According to County Agricultural Agent J. M. Cooper other officers and directors of the sponsoring group who helped to plan the affair at a recent meeting in Cisco included the following, besides those mentioned above: Pete Dunning, Cisco, vice-president; C. T. Barton, Pioneer; Wayne Thomas, Cisco; and Frank Hightower of Eastland.

Ranger Tops Eagles In Thrilling Action

The Ranger Bulldogs looked in top form Friday night as they downed Diamond Hill 38 to 26.

The hard-running of the Ranger backs and the pass catching of the receivers put on a fine show at Trinity Field. It showed from the opening kickoff that the boys in maroon had decided that they wanted to play football. The hard tackling and blocking of the Diamond Hill 11 didn't change their mind in the least, and they were still going strong in the last quarter.

The field but Jerry Kirby, a Diamond Hill half back picked off a Ranger pass and ran 45 yards for a TD. Bobby Fron, Ranger center, blocked the kick for the extra point.

After that it looked like Ranger had bogged down—they couldn't move the ball after Diamond Hill kicked off. A fourth down try with one yard to go failed and Diamond Hill ground out another TD with a pass from the Diamond Hill QB Larry Washworth to end Johnny Goulsby, good for the TD. The extra point try was no good. The first quarter ended with the score 14 to 12, Ranger.

The second quarter settled down to a more defensive game with Ranger getting the lone TD. Again it was Anderson hitting the end zone after a ten yard rollout to the left side of the line. The extra point was no good, with the half ending and Ranger in the lead 20 to 12.

Third Quarter

The third quarter saw as much action as the opener with Diamond Hill getting off to a quick TD, seeing Jerry Kirby get the six points with a 35 yard run. Point after was no good.

Ranger took to the air and scored two quick ones with Jerry Anderson throwing in Charles White for 23 yards and six points, and 46 yards and another six. (Continued on Page Two)

County Budget Set For 1960

Eastland County's operational costs will be less in 1960 than in 1959 and revenue will increase, County Auditor Earl O'Brien has estimated in his 1960 county budget which was approved this week by the County Commissioners Court.

Expenditures in 1960 will total $396,629, O'Brien estimates, while revenue will total $347,656. That compares with estimated expenditures of $410,350 in 1959 and estimated revenue of $361,298.

Main reason for the improvement is the fact that the county courthouse was paid for in 1959. The improved condition comes despite the fact that courthouse employees will receive a five percent raise in 1960.

O'Brien's budgets are known for two things. He is always conservative in estimating revenue and always estimates expenses at top dollar. That rubs out the apparent $48,973 difference in estimated revenue and estimated expenditures. The county auditor, for instance, estimates collection of ad valorem taxes at 80 percent. Collections have not fallen below 90 percent in many years.

The 1958 budget is a better comparison of how O'Brien estimates. The budget that year was $412,841. The auditor estimated in that budget that receipts would total $319,418. Receipts actually were $44,116 higher that year and expenditures were slightly less than predicted.

This year's tax rate will again be 80 per cent. The rate has been unchanged since 1946. Only 19 other counties in Texas have as low or lower tax rate than does Eastland County.

A breakdown of the 80 rate shows that the general fund will receive .60, the jury fund .03, the road and bridge fund .07, a n d the road and bridge sinking fund .10. The permanent improvement fund, for the second year in a row, will carry no levy. The fund can carry itself, officials believe.

The heavy rate given the general fund for the second year in a row is an effort to strengthen the fund. O'Brien estimates the fund will gain $10,000 this year. The fund was allotted .55 in 1958 and got just .55 in 1957.

SUNDAY DEVOTIONAL

By D. A. LAMBERT
Pastor Church of the Nazarenes
THE PREACHING OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." Luke 3:4.

For over three hundred years God's people had been without a true prophet. Malachi brought the last message from God to Israel, and now, in John the Baptist, God seems to have gathered up three hundred years of burning, searing truth, pent up power and rebuke. He bestowed these upon the greatest prophet of all, the forerunner of Christ, John the Baptist.

See the humble prophet clothed in camel's hair, leather girdle, and anointed by the Holy Ghost. Yes, John was anointed to preach. John had no fear, his was no "please the people" doctrine of traditions. His was a white-washing prattle to please old Herod the king. No, John let the chips fall where they might. His was a message of repentance, of forsaking sin, of restitution, of clean and holy living. The mighty Baptist had a God-given message. His message was not given to please the people but to save them. His was no message of reformation but of salvation.

John did not waste his time prattling about "little" details of the law — he thundered repentance. He had a mission, a calling, a duty, and with all his God-given powers he sought to stir a sleeping nation and to awaken slumbering consciences, to the awful fact of sin.

Hear the prophet speak. "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness—"Repeat ye!" Just a voice, but God himself is speaking through the voice.

It is always thus with every true prophet. This preacher was no glory-seeker, he had no selfish ambition. John was not seeking a kingdom of God. No throne for John, he was seeking the enthronement of Christ in the hearts of men.

He declared war on sin. He had learned obedience to God; he had a message that the world needed then, and that it needs today.

Worldliness, hypocrisy, lukewarmness, spiritual deadness: these had to go!

When he met Jesus, he recognized him as the Savior of the world. Jesus said of him, "For I say unto you, among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist." (Luke 7:21) The same message John preached, Jesus preached.

Prayer: O God, let the mantle of John fall on me. Take away my small thoughts, desires and ambitions.

When You Buy Real Estate-

... you not only buy the land and all that's attached to it above and below, but some kind of a title, good or bad. The abstract is a written history of the title and is the evidence of your security or insecurity. Since security is the basis and measure of all values, the abstract becomes the most important factor in every real estate transaction. That may be the reason why most careful buyers require an abstract.

THE PRE-EMINENCE OF LOVE

"Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly; seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked; thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Love never faileth." (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)

"He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins." (1 John 4:8-10)

"There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear..." (1 John 4:18)

"If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?" (1 John 4:20)

"This is the love of God, that we keep his commandments; and his commandments are not grievous." (1 John 5:3)

Just as equally as a man who says he loves God and hates his brother is a liar; is that man who says he loves God but will not obey God's commandments!

First Baptist Church
Ralph E. Perkins, Pastor

Sunday is Ranger College day in the First Baptist Church and many homes have already volunteered to invite these students to their homes for "Sunday dinner." There is always a desire on the part of the members to make the students feel at home while in college here.

Installation services for Sunday school officers will be part of the morning service.

The pastor will bring the message on the theme, "Eternal Security." "Outside of Christ and His love there is but sinking sand and darkness of disappointment. Soul-surrender and spiritual fellowship brings the greatest joy to the individual," said Rev. Perkins.

Sunday school attendance has been on the increase and an invitation is extended to everyone to fill their places for this important Bible hour.

Training Union at 7 p.m. "offers a wonderful opportunity for Christian people to develop their talents, offer themselves in service, and worship the Lord on Sunday night."

There will be an installation service for Training Union general officers at the evening worship hour.

The pastor will bring the message on The Highlights of the Bible, with the Prophet Joel as the preacher of "Jehovah."

All officers and teachers of the entire Sunday School are urged to attend these nights of planning and preparing. "These Things We Believe" by J. Clyde Turner, a book of inspiration and doctrine, will form the basis for the four nights' study. This book is one of a list of ten books required for the new diploma for Sunday School, Training Union, and music.
