I lost my britches and broke my glasses last week. The britches and glasses had something in common, the britches were part of a two-part suit and the glasses were bi-focals. I found out several years ago that if I wanted to see anything I would have to wear bi-focals, and I also found out if I wanted to hide anything for long it would take more than a one-part suit. It can be awfully annoying sometimes to be deprived, ever temporarily, of some of the modern conveniences. I don't mean the britches, I could get around in some of my other britches but I couldn't get around, to do any good in the glasses at hand. Trying to write copy in $2.50 specs is a task that I don't care to repeat. How they can build glasses that can make the letters on a typewritten sheet look bigger than the typewriter is something I can't understand. Everything is alright now. I got some new glasses, the modern kind, they slide down your nose and make you want to sneeze, which would only be inviting another fatal accident, but you can shove them back up as far as you want to because they can't go too far, especially if you have got your hat on. It is a good thing that human nature is what it is, especially in middle age. I guess that a person can get used to anything.

Steel for the new school gymnasium has been arriving this week and is being moved to the building site. Practically all of the steel for the huge structure is here and the balance is expected immediately. Some inconvenience has been occasioned by the slow arrival of the gymnasium structural steel for the building project, but that bottle neck has now been corrected and the massive structure should take shape rapidly.

Dimmitt continues to grow. The Kerr Hardware is installing fixtures and stock in their renovated building which formerly housed the Rio Theatre. Some fine homes are being built. The Carl Kemp, George Bradford and Posie Cunningham residences are taking shape, and possibly others. Present building projects should go along nicely during the winter months and another building boom should develop next spring.

The recent moisture has done wonders for the wheat crop. We are told that many of the wheat fields are already being pastured. The cattle industry in Castro county has been, and always will be, one of our main sources of income and without sufficient wheat pasturage the cattle business suffers badly. The recent rains serve a two-fold purpose, they get us a little closer to a wheat crop and insure grazing for thousands of head of cattle during the winter and early spring. This is a wonderful county, as you have probably read here before. But we mean it. Where else can you harvest and gin cotton while your cattle graze on wheat that will be harvested in the summer while your vegetables are getting ready for market. Diversification is the word.

About six hundred bales of cotton have been ginned in Dimmitt. We will try to get a report from all of the gins in the county each week, beginning next week. The cotton harvest is just about to start. Lot's of it is open and there hasn't been any damage so far.

Mrs. Elizabeth Huckabay has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Dimmitt National Farm Loan Association office.

Local merchants report the largest volume of business on Dollar Day Monday that they have ever had. People should do all of their trading in Dimmitt. You don't only get fair treatment in all of your dealings, but it is a nice, clean, town. All of the business houses have been remodeled in recent years, all of the streets (or nearly all of them) have been paved, and are kept swept and clean, modern street lighting has been installed, street markers and house numbers are in the process of being installed, all of the business people are friendly and sincerely want to render a satisfactory service. If there is anything else that will make Dimmitt more inviting that you know of just notify the City Council, the Chamber of Commerce, or some other group and it will be attended to.

Brother Of Local Women Buried At Sulphur Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Damron and Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Teague went to Sulphur Springs last week where they attended funeral services for the ladies brother, Chaplain John Ray Stephens, Major in the Air Force. Chaplain Stephens, who was stationed at Patrick Air Force Base, Cocoa, Florida, lost his life from over-exhaustion in an attempt to rescue two men from drowning Sunday, October 28. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church at Sulphur Springs and interment was made in the Yantis, Texas, cemetery.

In an account of the tragedy, that cost Major Stephens his life, received here the Major led more than a score of men in forming a human chain to reach two air-men in trouble out in the surf. The two men were rescued, but the human chain, pounded by the surf, was broken and Chaplain Stephens himself was pulled beneath the surface.

The widow, Mrs. Alla Mae Gammill Stephens, formerly of Sulphur Springs, was with her husband at the base.

Major Stephens, who had pastored churches at Frio, Spearman, McLean and Iola, Texas, was well known in this community having held a revival meeting at the local Baptist church and visited relatives in the community on a number of occasions.

