R F C FUND FOR PAVING PROJECT RECEIVED

Second Basketball Tournament Begins Today; 35 Teams Entered

Farmers' Trades-Sales Day First Monday; Seven Cash Prizes Awarded Weekly

A favorable report has been received from the application to R. F. C. for money with which to be used in paving the streets. Finance and Citizens committees met Tuesday night to complete plans for the work. Engineer to oversee the work will be here Thursday morning to begin this work. Foreman Peacaney is busy locating sand and concrete pits. It was agreed among the committees that the R. F. C. money would be used for street paving only. One block at a time will be finished before work starts on another. It is uncertain as to the exact amount which will be received but assurance has been given that a sum sufficient to begin work will be received at an early date.

No one will be given work unless the application blank is properly filled out. There may seem to be a group of unnecessary questions asked on the application blank, but it must be remembered that a report to the Federal Government might be required at any time. As this R. F. C. money is given to assist those in need of funds to buy groceries, dry goods and the actual necessities of life, it is also necessary that all applications for work must show that each applicant is in need of assistance at this time.

FIRST SCHOOL CASH ALLOWED ON PER CAPITA

Austin, Jan. 7.—The first payment on the 1932-33 per capita school apportionment was authorized today by L. W. Rogers, state superintendent of public construction. The payment, which is $1 on each of the 10,000,935 scholars enrolled will be made the latter part of next week.

The assessment for the county superintendent's office, in all counties having an elective superintendent, will be deducted from the first installment.

Rogers estimated that $3 of the per capita apportionment of the $16 would remain unpaid at the end of the present fiscal year. Contracts for the current school year have a priority claim on the available school funds appropriated for the various districts should not be used to liquidate indebtedness of a previous year until after provision is made for liquidation of all current obligations, Rogers said.

MEAT CURING DEMONSTRATION AT LUMPKINS

On Tuesday of this week a meat canning and curing demonstration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Lumpkin, in which one beef and several hogs were canned and put into the cure.

This was one of the outstanding demonstrations from the attendance standpoint, and many splendid reports are going the rounds, as to the benefit received from this demonstration. Mr. Adams and Miss Mashburn, county agents, were both in attendance, and played an important part in the demonstration.

The killing was done the day before, superintended by the county agent, and cutting and curing started at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The beef was canned in ten different styles and the pork was cured in the Lamb county's famous way.

LAMB COUNTY FARM LOANS CONDITION BETTER THAN OTHER SECTIONS

The conditions of Lamb county farm loans is considered to be as good, if not better, as conditions in other sections of the state.

"There are practically no delinquencies on farm loans in Lamb county," states E. J. Morehead of Plainview, secretary and treasurer of the Artesian Belt Farm Loan association, which company carries almost a quarter of a million dollars in loans on Lamb county farms.

"Payments have been very good in Lamb county," Mr. Morehead states. "In fact, to be definite," he continued, "there are only two federal and bank farm loans in Lamb county that are past due and these two are not in bad shape."

Your School Needs Your Immediate Help

TOWN and COUNTY

Notices were sent out by the Sudan Independent school board last week to the effect that unless school taxes are paid right away, the busses would have to be taken off after February 1st., or sooner. According to our information the local tax money goes to pay the teachers. State money cannot be used for other purposes.

It seems to us that every effort is being made by the board to continue the bus service throughout this term of school. But their efforts depend upon the cooperation of the patrons. Some are of the opinion that if the busses are taken off that school should be closed, but since the teachers will continue to draw their pay, which is the state money, it seems to us that this move would be a mistake, as the teachers will draw their pay the same as if school continued.

We believe that there is a probability of continuing the bus service, providing everyone will get behind the school board and do their best to cooperate to that extent. The board is doing all that is within its power to see that Sudan schools are carried thru in the best manner possible and they need your cooperation. Not your criticism—Real honest cooperation will do the trick.

MRS. J. P. EARNEST ENTERS GROCERY FIELD

A deal was closed between Mr. Lowery of the Lowery Grocery and Mrs. J. P. Earnest the latter part of December in which Mrs. Earnest became the owner of the Lowery Grocery located in the G. C. Holden building. The new owner took charge shortly after closing the deal.

When you patronize a bootlegger you are no better than he is. If you didn't patronize him he would soon be a past subject.

At a meeting of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce on Friday night of last week, arrangements were made to hold a Farmers' Trades day, monthly. This day is set apart for the benefit of farmers who have articles to sell or trade. An auctioneer will be furnished free of charge, on this day. Anything the farmer has to sell, livestock, farm implements, household goods, etc., may be brought in and the above services will be given without cost.

It was decided at the meeting to resume the awarding of prizes each Saturday. Your merchant will explain about these cash prizes, seven in all. First prize $3.00, second $2.00, and $1.00 prizes.

Workman farm January 23 and 24 by Miss Mashburn and Mr. Adams, the butchering will begin at 1 o'clock, Jan. 23. The canning will begin at 9 o'clock on the 24. Everyone is to bring sandwiches for lunch. Everybody come and bring some one with you, as this is for every body.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Workman have returned home after spending their honey moon at Pampa and McLein Texas.

Melvin Scogin who has been confined to his bed the past 10 days with the flu is able to be out again.

Dr. W. H. Ford was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lancaster to see their baby who has been very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Thompson have moved to the Jess Parker place.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Allen have returned from Cisco Texas, where they spent the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell McNutt spent Sunday at the home of Howard Harvey and family.

M. B. Sims left Saturday for San Antonio where he will finish school.

The little son of Hershell White who has been very sick is much improved.

