Last Unsigned Letter Times Will Ever Print

By NORMAN WRIGHT

What is the Civil Rights Bill, and what does it mean to you? "Civil Rights" means that if you're a Protestant who hires only Protestants, or a Jew who hires only Jews, or a Catholic who hires only Catholics, you can be prosecuted by the federal government. It means you could be forced to hire the same number of Swedes as you do Italians or be punished for discrimination against "national origin."

It means if you run a dancing school you could be forced to hire a qualified Negro instructor or face possible subpoena to appear before a U. S. District Judge, (who is appointed for life by the President) in a distant city at your own expense and prove yourself innocent.

It means that if a school, park, public rest room (your private home is exempt, so far) is segregated and you try to interfere or prevent it, you are subject to arrest and imprisonment and contempt of court. As the Civil Rights Bill now stands it means integration could be enforced by army bayonets and martial law.

Under the Civil Rights Bill the Attorney General of the United States could bring legal actions in your name whether you desired to go to court or not, and the Civil Rights Commission could summon you on 24 hours notice from any part of the United States to any place it might designate to defend yourself against charges which you were ignorant until you got the subpoena.

Under the Civil Rights Bill now proposed, the Justice Department could get a federal injunction against anyone who is "about" to take away another's civil rights. If you defied the government when it told you that you had hired a "qualified" Negro as your secretary, or as a salesman, or as a lifeguard at the swimming pool, you would be tried on criminal contempt charges without a jury.

Civil Rights means, perhaps, the beginning of the end of individual freedom in America.

The Reuthers, Harrimans, Kefauvers, Brownells, Warrens and Eisenhowers say we must pass Civil Rights to keep Russia from exploiting us against our archaic horse-and-buggy conceptions of constitutional law, trial by jury and other freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights.

Imagine! We must impress Russia, where the only people who vote are the 11 men in the Kremlin. Aren't they somebody to criticize the United States about voting rights? We must impress Russia, who, by her own admission, has butchered 20 million of her own citizens.

The Civil Rights Bill denies fundamental rights guaranteed by the Constitution: the right to own, manage and enjoy property; the right of trial by jury; the right to be presumed innocent until proven guilty; the right to appeal; and the rights guaranteed to the people by the Ninth and Tenth Amendments, limiting the federal government to specific powers, except those which the Constitution forbids the states to exercise.

The beleaguered South is not defying the Constitution, but upholding it. The Supreme Court, not the south is guilty. The Court (Continued on Page Four)

Last Unsigned Letter Times Will Ever Print

Because the letter below is what it is, the Times is going ahead and print it even though it is unsigned, but we wish to serve notice here and now this is the last unsigned letter that will ever be printed in the Times as long as the present editor is here.

It is clearly against the policy of any newspaper to print unsigned communications, and in the case of the Times it has been getting out of hand lately as we have leaned over backwards to give everybody a chance to say what he has on his mind.

But this is the last. We are glad to receive letters and will print every one of them if the writer so desires, but don't write any more in here expecting to see them printed, regardless of how worthy the subject, unless you are willing to sign your name.

We are printing the following letter because we are in accord with what the man says.

Rainfall Good In Some Areas Of Eastland Co.

Up until press time Tuesday there had not been too much rain in the immediate vicinity of Ranger, but some areas of the county, especially the heavy "peanut areas" received very nice showers Monday afternoon and night.

Good rains fell around Gorman and Carbon, and the Kokomo area was reported to have received an inch or more Monday afternoon. Rainfall around Eastland measured 1/2-inch or more, and there were showers in the Rising Star area.

The weather forecast calls for more rain today, tonight and Wednesday, and before it is over it may be that the county actually gets the two-inches that has been "on order" for the month of July, leaving only two more inches to go in August before the peanut crop is "wrapped up."

County Agent Cooper said yesterday the feed crop could be saved with a good rain now which it desperately needed. He said a good rain would also bring on a new crop of grass, especially on areas that had been mowed.

IN COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

Dobie Ranch Appeal Won by George Parr

The Eleventh District Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland Friday ruled that the La Salle County District Court erred in granting a summary judgment against George B. Parr, et al, in a suit filed by Duval County to recover title and possession of the 55,711-acre Dobie Ranch in La Salle and Webb counties.

The District Court previously had ruled that Parr purchased the ranch with $422,832.50 of Duval County road and bridge fund money which he illegally secured. The Appeals Court reversed the judgment and remanded the case for new trial.

