Farmer's Sales-Trades Day Next Monday. Eleven Cash Prizes; Free Auctioneering

On Monday, February 6th., Sudan will hold its first Farmer's Sales-Trades Day. Eleven bargains will be offered by cash prizes and many special merchants for that day.

In sponsoring Farmers' Sales-Trades Day the merchants of Sudan are rendering another service to the people of this community in which all should profit. A regular one a month barter day for the community is intended and with cooperation of the folks in the Sudan territory, this will become a reality.

Free auctioneering, free grounds for parking machinery and free room space for other items will be furnished. This is a good time to gather up those useless items around the place and bring them in and put them where other people can see them. The item that has become useless to you may be the one needed by the other fellow and vice versa.

Sudan is doing all that is within her power to render the folks of this service that will be of mutual benefit.

Bring whatever you have for sale or want to trade and you will find what you want here on next Monday, February 6th.

"LIVING AT HOME"

A visit by the editor and Mrs. Weimhold, daughter George, and Margaret Hunt, to the Briscoe farm northwest of town proved conclusively that Mr. and Mrs. Bill Briscoe are 'living at home'. Bill displayed five big porkers that had been salted down, hams, bacon and sausage. Fine lot of chickens, cows and hogs in the barn lot and plenty of good feed stacked near by. Mr. Briscoe has seven head of work stock that will average 1400; they are fat and ready to go to work this week. Wan'sham, hsc e

Members of Taxpayers' League Fill House to Overflowing Tuesday Night at Friendship

Members of Sudan District Tax Payers' League turned out en masse last Tuesday night and crowded Friendship Church to its capacity.

Chairman V. C. Nelson presided and after some terse and timely introductory remarks called on any and all to have their say. V. C. Terry presented some facts with reference to the conduct and expense of our school system and showed how many economies could be effected.

Edw. N. Ray made a talk in which he dwelled on the school system's bonded indebtedness. Mr. Ray said he was emphatically opposed to all bond issues for whatever purpose. He was heartily in favor of the movement for economy and lower taxes.

G. R. Crim pointed to the fact that in instances in the Littlefield district taxes had been reduced fifty per cent the past year and said he saw no reason why Sudan could not have equalled this reduction.

Mr. Dent told the audience that he had just paid his school tax in Olton and was agreeably surprised that the valuation of his farm in that district, one of the very best and well improved, was fixed at $25.00 per acre. If Olton, with no railroad, high lines, wholesale establishments, or other public taxable properties could hold its valuations down to $25.00 per acre, why not Sudan, where many such properties are being taxed? And, said Mr. Dent, "the schools of Olton seem to be holding their own very well when compared to ours. One of the trustees over there advised me that further cutting would take place for this year."

Mr. W. G. Lenderson told the audience that talking time was past and time for action was here. The taxpayers had neglected to look after their business when they failed to elect the proper men to the board. "The action of the board in managing the school business seemed to him like petty larceny" when we take into consideration that the lowest priced teacher pockets more money than five farmers and their families have been able to eke out of their year's efforts.

C. B. Alexander said he joined heartily in the move to lower taxes as it was impossible to pay them on the present basis.

Several others spoke, it was the opinion of all that something must be done to lift us out of our debt burden, and that taxes were the first point of attack.

At the meeting two weeks previous a committee on resolutions and recommendations was appointed and the committee reported the following:

To The Trustees of Sudan Independent School District:
GENTLEMEN:--We, the members of the Taxpayers' League of Sudan Independent School District, representing 90 per cent of the taxpayers thereof, and including in our organization practically all individual farmers as well as the holders of large land interests--Wilson & Furneaux, James Estate, J. B. James, T. B. Newsome, Martin Estate, Kail & Owen, Dr. King, J. C. Whaley, and others--beg leave to make the following suggestions and recommendations:

Knowing full well that our farming income has been reduced by 75 per cent to 80 per cent, and that it now requires four to five dollars' worth of farm products to pay one dollar of debt or taxes, and that we are no longer able to pay taxes on high valuations, we appeal to your body for speedy and equitable relief.

