

As I See Ranger

By Gene Townsend

It is sad when it takes a tragedy such as that which happened in Ranger Tuesday evening to make people think of what a hazard there is right on the Main Street of our town. In the past years there has been many accidents and many deaths resulting at the exact spot where the Tuesday evening tragedy occurred.

Each and everyone of us is probably guilty of taking unnecessary risks at the railroad crossing on Main Street and also on Blackwell Road (Prairie Crossing). People get into the habit of crossing those places time after time until they do it unconsciously without taking the needed precaution to cross safely.

The thought has occurred to everyone that the crossings are dangerous, but has anything ever been done about it? Has the Railroad ever been approached on the subject of making the crossings safer? We believe that everyone will agree that people need to be protected from themselves. We all go around in such a haste that we disregard all precaution in order to make an appointment on time. We drive along the road thinking about something that is going to happen tomorrow, with only a small portion of our brain registering what we are doing at the present time.

Since the accident Tuesday, the comment has been heard from many sources that there is a great need of a barricade type safety rails to be installed at the railroad crossing on Main Street. If this type safety signal had been in operation at the scene of the accident Tuesday afternoon, we would still have with us one of Ranger's outstanding young men.

The names of Walker, George Hunt and still others brings back tragic memories of similar accidents that have occurred right in the city limits of Ranger. These accidents, and other accidents that have endangered lives, show the need for a safer crossing.

Cisco J. C. Downs Rangers Tuesday Night

Cisco Junior College quickly jumped into a seven point lead in the opening minutes of the basketball game played Tuesday night in Cisco, and led the Ranger College Ranger throughout the entire game for a 74 to 63 victory.

After the Wranglers got a 11-point lead on fast breaks, the Rangers were forced to play catch-up ball and on several occasions pulled to within four points of tying the score, but could never completely overcome the advantage that the Wranglers got in the early part of the game.

Kenneth Hart was high point man in the game with 21 points. Danny Walsworth hit 15, Jim Hamilton nine, Clyde Smith seven, Bob Day four, James McElroy four, Jerry Anderson two, John Johnson two and Wilbur Smith one.

Milton King and Will Southern led were high for Cisco with 16 and 13 points.

The Rangers will host the Wranglers Thursday night at 8 p.m. in the Recreation Building in Ranger. This will be the final game of the season for the Wranglers.

County Singing Will Be Held Sunday Evening

The regular third Sunday evening singing of the Eastland County Singers Association will be held Sunday at the Congregational Methodist Church in Gorman. The program begins at 2 p.m.

Fewer Voting Precincts May Cut Election Costs

Eastland Countians will face something new this year when they go to the polls for the May 7 Democratic primary.

In the first place, the primary will be held in May this year instead of in July, as in past years. And in the second place, there will be just 13 voting precincts in the county in 1960, where there have been 27 in the past.

For voters living in Eastland Ranger, Cisco and Rising Star the precinct situation will actually be a minor problem. Where in the past there were two voting precincts in each of these towns, there will be just one in the future, and all qualified voters in these towns will vote at that box.

Residents of Gorman, Carbon, Olden, Desdemona, Kokomo, Okra, Pioneer, Nimrod and Seranton will also have no problem. Voters in those communities will continue to vote at the same precincts (with new numbers) that they have in the past.

Citizens who voted in the past at Staff, Alameda, Long Branch, Romney, Cook, Sabanna, Pleasant Hill and Dutham will, under the new set-up, vote in the "precinct nearest to them."

There are now three voting boxes in Commissioners' Precinct 1, four in Precinct 2, four in Precinct 3, and two in Precinct 4.

Precinct chairman for the primaries and the general election will be as follows:

Chairman
1. (Eastland) H. P. Pentecost
2. (Ranger) Calvin Brown
3. (Olden) Mrs. O. H. Dick
4. (Gorman) W. G. Baker
5. (Carbon) W. H. Collins
6. (Desdemona) L. E. Clark
7. (Kokomo) J. C. Donaldson
8. (Rising Star) R. C. Bay
9. (Okra) P. O. Burns
10. (Pioneer) Doss Alexander
11. (Nimrod) Ed Townsend
12. (Cisco) J. V. Hyser Jr.
13. (Seranton) Arthur Bailey

County commissioners estimated at the time they cut the number of precincts to 13—at the request of the County Democratic Convention—that a savings of $1500 would be realized in the general election. That much, and possibly more, may be saved in the primary elections.

