A Small City with Big Industry - A Bright Spot for New Industry

Commissioners And T&P Officals To Meet Again March 21

As I See Ranger

By Gene Townsend

The Lone Cedar Country Club's nesday night and decided to plant grass on the greens at the golf ourse about April 15. No definite plans were made as to an opening date for the course, but it was anticipated by the committee that the course would be ready for opening by mid-summer.

The Eastland Lakeside Country Club anticipates the changing of their annual invitational nament date due to conflicting dates with other tournament dates. Lakeside for years has enjoyed a comparatively non-competative date the last weekend in June for their tourna-ment, but this year there has been two more clubs announced their tournaments on the same Odessa pro-am. The Lakeside Country Club is calling a directors meeting to decide whether or not to change the date of their tournament.
