might have to be run in if the worse comes to the worse.

Coming—Jet Age Graduates

As any oldster will tell you, the high school years are wonderful years, but at the time they can be pretty grim.

One of the worst aspects is that everybody is insisting that you make up your mind what you are going to do in life. You must—like that "youth who bore mid snow and ice. A banner with that strange device—Excelsior!"—get going.

And it is just too bad to tell them you have decided to be a South Seas beach-comber or get a job in the local pickle factory. No sir, teachers, parents, relatives, a n d friends-of-the-family, are made of sterner stuff. They're just not willing to let you do as you like.

In grandpa's time, the boys who wanted to fool with those exciting new gasoline engines either had to run away from home or sell their parents on the idea of going to some special school where they could learn something about them from experts. Today, those are the boys that head the great automotive industry. In fact, if you were to ask any automotive board chairman the significance of 1066, he would probably tell you it was the drive-away price of the Dodge Brothers touring car in 1923.

In father's time, his classmates included the radio nuts and the radio hams who wanted to consort with the ether waves more than they wanted to go to school and they kept the house cluttered up with old wire and batteries and coils, and today they are presidents and executives in the big broadcasting and television chains.

We notice where a Jet Engine Training School has been opened recently in Portland, Ore. Ah, there is another future! Its graduates will probably be as wanted as graduate engineers are today. Already, turbine engine manufacturers are signing up in advance for all the graduates from this Jet Engine School.

If we were a young fellow who gloried in grease-on-his-nose, as some say we still do, we'd look into this.

First Christian Announcements

Rev. J. E. Barker, pastor, urges those attending First Christian Church this Sunday to bring their Bible with them so they can use them for reference and better understanding of the message taken from the 8th chapter of Romans. Rev. Barker said, "This great chapter on the Christian's assurance will prove to be a great source of inspiration to everyone who studies it."

During the evening service with its time spent singing great gospel hymns and contemplating the good things of God, Rev. Barker will speak on the theme, "God, First Missionary Evangelist." Members and friends of the church will feel great satisfaction in concluding the Lord's Day in the Lord's house.

Rev. Barker comments that while many folks believe that the "Age of Miracles" is past, this should not limit our prayers and faith in God to do wonderful things for us. "Perhaps the reason so few people feel deeply the power of God in their life is because of the limits that through faithfulness and prayerfulness they place upon God. Christian people should give God every opportunity to use them as instruments in his hands through which He can accomplish marvelous things."

Rev. R. E. Perkins Makes 1st Baptist Announcements

Rev. Ralph Perkins of the First Baptist Church made the following statements and announcements today:

The old adage "That nothing succeeds like success" is proving true for increased attendance in both Sunday school and training union.

"Operation Telephone" is the Sunday school program that is increasing attendance in most every department. Absentees are contacted each week by telephone.

"Efficiency Programs" is being used as the means of building one of the largest attendance in T. U. among the 158 churches in District 17. With both S. S. and T. U. attendance up the natural result is an increase in attendance in both worship services each Lord's day.

The pastor will bring a special message at 11 a.m. on the theme, "The Christian and Religious Observances" based upon the 6th chapter of Matthew. This message is a continuation of the study in the message of Jesus. "The Sermon on the Mount." Bring your family and enjoy the spiritual fellowship. J. N. Sutton, minister of music, will direct the Sanctuary Choir and the special music at both services.

The pastor will again turn to the teaching of Jesus and use the theme for the evening message, "Bible Baptism." Every Christian ought to know the scriptural form and meaning of baptism. The Lord Jesus organized the church as a place for worship. You and your family in church each Lord's day will be a most pleasing testimony of your faith in a Living Lord. Our Nursery is open during all services for the little ones. There is a welcome awaiting you, come worship with us.

Father Van Hee Tells Lions of Belgian War

Father Francis Van Hee, whose home is in Ypres, Belgium and who is in Ranger this summer substituting for Father Hoemans at Saint Rita's Church, told Ranger Lions Thursday of the turmoil in Belgium during the ten days when the country was invaded by the German army on May 10, 1940, until the capitulation of the Belgian army on May 28, 1940.

Father Van Hee, who was a schoolboy at the time, told of the panic of the refugees as they fled their homes, and of the panic of the whole country in general as the German armies overran all of Europe and ran the British into the sea at Dunkirk.

Father Van Hee has been in this country for eight years, and is now teaching during the fall and winter months at Maryhill Seminary in Pineville, La. He was introduced to the Lions by Charles Milliken, who brought the program.