USDA Issues Chemical Safety Assurances

A soothing reassurance to the bitter reaction which developed from scare headlines prompted by Secretary Arthur H. Flemming of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare on use of chemical and drugs in agriculture has been issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In one of those examples of a Federal department seeking to undo and correct damage which might have been done by another Federal department, the USDA asserted that "our food supply in the U. S. is the safest, cleanest, and most wholesome in the world."

Then the USDA went on to say that "a wide variety of chemicals are used today in all phases of food production, processing, and marketing. They include chemical fertilizers, insecticides, and weed killers; antibiotics, antiseptics, and preservatives; feed additives, fumigants, fungicides, and others.

"These chemicals are as essential for efficient production of foods on the farm as are tractors, improved varieties of crops, and better breeds of livestock. They play as great a part in assuring consumers a continuing supply of nutritious and appetizing foods as do our modern methods of food processing and marketing.

"We cannot continue to produce adequate amounts of safe and wholesome foods without chemicals. Abandoning their use on farms and in the food industry would result in immediate decline in the quantity and overall quality of our food supply and cause a rapid rise in food prices paid by consumers.

"On our farms, chemicals enable us to produce the great variety of foods people want in the tremendous quantities needed. They also give indispensable protection to the natural excellence of these foods against the ravages of pests and diseases. In large part because of chemicals, American consumers enjoy fruits, vegetables, cereals, meat, poultry products, and milk of unexcelled quality and the freedom from contamination.

"In our food factories and in trade channels, chemicals help to improve sanitation and maintain quality. They make possible many of our modern convenience foods, and in many other ways they aid in furnishing the bountiful, nutritious supply of good things to eat that we enjoy today."

Lone Star Gas Expected to Ask Rate Hike Here

L. T. Potter, President of Lone Star Gas Co., today said that the Texas Railroad Commission's reported order of February 15 authorized Lone Star Gas Company to raise its intra-company city gate charge for gas for Residential and Commercial customers by 5.4 cents per one thousand cubic feet. "This order has the effect of increasing the cost to Lone Star's Distribution Division, but the level reached is still 4.6 cents below the cost in effect prior to 1942.

"Lone Star's Transmission Division will begin charging the Company's Distribution Division the additional 5.4 cents on the effective date of the Commission order. Although the increase is not as large as requested, the Company is accepting the Commission order because of our Transmission Division's immediate need for additional funds with which to continue to obtain adequate gas supplies in today's highly competitive market.

"On December 10, 1958, I wrote the mayors of the cities served by Lone Star and informed them that we were asking the Railroad Commission to authorize the Company to increase its city gate charge," Potter said. "In this letter I stated that Lone Star, in carrying out its public service obligation, may be required in the future to file an application for an increase in residential and commercial rates."

"It now appears that our Distribution Division will probably be required to seek authority from each council to increase the charge to our residential and commercial customers in an amount sufficient to offset this increased cost of gas. This will average slightly more than 1 cent per day per residential customer," Potter concluded.

Veterans Pension Meeting Friday Important to Both Vets and Widows

R. L. Hight, chief of the Veterans Administration's Adjudication Division, and H. G. Diebel, chief of the VA Contact Service Division, both of Dallas, will be in Eastland Friday to help acquaint veterans and widows with the provisions of the new Veterans Administration pension law.

The two VA officials are both from the Dallas Regional office. James T. Wright, county veterans officer, said the open meeting will be held at the American Legion Hall from 3 to 4 p. m.

The new pension law goes into effect July 1. "The new legislation, known as Public Law 86-211, is especially important to thousands of Texas veterans, their widows and dependent children who are receiving pension payments," Wright said. "It is also of particular interest to widows and dependent children of World War II and Korean veterans who may have been previously denied benefits.