Don't forget the meat demonstration at Mrs. M. F. Workman January 23 and 24.

The Bluebonnet club met Wednesday Jan. 4, in the home of Mrs. J. E. Logan. There were 14 members present and 1 visitor.

Each member started the New Year by enrolling either as a Demonstrator or a cooperator. As we did not have our 1933 year books we didn't have a lesson, but had quite a lot of business to attend to.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Our next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. G. A. Benefield, January 19 at 2 o'clock.—Reporter.

FOR TAXPAYERS LEAGUE

Formation of taxpayers leagues all over the country has been a very popular method employed by citizens to confer with governmental bodies in a concerted effort to reduce taxes by reducing the cost of operating political units.

There has been some agitation in Lamb County for the formation of such an organization, which would advise with the county court and other governing bodies in a serious effort to determine how expenses could be cut. The News favors such an organization, and hopes that one of real service to the county will be formed.

However, an organization of this sort should not be brought into being merely and effort to embarrass elective officials who are already working on the problem and doing a good job. It should be made up of members of both political parties, who have as the purpose of their existence a conscientious and helpful program.

So pressing has been the demand to reduce government costs, and so necessary has such an end become to relieve tax burdens, that politicians who have been continuously disappointed in their election appeals have and will take advantage of the opportunity in order to advance themselves, quite willing to make the ill of the people a stepping stone to personal political success.

This is the danger that Lamb countians must be aware of and avoid. Sour grapes should not be the basis for the foundation of a tax payers league; rather should citizens who have their own interests and that of their fellow citizens and the county generally at heart be the moving spirits in the formation of a taxpayers league.

One of the reasons that political bodies are criticized is that the critics are not acquainted well enough with the problems that confront officials. Here is a chance for many people to find out what the problems are, and so to advise and suggest.

ADVERSITY SOME-TIMES USEFUL

The uses of adversity, according to an ancient proverb, are sweet. That proverb usually is more popular among people who haven't had much contact with adversity than among people who have; nevertheless, it seems to work out right once in a while.

Consider the man in a mid-western state, who because of poverty was forced to live for six weeks on stale bread and skimmed milk.

During that time he gained greatly in weight and recovered from a long-standing stomach ailment.

All of us, no doubt, would be happier if we could be sure that all of the victims of the depression would find scanty fare equally beneficial. Unfortunately, this man's case is a very marked exception to the rule.

A NEW FRONTIER

Nobody knows how much land has been taken back by the states for taxes from its former owners. But some indication may be had from the fact that South Dakota recently sent more than 5,000,000 acres under the auctioneer's hammer. It is estimated that 20 per cent of the state's total agricultural acreage will be removed from the tax lists when the counties take title.

There's a problem for you! We have grown accustomed to the thought that public lands were exhausted. Are we to have great areas of public lands again? If so, what are we going to do with them? A way must be found to dovetail this new factor into the unemployment situation. Can the states resell this land on long time payments and easy terms to workers forced out of city jobs by the rise of machinery? Can they perhaps farm them themselves? Can they be state-forested?

The uss of adversity, according to state legislatures this winter.

STATE AUDITOR LYNN'S REPORT

Austin, Jan. 9.—Grave questions involving the immediate future of the Texas public school system have been presented Governor Sterling in a report by State Auditor Moore Lynn covering the status of the Available School Fund.

Auditor Lynn's study of the available school fund disclosed the fact that if the present $17.50 per capita apportionment is continued through 1934 and 1935, the fund must be augmented by an additional $19,810,000.

The $17.50 apportionment has been in effect since 1930. However, Lynn pointed out, the full amount was paid only in 1930, and deficits have been allowed to accrue during 1931 and 1932. The actual amount paid during those two years was an average of $16.21. Even if this average is to be maintained, the fund must be increased by $14,930,000, over and above the probable revenues of $35,836,448 for the biennium.

Estimated revenues allow for a per capita apportionment of only $11.44 during 1934 and 1935. This would be lower than at any time during the past ten years.

"The situation must be faced squarely," Lynn advised the Governor. "A grave situation exists. Nothing is to be gained by further postponement of the day of reckoning."

Leading to present conditions were two factors:

1. Adoption of the amendment to the Constitution exempting $3,000 of the value of homesteads from taxation, thus reducing the available school fund by an estimated $3,000,000.

2. The fact that the Board of Education has fixed the per capita for the past three years at an amount greater than the available revenues; and the further fact that the State has carried over as a "deficit" for the past two years the difference between the $17.50 apportioned and the amount actually paid. This deficit will have reached the total of $5,740,861 at the end of the current fiscal year.

In his report, Lynn said, regarding this practice:

"How long can the State Board of Education borrow from this year's income to pay the debts of last year? And to what point can such borrowings be carried?"

"The State Auditor seriously questions the power of the Board to appropriate moneys that do not exist in reasonable prospect, and also questions the propriety of treating the unpaid capita apportionment as a liability at the end of the fiscal year.

"Teachers in many school districts, city and rural, are now probably holding several million dollars of vouchers against funds to be received from the State. The teachers, who have fulfilled their contracts in good faith, must inevitably wait until the next fiscal year to collect for service performed. This is the condition that will exist in 1933 unless additional tax moneys are poured into the fund before the end of the fiscal year.

"If the per capita for 1934 and 1935 is set at the extreme low mark of $11.44, at the end of 1934 there will be a deficit of $1.77 per capita to be made up out of funds of 1935, and at the end of 1934 teachers will still be waiting for their pay.

"The State Auditor does not attempt to solve the dilemma in its entirety but does attempt to point out just how acute the problems are."