The pleadings of many of our members last spring to members of your board and before your board of equalization for material reductions in valuations were ignored and your budget fixed according to your probable needs. It must be and should have been evident to all that during depressed times like these the annual school budget must be based on the taxpayers' ability to pay.

While we, individually and collectively, are in favor of good schools, and have proved our belief in education by cheerful contribution of high taxes for school purposes in prosperous years gone by, the time is here now when school expenditures must be reduced and your body in directing the affairs of our schools, should realize the need and importance of effecting such reductions.

The one great plea in behalf of maintaining present school standards is that we must maintain all our school credits and affiliations. In answer we say that in times like these affiliation, which benefits perhaps less than five per cent of the graduates of our schools, is of far less importance than the saving of the farmer's equity of homes, than the health and welfare of the farmer's family--that to clothe and feed the wife and children is of first importance and stands as the first duty of the farmer and taxpayer. And when this primary duty is performed there is nothing left of the farmer's present income.

In view of these facts, and in order that some who may be able to pay taxes may be induced to do so speedily, we recommend that your Board lower the land valuation for 1932 to $25.00 per acre on improved land, and $20.00 per acre on land without improvements. For 1933 the valuation should be lowered more. This would be no discrimination against those who have already paid, since most of them took advantage of the 5 per cent discount and in many instances they paid with vouchers heavily discounted. And they were able to pay or would not have done so.

We further recommend that your board do not engage any teachers or enter into any obligations for the year 1933-34 until after the April school election. Democratic practice is that the outgoing officers do not obligate incoming administrations. It is a long time until next fall, and mistakes made now might not be easily remedied eight months from now.

We do not wish to appear dictatorial, but it should be remembered that this is our school district and our school business. The trustees are elected to carry out the will of the taxpayers, and when ever any member of the board loses sight of this fact he ceases his usefulness and perverts his function as a school trustee.

The foregoing recommendations were unanimously endorsed and passed by the meeting and the committee instructed to forward a copy thereof to your Board.

A motion was passed that the meeting select a nominating committee of three, who should canvass the situation for three candidates for trustees, to be placed in nomination by the league at its next meeting at Friendship church, Tuesday evening, Feb. 13. T. Fife, Edw. N. Ray, F. W. Dent were named as the committee. All taxpayers are invited to attend the meeting.--Reporter. All taxpayers are invited to attend the meeting.--Reporter.

HAVE BUILT DISPLAY COUNTER AT LUMBER CO.

Reed Markham, manager, and Howard Clements, assistant, of the Foxworth-Garbraith Lumber company, have built a unique display counter for displaying small items of bolts, hooks, screws, etc. The counter display is so arranged that a customer can see at a glance the item which is wanted, items which are usually kept in boxes under the counter. The new counter is a salesman within itself, and will no doubt be the means of selling many more of these items.

This isn't all, these men have done, in the way of improving the system for better service--Mr. Markham designed a file record, had the News print the forms, and Roy Hammock made the cabinet. This system is an improvement over the former method of keeping a file of accounts.

FULCHER MOVING TO FARM IN FRIENDSHIP COMMUNITY

According to report received by County Agent D. A. Adam, Ansel had a yield of 553 pound of lint per acre and a return on his labor and investment of $239.54 on his 6 and 2.5 acres.

The records were judged on yield, profit, story of demonstration, and the effect of the demonstration in his community.

DON'T FORGET SILVER

In the welter of debate over unemployment, the war debts, tariffs, prohibition and similar subjects, we have lost sight of one major problem—that of silver.

World recovery and rehabilitation of silver are inseparable. Precisely as ruinous silver prices helped bring on world depression, so can fair silver prices help bring back world prosperity.

Business leaders and industrial organizations are continually stressing the need for an international silver conference that will produce results. So are political leaders of both parties. It's time for action.

