

ROAMING THRU RANGER WITH RON...

By Ronald Waters

DON BUTLER, assistant chief of police, is on a two week's vacation, but don't know where he went.

LET'S GET THIS STRAIGHT - If your name ends in "ie"—it's feminine, if it ends in "ey" or "y"—it's masculine.

I advised spelling CHARLIE GARRET'S name as long as possible, compromising with Charles. But no one seemed to know a Charles Garrett.

RONNIE DASKEVICH is also spelling his name incorrectly and I should know!

It's a relief to see that JIMMY ROBINSON spells his name right, and so does JIMMIE MAE MILLER. Also—JIMMY HOGAN, TEDDY NEELEY (who also spells it Teddie), and BILLY JOE JOHNSON. Ooops! I found another one—CHARLIE DE LOS SANTOS.

You probably can guess where I saw some of the names in the above paragraph.

RANGER IN 1939—almost 20 years ago this month—was a bustling, busy city with many fine businesses. A special issue of the TIMES, "Commemorating the Birth of Ranger and its Forceful Power of Progress" is quite interesting.

At that time, HALL WALKER was mayor of Ranger and A. N. LARSON was president of the chamber of commerce. P. E. MOORE was secretary and manager of the chamber.

In this issue, celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Times, there is an ad which indicates that dining and dancing occurred at Peacock Club in Cisco, then hailed as "The Playground of West Texas."

W. T. WALTON was president of Ranger Junior College and H. L. BASKIN was dean.

BILL BOURDEAU was building here, then, having served Ranger for almost 20 years at that time.

At BRAD'S CAFE you could get a quick business lunch for 25 cents. The Prompt Printing Co. insurance then, as was C. E. MAY, SR.

MADDOCKS & CO. was selling insurance then, as was C. E. MAY, LLOYD BRUCE was president of Lions Club and A. J. Ratliff was vice president.

The ROY McLESKEY service station was one of the newest in town at that time. JACK WILLIAMS was painting signs at Jack's Sign Shop. Chickenburgers were advertised at 15 cents each at Porky Pig.

RANGER COLLEGE enrollment was 103 in 1939, as compared with 71 in 1937-38.

H. H. VAUGHN operated a service station, where cool fiber seat covers sold for as low as $1.89.

I could go on and on—but you'll be hearing more about this special edition later.

BIG NEW HOME FOR THE DODGERS—Aerial view of the Los Angeles Coliseum shows the record opening-day crowd of 78,672 who watched the Los Angeles (nee Brooklyn) Dodgers defeat the San Francisco (New York) Giants, 6-5. The crowd eclipsed the old opening-day mark of 73,168 set in 1948 at Cleveland when the Indians played the St. Louis Browns.

175 Expected At Youth Rally

About 175 persons are expected to attend the associational youth rally to be held this Saturday at the New Hope Baptist Church, four miles west of Gorman, at 7:30 p.m.

An evangelistic message will be brought by Rev. Ed Jackson, pastor at Rising Star, and Jesse Sutton, of the First Baptist Church of Ranger, will lead the singing.

Held on the first Saturday of every month, the youth rallies are sponsored by the Cisco Baptist Association.

Pony League Standings To Appear Here

Pony League standings will start their appearance in the "Ranger Times", as soon as arrangements are completed with league officials in Cisco.

A telephone call with J. D. White, secretary of the league in Cisco, Wednesday disclosed that league standings would be made available to this newspaper about once a week.

Standings will apply for both junior and senior leagues from Moran, Albany, Eastland, Clyde, Rising Star, Cisco, Baird and Ranger.

Precinct Convention Line-Up Is Revealed

Precinct conventions in Eastland County will be held at the usual hour again this year.

The County Democratic Executive Committee has set the time at 2 p.m. on the day of the first primary election, July 24.

Conventions will be held in each of the 25 voting precincts in the county, near the polling place.

Delegates to the County Convention, which will be held the first Saturday after the primary election, August 2, are elected at precinct conventions. Each precinct is entitled to one delegate for each 25 votes in the precinct.

Resolutions on party policy or platforms may also be passed at precinct conventions, and a vote on preference for party nominees can be held. Usually it is decided if delegates to the county convention will vote as a unit or individually, too.