"Drastic reorganization of the school system was suggested as a possible way to cope, in part with the situation.

"Only in an extremity," the report said, "should recourse be had to new sources of taxation as a means of balancing the budget of the School Fund. Important economics can be affected.

"The public school system is not organized for efficiency and economy in operation. It is divided into 7,425 separate units, known as school districts, with 45,973 teachers who work under the direction of 27,685 members of district and county boards of education. There are too many administration units, too many executives too much variation in administrative policy. There is every reason to believe that overhead administrative costs are excessive. The number of separate units should be reduced from 7,425 to 250 or 300. This would reduce administrative costs, permit quantity purchases of supplies, materials, at great savings. The State money should be distributed on some basis involving school attendance rather than on the scholastic census.

"If a stricter enforcement of the present tax laws, combined with a practical, constructive program for greater efficiency and economy, is not sufficient to maintain the public school service at its present level, it will be necessary to draw on some other fund; or as a final alternative, to limit attendance to shorten the term; arbitrarily to cut the already low salaries of teachers; or to throw greater portion of the burden of school taxes on the local community."

As an instance of the instability of some of the Fund's

WINTER PLOTS A WICKED CRIME.

THE VICTIMS: Those Motors Using Ordinary Oil that Drains Away from Heated Working Surfaces.

THE TIME: Those Cold Starting Minutes While Precious Motor Parts Must Run Dry at Warning Speed Until Oil is Pumped from Below.

GET THE "Hidden quart" in time

THE QUART THAT STAYS UP IN YOUR MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY

The Germ Process (exclusive Conoco patent) imparts to this motor oil that peculiar ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces. Of the first filling about one quart will "hide" itself up in your motor's precious working parts. This hidden quart never drains away. It becomes a part of the motor itself—worth its weight in gold.

The One Oil that Gives You Perfect Protection for Winter's Worst Days Ahead

Drip! trickle! drip! through long night hours, ordinary oil drains away. When the pump quits, ordinary oil quits, leaving the motor's parts high and dry. You touch the starter. The motor roars. The pump strains at the sluggish oil. It is only a few minutes till circulation is completed. But, in the meantime, working surfaces only partly lubricated are in contact, while the motor makes three to five thousand revolutions. This causes 50% of all motor wear.

Prevent this loss. Choose not merely a quick oil, but an oil that never leaves. Choose the oil with the "hidden quart" that penetrates and combines with the metal surfaces of the motor itself. In the emergency of an empty crankcase, users have driven many miles, without damage, on this "hidden quart" alone. This proves that your motor need never suffer while waiting upon the pump. Don't remain in doubt. Drain and refill with the "hidden quart" oil today.

Editorial

We, the students of the Sudan School, feel very down hearted this week because our Superintendent, Mr. O. L. Davis, is leaving us on January 13. He is going to Austin where he takes up his work January 16, as one of the Chief Supervisors of High School work in the State Department of Education. Mr. Davis' chief duty will be looking after the classification and standardization of school work in all first, second and third class high schools in the state.

Mr. Davis was appointed to this position by Mr. L. A. Wood who succeeds Mr. L. W. Rogers as State Superintendent.

Mrs. Davis and children moved to Austin during the Christmas holidays. The Davis address will be: 4206 Speedway, Austin Texas. Students let's not forget them. Let's drop 'em a line once in a while.

We all dislike the word "good" and so we are saying "Awevior" but it is going to be hard to even say that to our superintendent. We certainly think more than words can express of Mr. Davis and regret our having to give him up but we feel sure he will make occasional visits to us.

We wish him much success and luck in his new work and we are very proud to be able to say that our superintendent was chosen as one of the chief supervisors in the State Department of Education.

TO MR. DAVIS

Mr. Davis has been our superintendent nearly two years. It has been managed well since he has been its manager for the school as a whole has been well behaved. He is always considerate in his judgment. We certainly have appreciated him. You know sometime we forget to tell our friends before they are gone that we have appreciated them. It is just like putting roses on a dead man's grave, why not hand them to him before he is gone. We know he understands our feelings.

Since he is leaving, I wish to express the sentiment of this, "the first year Algebra class," for them. He is much loved by all I am sure, because I know it is in my case. He is a kind advisor and dependable at all times. He is sincere and frank in things that should be taken that way. Personally, Mr. Davis has been a great inspiration to me. He has helped me very much in getting a good start in my first year in Sudan high school. He is also very encouraging in my task.

In conclusions, let me say that we appreciate what Mr. Davis has done for us. We shall not soon forget these associations in class, in church, and in every day life. We do hope very much that he will not forget us, and we trust and hope that he will be very happy and successful in his new position.

Toast

Here's to the man who knows his job
 And is not afraid to tackle it;
 Who greets you with a cheery smile
 Who gives you his word and is back of it.
 He's a friend to all and a man to all
 And a jolly good sport at all times;
 He doesn't gripe at things too small
 And is never governed by odd signs. Mary Will McNeely.

Basket ball Tournament

There is to be a basketball Tournament held in the Sudan High school gym, on Thursday night, Friday and Saturday. 35 schools have already entered in the tournament.

The boys and girls of the various teams will stay in homes of the people of the community.

Lunch is to be served on Friday and Saturday by the Home Economics girls.

ATHLETICS

The senior girls went to a tournament at Anton this last week-end. They were beaten by Anton and Ropesville; however, all of our girls didn't get to go, so we didn't get to go, so we didn't expect them to do very much.

The senior boys went to Anton to a tournament also this last week-end. They won third place, or we might say consolation. They were defeated by Rogers, New Mexico.