In the original trial, Duval County alleged that in the Spring of 1945 Parr obtained $500,000 from the County road and bridge fund. $250,000 was borrowed by Parr from the Duval County road and bridge fund in April, 1945, and was used for the purchase of the Dobie Ranch. An additional $135,638.25 was paid on the purchase price of the ranch out of a bank account of Parr. The Appeals Court ruled that although the trial court found that on June 13, 1945 $135,638.25 was repaid to Parr out of Duval County funds, "it is immaterial that County funds were thereafter used by the Parrs to replenish their personal account in the county should recover title and possession of the land. The Court reserved for a jury trial the question of the amount of damages to the County by fact that Parr used the land for 10 years. Parr swore he paid for 49.2 percent of the cost of the land with his own personal funds. He and the U. S. Government, which holds tax liens on the land against Parr, appealed the District Court judgment.

The Appeals Court overruled a motion by the County to dismiss the appeal, then ruled the trial court erred in granting a summary judgment and that it was not conclusively proved that the entire amount of money paid for the ranch was paid for with Duval County funds.

LESTER T. POTTER New President

Lester T. Potter Succeeds Hulcy As President of Lone Star Gas Company

Lester T. Potter was elected president of Lone Star Gas Company at a meeting of directors in the company's Dallas headquarters July 10. A native of Dallas, he succeeds D. A. Hulcy, who served as Lone Star president more than 17 years.

At the request of the directors, Hulcy will continue with the company as chairman of the board "even beyond his normal retirement date of December 1, 1957," under the company's retirement program. He was elected board chairman in 1952.

Potter, fourth president of the 48-year-old company, began his new duties immediately. At 51, he is one of the youngest of Lone Star's official group. He has served with the company for more than 29 years, joining Lone Star in 1928 the day after receiving a degree in mechanical engineering from Texas A & M College. He had been executive vice president of the company since 1954.

Active in the Methodist Church, he is a Scottish Rite Mason and a Shriner. He is also a member of the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce, Circle Ten Council, Boy Scouts of America, and the Dallas Park Board and he is a vice president of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

Texas-born Hulcy began his career with Lone Star in 1920 as a clerk in the accounting department. Twenty years later, he was elected president to succeed the late L. B. Deering.

Under Hulcy's leadership, Lone Star experienced its greatest growth. When he became president, company assets amounted to approximately $100 million; on May 31, 1957, they exceeded $411 million. Capitalization has grown from some $65 million in 1940 to more than $275 million in 1957. Lone Star's property account at December 31, 1956, amounted to some $340 million, a gain of approximately $254 million in 12 years.

Lone Star is presently serving more than 785,000 residential, commercial and industrial customers through company-owned and operated distribution systems in this city and 454 other cities and towns throughout Texas.

Race Gets Tighter! Final Games Will Tell!

Indians Drub Giants, Take Half Game Lead

The town looked like Ranger of old Saturday night when a record crowd turned out at Little League Ball Park to see the hustling Ranger Dads suddenly come to life and split a twin bill with the Fort Worth Amputee Ball Club, including the Dads, themselves.

The Amputees took the first game 5-4 and the Ranger Dads rebounded back to take the nightcap 12-3.

Everybody had a whale of a good time and the Little League was richer by $93.30 as generous hearted spectators dropped that much money in the free will offering box.

The Times has not had an opportunity to check with the Amputees and find out if the offering didn't set some sort of a record, too, but in mentioning previous donations given at other towns the (Continued on Page Four)

Teen Town To Elect Officers

For the first time since its organization, Teen Town will elect its own officers for the coming year, supervisor Homer Perry announced Monday. A nominating committee of Teen Towners will be appointed soon, and an announcement will be made for the election. Teen Towners are asked to be thinking about who they would like to have as their officers.

Mrs. V. A. Higdon Seriously Hurt In Auto Head-On

Mrs. Vergal Anita Higdon, 60, of Weatherford, was in the other car and suffered chest injuries, a pelvic injury and a compound fracture of the leg.

Mrs. Higdon was headed towards Ranger at the time of the accident which was about 8:30 a. m. Monday, and Higdon was headed west. According to Highway Patrolmen the two cars came together almost head-on to headlight, and ended up about 60 feet from the point of contact. Both cars were total losses.

William Green Gibbs, 86, of Weatherford, was in the other car and suffered chest injuries, a pelvic injury and a compound fracture of the leg.

CONSTABLES PAY HIKE, TOO

Precincts All Receive 'Emergency Money'

Eastland County Commissioners Monday morning made quick work of a problem which has worried them off and on for several weeks. The Court voted four to one to raise the pay of constables in Rising Star and Gorman to $100 a month. And in another move which has been under study for several weeks, the Court voted unanimously to transfer $32,000 to individual precincts.

The raise meant that the constables will be getting $25 a month more than they did before, and $25 a month more than any other constables in the county. Constables at Eastland, Ranger and Cisco will continue to draw $75 a month. "Actually the raise was cut and dried well before Monday morning."