Using the number of votes cast for Price Daniel for Governor in the November, 1956 election, a check shows there could be 175 authorized delegates at the Eastland County Convention. Voting in the last general election was heavier than usual because of interest in the Presidential election.

Here are the county's 25 voting places where precinct conventions will be held with the number of authorized delegates in parentheses. (Continued On Page Two)

Clothing Will Be Distributed Here Saturday

Clothing will be distributed to Ranger and area people who need it this Saturday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the Child Welfare store located on Main St.

Earlier reports indicated that the Child Welfare Club was overstocked on used clothing.

Fire Damages Tourist Court

Considerable damage was caused by a fire at Wallace Tourist Courts, about two and one-half miles east on Highway 80 Tuesday night at 11:50.

Volunteer firemen rushed to the scene to find a burning cabinet that also damaged the roof. An estimate of damages was unavailable late Wednesday.

Teen Town Sings Tonight At 8

A singing party, planned by teen agers, will be held at Teen Town tonight at 8.

Groups and individuals will provide the entertainment. Solo and ensemble singing will be encouraged. Performances of all types will take place, Homer Perry said.

Democrat's Rally Set in Eastland

A Democratic Candidate's Rally will be held Friday, June 27, in the Eastland City Park at 8 p.m. Candidates from Eastland County have been invited to attend.

Sponsored by the Eastland County Home Demonstration Council, a sale of homemade ice cream, cakes, pies, sandwiches, and cold drinks will be held at 7 p.m. Entertainment will be provided.

Notice - All Dogs! Get Your Masters Down for City Tags

By a Hound Dog
Dog days are here again! And now is the time for all good dogs to get vaccinated for rabies, because if they don't, the big bad dog catcher will do his duty, beginning Monday.

This is to officially notify all dogs of all sizes, shapes and descriptions that it is time to get your master (or mistress) down to Hodges Veterinary Clinic on Spring Rd.—so you can be vaccinated. If your master resists—bite him.

Because it's you, fellow mongrels, who will have to suffer, and not your master. We should form an organization called Dogs United to Prevent Rabies.

The decree has come from City Manager Les Crossley, stating that the Ranger City Ordinance will be enforced, again, this summer. Vaccination certificates can be brought down to the city office where tags will be issued. Fees are set at $1 for males and $2 for females. Now you, hounds, will be interested in knowing that the discrimination is made... "because females cause so much more trouble". All of which proves that it's still a man's (Ooops! I mean dog's) world.

Sneaking up on us... poodles, with a long neck and pole, will be Buck Edwards. He's the one who did such a good job of catching stray hounds last year.

Caught cousin Susie and Uncle Rasputin. Served them right for barking their fool heads off all night and chasing cars all day. I always did say that if a dog didn't have any better sense than to do such things and to bite humans, in the first place, then he deserves the second!

When we are vaccinated and have a city dog license, then we must wear a tag on a collar around our necks. This is uncomfortable, but far better than the "torture chamber", according to the latest grows.

The Dog Catcher, who is merely a city employe carrying out his orders, is not going to argue with any humans who interferes with his picking up unleashed dogs. But the matter will be reported to City Hall and the Police will handle the case from there.

No us crossing out the dog catcher nor the city commission. For, you see, us dogs are on their side. We're as anxious to stamp out rabies as some humans were to stop polo.

But—please notice—all you kind and gentle masters. We can be "baited" out of the pound for a fee of $1. Isn't that a low fee for "man's best friend"?

Vaccinations and tagging will continue through next week, and then it's every dog for himself. Unvaccinated dogs will then go to the country, because the country certainly isn't going to the dogs.

Here, I'd like to extend my thanks to Ronald Waters, editor, for letting me paw out this message (on the typewriter). And, in case you're wondering, I have my license and tag!

Ranger Group Pass Petitions

A total of 35 petitions, worded as this copy below, are being circulated this week by Ranger citizens. More will be circulated if needed.

Petitions ask the county and state to pave a four-mile strip of highway across the Lake Leon dam to benefit farmers in the area as well as others who use the road.

To be placed in lodges and bait houses, as well as other places, the petitions can be signed by area persons and by out-of-area visitors.