"Some veterans and widows will get an increase in benefits under this new law. On the other hand, it will be advantageous for some to continue receiving benefits under the present law. Those who are receiving must choose the law under which they wish to receive benefits.

"Other previously ineligible, because of the amount of their annual income, may be eligible under the new law as increasing pension payments," Wright said. "Also, widows of WWII and Korean veterans are now eligible for pension benefits if their income permits. All veterans and widows who believe they may be affected and others interested in learning more about the new law are encouraged to attend."

Here from the Dallas VA Regional Office to explain the benefits will be R. L. Hight, Chief, Adjudication Division, and H. G. Diebel, Chief, Contact Service.

Tommy Ford Award Inaugurated by Lions

We, the Bulldog Staff of 1960, hereby wish to make known that we have proclaimed this yearbook to be in loving memory of Tommy Ford, a member of this same staff, who was tragically killed in a car-train collision on Main Street, February 16, 1960, on his way to practice for a March of Dimes benefit basketball tournament. When Tommy left, part of us went with him.

Only seventeen but with high ambitions, Tommy headed the senior class as its president. A top athlete, Tommy lettered three years and served as Co-captain for the '59 Bulldogs. Tommy was one of the finest Christian boys in RHS and attended the First Christian Church faithfully. Loved by all ages, he served as an Explorer Scout and Assistant Scoutmaster for the Boy Scouts. Tommy took part in both the junior and senior class plays and helped make them the success that they were.

Now that Tommy is gone, we must look to God and draw our strength from Him that we may go on as Tommy would have done in the face of overwhelming difficulties.

Tommy Ford Award Inaugurated by Lions

The Ranger Lions Club voted Thursday at their regular luncheon to establish the Tommy Ford football award in memory of Thomas Eugene Ford, the 1959 recipient of the Lions Club outstanding letterman award.

The Club also agreed to present the Lions Club Award, which is passed on from year to year to winners of the award, to the parents of Tommy Ford, permanently retiring the existing trophy, and inaugurate in 1960 the Tommy Ford Football award to be given each year to the outstanding Letterman on the Ranger Bulldog football team.

The Lions Club awards are given each year to the outstanding letterman and outstanding squadman on their qualifications as leaders on and off the football field. Their willingness to give their utmost ability in a sportsman-like attempt to win in everything they participate in. Their ability to bring out in other boys this same sportsman-like conduct.

The Lions Club members all agreed that Tommy had in every way come as near filling these qualifications as any boy could come. Therefore they were all in agreement that it would be an honor for the Club to inscribe the name Tommy Ford Football Award upon the trophy that they awarded each year.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

In 1946 The United States Senate ratified United States membership in the International Court of Justice, commonly referred to as the World Court.

At that time an Amendment by Senator Tom Connally, who was then the Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, was adopted to provide that the World Court should not have jurisdiction in our domestic affairs and that the United States should reserve its right to determine whether a case was of a domestic nature or should be submitted to the World Court for a decision.

Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota has now introduced a Resolution which would repeal this reservation.

President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Herter, and Attorney General William P. Rogers, are now urging the Senate to pass the Humphrey Resolution and repeal the Connally Amendment.

The repeal of the amendment would permit the World Court to rule on legal disputes that they decided were within their jurisdiction. With the repeal of the Connally

POLITICAL CALENDAR

Here are some important dates on the 1960 political calendar:
April 16—Former non-residents or minors who shall have since become eligible to vote must obtain exemption from county tax collector by this date.
April 17 to May 3—Absentee voting for first primary.
May 7—First primary election and precinct conventions.

World War II, it is not likely to buy it with capitulations of this sort.

Since, under the Constitution only the United States Senate ratifies treaties and agreements of this nature, the matter will not come to the House of Representatives. Every citizen should hope that our Senate will not repeal the Connally Amendment.

The Secretary of State also said that such matters as immigration, tariffs, and the Panama Canal should come under International Court's jurisdiction. That is exactly what might happen should the Connally Amendment be repealed.

