Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Garrett Are Circle Hostesses

On Monday, March 7, at 3:30 a.m., Circle No. 3 of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. T. D. Stewart, with Mrs. C. L. Garrett as co-hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the circle chairman, Mrs. Stewart. Mrs. A. J. Ratliff led the opening prayer.

Mrs. E. L. Danley was program leader for the day. A playlet, entitled "How Total Is My Stewardship?" was presented by Mmes. Danley, Ratliff, B. H. Peacock, Arthur Deffebach, and Stanley McAnelly. The group sang two hymns "Take My Life" and "Three Christian Life."

Mrs. J. D. Drennan gave the devotional on "Mt. Gilead As A Symbol of Our Stewardship."

The report from the District Conference was given by Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. McAnelly. The minutes were read and approved. Reports were made by the treasurer and the cheer fund chairman. Sixty-four visits were reported.

Mrs. E. H. Mills led in the closing prayer.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. Drennan, Deffebach, Danley, J. C. Hagar, Floyd Killingsworth, J. T. Killingsworth, E. H. Mills, McAnelly, Peacock, W. A. Robinson, Ratliff, Arthur Landers, Nora Roach, C. N. Adams; one visitor, Mrs. Gladys Mahoney; and the hostesses, Mmes. Stewart and Garrett.

WSCS Circle Meets Monday at First Methodist

Circle No. 1 of the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the First Methodist Church Monday March 7, at 3 p.m. for the monthly meeting. Mrs. J. A. Bates led in the opening prayer.

The meditation, "How Total Is My Stewardship?" was given by Mrs. F. S. Pearsall. The scripture reference was Matthew 16:19-23. She gave a prayer for all stewards in Christian work.

Mrs. J. E. Matthews was in charge of the program on stewardship. The main theme, "How Total Is My Stewardship?" was based on I Corinthians 1:1-4. Mrs. Matthews said, "Doing things and obtaining results in the Christian life is the worthwhile effort. Giving and sharing strengthens a Christian life."

Mrs. J. L. Turner discussed "Stewardship of Time." "Stewardship of Possessions" was given by Mrs. Gaston Dixon. Mrs. Matthews gave the final part on the program, "Stewardship of Talents—Empty Pews Make Powerless Pulpits," taken from Philippians 2:14, 15. The program was concluded with two hymns, "Take My Life and Let It Be" and "Saviour Thy Dying Love."

Mrs. Dixon, circle chairman, presided at the business session. The minutes were read by the secretary. Sick reports were given, and cards were sent to the shut-ins. Sixty-five visits were reported.

If your house burns down—

If your home should burn, it is still going to cost you a lot more than you probably think it will to rebuild it or buy a new house.

Don't keep thinking about what your house cost you in the first place, maybe years ago. Building costs and home values have risen greatly in recent years. Think: how much would it cost me to duplicate it tomorrow?

If you are like the average home owner, you are still probably way under-insured and should talk to us mighty soon (maybe this minute) about increasing the amount of your fire insurance coverage.

Week of Prayer In Progress at Second Baptist

The Women's Missionary Society of the Second Baptist Church is observing the Annie Armstrong Week of Prayer for Home Missions March 7-11. Theme for the week is "Behold Your God."

The program theme for the Monday afternoon meeting was "Prepare Ye the Way Through Teaching." Mrs. F. E. Caraway, prayer chairman, was in charge of the program. The call to worship was given by Mrs. Eddie Squiers. The opening hymn was "O Worship the King." The prayer for the missionaries on the prayer calendar for the day was led by Mrs. Ed Scarbrough.

The program was presented in the form of a panel discussion, with Mrs. Caraway as leader. Panel members were Mrs. Albert Williams, H. H. Sutton, Mae Rodgers, Joe Calder, and Walter Mitchell. The program was closed with a season of prayer for the work of the home mission board.

The closing meditation was given by Mrs. Carl White, followed by the closing prayer by Mrs. Caraway.

Those present were Mrs. Mitchell, Squiers, Williams, J. D. Nichols, Betty Bush, Caraway, Verna Hartsfield, White, Bob Wymer, Sutton, J. B. Baker, W. B. Crabtree, Scarbrough, Everett Noth, Mary Wheat, Calder, Rodgers, and H. F. Duncan.