The boys played Spade Monday night and won by a score of 34-21.

Boy Scout News

Troop 39 met Thursday night at 7 o'clock. After a business session the troops attended the picture show. The play, Jackie Cooper in "When a Fellow Needs a Friend," was ideal for the boys.

H. A. Markham was admitted into the troop. There are now 24 members in our troop. The President's award will be presented to the troop during Scout Anniversary week, Feb. 6 to 14. As a tribute to Calvin Coolidge, the boys had a moment of silent prayer. The troop invites patrons to its meeting.

Everett Austin visited Ada O'Keefe this week-end.

The attendance in high school was 100 per cent Tuesday.

Mr. Branch said he would go back to college.

Mr. Whittle said he would go to Paris to have a good time.

Mr. Smith said he would go back to sleep to see if he could make another million.

"Well teacher," said Charles after a considerable pause, "now I come to think of it, I used her fountain pen."

A PRETTY PROSPECT

If repeal comes, gentlemen, expect this: Your favorite orchestra on the radio with intervals of liquor advertising telling the girls how beer will preserve that schoolgirl complexion, make em fat and make em lean, and put the hair right on their beans. Billboards, miles of them, decorating the countryside, advising your son to drink whisky, pictures of football players, running, and tennis players, and the perennial pretty girl, all advertising liquors. Whiskey testimonials from "chamjions" who do not drink themselves, but like to cash the checks—beer testimonials from Miss North America, who also likes her checks. Write ways blazing the invitation and urge to drink liquor. Advertisements confronting you from your favorite newspaper and magazine, liquors on display at nearly every street corner.

Also, friend, get ready to have your car smashed and your wife shouldered into the street. Get ready to see your customers pass right by your door enroute to the bar room. They will contribute to the liquor revenue and you, when you pay your taxes, will be forking over money to support public officials nominated in the back rooms of saloons.

Get ready! If we are going to have liquor, we are going to have some other things with it—Clip Sheet.

Some people never worry about the future. It keeps them busy covering up their past.

SILVER SETS 'EM WILD

Leadville—a new home, such as it was! Another general store, bacon a dollar a pound—coffee six dollars—flour $100 a barrel. Ought to pay, especially with Indians to trade with, and who doesn't know how to trade with Indians!

All the while he was prospecting, too. Going out with shovel, pick and pan. The luck even then was with him. In a few months he had washed out $7,000, the first of his vast fortune. He had a way of trusting anybody. Augusta disappeared, but what of that. The fates laughed with him the day he grub-staked two unknown Germans for provisions amounting to $64.75. The agreement was that he should receive one-third of all profits.

They looked for gold—but they found silver! Silver in such quantities that it netted Tabor over a million!

How became mayor of Leadville, as well as county treasurer and post-master. In spite of his million dollar nest-egg he kept the general store. He bought what was supposed to have been a salted mine, but which turned out to be the richest one in the country. It made him twice over a millionaire.

Newspapers in New York and Chicago began to print stories about him and to use his picture. He wanted to build a city. Wanted to be Governor. Maybe President. "Lincoln was once poor," he often repeated.

One of the stories of the time was Tabor's reaction to Parson Tom Uzell's plea for $200 to buy two chandeliers for his church, which was about to be erected in "the heart of the Whiskey-guzzling city of ribaldry."

"Sure, parson, sure," said Tabor, diving into his pocket. "Will two be enough?" The parson said it would. "Well, I dunno," said Tabor. "The church has gotta make a lot more noise to be heard at all in this town! He handed the parson $500.00 and added with a twinkle "Who's going to play them chandeliers?"

The town needed an auditorium. He hired a regiment of carpenters and in a month the Wigwam, seating 500, rose next to the O. K. Saloon.

Third Chapter of Silver Dollar starring Edward G. Robinson and Bebe Daniels to be shown at the Garden Theatre, Sunday, February 5th.

WE SHOULD NOT

When the Robertson law was passed the eastern companies had no substantial investment in Texas. Should that law be repealed would they make any substantial investments in Texas? Or, at the same time we repealed the Robertson law, would we also be required to repeal the homestead law?

Before we repeal a statute that is responsible for the investment in Texas of $225,000,000 should we not get some definite assurance that eastern companies thus favored (at the expense of Texas companies) were really ready and willing to invest their money here? Or should we repeal the Robertson law first, and then discover that the homestead law also must be thrown overboard?—Commer Texas Journal.

GOOD MEAT COURSE IS ESSENTIAL TO A SUCCESSFUL DINNER

By Durries Crane
Famed Hotel Food Manager
Have a good meat course for your dinner and any mistakes or oversights with regard to the other courses will be forgotten. For meat is the piece de resistance of the evening meal and must receive the most careful attention of a hotel chef preparing for thousands of the housewife getting dinner for her husband and children.

Meat has always been the most substantial diet of man since those primitive days when he went hunting with a sharp stick or a heavy stone and returned to his cave laden with game. And for this reason all other courses should revolve about this one and be subordinate to it. Many people eat meat only once a day but nearly everyone wants it for dinner.

The various kinds of meat are limited but the ways in which it can be prepared and served are as varied as the imagination of man can make them. Here are some of the popular meat dishes served at our hotels.