WIDOW ASSUMES SHERIFF'S POST

Mrs. J. C. Moseley was appointed sheriff of Swisher County, Texas, on Wednesday by the Commissioners' Court to fill the unexpired term of her late husband who was killed last Monday night as he surprised robbers in the act of hi-jacking a filling station in Tulia. He went alone to endeavor to arrest the burglars and was instantly killed by them.

The fatal exchange of shots took place in front of a filling station at the eastern terminus of Tulia's main street, after a running battle through the business district from the northern outskirts of the town. Mosley was found in his bullet-riddled car, shot through the head, apparently from close range.

You'll say: "Whoa, Engine! what's got into you?"

Here's gas to excite motors. It makes them quick on the trigger . . . fast on the move. Choking is hardly required for a quick, snappy start and a take-off like a quail on the wing.

Even old motors . . . wheezy, snorting, complaining motors . . . cut capers you just can't believe. If you doubt it, just try it. It's like rich, racing blood injected into old veins.

This gasoline is so new . . . so "different" . . . so quick, fast, powerful, and economical, it's hard to give it a name. Perhaps YOU can. When you FEEL your motor's response, it may come to you like a flash.

Ask at any Conoco station for the new bronze-colored, high-test gasoline—and an entry blank. Help name it and describe it. You may win a part of $10,000.00. You are SURE to win a grand, new thrill, and that is worth a heap. Make the test TODAY.

The English Department
 The English Department of the Sudan High School reaches every pupil. The four years that the students are enrolled have English as a prescribed subject. Since all the pupils are required to take English, it requires more teachers to carry on the work. Mr. Branch is head of the department of English and his assistants are Miss. Hayes and Miss. Wilson. The latter two teachers also have other subjects on their daily program.

It has been the aim of the English department to carry out the aims and objectives of the state requirements. Two years ago, Miss Trantnam and her classes in Senior English succeeded in getting the affiliation for English IV. We are very proud of this accomplishment and hope to keep the standard up.

The aims of the English course as outlined in the English bulletin number 241 are to get our pupils to achieve for themselves these seven points:

1. The habit of spelling correctly the words in their writing vocabularies.
2. The habit of writing and speaking, without conscious effort, English which is grammatically correct.
3. The habit of using, in writing or in public address, complete sentences, and of the connecting these sentences so as to develop and give to someone else a group of ideas on a particular subject.
4. The habit of reading aloud in such a way as to cause the class to listen with pleasure.
5. The habit of reaching for ideas and for enjoyment, literature of the better sort.
6. The habit of understanding and enjoying good English in the speech and writing of others.
7. The habit of thinking definitely upon worth-while subjects.

The work is reported in two large units: grammar and composition, the first semester and mostly literature the second semester. Composition is still emphasized during the second semester. This unifies the work for the two periods. While a subject or division is being taught enough time should be given to make the impressions lasting and to give mastery in the fundamentals. It allows the proper position of the time elements to the three main divisions of the course: Composition, grammar, and literature. Much repetition is avoided when this plan is followed.

The unit plan of teaching is very much encouraged in our system. By the unit plan is meant the consecutive study of one group or block of work for a number of weeks. This keeps interest in the work because of the variety of units taught. When the unit is finished, the pupils are eager to study a new block of work.

Teachers in other departments of our school cooperate with the English teachers in the teaching of English. The mathematics and the science teachers foster good English by requiring their students to bring up neat papers following the manuscript form used in the English department. The history, language, Home Economics, and commercial teachers all require papers which measure up to the standard of the English teachers. This is an attitude of pride for good plain English shown by the entire faculty in their recitation, written and oral requirements. The use of bad English should never be permitted in conversation.

Athletics
 The senior girls won the County Basket Ball Tournament this week end by defeating Spade 36-23 and by defeating Littlefield 35-34, only one point. This surely was an interesting game; everyone had to fight for it.

