Former Foreign Missionary to Speak At First Methodist Sunday Evening

The Reverend Mr. Glenn Evans, a former foreign Methodist missionary who now heads Methodist's famed mountain mission Henderson Settlement, Frakes, Kentucky, will be guest speaker at the First Methodist Church, Sunday evening at seven o'clock. He will also be the guest speaker for the Cisco Methodist District Missionary Rally at the First Methodist Church in Cisco on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

A large attendance is expected at the local Methodist Church to hear Mr. Evans on Sunday evening. Also, a large delegation of Methodists from Ranger will go by automobile caravan to attend the District Rally in Cisco Sunday afternoon. The local group will leave the First Methodist Church at 2-15.

Mr. Evans was missionary at Aiea, near Pearl Harbor in Hawaii before going to the Henderson Settlement post in 1953. For seven years Mr. Evans, a native of Lufkin, Texas, served an interracial congregation of Japanese, Chinese, Koreans, Samoans, Hawaiians, Negroes, Caucasians, and Mexicans in his ministry in Hawaii.

Mr. Evans quit an oil field job when he was seventeen years old to return to school. He entered the seventh grade and went on to do nine years work beyond high school. A graduate of Long Beach Polytechnic High School, he attended the University of Redlands and Boston University School of Theology from which he was graduated. Mr. Evans has served churches in Maine, California, and Nevada.

Henderson Settlement was started nearly 30 years ago by a Methodist minister. From a log cabin with 13 students, the settlement has grown to a 500 acre campus with fourteen buildings and 400 students in all grades from first through high school. Here mountain students receive grammar school and college preparatory work along with agricultural, business, and home economics training. A boarding school is maintained for children who are orphans or have unwholesome home situations.

Henderson Settlement came in for nationwide publicity a few years ago when it was featured in both the "Reader's Digest" and "We the People" program. An article in "Harper's" magazine cited it for outstanding contributions to Southern mountain children.

Mr. Evans is an outstanding preacher, teacher, humorist, and "Texas philosopher." The public is cordially invited to hear this noted preacher.

Rev. Ralph Perkins Makes First Baptist Announcements

The Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, said, "The revival spirit is truly in evidence with increased attendance in Sunday school and with a goal of 350 for Sunday. Come help be one of the number for Christ's service this Lord's day."

Members and visitors will come ready for the day's work, and children will come ready for school. The pastor asks everyone who will to come worship.

The morning message will be, "The Wages of Sin." There will be special music at all services. You are invited to hear Bro. Royal's message at 7:30 on, "Rescue the Perishing." Training Union will be at 6:30 p.m. Their attendance goal is 154.

A welcome is extended to new citizens in this community, and to each person without a church home.

The nursery is open for all children under 4 years of age. "You are always welcome. Bring your family to Sunday school and stay for the preaching of the word of God," said Rev. Perkins.

WEDNESDAY GUEST

Rev. J. W. Douglass of Mineral Wells visited his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Needham, Wednesday.

Church of Christ Begins Bible Reading Period

The sermon topic for the Sunday morning worship of the Mequite and Rusk Church of Christ at 10:45 a.m. will be "Why Some Need to be Baptized Again." The preacher, Lonnie Branham, said, "Acts 19:1-7 records the fact that the Holy Spirit commanded some followers of Christ to be re-baptized. Come and learn why this is necessary. At the 7:00 p.m. worship the sermon subject will be, "Why the Holy Spirit Fell on Cornelius."

Bible Study begins at 9:45 a.m. Sunday morning. At the mid-week service Wednesday at 7 o'clock p.m., the study will begin with John 19:19.

The preacher gives the following thought for the day: "A big steamer wrecked on the rocks and was totally wrecked. No storm was prevailing at the time, and the wonder was that the captain who was a skilled and experienced officer, could have been careless enough to let his boat go so far from the course.

No one was more surprised than the captain, who could find no way in which to explain the accident, until it occurred to him to examine the compass. He found in the box something that looked like the point of a steel knife blade. The day before, in trying to remove a spot of rust, while cleaning the compass, a sailor had broken off a bit of the point of the blade of his knife.

This bit was not a quarter of an inch long; but by drawing the needle far enough away from its true direction to mislead the man at the wheel, it wrecked a vessel that was three hundred feet long. The knife that was broken was not worth fifty cents, but it destroyed a vessel worth $500,000.

Like this bit of steel, drawing the magnetic needle away from its proper pointing with such momentous results, is many a word and deed uttered or performed perhaps thoughtlessly, with no evil intent, but the influence of which, ever increasing in power, wrecks lives, maybe, and dashes souls upon the rocks of eternal woe!