The petition reads: To The Commissioners Court of Eastland County State Highway Commission, Austin, Texas:

We, the undersigned citizens of Eastland County, and people from out of the state and county, who have traveled the road from Farm Road 570 at Lone Cedar, across the dam at Lake Leon, to Farm Road 2214, and have spent time and money seeking recreation at this new resort, hereby earnestly petition the Commissioners Court of Eastland County and the State Highway Commission to take the necessary steps for taking over and paving this four-mile section of road.

Many of us would like to visit Lake Leon more often and spend more money in this area if the above mentioned road was paved and the hazards eliminated for transporting boats to and from the Lake. The road is rough and dusty and disagreeable to travel in dry weather, and almost impassible in wet weather.

Also, there are 60 or 70 farm families who live South of the lake who would be greatly benefitted by being able to get their products to market and their families to hospitals for medical care. The road is also a route for school buses and rural mail delivery.

At the present time there are about 75 privately-owned cabins around the shoreline, in addition to four commercial lodges and boat docks. The county and state tax valuations are increasing every day, and we feel that money derived from gasoline tax alone, of local and out-of-county people should soon pay the cost of the road, due to its increased travel by people seeking recreation.

County Rural Fire Defense Plans Made

Eastland County volunteers made initial plans for a Texas Rural Defense Plan set up when they met Thursday afternoon in the courthouse in Eastland.

A 12 man committee headed by Eastland Fire Chief Billy Jackson will direct operations in the county. Other members of the committee are: Les Strawn, J. M. Schaefer, M. S. Dry, Judge John S. Harl, Johnnie Grimes, W. L. Gurner, Gordon Smith, Emmott Powell and R. F. Greenwood.

The county was divided in four zones, roughly following the county precinct lines. Vice chiefs in Ranger, Cisco, Gorman and Rising Star will serve as zone chairmen, complete plans.

Members of the county committee and the four zone chairmen will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the courthouse to Eastland County has been included in the Defense Plan because of the closeness of Wallace At Force Base in Palo Pinto County.

County Agent J. M. Cooney said that the Defense Plan should also serve to aid the county in another problem. He pointed out that there is more grass and wood

Rains Drench Area In Electrical Storms

Drenching rains cooled off Ranger Tuesday night, following scorching temperatures, as an electrical storm kept the skies well lighted and lights flickered on and off over the area.

Rains Tuesday night measured 1.29 inches, following over an inch of rain Monday night. About 30 of an inch fell Sunday. The last two rains were accompanied by winds, but not approaching the 50-mile-per-hour blasts of Sunday night.

No damages were reported from latest rain storms. Peanuts were looking good, and were up about an inch and one-half from the time planted, according to one report.

Temperatures were up again Wednesday afternoon without a cloud in sight, and it was anyone's guess as to whether or not it would rain again.

Besides the flickering of lights, Police were plagued with low voltage radio Tuesday night, due to the electrical storm. At one point, the radio went out completely.

Fishermen are taking advantage of the latest rain falls to try their luck at Lake Leon. Farmers are looking forward to good crops. And large crowds continue to turn out at the city pool, as the weather continues alternating between hot (at day) and cool (at night).

Low Bid On FM 717 Made By Abilene Man

AUSTIN — A low bid of $81,064.94 for construction of FM 717 into Ranger was entered by an Abilene man Wednesday.

The road project extends from the Stephens County line to an intersection with Cypress St. Plans call for grading, structures, base and surfacing.

Low bidder was Harry Campbell of Abilene.

Friday Is... That Day!

Don't tell anyone, but tomorrow is Friday the 13th.

Eastland County citizens have never been ones to worry about such trivial matters, but just in case you might better stay out from under ladders and keep a sharp outlook for black cats!

Baird Game Rained Out

Ranger's Pony League game with Baird was called off Tuesday night, due to heavy rains.

Baird junior leaguers called Harold Barrett, here, to notify him that heavy rains had called the game off. The game was cancelled after the call.

Lake Boat Club Elects Officers

Officers of the Lake Leon Boat Club were elected recently during an annual picnic of the group held at the lake.

Newly elected president is Homer Williams, and J. C. Poe is vice president. Named as a new director was Waverly Massengale and Curtis Koen and James Wright are holdover directors.