Baked Lamb Chops—Take two lamb chops and fry them in butter on both sides. Slice one onion and smother same in butter. Slice two potatoes, mix them with the onions, add salt, pepper and spices according to taste. Take a baking dish, put the chops at the bottom and cover them with the onions and potatoes mixed. Add half a water glass of broth and bake in oven for about thirty minutes.

large stewing pan with enough water to cover it, add salt and white pepper and boil very gently. When chicken is tender remove from broth and take all meat from the bones, put into a round chicken pie pan, placing dark meat on the bottom then a layer of cooked rice and last the white meat; to this add the broth, which has been slightly thickened with flour, with the following pastry leaving a hole in the center for steam to escape, brush with a beaten egg diluted with a little water; Pastry covering. One cup of flour, three tablespoonful of chicken fat, one-half teaspoonful of fat. By the chicken fat we mean that which is taken from the top of the broth when cold. Butter can be used (two tablespoonful) in place of the fat. If the broth is not rich enough add one tablespoonful of butter. This is never necessary with a fat chicken. Cover the top chicken fat. Pastry must stand over night.

Where Does She Get Her "Pep?"

SHE doesn't look seventy. Nor feel that old. The woman who stimulates her organs can have energy that women half her age will envy!

At middle-age your vital organs begin to slow down. You may not be sick, simply sluggish. But why endure a condition of half-health when there's a stimulant that will stir a stagnant system to new life and energy in a week's time?

This remarkable stimulant is perfectly harmless. It is, in fact, a family doctor's prescription. So, if you're tired of trying every patent medicine that comes along, tell the druggist you want a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a bit of this delicious syrup every day or so, until you know by the way you feel that your lazy liver is again active, and your bowels are poison-free.

Men, women, and children who are run-down, who tire easily, get bilious spells or have frequent headaches, are soon straightened out when they get this prescription preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh laxative herbs. (Syrup pepsin is all the help the bowels need, and you do not form the very bad habit of always taking cathartics.)

Keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin in the house, and take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. It is all that a great many people ever take to keep strong and vigorous, and absolutely free from constipation.

FIRST SCHOOL CASH ALLOVED ON PER CAPITA

Austin, Jan. 7.—The first payment on the 1932-33 per capita school apportionment was authorized today by L. W. Rogers, state superintendent of public construction. The payment, which is $1 on each of the 10,000,835 scholars enrolled will be mailed the latter part of next week.

Your School Needs Your Immediate Help

Notices were sent out by the Sudan Independent school board last week to the effect that unless school taxes are paid right away, the buses would have to be taken off after February 1st, or sooner. According to our information the local tax money goes to pay the teachers. State money cannot be used for other purposes.

It seems to us that every effort is being made by the board to continue the bus service throughout this term of school. But their efforts depend upon the cooperation of the patrons. Some are of the opinion that if the buses are taken off that school should be closed, but since the teachers will continue to draw their pay, which is the state money, it seems to us that this move would be a mistake, as the teachers will draw their pay the same as if school continued.

We believe that there is a probability of continuing the bus service, providing everyone will get behind the school board and do their best to cooperate to that extent. The board is doing all that is within its power to see that Sudan schools are carried thru in the best manner possible and they need your cooperation. Not your criticism—Real honest cooperation will do the trick.

MRS. J. P. EARNEST ENTERS GROCERY FIELD

LAMB COUNTY FARM LOANS CONDITION BETTER THAN OTHER SECTIONS

The conditions of Lamb county farm loans is considered to be as good, if not better, as conditions in other sections of the state.

"There are practically no delinquencies on farm loans in Lamb county," states E. J. Morehead of Plainview, secretary and treasurer of the Artesian Belt Farm Loan association, which company carries almost a quarter of a million dollars in loans on Lamb county farms.

"Payments have been very good in Lamb county" Mr. Morehead states. "In fact, to be definite," he continued, "there are only two federal and bank farm loans in Lamb county that are past due and these two are not in bad shape."

BLUEBONNET CLUB

The Bluebonnet club met Wednesday Jan. 4, in the home of Mrs. J. E. Logan. There were 14 members present and 1 visitor.

Each member started the New Year by enrolling either as a Demonstrator or a cooperator. As we did not have our 1933 year books we didn't have a lesson, but had quite a lot of business to attend to.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Our next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. G. A. Benefield, January 19 at 2 o'clock.—Reporter.

FOR TAXPAYERS LEAGUE

Formation of taxpayers leagues all over the country has been a very popular method employed by citizens to confer with governmental bodies in a concerted effort to reduce taxes by reducing the cost of operating political units.

There has been some agitation in Lamb County for the formation of such an organization, which would advise with the county court and other governing bodies in a serious effort to determine how expenses could be cut. The News favors such an organization, and hopes that one of real service to the county will be formed.

However, an organization of this sort should not be brought into being merely and effort to embarrass elective officials who are already working on the problem and doing a good job, it should be made up of members of both political parties, who have as the purpose of their existence a conscientious and helpful program.

So pressing has been the demand to reduce government costs, and so necessary has such an end become to relieve tax burdens, that politicians who have been continuously disappointed in their election appeals have and will take advantage of the opportunity in order to advance themselves, quite willing to make the ill of the people a stepping stone to personal political success.

This is the danger that Lamb countians must be aware of and avoid. Sour grapes should not be the basis for the foundation of a tax payers league; rather should citizens who have their own interests and that of their fellow citizens and the county generally at heart be the moving spirits in the formation of a taxpayers league.

One of the reasons that political bodies are criticized is that the critics are not acquainted well enough with the problems that confront officials. Here is a chance for many people to find out what the problems are, and so to advise and suggest.

NEW DRY GOODS AND GROCERY STORE

Mr. Means stated to a reporter of the News that he believed in the future of Sudan, and that he was ready to support any move that was meant for the betterment of this section.