A vote on the same motion was passed back on May 13. The Court at that time failed to give the raise, however, and the Attorney General ruled the pay increase was illegal. The Court voted at their last meeting to advertise the raise, and a legal ad appeared last week in the Rising Star Record.

Monday only Commissioner J. E. (Fip) Arther of Precinct 1 opposed the increase. He voted against it on grounds it wasn't fair to other constables. Commissioner R. T. Chase of Rising Star introduced the motion and it was passed.

Indians	12	5	.706	—
Giants	11	5	.687	1/2
Dodgers	8	9	.470	4
Yankees	2	14	.143	9 1/2

The already tight Little League race in Ranger got really tight Monday night when the second place Indians drubbed the league-leading Giants to the tune of 9 to 4 and took over first place in the standings by one-half game.

In the other game, which had no effect on who wins the pennant in Ranger, the Yankees came up with their second upset of the season and beat the Dodgers 11-10.

However, the Yankees, who have been in the cellar since the season began, can very easily determine who wins the championship because both of the leading teams, the Indians and the Giants, have each got to play the Yanks one more game, and if the Yanks should beat either one of them there would be some slow music and sad singing in the camps of the leaders.

The Giants have yet to play a make-up game with the Yankees and if they should lose it their hopes for the pennant would become very slim. The same holds true with the Indians who must beat the Yankees next Thursday night in order to stay alive.

If there is any advantage in the present situation at all it rests with the Indians because they have only the Yank game left on their schedule, whereas the Giants have two games left, the make-up game with the Yanks and a regular scheduled game with the Dodgers Thursday night.

If the Giants should beat the Yankees in their make-up game, they would be exactly tied with the Indians, each team having a win-loss record of 13-5.

The final games, then, Thursday night, would determine the winner once and for all, and the (Continued on Page Four)

Two Drunks Fined Over Week-End

A Ranger white man charged Saturday night with drunk and disturbance, and a DeLeon white man charged with drunk, also on Saturday night, was the sum of all the activity around the police department over the week-end.

The Ranger man was fined $31.45 on his two counts and released, and the DeLeon man was fined $15.70 and released. Nothing happened Sunday.

The money, according to Bennett and Arther, is needed for emergency repairs of roads and machinery. Commissioners Carter said he needed to purchase additional machinery.

A delegation from Cisco which has indicated they would appear before the Court to ask for County operation in building 13.5 miles of Highway 380 from Cisco to the Shackelford County line, failed to appear.

The Court got their business over in near record time, ending their work at 9:45. Usually the Court meets all morning long, and then sometimes an afternoon session is needed to complete the work.

Southern Juries No Good? Here's A Prize Northern Jury

Backers of Civil Rights legislation in Washington, from the President on down, say they must do away with the right of trial by jury in the enforcement of Civil Rights because no jury in the South would convict a man charged with violating them.

Well, let's take a look at a jury that has just returned a verdict in the James R. Hoffa case—a "Northern" jury, mind you, that can do no wrong.

Hoffa, a Teamsters Union big-wig, who was being tried on a charge that he had conspired and bribed to plant a spy within the Senates Rackets Committee to keep him posted as to what was going on, was acquitted by this so-called jury.

If there ever was an air-tight case against a man, they thought they had it against Hoffa. Some 30 or 40 witnesses of the highest repute testified that he had really conspired with a lawyer for him to obtain a position of trust with the Rackets Committee and to tell him (Hoffa) everything that went on relating to the Teamsters Union and Hoffa's shady dealings—to keep him tipped off in advance so that he could be prepared for anything that might come up.

Indeed, they even found on Hoffa's person certain communications from his spy disclosing secrets of the Rackets Committee. This, alone, was enough to sew up the case air-tight.

It so happened there were eight Negroes on this jury, some of them Negro women.

What did Hoffa's defense attorneys do? They brought in several Negro attorneys to sit with them at the council table, although the Negroes took no part in the proceedings.

Then to cap the climax, they had former world's heavyweight champion Joe Lewis march into court during the middle of the proceedings. Lewis announced that he had come to see what was happening to "my good friend Hoffa."

After that, when the eight Negro jurors and four white men got the case, they turned Hoffa loose in a record short time.

The federal government, though, cannot trust Southern juries.

Home Poisons Heavy Cause of Accidental Death

A harmless-looking headache pill in a home medicine cabinet can be a headache to parents of young children.

Nearly a fifth* of the 1,400 children treated for accidental poisoning in a Midwestern city had swallowed aspirin, the National Safety Council said today.

More than 1,300 deaths from poisoning - mostly from medicine and household items - are reported annually in the United States, Council statistics show.