How solemn is life! . . . the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity; so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell." (James 3:6)

OIL PROGRESS WEEK—OCTOBER 13-19

Christian Science

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject of the Lesson - Sermon at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible will include the following from Psalms (67:1, 2): "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selections will also be read (206:26-28, 30): "Instead of God sending sickness and death, He destroys them, and brings to light immortality... God does not cause man to sin, to be sick, or to die."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (12:28): "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death."

It's a fact that:

America gets more energy from Petroleum than any other source

That means America's oilmen not only have to supply enough gasoline and oil to power this nation on wheels—but they also have to provide a great deal of the energy needed for factory and farm in the world's greatest industrial nation.

America's thousands of competitive oil companies have done that job well. It makes us proud to be part of an industry that has contributed so much to America's progress. And here's our promise that there'll be even more Oil Progress—for your tomorrow.

It's Serious...

AROUND RANGER COLLEGE CAMPUS

By Ranger College Journalism Class

Sonja Irwin PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

The personality of the week at Ranger College is Sonja Irwin. A sophomore business education major, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irwin of Albany. She is one of the most capable and willing girls on the campus, and whenever there is a job to be done, everyone knows that if Sonja is called, it will be done.

Sonja is one of the leaders of the Rangsians, working out many of the routines and serving the group as one of the captains. She is secretary of Delta Tau Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society; and she was one of the faculty choices for Who's Who in the favorite section of the 1957 Ranger, the yearbook of Ranger College. She was also chosen football sweetheart last year by the Rangsians. She is one of the head cheer leaders and is an active member of the Debs, girls' social club.

Besides being a part of various organizations on the campus, Sonja is president of the girls' dormitory, takes part in church activities as a member of the Baptist church, is men's checker at the college cafeteria, and finds time to develop her talent for dancing, her hobby.

Sonja has one of the most likeable personalities on the campus, and as a typical college student, she possesses the qualities of an all-American girl. A recent happening of interest on the campus was the surprise birthday party that the girls in the dormitory gave for Mrs. Jameson. After the regular Thursday evening dinner in the Student Union Building, the girls gathered in the living room and then invited Mrs. Jameson to join them. They presented her with gifts and enjoyed Cokes and cookies with the honoree. Thelma Edwards, a 1957 graduate of the college, was an overnight guest in the dormitory that evening and attended the party also.

Another new girl in the girls' dormitory is Gail Bagley, a sophomore from Rusk, who attended Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches last year. Gail plans to major in business. She plays the flute in the Ranger College Band, though she entered school after the band picture, which appears in this issue, was taken.

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history. But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only.

They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States.

The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress... Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

SPENDS WEEKEND IN DALLAS
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Halbrook and Sandra are spending the weekend in Dallas at the state fair.

It's a fact that:

A hole made by all the U.S. oil wells drilled last year would pierce the earth more than 5 times!

Yes, if all of last year's drilling in the U.S. had taken place in one spot, the hole would have gone 4,412 miles or 5 1/2 times through the earth. America's oilmen did all of this drilling in spite of the great odds against finding oil. Because of their persistence they keep finding more oil than the nation uses.

That's just one reason why all of us in America's oil business take pride in the progress of our industry and in the part we play to make this progress possible.

State Bar of Texas Honors Newspaper Week

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas concluded its annual meeting Oct. 5 in Tyler with the adoption of a commendatory resolution in honor of National Newspaper Week which is now being observed all over the United States.

The resolution follows: "WHEREAS, this week America pays tribute to her newspapers, a free press in a free land, serving as vigilant sentries against the ancient enemies of freedom; ignorance of truth, indifference to wrong, and irresolute reaction to all encroachment upon human rights and

"WHEREAS, we of the Judiciary of Texas, realizing as we do the truly important function of a free press serving a free people, desire to express our esteem and regard for the newspapers of Texas, and the men and women who have dedicated their lives to the fulfillment of this high calling:

"THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, in annual meeting assembled this Oct. 5, 1957, that we do now commend the newspapers of Texas for their devotion to the true mission of a free press, for their respect for, but not subservience to, the Courts of our state, and for their courage in seeking to penetrate all curtains of falsity which hide the truth from the eyes of the public, and for their concern that if any of our free institutions shall fail that it will not be for lack of a watchman crying in the night the warning, or for lack of a dissemination of truth among the people. The newspapers richly deserve honor and gratitude from every true disciple of freedom and every person employed in the public interest to preserve free institutions."

Mission Studies Planned by First Methodist Church

The First Methodist Church Mission Commission will sponsor church wide mission studies and family night suppers beginning Wednesday, October 16, at 6:30 p.m. These meetings will continue each Wednesday evening for five weeks. The family night suppers will be covered dish affairs, the Missions Commissions furnishing the drinks and bread. The study course will be for adults and young people. Entertainment and recreation will be provided for the children. The nursery will be open for babies.