ADVERSITY SOME-TIMES USEFUL

The uses of adversity, according to an ancient proverb, are sweet. That proverb usually is more popular among people who haven't had much contact with adversity than among people who have; nevertheless, it seems to work out right once in a while.
Consider the man in a mid-western state, who because of poverty was forced to live for six weeks on stale bread and skimmed milk.
During that time he gained greatly in weight and recovered from a long-standing stomach ailment.
All of us, no doubt, would be happier if we could be sure that all of the victims of the depression would find scanty fare equally beneficial. Unfortunately, this man's case is a very marked exception to the rule.

A NEW FRONTIER

Nobody knows how much land has been taken back by the states for taxes from its former owners. But some indication may be had from the fact that South Dakota recently sent more than 5,000,000 acres under the auctioneer's hammer. It is estimated that 20 per cent of the state's total agricultural acreage will be removed from the tax lists when the counties take title.
There's a problem for you! We have grown accustomed to the thought that public lands were exhausted. Are we to have great areas of public lands again? If so, what are we going to do with them? A way must be found to dovetail this new factor into the unemployment situation. Can the states resell this land on long time payments and easy terms to workers forced out of city jobs by the rise of machinery? Can they perhaps farm them themselves? Can they be state-forested?
The uss of adversity, according to state legislatures this winter.

STATE AUDITOR LYNN'S REPORT

Austin, Jan. 9.—Grave questions involving the immediate future of the Texas public school system have been presented Governor Sterling in a report by State Auditor Moore Lynn covering the status of the Available School Fund.

Auditor Lynn's study of the available school fund disclosed the fact that if the present $17.50 per capita apportionment is continued through 1934 and 1935, the fund must be augmented by an additional $19,810,000.

The $17.50 apportionment has been in effect since 1930. However, Lynn pointed out, the full amount was paid only in 1930, and deficits have been allowed to accrue during 1931 and 1932. The actual amount paid during those two years was an average of $16.21. Even if this average is to be maintained, the fund must be increased by $14,930,000, over and above the probable revenues of $35,836,448 for the biennium.

Estimated revenues allow for a per capita apportionment of only $11.44 during 1934 and 1935. This would be lower than at any time during the past ten years.

"The situation must be faced squarely," Lynn advised the Governor. "A grave situation exists. Nothing is to be gained by further postponement of the day of reckoning."

Leading to present conditions were two factors:

1. Adoption of the amendment to the Constitution exempting $3,000 of the value of homesteads from taxation, thus reducing the available school fund by an estimated $3,000,000.

2. The fact that the Board of Education has fixed the per capita for the past three years at an amount greater than the available revenues; and the further fact that the State has carried over as a "deficit" for the past two years the difference between the $17.50 apportioned and the amount actually paid. This deficit will have reached the total of $5,740,891 at the end of the current fiscal year.

In his report, Lynn said, regarding this practice: "How long can the State Board of Education borrow from this year's income to pay the debts of last year? And to what point can such borrowings be carried?"

"The State Auditor seriously questions the power of the Board to appropriate moneys that do not exist in reasonable prospect, and also questions the propriety of treating the unpaid capita apportionment as a liability at the end of the fiscal year.

"Teachers in many school districts, city and rural, are now probably holding several million dollars of vouchers against funds to be received from the State. The teachers, who have fulfilled their contracts in good faith, must inevitably wait until the next fiscal year to collect for service performed. This is the condition that will exist in 1933 unless additional tax moneys are poured into the fund before the end of the fiscal year.

"If the per capita for 1934 and 1935 is set at the extreme low mark of $11.44, at the end of 1934 there will be a deficit of $1.77 per capita to be made up out of funds of 1935, and at the end of 1934 teachers will still be waiting for their pay.

"The State Auditor does not attempt to solve the dilemma in its entirety but does attempt to point out just how acute the problems are."

"Drastic reorganization of the school system was suggested as a possible way to cope, in part with the situation.

"Only in an extremity," the report said, "should recourse be had to new sources of taxation as a means of balancing the budget of the School Fund. Important economies can be effected.

"The public school system is not organized for efficiency and economy in operation. It is divided into 7,425 separate units, known as school districts, with 45,973 teachers who work under the direction of 27,685 members of district and county boards of education. There are too many administration units, too many executives too much variation in administrative policy. There is every reason to believe that overhead administrative costs are excessive. The number of separate units should be reduced from 7,425 to 250 or 300. This would reduce administrative costs, permit quantity purchases of supplies, materials, at great savings. The State money should be distributed on some basis involving school attendance rather than on the scholastic census.

"If a stricter enforcement of the present tax laws, combined with a practical, constructive program for greater efficiency and economy, is not sufficient to maintain the public school service at its present level, it will be necessary to draw on some other fund; or as a final alternative, to limit attendance to short-n term; arbitrarily to cut the already low salaries of teachers; or to throw greater portion of the burden of school taxes on the local community."

As an instance of the instability of some of the Fund's

THE VICTIMS: Those Motors Using Ordinary Oil that Drains Away from Heated Working Surfaces.

THE TIME: Those Cold Starting Minutes While Precious Motor Parts Must Run Dry at Warming Speed Until Oil is Pumped from Below.

GET THE "hidden quart" in time

THE QUART THAT STAYS UP IN YOUR MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY

The Germ Process (exclusive Conoco patent) imparts to this motor oil that peculiar ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces. Of the first filling about one quart will "hide" itself up in your motor's precious working parts. This hidden quart never drains away. It becomes a part of the motor itself; worth its weight in gold.