Scrap Iron Contest Gets Underway

THE FIRST LOAD OF SCRAP in the current scrap iron contest was received in Dimmitt Friday by Cecil Vandiver, Castro County Scrap Iron Drive chairman. Pictured above are Joe and Norman Nelson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nelson, and Vandiver as they were in the process of unloading the first load of scrap to qualify in the current contest. Attention has been called repeatedly to the need of scrap iron by the smelters in the production of steel to feed the vast rearmament program and all sections of the country are being urged to get in their scrap as fast as possible. In cooperation with the drive the Castro County Chamber of Commerce is offering a $10.00 premium to the club or individual bringing in the largest load of scrap. The state and county mobilization committees are encouraging everyone who possibly can to cooperate in the scrap drive.

Plans were completed Tuesday afternoon, at a meeting of band mothers, for a Band Civic Banquet to be held in the high school gymnasium Thursday, November 29, at 7:30 p. m. Advance sale of tickets for the banquet will go at $2.50 per person and the revenue derived from ticket sales will be used to purchase additional uniforms for the growing band.

Band director Paul N. Jordan declared this week that the increase in the number of band members of the Bobcat Band makes it imperative that additional band uniforms be purchased. Assuming the responsibility of raising funds to purchase new uniforms the band mothers agreed to furnish all supplies and food for the banquet in order that the band fund might net a 100 per cent profit on the project. An appropriate program will be arranged.

Castro County Pioneers Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cox celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in the Arney community Sunday with a dinner for all members of their family and held open house for their friends Sunday evening from 7:00 p. m. until 9 p. m. Refreshments of cake and punch were served to more than a hundred guests who called during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were the recipients of many gifts from their host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox are among the very few people in Castro county who are still living on, or own, land acquired under the homestead law of 1850. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were married in 1901 and have been living on their farm in the Arney community continuously since that time. Their two daughters, with their families, were present for the golden wedding anniversary celebration.

Scout Finance Drive Is Success

(By Swain Burkett, Chairman)
On Saturday, November 3, 1951, R. D. Rogers, Slim Vardell, Glenn Rateliff, Jim Hays, E. L. Ivey, Bob Estes, Sal DiCuffa, B. M. Nelson, Earl Brock, Roy Stafford, John Hardy Wood, Joseph N. Cowen and Swain Burkett, as chairman, put on the annual Boy Scout Finance Drive for the City of Dimmitt.

The list of contributors exceeded one hundred, and it was thought best not to try to put the names of the individual contributors in the paper, however, for the purpose of information, the drive was a success, the allotment being approximately $600.00, and the sum of $663.60 was collected and transmitted to the Council Headquarters, which puts Dimmitt over the top by a nice comfortable margin.

The Scout organization in Dimmitt is strong, with R. D. Rogers as Scoutmaster and Roy Stafford as Cub Scoutmaster, and the troops have extensive activities planned for the next year.

On behalf of the Dimmitt Scouts and Cub Scouts, the committee and its chairman takes this means of thanking every contributor to this worthy cause.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Froehner last week were his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Froehner of Hondo and his brother, Rev. C. W. Froehner and wife of Austin.

will have to experience that fear. The most common phobias are fear of high places, closed places, open places, dirt, blushing, knives, and accidents.

Phobias and anxiety states are both painful to the person suffering from them. He realizes his fears are interfering with his normal life and will usually seek psychiatric aid in overcoming them. The doctor usually tries to help the person trace back to his first occasion of a fear and to build toward maturity from that original point of failure.

It is often a sense of guilt which builds up the rears. Certain episodes in people's lives have often led to certain types of fears which are as obvious symptoms to the psychiatrist as the outbreak of measles is to other physicians.

The person who turns his self-guilt into imaginary illnesses, however, does not usually suffer as much as the person with fears. Sometimes these illnesses are only slight afflictions and at other times they may be "attached" to the eyes, the ears, the speech, the memory or paralysis of some part of the body, such as an arm or foot or leg. The illness usually gets the neurotic person a lot of attention so he often isn't eager to be "cured."

