Bearcats Tough But Bulldogs Up

A much improved Ranger Bulldog team will play host to the big DeLeon Bearcats in the first home game of the season Friday night at 8 p.m.

The Bulldogs looked very impressive last week in their win over triple A Diamond Hill. There has been no comparison of the Bulldogs so far this season. In their

YES, HE'S THAT BIG—Vernon Singleton, a 300 pound tackle for the Ranger College Rangers does look this big to the opponents of the opposing teams that he faces. Vernon is 6-ft. 4-in. tall and his weight is well distributed. He moves real well, as evidenced by his making honorable mention lineman of the week against the Cameron Aggies. The two small fry he is holding are Jim Brock, 155 pound quarterback, and Jimmy Knickerbocker, 155 pound halfback. (Photo by Capps Studio).

R. A. Tunnell was elected president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce by the board of directors, following the resignation of Morris George, at a special meeting this week.

Others elected to new posts were Buck Wallace, vice president; and W. J. Sipes, treasurer. Charles Milliken was appointed to head the membership committee, to serve until the end of the fiscal year.

Six names were submitted to the City Commission, from which two will be picked to serve on the Board of Directors to replace George and Dr. M. E. Joly.

opener, they were definitely not ready to play ball. The second game against Triple A Mineral Wells, who is looking more like a power in their district all time, couldn't really be called a test of Ranger power. And against Diamond Hill, another 3-A team, we don't know yet how they will stack up in other games. But Friday night we will be able to compare the results of the game with other games that DeLeon has played, and maybe get a real look at the Bulldogs.

The DeLeon team has looked good so far this season, with a 2-1 record. Carol Shelton, the Eastland Maverick coach, was reported to have said that the DeLeon team was the toughest team he had faced all season, although Hamlin defeated Eastland 48 to 8.

The DeLeon team is big and fast. They will out-weight the Bulldogs seven pounds per man. The Bulldogs average 158 pounds per man and the Bearcats will weigh 165 pounds per man. The scout report from DeLeon shows that they have some fast backs and a hard hitting line. They like to throw the ball real well, and have some fine pass receivers. The Bulldogs had a hard time beating the Bearcats last year, and the Cats are going to be out for revenge Friday night. The Bulldogs are going to have to be on the toes to come out with a victory over the Cats, who will be trying for a comeback from last week's defeat at the hands of the Eastland Mavericks.

Introductions At Restaurant Table
 Dear Mrs. Post: When seated in a restaurant with a friend and her mother happens to come by and she stops and we are introduced, should I rise to meet her mother?

Answer: If you are a man, you do of course; if a woman, you don't in a crowded restaurant unless you, at the one extreme, are very young, or at the other extreme, she is very old. In any case it would be polite to make the gesture of rising if obviously that is all you can do without standing in the way.

Are Alternate Invitations Necessary?
 Dear Mrs. Post: It is necessary to give and accept invitations in consecutive order?

Answer: The "invitation for invitation" applies only to those whose acquaintance is formal as well as new. Friends never keep any such account. Naturally when Mary and John invite Jim and Jane time and time again, they may expect the latter to invite them to something sometime, but the invitations do not alternate first from one and then from the other.

Must She Keep Gift Pin?
 Dear Mrs. Post: When I retired as president of our women's club, the members took up a collection and bought me a pin. The pin was bought at our local jeweler's and while it is very nice, it is not my taste. There is another pin in the window at this same jeweler's that I have been admiring and would like to have.

Answer: If the jeweler is willing to let you have the pin you would like in exchange for the one given to you, and at no extra cost, I think you may ask the members to make the exchange for you. You must have some understandable reason why you prefer the new pin to the one they chose for you. This might be because the blue stones in one pin go with more of your dresses than the red ones in the other.

Announcing A Broken Engagement
 Dear Mrs. Post: Would you suggest announcing a broken engagement in the newspapers, or forgetting it and hoping others will?

Answer: This depends upon what you find least distressing. If there is uncertainty about the situation, and talk, then it would be better to send a formal announcement to the newspaper that "the engagement of Miss Mary Smith and Mr. John Jones has been broken by mutual consent." Otherwise, it would be better to let the news drift from one person to another.