The senior boys won a game over Bula Friday night by a score of 33-17.
 The grade school girls are still playing but Miss Branch has chosen a new first team since her high seventh has moved over to high school. She has chosen a group of new players from the new low seventh. These girls are anxious to start volleyball. The other grade school girls are playing base ball.

Results of Basket Ball Games
 The results of the week-end basket ball games were entirely satisfactory. The boys winning from Buia and the girls won county championship; they played their last game Saturday night against their old rival, Littlefield. That game was one of the most exciting games during the last two years. Our girls started off with a lead of six or eight points but at the end of half the score stood twenty-one to fifteen in favor of Littlefield. However our team still had that old fighting spirit which is necessary to win and come back the last half with a determination to win the game. The scores were soon almost even and remained nearly so until the final close which gave our girls one point lead.

It is expected that the four countys namely Lamb, Cockrun, Bailey and Hockley will decide the winner in a tournament to be played probably next week and the place is to be agreed upon by the school that is interested.
 We note that much interest is being manifested on both basket ball teams and will appreciate your support and presence at these games.
 The preparation of the inter-scholastic league meet will begin when our basket ball season is over.
 Several have visited our school recently and observed the work of both pupils and teachers. We invite you to visit our school. Assembly programs are given every Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock and we feel that the patrons will enjoy being here at that time.
Assembly Meeting
 Our last assembly meeting was sponsored by the Juniors. Robert Hawkins played two numbers on the french harp, and Brother Thomas preached an appropriate sermon on "The Selection of Vocations." This sermon was a great inspiration to all for that is why we are striving for an education. We are not going to school just to be able to say we "graduated from school," but to make men and women out of ourselves, then be ready for the future. Come, let us all think seriously, for now is the time to prepare ourselves for our vocations and hardships in life.
Boy Scout News
 Troop 39 of Sudan has been doing some very fine work the past year. To begin with, the local boy scout movement had not found its proper aim for a working basis until the year was well under way. The boys did not quite understand the "why" and "how" of scouting. It took sometime to teach them the ideals and purposes of boy scout work. However, when they began to see the real purpose of the order, they set about to carry out the aims and objectives set by the National headquarters at the New York City.

The president of the boy scouts is Mr. James E. West. Mr. West was reared an orphan boy in New York City. As a child, he was a cripple. He always longed to see a movement for the fostering of good habits, ideals, and recreation for boys. Although president of the Boy Scouts of America, he finds time to edit "Boys Life" for all boys, but especially for boy scouts.

The scouts of Sudan have before them the oath and laws of the boy scouts which they try to follow every day of their lives. Besides the moral training which they get, they find the recreation is very wholesome and the education most valuable. The tests are made for the boy within the range of his thoughts and ideas.

The boy scouts are always prepared to do a good turn to some one every day. They do not take pay for such courtesies. In our school, the best boys are always found to be boy scouts. It is strictly a select group under an organized plan of procedure. It is developing leadership, honesty, and dependability. What better traits can one find for the training of citizenship.

The latest achievement of the Sudan boy scout troop is meeting all the requirement of President Hoovers' four year program of Scouting. Troop 39 was the first in the Lubbock area to receive this rating. During Boy Scout Anniversary, President Hoover will mail our troop a miniature of President of the United States steamer.

It is, of course, a very small white steamer which the troop will have on display soon. The anniversary is February 6th to 14th.
 Troop 39 now has 27 members. It is full, but boys who wish to join when a vacancy occurs may have their names put on a waiting list which the scout master keeps.

Girl Scout News

The girl scouts and their sponsor urge more girls to join as this will be a character building organization and also they promise a lively good time to everyone.

BUILT UPON SOLID ROCK--

Banks are a part of the economic blood and sinew of all community life. Without banks commerce and industry could not carry on, nor contribute to the economic welfare of the people.

In times of prosperity unusual demands upon financial institutions are few; therefore their stability is considered a matter of fact. But when conditions drop to normal or below—'tis then the fundamental soundness and foundation strength of a bank is tested.