Attorney General Rogers said that repeal would "greatly enhance the prestige" of the United States. It should seem clear to anyone that the surrender of national sovereignty to possibly five individuals who may be from Communist nations is a terrible price to pay for "prestige."

If this Nation does not have prestige by this time, by reason of all it has done for the world since

Pony Express Centennial Will Be Celebrated In Nation During 1960

This year's centennial celebrations of the famous Pony Express will be largely a tribute to American youth, Postmaster Marene Johnson observed today.

Most of the daring riders of the famous mail-carrying service which began April 3, 1860 between St. Joseph, Mo. and Sacramento, Cal. were very young men—many of them in their teens, the postmaster noted, in giving these Pony Express facts:

An advertisement of the time in San Francisco, seeking Pony Express riders, stated: "Wanted—young, skinny, wiry fellows no over 18. Must be expert riders willing to risk death daily. Orphan preferred. Wages $25 a week . . . Young men entering Pony Express Service, operated by the famous transportation firm of Russell, Majors & Waddell, were given a Bible.

Riders were required also to take this oath upon entering service:

"I hereby swear, before the Great and Living God, that, during my engagement, and while I am an employe of Russell, Majors & Waddell, I will under no circumstances, use profane language; I will drink no intoxicating liquors; that I will not quarrel or fight with any other employe of the firm, and that in every respect I will conduct myself honestly, be faithful to my duties, and so direct all my acts as to win the confidence of my employers. So help me God."

The youthful Pony Express riders consistently outran Indian pursuers while carrying the mails through the wilderness, often through blinding snows and howling storms, and in extremes of heat and cold. Only one Pony Express rider was lost to the Indians.

Johnnie Fry (or "Frey" according to some writers) is credited by some accounts with being the first Pony Express rider to leave St. Joseph on April 3, 1860. He was little more than a boy when he entered the Express service. He was a native Missourian, weighing less than 125 pounds. An early account states:

"Though small in stature, he was every inch a man. His run was from St. Joseph to Seneca, Kansas, about 80 miles, which he covered in an average of 12 1/2 miles an hour, including all stops. He later entered the Union Army, and was killed in 1863 in a hand-to-hand fight in which he was killed with five assailants before he was killed himself.

William "Bill" James, a native Virginian, was credited at 18 with being one of the best of the Pony Express riders over a route in Nevada through some of the most savage Indian country.

According to Alexander Majors of the Russell, Majors and Waddell firm, in a book published in 1899 "Seventy Years on the Frontier", William F. "Bill" Cody was a Pony Express rider, in his early teens when he entered the famous mail service. Cody is credited with many notable feats, including a ride aggregating 384 miles without any real rest period, which is referred to by some authorities as probably the longest continuous performance of its kind—not only in the annals of the Pony Express, but in any other courier service in history.

None of the Pony Express young men had an opportunity to grow old in the Service. In October, 1861, the cross-country telegraph was completed and the Pony Express was terminated. Despite its short life, it was credited with many important contributions, including the fact that it helped to keep East and West joined during the early crucial days of the Civil War.

Although the Pony Express was short lived, it will be very much alive this year.

Many pageants, celebrations and other activities memorializing the Pony Express are planned for this 1960 Centennial year.

As a part of Centennial year celebrations, the Post Office Department will issue a new Pony Express commemorative postage stamp next July 19 at Sacramento, together with a new commemorative stamped envelope to be issued at St. Joseph.

On the same date, as one of the major memorial events scheduled during the vacation season this year, the National Pony Express Centennial Association plans to reenact the Pony Express runs, starting out—just as the Pony Express did approximately 100 years ago—from both St. Joseph and Sacramento.

The reenactments are expected to require about 3 days each for both the eastward and westward runs. The original Pony Express runs, across the 1966 mile original route, required an average of about 10 days, although it frequently took less time. Lincoln's inaugural address in 1861, for example, was carried by the Pony Express in less than 8 days.