The One Oil that Gives You Perfect Protection for Winter's Worst Days Ahead

Drip! trickle! drip! through long night hours, ordinary oil drains away. When the pump quits, ordinary oil quits, leaving the motor's parts high and dry. You touch the starter. The motor roars. The pump strains at the sluggish oil. It is only a few minutes till circulation is completed. But, in the meantime, working surfaces only partly lubricated are in contact, while the motor makes three to five thousand revolutions. This causes 50% of all motor wear.

Prevent this loss. Choose not merely a quick oil, but an oil that never leaves. Choose the oil with the "hidden quart" that penetrates and combines with the metal surfaces of the motor itself. In the emergency of an empty crankcase, users have driven many miles, without damage, on this "hidden quart" alone. This proves that your motor need never suffer while waiting upon the pump. Don't remain in doubt. Drain and refill with the "hidden quart oil today.

Editorial

We, the students of the Sudan School, feel very down hearted this week because our Superintendent, Mr. O. L. Davis, is leaving us on January 13. He is going to Austin where he takes up his work January 16, as one of the Chief Supervisors of High School work in the State Department of Education. Mr. Davis' chief duty will be looking after the classification and standardization of school work in all first, second and third class high schools in the state.

Mr. Davis was appointed to this position by Mr. L. A. Wood who succeeds Mr. L. W. Rogers as State Superintendent.

Mrs. Davis and children moved to Austin during the Christmas holidays. The Davis address will be: 4206 Speedway, Austin Texas. Students let's not forget them. Let's drop 'em a line once in a while.

We all dislike the word "good by" and so we are saying "Adieu" but it is going to be hard to even say that to our superintendent. We certainly think more than words can express of Mr. Davis and regret our having to give him up but we feel sure he will make occasional visits to us.

We wish him much success and luck in his new work and we are very proud to be able to say that our superintendent was chosen as one of the chief supervisors in the State Department of Education.

TO MR. DAVIS

Mr. Davis has been our superintendent nearly two years. It has been managed well since he has been its manager for the school as a whole has been well behaved. He is always considerate in his judgment. We certainly have appreciated him. You know sometime we forget to tell our friends before they are gone that we have appreciated them. It is just like putting roses on a dead man's grave, why not hand them to you before he is gone. We know he understands our feelings.

Since he is leaving, I wish to express the sentiment of this "the first year Algebra class," for them. He is much loved by all I am sure, because I know it is in my case. He is a kind advisor and dependable at all times. He is sincere and frank in things that should be taken that way. Personally, Mr. Davis has been a great inspiration to me. He has helped me very much in getting a good start in my first year in Sudan high school. He is also very encouraging in my task.

In conclusions, let me say that we appreciate what Mr. Davis has done for us. We shall not soon forget these associations in class, in church, and in every day life. We do hope very much that he will not forget us, and we trust and hope that he will be very happy and successful in his new position.

Toast

Here's to the man who knows his job
 And is not afraid to tackle it;
 Who greets you with a cheery smile
 Who gives you his word and is back of it.
 He's a friend to all and a man to all
 And a jolly good sport at all times;
 He doesn't gripe at things too small
 And is never governed by odd signs. Mary Will McNeely.

Basket ball Tournament

There is to be a basketball Tournament held in the Sudan High school gym, on Thursday night, Friday and Saturday, so schools have already entered in the tournament.

The boys and girls of the various teams will stay in homes of the people of the community. Lunch is to be served on Friday and Saturday by the Home Economics girls.

ATHLETICS

The senior girls went to a tournament at Anton this last week-end. They were beaten by Anton and Ropesville; however, all of our girls didn't get to go, so we didn't get to go, so we didn't expect them to do very much.

The senior boys went to Anton to a tournament also this last week-end. They won third place, or we might say consolation. They were defeated by Rogers, New Mexico.

The boys played Spade Monday night and won by a score of 34-21.

Boy Scout News

Troop 39 met Thursday night at 7 o'clock. After a business session the troops attended the picture show. The play, Jackie Cooper in "When a Fellow Needs a Friend;" was ideal for the boys.

H. A. Markham was admitted into the troop. There are now 24 members in our troop. The President's award will be presented to the troop during Scout Anniversary week, Feb. 6 to 14. As a tribute to Calvin Coolidge, the boys had a moment of silent prayer. The troop invites patrons to its meeting.

Everett Austin visited Ada O'Keefe this week-end.

The attendance in high school was 100 per cent Tuesday.

A PRETTY PROSPECT

If repeal comes, gentlemen, expect this: Your favorite orchestra on the radio with intervals of liquor advertising telling the girls how beer will preserve that schoolgirl complexion, make em fat and make 'em lean, and put the hair right on their beans. Billboards, miles of them, decorating the countryside, advising your son to drink whiskey, pictures of football players, running, and tennis players, and the perennial pretty girl, all advertising liquors. Whiskey testimonials from "champions" who do not drink themselves, but like to cash the checks—beer testimonials from Miss North America, who also likes her checks. White ways blazing the invitation and urge to drink liquor. Advertisements confronting you from your favorite newspaper and magazine, liquors on display at nearly every street corner.

Also, friend, get ready to have your car smashed and your wife shouldered into the street. Get ready to see your customers pass right by your door enroute to the bar room. They will contribute to the liquor revenue and you, when you pay your taxes, will be forking over money to support public officials nominated in the back rooms of saloons.

Get ready! If we are going to have liquor, we are going to have some other things with it—Clip Sheet.

Some people never worry about the future. It keeps them busy covering up their past.

When a fellow tells all he knows other people know more than he does.

Beauty, they say, is only skin deep, and some of it won't even stay on.