"Lift Up Thy Voice Through Preaching" was the theme at the Tuesday program. Mrs. G. P. Rose, prayer chairman of the Aletha Fuller Circle, was in charge. Mrs. J. B. Baker gave the call to worship. The prayer for the missionaries on the prayer calendar for the day was led by Mrs. Ed Scarbrough.

The prayer for the missionaries on the prayer calendar for the day was led by Mrs. Ed Scarbrough. The call to worship was led by Mrs. Mitchell. The group sang two hymns, "O For A Thousand Tongues" and "O Worship the King." Those having parts of the program were Mrs. Nichols, Charlie Beck, Wheat, and Ed Scarbrough. Mrs. Wymer gave the closing meditation. Mrs. Mae Rodgers led the closing prayer. There were sixteen members present.

The WMU ladies also had charge of the Wednesday night services, and presented the program entitled "Reveal His Glory." Theme of the Thursday meeting was "Bring

Good Taste

By Emily Post

A Fussy Eater
Dear Mrs. Post: I suppose I am a very fussy eater, but I find it impossible to eat certain foods. When invited out to lunch or dinner should I take tiny portions of the foods I cannot eat and leave them untouched on my plate, or refuse them when passed around the table?

Answer: If you are really not going to eat the food it is pure waste to take it and leave it on your plate. You don't have to eat everything that is served, but let the hope you can eat some of the food.

Hand-Written Formal Invitations
Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to give a reception for my son and his bride when they come here for the visit. I would like to word the invitations in the third person but do not want to go to the expense of having them engraved. Would it be proper to write them by hand, or must a third person invitation always be engraved, or printed?

Answer: Formal invitations written on note paper stamped with your address are entirely correct. They must be carefully written and the wording and spacing should be exactly the same as it would be if engraved.

A Mature Widow's Wedding Announcements
Dear Mrs. Post: When a widow (mid-forties) is marrying again, is it improper for her mother to send engraved announcements of this wedding, or at this age is it more suitable for the bride to send her own? After my husband's death I moved back home with my mother and I thought that under the circumstances it might be all right to use her name.

Answer: While the use of your mother's name would not be a serious error, it is in much better taste for a widow bride—especially one of mature years—to join with the bridegroom in announcing their own marriage.

Cake Brought By Visitor
Dear Mrs. Post: I had a baby two weeks ago. A friend of mine came over one afternoon to see the baby. She brought her very lovely present which I opened and thanked her for. She also brought a home-made cake. I put the cake aside and thought we would have it for dinner. My husband thinks that I was very rude in not making a cup of coffee and serving the cake while she was here. Will you please tell me if this was necessary?

Answer: It was not necessary, but it would have been the hospitable thing to do.

Should He Forget To Send Flowers
Dear Mrs. Post: Very soon our school will be having a dance. It is one of the important dances of the year. All of the girls encourage to this dance and it is customary for the boys to bring them. The boy I have invited to go with me is from another town and I am afraid he will not think to send me flowers. I don't want to be the only girl at the dance without flowers. Would it be proper for me to write and tell him about this?

Answer: I'm sorry you can't ask him to send you flowers. The only thing you can do is to have substitute flowers ready in the refrigerator in case he brings you none. You can tell him that your father has given them to you if he seems embarrassed at not having sent you flowers.

Long Overdue Thank-you Notes
Dear Mrs. Post: My sister was married six months ago and up until now has not sent thank-you notes for any of her wedding presents. There is no real reason for it, except that she kept putting it off from one day to another and now she feels it is too late to write them. Shouldn't thank-you notes still be written even though six months have elapsed?

Answer: I think she should just immediately write every one of those overdue thank-you notes. Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-32, entitled "Table Linen," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E. P., care of (this newspaper), P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Bell Syndicate)

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

PROPERTY RENDERING DEADLINES NEAR

April 1 will be the deadline for most Texans to render their property to certain taxing agencies. State laws require all real and personal property to be rendered for taxes on or before prescribed dates. Those who fail to comply can blame only themselves for the money loss they may consequently suffer.

Some Texas cities set their own tax deadlines. These are the cities of more than 5,000 population which have incorporated under the "Home Rule" provisions of our statutes. All other cities are governed by the general laws of Texas.