The other neurosis is known as the compulsive-obsessive state, wherein a person feels compelled to act in certain ways or is obsessed with a thought. Washing the hands constantly, over and over again, when a person really longs to be dirty is known as a compulsion—because he is guilty about wanting to be dirty, he must overdo the good, the washing away of the dirt. The housewife who must constantly clean the house, the business man who must have his mail brought in in exactly the same manner every day, the person who must follow a set ritual in any act or thought would fall into the compulsive category. Many compulsions are superstitions, such as knocking on wood. They may be quite minor compulsions, such as the normal childish compulsion not to step on the cracks of the sidewalk.

As in any lack of mental health, the neuroses are made up of quite normal attitudes which have gotten out of hand. The things that make up the normal person's life also make up the neurotic person's life; the difference is in the ability to control thoughts and actions, which the normal person usually can do and the neurotic person knows on some subjects he can't.

Current Navy strength is now about 735,000 officers and enlisted personnel.

Health Talks

Though there is much overlapping in the different classifications of mental illness, they can be generally set up into three categories; lack of adjustment to oneself; lack of adjustment to one's fellow man; and lack of adjustment to situations, the outer world. These three classes could be broadly set up in technical terms as neurosis, psychopathy, and psychosis.

Neurosis is that failure to adjust to oneself. It is not "insanity" in its conception because the neurotic person is aware of his peculiarities and is also aware that other people aren't like him. The neurotic person usually punishes himself, whereas he has no bone to chew with others.

There are four general types of neuroses, which may be called the anxiety state, the phobia state, the imaginary-ill state, and the compulsive state. All four of these neurotic states are directed inwardly. They are states of mind which all normal people experience at times but which are quite exaggerated in the neurotic.

Everyone feels anxiety when they are threatened by a person or by some problem. Anxiety is a normal response to some external object or act. But where fear, worry, or indecision are aroused constantly by the daily routine when there is no real external fear, anxiety becomes a neurosis. And the anxious person suffers from that exaggerated feeling of his.

Anxiety is a general feeling of apprehension. When a person narrows his fears down to one certain object or one certain situation, it is known as a phobia. The neurotic person will do everything he can to avoid any contact with his phobia; he realizes his fear is foolish but he cannot force himself into a situation in which he

Regina Acker and John Warren Exchange Vows At Nazareth

Holy Family church was the scene October 31 for the marriage of Regina Acker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acker of Nazareth, to John Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Warren of Hereford. The Nuptial Mass was read by Father Colman Gallagher, S. A., of Saint Anthony's parish, Hereford. Servers were Jerry and Jack Acker, brother and cousin of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown, trimmed with tiers of Chantilly type lace ruffles in the front of the skirt. The long train was trimmed with matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, tied with white and blue ribbons. Her headdress was a satin cap, adorned with seed pearls, from which flowed a fingertip veil. She carried a prayerbook belonging to her sister-in-law, and a lace handkerchief belonging to her mother.

Attending her sister as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Charles Dick of Antlers, Okla., was attired in a gown of gold satin, with a lace bodice. She carried a Colonial type bouquet of green carnations, tied with gold and green ribbons.

The bridesmaids were Miss Florence Wilhelm, of Hereford, a niece of the groom, and Miss Aurelia Acker, sister to the bride. They wore floor-length satin gowns of Nile green, and carried bouquets of yellow carnations similar to that of the matron-of-honor.

James Acker, the bride's brother, and Bert Wilhelm, nephew of the groom, acted as best men. Ushers were Denis Acker and Lavern Wilhelm.

Following the Mass the bride was accompanied to the Blessed Virgin's altar by Miss Clementine Aichlmayr, perfect of the Children of Mary sodality, and Miss Mary Ann Acker, sister to the bride. There she was presented with a statue of the Blessed Virgin.

Organist for the Mass was Mrs. Leonard Conrad. The processional and the hymn during the presentation of the statue were played by Miss Joesetta Acker.

The breakfast was served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gidden in Canyon. Co-hostess with Mrs. Gidden was Mrs. Crawford.

In the afternoon a dinner and reception were held in the home of the bride's parents. A dance was held in Hereford, in honor of the bridal couple.