The study, "Lands of Witness and Decision," concerns the challenge of Christianity in the lands of Korea, Sarawak, Congo, and Bolivia. The purpose of the study is to inform and arouse the concern of the entire membership for these Lands where decisions are about to be made for Christianity or Communism.

The Rev. James Ellison, pastor, said, "The Kingdom of God is advanced or retarded by decisions we make here in our churches and in our hearts. What happens 'out there' depends on what we think, feel, and do right where we are. Hence the decisions we make in our hearts and churches, limit or strengthen what may come to pass in these crucial lands of Decision."

The Mission Commission feels the church-wide study affords an excellent opportunity for the Methodist membership, especially the official Board and other leaders.

percent of the people of Ranger won't even be called on because some of the workers have their names down on a card.

But people should not have to be called on to give to the Community Chest which is the only means of support of the great charitable and public service organizations in their town that must be supported because they MUST be maintained.

Let us not hide behind some excuse not to give, such as "George gave at the store," or "Mary gave at the Club," when it turned out that each of them might have given a quarter.

A Sure Place To Get Help And it is to the Salvation Army, regardless of where it is that a man can go, regardless of who he is, and get help when he needs it most.

But, believe it or not, what little money the Salvation Army is allotted from the Ranger Community Chest Budget, most every bit of it is spent in Ranger for Ranger people. The Salvation Army very often joins with the Child Welfare Club in extending aid and financial assistance to extremely difficult cases, and always, every summer, at least one child and sometimes more from the Ranger area is cared for in the Salvation Army Camp.

Ready To Help Ranger The Salvation Army stands ready day and night, at the beck and call of Ranger, to give whatever assistance is necessary, no matter how great, to help in caring for the destitute in this area.

Oil-

state produced 1,111,172,000 barrels of crude oil and ranked first among other states in producing oil.

One person that has a lot to do with finding it in the first place is a geologist. He knows rocks and subterranean structures. He can identify those that have the potential of possessing oil.

Before drilling begins, however, other geologists, seismographic crews, paleontologists and assorted professionals look over the country side to determine the likelihood of oil.

Seismograph crews set off miniature earth quakes and record sound waves that bounce through the earth and ricochet back. The recorded vibrations enable them to draw maps of the formations below that may contain oil. But that's only the beginning.

Only one in nine wildcat wells finds oil or gas and only one in 44 produces enough for the oil man to get his money back.

Most wells are drilled with "rotary" rigs that bore a hole as you might with a brace and bit in a plank. Some shallow wells use the "cable tool" method that literally hammers a hole into the ground. A drilling job goes 24 hours a day. In addition to the driller, the crew consists of roughnecks or roustabouts, the laborers in the oil fields; floormen, the helpers; engine-men and equipment operators who keep pipe and bit rotating in the hole and derrick-men who work high in the steel rig.

SEWELL SAYS THE U. S. OIL INDUSTRY WILL DRILL APPROXIMATELY 60,000 WELLS IN 1957. DESPITE GREAT ODDS, OILMEN FIND MORE EACH YEAR THAN IS CONSUMED.

Bulldogs-

ford converted, and from there on, Wolford didn't miss an extra point all night.

Begin Second Quarter The Lions had possession of the ball as the second quarter began and pushed it all the way down to the Ranger 11. From there the Bulldogs took over and went all the way on a sustained march that included such gems as a 36-yard scamper by Wharton, a 16-yard run by Wharton and a 9-yard pass to Underwood that set the ball up on the 3-yard line.

Wharton Knocked Out After this score, Ranger kicked off and Dublin ran two plays and fumbled with Underwood recovering at midfield. After a series of gains through the line, Wharton, caught an 18-yard pass from King on the Dublin 23 and was so knocked around by the tackle that followed that he had to be carried from the field.

Second Half Begins As the second half got underway, Basham didn't report for duty. He, too, had been playing with an injured back and the coaches decided to let him sit that one out.

Dublin kicked off to open the half with Underwood returning the ball 35 yards on a beautiful run that had plenty of blocking. The Bulldogs had the ball about midway and went all the way again for their last score. The yardage was ticked off with Wharton and Underwood alternating on the carries, each ripping through the line or around the end until the nickin' wind up on the 1-yard line from where Wharton went over. Wolford kicked to make it 28-0.

Late in the third quarter, the Lions got possession of the ball and Lion Quarterback J. Pair made one of the finest runs of the night.

No Scoring In Fourth No scoring took place in the fourth quarter, but King completed a few more beautiful passes, a 64 along about this time, and along about 5:30, at the exact middle of the field, Ranger got off a 48-yard quick kick with the ball rolling dead on the Lions 2-yard line.