In towns operating under the general laws property must be rendered for taxes between January 1 and April 1 each year. A number of home rule cities set up the same requirements in their ordinances, while others prescribe different periods.

For state and county tax purposes, property must be rendered to the County Tax Assessor by April 30, and homestead exemptions must be claimed by the same time.

In some localities a third taxing unit is involved—the independent school district. In other places school taxes are collected by the city or county. In addition, some localities have water, irrigation, or levee districts which assess and collect taxes. Make inquiry as to where these various taxes are assessed, and as to applicable deadlines for rendition.

What property must be rendered for taxes? If Texas laws were strictly enforced, we would be required to render to all taxing units nearly every piece of real and personal property which we own, down to the very clothing on our backs. An exception is the constitutional exemption of $250 worth of household furniture. However, no taxing unit carries their requirements this far, and it will be necessary to inquire of each tax assessor when rendering your property whether specific types of property are ordinarily rendered in that locality. Some cities and counties collect ad valorem taxes on automobiles, television sets and other personal items, while others ignore practically all personal property. Business and professional men are generally required to render all merchandise, automobiles and equipment.

If property is not rendered by the tax payer, it may then be placed upon the unrendered tax roll, and the taxing agency places such valuation thereon as it considers fair. One advantage of rendering your property is that you can set your own valuation. Then, if the count or city decides a higher valuation is in order, you will be given an opportunity to appear before a board to explain why the higher figure should not be used in computing your taxes.

Thereafter, an appeal to the courts is possible in some instances. Generally speaking, however, the courts are unable to strike out a valuation unless the agency or board has acted arbitrarily and placed on the property a valuation higher than that placed on comparable property owned by others. If you do not render, the valuation set by the taxing agency is final.

Remember these facts: You may need to render your property at three or more different tax offices. Ask tax assessor if in doubt concerning the deadline or the rendering of specific personal items.

A Comparison of School Systems Is Theme at 1920 Club Meeting

The 1920 Club observed Texas Day at its meeting March 3, at the Community Club House, with a program on Comparison of School Systems in the United States and Europe.

After a business session, at which Mrs. Carl Black, Jr., presided, Mrs. G. B. Rush, program chairman, presented Mrs. R. A. Jameson, leader, who introduced the guest speakers. G. B. Rush, Superintendent of the Ranger Public Schools, spoke on Secondary Schools. Dr. Theodore Nicksick, Jr., gave a discussion of colleges of the United States and Europe.

The following members were present: Mmes. C. E. May, Sr., R. A. Jameson, Louis Conn, Charles E. Gann, Theodore Nicksick, Jr., Ven O. White, G. B. Rush, C. B. Pruet, M. L. King, Floyd Killingsworth, J. R. McLaughlin, W. C. Lammus, Carl Black, Jr., R. L. Hamrick and Judson Hardy.

American Legion Meets Monday At Legion Hall

Men of the American Legion held a regular business meeting Monday evening, March 7, in the American Legion Headquarters.

First Vice Commander Don Butler presided at the business meeting, in the absence of John Hart, Post Commander, who is ill.

The outstanding business for the day was membership. The post quota is 120 members. They now have 96 paid-up members and are striving to meet their goal. Everyone eligible is asked to pay their dues to Commander Hart, Vice Commander Butler, or Max Star, Finance Officer. The members are anxious to reach the quota by the spring convention to be held in Breckenridge.

Plans were made to celebrate the American Legion's 41st birthday. They will be assisted by the members of the auxiliary. A short program will be presented. All Legionnaires were asked to bring food for the supper, which will be held March 15 at 6:30 p.m. in the Legion Hall.

Commander Harty asked that all members meet at the Hall Monday night at 6:30 to make arrangements for the party.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served, and games of dominoes were enjoyed by all. The next business meeting will be March 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Luncheon Club Meets at Lone Cedar March 4

The Ladies Luncheon Club of the Lone Cedar Country Club met Friday, March 4, for luncheon and bridge. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Roscoe Hopper, chairman, and Mmes. W. J. VanBibber, Betty Wolford, T. C. Wylie, and James P. Morris.

The luncheon tables were centered with arrangements of yellow acacia in milk glass containers.