Mrs. Warren is a graduate of Nazareth high school and has been working as a nurses' aide in the Deaf Smith county hospital. Mr. Warren attended high school in Farmington, N. Mex.

Following a honeymoon in New Mexico and Colorado the couple will make their home in Hereford, where the groom is employed by the Hereford Hudson company.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included relatives and friends from Hereford and Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dick, of Antlers, Okla., and Mrs. John Homer, of Groom.

Mrs. Henry Dobbs Hostess To Frio Home Makers Club

The Frio Home Makers club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Henry Dobbs, with a program on "Furniture Arrangement," with Mrs. Gene Noel and Mrs. Floyd Cole giving parts on the program. They mentioned that in decorating a room a variety of materials should be used, with patterns, used sparingly, some plain surfaces and some stripes or geometrical designs. Tiny pictures and articles scattered about give a cluttered look they said, so it is considered better to use fewer and more handsome accessories in a room. Heavy pieces of furniture should be balanced about, not all grouped at one side of the room and upholstered and varnished furniture mixed for a balanced look.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames W. A. Springer, T. L. Sparkman, C. N. McClure, Gene Nogl, B. H. Little, E. F. Vogler, Floyd Cole, Jim Brooks, Harold Shearhart, H. E. Lindley, Owen Andrews, Bergen, a new member, and the hostess.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 14th, at the home of Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Sr., and will feature cake decorating, with a guest demonstrator.

THE LAW AND YOU

By Robert (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW what a "Disposition" is?

A "Disposition" is a means of taking a statement to preserve testimony for future use in litigation, or to be used in a case which is then pending before the Court.

At times, when it is thought that perhaps a witness will not be available at the time a suit comes to trial, a statement is taken from him that may be used on the trial of said cause. To be capable of being introduced and used on the trial of a cause a statement must be executed with certain formalities. A simple sworn statement is not sufficient.

Depositions are of two kinds. One kind is where the attorneys on each side go with the witness before a Notary and ask the questions and they are taken down by the Notary or the Court Reporter and then reduced to writing and signed by the witness. The other type of deposition is one in which the questions are written out in full by the attorneys for each side and the questions are sent to the Notary Public who notifies the witness to come in and answer the questions. The Notary then reduces the answers to writing, executes his certificate that they were duly sworn to by the witness, and then returns the written interrogatories, to gether with the answers to the Court for use at such time as they may be necessary in the trial of the case.

... as fast as a "scat" back going through a hole on a quick-opening play.

High speed electric range elements glow red hot in seconds and transmit all their heat instantly to the cooking utensil, without any heat waste.

Electric cooking's accuracy adds to its speed, too. Each setting on the push buttons or dials of an electric range is pre-set to an exact heat and that exact heat is always delivered when your hand at the control demands it.

Let your electric range dealer show you fast electric cooking soon. Let him show you, too, that electric cooking is accurate, efficient, cool, dependable, economical — and most of all — modern.

When you want all-star performance, you want all-electric cooking. See it at your favorite appliance store.

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

New!

BREAK SOIL AS DEEP AS 18" with the DEARBORN SUBSOILER!

• This new Dearborn Subsoiler for the Ford Tractor is fine for breaking hard soil, loosening ground for ditching, scarifying pastures, preparing dirt for loaders and scrapers.
Hardened carbon steel beam can be turned end for end for double life. 3/4-inch beveled edge permits deeper work, lowers fuel consumption by reducing draft. Point, sharpened on both ends, is reversible.
The Dearborn Subsoiler is raised, lowered, and depth is regulated by Ford Tractor Hydraulic Touch Control. A great tool—see it!

Treat for Teen-Agers

Vacation days are over, and the school bunch will begin to assemble again. On afternoons when they gather at your house, let the young people get in the kitchen and fix a real treat for themselves—Chocolate Chip Coffee Fudge! It's a creamy-rich confection flavored with star-studded instant coffee and semi-sweet chocolate chips... a tried and true flavor combination that is everybody's favorite. And by using instant coffee, even the most inexperienced cook can be sure of success—there's no need to brew coffee in advance or worry about strength of the liquid. The chocolate chips are added last so they won't melt completely, giving this fudge a marble texture that looks as good as it tastes.