This institution was built upon solid rock and built to stand the test of both good times and bad times. With adequate resources it stands today a distinctive power in the promotion of community progress. Make this bank your bank.

Members of Taxpayers' League Fill House to Overflowing Tuesday Night at Friendship

Members of Sudan District Tax Payers' League turned out en masse last Tuesday night and crowded Friendship Church to its capacity.

Chairman V. C. Nelson presided and after some terse and timely introductory remarks called on any and all to have their say. V. C. Terry presented some facts with reference to the conduct and expense of our school system and showed how many economies could be effected.

Edw. N. Ray made a talk in which he dwelled on the school system's bonded indebtedness. Mr. Ray said he was emphatically opposed to all bond issues for whatever purpose. He was heartily in favor of the movement for economy and lower taxes.

G. R. Crim pointed to the fact that in instances in the Littlefield district taxes had been reduced fifty per cent the past year and said he saw no reason why Sudan could not have equalled this reduction.

Mr. Dent told the audience that he had just paid his school tax in Olton and was agreeably surprised that the valuation of his farm in that district, one of the very best and well improved, was fixed at $25.00 per acre. If Olton, with no railroad, high lines, wholesale establishments, or other public taxable properties could hold its valuations down to $25.00 per acre, why not Sudan, where many such properties are being taxed? And, said Mr. Dent, "the schools of Olton seem to be holding their own very well when compared to ours. One of the trustees over there advised me that further cutting would take place for this year."

Mr. W. G. Lenderson told the audience that talking time was past and time for action was here. The taxpayers had neglected to look after their business when they failed to elect the proper men to the board. "The action of the board in managing the school business seemed to him like petty larceny" when we take into consideration that the lowest priced teacher pockets more money than five farmers and their families have been able to eke out of their year's efforts.

C. B. Alexander said he joined heartily in the move to lower taxes as it was impossible to pay them on the present basis. Several others spoke, it was the opinion of all that something must be done to lift us out of our debt burden, and that taxes were the first point of attack.

At the meeting two weeks previous a committee on resolutions and recommendations was appointed and the committee reported the following:

To The Trustees Of Sudan Independent School District: GENTLEMEN:--We, the members of the Taxpayers' League of Sudan Independent School District, representing 90 per cent of the taxpayers thereof, and including in our organization practically all individual farmers as well as the holders of large land interests--Wilson & Furneaux, James Estate, J. B. James, T. B. Newsome, Martin Estate, Kall & Owen, Dr. King, J. C. Whaley, and others--beg leave to make the following suggestions and recommendations:

Knowing full well that our farming income has been reduced by 75 per cent to 80 per cent, and that it now requires four to five dollars' worth of farm products to pay one dollar of debt or taxes, and that we are no longer able to pay taxes on high valuations, we appeal to your body for speedy and equitable relief.

The pleadings of many of our members last spring to members of your board and before your board of equalization for material reductions in valuations were ignored and your budget fixed according to your probable needs. It must be and should have been evident to all that during depressed times like these the annual school budget must be based on the taxpayers' ability to pay.

While we, individually and collectively, are in favor of good schools, and have proved our belief in education by cheerful contribution of high taxes for school purposes in prosperous years gone by, the time is here now when school expenditures must be reduced and your body in directing the affairs of our schools, should realize the need and importance of effecting such reductions.

The one great plea in behalf of maintaining present school standards is that we must maintain all our school credits and affiliations. In answer we say that in times like these affiliation, which benefits perhaps less than five per cent of the graduates of our schools, is of far less importance than the saving of the farmers' equity of homes, than the health and welfare of the farmer's family--that to clothe and feed the wife and children is of first importance and stands as the first duty of the farmer and taxpayer. And when this primary duty is performed there is nothing left of the farmer's present income.

In view of these facts, and in order that some who may be able to pay taxes may be induced to do so speedily, we recommend that your Board lower the land valuation for 1932 to $25.00 per acre on improved land, and $20.00 per acre on land without improvements. For 1933 the valuation should be lowered more. This would be no discrimination against those who have already paid, since most of them took advantage of the 5 per cent discount and in many instances they paid with vouchers heavily discounted. And they were able to pay or would not have done so.