The door prize was won by Mrs. George Rushton of Ranger. Mrs. E. E. Crawford of Ranger made the high score in bridge, and Mrs. Morris Newham of Ranger won the Bingo prize.

The next meeting will be held Friday, April 1, with the women from German as hostesses. This will also be Guest Day at the club. The next Guest Day will be July 1, 1960.

American Legion Auxiliary Has Meeting Monday

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary met Monday, March 7, in the Auxiliary Club Room.

Mrs. Fred Moseley, president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Howard Elwood gave the report on cards sent to the sick and bereaved.

Delegates elected to attend the spring convention in Breckenridge were Mmes. Moseley, Vivian Butler, Edgar Ward, Elwood, Marion Smith, and Miss Electra Pearson. Alternates are Mmes. Dora Croom, J. F. Byas, Barney Salter, John Hart, and A. H. Powell.

Plans were made to assist the Legion with their birthday party March 15. Each lady is asked to bring a vegetable and a salad dish. The members will meet at the Legion Hall Monday night to complete arrangements for the party.

Following the meeting, refreshments of coffee and apple cake were served by Mrs. Luna Lane. The next business meeting will be held April 14 at 7 p.m.

Mrs. T. C. Wylie Is Hostess to Circle No. 2

Circle No. 2 of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Monday afternoon, March 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. T. C. Wylie.

Miss O. B. Poyner, circle chairman, presided at the business meeting. She also gave the devotional, entitled "How Fatal Is My Stewardship?" and quoted scripture from the 6th chapter of Matthew. In presenting the program, Mrs. W. F. Creager said that the purpose was to challenge members to re-evaluate their personal stewardship and to remind them that everything they have is a trust from God to be used for the greatest good of all mankind.

Miss Electra Pearson discussed "The Definition of Stewardship," and Mrs. W. J. VanBibber gave "Definition of Stewardship in Time."

Mrs. Creager spoke on "Stewardship of Possessions" and "Stewardship of Talents." In the business meeting, reports were given by the treasurer and the cheer fund chairman. The announcement was made that the study on Luke's Portrait will begin Monday, March 14, at the church, under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Robinson.

The next circle meeting will be Monday, April 4, in the home of Miss Electra Pearson. At that time, the members will bring their World Bank.

Refreshments were served to the following: Miss Electra Pearson and Mmes. R. E. Johnson, Guy Brown, M. P. Williams, Anna Shawfield, Ed Keller, W. F. Creager, W. J. VanBibber, C. E. May, Beverly Dudley, O. B. Poyner, J. T. Robinson, and the hostess, Mrs. T. C. Wylie.

Former Pastor of Catholic Church Is Seen on Film

The Rev. Father Canille Bozmas, former pastor of St. Rita's Catholic Church of Ranger and now a missionary in the Dominican Republic, was seen by his parishioners on a film shown in the school hall Sunday, March 6, after the evening services.

Rev. Alphonso Rigouts, Superior of the Immaculate Heart Mission who was on a short visit in Ranger, gave a talk about Father Bozmas' life in Tamayo, in the Dominican Republic and showed movies taken there on his recent visit to the mission.

All those present were delighted to see their former pastor appear repeatedly on the screen. The movies gave them a good idea of the country, the people, and the hardships of missionary life. The extreme poverty of this mission field made them better appreciate this great country and count their blessings.

The film was also shown to the St. Francis Church in Eastland and the Holy Rosary Church in Cisco. The great interest aroused by this parish event, on such short notice, proves that Father Bozmas has many friends in these communities.

Ed Staub's Will Hold Open House Sunday Afternoon

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Staub of 1119 Cooper Street, Ranger will hold open house from 2 until 5 p.m. Sunday, March 13, at their home. The event will be held in celebration of their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary March 10. All friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend. Also, in honor of this special day, the couple will place an arrangement of flowers in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church for the services this Sunday.

Born After His Daddy Died—

... did little Tommy cloud the title to his mother's home? Or suppose little Tommy was born out-of-wedlock would this affect the titles to the properties owned, if any, by his father, or mother, or both? These and many other heirship problems may arise in any title which the lawyers or the courts must finally decide. The act, which presents the facts and conditions surrounding such circumstances, is and always has been, the most important part of any real estate transaction.