CHOCOLATE CHIP COFFEE FUDGE

2 tablespoons Instant Maxwell House Coffee
 3 cups sugar
 1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup light cream or evaporated milk
 2 tablespoons light corn syrup
 1 cup milk
 8 tablespoons butter
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 cup chopped nut meats
 1 package semi-sweet chocolate chips

Combine Instant Maxwell House, sugar and salt in a saucepan. Then add cream, corn syrup, and milk. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Wipe sides of pan with a fork wrapped in a damp cloth. Continue cooking, without stirring, until a small amount of mixture forms a soft ball in cold water (or to a temperature of 236° F.). Remove from heat. Add butter and vanilla, but do not stir. Cool to lukewarm (100° F.); then beat until it begins to thicken and loses its gloss. Add nuts and chocolate chips. Turn into lightly greased 8x8x2-inch square pan. Garnish with cherries, nuts. Cool. Cut in 36 squares.

says Will Baker, who has done a lot of research work on them. It is only during the mating season that they have any kind of family life at all. Those females which have mated average litters of five; in warm climates some have two litters a year.

Babies are born in nearly globular nests of fine dry grasses or shredded stubble. They arrive in the world blind, hairless and without cheek pouches. In about 10 days they are well on the way to overcoming these deficiencies, and in a month and a half are weaned. Soon after that they begin to shift for themselves and almost at once take up the work of digging shallow tunnels.

Although the gophers disposition is bad, his personal and food habits are good. He is clean, and pretty strictly an eater of vege-tabl matter, from which he gets about the only liquid in his diet, since most gophers seldom if ever drink free water. Though too small to be of any value commercially, gophers do make good eating. The rather dark, fine-grained meat is tender and tastes a little like a squirrel.

Mrs. Floyd Copeland and little daughter, Jana, are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Webb. The Copelands are moving from Houston to Royalty this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hance, Sandra and Martha Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ramsey, Nancy and Brenda, and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Claborn were visitors Sunday in the home of their brother Olan Key and family of Tahoka.

Two-dollar bills are bad luck—only if you don't have enough of them.

OVERWEIGHT!

The Kessamin Plan for reducing is your answer. To be used only by those in whom overweight is due solely to overeating. Obesity or overweight is not only unlovely but also is dangerous. It increases susceptibility to a number of disorders, among them gall bladder disease, gout, diabetes, and the so-called degenerative diseases of the blood vessels and the heart and is often associated with high blood pressure.

The over-weight are necessarily restricted in their activities. Look and feel your normal happy self. Money back guarantee.

Long before the advantages of living alone and liking it were pointed out to career girls, pocket gophers practiced this particular path with the vehemence that characterizes everything these busy and bad-tempered little rodents do.

They are such seekers of solitude that they want no truck even with one of their own kind. When they meet they usually fight viciously, often until one is killed.

The term "pocket" is a natural since the gopher has actual pockets or pouches which are entirely outside the mouth. These fur-lined pockets are expandable carryalls in which food is transported to a small tunnel storeroom excavated solely for pantry purposes. Most of his food is secured from under ground by tunneling directly to root foods.

The making of these tunnel systems is a perpetual task with the gopher, which repairs any break at once and always short, steeply pitched "slopes" similar to those in mine shafts, for drainage purposes. The tunnels are usually from six inches to a foot underground, and vary in diameter from one and a half to three inches, depending upon the size of the gopher. Burrowing goes on day and night, four seasons a year, with layoffs for rest every couple of hours.

Because of their overwhelming penchant for solitude, pocket gophers are not prolific breeders.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE PRINCESS: Washington rolled out the red carpet for Princess Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh. They were accorded the traditional grand welcome and left a deep impression on the Nation's Capital. They both repeatedly expressed desires to visit the other sections of this country and hope that they can return with their children for an extended stay in the not too distant future. Their present short stay did not afford them the opportunity of making many appearances. The highlight of their visit was the reception at the British Embassy on Thursday afternoon, November 1st. The British Embassy is one of the most beautiful in the City and certainly well appointed. It was dressed up in real splendor for this memorable occasion.