Mrs. Homer Williams was named secretary - treasurer and Mrs. Waverly Massengale, reporter. Women of the club met this morning to decide upon flags for the July 4th celebration.

Volunteers are needed to help complete the club's boat docks, Williams said.

Changes in fishing rules and regulations at Lake Leon were passed by the board of directors of the Eastland County Water Supply District in a meeting Wednesday night in the Ranger Chamber of Commerce offices.

Rule changes, in articles 3 and 5, take effect in two weeks, on Thursday, June 26. Original rules and regulations were passed on July 12, 1955.

New regulations state that it shall be considered unlawful to catch fish in Lake Leon, or to attempt to catch fish, with ordinary fishing equipment (including throw lines) with more than two hooks. Trotlines may contain not more than 20 hooks.

J. C. Allison—

din-Simmons University in Abilene, another graduated from Howard Payne Baptist College in Brownwood and another from Texas Western University in El Paso.

The oldest son trained at a technical school in Los Angeles where he is now a production supervisor for Douglas Aircraft.

Mr. Allison once had five children enrolled in H-SU at one time "and that was during the depression," he said.

A committee selected Mr. Allison as father of the year "because of his example of applied Christianity in his home, before students and through his church."

Several other men were nominated by pastors and church organizations for the Texas Baptist honor. Making the final selection was a committee composed of the Rev. D. C. Ham, pastor of the Casa View Baptist Church of Dallas; Jack Harwell, regional civil defense public relations director, Denton; and Kathryn Allen, assistant editor of the "Baptist Standard."

Allison is the second Texas Baptist father to receive the award. A 73-year-old retired school teacher, Ira Irving Isbell of Fort Worth, won the first award presented last year.

Allison was born Nov. 24, 1882, the son of a Carbon farmer. One of eight children, he attended a small rural school until he was 18. He then enrolled in Sam Houston Normal Institute, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in 1907. He then worked as a principal and superintendent of the Breckenridge School System for seven years.

"When the oil boom came in 1919," said the silver-haired father, "I went back to our paper. But the Eastland school was short of teachers so I also taught math until 1926."

Later he worked as secretary-treasurer of a road construction company which folded in '32. ("The depression lasted longer than we thought it would.")

He taught summer school at Simmons College (now H-SU) and took a bookkeeping course on the side.

From 1939 - 45 he labored about 16 hours a day at three different jobs to keep his youngsters in school. Teaching math in school, keeping books for three Eastland firms at night and serving as city tax assessor, he "scrapped together" enough to keep five children in college at one time.

"When our oldest daughter, Verne, started school, I had only $5 to give her to reserve a room at Simmons. I told her she might be able to stay about three weeks or a month, but to go ahead on faith and register." She graduated and is now secretary for an Eastland firm.

He was named tax assessor-collector in 1955 to fill an unexpired term and was elected to a full term last year.

Religion was a vital part of J. C. Allison's life even as a boy. Reared in a Christian home, he taught Sunday School and worked in the BYJU before he was a Christian.

"I knew about God and the Bible," he said, "but I didn't know Christ personally until one of my teachers at Sam Houston talked to me during a Union revival meeting."

For 24 years Allison has helped conduct city and county elections. He had not missed a year until 1955 when he became a county employee and ineligible for the job. One year he held ten elections in Eastland.

He has served as treasurer of the Cisco Association for several years. He takes a two-week vacation every year, but at the rate of one day a month, to attend the Baptist associational worker's conference.

His pastor, the Rev. James Fleming, says "Mr. Allison is almost a legend around our church and in the Eastland area. I suspect that some of the stories told about him and his sacrificial spirit have become somewhat exaggerated, but the exaggeration itself reveals the high esteem that people have for him."

Does he plan to retire soon? "I wouldn't last a year if I did," he said. "A man who's been as busy as I have must stay busy. If I lose the county job, I'll probably keep books and work with income tax returns."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison's children are Carroll Allison, aircraft production supervisor, Downey, Calif.; the Rev. Joe W. Allison, pastor, First Baptist Church, Estelina, Verne Allison, secretary, Eastland; John L. Allison, chemist, El Paso; Edith M. Allison, secretary, Abilene; the Rev. Grady N. Allison, pastor, First Baptist Church, Munday; Nelson Allison, schoolteacher, Odessa; Betty L. Reaty, Fufston; and the Rev. James Allison, pastor, Bryce Baptist Church, Bryce.