Gaston Dixon has the program next week, and Lester Crossley the week following.

Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor:

Since writing the book "I Was An Alcoholic" and speaking in many states before many thousands of people—and praying constantly over the matter, I am firmly convinced that an organization of "Converted Alcoholics" could be one of the greatest Christian forces on the face of the earth, and I feel the strong call of God to lead the way to organize such a group.

I advocate the formation of a national, state and local level of an organization of "Converted Alcoholics". Membership to consist of those men and women who have been an alcoholic and who through the Grace of God have found strength to overcome the terrible habit of drink, and who emerged from their experiences to become a Christian.

The primary purpose of this organization would be to seek out those alcoholics in the community which are to be found in every community and to carry to those suffering people the message of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. The organization would be christian throughout with no politics involved.

Invariably, following a speech, I meet men and women who have come to know God with the results that their entire life has been changed. If these people could consolidate their efforts to witness for Christ to the alcoholics around them, many poor souls could be saved and many wrecked pieces of humanity could be converted into useful citizens.

This would be an absolutely non-profit organization.

It is urgently requested that everyone interested in such an organization being formed contact this writer and if enough people are interested, everything possible will be done to organize "Converted Alcoholics" to work for our Master.

Sincerely yours, Aubrey Willis, F. O. Box 263 Tifton, Georgia

Dear Editor:

That was a nice yarn about BLUE BLAZE in the July 9 issue of the RANGER TIMES. We appreciate it.

It will interest you to know that BLUE BLAZE was judged the best utility employee newspaper in the United States in 1955 and second best in 1957. We did not enter this contest in 1956.

Also BLUE BLAZE has a circulation of almost 7,000 and is distributed to Lone Star employees living and working in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Louisiana; Lone Star retirees in five states; 252 newspapers located on the Company's distribution system; and to non-employees in places as far away as England.

Our BLUE BLAZE editors rate Sailor Byas as one of our top correspondents and have stated that his fine work, along with that of other BLUE BLAZE correspondents, has made it possible for the publication to win such a high national rating.

Cordially, Jim Carl Public Information Director

What's Cooking-

(Continued from Page One) rights of American citizens, and those who are sent overseas and have those rights taken away from them) so has the reasoning behind the Civil Rights Bill made two kinds of courts—those in the North and that can be expected to dispense with justice properly, and those in the South; that can't be trusted.

If the government is going so far as to draw the line in any such way as this, then the government might as well go all the rest of the way and tell the South that in the matter of Civil Rights "none of you down there know what you're talking about and all of us up here do, therefore you are going to do it our way and if you don't we are going to have our men put you in jail and we're not going to bother with trusting you to the hands of your own juries."

By golly, there are Civil Rights and there are Civil Rights! No government in this country has the right to deny one man his Civil Rights (trial by jury) in order to enforce a Civil Right for somebody else (such as the right to mix the races.) Civil Rights is a shoe that will fit both feet.

The Southern Senators who are now standing up and fighting this provision of the Civil Rights Bill, the provision to bypass the trial by jury, are fighting to preserve one of the oldest and most basic rights that is SUPPOSED to be the heritage of not only the Communists in this country but of its natural born, native citizens as well.

The Communists will GET their trial by jury. The rest of us MAY NOT.

Two County 4-H Boys to Receive Jersey Calves

County were selected to receive registered Jersey heifers sponsored by the Eastland County Youth Dairy Program. The boys are Gene Snider of Gorman, a 4-H member, and W. E. Keady of Scranton.

This was decided at a meeting held in the Texas Electric Conference Room on July 11, according to Curtie Boase, assistant county agent.

Those present at the meeting were the members of the Executive Committee of the organization, including A. D. Jenkins, Rising Star, president; Sam Kimrell, Cisco, and Bob Perkins of Eastland. Also attending the meeting were Ben McKinnis, secretary, H. L. Geyer, vocational agriculture teacher at Rising Star and Boase.

Boys receiving the heifers have been very active 4-H Club members in their clubs and at home with their projects," Boase said. Warrin has been a member of the dairy judging team that won first place at the district judging contest this year, has shown an animal in the Eastland County Livestock Show and is now president of the Nimrod 4-H Club.

Gene has done a very good job in the Kincaid Turkey Program and is an active member of the Gorman 4-H Club. He won two ribbons at the Dallas Fair last year on some of the turkeys and plans to do the same this year.