Everything went off like clock-work from the sound of the trumpets upon the arrival of the Princess and her husband until the last guest had departed. Approximately 2,000 guests attended. The British Embassy, as other embassies in the City, is not sufficiently large to accommodate that number of people, and many people wonder how these occasions are handled. It is rather simple. A circus type tent is erected on the grounds of the embassy and connected by canvas-enclosed runways with the doors to the Embassy. The guests, after greeting the important personages, move on through these doors into the large circus tent. Actually you would never know that you were in a tent because it is heated and proper floor covering is provided. At the French Embassy last spring, wooden flooring was provided in the tent. However, this could not be done at the British Embassy because the ground is sloping, while that at the French Embassy is level enough to support the flooring. At the British Embassy the ground was covered with a hair-like carpet, and it really served just as well as the flooring. Jean and I were among the first to shake hands with the Princess and the Duke. They are both most gracious. The Princess inquired about Texas, and of course I did not miss the opportunity to extend to her and her husband an invitation to visit us.

My experience during the day of November 1st made me feel almost like an international traveler. I had spent the early part of the morning with Mr. Elia Shagouri, of Damascus, Syria, discussing the problems of the Middle East. This seemed to be the beginning of a chain of events involving conversations with nationals from Canada, Mexico, France, England, (in addition to the Princess and Duke), Italy, the Philippines, and a final conversation with Madame Pandit, of India, who returns to her native India in the very near future. After this round of events, some of the people in the party at the British Embassy suggested that we go to a Greek or Chinese (Nationalist that is) restaurant for something to eat, but Jean and I decided we had enough foreign relations for one day, and went home and ate Southern fried chicken with the children.

VISIT HOME: I will be back home by the time this letter reaches you for a stay of about ten days. I must be back in Washington around the middle of November, as there are many things to do between now and the beginning of the next session, including several important matters. I plan to return to the district around the first of December for another stay before Christmas and the beginning of the next session of Congress in January.

More than 118,000 Texas 4-H club boys and girls will join nearly two million other 4-H members of the country in observing National 4-H Club Achievement Week, November 3-11. Volunteer adult 4-H leaders also will share in recognition activities.

As part of their 4-H program, Texas 4-H members join hands with farm youth across the sea in promoting better world understanding. Five Texas 4-H boys and one girl have participated in the International Farm Youth Exchange Program since its beginning in 1948.

Two Texas boys—Steve Lilly of Nacogdoches county and Roy Whitaker of Panola county—have recently returned from four-month visits to Turkey and Ireland. James W. Strode of Nacogdoches county will spend the next few months in Australia. The 4-H Defense Mobilization Program is another activity in which many 4-H club members participate. A 14 point program is being sponsored by 4-H members to promote the defense of the country and its democratic ideals.

The Life You Save

On the bulletin board in the lower hall of our high school is the picture of four Dalhart young people, who were killed in a car wreck coming home from a ball game. Beside it in large red print is a poster that reads "Four reasons why we are contrary about transportation to and from games away from home."
 A few years ago a boy from our own high school was injured returning from a ball game. The accident caused a leg injury from which he will never recover entirely, expensive hospitalization, and almost unbelievable suffering.

From that time on the policy of Dimmitt Schools has been to require that all youth return in the same conveyance in which they went. The only exception is when they return with their parents.

It is terrible for a thing like this to happen to wake people up, but maybe the picture of these youth will stay in our mind as we go our ways on these manslaughtering highways.

Look at headlines: Sunday night 6 were killed and others injured; driver dosed and hit a truck. Saturday—four killed and another injured; head on collision. Friday—one killed, another badly injured; turning board riders. These are accidents that are happening all over the nation. Why? Because we, the American Citizens, don't realize driving hazards in their true value. We say "It's hazy but there is surely nobody coming from the other way." We boast "This is a dangerous hill but if there is someone coming I'll be collected enough to think of something to do." Then after the hill we add "It's level now, let's see what this hot rod will do." If we don't quit trusting to luck our "guardian angel" is going to get tired of fooling with us. Remember—The life you save may be your own or one very dear to you.