We further recommend that your board do not engage any teachers or enter into any obligations for the year 1933-34 until after the April school election. Democratic practice is that the outgoing officers do not obligate incoming administrations. It is a long time until next fall, and mistakes made now might not be easily remedied eight months from now.

We do not wish to appear dictatorial, but it should be remembered that this is our school district and our school business. The trustees are elected to carry out the will of the taxpayers, and when ever any member of the board loses sight of this fact he ceases his usefulness and perverts his function as a school trustee.

The foregoing recommendations were unanimously endorsed and passed by the meeting and the committee instructed to forward a copy thereof to your Board.

A motion was passed that the meeting select a nominating committee of three, who should canvass the situation for three candidates for trustees, to be placed in nomination by the league at its next meeting at Friendship church, Tuesday evening, Feb. 13. T. Fife, Edw. N. Ray, F. W. Dent were named as the committee. All taxpayers are invited to attend the meeting.--Reporter. All taxpayers are invited to attend the meeting.--Reporter.

HAVE BUILT DISPLAY COUNTER AT LUMBER CO.

Reed Markham, manager, and Howard Clements, assistant, of the Foxworth-Garbraith Lumber company, have built a unique display counter for displaying small items of bolts, hooks, screws, etc. The counter display is so arranged that a customer can see at a glance the item which is wanted, items which are usually kept in boxes under the counter. The new counter is a salesman within itself, and will no doubt be the means of selling many more of these items.

This isn't all, these men have done, in the way of improving the system for better service--Mr. Markham designed a file record, had the News print the forms, and Roy Hammock made the cabinet. This system is an improvement over the former method of keeping a file of accounts.

FULCHER MOVING TO FARM IN FRIENDSHIP COMMUNITY

DON'T FORGET SILVER

In the welter of debate over unemployment, the war debts, tariffs, prohibition and similar subjects, we have lost sight of one major problem—that of silver.

World recovery and rehabilitation of silver are inseparable. Precisely as ruinous silver prices helped bring on world depression, so can fair silver prices help bring back world prosperity.

Business leaders and industrial organizations are continually stressing the need for an international silver conference that will produce results. So are political leaders of both parties. It's time for action.

WIDOW ASSUMES SHERIFF'S POST

Mrs. J. C. Moseley was appointed sheriff of Swisher County, Texas, on Wednesday by the Commissioners' Court to fill the unexpired term of her late husband who was killed last Monday night as he surprised robbers in the act of hi-jacking a filling station in Tullia. He went alone to endeavor to arrest the burglars and was instantly killed by them.

The fatal exchange of shots took place in front of a filling station at the eastern terminus of Tullia's main street, after a running battle through the business district from the northern outskirts of the town. Mosley was found in his bullet-riddled car, shot through the head, apparently from close range.

RULES:

- 1 Names must be not more than 12 letters; slogans not more than 12 words. Submit either or both on single sheet; plain white paper; one side only; but preferably on official contest information-and-entry blank, free at Conoco dealers and stations. Elaborate presentations receive no extra credit.
- 2 Contest closes midnight February 23, 1933. Entries must be postmarked before that date and hour.
- 3 Continental employees, members of their families and others connected directly or indirectly cannot compete.
- 4 Should more than one person submit exactly the same name or slogan, each will receive full amount of any prize such entry may win. All entries become Continental Oil Co. property, and none will be returned.
- 5 The Company reserves prior rights to phrases and slogans of its own creation, already in prepared advertising. Also it reserves the names "Continental" or "Conoco" gasoline, "Conogas", and "101" gasoline. Whether or not the winning contest name is adopted, prize money will be paid; but the Company reserves the right to use a name of its own creation if decided more suitable and more protectable under trade-mark laws.
- 6 No purchase is required of contestants. Continental Oil Co. executives will be the judges and their decisions final. Winners will be announced over radio, and prize money paid as soon as possible after contest closes. Address All Entries to "CONTEST OFFICIAL" Continental Oil Company Ponca City, Okla.