Depreciation of Livestock Is Tax Deductible

Farm and ranch operators should not overlook annual depreciation on purchased livestock. Depreciation is allowable on breeding or dairy animals used in the business, points out C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Observation show that most farm and ranch operators claim depreciation on buildings and equipment, but few take this deduction on livestock claims for allowable depreciation are of greater tax consequence when cost of animals is well above their "salvage" value.

Generally, salvage value is the estimated market price of animals after they have passed normal "useful life" to the taxpayer, says Bates. Thus, replacement cows or bulls bought for relative high prices would be entitled to greater depreciation allowances normally. Higher than average prices prevailed during late 1958 and through 1959, so this item is very important for animals bought in this period.

For example, let's assume that 10 young cows were bought in January 1959 for $225 each and the operator plans to use them for six years, barring disease or accident. Let's use $75 per head salvage value for this group; therefore, $150 may be depreciated for each cow over the 6 years. This

JACK THE RIPPER

Jack the Ripper Story Brings Horror Of Baffling Crimes to Local Screen

Of all the real-life mysteries that have puzzled the brains and gripped the hearts of men and women throughout the civilized world, none has been more baffling than the identity of the criminal who terrorized London under the self-bestowed name of 'Jack, The Ripper.'

He thus signed a letter written in blood, gloating over the series of killings which shocked the world and which the law was never able to avenge. For the Ripper, after months of gruesome deeds, vanished without a trace.

The weird story has been brought to the screen in the new Embassy presentation, "Jack, The Ripper," released by Paramount Pictures which will open Thursday at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland. Authentic in background and essential facts, the film suggests a startling solution of the problem which left Scotland Yard guessing, as it has been guessing ever since.

While the Ripper was in full career he had the public in a state of panic. Famous literary figures, as well as thousands of ordinary folk, wrote to the newspapers, offering advice, criticizing the police, speculating as to the nature of a man capable of such atrocities.

A Conan Doyle, who has recently written his first Sherlock Holmes yarn, "A Study in Scarlet," wrote to Scotland Yard recommending the use of the Bertillon fingerprint system, then new. He believed the killer was a physician or medical man. (Doyle himself was a physician.)

Another rising author, George Bernard Shaw, gave a characteristic twist to the situation by writing:

"If the habits of duchesses only consisted of their being decoyed into Whitechapel backyards, a single experience in slaughter would mean $25 per cow or $250 annually for the 10 head. If greater numbers are involved, the depreciation deduction would be proportionately greater.

If allowable depreciation is not claimed each year, the operator loses the deduction. Every ranchman or livestock producer should discuss this question with whom-ever makes his tax report. Many tax accountants have devised sheets for keeping continuous depreciation records on the same animals for a period of years, the specialist says.

Chapter 9 in the Farmers' Tax Guide explains details concerning depreciation on livestock and other assets. Get a copy from your county agent, advise Bates, and check on depreciation along with any other tax questions you may have.

house anatomy on an aristocratic victim might fetch in a round half-million pounds for improving conditions and save the necessity of sacrificing our women of the people."

The police in desperation tried everything, including bloodhounds and the masquerading of stalwart detectives in women's dresses; but the Ripper fell into none of the traps. He simply stopped killing women, and the city could sleep again without the nightmare of his hidden menace.

"Jack, The Ripper" was produced, directed and photographed by Robert S. Baker and Monty Berman from a screen play by Jimmy Sangster. The original story was written by Peter Hammond and Colin Craig. In stellar roles are Lee Patterson, Eddie Byrne, Betty McDowell and Ewen Solon.

Retired Civil Employees In Fifth Year

Feb. 13, 1921 14 men who had retired from the various branches of the Federal Civil Service system met in Washington, D. C. and organized the National Association of Retired Civil Employees. In January 1960 the organization counted its one hundred thousandth member. Chapters are located in the Philippine Islands and Cuba as well as throughout the fifty States and the District of Columbia.

Again in February—1956 this time—several Federal retirees in this area met to organize the local Chapter which was designated Eastland County Chapter No. 555. There are 19 names on the Chapter. Through changing fortunes there are now twenty-one names on the Chapter roll. Of these, nine members attended the most recent meeting Feb. 13.