RASH MISCONCEPTION
 If you think you should sit that period out as you please because it's your study hall, think again. A question: What is your pet peeve? Chances are that it is homework. If you would use that hour in study hall for constructive work, then you would have no grounds for complaint.
 It's well worth your while to think this over, but don't take your study hall to think about it. Do it in the time you have free at home because you finished your homework during school hours.
 The teachers, as well as some industrious pupils, will be happy if you and I will be industrious or at least quiet in the study hall. If nothing else, read a library book. When it comes time for book reports it won't be necessary to read like mad or "just make something up" if you spend your time in, not catching up, but staying up.
 The idea that study hall is "loafing hall" is a rash misconception.

 As the average student of the Dimmitt Institute of Higher Knowledge knows we have some of the best prestidigitators in the business. This is one of the few places where you can take your books into class, set them down, turn your eyes for 1/25300 of a second and they are gone. This proves the old adage that the hand is quicker than the eye. After a few hours of search you will find them clear across the room and no one seems to know how they got there. You think you are lucky because you got them but when you look, you have any where from 2 to 200 pages gone, the rest are full of gum, there are dead flies in it and the book cover is gone. This all has happened in the matter of 3 seconds. Surely Dimmitt has some of the fastest students in any school. This story like all good stories has a moral. But being an extra good journalist I will list several good morals to this story.
 1. You should not take your books to class.
 2. Thump everyone you suspect.
 3. Laugh about it and gently tear the back off your neighbors book.
 4. Carry a Colt 45.
 5. Some one suggested that you just not turn your back but how else can you see an opportunity to swipe someone else's book.

Large Attendance At School Carnival

Spooks of every size and description are here again!
 The attendance to the carnival was surprisingly high in regard to the bad weather. The Seniors opened the carnival with the crowning of Kristie Webb as the Tiny Tot Queen. After the crowning, all the different classes tried to out-do each other. The carnival was climaxed by the crowning of Decimae Dennis as Hallowe'en Queen.
 Everyone seemed to have a good time, and each class reported good luck. After the carnival, the students were busy cleaning the various rooms and counting money.

F. H. A. Week November 4-10

This week, November 4-10, the Future Homemakers of America are celebrating F.H.A. Week. Each club will do something special every day. The Dimmitt Chapter is no exception.
 Every F.H.A. girl was to attend their respective church on Sunday and be recognized in some way. On Monday, a radio program was given telling of the projects for the week and entire year. Tuesday was set aside for Courtesy Day. We are to be of special service to our home, school, and community. Wednesday we plan to collect clothes for the needy in our community. We will have a no complaint day. We are also having the football boys and coaches with an after game supper. Saturday, the final day, we will attend the Annual F. H. A. Conference.

Old Rivalry Renewed Here

The Dimmitt Bobcats and the Olton Mustangs will meet in Bobcat Stadium Friday night for the District 2A Championship. This will be the sixth meeting of the two schools. They first tangled back in 1938 with Olton winning by the score of 14-0. The next encounter came in 1947 with Dimmitt winning 32-0. In 1948 Dimmitt came from behind to beat Olton 32-13. In 1949 Olton came to Dimmitt and handed the Bobcats their first and last defeat in the new Bobcat Stadium. The score was 13-0. This was the deciding game for the district championship and the only game Dimmitt lost. Last year Olton again handed the Bobcats their only defeat in regular season by a 25-13 score.

This year the Bobcats will be a slight favorite but Olton will try to make it three in a row. Both teams will be at full strength. Olton holds an edge in weight, speed, and experience. One of the largest crowds in the history of Class A football in this region is expected to be on hand at 8 o'clock Friday night.

Chapel Program

Everyone enjoyed the chapel program which was presented Friday by Paul Leonard of Southern School Assemblies.
 The program included Mr. Leonard making the various sounds made by birds. Rae Hardy assisted him and he showed us how a theremint cabinet works.
 The audience sang "Home on the Range" and whistled, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Staff Sends Pages To Annual Publisher

October 30 was quite a busy day. The annual staff sent off their first shipment of pages to the News Photo Publishing Company. Approximately 23 pages were sent off of classes and favorites and etc. This is the largest amount of pages that has ever been shipped by this date.
 We have sold all of our one-hundred-fifty annuals and we have almost completed our advertising.

