A Small City with Big Industry - A Bright Spot for New Industry

RANGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1957

We like to have fun as much as enybody exchanging a little good-natured banter now and then about football games, and think it has its place in creating a certain amount of interest that might not be stirred up otherwise. During the course of many years we have given out our share of it and have been the recipient of more of it, perhaps, than any other 10 fellows put together. It is something we thrive on and enjoy.

But we are happy to state that we have never become so excited over a football game as to lose all sense of reason in writing about one, or to stoop to mass villification of everybody on the other side whether we beat them or not Good-natured banter is one thing-a venom ous attack is quite another thing altogether.

In a quarter of a century of In a quarter of a century of newspapering we have never seen before in one short galley of type so much bitter villification and ill will as was professed for the people of Ranger by the Eastland Telegram in itsiesue of last Tuesday, all because they won a ball game.

Whether or not this vitriol was shared by the people of Eastland is not known, but the editor of the Telegram SAID 12 WAS, because, he said, several Eastland because, he said, several Eastland citizens had asked him why he hadn't "rubbed salt in the wounds" of Ranger a bit more than he had with reference to the 14-13 Mav-crick victory over the Bulldogs.

At this point, then, the Telepaint its distorted picture of the people of Ranger, and to draw upon its imagination and twisted facts to circulate the impression all over Eastland County that everything and everybody in Ranger was a little lower down than a snake's belly for even existing. If the editor of the Telegram lost his temper over the Ranger Times he should have confined his venom to the Times and not to a blanket coverage of all Ranger on a charge that was purely ficticious and drawn up for Eastland consumption. The ens of Eastland, en masse, on anything, because it knows the wonderful people, the same as

Ranger. In an all-embracing sentence that included everybody in town the Telegram said, "we have never seen a town, team or sports writer take a loss any harder. Tear drops were all over the front page of The Ranger Times, Ranger coaches cried the Buildogs just got three downs in the last series of plays, and Ranger Fans went yelling the officials beat them out of a sure

None of that crud is so and the Telegram knows it's not so. It aswith and enlarged upon its story from there. For one thing, the editor of the Telegram has not seen "the town, the team nor the orts writer" since the game was

Parents! Your Junior Fire Marshals want you on their team!

Your school age youngster will soon be coming home with a Home Inspection Report to make out. It's part of a Fire Prevention Work campaign to make our homes safer. And you'll have an opportunity to take part with your child in a worthwhile community project, the Junior Fire Marshal

As your local Hartford Agency, we are happy to cooperate with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company in sponsoring Junior Fire Marshal activities here. More than three million boys and girls throughout the nation are participating this year. And the program has the unreserved endorsement of teachers, fire officials and civic organizations.

Won't you join the children - and us - to help make our community a safer one to live in?

FIRE PREVENTION will be family business in the Roy Rogers home as well as in millions of other American homes during National Fire Prevention Week (October 6-12). The screen and TV star joins three of his children, Dusty, Dodie and Debbie in a fire prevention inspection tour of the family's California residence. Dusty, at 10 a full-fledged Junior Fire Marshal in the program sponsored as a public service by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, holds a copy of the fall issue of the Junior Fire Marshal magazine which features a home inspection report for boys and girls. His adopted little sisters, Dodie, an American Indian, and Debbie, a Korean War orphan, are both just five and eligible for the first time for school and a chance to participate in the Hartford Fire's gigantic fire prevention and safety program.

The Ranger coaches did que tion the last series of four down because there was some irregular ity, they thought, which cause them to question that one of the downs was actually a down. They were entirely within their rights in asking about the matter.

In criticizing the Ranger coaches for checking up on this point, the Tologram sarcastically remarked that it would be glad to arrange for the coaches to see films of the last four plays, but unfortunately, the coaches didn't think they had to ask the Telegram about this so they just went right over the paper's head and talked to the Castland coaches and settled the whole thing hours and hours be fore the Telegram ever found out about it or quit raving about it. The Telegram was raving Tuesday about arranging for a film showing, when the coaches of both Schools had settled the whole thing Monday, or, quite possibly, before then, even. By allowing the piece in the paper to stand without an effort to bring it up to date, it only served to point out further that the sole purpose of the article was to malign the coaches as far as The Telegram, perhaps, got it false impression about tear-drops being on Page One of the Times om the statement we made that "never was a team ' so roundly licked as were the Mavericks to walk off the field with the big end of the score," Or, at least, the paper made over the statement ough to give that impression, Of ourse, anyone can see that tears just raining out of tha sentence, but at any rate, we were only repeating the Telegram's own in its own story in the Ab ene Reporter-News that if they were allowed to count statistics ie Bulldogs would have won in walk, since they doubled the Mavericks in first downs, doubled hem in yards rushing and trippled em in yards passing. Those were the very words in a story datelin-ed from Eastland and we assumed rom them that the Mavericks had

And while the Telegram was scratching around for something t could half quote or not quote order to give the impression of a bunch of reprobates living in Ranger, it couldn't see one of our early paragraphs which said, "Nothing counts but the final results on the scoreboard and they went for the Mavericks, and Coaches Carrol Shelton and Jon Tate, together with the entire Mayerick football squad, are to be congratulated

In falsely reporting that the Ranger coaches and football fans were going around over the counshouting that they were rob bed, we sincerely hope the Tele-gram does not detract from a great Mayerick victory, because those we talked to in Ranger thought the Mavs did pretty well beating an exceptionally good Ranger team fair and square and en their own.