At that meeting the present corps of officers was re-elected to serve for the coming year. They are Mrs. T. F. Morrow, Gorman, president; J. E. T. Peters, Cisco, vice president, and Mrs. Eunice F. Gallagher, Eastland, secretary-treasurer.

All retirees from the Federal Civil Service and any interested persons are assured a hearty welcome at the meetings of the local Chapter.

Both Wanted To Pay Dear Mrs. Post: Recently I spent the weekend with a friend of mine. On Saturday evening we went to a movie which we both wanted to see very much. When we arrived at the theater and my friend was paying for the last, I hurried to the window and bought two tickets. I thought this was one thing I could do to show my appreciation of her hospitality. However, she resented my doing this and insisted upon reimbursing me saying that she was the hostess. Will you please tell me if I was wrong in doing what I did, or was she wrong in insisting upon reimbursing me for a kindly gesture.

Mr. Arthur Judson Will not take place Shower Present From Her Fiance Dear Mrs. Post: If a group of friends are giving a bride-to-be a shower, is it considered proper, or necessary, that the girl's fiance send a present to this party? Answer: No, certainly not.

Table Manners Dear Mrs. Post: In the restaurant near the college where I teach, the majority of diners indulge in two practices to which I strongly object. One of these is "dunking" and the other is crumbling a handful of crackers into one's soup. Most of these people presumably come from good families and some of them maintain that you approve of these practices. I maintain that good breeding will not admit to any behavior in a public eating place which might possibly be found revolting to others, nor can I believe that you would condone such actions. Perhaps I am hypersensitive, but the sight of the nauseating soggy messes I am daily exposed to completely destroys my appetite.

Notifying Guest of Cancelled Wedding Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter was to have been married in two weeks, wedding invitations were sent out and all preparations made. Two days ago she and her fiance had a terrible row and the wedding has been cancelled permanently. This is a very embarrassing position and I would like to know what to do about notifying the guests that there will be no wedding. Answer: Send the following notice to the whole wedding list: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith regret to inform you that the marriage of their daughter Mary Ellen to Married Bridesmaids Dear Mrs. Post: Are married women ever bridesmaids? A friend of mine is planning to be married soon and is having four bridesmaids. Two of them are married and have children. This strikes me as very odd. Is it right or wrong? Answer: It is entirely correct for a bride to choose bridesmaids from among her young married friends.

A Thank-You Present Dear Mrs. Post: A guest stayed at my house for a few days and sent me a box of chocolates in appreciation. Is it necessary for me to send her a thank-you note for the chocolates? Answer: You must thank her not out of politeness but to let

Talking is all right

... if you are running an office or courting your best girl, but when it comes to buying land or town properties don't let the owner talk you out of an abstract. The fact that the seller has owned the land for many years doesn't mean necessarily that his title is good. The safest plan is to get an abstract before you buy. The cheapest property on earth is too high if the title is faulty.

Annual Sweetheart Banquet Is Held In Methodist Church Friday Evening

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the First Methodist Church held their annual Sweetheart Banquet Friday, February 12, at 7 p.m. in the church. The Oriental theme was carried out in the decorations. As the guests arrived, Mrs. Allen Rushing and Mrs. D. C. Arterburn, dressed in Japanese kimonos and obi, served them hors d'oeuvres in the sidewalk cafe which was at the entrance to the Tea House of Methodist Youth.

Three other workers in the Youth Division, Misses Lively Brown, Charles Gann, and John Boen, were also dressed in Japanese costumes.

Dinner and dessert were served in the Tea House, which was decorated with multi-colored Oriental lanterns from Okinawa. The banquet tables, covered with white cloths, were centered with pagodas. Paper-folded lanterns and boats on styrofoam bases were on opposite ends of the tables. The speaker's table was centered with a large pagoda, flanked by two lantern trees. Japan's blossoms floated in a large pink bowl in front of the pagoda. Two tall lighted candles completed the arrangements.