Duck Season Opens Nov. 9th

AUSTIN — Wishing Texas sportsmen "good hunting" during the waterfowl season opening at noon, November 9, the Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission listed some reminders for successful shooting. They are:

Daily shooting hours on ducks and geese are from one-half hour before sunup to one hour before sundown.

Bag limits are five a day and ten in possession for ducks and five a day and five in possession for geese. The goose bag may not include more than either two Canada geese (or its subspecies, Hutchins or cackling geese) or two white-fronted, or one of each.

All waterfowl hunters over 16 years of age must have the Federal stamp costing $2.

Shotguns may not be larger than ten gauge; rifles may not be used to shoot waterfowl.

Waterfowl may not be shot on any State or Federal refuge or preserve. Also they may not be shot on any public road or highway.

Waterfowl may not be taken from any power driven boat or from a boat under tow or sail.

The Director of Law Enforcement suggested hunters keep these added hunting dates in mind:

Mourning dove, south zone, November 15; general state open season on deer and turkey, November 16, with many local laws taking precedence over the main statute; deer season West of the Pecos, November 20 to 25 inclusive, with one deer limit; General state open season on quail December 1, with many county regulations prevailing.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson and Patricia visited Mrs. Wilson's mother in Snyder Sunday.

Speaker

E. H. THORNTON, JR.

E. H. Thornton, Jr., chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, will address the 34th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, scheduled at Amarillo, November 14, 15, and 16. The 41-year old Galveston attorney is expected to give some "straight talking" to West Texans about what it is going to cost them to maintain and improve their highway system.

D. Neal, acting officer in charge of Mexican affairs of the U. S. State Department; Frank H. King of Dallas, general executive of The Associated Press, and David Rasco of the Amarillo News-Globe, former war correspondent in Korea.

Mahon is chairman of the House sub-committee on defense appropriations. That group must initiate the defense appropriations which now are consuming more of the tax dollar than any other type. He has access to some of the nation's top military secrets.

He is the only man who has represented the 19th congressional district of Texas in the lower house. It was created when the state was re-districted following the 1930 census. He defeated several opponents for election in 1934 and began his service in the 74th congress in 1935. His seat has never been seriously threatened as the biennial elections have come and gone.

His parents moved to the Loraine community from his birthplace, Mahon, Louisiana, when he was seven. After finishing high school there he entered Hardin-Simmons University where he distinguished himself as a debater and orator. He earned his

Rules Governing Excise Tax Given

LUBBOCK—In response to a number of inquiries, the Office of Price Stabilization today clarified its proposals to govern pass-throughs by wholesalers and retailers of changes in certain manufacturers' excise taxes which became effective November 1.

OPS has pointed out, the Lubbock district office said, that where excise taxes have traditionally been listed separately by resellers and passed on to the customer only on an actual dollars and cents basis, no percentage markup will be permitted on the tax increase.

However, the recent Herlong amendment to the Defense Production Act and other factors require OPS to allow wholesalers and retailers a percentage markup on such taxes in those cases where such sellers have customarily treated the amount of excise taxes as part of the cost for markup purposes.

Also, when excise taxes are eliminated or reduced the wholesale and retail ceilings must be reduced in the same manner—either on a dollars-and-cents basis or percentage-wise, according to the traditional practice in the industry.

The OPS further explained that under the Herlong amendment the agency is required in any new regulation "or amendment thereto" to reflect the customary percentage margin of most of the pre-Korean period, May 24-June 24, 1950.

In view of the Herlong amendment, wholesalers and retailers who have customarily taken markups on excise taxes including excise taxes must be permitted to continue to do so. Further, any new regulation of OPS, it was pointed out, also will have to permit markups on excise, if such markups have been customary in the industry.

Where the tax pass through was straight dollars-and-cents during the base period, however, it did not affect percentage margins, and thus the increase can be passed along without any markup on it.