Putting Up The Wedding Guests
 Dear Mrs. Post: What obligation is there for the bride's family to put up the various guests coming from out of town for the wedding? Are there any who have to be taken care of and any who don't have to be?

Answer: The bride's attendants who come from out of town have to be provided for by her family, but not necessarily any others. It would be very hospitable to take care of the bridegroom's immediate family, if possible. But this is the exception rather than the rule.

New Chevy Trucks Go On Display

Impressive gains in cushioning cargo and passengers from road shock, plus much greater stability and safety result from a revolutionary suspension system designed for 1360 Chevrolet trucks which go on display at Anderson Chevrolet Co. this week.

The totally redesigned truck suspension provides the nearest approach to passenger car ride and handling yet achieved, along with vastly improved durability. It has been under development for six years.

"Aside from the obvious advantage of passenger comfort, this new suspension offers an economic bonus to truck buyers," E. N. Cole, Chevrolet's general manager, continued. "Because road shock is largely absorbed by rugged suspension members instead of being driven into the frame, chances for damage to fragile cargoes are reduced and life of cabs, metal panels, and other chassis components is prolonged, leading to lower maintenance costs."

In a clean break with the past, Chevrolet has replaced the hard-riding I-beam axle with independent front wheel suspension with ball joints and torsion bar springs on all but two models. Rear suspensions also are drastically changed, with coil springs on some light duty models. Heavier series use a new softer riding leaf spring with automatic adjustment of spring stiffness as the load increases.

In keeping with the "total redesign" theme, frame and other chassis elements also are redesigned and styling is changed along functional lines. Fenders, hood, and other panels are integrated with new chassis for a more rigid, lower, roomier, more accessible cab and sturdier front end.

An important feature of Chevrolet's new suspension is that springs no longer are called upon to keep axles aligned and to take driving and braking forces, as in conventional systems.

Since these functions are performed by durable control arms, springs need only to cushion the vehicle. It also makes possible the use of friction-free torsion bars in front, and coil springs at the rear in light models.

These two types of spring respond to small road shocks that would not flex conventional leaf springs because of inter-leaf friction, thus affording a smoother ride. On heavier duty, rear leaf spring suspensions, design is such that only the proper spring length to give load support is in play at all times, giving a softer ride.

In addition to its superior ride, the new independent front suspension has many advantages. Unsprung weight is lower and wheel fight and shimmy are greatly reduced. "Wheel hop" is minimized on rough roads, giving better tire wear and prolonged suspension parts life. Ball joints simplify lubrication and afford correct friction for excellent ride, good wheel return, and automatic take-up of wear.

From Halls Of—

The Junior High football team will play Eastland Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. in Eastland.

A new convenience this year at RHS is the bus which takes students to Hodges Oak Park at lunch. I am sure the mothers as well as the students are very grateful to the school.

Here's a warning to the sleepy-heads. Stay awake in Coach Beavers study hall, or you will receive two demerits and be wakened up. I think you have a good idea, Coach. That just about winds it up for this week. See you at the game. Bye for now.

Interest—

(Continued from Page One) hold outstanding bonds in the amount of $42.6 billion. For the by the fact that every person who owns an E or H bond benefits from the new rate, without having to do anything about it," Parker continued. "I would therefore encourage the public to do two things: keep holding their E or H bonds, and keep on buying the new ones. This is the finest Savings Bonds package ever offered."

Rangers—

(Continued from Page One) teams using this improved game should prove to be an interesting game, as there will, in all probability be a lot of passing by both sides.

Another interesting factor pertaining to the game, will be the personal rivalry of the opposing coaches, Gene Babb, the backfield coach for the Rangers, and Austin College Ex. It will be an interesting spectacle to see him do battle against his old alma mater.

CONSTIPATED? Medical reports show how folks over 35 can establish regularity

After 35, irregularity often becomes a problem. What you need is something that aids nature and helps establish regularity. Such an aid to regularity is the daily use of SERUTAN. Here's medical evidence: A group of men and women took SERUTAN daily under medical supervision. In case after case SERUTAN, taken daily, helped establish regularity. So, for real relief from constipation after 35, try SERUTAN, powder or granular.