You'll say:

"Whoa, Engine! what's got into you?"

Here's gas to excite motors. It makes them quick on the trigger . . . fast on the move. Choking is hardly required for a quick, snappy start and a take-off like a quail on the wing.

Even old motors . . . wheezy, snorting, complaining motors . . . cut capers you just can't believe. If you doubt it, just try it. It's like rich, racing blood injected into old veins.

This gasoline is so new . . . so "different" . . . so quick, fast, powerful, and economical, it's hard to give it a name. Perhaps YOU can. When you FEEL your motor's response, it may come to you like a flash.

Ask at any Conoco station for the new bronze-colored, high-test gasoline—and an entry blank. Help name it and describe it. You may win a part of $10,000.00. You are SURE to win a grand, new thrill, and that is worth a heap. Make the test TODAY.

The English Department
 The English Department of the Sudan High School reaches every pupil. The four years that the students are enrolled have English as a prescribed subject. Since all the pupils are required to take English, it requires more teachers to carry on the work. Mr. Branch is head of the department of English and his assistants are Miss Reeves and Miss Wilson. The latter two teachers also have other subjects on their daily program.

It has been the aim of the English department to carry out the aims and objectives of the state requirements. Two years ago, Miss Trantham and her classes in Senior English succeeded in getting the attention for English IV. We are very proud of this accomplishment and hope to keep the standard up.

The aims of the English course as outlined in the English bulletin number 241 are to get our pupils to achieve for themselves these seven points.

1. The habits of spelling correctly the words in their own writing vocabularies.
2. The habit of writing and speaking, without conscious effort, English which is grammatically correct.
3. The habit of using, in writing or in public address, complete sentences, and of the connecting these sentences so as to develop and give to someone else a group of ideas on a particular subject.
4. The habit of reading aloud in such a way as to cause the class to listen with pleasure.
5. The habit of reaching for ideas and for enjoyment, literature of the better sort.
6. The habit of understanding and enjoying good English in the speech and writing of others.
7. The habit of thinking definitely upon worth-while subjects.

The work is reported in two large units: grammar and composition, the first semester and mostly literature the second semester. Composition is still emphasized during the second semester. This unifies the work for the two periods. While a subject or division is being taught enough time should be given to make the impressions lasting and to give mastery in the fundamentals. It allows the proper position of the time elements to the three main divisions of the course: Composition, grammar, and literature. Much repetition is avoided when this plan is followed.

The unit plan of teaching is very much encouraged in our system. By the unit plan is meant the consecutive study of one group or block of work for a number of weeks. This keeps up interest in the work because of the variety of units taught. When the unit is finished, the pupils are eager to study a new block of work.

Teachers in other departments of our school cooperate with the English teachers in the teaching of English. The mathematics and the science teachers foster good English by requiring their students to bring up neat papers following the manuscript form used in the English department. The history, language, Home Economics, and commercial teachers all require papers which measure up to the standard of the English teachers. This is an attitude of pride for good plain English shown by the entire faculty in their recitation, written and oral requirements. The use of bad English should never be permitted in conversation.

Athletics

The senior girls won the County Basketball Tournament this week end by defeating Spade 36-23 and by defeating Littlefield 35-34, only one point. This surely was an interesting game; everyone had to fight for it.

The senior boys won a game over Bula Friday night by a score of 33-17.

The grade school girls are still playing but Miss Branch has chosen a new first team since her high seventh has moved over to high school. She has chosen a group of new players from the new low seventh. These girls are anxious to start volleyball. The other grade school girls are playing base ball.