Awards Are Presented to 'Top Rating' Area Students by DAR

Medals and certificates were presented to the top rating students in the course of American History from Eastland, Cisco and Ranger by the Charles Crawford Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution recently.

Patricia Ann Liles a sixth grader, was among the Eastland students receiving award certificates for the highest average in American History. Patricia's average was 98 and a general average for the current year is 97.7. She is the daughter of Mr.

Patricia played a solo and piano two, in the "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" by Liszt with seven other girls using four pianos on Mrs. A. F. Taylor's recital. She is a student of Mrs. Taylor and a member of the Beethoven Junior Music Club. She has served as substitute pianist and secretary of the club.

Patricia was crowned queen of the Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church in May. She is active in 4-H work and is pianist for the club. She has played on various programs and at teas in Eastland.

Ronny Hastings of Cisco, with an average of 97, and Nancy Ann Bowen of Ranger, with an average of 95, received certificates also. Both students are in the sixth grade.

George Kimbler of Eastland, son of Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Kimbler, is a seventh grade student and has an average of 98 in history and a general average of 95. He will be manager of the football team next year. A spokesman said, "He is a superior student in every way." George plays second base on the baseball team and plays a cornet in the Eastland High School Band. He has a paper route with the Eastland Telegram and is a member of the Royal Ambassadors of the First Baptist Church.

Charlene Russell of Cisco had an average of 98 and Jerlyn Anderson of Ranger had an average of 98. Charlene Russell and Jerlyn Anderson received the awards as members of the seventh grade.

Eighth grade medal recipients were Barbara McCullough of Eastland and Darine Dunning of Cisco and Frankie Retherford of Ranger.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

EVIDENCE

A trial aims to settle a dispute when the parties fail to do it themselves. For this the court needs facts.

Simple? Well, no. For if the parties could agree on the facts, a settlement out of court would be easy. But as a rule each side has its own story, and the trial judge or jury must hear witnesses and view physical evidence to decide what took place. In doing this the court applies the rules of evidence.

It took centuries for the court to work out rules by which a judge can say what is proper or improper evidence.

1. In "hearsay," for example, someone who did not see the event reports what someone told him. Courts seldom allow such evidence, except in rare cases such as where the dying words, say, of a murdered person may be vital.

For one thing, courts frown upon hearsay because no one in court can cross-examine the eyewitness to find out what actually took place, or to judge whether his story merits belief.

2. Irrelevant testimony will also be barred by the judge. It is testimony which has no bearing on the case, even though it may be true enough.

Suppose in a battery case the jury has to find out whether Jones knocked Smith down or not. The judge would have to rule out any evidence that Jones, say, was rich and Smith poor. Such a fact, even if true, has nothing to do with the "issue." Moreover, such irrelevances often confuse jurors or arouse their prejudices.

3. Only an expert like a doctor, an appraiser, a chemist, a pharmacist, or an engineer can give opinions as evidence, and he must show his qualifications as an expert before the judge will let him express his views.

Lawyers keep inadmissible evidence out of court by making "objections." When the judge "sustains" an objection, the jury may not hear the evidence. Or, if he does, the judge may "instruct" the jury to ignore it. Should the judge "overrule" the objection, the jury may hear the evidence.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

New bread standards go into effect July 1, to assure that you get the kind of bread you pay for. After that date, if you buy a loaf of cinnamon - raisin bread and it doesn't have raisins in it, the baker is subject to action.

The standards will require all bread and rolls to be properly labeled so as to truthfully reflect their ingredients and nutritious qualities.

Patterned after federal food standards, they will be administered by the State Health Department's Food and Drug Division. A majority of the baking industry fully supports the standards.

Labeling means much more than a colorful wrapping around a loaf of bread. It includes, among other things, the advertising claims made by the baker for his product.

A food is misbranded when its labeling is false or misleading in any particular, if it is offered for sale under the name of another food, or if it is in imitation of another food (unless its label bears in prominent type the word "imitation" and immediately thereafter the name of the food imitated).

Bread is also mislabeled if it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a "standard of identity" has been described and it fails to conform to that standard.