When You Buy Real Estate—

... you not only buy the land and all that's attached to it above and below, but some kind of a title, good or bad. The abstract is a written history of the title and is the evidence of your security or insecurity. Since security is the basis and measure of all values, the abstract becomes the most important factor in every real estate transaction. That may be the reason why most careful buyers require an abstract.

THE RANGER TIMES

Family cruising has become one of the favorite pastimes of outboard boatmen, with today's bigger and roomier boats providing plenty of space for family and gear. Such a craft is this 17-foot slider built by Lark with a 75-hp motor powered by Evinrude's new 1960 Starflite II, developing 75 horsepower and with several features never before found on an outboard motor.

Evinrude Shows New 75 hp V Motor Leader in 1960 Line

The new V-75 is joined by a 40-horsepower Lark II in the luxury liner class, and both motors incorporate another "first" in the outboard industry, an automatic choke that takes the human element out of motor starting.

The Starflite II is equipped with the first double-action hydraulic shock absorbers to be used on an outboard, cushioning both the initial and return impact. It also has a new transom bracket which bolts directly to the boat and into which the motor may be placed and removed easily.

To insure proper propellering, the Starflite II, Lark II and the 40-horsepower rope-start Big Twin, each offer a selection of three propellers at the option of 1 1/2¢ customer to assure top performance for his particular use.

The full line of motors show a horsepower range from the scintillating 75 to the "take-along" three. This range includes the 40; the versatile 18, the powerful, portable 10 and 5.5; and the lightweight three. All motors from the 75 to the 5.5 include Evinrude's famed thermostatically controlled cooling systems, full motor-running gearshift, sound-bottling principles that give "whispering power," and virtually indestructible fiberglass covers.

CONSTITUTION WEEK SIGNIFICANT

The week of September 17-23 has been designated as "Constitution Week". Each year an observance is scheduled throughout the nation in recognition of the importance of the federal constitution, which forms the basis of our national government. It insures a stable balance of powers between the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government by providing curbs upon the authority of each.

For instance, might as our Congress is, the Constitution does not give it certain powers:

1. Neither congress nor anybody else can suspend the writ of habeas corpus (unless the public safety demands it during rebellion or invasion.) All officers or others must obey a court and bring in anyone in their custody to see whether he is held lawfully.

2. Congress cannot pass "bills of attainder," special acts to punish someone. Congress cannot bypass the courts.

3. Congress cannot pass an ex post facto law—a law which makes an act a crime which was not one when done, or which punishes the offender more than called for when done.

4. Congress cannot tax exports from any state nor by regulation favor one state's ports over another's, nor make one state's vessels clear or pay duties to another state in order to enter.

Besides these denials from within, the constitution curbs Congress and the executive and judiciary in the amendments, especially the first ten.

Among other things, Congress cannot make a law respecting establishment of religion or prohibiting its free exercise, or abridging the freedom of speech, of the press or the right of the people peaceable to assembly and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

The constitution also curbs the courts (for example, they cannot deny a person a fair hearing duly represented by counsel.) It curbs the executive (he cannot, for example, take private property for public use without just compensation.)

The constitution, which divides the work of the three branches of government, winds up by telling where the rest of the power

EASY DOES IT

Home baking is fun. But so is loafing! It's easy to combine the two with this fast-fix recipe for Ham Fan Tans. The magic wand which cuts time is the combination of yeast and biscuit mix. Just our ring, and next-to-nothing kneading.

HAM FAN TANS

- 1/4 cup warm water (not hot - 105 to 115° F.)
- 1 package active dry yeast
- 2 1/2 cups biscuit mix
- 4 1/2-ounce can deviled ham
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese

Dissolve yeast in warm water. Stir in biscuit mix, beat vigorously. Turn out soft dough onto surface well dusted with biscuit mix. Knead until smooth, about 20 times. Divide dough in half. Roll one half into oblong 11" x 9". Brush lightly with soft margarine or butter. Cut into seven equal strips about 1 1/2" wide. Spread six strips with deviled ham and sprinkle with cheese. Stack strips one on top of the other with plain one on top. Cut into six equal pieces about 1 1/2" long. Repeat with second half. Place cut side up in greased muffin cups. Cover. Let rise in warm place about 1 hour. Bake 15 to 20 minutes at 400° F.