Results of Basket Ball Games

The results of the week-end basket ball games were entirely satisfactory. The boys winning from Bula and the girls won county championship; they played their last game Saturday night against their old rival, Littlefield. That game was one of the most exciting games during the last two years. Our girls started off with a lead of six or eight points but at the end of half the score stood twenty-one to fifteen in favor of Littlefield. However our team still had that old fighting spirit which is necessary to win and come back the last half with a determination to win the game. The scores were soon almost even and remained nearly so until the final close which gave our girls one point lead.

It is expected that the four counties namely Lamb, Cockrun, Bailey and Hockley will decide the winner in a tournament to be played probably next week and the place is to be agreed upon by the school that is interested.

We note that much interest is being manifested on both basket ball teams and will appreciate your support and presence at these games.

The preparation of the inter-scholastic league meet will begin when our basket ball season is over.

Several have visited our school recently and observed the work of both pupils and teachers. We invite you to visit our school. Assembly programs are given every Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock and we feel that the patrons will enjoy being here at that time.

Assembly Meeting

Our last assembly meeting was sponsored by the Juniors. Robert Hawkins played two numbers on the french harp, and Brother Thomas preached an appropriate sermon on "The Selection of Vocations." This sermon was a great inspiration to all for that is why we are striving for an education. We are not going to school just to be able to say we "graduated from school," but to make men and women out of ourselves, then be ready for the future. Come, let us all think seriously, for now is the time to prepare ourselves for our vocations and hardships in life.

Boy Scout News

Troop 39 of Sudan has been doing some very fine work the past year. To begin with, the local boy scout movement had not found its proper aim for a working basis until the year was well under way. The boys did not quite understand the "why" and "how" of scouting. It took sometime to teach them the ideals and purposes of boy scout work. However, when they began to see the real purpose of the order, they set about to carry out the aims and objectives set by the National headquarters at the New York City.

The president of the boy scouts is Mr. James E. West. Mr. West was reared an orphan boy in New York City. As a child, he was a cripple. He always longed to see a movement for the fostering of good habits, ideals, and recreation for boys. Although president of the Boy Scouts of America, he finds time to edit "Boys Life" for all boys, but especially for boy scouts.

The scouts of Sudan have before them the oath and laws of the boy scouts which they try to follow every day of their lives. Besides the moral training which they get, they find the recreation is very wholesome and the education most valuable. The tests are made for the boy within the range of his thoughts and ideas.

The boy scouts are always prepared to do a good turn to some one every day. They do not take pay for such courtesies. In our school, the best boys are always found to be boy scouts. It is strictly a select group under an organized plan of procedure. It is developing leadership, honesty, and dependability. What better traits can one find for the training of citizenship.

The latest achievement of the Sudan boy scout troop is meeting all the requirement of President Hoover's four year program of Scouting. Troop 39 was the first in the Lubbock area to receive this rating. During Boy Scout Anniversary, President Hoover will mail our troop a miniature of President of the United States steamer. It is, of course, a very small white steamer which the troop will have on display soon. The anniversary is February 6th to 14th.

Troop 39 now has 27 members. It is full, but boys who wish to join when a vacancy occurs may have their names put on a waiting list which the scout master keeps.

Girl Scout News

Miss Branch and Mrs. Johnson organized a Girl Scout Troop last Thursday night, January 28. Mrs. Moore and Miss Bobo were elected as additional sponsors. The group was divided into two troops for the present: Miss Branch and Miss Bobo direct high school girls, and Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Johnson direct grade school girls. The girl scouts and their sponsor urge more girls to join as this will be a character building organization and also they promise a lively good time to everyone.

Monday night is the regular meeting time from now on.

BUILT UPON SOLID ROCK---

Banks are a part of the economic blood and sinew of all community life. Without banks commerce and industry could not carry on, nor contribute to the economic welfare of the people.

In times of prosperity unusual demands upon financial institutions are few; therefore their stability is considered a matter of fact. But when conditions drop to normal or below—'tis then the fundamental soundness and foundation strength of a bank is tested.

This institution was built upon solid rock and built to stand the test of both good times and bad times. With adequate resources it stands today a distinctive power in the promotion of community progress. Make this bank your bank.