Chief victim of accidental poisoning is the tot under four years of age. But right up there as poison victims are persons in the 25-64 age group.

The types of accidental poisoners are as varied as the containers they come in - bleach, permanent wave solution, shampoo, nail polish remover, furniture polish and cosmetics. The toddler will even drink kerosene if he gets a chance.

While weed-killers, pesticides, cosmetics, kerosene and cleaning agents are hazardous, the main villain is medicine. It accounts for more than half of all accidental poisoning deaths.

"Old houses, too, can be booby-traps for youngsters," said Ralph Kuhl, assistant director of the Council's home safety division.

"Toys can be poisoned by peeling paint on window sills and frames, by peeling wallpaper and paint from crumbling plaster."

Each can cause lead poisoning. "What's the solution?" "Education," said Kuhl. "Parents should be made aware of the seriousness of the problem."

"There should be stricter state and federal laws requiring that the ingredients be listed on bottles containing these valuable - yet potentially harmful - substances."

The best way to cut down on deaths from poisoning? Prevent the poisoning, answered Kuhl. Follow these rules, he advised:

1. Store medicines out of the reach of children. Don't leave them in purses or bureaus.
2. Don't take medicine in the dark.
3. Don't put poisonous substances in soft-drink bottles, used jelly jars, or pans. Children may drink out of them.
4. Have a medicine cabinet with a locked poison compartment installed if you remodel or build a new home.

Canned Meats Grace Breakfast

Canned meats so associated with luncheon and dinner menus provide variety and heartiness at breakfast too. For example, ever-popular corned beef hash may be topped with baked or poached eggs. Pork sausage, canned in link, bulk and patty styles, makes a fine team with plain or blueberry pancakes. And scrambled eggs are the better for an addition of spicy deviled ham.

Baked Hash 'n' Eggs
1 can (1 pound) corned beef hash Salt
4 eggs Pepper
Divide corned beef hash into 4 individual baking dishes. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 20 minutes. Make a depression in hash for eggs. Break an egg into each dish. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Continue baking until eggs are set, about 12 minutes. YIELD: 4 servings.

Party Scrambled Ham 'n' Eggs
1 dozen eggs ¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk ¼ teaspoon Tabasco
2 small cans (2½ ounces each) 4 tablespoons (½ stick) butter
deviled ham Paprika
Break eggs into large mixing bowl. Add milk, deviled ham, salt and Tabasco; beat with rotary beater until foamy. Melt butter in chafing dish or large skillet; pour in egg mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring from bottom and sides as eggs become firm. Continue until eggs are thick and creamy. To serve, sprinkle with paprika. YIELD: 6 servings.

Posse-Anns Meet For Supper Mon.

Eastland County Posse-Anns met in the backyard of Mrs. Bernard Hanna Monday evening for a supper. The menu was barbecued hamburgers, cokes, potatoes chips, olives, bean salad and cake squares.

The table which the Posse-Anns ate from was centered with miniature riders on horseback. The riders were painted to match colors of the Posse-Anns. The riders had turquoise pants and ties, white shirts and hats.

Posse-Anns plan to attend and ride in the Weatherford Parade and Rodeo Wednesday.

Lester Potter-

Ranger Dads-

(Continued from Page One) Amputee president, Barney Capshaw, never did mention a figure that high, not to the Times, at least. To show their appreciation to the Amputees for their part in helping to stage the benefit game, Little League officers and Ranger Dads dug down in their own pockets and treated the Amputees, their wives and children who accompanied them here, to a dinner at El Rancho after the game were over. The Amputees were delighted with the way things turned out here including the nice offering for the Little League and the hospitality showed them by Ranger citizens, and said they were all looking forward to coming back again next year for a repeat performance. Mrs. Dewey Cox, official scorekeeper for the Little League, also kept score for the Amputee game, and for the benefit of Ranger Dads, who get little enough glory as it is, the Times herewith prints the box score of both games, thus recording their sterling performance for posterity. Box score for the first game is as follows:

Indians-

(Continued from Page One) two contests, Giants vs Dodgers and Indians vs Yankees should draw a record-breaking crowd to Little League Park. If both the Giants and the Indians win their games Thursday night they will be dead-locked for 1st place and a playoff will have to be held and that would indeed be a Little League World Series in Ranger. The Times has not talked to any of the managers about what they would do in case the race did end up in a tie, but it is usually customary to play one sudden death game rather than a series. If that station should come about, the Times can not think of a better time for the so-called "sudden death" affair than next Saturday night, since the area play-offs get under way in Eastland next Monday and Ranger should have a Little League champion by then, even though the Ranger team is made up of All-Stars in the area play-offs.