SILVER SETS 'EM WILD

Leadville—a new home, such as it was! Another general store, bacon a dollar a pound—coffee six dollars—flour $100 a barrel. Ought to pay, especially with Indians to trade with, and who doesn't know how to trade with Indians!

All the while he was prospecting, too. Going out with shovel, pick and pan. The luck even then was with him. In a few months he had washed out $7,000, the first of his vast fortune. He had a way of trusting anybody. Augusta disapproved, but what of that. The fates laughed with him the day he grub-staked two unknown Germans for provisions amounting to $64.75. The agreement was that he should receive one-third of all profits.

They looked for gold—but they found silver! Silver in such quantities that it netted Tabor over a million!

Haw became mayor of Leadville, as well as county treasurer and post-master. In spite of his million-dollar nest-egg he kept the general store. He bought what was supposed to have been a salted mine, but which turned out to be the richest one in the country. It made him twice over a millionaire.

Newspapers in New York and Chicago began to print stories about him and to use his picture. He wanted to build a city. Wanted to be Governor. Maybe President. "Lincoln was once poor," he often repeated.

One of the stories of the time was Tabor's reaction to Parson Tom Uzell's plea for $200 to buy two chandeliers for his church, which was about to be erected in "the heart of the Whiskey-guzzling city of ribaldry."

"Sure, parson, sure," said Tabor, diving into his pocket. "Will two be enough?" The parson said it would. "Well, I dunno," said Tabor. "The church has gotta make a lot more noise to be heard at all in this town! He handed the parson $500.00 and added with a twinkle, "Who's going to play them chandeliers?"

The town needed an auditorium. He hired a regiment of carpenters and in a month the Wigwam, seating 500, rose next to the O. K. Saloon.

Third Chapter of Silver Dollar starring Edward G. Robinson and Bebe Daniels to be shown at the Garden Theatre, Sunday, February 5th.

WE SHOULD NOT

When the Robertson law was passed the eastern companies had no substantial investment in Texas. Should that law be repealed would they make any substantial investments in Texas? Or, at the same time we repealed the Robertson law, would we also be required to repeal the homestead law?

Before we repeal a statute that is responsible for the investment in Texas of $225,000,000 should we not get some definite assurance that eastern companies thus favored (at the expense of Texas companies) were really ready and willing to invest their money here? Or should we repeal the Robertson law first, and then discover that the homestead law also must be thrown overboard?—Commer Texas Journal.

GOOD MEAT COURSE IS ESSENTIAL TO A SUCCESSFUL DINNER

By Durries Crane
Famed Hotel Food Manager
Have a good meat course for your dinner and any mistakes or oversights with regard to the other courses will be forgotten. For meat is the piece de resistance of the evening meal and must receive the most careful attention of a hotel chef preparing for thousands of the housewife getting dinner for her husband and children.

Meat has always been the most substantial diet of man since those primitive days when he went hunting with a sharp stick or a heavy stone and returned to his cave laden with game. And for this reason all other courses should revolve about this one and be subordinate to it. Many people eat meat only once a day but nearly everyone wants it for dinner.

The various kinds of meat are limited but the ways in which it can be prepared and served are as varied as the imagination of man can make them. Here are some of the popular meat dishes served at our hotels.

Baked Lamb Chops—Take two lamb chops and fry them in butter on both sides. Slice one onion and smother same in butter. Slice two potatoes, mix them with the onions, add salt, pepper and spices according to taste. Take a baking dish, put the chops at the bottom and cover them with the onions and potatoes mixed. Add half a water glass of broth and bake in oven for about thirty minutes.

Chicken Pot Pie Southern Style—Use a fat chicken, cut it up for frying and place in a large stewing pan with enough water to cover it, add salt and white pepper and boil very gently. When chicken is tender remove from broth and take all meat from the bones, put into a round chicken pie pan, placing dark meat on the bottom then a layer of cooked rice and last the white meat; to this add the broth, which has been slightly thickened with flour, with the following pastry leaving a hole in the center for steam to escape, brush with a beaten egg diluted with a little water; Pastry covering. One cup of flour, three tablespoonful of chicken fat, one-half teaspoonful of fat. By the chicken fat we mean that which is taken from the top of the broth when cold. Butter can be used (two tablespoonful) in place of the fat. If the broth is not rich enough add one tablespoonful of butter. This is never necessary with a fat chicken. Cover the top chicken fat. Pastry must stand over night.

Pot Au Feu New Yorker—One fowl, four and a half pounds; three pounds of beef short ribs; vegetables; new carrots, turnips, cabbage, small onions, boiled potatoes, leek and celery. Cooking time: two and a half hours. Served for five portions in Petite Marmite, marrow, bones and chives, cheese and crusts.

Where Does She Get Her "Pep?"

SHE doesn't look seventy. Nor feel that old. The woman who stimulates her organs can have energy that women half her age will envy!

At middle-age your vital organs begin to slow down. You may not be sick, simply sluggish. But why endure a condition of half-health when there's a stimulant that will stir a stagnant system to new life and energy in a week's time?

This remarkable stimulant is perfectly harmless. It is, in fact, a family doctor's prescription. So, if you're tired of trying every patent medicine that comes along, tell the druggist you want a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a bit of this delicious syrup every day or so, until you know by the way you feel that your lazy liver is again active, and your bowels are poison-free.

Men, women, and children who are run-down, who tire easily, get bilious spells or have frequent headaches, are soon straightened out when they get this prescription: preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh laxative herbs. (Syrup pepsin is all the help the bowels need, and you do not form the very bad habit of always taking cathartics.)

Keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin in the house, and take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. It is all that a great many people ever take to keep strong and vigorous, and absolutely free from constipation.