Standards not only protect consumers in the marketplace; they also protect honest manufacturers by assuring fair competition. The consumer may select and serve standardized foods with complete confidence in their composition and integrity.

The law's basic requirements for clean handling, informative labeling and no adulteration gives consumers an insight into the purity, wholesomeness and nutritious quality of the product.

Bread labels must show net weight or numerical count of the product, such as "net weight, one pound," or "one dozen doughnuts," and the name of the product such as "Smith's Enriched Bread," or "Jones' Raisin Bread."

While there is no specific requirements as to type size, the standards do provide that the label shall be considered false if the information is not prominently displayed in such a manner that it can be easily read.

You, as a consumer of bread and rolls, can help make the new standards work by carefully reading the label on the bread you buy.

Texas Tourists Stay Longer, Spend More

AUSTIN - Visitors to Texas spent more money and stayed around longer spending it in 1957 than during any previous year, so indicates the tourist industry report released by the Texas Highway Department today.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, pointed to statistics in the report which show that expenditures per person per day jumped to $8.22 in 1957, as compared to $7.71 in 1956. "Moreover, the typical tourist extended his visit to 6.3 days in 1957, as against 5.9 days the previous year," Greer observed.

The report defined tourist dollars as new money earned elsewhere and brought into the community where it is then spent and respend into the local business cycle.

Specifically, tourist dollars to the tune of $531 million made music in the Texas cash registers and jingled in the pockets of Texas jeans last year. This whopping amount was cleared from tourists traveling by automobile. Greer pointed out that this was an impressive increase over 1956's intake of $379 million. The report says that approximately $98.9 million was spent also in 1957 by tourists visiting Texas by air, rail, bus, and ship.

Largest part of the tourist dollar in Texas is spent for food, lodging, and car upkeep. To serve those basic needs, the report estimates, 25,320 established businesses with 102,265 employees are required. The final figures are increased many times when the retail stores, amusement spots, gift shops, and other places where the remainder of the tourist dollar is spent are considered.

Tourists themselves provide the records from which the Highway Department obtains the statistics in the annual Tourist Industry Report. Greer remarked. Survey cards, to be completed and mailed back after the visit in Texas, are given tourists stopping at the Department's seven Highway Travel Information Bureaus located on major highways entering the state. Last year the Bureau played host to 174,000 such out-of-state guests.

STATE NEWS

The Huntsville Item informs us that 56,057 yards of cloth, worth $8,095.18 were manufactured at the Penitentiary during the last month. We learn from the Columbus Citizen that the Colorado river at that place had risen, up to the night of the 11th, seven feet.

The Belton Independent is informed by a gentleman of experience in the matter, that barley is one of the best small grain crops which can be cultivated, particularly as provender for horses. The examination of the cadets of the Texas Military Institute, will take place on the 23d, 23d and 24th of the present month. The Institute is represented as being in a flourishing condition.

Maj. E. A. Carroll, of Henderson county, who received authority from the Governor to enlist a company of men to serve as Rangers, we learn from the Palestine Advocate, has succeeded in raising about half the number required. The track on the Central Railroad is finished within half a mile of Hempstead. The road will be completed to that place by the 25th of this month, when a grand barbecue will be given, to which the citizens of the State

POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES

The Railroad Record, in an able article on the physical development of the United States, makes the following calculations as to the probable results of the general increase of population for the next 70 years:

In 1850	23,000,000
In 1860	30,560,000
In 1870	40,800,000
In 1880	54,000,000
In 1890	72,000,000
In 1900	96,000,000
In 1950	200,000,000
In 2000	400,000,000

The wheat crop in this county (very little having been planted), was almost perhaps totally destroyed by the grasshoppers. Oats are most excellent as fine as could be wished; excepting a few, that have been injured by the rust. Corn that which was left of the last planting—perhaps one fourth planted—is now really made; it is being almost in roasting ears. It can not fall much short, if any, of fifty bushels to the acre.

Anecdote of Peter Cartwright—Peter Cartwright, the famous western preacher, whose name is associated with that of General Jackson, and is familiar to thousands of our readers, has been in the city making us a visit. Right well have we and many more enjoyed the old man's flow of soul, his genial humor, and his fund of backwoods life and adventure.