Individual places were marked with Oriental place cards, hand-painted in Japan and Japanese scenes. Tiny umbrellas of multi-colored paper stood in heart-shaped gumdrop bases. The white covers of the programs were decorated with hand-drawn lanterns with different Oriental scenes. The inside of the programs read from back to front in Oriental fashion. The menu was printed in Indonesian. A pair of chopsticks at each plate was given to each guest as a souvenir. Pale green napkins were decorated with a pagoda, a lantern and a man in gold, and three Chinese characters (abbreviations for Methodist Youth Fellowship) in black.

Other decorations in the Tea House included a cherry tree near the throne, and Oriental writing on multi-colored crepe paper on the support columns throughout the room. A large folding screen, covered in crepe paper, was decorated on one side with Oriental fans and on the other side with "Methodist Youth Fellowship" in English as well as Indonesian.

The menu included chicken salad, rice and gravy, corn, green beans, bread, butter, apricot hales with whipped cream, almond cookies, fortune cakes, and iced tea.

Richard Wilhelm gave the invocation. The welcome address was given by Linda Drennan. "The Children's Marching Song" was played by the Intermediate Band, after which Miss Marian Poyner played a piano solo, "Wing Foo". A musical skit was presented, with Sandra Allsup as pianist, Carol Rushton as a Chinese doll, and Jolly Brown as a Chinese boy. Music used in the skit was "China Doll." Another piano selection, "China Town", was given by Glenda Wilson.

Alice Founds, mistress of ceremonies, made several announcements.

Jess Weaver, superintendent of the church school, was in charge of the coronation. Donna Drennan and Chuck Garrett were crowned King and Queen of the Senior Youth. Intermediate King and Queen were Patricia Townsen and Jimmy Drennan.

Following the coronation, Theodore Yap sang "China Boy," accompanied at the piano by Miss Allsup, and "I Know I Can't Forget," accompanying himself on the ukulele. "Autumn Leaves" was sung by Becky Brown. Karen Killingsworth played a piano solo, "Japanese Sandman," and accompanied Jimmie Mae Miller as she sang "How Great Thou Art."

Theodore Yap, speaker for the evening, gave the address on "Love." The benediction was given by Chuck Garrett.

Ninety-one guests attended.

KEEP SOME OF THE SNAP IN SNAP BEANS

Should snap beans be boiled with ham or other seasonings for a long time? No, according to a leading Miami Beach chef. Nutritionists will agree, pointing out over-cooking destroys some food values.

It's understandable why snap beans get special attention in the luxury hotels along Miami Beach. It is only a short distance from the beach to Florida's winter vegetable belt where each year enough bean plants are cultivated to make a strip an acre wide from Florida to the state of Washington. Florida is the major producer of snap beans for the fresh market and during the winter months virtually all fresh snap beans come from the Sunshine State.

Most housewives tend to think of snap beans as something to boil. Not so, according to a leading Miami Beach chef. He feels snap beans should be sautéed in butter only long enough for them to lose a little moisture. The beans should be served firm to the bite but not hard. They should retain their vegetable crispness. Figure a pound of beans for four or five servings and 1/2 stick of butter to the pound. Wash beans thoroughly and cut into two inch lengths. Drain beans and allow them to reach room temperature if they have been refrigerated. Melt butter in skillet and add beans. Turn gently with spatula until all are coated with butter. Cover skillet and cook over medium flame until beans just begin to turn translucent.

For Snap Beans Americana (pictured above), sauté beans with a cup of cooked wild rice. Garnish with hearts of fresh tomatoes and mushroom buttons. Snap beans panache are sautéed with fresh lima beans. In snap beans almondo, sautéed beans are tossed with mushroom pieces and almond slivers. Sauté beans with chopped onions and fresh tomato hearts.

Snap bean shoppers should look for beans that are clean, fresh in appearance, firm, crisp, tender and free from blemishes. It is also wise to select beans of approximately the same maturity so they will cook uniformly. Snap beans should not be held in the refrigerator for long periods for they lose in both color and taste.