The District Convention met at Lockhart, on Saturday last, pursuant to adjournment. Delegates from Bays, Guadalupe, Bastrop and Caldwell were present. John

P. White, Esp., of Guadalupe, received the nomination for the office of District Attorney.

We regret to learn by the last issue of that excellent paper, the Signal Mercury, that a friend to whom the proprietors entrusted money to buy paper in Galveston, had decamped, and when last heard from was on his way to Baltimore with the funds. As will be seen in another column the Mercury gives a most flattering account of the crops in that section.

We find in the Victoria Advocate the following statistics of Jackson county: White males over 18 and under 45 of age, 239; under 18, 255; over 45, 78; white females over 18, 213; children under 18 and over 6, 175; slaves, 814; free persons of color, 5. Total population, 1,802. Voters, 228. Number of acres planted in corn, 3,371; wheat, 53; cotton, 2,843; sugar, 33; miscellaneous products, 423. Total number of acres of land in cultivation, 6,724.

Everybody has heard of "salted" Erer of mid shotgun first having news, which means of course that loaded the weapon with bits of mine was made to appear much gold. Doubtless there were other richer than it was. One way to do ways. Perhaps not so well known is then fire a shotgun at it—the fact that an oil well can be salted, too. It is related that a promoter late one night climbed to the top of a derrick of a well that he was drilling. He was all alone, having given the crew the night off. He did not climb to the top of the rig to scan the horizon for wandering bands of redskins nor was he seeking privacy for meditation.

He had with him a bucket and he poured the contents on the derrick. He repeated this, over and over, until the derrick was black and glistening with oil—for oil was what the bucket had contained.

Next morning, he had a picture made and he sent it out to the stockholders as proof that he had drilled a gusher and please rush the special assessment of one dollar per share so he could provide steel storage until the pipeline was extended to the well.

"She came in during the night; made a big flow," he explained to the crew. If they thought it slightly odd that the inside of the derrick was not oil-stained, they made no comment. And of course the under side of the structure did not show in the photograph.

The stockholders hastened to send in the special assessment. Fugny thing, though! The promoter drilled deeper—and actually did get a gusher.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—While the United States has been trying to keep its front lawn mowed and its hedges trimmed, it has let its back yard grow up in grass and thorny brambles.

While we have been looking at the Iron Curtain in Europe and the Bamboo Curtain in the Far East, we practically dropped the curtain on our friends and neighbors to the south in Latin America.

While the United States has been trying to build up dams and levees with dollars against the Soviet expansion in some far reaches of the earth, Soviet influence has seeped in under the foundations in Latin America.

Our South and Central American friends are naturally sensitive towards North America. This natural sentiment exists because of the contrast in the standard of living between two areas of this same hemisphere. It can not be said it is because we are a "have" nation and all the nations south of us are "have nots." Latin America does "have," and we need a lot of it.

Latin America is tremendously important to the United States, and, of course, the United States is all important to Latin America. Security is not the only common interest which we have, although the defense of both is essential to both.

These few facts should impress upon us the point:

Our trade with Latin America is almost as large as our trade with all of Europe. We import annually $3,700,000,000 from Latin America, and they buy $4,760,000,000 annually from us. That is the figure for 1957. Unlike many other parts of the world almost all of these exports to Latin America are paid for.

They depend upon us to buy 44.2 per cent of their products. The United States sold them, for cash, 48.8 per cent of all their imports in 1957.

We import strategically important metals from South America. They purchase from this County about 35 per cent of our export of automobiles and trucks, one-third of our exports of chemicals and electrical machinery, iron and steel mill products, and 17 per cent of all of our exports of foodstuffs.

Investments from this country in Latin America amount to $8 1/2 billion which is about 40 per cent of all our investments abroad.

What about the future? Today our populations are almost the same, at about 150 million people. But the rate of growth in Latin America is twice as fast as our own. At this rate, by the year 2000 our population will be 250 million people, and Latin America will be over 500 million.

This is nothing new—it is just something we haven't been thinking enough about. Regardless of what we may think of Vice President Nixon's recent experience in Latin America, it has at least reminded us that we should no longer take our neighbors for granted in South America.

Actually, what we need is friendliness and a sympathetic understanding of their problems.
